PATENTS

NOTICE TO INVENTORS.

HERE Was never a time in the history of our country when the demand for inions and improvements in ne arts and nces generally was so great as now. The veniences of man-kind in the factory and k-shop, the household, on the farm, and ficial life, require continual accessions to appurtances and implements of each in er to save labor, time and expense. The tical change in the administration of ernment does not affect the progress of American inventor, who, being on the t, and ready to perceive the existing deences, does not permit the affairs of govnment to deter him from quickly conceiv the remedy to overcome existing disancies. Too great care cannot be exerd in choosing a competent and skilful rney to prepare and prosecute an applion for patent. Valuable interests have lost and destroyed in innumerable inces by the employment of incompetent nsel, and especially is this advice appli e to those who adopt the "No patent, no " system. Inventors who intrust their ness to this class of attorneys do so at inent risk, as the breadth and strength e patent is never considered in view of a k endeavor to get an allowance and ob the fee then due. A BROAD INVITATION.

Strike Commission Is Anxious For a Thorough Investigation.

ALL CLASSES WILL BE HEARD

And Plans Devised For Preventing Costly Struggles.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—The commission appointed by President Cleveland to investigate the causes of the recent strike will hold its first meeting at the postoffice building, Chicago, on Aug. 15, and requests railroads, labor organizations and citizens having a personal or patriotic interest in the right solution of the question to be inquired into, and who cannot attend the public hearing, to present their views and suggestions in writing to the commission prior to the public hearing.

The three members of the strike commission adopted the following preamble and resolution setting forth

Its Duties and Purposes:

Whereas, the President of the United States has presented the undersigned a commission to visit Chicago, and such other places in the United States as may be proper in the judgment of the commission, to the end that it may make careful inquiry into the causes of any pending dispute or existing controversies between the Illinois Central Railroad company and the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad company, and ascertain of the employes and hear all persons interested therein, who may come before it, and

Whereas, section 6 of chapter 1063 of the laws of the United States passed Oct. 1, 1888, makes it the duty of said commission to examine the causes of said controversies, the conditions accompanying and the best means of adjusting the same, and to report the result of such examination to the president and to congress, and

Whereas, the questions involved in such controversies affect all interstate railroads and their employes, and

Whereas, it is desirable that the report of this commission and future legislation, if any, upon the questions at issue between labor, whether organized or unorganized, and employers thereof, should be based upon all facts having any legitimate bearing upon such questions, and should be the result only of clear and well-defined public opinions; therefore

Resolved (1) That this commission will meet at the United States postoffice building in the city of Chicago on the 15th day of August, 1894, at 10 a. m., for the purpose of taking testimony in relation to said controversies and to hear and consider all facts, suggestions and arguments as to the causes thereof, the conditions accompanying and the best means of adjusting the same, and as to any legislation or measures which ought to be recommended in regard to Similar Controversies Hereafter.

(2) That all rail oads, labor organizations and citizens, having either a personal or patriotic interest in the right solution of these things and who cannot conveniently attend such public hearing as aforesaid, are requested to present their views and suggestions in writing to the commission at any time prior to the date of such public hearing.

(3) That copies of this resolution be given to the press and be sent to all railroads engaged in the transportation of property and passengers between two or more states of the United States, and to all labor organizations.

(4) That all communications be addressed to the Chairman of the United States Strike Commission, Washington, D. C.

Messrs. Kearin and Worthington left the city immediately after the meeting. Both men will be engaged in doing some work before the investigation actually begins. Kearin intends to visit New York city to secure necessary information desired by the commission, and Worthington will spend some time in Chicago, making arrangements for the meeting of the commission and gathering data to be used in the investigation. Mr. Wright also left the city last night for a visit to Chatauqua, N. Y., where he is to deliver a series of lectures.

Michigan's Republican Nominees.

GRAND RAPIDS, Aug 1.—The nominees of the Republicans of this state are: For governor, Aaron T. Bliss of Saginaw; lieutenant governor, Alfred Milnes; secretary of state, Rev. Washington Gardner; treasurer, James M. Wilkinson; auditor general, Stanley W. Turner; attorney general, Fred A. Maynard. A platform as reported by the majority of the committee was adopted. A resolution favoring the republic of Hawaii and sending greetings to her as such was also adopted.

Strike Avoided.

PROVIDENCE, Aug. 1.—The two-loom controversy that threatened to cause a strike at Lymansville has been settled, the operatives agreeing to work double looms in the present class of work, provided the company would not discriminate against men who were active in the previous strike.

Charged With Criminal Assault.

NEW HAVEN, Aug. 1.—Albert A. Brown, a wealthy farmer in Colchester, is charged with a criminal assault upon Miss Loveland, aged 14. The young girl's brother-in-law, Samuel McDonald, shot and wounded Brown, though not dangerously. Both men are held for trial.

A Disastrous Storm.

PROVIDENCE, Aug. 1.—A thunder storm yesterday afternoon did great damage along shore. The electric light plant at Crescent park was destroyed and three houses were struck at Riverside. Two women were badly burned and roads are washed away.

Shut Off by Mayor Hopkins.

CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—Mayor Hopkins refused the American Railway union permission to parade as a reception to President Debs. Invitations had been sent to all the labor unions in the city asking them to participate, but the invitations have now been withdrawn.

TO REDUCE EXPENSES.

Warships Should Not Have Speed Trials Until Completely Finished.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—The report of the trial board on the recent trip of the Minneapolis shows that the least water on the 44-knot course from Cape Porpoise to Cape Ann was 30 fathoms. The preliminary run from Philadelphia to Boston was made in 17 hours. On account of the necessary preparations for the trial the inspection was not thorough, and the board recommends a second inspection before preliminary acceptance.

THE CRUISER MINNEAPOLIS.

However, the board found some little deficiencies, such as lack of boats, absence of a portion of the cellutoz filling and incomplete pumps and furnishings incident to an incomplete ship. The performance of the machinery was highly satisfactory. The engines ran smoothly, and there was no tendency to heating, excepting the high pressure crosshead journals of the port and center engine, on which water was freely and constantly used.

It would seem that owing to the lack of power or too great reduction of steam by the reducing valve, the requirement that the helm be put hard over from port to starboard in a certain time cannot be fulfilled.

The ship grounded twice, once, on leaving Cramps' yard, for 17 minutes, and on returning, between League island and Cramps', for 11 minutes, but in each case while moving slowly and on a soft mud bottom. The hull, fittings and machinery are strong and well built, with the exception of the steam-steering gear, up to specifications.

Still the vessel is incomplete, entailing much expense, inconvenience and loss of time before putting her into commission. Therefore, the board suggests that hereafter no vessel have her speed trial until completely fitted in all respects, excepting armament, interior fittings and paint inside and out. The ship is believed to be staunch, seaworthy and handy in an eminent degree.

Camden Denies It.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—Senator Camden was before the senate Sugar trust investigating committee. He was shown the photograph of the order for Sugar stock alleged to have been given by him, and pronounced it fictitious. He declared that he had never given such an order.

No Bail For Burke.

AMESBURY, Mass., Aug. 1.—The Burke murder trial came to an end yesterday afternoon. James Whalen, one of the prisoners, was discharged. Michael Burke was held for the grand jury without bail on the charge of manslaughter, in causing the death of Thomas Burke.

Fight Resulted In Death.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Aug. 1.—During a fight between Dennis Carey and Jeremiah Cowhig, coal heavers, the former was knocked down the hold of a steamer and killed. He struck his head on an iron frame work. Cowhig is under arrest. An inquest has been ordered.

On a Trip to Homestead.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—The members of the house committee on naval affairs who have been conducting the armor plate investigation left for Homestead last night, running the chances that the tariff bill will not be returned to the house in their absence.

Charged With Forging.

BOSTON, Aug. 1.—Michael B. McNeil, a bookkeeper, is charged with having forged the name of Wellman, Hall & Co. to an agreement of settlement with A. C. Barron & Co. upon a 25 per cent basis without the knowledge of the former firm.

Got Off Lucky.

LONDON, Aug. 1.—Cantwell and Quinn, the anarchists who made speeches tending to incite people to murder members of the royal family, were each sentenced to six months' imprisonment.

A Welcome Prediction.

BOSTON, Aug. 1.—Indications are of a prolonged cool spell—general cool waves having appeared within observation limit.

A BETTER FEELING.

Butchers More Ready to Invest In Cattle—Hog Market Steady.

Amount of stock on the market:

	Cattle.	Sheep and lambs.	Swine.
Western	2,809	17,433	32,630
Maine	89	40	....
New Hampshire	67	170	142
Vermont	77	999	290
Massachusetts	57	158	14
Totals	3,159	18,710	33,076

Prices for western beef cattle, live weight: Choice, $4.50@4.75 pr cwt; second quality, $4@4.50; third quality, $3@3.50; poorest grades of coarse oxen, cows, bulls, stags, Texans, Colorados, etc., 2@3c pr lb.

Prices for northern and eastern beef cattle pr lb, dressed weight: Choice, 5½@6¾c; first quality, 5@5¼c; second quality, 4½@4¾c.

Hides, tallow, etc—Hides, 4½@5c pr lb; tallow, 3@4c pr lb; calf skins, 75c each; lamb skins, 50c each; sheared skins, 25c each; branded hides, 3c pr lb.

Sheep and lambs—Lambs from the west were ½c easier in price.

Fat hogs—Rulings of the market steady, with western live at 5@5½c l w and a few from the north at 6½c d w. The tendency is to lower rates.

Veal calves—The supply has been light for the past two weeks, which has caused a better feeling at market. The stock was easily disposed of, and prices showed an improvement of ½@1c pr lb, some of the very best being sold at 6c pr lb, with general sales at 5@5½c.

The market this week as regards cattle is in a better condition and there appeared to be some demand, and butchers were a trifle more ready to invest, having disposed of their old stock; not that prices were really better, but the general feeling showed improvement. A fair run of export cattle during the week put in an appearance.

COOK'S OUTLAW BAND

Make a Determined Attack Upon an Oklahoma Bank.

GOT SOME MONEY AND FLED.

A Citizen and One of the Robbers Fatally Shot.

GUTHRIE, O. T., Aug. 1.—Another bank robbery, with all the trimmings of a Dalton raid, was enacted yesterday. As a result one citizen, J. M. Mitchell, a barber, is dead, and one of the outlaws, who gave his name as Ernest Lucas, is dying. Lucas is 21 years of age, and said his comrades were members of the notorious Cook gang that has recently given territory officials so much trouble.

Soon after 1 o'clock yesterday armed men reached Chandler from the east, dismounted back of the Lincoln County bank, and three rushed inside while two stood guard. Two men covered the president, Harvey Lee, and his brother, the cashier, and demanded that they turn over the cash pretty d——d quick, while the third rushed into the private office, where Teller Hoyt was seriously sick, compelled him to walk to the safe and attempt to open it.

Brutal Work of the Robbers.

Though a Winchester was pointed in his face, he could not stand long enough, but fell to the floor and the robber kicked him. The men on guard yelled out it was time to go, and the three men grabbed the money on the counter and ran out to the horses.

In the meantime the guard at the front door had shot and killed J. M. Mitchell, a barber, who attempted to give the alarm. The bandits had scarcely passed out of the city when a posse were mounted and started in pursuit. Twice were the horses shot from under the fleeing men, but they compelled farmers coming to town to give up their mounts and went on.

Finally a battle was fought for nearly 15 minutes, in which one robber was shot through the hip, and the others scattered and disappeared in the hills of the Creek country. The wounded robber gave his name as Ernest Lucas, aged 21, and said the others were the notorious Cook county gang, and he had been with them but a week.

The names of the escaped bandits are given as Bill and Tom Cook, leaders of the gang; Jack Starr and Tulea Jack and a number of the most desperate men in the territory.

High Praise.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—Lieutenant Schuetze of the naval militia bureau has returned from his trip of inspection of the New York and Massachusetts naval militia during the recent drills. He expresses himself as much pleased with the manner in which the drills were executed, and pays a high compliment to the zeal and energy of the militiamen.

They Want a Million.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Aug. 1.—G. R. Tucker, this city; William Caliph and Isaac Tucker, Columbus, and Mrs. Margaret Hawthorne, Newport, Ky., claim $1,000,000 worth of property on Long Island left by a great-grandfather. It is alleged the property was diverted from its proper heirs and they will bring suit to recover it.

Authorities Withheld Facts.

LONDON, Aug. 1.—A dispatch from Vienna says the cholera has been raging for a week in several districts of the duchy of Bukewina. The fact has hitherto been concealed in order to prevent the enforcement of sanitary measures. The authorities, who are responsible for the secrecy, will be prosecuted.

Nabbed In Montreal.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Aug. 1.—Local police have been informed of the arrest in Montreal of George Cliff for circulating Confederate money. He tried to sell Confederate money in this city some weeks ago, but as there is no law in Massachusetts forbidding this, he was not prosecuted.

Was Brought Out Dead.

NEW LONDON, Conn., Aug. 1.—James Brown, aged 40, while watching a boat race, was taken with a fit and fell into the water. Several boats in the vicinity were ready to rescue him, but he never came to the surface until the body was fished out, with life extinct.

Pulling Them In.

PROVIDENCE, Aug. 1.—Charles Simmons of Riverside is making a record as a shark catcher. Two weeks ago he discovered a school of four sharks. Since then he has caught three. The last one weighed 500 pounds, and was 8ft. 5in. long.

The Blucher Assault Case.

PROVIDENCE, Aug. 1.—Jacques Blucher of Pontiac, for assault on his daughter, was held without bail for trial. The girl's mother is said to have already used influence to intimidate her. Her recovery seems almost impossible.

A Lynn Scrap.

LYNN, Mass., Aug. 1.—Andy Watson of Philadelphia and James E. Butler of this city (colored), lightweights, fought six rounds to a draw last night at the Kirtland clubrooms for a purse of $250.

Thirteen Cars Off the Track.

NEWPORT, Vt., Aug. 1.—A southbound freight was wrecked yesterday between West Burke and Lydonville. Thirteen cars were derailed. No one was hurt.

Arbitration Viewed With Favor.

LONDON, Aug. 1.—The present prospects are hopeful for the adoption of a 25 years' treaty of arbitration between the United States and Great Britain.

Murderer Identified.

LEGHORN, Aug. 1.—Enrico Lucchesi, an anarchist, has been identified as the assassin of Editor Banci, who had offended anarchists in his paper.

Editorial Comment.

THE TAX Collector is the most important officer at City Hall, if one may judge by the size of the office sign. His work will begin shortly.

THE NEW YORKS promise to be dangerous rivals of the Boston B. B. C. They defeated the "Bean Eaters" yesterday and play together again today.

THERE IS a growing feeling of indignation against the city officials at the treatment, or want of action relative to contagious diseases. People feel that they are needlessly being exposed. There was another death yesterday from diphtheria and there are said to be several cases in the city. It is doubtful if there is another city where houses in which is contagious disease are not placard. It is done even in many towns, and people are put on their guard.

Braintree's tax rate is $21.60, while the rates of Randolph, Holbrook and Quincy are all as high or higher.—Brockton Enterprise.

O, NO; Enterprise! Quincy's tax rate never exceeded $17.50. It may go up a little this year, but not very much. Brockton may be a little responsible for even this increase, as it has been held up as a model, progressive city. Improvements cost money, and Brockton's tax rate has been among the highest of the State: $19.70 in 1893 and $18.80 in 1892.

Narrow Escape.

Capt. Boyd, postmaster at Houghs Neck, had a narrow escape from a serious accident Tuesday afternoon at the Quincy depot. He came out from Boston but did not attempt to get off the train until after it had started. He had his arms full of bundles and when he struck the platform he fell and was rolling under the moving train, when Charles H. Penniman with great presence of mind grabbed him and pulled him out of danger. Capt. Boyd is a little too old a man to try and jump from a moving train especially with an arm full of bundles.

Accident to Bicycle Rider.

Mr. Henry W. French met with quite a serious accident Tuesday evening, shortly after 10 o'clock. He was coming up from Houghs Neck on a bicycle when he ran against a tree. He was thrown off, and besides being severely bruised and shaken up, he sustained a fracture of the jaw, a bad bruise over the eye and had his face cut. In fact he was pretty badly used up. He came on, however, to a physician and had his wounds dressed and then went to his home on Bigelow street.

He did not rest very well the balance of the night but this morning was a little more comfortable.

A CLOSE CONTEST.

The Bostons "Saved" Kid Nichols All to No Purpose.

NEW YORK, July 31.—Both teams played great ball, and the contest was close and exciting. Jack Doyle was well enough to cover first base again for the Giants, and his two safe hits sent three runs across the plate. Rusie was very effective, most of the champions' hits being scratches to the infield. Nichols, who had been saved with the idea of pulling New York down, was an easy mark.

ALLEGED INCENDIARY.

Mrs. Taylor Held For the Grand Jury on a Serious Charge.

NEEDHAM, Mass., Aug. 1.—A rather tall, slim woman, with dark hair and dark eyes, confronted Trial Justice Grover in the local courthouse yesterday afternoon. She gave her age as 34 years and her name as Mrs. Susan J. Taylor. She was charged with incendiarism.

Beside her but a few moments before, but absent during her arraignment, was another woman, who was charged with being her accomplice. The latter charge, however, was wholly a subterfuge, as Judge Grover knew that it was upon this woman's testimony that the grand jury would be asked to indict Mrs. Taylor as an incendiary.

The alleged accomplice gave the name of "Mrs. Emma L. Foster," an assumed one. Marshal Whitcomb's deputy, Officer Shaw, and State Detective Pratt think they have made a great catch in Mrs. Taylor. They look for disclosures with which to startle the community.

The prisoner answered all questions readily, and bore the official scrutiny and examination coolly. Only once did she hesitate, and that was when she was asked where her husband was. Then a blush stole almost imperceptibly into her face, she hesitated for a moment, and finally flatly refused to answer.

A portion of the evidence which it is expected that Mrs. Foster will furnish is in effect that, while the two women were tenants of Smith's block in Walpole, on the eve of the Fourth of July, the suggestion was made that the fire be set then and there, and that Mrs. Foster's counsel that it would destroy the whole block and might cause loss of life only prevented its being done.

Deputy Shaw, State Officer Pratt and Inspector Dugan of Boston are in high feather. They feel they have now the necessary strings in hand to uncover one of the most sensational conspiracies to defraud insurance companies that has ever been formed in this state.

Mrs. Taylor was held in $1000 for the September term of the grand jury.

Experiment Proved Fatal.

CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—An explosion in the Dolese & Shepard stone yard and quarries yesterday resulted in the death of three and serious injury of two other persons. All the victims were employes of the Western Electric company, and were engaged in blasting rock. Foreman Rudd was experimenting with a new explosive he had invented, when it became ignited in some manner and caused the explosion.

All that's Yellow is not Cottolene

There's hardly a housekeeper in the country but has heard of Cottolene the new vegetable shortening. It is a strictly natural product; composed only of clarified cotton seed oil, thickened for convenience in use, with refined beef suet—pure and sweet. So considered.

COTTOLENE

Was bound to win, and to drive out lard from the kitchens of the world. When housekeepers wish to get rid of the unpleasant features and results of lard, they should get Cottolene, taking care that they are not given cheap counterfeits with imitative names, spuriously compounded to sell in the place of Cottolene.

It's easy to avoid disappointment and insure satisfaction. Insist on having Cottolene.

KITE UP 4,000 FEET.

Great Interest in Prof. Eddy's Experiments on Blue Hill.

All day Tuesday Prof. W. A. Eddy was kite flying on Blue Hill, and succeeded in sending a kite a mile above sea level. For three hours in the morning they had refused to go above 600 feet, and up to three o'clock it required jockeying to keep them up, though they were then 1664 above the top of the hill or 2314 above sea level. A little before four the end of the struggle came, when a big ten-foot kite was bent on and took up the fleet of seven to a height of 3550 feet, the highest reached so far. During this time they had travelled completely around the horizon, though the wind on the hill had continued to blow between the east and the southeast. The kites then registered a pulling strain of close upon 25 pounds, in a wind of not more than 16 miles velocity.

At 4 40 when the kites had been climbing for another half hour and probably had reached an altitude of 4000 feet above the hill, or over a mile above sea level, a 30-mile gust ran the strain to 45 pounds and the cord snapped, the fleet sailing away to be afterwards recaptured in the woods.

A great variety of winds were noticed about 2 P. M., when the six kites were found to be flying in six different stratas of air, each of which had a different motion. The kites described a quarter circle looking up. The highest one was flying in westerly wind, the second in a southerly, third southeasterly, fourth easterly, fifth west of south and the lowest in a northerly wind. In all his experience Mr. Eddy said he never saw so peculiar a combination of winds.

WARD SIX PLAYGROUND.

Atlantic Wants One and Thinks There Should be No Delay.

Editors of the Daily Ledger:

The citizens of Ward Six are wondering when the Park Commissioners will move in the matter of a playground for this ward. Last January two largely attended meetings were held and there certainly was no doubt of Ward Six wanting a playground and wanting it bad. A vote was taken after three hours discussion which resulted in the meeting deciding that the lot known as "the pit," was the proper site for a playground for this ward. Since that time nothing other than rumors of haggling over price has been heard of Ward Six's playground.

Isn't it a little queer that the ward that showed the most interest in securing a proper site for a playground should be the last to get it. Ward Five, with the splendid Merry Mount park in its midst, gets still another playground on Third Hill.

The commission has taken by right of eminent domain the site for Ward Two's playground, and as they have that right and no scarcity of lots suitable for the purpose, there would seem to be no earthly reason for further delay.

The "pit," through the kindness of Mr. Nickerson, has been used as a public playground and until now the need of a playground has not been felt. During the past week Mr. Nickerson has been obliged to give notice to the parties who have been using the land owned by him that after August 4th he will have to refuse further permission for games, etc., as he intends building right away. This may be termed "bluff," but it deprives Ward Six of the only place that its citizens can enjoy playing or seeing their favorite games played. The time for the commissioners to act would seem to be now, and either buy or take the "pit" or some of the other sites proposed. This will probably bring out something concerning the "professional ball player," but as those people have had their "innings" and accomplished nothing, perhaps they will give others a show and sign name.

WHY NOT THROUGH CARS?

Local Circuit Endorsed But a Much Grander One Suggested.

Editors of the Daily Ledger:

Your suggestion of a circuit in Quincy Centre for all the electric car routes of the city is an excellent one. It would be a great convenience to many if they could take or leave the cars of all the routes on either Hancock, Elm or Washington streets. But there seems a still better plan. There is a demand for through cars without changes and waits at Quincy Centre and Neponset. The Quincy cars should run to Boston without change.

A few days ago the writer was at Marblehead, sixteen or seventeen miles from Boston on the North Shore. With plenty of time I thought I would enjoy the electric car ride to Boston, expecting to make a few changes of cars. Five cents purchased a ticket to Swampscott, but there was no change there, and two tickets were then purchased to Boston for twenty-five cents. The expected change in Lynn was unnecessary and the car sped on through Revere, Chelsea and Charlestown, reaching Haymarket Square in Boston inside of two hours. The distance, as above stated, was sixteen or seventeen miles and the fare for the two hours' ride but seventeen and one-half cents.

How is it on the South Shore? Wollaston and Quincy passengers have to make one change at Neponset, while Quincy Point and South and West Quincy people have to make an additional change at Quincy. When the connection is made through Braintree it should be possible to ride in one car from Boston to Brockton and beyond, possibly through Whitman, Abington, Rockland, the Weymouths and Quincy Point back to Quincy, and thence via South and West Quincy and East Milton into Boston again. Wouldn't that be a grand circuit? E. A. B.

Says S. C. Weeks of Melrose, Mass.: "I had been troubled with chronic diarrhoea for over a year when I received a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which I used and it gave me great relief. I then procured a fifty-cent bottle and took about two-thirds of it, and was cured. I have taken some twice since when I had a looseness come on and it stopped it at once. I hope it will help others as it helped me. I feel very thankful to Mr. Stearns, the druggist, for telling me of this remedy and shall be glad to have this letter published."

THE SENSIBLE VIEW.

WOMAN'S SENSITIVE ORGANISM

Does Not Permit Her to Do What Men Do, and She Ought Not To Try.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

You might as well know that you have a wonderfully sensitive and peculiar organism. You ought to know that from the moment the girl is changed into a woman, the matter of first physical importance to her is the regularity with which nature purifies her system. That all through life this is of the very first importance to her, and that neglect in this direction means misery in every direction.

Stop and reason out what happens when nature is balked in its efforts. The blood takes up the poisonous particles, carries them to the lungs, and decay follows. It carries them to the heart, and before long the organ is weakened, and your courage and strength vanish. It carries them to the brain, and before long the wildest fancies run riot, you think you have every known disease.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the one remedy whose power over this killing disease is acknowledged throughout the world.

It destroys poisonous germs, cleanses the system, strengthens the womb, and makes a strong, hopeful, happy woman out of a physical wreck.

Mrs. J. A. Rice, of Florence, Ky., whose portrait we are permitted to publish, is only one of many thousands who owe their health to the Vegetable Compound, and are doing all they can to help other women to believe that the same health and happiness will come to them with the use of Mrs. Pinkham's medicines. She says:

"I suffered eight years from woman's early troubles. I could find no permanent relief until, one year ago, I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Relief then came with it almost immediately, and at this time I am a well woman.

"I absolutely know, not only by my own experience, but by others also, that it is a harmless and sure remedy for irregularities, suppressed or painful menstruation, weakness of the stomach, sick headache, and female complaints generally.

JAY GOULD'S NEPHEW.

The San Francisco Schoolboy Whose Name Cost Him Perhaps a Fortune.

In one of the public schools of this city is a bright eyed lad of 15 years known as Fred Gould. No one to look at him would ever dream how near he came to being the favorite nephew of the late wizard of Wall street or what a petty trick of fortune it was that cheated him out of a million or two.

Fred, whose full name is Jay Frederick Gould, is the son of Abram Gould of St. Louis, the only brother of Jay Gould. Abram is a railroad man in the employ of the Texas and Pacific and Missouri Pacific. He never traded on his relationship to the millionaire, so that he is little known outside his immediate circle of railroad acquaintances.

Fred first saw the light of day in St. Louis. The happy father notified his brother in Wall street that he had a son and heir, and Jay, in a spasm of fraternal feeling, asked that the child should be christened Jay Gould, Jr., and promised that he would do something handsome for his namesake.

The father detested the junior, which he thought his boy would have to write after his name for a good many years, so he compromised by calling the boy Jay Frederick.

The lad was left motherless at an early age, but he received a mother's care from the wife of Captain Austin of the Pacific Mail company, who practically adopted the boy. Jay Frederick was brought to Oakland, where he lived until the Austins moved to this city. Recently the captain died at Panama, but the widow lives here and sends the boy to school. The boy has the Gould features and complexion. He is very slow in his movements and in his speech, but he inherits the business sagacity of his uncle, as he generally gets the better of any of his playmates in a trade. He also shows a shrewdness beyond his years in purchasing any articles.

When his uncle died, Mrs. Austin was very anxious to learn whether the millionaire had done anything for his nephew. She knew that Jay had been wroth because the father had not followed his instructions in naming the boy, but she thought the millionaire might have relented. The will showed that he gave Abram $25,000, but there was absolutely no mention of the little boy whose middle name knocked him out of a chance of a fortune.—San Francisco Chronicle.

FOR RICH STUDENTS ONLY.

Princely Quarters at Yale, With the Rent Rates For the New Year.

In the list of rentals in the Yale dormitories no change has been made in the rooms that have been occupied, but students have been watching to see at what prices the accommodations in the new buildings—Vanderbilt, White and Berkeley—would be placed. Durfee has been considered the rich man's dormitory, but Vanderbilt appears destined to take that distinction immediately.

Berkeley will be a cheaper priced dormitory, as its 40 rooms bring an average of $2.37 per week, with the highest priced ones, of which there are four, at $5.50 a week. White will average $4.11 per week for its 52 rooms, but it has eight at $1 per week each, from which the price rises to one at $10.

The cheapest room in Vanderbilt will be rented at $4.50 a week without board. From that the prices rise to $10 a week each for 16 rooms, an average of $8.15 per week for the 66 rooms in that building. In each case the cost will be divided between two students who occupy the same suit. The university will receive $19,359 from Vanderbilt hall, $9,120 from White and $3,420 from Berkeley for each college year week.

The net return from Vanderbilt hall will probably be greater than those of any other college dormitory in the country, but it is stated strongly that the net proceeds will not exceed 1½ per cent of the cost of the building and land. Many people are wondering why, in view of the fact that the Vanderbilt is evidently to be a rich man's home, the corporation did not place the rentals higher, to get a greater return from the building. The rooms would all have been taken at whatever prices were placed upon them, and the corporation could obtain a large revenue from this building.—New Haven Palladium.

Lemons In Summer.

In hot weather a lemon sherbet or water ice is refreshing and wholesome. The juice of an orange is a great addition to this ice, and the proportions may be varied. Four large, juicy lemons make quite a quantity when an orange is used. Peel the yellow rind of the lemons very thin, and from the orange also, and put to boil in a porcelain saucepan, with 1¼ pounds of sugar and a quart of water. Boil five minutes and set away to cool. When cold, strain into the lemon and orange juice. Strain the whole into the freezer and freeze until stiff; then take out the beater and the whites of three eggs beaten to a stiff froth. Beat well together, cover closely or put into a mold, repack and set away to harden.—Philadelphia Record.

Life.

Ah, what is life? So brief at best—
A waking between rest and rest;
An insect's trail along the sand;
A gem's bright flash upon the hand;
A wave line traced on ocean's shore,
Just rippled there, then seen no more;
A breath upon a frosted pane,
A moment warmed, then chilled again;
The shadow of a cloud that stays
Until obscured by passing haze.
Canst think of aught more brief, more fleet
To image forth Time's flying feet?
Yet in the "shadow," in the "breath,"
Our love awakes, which knows no death,
And life, which seems so brief to be,
Is crowned by immortality!
—Christian Union.

Our Country.

Ours is a glorious land!
Let all her children stand
Firm, stanch and true,
Quick heeding all her calls,
Strong building all her walls,
Their strength renew.

Our fathers fought and bled,
Gladly their lifeblood shed
In her dear cause.
Let not their children fail,
When foes the land assail,
To guard her laws.

All have a part to play,
And each one must display
Some virtue grand.
If we would heroes be,
Worthy a land so free,
True must we stand.

Stand for a nation great,
Stand for a noble state,
Whose laws are just.
Long may the dear flag wave
O'er land and people brave
Who in God trust.

AGREEMENT IN SIGHT

Senate Conferrees May Meet House Men Half Way.

IRON, COAL AND SUGAR ITEMS

Will, It Is Thought, Be Satisfactorily Disposed Of.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—The prospects of an agreement on the tariff are much improved. For the first time in many days the house Democratic conferrees came from the meeting with the statement that previous irreconcilable differences were in process of amicable adjustment. With much satisfaction the house members stated to their associates that the senators had shown a disposition for the first time to meet the house half way.

As to the time of reaching a full agreement, there was a difference of opinion. One house conferree said it would probably be this week. Another thought it would be "soon." Chairman Wilson would not even admit that the understanding had gone far enough to warrant the prediction of a speedy report. He said, however, that the conferrees had at least done business, and made progress, which was more than could have been said of the past meetings.

Senators Not So Hopeful.

The senate conferrees came from the meeting without showing the hopefulness of the house members. They said the conference was as far from an agreement as it had ever been. While there was this conflict among those thoroughly informed of the inside workings of the conference, the general belief prevailed that the hopefulness of the house conferrees had some substantial foundation.

One of the conferrees said that while no final agreement had been made on iron, coal and sugar, yet that sufficient had been developed in conference to show that an agreement could be reached on these three most important items which would be acceptable to the senate and house conferrees and to the house of representatives. Whether it would be acceptable to the full senate this conferree expressed some doubt. In this connection it developed that Senator Caffery of Louisiana, who has been most active on the sugar question, had a long, and it is said satisfactory, conference with Speaker Crisp and Chairman Wilson.

While the house conferrees were so pleased at the bright outlook, their senatorial colleagues contented themselves with saying that while they were hopeful of reaching an understanding, nothing had transpired in conference to base this hope upon. They declare that on the essential items of disagreement the conferrees are as far apart as they ever were.

May Be Decided by Monday.

An increased hopefulness that a bill will be agreed upon is noticeable, however, upon the part of Democratic senators who are not members of the conference.

One of the leading conservative senators said as he was leaving the senate chamber last night that the tariff bill would be finally agreed upon by next Monday, and he added that the bill would be virtually the senate bill. Yesterday developed the possibility of a report of partial agreement, and while this report at first appeared as a vague rumor, its probability was afterward confirmed by senators not members of the conference committee. The fact that the conferrees had the schedules other than those relating to sugar, coal and iron ore under consideration yesterday is one fact in confirmation of the report.

Congressional Work.

The only feature of interest in the proceedings of the senate yesterday was a discussion on the site for a new government printing office, which came up during the consideration of the sundry civil bill. The general deficiency appropriation bill was reported to the senate and placed on the calendar, as was also the house bill to provide a uniform system of bankruptcy. Mr. George gave notice of his intention to call the latter up for consideration next Monday. The report of the conference committee on the Indian appropriation bill was adopted. Agreement was had on some of the senate amendments, and disagreements on others, and the bill was sent back to conference.

Most of the time in the house was spent discussing the senate amendment to the agricultural bill appropriating $1,000,000 for the destruction of the Russian thistle in the northwestern states. The house instructed the conferrees to further insist on its agreement to this amendment. Among the bills passed was one authorizing the secretary of the navy to loan to states for the use of naval militia such vessels as are not required or suitable for general service.

A Serious Family Row.

PROVIDENCE, Aug. 1.—James Leonard is under arrest for assaulting his wife with an ax. Leonard is a cripple, and remonstrated with a married daughter yesterday because she insisted that he should support her. The mother came to the defense of the daughter, when Leonard assaulted her.

Charged With Assault.

ST. PAUL Aug. 1.—Frank Keegan, Richard Morrissey, Daniel Griffin, Ed Reeder and Andy Reitz, labor leaders, are under arrest, charged with assault on a train a few nights ago. Other arrests are expected.

Keg of Gold Stolen.

PARIS, Aug. 1.—A keg containing $50,000 in gold, which was part of an amount of $2,500,000 shipped from New York on La Touraine July 21 by Lazard Freres & Co., was lost or stolen between Havre and Paris.

Must Stay Out.

CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—A number of strikers formerly employed in the service of the Chicago and Grand Trunk Railroad company applied for work yesterday, which the officials of the road refused to give them.

Attempted Murder and Suicide.

LONDON, Aug. 1.—Sydney Bennett, an American, fired a pistol at Edith Andrews, with whom he had been living, and then shot himself. Bennett is seriously injured. The woman was unhurt.

Strike Is Off.

HAMMOND, Ind., Aug. 1.—East Chicago branch, No. 169, A. R. U., has decided to call the strike off on the Chicago and Calumet Terminal railway.

A JAPANESE VICTORY.

The Flower of China's Naval Fleet Sent to the Bottom In a Fight.

SHANGHAI, Aug. 1.—Another battle between the Chinese and Japanese fleets was fought July 30. After a fierce fight the Chinese ironclad man-of-war Chen-Yuen, the largest and most recently built ship in the Chinese navy, was sunk, and two Chinese cruisers were captured by the Japanese.

The Chen-Yuen was a sister ship to the Ting-Yuen, both being armor-clads of 7400 tons displacement, carrying 14 1-2 inches of compound armor at the water line. Their powerful batteries include four 12-inch guns, protected by an armored breastwork, and two smaller Krupps. They are also furnished with 11 Hotchkiss cannon and tubes for Whitehead torpedoes. Each has two 8 1-4 inch and 6-inch Krupps in her main battery, with a secondary battery of Hotchkiss revolving cannon and Whitehead torpedoes.

Armour Cuts Wages.

CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—The wages of the men employed in the ham department of Armour's packing house were reduced 15 cents a day yesterday, and they were told that they might strike if they wanted to. It is not believed that they will do so.

Governor Smith, Henry E. Burnham and Irving W. Drew were appointed ballot law commissioners of New Hampshire.

Two deputy collectors and four storekeepers and gaugers were removed by Collector of Internal Revenue Donovan of Boston.

An unknown man was struck by a train at Albion, R. I., and instantly killed. The body was mangled beyond recognition.

Mayor Gilroy of New York predicts that the election of a Republican governor now would mean the overthrow of Democrats from power.

NOTICE TO INVENTORS.

THERE Was never a time in the history of our country when the demand for inventions and improvements in the arts and sciences generally was so great as now. The conveniences of man-kind in the factory and work-shop, the household, on the farm, and in official life, require continual accessions to the appurtances and implements of each in order to save labor, time and expense. The political change in the administration of government does not affect the progress of the American inventor, who, being on the alert, and ready to perceive the existing deficiences, does not permit the affairs of government to deter him from quickly conceiving the remedy to overcome existing discrepancies. Too great care cannot be exercised in choosing a competent and skilful attorney to prepare and prosecute an application for patent. Valuable interests have been lost and destroyed in innumerable instances by the employment of incompetent counsel, and especially is this advice applicable to those who adopt the "No patent, no pay" system. Inventors who intrust their business to this class of attorneys do so at imminent risk, as the breadth and strength of the patent is never considered in view of a quick endeavor to get an allowance and obtain the fee then due. THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY, John Wedderburn, General Manager, 618 F street, N. W., Washington, D. C., representing a large number of important daily and weekly papers, as well as general periodicals of the country, was instituted to protect its patrons from the unsafe methods heretofore employed in this line of business. The said Company is prepared to take charge of all patent business entrusted to it for reasonable fees, and prepares and prosecutes applications generally, including mechanical inventions, design patents, trade marks, labels, copyrights, interferences, infringements, validity reports, and gives especial attention to rejected cases. It is also prepared to enter into competition with any firm in securing foreign patents.

PATENTS

FOR INVENTIONS.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuable inventions because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With the view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys, and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, we have retained counsel expert in patent practice, and therefore are prepared to

Obtain Patents in the United States and all Foreign Countries, Conduct Interferences, Make Special Examinations, Prosecute Rejected Cases, Register Trade-Marks and Copyrights, Render Opinions as to Scope and Validity of Patents, Prosecute and Defend Infringement Suits, Etc., Etc.

If you have an invention on hand send a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be at once advised as to the best course to pursue. Models are seldom necessary. If others are infringing on your rights, or if you are charged with infringement by others, submit the matter to us for a reliable OPINION before acting on the matter.

Horace Baker, Alleged Expert Forger, Wanted In Many States.

WORKED THE RELIGIOUS DODGE

Which Greatly Aided Him In His Operations.

VINELAND, N. J., Aug. 2.—The arrest here of Horace D. Baker, alias a dozen other names, on a charge of forgery, is an important one, and will probably put a stop to his operations for a while. The prisoner's right name is Robert E. Hawey.

Some time in the 80's he is said to have served a term of imprisonment in the California state prison, after which he went to Montana and from there to Topeka, where, under the name of Robert Hale Alexander, he claimed to be engaged by the publishing house of Rand, McNally & Co., of Chicago.

Here he connected himself with the order of Good Templars, Y. M. C. A. and other religious and charitable organizations, and it is said married the daughter of a very respectable family. His criminal operations extended over several western states, notably Montana and Colorado.

In 1889 he was arrested for forgery at Washington and sentenced to three years' imprisonment. After his release he continued his criminal career, committing forgeries in Elmira, Cleveland, Chicago and several other places. He usually by entering into correspondence with some minister or officer of some religious organization in the city where he proposed to operate. He then followed up this correspondence with a visit.

He is well versed in the ritual of the order of Good Templars, understands the Bible thoroughly, is well acquainted with Christian Endeavor work, conversant with books and authors, and the apparent sincerity of his addresses and prayers at religious meetings always brought him a host of friends, from whom he soon picked out someone to introduce him at the bank he proposed to swindle.

He then deposited a small amount, and for a short time kept a running account, and finally deposited a forged draft, against which he would draw and then disappear. The prisoner is wanted by the police throughout the United States, and already requisitions are being prepared for him in several states.

Opposition Staid Away.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—The threats of the Unionists in the house of commons to take no part in the committee report stages of the evicted tenants' bill are being carried out, and yesterday the Opposition benches were empty. The occasion was made the most of by the government, and considerable progress in the discussion of the bill was made.

Uncle Sam's Cash Account.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—The total receipts of the United States during July were $34,809,339, and the expenditures $36,648,582, a deficit for the month of $1,839,243. The receipts for customs aggregated $8,427,338; from internal revenue, $25,200,487; miscellaneous, $1,181,513. The expenditures for pensions amounted to nearly $13,000,000.

Postponed For a Year.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—The Army of the Cumberland has postponed for one year the reunion which was to have been held at the Chattanooga battlefield in September. The dedication of the field which has been acquired for a government park occurs in September, 1895, and it is thought best to hold the reunion at the same time.

Two Surprises.

ALBANY, Aug. 2.—The railroad committee of the state constitutional convention will report favorably the amendment forbidding any public official to accept a railroad pass. The committee on suffrage will report adversely on all the woman suffrage amendments.

Kaffirs Got the Worst of It.

PRETORIA, Aug. 2.—Chief Malaboch, who has been giving so much trouble to the authorities of the South African republic, has surrendered. Many of the Kaffirs were killed and injured in the various attempts which they made to escape from the Boers.

Receivers Render Their Account.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 2.—The account of the receivers of the Philadelphia and Reading railroad for June shows a balance on hand at the beginning of July of $823,080.58. The coal and iron accounts showed a balance carried forward to July 2 of $397,513.97.

Captain Price Acquitted.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—The charges against Captain Price have been dismissed. The evidence failed to sustain the charges of neglect of duty in permitting a gambling house to be open in his precinct.

Wedded a Soubrette.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—Joseph Hart, the comedian, and member of the theatrical firm of Hallen & Hart, was married yesterday to Miss Caroline DeMar, the leading soubrette of the Hallen & Hart company.

Senate Figures Shaved.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—The conferrees on the river and harbor bill have reached an agreement. The report, it is said, will show a considerable scaling down of the senate amendments.

OMAHA BUTCHERS IDLE.

Packing House Managers Will Not Agree to Demands of Employes.

OMAHA, Aug. 2.—Eight hundred men employed in the packing houses at South Omaha joined the butchers' strike yesterday. All the houses were affected, and only a few cattle and hogs were killed. Several hundred more butchers quit the packing houses in the afternoon, making the number involved 1300, and indirectly double that number. The situation is serious, as all the plants must soon close and cut off Omaha's meat supply.

At the Cudahy plant there are about 700 men out. The place is practically deserted, although there was a small force at work in the beef and hog killing department. About 200 head of cattle were killed yesterday.

Just before noon the committee called on the Cudahy house and submitted a scale of wages and a proposition as to what the men desired to have. It means a general advance in all classes of labor. The committee also visited all of the other houses, and submitted the same proposition to the managers. Inasmuch as there is one section which states the men would not go to work until all grievances had been settled in Chicago, St. Louis and Kansas City, it was unnecessary for the managers to say whether or not they would accept it.

The managers of the packing houses are greatly exercised over the situation. The demands are: First, that all employes be reinstated to their old positions without prejudice; second, we, as part of the Butchers' National union, do refuse to work until grievances are settled in Chicago, St. Louis and Kansas City; third, any man laying off for a day and another man put in his place shall receive said wages for doing so Close to Eight Millions.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—The total increase in the general deficiency appropriation bill made by the senate committee on appropriations over the house bill is $2,905,187, making the aggregate appropriation carried by the bill $7,910,219.

Held In $1000 Each.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 2. — John Keepe, Walter McCue and Henry Dresbach were bound over in $1000 each. They were leading strikers at Hamilton, where they attempted to wreck an excursion train July 4.

Hamburg Warehouse Burned.

HAMBURG, Aug. 2.—An immense warehouse on Grosse Reichenstrasse, containing stores of cotton, wine, piece goods, furs and feathers, was destroyed by fire. The loss will largely exceed 1,000,000 marks.

BUENOS AYRES, Aug. 2.—Jabez Balfour, the much-wanted fugitive ex-member of the British parliament, has been surrendered to representatives of the British government.

CHANDLER'S QUERIES

Concerning the Dominion Coal Company of Nova Scotia.

A COMPROMISE ON THE TARIFF.

Both Sides Feel That Concessions Must Be Made.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—The main question before the senate yesterday was the sundry civil bill, which was discussed at odd moments throughout the day, with the result that a great many important amendments were adopted. Final action on the bill was not reached, however, owing to the large number of amendments proposed.

It was found by the conferrees yesterday that they had a great many questions to go over and agree upon, even after the main points in dispute are settled.

It was stated by the house conferrees that they had not made as much progress as they had hoped. The agreement when it comes will be a compromise, as both house and senate feel that the concessions will have to be made. On the great questions of difference—coal, iron ore and sugar—there has been no agreement, although it was understood that different propositions were made and rejected yesterday.

The senate conferrees still take the position that they have nothing to compromise on sugar, but it is stated that a counter proposition is to be made to the house of this schedule. In this connection a significant and private conference was held last night, as near as can be learned, by Senators Brice, Smith, Murphy, Jones and Vest.

It is understood that the sugar schedule was the subject under discussion, and the amount of concession which will be yielded by the senators who have the bill in charge was finally decided upon.

The Tariff.

It was stated by one of the Democratic senate conferrees last night that there was a possibility of reaching an agreement on the tariff bill about the end of the week, with a probability that the bill as finally agreed on would be reported on Monday.

The house bill to exempt the articles of foreign exhibitors at the interstate fair at Tacoma from tariff duties was passed.

A resolution (which went over) was introduced by Mr. Chandler directing the special committee now investigating the charges of bribery against senators to extend its inquiries so as to determine whether any officers of the government are interested in the Dominion Coal company of Nova Scotia, and whether these officers gave any assurances that the tariff duty on coal would be repealed, and if so, whether they were taking steps to carry out these assurances.

The report of the conferrees on the bill requiring certain railroads in Oklahoma to establish stations at certain county towns, announcing disagreement, was made. A motion to recede from the senate amendment (providing that an election should be held to fix the county seats) was agreed to—24 to 20—after a prolonged and interesting debate.

Funston Defeated.

The house spent the whole day debating the Moore-Funston contested election case from the Second Kansas district. Mr. Funston, the Republican contestee, made a speech in his own behalf. The minority resolution, declaring Moore the contestant, not entitled, and Funston, the contestee, entitled to the seat, was defeated. Eight Democrats voted with the Republicans in favor of Funston. Owing to the lateness of the hour the vote on the majority resolutions to seat Moore, the contestant, were postponed until today.

The Pure Food Bill.

Mr. Hatch's pure food bill will be favorably reported to the house, the agricultural committee having so voted. Under the authority of congress to regulate commerce, the bill proposes to prohibit the introduction into the United States from abroad or the transportation between states of adulterated food or drugs, under heavy penalty of fine and imprisonment. The term drug is held to include all medicines for internal and external use, and food includes all articles used for food or drink. They must be neither adulterated nor misbranded.

Loss Will Reach Over $1,500,000.

CHICAGO, Aug. 2.—The lumber district of Chicago was last night visited by one of the most disastrous fires in its history, and the loss will foot up $1,595,000, although it will be 24 hours before the damage can be estimated with accuracy. Ten concerns were entirely cleaned out by the flames, and everything contained in their yards has been utterly destroyed. Five firemen were hurt. The fire is still burning.

Greenhalge First.

BOSTON, Aug. 2.—Governor Greenhalge's private secretary has received a telegram from Colonel Benjamin S. Lovell, saying: "I find I have been misrepresented by some papers. Convey to Governor Greenhalge my assurance that under no circumstances am I a candidate as long as he desires to be governor of Massachusetts."

Praised the President.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Aug. 2.—The state Democratic convention nominated Benjamin S. Liddon for justice of the supreme court. Resolutions were adopted reaffirming allegiance to Democratic principles as promulgated by the Chicago platform, and recognizing the unswerving integrity and patriotism of President Cleveland.

Mr. French Today.

Mr. Henry W. French of Bigelow street, is in bed today, and truly looks as if he had been knocked out. It was a serious accident with which he met, and his head is all bandaged up.

In addition to his fractured jaw on the right, the sight of his left eye is endangered.

Mr. French was not on his way home at the time but was taking a bicycle ride from Houghs Neck on a friend's bicycle; several had taken turn. He went as far as the causeway, and in turning run into a fire alarm pole.

He says he was not rendered unconscious, but realized at once that his jaw was broken. He bound it up with his handkerchief and rode to Quincy, to the doctor.

Dr. Hunting dressed his wounds requiring over an hour and it was 2 A. M. before Mr. French reached home. Naturally at that late hour his widowed mother was alarmed and as he could not speak, it was fully half an hour before he could make himself known and gain admission, and then he was a sight to behold.

His friends at Houghs Neck wondered at his failure to return but did not learn of the accident until they read of it in Wednesday's LEDGER.

Canal Street Improvement.

The city authorities are so proud of their work on Canal street that a large marker with this inscription has been inserted in the fancy stone wall over the brook on the southerly side. The date is in large figures, and the other lines curve around it:

* * * * * * * * *
* W. A. HODGES, MAYOR. *
* 1894. *
* W. N. EATON, *
* COM. PUBLIC WORKS. *
* * * * * * * * *

The street is open for travel, but the steam roller is still at work and a great improvement is being made.

FALLON IN COURT.

Charged With Interference at Fire of His Property.

HE ALSO THREATENS ASSAULT.

A Motion to Quash the Complaint Causes Delay Until Saturday.

Ex-Councilman Fallon is a man without a muzzle, and is as independent as he is fearless. It makes no difference to him if the city officials are of the same political belief as himself, he is not backward in expressing his views.

Monday evening there was a fire in the old shed owned by Fallon & Sons. On the arrival of the fire department that evening Chief Engineer Williams seeing the smallness of the blaze ordered the men not to lay any hose but to put it out with the hand chemicals.

This they attempted to do but Mr. Fallon tried to prevent them and began scattering the old boards about which tended to spread the blaze. It is also alleged that he used abusive language and called the department some pretty hard names.

The next evening Mr. Fallon visited the Central station and it is alleged, continued his abuse, calling them wooden heads and threatening assault.

A warrant was then swore out by the chief engineer and Mr. Fallon was arraigned this morning.

Counsel for the defendant immediately filed a motion to quash the complaint on the ground that it was not properly drawn. He also submitted cases in support of his motion.

Counsel for the government was not prepared to argue the point and asked for a continuance until Saturday to argue the motion, which was granted.

If the motion to quash is overruled on Saturday, a day will then be fixed for trial.

The Overland Monthly was never brighter or more attractive than it is in the August number. "As Talked in the Sanctum," the charming department that has become such a feature of the magazine since Mr. Wildman become editor, this month takes up the question of the great strike of the American Railway Union; and while he and his colleagues, the Poet, the Contributor, the Reader, and the Parson, ramble on in their usual happy-go-lucky style; there is a substratum of forcible dead-in-earnest English, on the suicidal policy adopted by local authorities toward the strikers. They also blame the papers.

BROTHER TO THE RESCUE.

Mrs. Taylor Is Released Upon the Payment of $1000 Bonds.

DEDHAM, Mass., Aug. 2.—A sturdy-looking farmer walked into the office of the clerk of courts, and, planking down $1000 in bills, demanded the release of his sister. This explains how Mrs. Susan J. Taylor, accused of incendiarism, is now enjoying temporary freedom, to fight for a continuation of which she will be called upon to make the battle of her life when the grand jury meets in this town next month.

The brother, Bernard W. McDowell, came all the way from Conway, a distance of 114 miles, in response to the telegram which the chief of police of Needham sent to her relatives. The McDowells have money, and it is claimed that Bernard could have given a much larger amount of security, should the court require it.

As each day passes, the police are getting evidence which will be hard for Mrs. Taylor to explain. She does not care to explain, and the relatives are of an equally reticent mind. Thus far the McDowells have preserved silence regarding the charges against their family name, but they propose to defend it at all events when the proper time comes.

A Whitecap Episode.

OAKDALE, Ky., Aug. 2.—Oscar Morton shot and killed Hiram Wilson, near here, yesterday. The cause of the shooting was a whitecap whipping, when several women of questionable character were severely whipped. One of the women was a friend of Wilson's, and learning that Morton was among the whitecaps, he swore revenge. Morton had been warned, and when Wilson put in an appearance Morton killed him instantly.

The Americans are taking no part in the struggle in order to enjoy naval protection.

A Mixed Ticket.

RALEIGH, Aug. 2.—The Populist convention nominated W. T. Faircloth (Rep.) for chief justice; D. M. Furches (Rep.), Walter Clarke and H. G. Conner (Dems.) for associate justices of the supreme court. A CRAZY STONECUTTER.

Quincy Man Reported to Have Visited White House to See President.

A Washington dispatch to the Journal says: Thomas Cadogan, a crazy stonecutter from Boston or Quincy, Mass., is all the information that can be obtained from the last crank to visit the White House. He called Wednesday morning, and in an excited manner told Officers Ellis and Hollinberger, "I want to see the President."

"What for," queried the policemen quietly.

"They want to put me under ground. See?" And I want to tell the President about it, and you must not stop me," replied Cadogan nervously.

A telephone call brought a patrol wagon in short order, and the man was carried to the Third Precinct Station. Some crank papers were found in his pockets, making it appear that Cadogan wanted to secure the President's permission to "line" the Capitol building. He is a stone mason.

He has called before at the White House, but was tractable and was persuaded to go away. In a note he left for the President, he complained that the watchmen kept him from discussing matters of importance with Mr. Cleveland.

Cadogan is unknown in this city, and the name is not a familiar one. The city gets a little cheap notoriety, and the granite industry an "ad."

Reasonable Doubt of Its Truth.

A few days ago a dispatch was printed in the papers stating that William L. Guptill of Gouldsboro, Me., had been thrown from his carriage and killed, the details of the accident being also given. Thursday The Journal received this note written below the printed dispatch: "Mr. Editor—The above was clipped from a late paper. Yours truly, William L. Guptill." It is evident that County Commissioner Guptill is very much alive, and it is also evident that his bright wit sees the superfluity of more comment than the signature at the end of his laconic note.—Boston Journal.

—"Professor, would you advise me to make a poet or painter of my son?" "A poet—paper's cheaper than canvas."

—"Your sister never wears corsets, I see, what is the reason?" "A simple one; she declines to waist her money."

ONE ON MOSES.

The Scenic Artist of a Chicago Theater Mixed In Spelling and History.

Scenic Artist Moses of the Schiller theater painted the scenery for "The Black Hussar," now on at that house. Mr. Moses has painted the scenery for many plays and operas in his time, but it has never happened that he has been called upon to mount this particular opera before. He was given the scene plot some time ago, and he went to work. A few days before the production Manager Prior ordered a scenic rehearsal, and when the scenes were set he went back on the stage to inspect them. It will be remembered by those who have heard "The Black Hussar" that in the second act, scene of the village square, the diplomatic magistrate is supposed to have arrayed upon the outer wall of his house a reversible picture showing the figures of Czar Alexander and Napoleon. This picture he works by a crank, so that when the French troops appear on the scene he can loyally display Napoleon, and when the Russians arrive he can readily shift to the czar. Well, after admiring the picture of Napoleon which Mr. Moses had made, Mr. Prior turned the crank attachment and swung the affair around. In place of a portrait of Alexander in full regimentals he was astonished to see the figure of a smooth faced, stern looking party, clad in a toga and wearing a vivid green laurel wreath. Turning back to Napoleon, Manager Prior called Moses and asked who it was.

"It's Napoleon," said the artist, "and I flatter myself it's a pretty tidy likeness."

"Yes, it is all right," said Prior, "but who is this supposed to represent?" And he turned the crank.

"Why, that's Cæsar," replied Moses.

"What is Cæsar doing up there?" asked the manager.

"Here he is on the scene plot," answered the artist. "It reads 'Napoleon and Cæsar,' doesn't it?"

"No, it doesn't," said Prior. "It does say, 'Napoleon,' but that is c-z-a-r, czar, not Cæsar. It means Czar Alexander."

Moses then went over to the public library, got a plate of Alexander from Fred Hild, painted out his laureled Cæsar and filled in with the uniformed Alexander which the audiences now see.—Chicago Times.

The Honest Kind

ACKOWLEDGED BY THE HIGHEST AUTHORITY.

IN THEIR 24th REPORT (1893)

make the statement that Sarsaparillas containing Iodide of Potassium are unsafe to use, excepting under the supervision of an experienced physician, and that their continued use tend to impoverish instead of purifying the blood. Also that in many cases they act as a DIRECT POISON, and cause serious trouble, defeating the object for which they are taken.

ALL THE LEADING SARSAPARILLAS were analyzed and found to contain this poisonous chemical in various quantities, EXCEPTING ALLEN'S, which was found entirely free from Iodide of Potassium or other chemicals, and to be purely vegetable, thereby verifying our claim that it is the "HONEST KIND."

This is an unprejudiced statement made by the most scientific body of men in New England as A WARNING TO THE PUBLIC against the use of dangerous and injurious medicines, ALLEN'S is the HONEST KIND, the safe kind, and the kind that CONQUERS DISEASE.

Physicians and druggists unite in its recommendation.

The Growing of a Soul.

Hear ye this parable: A man
Did plant a garden. Vine and tree
Alike, in course of time, began
To put forth fair and pleasantly.
The rains of heaven, the persuading sun,
Came down alike on each and every one.

Yet some trees willful grew, and some
Strong vines grew gayly in the sun,
With gaudy leaves, that even come
To naught, and yet each flaunting one
Did flourish on triumphantly and glow
Like sunset clouds in all their moving show.

But, lo! the harvest found them not.
The soul had perished from them. Mold
And muck and leaf lay there to rot,
And furnished nourishment untold
To patient tree and lowly creeping vine
That grew as grew the husbandman's design.

Hear, then, this lesson; hear and heed:
I say that chaff shall perish; say
Man's soul is, like unto a seed,
To grow into the judgment day.
It grows and grows if he will have it grow;
It perishes if he must have it so.

A JAPANESE APOLOGY

For Sinking the Kow Shing While Under the British Flag.

DETAILED STORY OF THE AFFAIR.

Efforts Were Made to Destroy Surviving Witnesses.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—The Japanese government has wired instructions to the Japanese minister here to offer an apology to Great Britain for firing upon and sinking the Kow Shing while she was flying the British flag.

The minister is also instructed to inform the government of Great Britain that the commander of the Japanese cruiser was unaware until after the fight that the Kow Shing was a British vessel. Captain Galeworthy, the commander of the Kow Shing, together with many others on board the Kow Shing, were saved by the boats of the Japanese warship Nianawa.

The admiralty has instructed Admiral Freemantle, in command of the China station, to prevent troops, arms or munitions of war being conveyed under the British flag to either China or Japan. The admiral is also instructed to guard British lives and interests.

The Japanese government sent a note to the foreign representatives 48 hours before war was declared, to the effect that it was still disposed to consider any peace proposals which might be made that were compatible with the actual situation and with Japan's dignity.

An Awful Massacre.

The Times has received the following account of the sinking of the Chinese transport Kow Shing, from Che-Foo, China:

On July 25 the Japanese admiral, on the cruiser Matsushima Kan, with two other men-of-war in his command, sighted the Kow Shing, which was carrying 1000 Chinese troops for Corea, in Corean waters, 40 miles off Chemulpo. He signalled the Kow Shing to "Stop where you are or take the consequences."

The transport, which was flying the British ensign, promptly came to anchor. The Chinese man-of-war which was consorting her steamed away. The Kow Shing's captain, trusting to the protection of the British flag, refused the advice of the commander of the Chinese cruiser to slip her anchor and run. The Japanese cruiser Naniwa Kan steamed up near the Kow Shing and sent a boarding party to her, with instructions to make a strict scrutiny of the ship's papers. After this had been done, there was some hesitation on the part of the Japanese commander as to the action to be taken under the circumstances.

Finally he peremptorily ordered the Kow Shing's commander to follow with his vessel. Great excitement at once arose among the Chinese troops on board the transport, and they told the English officers of the ship that they would not surrender. They said: "We refuse to become prisoners; we would sooner die here. If you move the ship, except to return to China, we will kill you." They then posted a guard at the anchor chains and allowed no one else to go near them.

Von Hannekin's Able Argument.

The officers of the Kow Shing signalled to the Naniwa, requesting that another boat be sent with an officer. When the boat arrived, Colonel von Hannekin explained the situation to the Japanese boarding officer. He told him that the Kow Shing had left China in time of peace; that there had been no declaration of war; that the vessel was a British ship and sailed under a British flag.

He then urged the impossibility of executing the order of the Naniwa's committee, and explained that the flag should be respected and the ship escorted back to the Chinese coast. The boarding party returned to the Naniwa and a little later the Kow Shing was signalled by the cruiser, "Quit ship as soon as possible." The Kow Shing replied that it was impossible to quit ship.

The Naniwa thereupon flew an answering pennant, steamed quickly and lined up, broadside on, at a distance of about 200 metres from the Kow Shing, and immediately discharged all her guns, comprising two of 25 tons and four of 10 tons.

The excitement aboard the Kow Shing was awful. The troops had begun fitting up a number of small mountain guns, when the Naniwa threw the torpedo. The missile struck a coal bunker and burst one of the boilers, the explosion being terrific, but not sufficient to sink the vessel. The Chinese troops fired on the Naniwa with rifles and small guns, and exhibited the greatest bravery.

Sunk by Fifteen Discharges.

The Naniwa continued to fire her 10-tonners, and soon had the Kow Shing in a badly disabled condition. Many of the Chinese soldiers jumped overboard, and on these the Naniwa rained bullets from her deadly machine guns. The Kow Shing gradually began to sink, and after 15 discharges from the cruiser's big guns she went down in eight fathoms of water.

The troops who remained aboard kept up their fire to the very last, some of their shots being aimed at their own people who were swimming away, they being determined that all should die together. The vessel then sank stern first, flying the red ensign of the Chinese. One heavily armed boat was lowered from the Naniwa, and from this a fire was directed upon the troops struggling in the water.

There was no attempt to save life. It was evident that no quarter was to be given. All were to be massacred. The Naniwa steamed away to report to the British consulate or naval officer that seven Englishmen had been killed. A number of soldiers reached a rock, and were saved.

Colonel von Hannekin had a miraculous escape, and arrived at Chemulpo in a Corean fishing boat on July 28. He has sworn to an affidavit before the British consul in regard to the events above narrated. He bears testimony to the splendid conduct of the Chinese troops, who, he says, died gloriously, fighting to the last.

The Times, in an editorial, says that if the Che-Foo account of the sinking of the Kow Shing is correct, Japan's reparation must be ample indeed.

The Standard's correspondent at Che-Foo sends a similar account to that of The Times' correspondent, and says: The facts may be implicitly accepted as the truth. The Japanese made the most strenuous attempt to destroy all the survivors who were witness to their action.

Ward Then Made a Hit Which Resulted In Boston's Defeat.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—The New Yorks defeated the Bostons in an exciting 11-inning game at the polo grounds. Ward was the hero, for he sent Burke home with the winning run in the last inning, when two were out. The feature was the batting of Duffy, who made five consecutive safe hits.

PATENTS

NOTICE TO INVENTORS.

THERE Was never a time in the history of our country when the demand for inventions and improvements in the arts and sciences generally was so great as now. The conveniences of man-kind in the factory and work-shop, the household, on the farm, and in official life, require continual accessions to the appurtances and implements of each in order to save labor, time and expense. The political change in the administration of government does not affect the progress of the American inventor, who, being on the alert, and ready to perceive the existing deficiences, does not permit the affairs of government to deter him from quickly conceiving the remedy to overcome existing discrepancies. Too great care cannot be exercised in choosing a competent and skilful attorney to prepare and prosecute an application for patent. Valuable interests have been lost and destroyed in innumerable instances by the employment of incompetent counsel, and especially is this advice applicable to those who adopt the "No patent, no pay" system. Inventors who intrust their business to this class of attorneys do so at imminent risk, as the breadth and strength of the patent is never considered in view of a quick endeavor to get an allowance and obtain the fee then due. THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY, John Wedderburn, General Manager, 618 F street, N. W. Washington, D. C., representing a large number of important daily and weekly papers, as well as general periodicals of the country, was instituted to protect its patrons from the unsafe methods heretofore employed in this line of business. The said Company is prepared to take charge of all patent business entrusted to it for reasonable fees, and prepares and prosecutes applications generally, including mechanical inventions, design patents, trade marks, labels, copyrights, interferences, infringements, validity reports, and gives especial attention to rejected cases. PATENTS

FOR INVENTIONS.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuable inventions because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With the view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys, and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, we have retained counsel expert in patent practice, and therefore are prepared to

Obtain Patents in the United States and all Foreign Countries, Conduct Interferences, Make Special Examinations, Prosecute Rejected Cases, Register Trade-Marks and Copyrights, Render Opinions as to Scope and Validity of Patents, Prosecute and Defend Infringement Suits, Etc., Etc.

If you have an invention on hand send a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be at once advised as to the best course to pursue. Models are seldom necessary. If others are infringing on your rights, or if you are charged with infringement by others, submit the matter to us for a reliable OPINION before acting on the matter.

ON A SLIDING SCALE.

The Form of Compromise on Coal Likely to Be Adopted.

A SHARP SPEECH BY CHANDLER

Touching Upon Alleged Inside Doings of Coal Men.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—The Democratic tariff conferrees held an unusually long session yesterday, lasting from 10 until 1.30 o'clock, and then, after a few minutes for lunch, continued through the afternoon. The conferrees said that fair progress was making. One of the house men said it would take two or three days yet before it could be said with certainty that a bill would be agreed on.

As heretofore, sugar, iron ore and coal are the items at issue. As to iron and coal, there seems to be good ground for the report that a sliding scale compromise is under discussion, by which the 40 cents per ton duty will be gradually reduced during the next three or four years until entirely extinguished. It is understood that this plan commends itself to the president and Mr. Wilson, as it will in time bring a realization of free raw materials.

Chandler's Sharp Speech.

But one more appropriation bill—the deficiency—remains to be acted on by the senate, the sundry civil having been passed after three days' discussion.

Among the petitions presented which was accepted was one from members of the "United States industrial army," now encamped near Washington, which Mr. Peffer presented. It was referred to the committee on immigration and labor.

The report of the conferrees on the District of Columbia appropriation bill was agreed to. The Hatch anti-option bill was reported to the senate by Mr. Washburn from the committee on agriculture and placed on the calendar.

The resolution offered by Mr. Chandler directing a special committee to investigate the Dominion Coal company of Nova Scotia, whether it was organized or is being conducted in the expectation that congress would repeal the tariff tax on coal, whether any officers of the government are interested in the company, and whether any assurances that the duty would be removed were given the company, and if so, who gave such assurances and what steps are being taken to fulfill the assurances, was laid before the senate and Mr. Chandler urged its adoption.

He said that facts which had come to his knowledge justified him in offering the resolution, and was contained in the prospectus of the company. This showed that a corporation of $21,000,000 was formed or exploited in February, 1893, for the development of Nova Scotia coal mines, contingent upon a presidential election and the repeal of the tariff on coal.

Sharp Thrusts.

He read from the prospectus, which was dated at Boston, February, 1893, the names of the officers and directors. Nearly all the common stock was "watered," he said, to the amount of $50,000,000. The New York World had stated that President Whitney of the company had purchased 30,000 shares of stock, at $10 a share, and the other directors also had got in on the ground floor.

"I now come to the peculiarity of the prospectus," he said, "which leads me to offer this resolution of investigation. It is evidently a scheme which is to go forward in case of legislation of a certain kind by the congress of the United States. The scheme of the company is to go forward in case of the success of some such idea, or the election of some president, when the duty of 75 cents a ton on coal is to be removed, so that this company can make money."

He also referred to the prospectus of a similar mine on Cape Breton island—"The Broad Cove mine"—to which success was to be given by the removal by congress of the existing duty on coal. The paragraph in the prospectus of the Dominion Coal company which, he said, gave the motive for its organization was as follows:

"Should the United States duty of 75 cents a ton be removed it seems evident that this company will find a large market on the New England seaboard."

"This," continued Mr. Chandler, "is a company which congress can afford to watch. Any company like the Dominion company, or the Broad Cove company, which had its certificates ready to be issued as soon as the duty on coal was removed, needed watching."

Russell's Name Dragged In.

There was one name which he would mention, Mr. Chandler said, which was avowedly connected with the Dominion Coal company, and that was John E. Russell, the recent Democratic candidate for governor of Massachusetts. This John E. Russell avowed his connection with the Dominion Coal company, and was to be an avowed participant in the profits to come to the company from the removal of the duty on coal. He came on to Washington to give counsel and advice to the president and urge him to stand fast on the Democratic principle of free coal.

The president wrote a letter, without addressing it to any one in particular, dating it July 2, as a sort of stock in trade, or a charge of dynamite, ready to be launched without warning on some unsuspecting purpose. About a week afterward, he continued, the president had found himself in consultation with Russell, Don Dickinson and some other "kitchen cabinet advisers," and the question of publishing the letter was discussed by this conclave and it was decided to address it to the chairman of the house committee on ways and means.

It was accordingly sent to Mr. Wilson, and after due course of time and after an agonizing birth (who was the accoucheur at the advent he did not know) it saw the light of day, very much to the surprise of the senator from Maryland (Gorman) and the senator from Tennessee (Mr. Harris).

Considering all these things, he thought that John E. Russell, as the adviser of the president on the removal of the duty on coal, would bear investigation, and he believed that the facts which had been submitted not only warranted the senate in investigating the charges, but required it to do so.

The question was then put on the motion by Mr. Hill to lay the Chandler resolution on the table, and the vice president declared it carried, but Mr. Chandler subsequently asked that the vote be reconsidered, and this being done the motion to lay on the table was defeated—16—30. The resolution then went to the calendar under the rules, and it will require a vote of the senate to again bring it up for consideration.

The sundry civil bill was then taken up. Amendments were adopted to pay the widows of the late Senators Vance of North Carolina and Stockbridge of Michigan $5000 each. The appropriation for quarantine purposes was increased by $376,000, so as to make the total amount $1,000,000. The general deficiency bill was taken up, but was laid aside, and the senate adjourned.

Funston Unseated.

The house adopted the majority resolution of the committee on elections unseating Mr. Funston of Kansas and giving the title to the seat to H. L. Moore. Several Democrats voted with the Republicans against seating Moore. The conference reports on the District of Columbia and Indian appropriation bills were adopted.

REPUBLIC OF HAWAII.

Question as to Whether We Shall Recognise It Is Not Yet Decided.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—There was an interesting and, at times, heated discussion over the Hawaiian situation at the secret session in the committee of foreign affairs yesterday. The question was upon reporting Mr. Boutelle's resolution for the recognition of the Hawaiian republic, which is a reproduction of the one recognizing Brazil, of which Chairman McCreary was the author.

Republican members supported the resolution, and were joined by Mr. Geary (Dem., Cal.), who has heretofore sustained the course of the administration toward Hawaii. In the beginning Mr. Van Voorhis (Rep.) moved to report the resolution, which follows:

Resolved, By the senate and house of representatives in congress assembled:

1. That the United States of America congratulates the people of the Hawaiian Islands on their just and peaceful assumption of the powers, duties and responsibilities of self-government, as indicated by their recent adoption of a republican form of government.

2. That the republic of Hawaii is entitled to exercise and enjoy the national comity and the benefits of all rights, privileges and advantages under existing treaties that were concluded between the United States of America and the late kingdom of Hawaii.

3. That the republic of Hawaii is hereby recognized by the United States of America as a free, sovereign and independent republic, and the President of the United States shall give proper notice of the recognition to the President of the republic of Hawaii.

Early in the meeting Mr. Everett (Dem., Mass.) endeavored to prevent action by a motion to adjourn, but the motion was lost by a tie vote—6 to 6.

Finally the committee adjourned until Saturday, when the question will be decided. Although no vote was reached upon the resolution, the Republicans think it will be reported with the final clause directing the president to recognize Hawaii omitted. They are willing to drop that.

Balloon Collapsed.

HAVERHILL, Mass., Aug. 3.—When Aeronaut Mlle. Lamont took her position on the trapeze yesterday her balloon shot into space with marvellous rapidity. As it rose above the heads of the crowd the parachute dropped from its fastening and tumbled to the ground. A few seconds later the balloon collapsed, and Mlle. Lamont came down with it to the earth. She escaped death, but her right hip was broken and her head injured. Too much heated air in the balloon caused the collapse.

"Absolutely Responsible."

LYONS, Aug. 3.—The trial of Santo Caserio for the murder of President Carnot began here yesterday. The courtroom was crowded. Coming to the question of the prisoner's responsibility, the judge said: "It is an important point whether you are responsible or not." Caserio replied, in a firm voice: "Yes; I am absolutely responsible." A brutal cynicism was displayed by Caserio throughout the proceedings.

An Officer Badly Treated.

ATTLEBORO, Mass., Aug. 3.—Officers Dunham and Nerney arrested John Brown last evening for wanton desertion of his wife. The arrest was made at the home of Brown's parents. Mrs. Brown caught Dunham's right hand in her mouth and chewed up several fingers.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Aug. 3.—Politicians here are discussing a proposition of W. C. Owens to Mr. Settle to have a poll of their strength made in the Ashland district by impartial methods, the weaker man to withdraw from the race. Mr. Settle declined the offer.

ACCEPTS THE WAR.

Emperor of China Will "Root Out the Pestilent Japanese."

JAPAN DEFINES HER ATTITUDE.

Says the Question of Corea's Independence Is Settled.

LONDON, Aug. 3.—A dispatch from Tien-Tsin says that the Emperor of China has issued an edict accepting the war which he says Japan has thrust upon him, and orders his viceroys and commanders to root out ing the pestilent Japanese from their lairs.

The substance of the formal representation made by the Japanese government to the foreign ministers at Tokio, defining its attitude on the Corean question, is as follows:

The King of Corea has appointed his father, Tai-In-Kun, to have control of the administration of the government, and to direct the forms which have been determined upon. Several days ago the king summoned the Japanese minister at Seoul to the palace, where he was informed that reforms in the administrative policy of the Corean government had already been inaugurated, with reference to which he would be consulted as occasion arose.

The improvements in Corea's administrative policy have consequently, notwithstanding the repeated refusals of China to even consider them, been put into operation by the independent action of the Corean government, and will be carried out according to the king's will. The question of Corea's autonomy and independence is thus affirmatively settled.

The Japanese government knows from the most reliable sources that China dispatched a large body of troops overland to Corea, and that on July 25 they had already crossed the Corean frontier. The willingness which China had displayed up to that time to listen to the friendly advice of the foreign powers who were exercising their good offices to prevent war between Japan and China was merely a device for gaining time for warlike preparations.

In Favor of Japan.

The Japanese legation in this city has received the following dispatch from Tokio:

The signed affidavits of Captain Galesworthy and Chief Officer Tamplin of the Kow Shing have been received. The captain says that the Kow Shing was chartered by the Chinese government, and that she left Taku on July 23 with 1100 soldiers on board for Kashan. Meeting the Japanese warship Naniwa, the latter signalled her to stop. Continuing, the captain says:

"I obeyed, and she moved off. I then signalled: 'Am I to proceed?' The Naniwa signalled in reply: 'Heave to or take the consequences.' This signal was not meant for the Kow Shing, but for a Chinese warship flying the Japanese flag and a white flag.

"The Naniwa sent an officer to the Kow Shing to see her papers, and he asked if I would follow the Naniwa. I answered: 'We are in your power.'

"The officer then returned to the Naniwa, but he came back to the Kow Shing upon my signalling the wish to communicate personally with him. I told the officer when he came back that the Chinese generals would not allow me to follow the Naniwa, and that they threatened my life if I did so or if I left the ship. After hearing this the Japanese officer returned to the Naniwa, whereupon she signalled: 'Quit ship immediately.' I replied: 'I am not allowed to leave.'

"The Naniwa then hoisted a red flag at her foremast and repeated the signal to 'Quit ship immediately.' Thereupon I calmed the engineers and other foreigners on deck. After a few minutes the Naniwa discharged a torpedo at us and began firing. I and several others jumped overboard. While in the water the Chinese on board the Kow Shing kept firing at us. I was picked up by a boat from the Naniwa, as was Mr. Tamplin, the chief officer."

Chief Officer Tamplin's affidavit confirms the statement made by Captain Galesworthy, and adds that the object of the second visit of the Japanese officers was to transfer the Europeans to the Naniwa before firing began. The Chinese, however, would not permit this.

British Consul Must Be Present.

Dispatches from the Chinese government at Pekin have been imparted by the Chinese legation to the Earl of Kimberley, foreign secretary, and to Lord Rosebery, prime minister, confirming the reports that serious fighting has occurred between the Japanese and Chinese troops. The Earl of Kimberley has demanded of the Japanese government that the British consul be allowed to be present when the commander of the cruiser Naniwa is tried by court-martial for the sinking of the Kow Shing.

The German government, it is learned, has instructed Colonel von Hannekin, who escaped from the Kow Shing, to give the fullest details of what occurred previous to the firing on the transport to the British consul at Seoul.

A War Measure.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—At the request of the Chinese and Japanese governments, made through their representatives here, the state department has instructed United States Consul Dunn at Tokio, and Mr. Denby, charge d'affaires at Japan, to take under the protection of the Editorial Comment.

DOES ANYONE want very much to be deputy fire marshal at Quincy? We venture there are several candidates.

REV. W. SHERMAN THOMPSON should bring a suit for libel against the Post for printing such an outrageous portrait over his name

THE DAILY LEDGER'S N. Y. N. H. & H. R. R. timetable grows in favor. It is not difficult to understand if you once get "the hang of it."

PARACHUTE JUMPING continues as dangerous as ever. This week a girl of 17 was killed at Anderson, Ind., and at Haverhill on Thursday another 25 years of age broke her leg.

THE AVERAGE tax rate for the last six years of the town government was $15.83. Even if the rate of 1894 does go above this, the average for the six city years will not equal that of the last six years of the town by over $1.

WHY DON'T East Milton people petition the Q. & B. to extend the street railway to their village. A petition and a little enthusiasm, backed with some "boodle," might be as successful as the Weymouths.

THERE WAS a balance of $35,032.18 remaining January 1st of the appropriation of $50,000 in 1893 for playgrounds. But $525.20 has been spent this year. If all unexpended next January goes into the general fund, the playgrounds in some of the Wards may come out minus. Wards One and Six are anxiously waiting.

A Grand Bicycle Run.

Harry Wilder and Frank Coe of Atlantic have taken the past week a trip on their bicycles that is worthy of mention. Thursday morning they started from Atlantic, and arrived in Portland at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon, a distance by road of 138 miles. They were fresh and in good condition on their arrival and went to spend Saturday with friends among the islands in Casco Bay. Sunday morning, though the heat was oppressive, they started on their machines for North Conway, where they arrived late in the afternoon, a distance of 68 miles. From this central point they took in all the points of interest in the White Mountains and were in the saddle from early morn till sundown each day until Thursday evening, when they rode into Atlantic, and were gladly welcomed by their friends.

The boys have a great deal to tell about that is interesting. A distance of 90 miles was covered in 10 hours on the run home. The beautiful scenery and the many places of interest visited by them more than made up for the hard roads and little mishaps.

The cyclometer recorded just 452 miles, but they were glad to get back again to the smooth roads of Atlantic. This was a great run for young men of their age and others contemplating this journey can get some good points from them.

VESSEL WAS WRECKED.

The Wellman Party Enjoying Good Health In the Frozen North.

TROMSOE, Norway, Aug. 3.—News of the Wellman polar expedition has been received. It was brought by the sealer Malygen, Captain Pedersen, which arrived at Tromsoe, yesterday, with news dispatches from the expedition and also with Captain Bottolfsen and three sailors of the steamer Ragnvald Jarl, which carried the Wellman party to the Arctic, but which has since been wrecked.

Captain Bottolfsen furnished the following narrative of the experiences of the expedition: After several battles with young winter ice, the Ragnvald Jarl arrived on May 12 at Table island, one of the Seven islands group. The ice, however, compelled a return to Walden island, where Mr. Wellman left the ship on May 14, with 13 men, 40 dogs and 110 days' provisions.

After the party had established a depot they proceeded eastward a distance of 60 miles, thence northeast, hoping to reach the land that is believed to exist in that direction. Up to the day of the departure of the sledge party, the expedition had had good weather, the worst being only 20 degrees below zero. The members of the party were in good health when they left the ship. They intended to return over the same route by which they advanced, reaching northern Spitzbergen on Sept. 15, and headquarters at Danes island on Oct. 1.

On May 28, four days after Wellman and his companions left, the Ragnvald Jarl was broken up by the ice and totally lost. The men in charge of her managed to save some of the stores. A message was sent to Wellman, informing him of the catastrophe, and it reached him at Marten's island. Wellman, Charles C. Dodge and two others then returned to Walden island. With material taken from the wrecked ship they built a house to accommodate the crew, and as a precaution in case the expedition were compelled to winter at Walden.

Wellman left again to join the sledge party on May 31. He writes on the same date: "I have decided to proceed as previously planned, except that I intend to return to Walden island not later than Sept. 1, and to be at Danes island by Sept. 15."

The latest news received from Wellman was of June 17, the date when Mr. Winship, a member of the party, with one man, left the expedition at a spot six miles east of Cape Platen, where the explorers had met with impassable ice, and were waiting for open water. All were well.

On the return of Winship to Walden island Captain Bottolfsen and three of the crew of the Ragnvald Jarl started on a journey southward in aluminium boats, seeking sealers. They met the Malygen, and Captain Pedersen consented to carry them to Tromsoe.

Captain Bottolfsen will charter a new vessel and will return as soon as possible to Danes island. In the meantime, the Wellman party has gone north over the ice. Captain Pedersen expects that Wellman will reach Gillei island. Hyerdahl, a sportsman from the University of Christiana, and a member of the Wellman party, has been sent to Danes island to join Professor Ogen.

BEATRICE AND DIADEM.

They Win Legs in First Monatiquot Championship Race.

The first championship race of the Monatiquot Yacht club was sailed Thursday, off Fort Point. But five boats were entered, two in the first class and three in the second.

The Beatrice obtained such a lead over the Gypsy in the first class that the latter did not finish.

The Eulalie lead her class over half the course, but tried the Nut island side of the gut which she was obliged to abandon, but the centreboards had the advantage, as they could work up under Princes' head, and the Eulalie was left behind. The Opechee and Diadem had a close contest over the entire course, Barker's boat crossing the line first, but lost the leg by time allowance.

The summary is given below:

Baptist Church, Neponset.

The Rev. Brainard W. Barrows began his ministry as pastor of the First Baptist church in Dorchester, at Neponset, thirty-eight years ago the first Sunday in June. At this date this year he preached once more. Steps were taken to have him supply the pulpit while the pastor Rev. J. B. Wilson should be away on his vacation.

The many friends of Mr. Barrows will be glad to know that he is to supply the pulpit during the month of August and is also to have charge of the Friday night prayer meetings. Preaching at 10.45 A. M. Evening service at 7.30.

Mr. Barrows remained pastor of this church seventeen and a half years. It is now twenty-two years nearly since his pastorate closed.

Bruce—Martin.

To see Memorial Congregational church brightly lighted Wednesday evening was a surprise to many, as it is the vacation season. The explanation is, that Dr. John A. Bruce of Everett, and Miss Louise A. Martin of San Francisco, California, were married by Rev. J. Herbert Yeoman. The affair was a private one, the immediate relatives and the pastor's wife being the only guests. The groom is a brother of Dr. Bruce of Atlantic. The couple will reside in Everett.

JOHN E. DRAKE ASSIGNS.

His Indebtedness Said to be About Thirty Thousand Dollars.

It was reported Thursday that John E. Drake, one of Quincy's largest shoe manufacturers had assigned and it is without doubt true. The parties to whom he has assigned are said to be Mr. Henry Rodgers and Mr. Timothy Reed, and the amount of said assignment is in the neighborhood of $30,000.

A gentleman who is well informed on Mr. Drake's affairs informed the LEDGER this morning that Mr. Drake had been working hard during the past year to reduce his indebtedness and that he had succeeded in reducing it about half.

The boot and shoe business like all other branches has been very dull during this time, and but for that the whole would have been liquidated. The creditors are cognizant of the effort Mr. Drake has made and are disposed to be as easy as possible that this large manufactory, which gives employment to so many of our citizens, may be kept in operation.

ONE WOMAN'S REWARD.

A GREAT SHOWER OF CONFIDENCE

Such as Never Descended upon Any Other American Woman.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

IT'S a glorious possession.

The most famous physician wins it from a comparatively small number.

One woman, and only one, has won it from tens of thousands during the past twenty years.

Loving confidences, heartfelt gratitude, loyal devotion, is showered upon her name because of salvation from a miserable existence, and the peace and joy of restored health through her wonderful skill.

Lydia E. Pinkham's name will go down the ages as the friend of all women.

Her Vegetable Compound has saved thousands from the terrors of female complaints.

Backache, despondency, fainting, spinal weakness, avoiding society, bearing down, are all symptoms of trouble in the womb.

The Vegetable Compound removes the cause of the trouble.

Read what Mrs. S. W. White, who lives at 816 Holly Street, West Philadelphia, Pa., calls a family blessing.

Thus she writes to Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I have suffered for ten years with female complaints of the worst form, accompanied by severe spinal trouble, causing incessant backache, weakness of the stomach, and nervousness.

"I gave up all hope of ever being well again. Just then someone recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I followed your directions and treatment until I am now a perfectly well woman.

"I gave it to my two daughters, aged fourteen and sixteen years, and they are fine, healthy girls.

"It is surely a blessing to our family."

The Gingerbread Horse.

There are people and places that fade from our minds
And days that grow dim in the past;
There are loves that are born and wither and die,
And nothing seems true to the last;
But back in the days of the long, long ago,
When the little back yard was our course,
The friend who was dearest and sweetest to us
Was the galloping gingerbread horse.

Can we ever forget him? His arched neck and tail,
His sugar glazed ears and foretop?
Don't we still feel the thrill of uttermost joy
As we carried him out of the shop?
Then, breathless with happiness, longing to start,
We sped to the back cellar door,
And there, in a paradise, nibbled and munched
Till the gingerbread horse was no more.

Oh, my gingerbread horse, how the taste of thy heels
And the peppery sweet of thy mane,
With thy black currant eyes and thy brown, softened sides,
Come back from the dim past again!
How I taste, as I dream, every mouthful I ate
Of thy luscious young self! For, in truth,
There are times when I feel I would give all I have
For a gingerbread horse of my youth!

MONTREAL, Aug. 3.—It has just leaked out that a number of American crooks planned to rob the Grand Trunk pay car a short time ago. The car, which usually carries $180,000, has since been fitted out with a regular arsenal and a guard of a half dozen of men.

Minneapolis Platform Endorsed.

Many Persons Missing.

MINSK, Russia, Aug. 3.—A fire, supposed to be of incendiary origin, has destroyed one-fourth of Minsk. Many persons who are missing are believed to have perished.

CARES AND CLOTHES.

Sometimes put off Together—Sometimes Not.

Old Sir Robert Walpole used to say that he put off his cares when he put off his clothes. That was easy for a tough, rugged old fox hunter, even when he had the weight of a government on his shoulders. Sir Robert had a good digestion, and that counts for more in wooing sleep than a clear conscience.

Mrs. M. V. Cole of 227 Bloomfield street, Hoboken, N. J., had a bad digestion after recovering from the grip. She was thin, nervous and debilitated. She had no appetite, and felt dreadful pains after eating. She could not sleep. Her husband had heard that Paskola would make thin, dyspeptic people fat and well. Mrs. Cole tried it. April 18, 1894, she writes:

"After taking the second bottle I was as well as ever and had gained wonderfully in every way. I wish everyone could know of and use Paskola. It certainly can be conscientiously recommended to the weak, sick and suffering everywhere."

C. A. Baker of Newark, N. J., writes:

PRE-DIGESTED FOOD CO.,
30 Reade street, New York:

Gentlemen—I wish to say Paskola has done me more good than any other remedy I have tried. In fact, none helped me but Paskola, and I have used everything I could think of, having been in the drug trade for years until I had to give it up and try outside work.

"That did not accomplish my recovery from indigestion and constipation, but Paskola gave me a better appetite and color almost at once, and I shall never be without it if I can get it."

Such letters as these are coming in every day. All reputable druggists sell Paskola. The reasons for its success are explained in a descriptive pamphlet which will be sent free to any address on application to

STOCK WAS WATERED

Serious Charges Made by New York Times Stockholders.

WANT THEIR MONEY RETURNED.

Induced to Subscribe by Alleged Misrepresentation.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—A number of suits have been begun in the supreme court against the New York Times Publishing company by stockholders of that corporation to set aside their subscriptions for stock on the ground that the subscriptions were obtained by fraudulent misrepresentations.

In the suits filed the complainants allege that they were induced to subscribe to the stock of the company on the basis of bona fide subscriptions for a total of $900,000 to $950,000, and that the capitalization of the company was not to exceed these totals by more than $100,000.

In one of the bills of complaint, filed by Charles F. Watson, the allegation is made that the company was capitalized for $1,250,000, without the knowledge of the plaintiff, and that $250,000 of the stock was given to the promoters of the company without any money consideration being received therefor, the capital being thereby "watered" to at least that amount.

The plaintiffs also contend that before beginning these suits they demanded at four different times to be allowed to inspect the

but the company refused to exhibit or to furnish a copy of it to the plaintiffs or their attorneys.

The narrative of the purchase of The Times by the present owners is told in detail in the bill filed by Mr. Watson. He says that in 1893 he was induced to subscribe for $10,000 of the stock upon the representations already cited, and that it was not until he had paid for his stock in full was he made aware that the capitalization had been increased to $1,250,000, and that the stock was subject to certain restrictions placed upon the transfer of the newspaper, although no such restrictions had been referred to in any of the statements made to him, and based upon which he had paid for his stock.

The plaintiff declares that he has made an effort to obtain a copy of the subscription paper or permission to inspect it, but without success, and demands the return of his subscription.

In a similar complaint Richard Sibley demands the return of $50,000, paid by him for stock of the newspaper.

Veterans Enjoy Themselves.

LAUREL PARK, Mass., Aug. 3.—The annual picnic of the Grand Army posts of western Massachusetts and their auxiliaries drew an attendance of over 2000. Commander-in-Chief Adams, Colonel Thomas and W. P. Derby made rousing speeches, as did also Colonel Blaisdell, division commander of the Sons of Veterans; Passed Commander A. A. Smith, and Mrs. Clara H. Berby, department president of the Woman's Relief corps. A permanent organization for the purpose of perpetuating these annual gatherings of the orders in the five western counties was made.

Deserted the Whitewayites.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Aug. 3.—The members of the assembly met yesterday to elect a speaker to replace Mr. Emerson, who was recently disqualified. The government sprang a mine on their opponents by making overtures to the Whitewayite members. Mr. Woodford, one of these members, joined the government ranks and was appointed financial secretary. The Whiteway party is indignant and fears that others will follow Woodford's example.

Another Big Fire at Chicago.

The state department was officially informed last evening that war had been declared between China and Japan. The information came in a dispatch from the charge d'affaires at Pekin, Mr. Denby. The dispatch does not say, however, which country made the declaration.

Secretary Gresham was asked last night as to the attitude of the government toward allowing the sale of munitions of war to the belligerents. He said the point was covered by the law of 1818, and indicated that the position of this government in the pending conflict was that of neutrality.

The Last Game of a Wonderful Series Ends In a Tie.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—The greatest series of ball games ever played in this city has been concluded by the New Yorks and Bostons. The last game resulted in a tie, and such wild scenes were probably never seen on a ball field. With the score 8 to 1 against them, the Giants knocked Nichols out of the box in the fifth inning. After the Giants had made seven runs and tied the score, he was taken out and Stivetts substituted. German's work in the second inning was so bad that Westervelt took his place, and he in turn was relieved by Rusie after the Giants had slaughtered Nichols. Long's wonderful stop in the eighth inning saved Boston the game. Umpire Emslie called the game on account of darkness. The attendance was 10,000.

NOW 'TIS THE HUB

Which Bids Fair to Have a Police Scandal on Its Hands.

BOSTON, Aug. 3—It is asserted that Sergeant Sheehan of division 4 is to go before the board of police commissioners to answer charges of corruption and bribetaking. The news has created a sensation, and statements are abroad that Sheehan's case will be but the first of several against prominent officers of the force.

The trouble seems to have been a result of the recent move of the police commissioners against the houses of ill-fame in the city. When the recent edict closing these places was enforced, a certain sporting man, who was the proprietor of several such places, suffered financially, and made statements broadcast that he had paid for police protection and had not received it.

This reached the ears of Chairman Martin of the board, who has been the instigator of the strict enforcement of the laws against these resorts, and he immediately instructed Deputy Superintendent Pierce to investigate the matter. His orders were obeyed, with the result given. It is probable that others may follow, and perhaps Boston may have a Lexow sensation of its own.

Sergeant Sheehan's defense, it is said, will be a complete denial. Those acquainted with the inside facts in the matter allege that if the sergeant should be convicted of the charges against him, other officers of even higher rank connected with the same division will be brought into the case.

PATENTS

NOTICE TO INVENTORS.

THERE Was never a time in the history of our country when the demand for inventions and improvements in the arts and sciences generally was so great as now. The conveniences of man-kind in the factory and work-shop, the household, on the farm, and in official life, require continual accessions to the appurtances and implements of each in order to save labor, time and expense. The political change in the administration of government does not affect the progress of the American inventor, who, being on the alert, and ready to perceive the existing deficiences, does not permit the affairs of government to deter him from quickly concerning the remedy to overcome existing discrepancies. Too great care cannot be exercised in choosing a competent and skilful attorney to prepare and prosecute an application for patent. Valuable interests have been lost and destroyed in innumerable instances by the employment of incompetent counsel, and especially is this advice applicable to those who adopt the "No patent, no pay" system. Inventors who cannot steer business to this class of attorneys do so at imminent risk, as the breadth and strength of the patent is never considered in view of a quick endeavor to get an allowance and obtain the fee then due. THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY, John Wedderburn, General Manager, 618 F street, N. W., Washington, D. PATENTS

FOR INVENTIONS.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuable inventions because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With the view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys, and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, we have retained counsel expert in patent practice, and therefore are prepared to

Obtain Patents in the United States and all Foreign Countries, Conduct Interferences, Make Special Examinations, Prosecute Rejected Cases, Register Trade-Marks and Copyrights, Render Opinions as to Scope and Validity of Patents, Prosecute and Defend Infringement Suits, Etc., Etc.

If you have an invention on hand send a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be at once advised as to the best course to pursue. Models are seldom necessary. If others are infringing on your rights, or if you are charged with infringement by others, submit the matter to us for a reliable OPINION before acting on the matter.

Another Story Concerning the Sinking of the Kow Shing.

A FRESH COLLISION IN COREA.

Japanese Said to Have Won a Great Victory.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—Official notification of a battle between the Japanese and Chinese land forces in Corea was received at the Japanese legation last night from the foreign office at Tokio. The telegram containing the news stated that on July 29 a portion of the Japanese troops at Seoul marched against a much superior force of Chinese entrenched at Shan-Yeng.

A battle ensued, and after heavy fighting the Chinese were put completely to rout, and a large number of prisoners and munitions of war were captured by the Japanese. On the morning of the 13th, the Japanese proceeded to march against Gasan. Shan-Yeng is situated between Seoul and Gasan of Asan, where the fighting between the Japanese and Chinese, resulting in the loss of 2000 Japanese, is reported to have occurred.

A long telegram was received at the legation confirming the official account of the sinking of the British transport Kow Shing, reiterating the statements made by the Japanese government that the first attack was made by the Chinese cruiser Chi-Yuen by firing a torpedo on the Japanese cruiser Naniwa.

The dispatch is from the captain of the Japanese boat Yeyayema. He says that at 7 o'clock on July 25 the Chinese vessels of war Chi-Yuen and Kuwen sailed from Gasan, and another Chinese war vessel, the Tsao Kiang, convoying a transport with Chinese soldiers on board, from Takiu, sailed into Gasan.

The Japanese ships Yoshieno, Naniawa and Allitiseu, which were also sailing toward Gasan, met the two Chinese men-of-war near Pan-Tao. The Chinese ships failed to salute the commanding officer of the Japanese squadron, but began making belligerent preparations. The Chinese ship Tsao-Kian approached and also made warlike preparations. The Japanese men-of-war being in a disadvantageous position, put to sea. The Chi-Yuen followed the Naniawa, whereupon the latter vessel steamed toward the Chi-Yuen.

The Chinese ship retreated, hoisting a white flag above the Japanese naval ensign, signifying a desire to insult the Japanese ships.

First Shot Was Blank.

The Naniwa did not fire at this juncture, but when the Chinese transport crossed her bow the Naniwa fired a blank shot to call the attention of the transport, and signalled her to stop and drop anchor. The transport obeyed these signals, but in the meantime the Chi-Yuen approached the stern of the transport, and when within 300 metres of the Naniwa discharged a torpedo which failed to take effect.

The Naniawa then fired at the Chi-Yuen. The Japanese ship Yoshieno then joined in the action. Finally, the Chi-Yuen fled toward Ikaiyei, and was pursued by a Japanese cruiser, but escaped.

There was also an engagement between the Chinese ship Kuwen-Ye and the Japanese ship Akitiseu, which resulted in the flight of the Kuwen-Ye, which vessel took refuge between a shoal and the shore. The captain of the Chinese transport desired to surrender, but the soldiers on board refused to do so, and resisted, whereupon the Naniawa fired at and sunk her.

In the action the gaff of the Japanese ship Yeshieno was cut off by a shot and her chartroom destroyed. A shell from a Chinese vessel, after passing through her gunroom and messroom, lodged in the engine room, but failed to explode.

The injury sustained by the Chinese men-of-war was very heavy. On board the Chinese transport were six field guns, 1100 soldiers, four chiefs of battalions and 15 chiefs of companies. The captain of the transport and others were rescued by boats from the Naniawa.

Another dispatch at the legation states that the transport was subsequently found to be a British steamer owned by the Indo-China Steam Navigation company. It was also afterward learned that she had only been chartered by the Chinese government to carry soldiers and munitions of war.

When these facts were discovered, the Japanese government expressed its regrets to the British charge d'affaires, and stating that if, after an inquiry into the subject had been made, Japan was shown to be in the wrong, the Japanese government would make full reparation for the destruction of the Kow Shing.

How the Chinese Look at It.

LONDON, Aug. 4.—A dispatch to The Times from Tien-Tsin says: The preamble of an imperial edict just issued recites China's claims in Corea, its hundreds of years' suzerainty of that country and the constant assistance it has rendered the vassal king to subdue rebellions. China, it continues, recently sent forces to Corea with this object in view.

Japan, without right, also sent troops and refused to withdraw them. She has further sunk a transport, carrying Chinese soldiers, and her action has been condemned by other powers. The emperor placed all the military authorities under Viceroy Li Hung Chang, who will protect the rights of the empire. He also ordered the capture and destruction of Japanese ships wherever found.

It is probable that a copy of the edict will at once be communicated to the representatives of foreign powers.

No confirmation of the reported degrading of Li Hung Chang has reached us, and the source of the viceroy's alleged disgrace appears to be inconsistent with the terms of the imperial edict mentioned in the dispatch from Tien-Tsin.

A dispatch to The Chronicle from Tokio says: It is reported that there has been a fresh collision between the Japanese and Chinese troops in Corea. It seems that after their recent defeat, the Japanese assembled their whole available strength and took the offensive, achieving a decided victory over the Chinese. Details of the battle are expected tomorrow.

President Cleveland's Action.

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—A special to The Tribune from Washington says: President Cleveland has practically decided to unite with Great Britain, Germany and Italy to preserve forcibly the neutrality of what are known as the treaty ports of China during the war between that empire and Japan. The Chinese government has been fully informed of the intention of the powers, through its minister at Washington.

The Japanese government assents cheerfully to the arrangement, and has intimated that a similar occupation of her principal commercial ports would meet with no resistance.

The plan was suggested by Lord Rosebery, the British premier, but the negotiations have mostly been conducted in Washington by Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British ambassador; Baron von Saurma-Jeltsch, the German ambassador; Baron Fava, the Italian ambassador, and Secretary Gresham, representing their respective governments.

Secretary Gresham has not yet announced the formal assent of the United States to the agreement, but all the conferences have been held in his office, the memoranda are all in his hands, and he has so thoroughly committed this government to the plan that it would be impossible for him to withdraw now without the sacrifice of his dignity and the respect of those with whom he has been negotiating.

BURIED IN A TRENCH.

Three Children Rescued Alive, but the Fourth Was Killed.

PROVIDENCE, Aug. 4.—A number of children were playing in the trench of a new sewer on Stanaford street yesterday afternoon when the bank caved in and four of them were buried beneath three feet of earth. Their companions were at first too frightened to speak, but at last one of the little boys ran into a neighboring store and gave alarm. In a few minutes a number of men were digging away the sand that covered the children, and three of them, Mamie Gilbert, 5 years; Peter Monahan, 2 years, and Agnes Monahan, 3 years, were rescued in time to revive them. All were terribly crushed. Thomas Hogan, 7 years, was the last one found, and when he was lifted from the trench life was extinct. The soil was very sandy, and the children in playing had loosened the planks that protected the trench. The medical examiner considers the contractor free from blame.

Will Abide by the Decision.

WOBURN, Mass., Aug. 4.—Agent Sharpe, who conducted the strike of the men on the Woburn Street railway, upon which the state board of arbitration yesterday rendered a decision, says that the men believe that they were not justly considered by the board. The wages are fixed at $1.43 a day. The men contended for $1.50 a day, an increase of 8 cents a day over the old scale. They work 16 hours each day, they claim. Despite the dissatisfaction, however, the men will stand by the decision, as they agreed when it was asked for by them.

Lightning's Work.

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 4.—During a heavy thunder storm a party of 10 were on their way to a picnic. A lightning bolt struck the wagon and severely injured three persons. The injured are Benjamin Anthony, his wife, and child, aged 2. Mrs. Anthony cannot recover. Her entire body is burnt black. The baby's lower limbs were burned, probably fatally. Mr. Anthony had his shoes and stockings burnt from his feet, but soon revived, and went for medical aid.

Looking to Her Interests.

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—A dispatch from Managua says: The fact that British Minister Gosling has been selected to preside at the conference to be held in Guatemala, Nov. 8, to discuss the project of a Central American union, is considered significant, in view of the desire of England to extend Belize by taking the territory from Yucatan, her endeavor to purchase a portion of Honduras and her recent interference in the Mosquito territory.

New London's Heavy Storm.

NEW LONDON, Conn., Aug. 4.—This city was visited yesterday afternoon by a thunder storm of unusual severity that in a short time washed deep gullies in the streets and temporarily stopped street cars. Telephones were burned out in many places. The rainfall was the first of value to crops hereabouts in two months.

Tried to Kill His Mistress.

PROVIDENCE, Aug. 4.—Bill Brewster, a notorious colored tough, made an unsuccessful attempt to kill Mary Cawley, his white mistress, yesterday. The woman dodged just as Brewster took aim at her head, and striking the revolver, turned the barrel toward the ground. The ball lodged in her leg, inflicting a serious wound.

For Violating Mail Laws.

NEW HAVEN, Aug. 4.—Christopher R. Downey, proprietor of the Waterbury Globe, and Harmon S. Velsscher, the business manager of the paper, were bound over to the United States district court for violating the United States postal laws by sending obscene literature through the mails.

Bound to Kill Herself.

PROVIDENCE, Aug. 4.—Mrs. Ella Anthony committed suicide at the state insane asylum at Cranston yesterday by cutting herself in the breast and abdomen with a jackknife, and then springing out of a third-story window. She was 25 years old.

An Important Capture.

DANBURY, Conn., Aug. 4.—Government officers arrested in this city yesterday afternoon James Davis, an alleged member of the Hoyt gang of counterfeiters, on the charge of counterfeiting. He was taken to New York.

A CHANGE AT HAND.

The Business Outlook Has Begun to Look More Cheerful.

SOME ACTIVITY IN TEXTILES.

Final Action on the Tariff Is Anxiously Awaited.

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: An important change in the state of business is near at hand. Congress will act on the tariff question one way or the other, in all probability, within a week. So much business has been deferred during the past year, and merchandise stocks have been so reduced, that the mere approach of a decision, without certainty what it is to be, has this week encouraged large preparations for increased business.

In spite of outgoing gold and sinking treasury reserves, small railroad earnings, some injury to crops and increased trouble in the coke region, the tone and the outlook are more hopeful.

The injury to crops by hot winds and drought, if as great as some report, will affect all interests, but at this season it is never easy to distinguish between local and general damage.

After tariff uncertainties have vanished it will be recognized that purchases and orders for the coming year will depend largely upon the crops.

A Brace In Textiles.

But at present the prospect of a decision in congress, and the common impression that the pending bill may fall between the two houses, has stimulated some activity in textiles. Sales of wool were 8,522,000 pounds, against 3,742,050 last year, and 9,336,400 the year before, and for five weeks ending with July were 30,882,725 pounds, against 14,488,950 last year and 38,586,750 in 1892.

It seems that a large part of the sales this week were to fill orders actually booked, and the rush of belated clothiers and dealers to get goods for the fall trade gives most manufacturers more than they can do for a month or two, though there seems to be no demand whatever for spring goods, and manufacturers are making no effort to get orders.

Wool and Cotton.

Wool had been advanced for many kinds 1 per cent, and the average about 1-2 cent after the decline of 1 1-2 cents from May 1.

The movement of bleached cottons has been checked by the restoration of prices, as it was stimulated by the temporary reduction to the lowest point on record, and the print cloth manufacturers at Fall River, Mass., are seriously considering a reduction in wages, the stock there and at Providence being 1,185,000 pieces, while the lowest price ever known, 2 9-16 cents for 64s, has been made at Providence. As a strike would help the price of the large stock on hand, one is not improbable.

Recovery in iron manufacture is hindered by greater trouble in the coke region, where many of the new colored hands have quit and gone back to the south, and the strikers have decided to continue the struggle.

National Finances.

Gold exports this week are about $3,100,000, and the treasury gold reserve is reduced to about $52,000,000. The outgo is in part due to unusually large imports of sugar and in part to pay large railroad and other loans made a year ago in time of special stress.

The volume of domestic business reflected by exchanges through clearing houses is 22.6 per cent less than last year, and 28.8 per cent less than in 1892. Improvement here cannot precede, but must follow, recovery in manufactures.

The railroad earnings reported for July are 26.6 per cent less than last year, and partly because of the sharp decline a year ago, the decrease for the latest week was only 13.1 per cent.

The Failures.

Commercial liabilities thus far reported in failures during July amounted to $9,016,778, of which $4,509,220 were of manufacturing and $4,231,470 of trading concerns, and the decrease for the month, though great in comparison with last year, is hardly as much as has been expected. The failures this week have been 219 in the United States, against 436 last year, and 44 in Canada, against 34 last year.

Court-Martial Overruled.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—A sailor at Boston named Megie was charged with desertion and pleaded guilty of absence without leave. The court-martial, however, convicted him of desertion without the presentation of any evidence. Secretary Herbert called attention to this irregular practice, but the court refused to correct it, whereupon the secretary disapproved the entire proceedings and released the prisoner.

The Ricks Case.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—Representative Johnson has received from Cleveland the detailed charges against Judge Ricks and the petition calling for his impeachment. The documents are, however, unsigned, and Mr Johnson has returned them, in order that they may be signed and legally authenticated.

To Consider Finances.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Aug. 4.—The legislature was opened yesterday. The speech from the throne announced that the revenue for last year was in excess of the estimates, and signified that the only measures to be passed were those connected with the ordinary finances of the colony.

An Excellent Remedy for Diarrhoea.

RANDOLPH, MASS., March 13, 1894—I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and found it excellent for diarrhoea. I have recommended it to friends and know of two cases of diarrhoea having been cured with one small bottle. JOSEPH H. FOSTER.

Editorial Comment.

BROOKLINE RANKS among the cities in valuation and has almost the necessary population to become a municipality. It is not only the wealthiest town in Norfolk County, but probably in the United States. The Assessors figures for 1894 will be of interest. The advance in personal estate is $80,700; in real estate, $1,808,150; a total increase of $1,888,850. This increase brings the total valuation of the town up to $58,187,850, exclusive of corporation stocks. The rate of taxation is fixed at $12.60 per thousand, as against $11 of last year. An advance in the tax rate seems to be general this year.

THE BAND concert last evening on the square was a decided success. If South Quincy has any more such pleasant surprises for us, please spring them at once. The Columbus band which furnished the music certainly deserves much credit. The music was well rendered, the large number of people present were quite enthusiastic, and nothing occurred to mar the pleasure of such a concert. The only regret is that they should have kept their light under a bushel so long.

THE CITY of Holyoke has a tax rate this year of $15 against $15.80 in 1893. The valuation is $26,754,765, an increase of $1,105,110 over last year. The are 9,982 polls.

CAUGHT IN MACHINERY.

George Wentworth of Braintree Seriously Injured at Mitchell's Works.

At the Mitchell Granite works at South Quincy a revolving machine is used for surfacing granite. The stone is placed on a platform which moves to and fro under the machine.

Between 1.30 and 2 o'clock, Friday afternoon, while George Wentworth was engaged running the machine, a plank fell from above and knocked him under the wheels. Fortunately Engineer Gould was standing close by at the time and stopped the machine.

It is said that another half turn would have killed Wentworth, and the accident may result fatally as it was. Wentworth was caught by the hand and also the chest, and is said to have broken a shoulder bone and probably received internal injuries. Two fingers were cut off, the sight of one eye endangered and other injuries inflicted.

It was necessary for the men in the yard to lend their assistance to get the body from the clutches of the wheel. Wentworth was taken to the office of Dr. McClellan, where he was attended by the doctor and Dr. Sheahan.

Mr. Wentworth has run the machine off and on for several years, and was substituting for the past few weeks for William Michael, who returned from Scotland this week and would probably have resumed his position Monday.

Mr. Wentworth is reported as comfortable this morning and will probably recover. He is at the City Hospital.

Novelty Pipe Shoot.

There is an interesting rifle tournament going on at the Duck's Nest, Wollaston. Al. Williams, the steward, calls it a "novelty pipe shoot."

It is.

Ten clay pipes are placed around a blank and shot at in rotation. The best man breaks the ten. Up to Friday night Branierd had the only clean score. The boys were getting in some fair work. Some would break five or six straight and then get rattled and skip one.

At a little before nine o'clock, Seymour Field dropped in to see how things were getting along. Someone in the crowd suggested to him that he try a hand at it.

Taking a pair of spectacles from his pocket, and slowly adjusting them to his eyes, he picked up a Winchester 22 calibre, single shot rifle, shoved in a cartridge, quietly remarking as he did so:

"Guess that I will try a string or two."

It may be well to interject here that Field is an old-fashioned sharpshooter, one of these fellows that uses telescopic sights and can cut buttons off of a man's coat.

Well, to go back to our little shooting story. Field began with pipe No. 1 and went right around the circle, clipping each one in succession. Ten more were set up and the same performance gone through again. It was good shooting and will be some time before the boys beat that score.

ADAMS IS DEPUTY.

The Ex-Postmaster Gets a State Job at a Salary of $1,400.

Ex-Postmaster Warren W. Adams has received his appointment as deputy fire marshal for this district with headquarters in Quincy, and has already commenced his duties as such.

The chief engineer of every town in his district makes a report to him of all fires on a blank similar to that filed with the City Clerk.

The marshal then investigates all fires, especially those where no cause is given or when the cause is given as incendiary.

Although Mr. Adams' headquarters are in Quincy, he will have no office, for the simple reason that he is on the road the larger part af the time investigating fires.

If Quincy has as many incendiary fires in the future as it has had during the past few months, Deputy Adams will have his hands full at home and it is hoped that he may be successful in bringing some of the numerous firebugs to justice.

THE GOSPEL TENT.

Temperance Services to be Held on Sunday—Meetings Every Evening.

The "Glad Tidings Gospel Tent" erected on Brook avenue, South Quincy, has been a centre of attraction through the entire week. The services held every evening under the direction of the Evangelist, Rev. George S. Avery, have met with favor and engaged the earnest attention of large audiences, and there seems to be a still increasing interest.

Mr. Avery has had a wide experience in Evangelistic work, and displays great tact and discretion. While avoiding all questions that would excite sectarian prejudice, he recognizes the common faith in the finished work of a Saviour and the need of a work of Grace in the heart; and thus invites and secures the co-operation of all interested in the effort to lift up and bless fallen humanity.

Making no attempts at a sensation, with his Bible in his hand, he preaches in a terse, clear businesslike manner; applying the Gospel to the every day needs of his hearers. His intense earnestness carries conviction, and holds the close attention of his listeners to the end.

He studies variety, and there is no set form of conduct; almost every service differing from the last. Music is freely interspersed throughout. Solos are rendered every evening by T. B. Emery, who leads the music, assisted by a volunteer choir.

Although the gale of Sunday afternoon prostrated the tent and did it some damage, it has been repaired and made comfortable for fair weather. In case of stormy weather Pastor Steele has kindly volunteered the use of the vestry of the Presbyterian church.

The seating capacity of the tent is 300, and each evening the tent has been well-filled and as many more as were inside have occupied the standing room adjacent to the tent. The audiences have been marked for their close attention within, and quiet, orderly conduct, without.

A children's meeting has been started with a hundred in attendance, beginning at 7 o'clock. The praise service begins at 7.45.

The meeting on Sunday evening will be in the interest of Temperance; on Tuesday Mrs. F. W. Whitney, one of Boston's noted soloists, will sing. Special topics and lectures of interest each evening. This work should command the interest and co-operation of all our church people.

BRAINTREE.

Mr. and Mrs. Eben Prescott of Middle street are visiting friends in New Hampshire.

Edward Shay and family are occupying Dr. T. H. Dearing's cottage at Houghs Neck.

Daughters of Rebekah had a pretty successful picnic excursion to Salem Willows, on Thursday.

There were built the past year forty-two dwelling houses in Braintree, at an estimated average cost of eighteen hundred dollars each. Considering the dull times this is doing pretty well.

The Town House never looked better since it was built than it does now; both outside and inside. It is due to the effecient work of H. W. Borden, carpenter, on the outside, and to the industry and good taste of the janitor, for its clean and tidy appearance inside.

Rev. G. A. Thayer and family have arrived.

Why was it that there was such a large gathering last night in the square at South Braintree to hear a little boy play the harmonica? Because there was no hat sent 'round!

Charles A. Belcher, auctioneer, sold yesterday at public sale the granite quarry in this town owned by the Braintree Granite company to Roderick J. Campbell of Quincy, brother-in-law of John T. Hennessey, for $6,600. "The Campbells are coming."

John V. Scollard has been made a justice of the peace by Gov. Greenhalge, with the prospect still of being made a member of Congress by popular vote, as every young man with a laudable ambition is duly entitled to entertain.

But whether or not this ambition, may in the present case be ever gratified, any man that can write after his name S. A., Son of Adam; G. H. S., Gruduate of the High School; T. F., Town Father; S. S. Superintendent of Streets; W. C., Water Commissioner; C. W. R., Collector of Water Rates; J. P., Justice of the Peace, has got raw material enough to make a first-class obituary notice.

THE FALLON CASE.

Judge Flint Overrules the Motion to Quash Complaint.

Vacant seats in the District Court room this morning were few. In fact there were none, and many of those who attended were obliged to stand. The regular occupants of the spectators' seats were on hand as usual and listened attentively to the arguments of the learned counsel. The attraction was, of course, the hearing on the motion to quash the complaint against Peter T. Fallon for wilfully and maliciously interfering with firemen on the night of July 30.

Counsel for defendant claimed that this complaint was undoubtedly brought under section 9, chapter 203 of the public statutes. This is undoubtedly a felony. The offence must be set forth with all its technical requirement. They must charge that offence of burning as accessory after the fact. They have not set forth the fact. They must charge that it is feloniously done. This they have not done.

Counsel for government said this was a case beyond the jurisdiction of this court and if it is quashed another complaint can be drawn. It was immaterial to him whether it was quashed or not. There was no question in his mind but what the complaint was good and it covered the rule that the offence must be clearly set forth.

The court overruled the motion to quash and continued the case for hearing until next Tuesday.

Mr. Fallon was also arraigned upon two more complaints, one for using profane language, and the other for assault upon Antonio J. Perry, a fireman. He entered a plea of not guilty and these cases were also continued for trial until next Tuesday.

MISREPRESENTED.

A Sensational Boston Daily Does Ex-Chief Ripley an Injustice.

The Post is one of Boston's most sensational dailies and its rehash Friday of the controversy between ex-Councilman Fallon and the fire department, was in newspaper parlance a column of "rot." The statements were reckless and did not need a denial to prove it. Many of the permanent men and engineers served under Chief Ripley and knows full well that he would not call them loafers.

To a Journal reporter ex-Chief Ripley said Friday:

"You may say to the Journal that I never made any such statements. It is a lie from beginning to end, and you may say so in just so many words. I was summoned as a witness in the Fallon case, but I don't know why, as I was not present at the fire at all.

"I am not interfering at all with the present administration or the Fire Department, and the statement that Mr. Fallon has me to back him up when he says the department is composed of lazy loafers, is absolutely false in every particular."

BRAINTREE TO WEYMOUTH.

Subscriptions Asked for Electric Road by New Company.

The Boston Advertiser says:

A movement is on foot to organize a company and run a line of electric cars from Shaw's corner, East Weymouth to the Braintree station of the N. Y, N. H. & H. R. R., a distance of about four miles. There are practical railroad men with plenty of money behind the enterprise, and a large amount of stock has been taken by leading citizens of Weymouth and Braintree.

The capital stock will be $40,000, and it is estimated that it will cost $10,000 a mile to build and equip the road. The shares are $100 each. The road will connect with the Quincy and Boston St. Ry. at Shaw's Corner, and extend over Broad and Washington streets to Weymouth Landing, and Commercial, Adams, Shaw, Front and Elm streets in Braintree, to the railroad station.

A petition is to be sent at once to the selectmen of Weymouth and Braintree, asking for a franchise in both towns, which will doubtless be granted without any opposition, as the leading men of both towns are interested in the scheme. A meeting of the stockholders will be held at an early date and an organization effected. It is the intention of the projectors to have the road in running order by Nov. 1.

WEYMOUTH.

Rev. Allan B. Hudson goes on his annual vacation next week. His subjects for Sunday will be: Afternoon—"Man's Heart, God's Temple." Evening—"Paul's Fare well to His Brethren."

The Catholic society of East Weymouth, is holding its annual picnic today at Lovells grove.

The Unitarian Sunday school of East Weymouth were to picnic at Downer Landing this afternoon.

Next Thursday will be ladies' day with the Monatiquot Yacht club. The boats will pass in review of Commodore Cavanagh and then sail over the river course. A band concert, supper and hop are on the programme.

Arrangements are being made by the Weymouth band to celebrate its fiftieth anniversary in September, to include a parade, band concert, fireworks and a banquet. The history of the band by William F. Raymond will be a feature. The committee are E. S. Hunt, T. J. Evans, C. L Stetson, Stephen Cain, Jr., Robert F. Raymond and Richard Loud.

A horse being led by John Lukeman yesterday became frightened at a dog and threw Lukeman against a stone wall, injuring him severely and rendering him unconscious. It was an hour after the accident before he was resuscitated.

A telephone message from Wollaston this morning says the Squantum Yacht club will observe Ladies' day this afternoon rain or shine.

The need of a police telegraph system is felt daily by the police, but then if one is never asked for the chances are that one will never be had.

Miss Howard of Wollaston is at Hyannis, a guest of Miss French, daughter of Supt. French of the N. Y., N. H. & H. R. R. She will also pass a portion of this month at the summer residence of Mr. A. I. Bradley at Five Islands, Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel McNeil of Wharf street were greatly suprised last evening by a number of their friends. Miss Dyer of Worcester presented them with an elegant butter knife, the blade being of gold and the handle silver. The evening was passed by playing games, music and singing, and all had a good time.

Friday afternoon a team loaded with meats and provisions, with a horse tied on behind, drove up to the fountain in City square. While the shaft horse was drinking the animal tied on behind became impatient for a drink and giving a quick tug at the rope he capsized the whole concern, scattering the contents of the team in a confused mass all over the street in that vicinity.

It has been rumored about town that the Taylor woman arrested for setting fires in Walpole and the Taylor woman who figured conspicuously as the Quincy milliner, were one and the same person. Constable Furnald who gave the case of the Quincy woman some attention however doubts the rumor for many reasons, and then again the first names of the two women are different and the descriptions are entirely different.

Blue Hill Predictions.

The coming week promises to average cooler than any of the past four weeks. It will be cooler by the evening of the 4th, and much cooler from the 5th to 8th. The lowest temperatures are probable on the night of the 6th and morning of the 7th, when frost may possibly occur in the extreme northern New England. Rising temperature and fair weather are indicated for the 8th and 9th; much warmer again on the 10th and 11th, with showers on the 10th or 11th.—Norfolk County Gazette.

How to Cure Billious Colic.

I suffered for weeks with colic and pain in my stomach, caused by billiousness, and had to take medicine all the while until I used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which cured me. I have since recommended it to a good many people. MRS. F. BUTLER, 22 Fillmore street, Fairhaven, Conn.

FREEDOM FROM FRECKLES, and from all such disfigurements and blemishes, follows the use of the Carlsbad Sprudel Salt. It clears and freshens the skin wonderfully—takes away that dull and mottled look that comes from stomach derangements. Besides being a purgative and an eliminative, the Sprudel is a decided alterative or blood-purifier. It is the prescribed remedy, even in chronic and stubborn cases of eczema and such disorders.

The blood, the liver, the stomach, the kidneys—all are put into a thoroughly healthy condition by the Sprudel Spring, and just as well here as if you were on the spot.

Remember that the only genuine imported Sprudel Water or Salt has the seal of the city of Carlsbad, and the signature of "EISNER & MENDELSON CO., Agts. New York," on every bottle.

Says S. C. Weeks of Melrose, Mass.: "I had been troubled with chronic diarrhoea for over a year when I received a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which I used and it gave me great relief. I then procured a fifty-cent bottle and took about two-thirds of it, and was cured. I have taken some twice since when I had a looseness come on and it stopped it at once. I hope it will help others as it helped me. I feel very thankful to Mr. Stearns, the druggist, for telling me of this remedy and shall be glad to have this letter published."

ALLENS COMPOUND EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA THE HONEST KIND

Receives the Highest Praise from the Best Physicians.

DR. H. F. MERRILL, the wonderful specialist of Augusta, Maine, after giving it a thorough trial in his practice, writes the following convincing letter of praise:

GENTLEMEN:—

I have of late been using some of your medicine in my practice with the most pleasing and satisfactory results. I find that it acts like a charm upon the whole nervous system, and in scrofula and all cutaneous diseases. Its curative properties are fully equal to the claims made for it, and I do not know of one instance where it has not fulfilled all its claims. In cases of General Debility and Nervous Prostration it has proved itself invaluable. It also gives quick relief in Dyspepsia and Canker of the stomach, and is a remarkable fine restorative remedy. It is a great pleasure to be able to recommend such a remedy, as the results following its use are so wonderfully satisfactory. One great thing in its favor is its freedom from superfluous alcohol, and all injurious ingredients.

DR. H. F. MERRILL.

PROF. W. H. MORSE, M. D., F. B. S. Sc. of Westfield, N. J., author of "New Therapeutical Agents", the standard text book of the newer materia medica, Consulting Chemist and Therapeutist, one of the most widely known men among the medical profession gives it his highest endorsement, as testified by the following voluntary statement:

"Allen's Sarsaparilla commends itself to me therapeutically, chemically and clinically. Its therapeutical power, physiological activity, and chemical purity, are all noteworthy; and the reason is to be found in the fact that it is true to its name, or honest, as the word goes. That is, it is vegetable alterative, and tonic. Perhaps the highest praise that may be given it is that its action represents that of mercury, less the faults of that drug; for, has not Pereira said, "A perfect mercury would be a perfect alterative."

W. H. MORSE, M. D., F. B. S. Sc.,
Westfield, N. J.

Although Allen's Sarsaparilla is such a valuable remedy it is not at all expensive, being the largest bottle on the market for $1.00. Trial bottles 50 cts.

A Burning Shame.

That there wasn't a saucier rebel
In all the sunny south,
'Twas easy to tell by the mischievous eyes
And the smiles of her roguish mouth.

But how she hated the Yankees!
She couldn't bear the name.
"How dared they come and whip us?
It was a burning shame!"

One of those selfsame Yankees
Came to her Dixie one day,
And ere the week was over
She'd stolen his heart away.

But how should she treat her captive?
He couldn't be shot, you know,
Because the war was ended
Two dozen years ago.

So, in order to keep him prisoner
The rest of his life instead,
She reckoned she'd have to marry him, tho'
"'Twas a burning shame," she said.
—Blue and Gray.

Shortsightedness.

A rooster flies upon the fence.
Just hear him crow!
His satisfaction is immense,
His self possession is intense,
His lusty lungs give evidence
That this is so.

Another rooster sees him there
And hears him crow.
With flapping wings he cleaves the air.
The fence top is too small to share,
And so they fight and scratch and tear
Till down they go.

So 'tis in life. When any man
Gets eminent,
Some jealous rival tries to plan
Some way to down him, if he can,
And if he just upsets the pan
He feels content.

BEST THEY CAN GET.

House Men May Accept Conservatives' Sugar Figures.

WOOL, COTTON AND METAL

May Prolong the Discussion Between Conferrees.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—The understanding among the tariff conferrees when they adjourned yesterday afternoon was that the session today should bring about either an agreement on the sugar schedule or a decision to report a disagreement.

Yesterday was devoted by the conference to a discussion of the sugar question. The schedule in detail provides for a duty of 40 per cent ad valorem on sugar below 16 Dutch standard, and 40 per cent on sugar above this grade, the duty on the refined sugar to be collected on the basis of the saccharine strength of the raw sugar used in it, with 1-5 cent differential on the refined and a discriminating duty equal to the export duty levied by such sugar-producing countries as pay a bounty on sugar production.

This schedule was submitted to the conference as the ultimatum of the conservative senators, and the house conferrees were given to understand that the schedule was the nearest approach to the requirements that the senate could make with any assurance that the bill would pass in the senate.

Some of the house conferrees are favorably inclined toward the schedule, because they believe that it defines exactly the extra duty to be paid on refined sugars, and is free from the objection urged against the senate schedule, that, owing to the wording of the schedule, it was impossible to tell beyond the 1-8 cent differential what the duty would be on the refined article. They are of the opinion that the duty in the schedule presented yesterday will be confined to the 1-5 cent differential, being inclined to accept these figures as the best they can get.

Other Stumbling Blocks.

While the sugar schedule has been the great stumbling block in the bill, there are various other problems which, while not so intricate, will prove difficult of adjustment. Almost the entire time of the present conference so far has been given to sugar, and no effort has been made to fix rates in any of the other schedules. Many of these have been gone over casually, but it is apprehended that when it comes to putting down the final figures there will be more or less discussion.

This will be found to be especially true on the woolen, cotton and metal schedules. The coal and iron ore questions are still among the undetermined problems, and there is no doubt that there will be a locking of horns over them, and much greater delay is possible than is anticipated by the more sanguine.

The senate conferrees think, however, that if an agreement can be reached early today, it will be possible to have the work so far advanced by the close of the day to justify the calling in of the Republicans on Monday.

On the floor of the senate, and especially among the leading senators, it was considered as quite definitely determined that the sugar question would be settled on the basis given, and so positive was one senator that this would be the immediate result that he told some of his colleagues that he considered final adjournment possible by next Wednesday or Thursday.

No doubt is expressed by a majority of the members of the senate that if the sugar schedule is arranged satisfactorily there will be any great difficulty in harmonizing the 600 and more other items of differences in the bill. The agreement has also been considered sufficiently definitely settled as to render it the subject of much comment in the senate.

The house conferrees came away from the meeting feeling that their work was nearly over. One of them said that a definite statement might be given out tonight.

The house men would not admit that a definite conclusion had been reached on sugar, iron or coal, although their agreement in stating that results would probably be made public tonight or Monday indicated that the basis for agreement on these items was in sight.

As to the strong report of the latter part of the day that an agreement on sugar had been reached, the house men said there was not yet an agreement, although the meeting had shown that an adjustment was in sight.

Deficiency Bill Passes.

The last of the appropriation bills—the deficiency—was passed by the senate last evening. The bills for the admission of New Mexico and Arizona to statehood were reported to the senate and placed on the calendar.

The house bill to subject to state taxation the national bank notes and United States treasury notes was under consideration for a time, but was laid aside without action.

A new "anti-option bill" was introduced by Mr. Davis of Minnesota and led to a brief wrangle, the point of order being finally made that, as it was a bill to raise revenue, "the constitution required that it should originate in the house of representatives." The vice president reserved his ruling on the point of order.

Several house and senate bills were passed, and the conference report on the river and harbor bill was submitted, but not acted on, when the senate adjourned.

Postoffice Clerks.

The house spent a large portion of the day discussing two bills—one for reclassification of the railway mail clerks, and one for the classification of clerks in the first and second class postoffices, but neither was acted upon. The conference report on the river and harbor bill was agreed to without division, and at 5 o'clock the house took a recess until 8 o'clock, when a number of pension bills were considered.

BOSTON, Aug. 3.—The "Champs" must have been tired, for a poorer exhibition they have never given on the home grounds. Tim Keefe, the veteran pitcher, made his first appearance as an umpire, and made a decided hit, not one of his many hard decisions being questioned. The features of the game were the batting and fielding of Abbey and the great throwing of Shortstop Shellbeck.

PATENTS

NOTICE TO INVENTORS.

THERE Was never a time in the history of our country when the demand for inventions and improvements in the arts and sciences generally was so great as now. The conveniences of man-kind in the factory and work-shop, the household, on the farm, and in official life, require continual accessions to the appurtances and implements of each in order to save labor, time and expense. The political change in the administration of government does not affect the progress of the American inventor, who being on the alert, and ready to perceive the existing deficiences, does not permit the officers of government to deter him from quickly concerning the remedy to overcome existing discrepancies. Too great care cannot be exercised in choosing a competent and skilful attorney to prepare and prosecute an application for patent. Valuable interests have been lost and destroyed in innumerable instances by the employment of incompetent counsel, and especially is this advice applicable to those who adopt the "No patent, no pay" system. Inventors who intend their business to this class of attorneys deserve imminent risk, as the breadth and strength of the patent is never considered in view but a quick endeavor to get an allowance and obtain the fee then due. THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY, John Wedderburn, General Manager, 618 F street, N. W. Washington, D. C., representing a large number of important daily and weekly papers, as well as general periodicals of the country, was instituted to protect its patrons from the unsafe methods heretofore employed in this line of business. The said Company is prepared to take charge of all patent business entrusted to it for reasonable fees, and prepares and prosecutes applications generally, including mechanical inventions, design patents, trade marks, labels, copyrights, interferences, infringements, validity reports, and gives especial attention to rejected cases. It is also prepared to enter into competition with any firm in securing foreign patents.

PATENTS

FOR INVENTIONS.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuable inventions because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With the view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys, and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, we have retained counsel expert in patent practice, and therefore are prepared to

Obtain Patents in the United States and all Foreign Countries, Conduct Interferences, Make Special Examinations, Prosecute Rejected Cases, Register Trade-Marks and Copyrights, Render Opinions as to Scope and Validity of Patents, Prosecute and Defend Infringement Suits, Etc., Etc.

If you have an invention on hand send a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be advised as to the best course to pursue. Models are seldom necessary. If others are infringing on your rights, or if you are charged with infringement by others, submit the matter to us for a reliable OPINION before acting on the matter.

NOTICE TO INVENTORS.

THERE Was never a time in the history of our country when the demand for inventions and improvements in the arts and sciences generally was so great as now. The conveniences of man-kind in the factory and workshop, the household, on the farm, and in official life, require continual accessions to the appurtenances and implements of each in order to save labor, time and expense. The radical change in the administration of the government does not affect the progress of the American inventor, who, being on the alert, and ready to perceive the existing defects, does not permit the affairs of government to deter him from quickly concentrating the ingenuity to overcome existing disadvantages. Too great care cannot be exercised in choosing a competent and skilful attorney to prepare and prosecute an application for patent. Valuable interests have been lost and destroyed in innumerable instances by the employment of incompetent persons, and especially is this advice applicable to those who adopt the "No patent, no pay" system. Inventors who intrust their business to this class of attorneys do so at the greatest risk, as the breadth and strength of a patent is never considered in view of a quick endeavor to get an allowance and obtain the fee then due. THE PIERCE CLAIMS COMPANY, John Wedderburn, General Manager, 618 F street, N. W. Washington, D. C., representing a large number of important daily and weekly papers, as well as general periodicals of the country, was instituted to protect its patrons from the unsafe methods heretofore employed in this line of business. The said company is prepared to take charge of all patent business entrusted to it for reasonable fees, and prepares and prosecutes applications generally, including mechanical inventions, design patents, trade marks, labels, copyrights, interferences, infringements, validity reports, and gives especial attention to rejected cases. It is also prepared to enter into competition with any firm in securing valuable patents.

WORK OF CONGRESS.

Much Accomplished by the Session Now Drawing to a Close.

REVIEW OF IMPORTANT MATTERS

Which Have Received the President's Endorsement.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—A review of the legislation which has been accomplished by the second session of the Fifty-third congress up to and including Aug. 3, shows that much has been done aside from the tariff struggle, which has largely diverted public attention from matters which would have under other circumstances been considered of great importance.

In the sum total of bills which have been passed the record of the house is far ahead of the senate, because the senate occupied itself with the tariff bill for a longer time than the house, the measure reaching a vote in the latter body a few days after it was reported from the ways and means committee, under a special rule limiting debate.

However, the record of general legislation which was passed by both houses and received the president's signature is a diversified and interesting one. One of the most important acts of the session was the act repealing all laws creating federal supervisors of elections or defining their powers.

The act to enable the people of Utah to form a constitution and state government and to be admitted into the Union on an equal footing with the original states, provides the machinery by which the territory will be admitted, probably in December, 1895.

An act making the first Monday in September a legal holiday, to be called Labor Day, was passed largely at the instance of labor organizations, while scientific societies urged that the act to define and establish the units of electrical measurement be made law.

Three bills were passed to give effect to the award of the tribunal of arbitration at Paris which adjudicated the seal fisheries disputes; the acts prohibiting seal fishing from May 1 to July 31 of each year, north of degree 35 N. latitude and east of degree 180 of longitude, and establishing conditions under which the fishing can be carried on outside of the closed season, with penalties for violations of the law and machinery for its enforcement.

Several measures were enacted in accordance with the recommendations of the Dockery commission (so called) for improving and amplifying the methods of doing the government business. Most important were those changing the method of auditing accounts in the treasury department, improving the methods of accounting in the postoffice department and changing the money order system and that regulating the making of property returns by officers of the government.

The Appropriation Bills.

First entitled to mention are the appropriation bills for the expenses of the government, which form an important part of the regular work of every session, although generally the last to be finished. General legislation is usually engrafted on these bills, and from this rule those of the past session were no exception.

The postoffice department bill, the first to pass, authorized the postmaster-general to allow postmasters' offices and second-class offices to disburse at their discretion the amount allotted for their offices, and admitted to the mails periodical publications published at least quarterly by benevolent and fraternal societies and other organizations as second-class mail matter.

Provisions were included in the pension bills regulating the fees and methods of examining boards.

In the diplomatic and consular bills several salaries were changed, that of the minister to Belgium being raised from $7500 to $10,000, and a provision to make the bureau of South American republics partially self-sustaining by the sale of its publications was inserted.

In the agricultural bill were provisions governing the distribution of seeds by the department.

Three of the appropriation bills have not yet gone to the president—the river and harbor, general deficiency and sundry civil.

General Deficiency Bills.

Four general deficiency bills have been necessary this session. The first one was signed Dec. 21, 1893, and its principal items were $127,500 for the pay of assistant janitors and custodians under the treasury department and $200,000 for mileage for members, the regular mileage appropriation for the first session having been used during the special session.

The second deficiency bill, signed the same day, included $745,000 for the treasury department, $300,000 of it for the customs service, $200,000 for the pension service, $300,000 for the census and $300,000 for public printing.

The third deficiency, signed March 12, 1894, carried $100,000 for the treasury department, half of it for the enforcement of the Chinese exclusion act, with $315,000 for treasury printing; $305,000 for the department of justice and $50,000 for improvements to the gunboats Castine and Machias.

The fourth bill, approved April 21, carried about $215,000 for the treasury, most of it for the bureau of printing and engraving, and for United States courts $1,436,000. The fifth bill, approved June 19, carried $165,000 for the public printing office and $185,000 for the customs service.

Two resolutions, appropriating $50,000 and $10,000 for enforcing the Chinese exclusion act, were approved Dec. 7, 1893, and April 4, 1894.

As most of the appropriation bills had not passed at the beginning of the fiscal year, July 1, it was necessary to extend by resolution all appropriations for the necessary operations of the government, for pensions and for the District of Columbia.

Merchant Marine Interests.

Among the laws of benefit to merchant marine interests enacted was one to prevent collision at sea; prescribing a system of signals; to facilitate the entry of steamships by authorizing the customs officers to permit the unloading of a vessel of a regular established line on receiving from the master a sworn manifest of the cargo; an act to establish a light and fog signal station near Butter Flats, New Bedford, Mass.; to transfer the Norris island saving station, near Charleston, to Sullivan's island, and an act to provide an American register for steamer El Callao.

Among the acts pertaining to the judiciary of the United States were: To provide for two additional associate justices of the supreme court of Oklahoma territory; to provide that a term of the circuit and district court of the district of Vermont may be held at Montpelier; to require original receipts for deposits of postmasters to be sent to the auditor of the treasury for the postoffice department; to regulate the inspection of iron or steel boiler plates and their stamping by the United States inspectors and fixing the penalties for unauthorized use of the stamp.

By a joint resolution officers and enlisted men of both branches of the service were authorized to wear the badge of the regular army and navy union on formal occasions of ceremony.

Among the land acts was one to settle with the Pemaquid Land company of Maine a disputed boundary of the Pemaquid Point light station; authorizing the purchase or condemnation of lands of the Gettysburg battlefield.

Foremost in importance of the numerous bridge bills which became laws was the act authorizing the New York and New Jersey Bridge company to bridge the Hudson between New York and New Jersey. After its first passage the bill was vetoed by President Cleveland, because it permitted the sinking of a pier in the river. Commercial and shipping bodies opposed it, declaring that it would be a great obstruction to navigation.

An amended bill finally met the sanction of the president and was signed, which provided that the bridges shall be of span and elevation, which the secretary of war shall approve and require, leaving the recommendations to a board of disinterested engineers to be appointed by the president.

This structure, which will be only second to the Brooklyn bridge, if completed, must be built in 10 years under the terms of the act, not less than $1,000,000 to be expended on it each year and $2,500,000 the first year.

Minor Items.

The odds and ends of the session's legislation included a joint resolution authorizing the secretary of the treasury to permit the owners of cattle and horses transporting them into Mexico for grazing to reimport them within 12 months and extending like privileges to Mexicans.

Authorizing the directors of the World's Columbian exposition to confer diplomas upon designers, inventors and expert artisans; authorizing the president to appoint delegates to the meetings of the International Geodetic association; relieving the employes of the record and pension offices who were injured in the Ford's theater disaster from the operation of the law restricting the amount of sick leave with pay that may be granted by the heads of departments; acts providing American registers for the steamship Goldsworthy, the barge Astoria and the steamship Ocean.

AN AGREEMENT PROBABLE.

Democratic Conferees Spent Sunday Afternoon In Talking Tariff.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—The usual Sunday quiet of the Capitol building was broken yesterday by the assembling of the democratic tariff conferees at 2:30 o'clock. The meeting lasted until 6 o'clock. It was marked with even more than the usual secrecy, and resulted in an understanding that a report should be made one way or the other—agreement or disagreement—within the next 72 hours.

That it would be an agreement was not, however, definitely settled. On this point the conferees say they have not yet passed the danger point, although they seemed more confident that it would be an agreement. The discussion yesterday again turned on sugar, iron ore and coal. The fact that these items are receiving attention is taken to indicate that the new sugar schedule has been thoroughly canvassed and that it will be the basis of an agreement, unless some new obstacle intervenes.

The Moody Bible Conference.

EAST NORTHFIELD, Mass., Aug. 6.—Yesterday was a great Sunday at the Bible conference. Fully 2500 attended the morning services, when Evangelist Moody spoke on "Faith." Rev. Dr. F. B. Meyer supplemented his remarks, addressing himself to those who had lost faith. H. L. Hastings, Professor W. W. White and Major Whittle delivered brief addresses.

Police Stopped a Praise Meeting.

BROCKTON, Mass., Aug. 6.—The members of the Advent Christian church, which holds its meeting in Young Men's Christian Association hall, attempted to hold an open-air meeting yesterday, but it was broken up by the police. The Adventists intend to lay the matter before the mayor.

Counihan Exonerated.

WORCESTER, Mass., Aug. 6.—David Gleason, 25 years old, died yesterday from the effects of injuries received while playing football Friday afternoon. Thomas Counihan, who was held responsible by some for the accident, was exonerated from all blame by Gleason.

Used a Knife on Steve Brodie.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—During an altercation, Steve Brodie, the bridge jumper, and coming star in the play, "On the Bowery," was stabbed in the neck by William Meaney, and narrowly escaped having his windpipe severed. The wound is a severe one.

Fast Sailing.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Aug. 6.—The British ship Robertson has arrived with a cargo of tea from Kobe. The run was made in 27 days, which beats all previous records to this port.

Foul Play Suspected.

WEST WINSTED, Conn., Aug. 6.—An unknown tramp was found dead yesterday on the highway at Burrville. Two tramps are held awaiting an inquest.

A COURT OF INQUIRY

Will Investigate Lawlessness Arising From Indiana's Strike.

BRUTAL BEATING OF TWO MEN

Has Brought Matters to a Crisis at Brazil.

BRAZIL, Ind., Aug. 6.—David Wilson and Henry Wright, residents of Attica, were attacked yesterday by a crowd of men on the Jackson-street crossing of the Chicago and Eastern Illinois road and horribly stabbed and beaten. Wilson will die, and Wright is seriously injured, being covered with bruises, his jaw broken and an ugly cut above the left temple. Wilson's principal wounds were internal.

Trainmaster Fowler of the Chicago and Eastern Illinois said that they had come to this city to work on his road, and this led to the belief that the men had been assaulted by strikers. Most of the strikers say they were acquainted with the men, and that they did not come to work on the railroad, and that they were assaulted and robbed by a crowd of toughs. Wright admits that he was robbed.

A man who arrived here yesterday to take a position on the Chicago and Eastern Illinois was attacked by men alleged to be strikers, and was only saved from being killed by drawing a revolver and until a policeman arrived and escorted him to the roundhouse. These acts of violence created so much indignation among the citizens that United States Marshal Hawkins was telegraphed for.

He arrived in the afternoon, accompanied by Chief Assistant Foley. They were escorted to the Chamber of Commerce and met a crowd of prominent business men. Mr. Hawkins, by request of the citizens, made five of the most prominent business men in the city deputy marshals, and invested them with power to select as many assistants as desired.

A finance committee was selected to raise $2500, which was subscribed by those present to carry on the prosecution of the lawbreakers, and to employ detectives to hunt them down.

A court of inquiry will be begun tomorrow, when an effort will be made to bring to justice those who have committed crimes since the strike.

Mayor McCullough issued orders today to the police force to arrest every man and woman who calls another a "scab." More excitement prevails here now than at any time since the killing of Engineer Barr during the miners' strike.

SWINDLER AND FORGER.

Serious Charges Against an Englishman Arrested at Worcester.

WORCESTER, Mass., Aug. 6.—George Lakin, an Englishman, 27 years old, was arrested last night for obtaining money under false pretences and the fraudulent use of the name of Rev. Charles L. Short, who is acting pastor of All Saints' Episcopal church.

Lakin has been working among the people of All Saints' church for the past 10 days with good success, representing to some that he had a sister in Philadelphia, and to others that she was in trouble in England, and needed his assistance.

He asked for a loan of money enough to take him to her, and showed a letter signed by Rev. Mr. Short, stating that he was deserving of aid and that the reverend gentleman had given him assistance.

The scheme worked well until Saturday, when some of the persons he approached reported the case to Chief of Police Raymond. The latter discovered that the letter was a forgery and Lakin's arrest followed last night.

The End.

CHICAGO, Aug. 6.—By the action of the Chicago local unions of the A. R. U. the great strike has been declared off upon all lines in this city, with the exception of the Chicago and Eastern Illinois and Santa Fe roads. This determination was taken at a mass meeting of railroad men held yesterday, and is the result of a secret session of representatives from each local union, the question being decided by ballot. The order went into effect at 7 o'clock this morning.

Simultaneous Uprising Imminent.

MANAGUA, Aug. 6.—General Ortiz is conferring with military leaders assembled here. It is given out that the subject under advisement is the situation on the Mosquito coast, but really it is the local situation. A simultaneous rising all over the country is imminent, it is understood. Should President Zelaya exceed his authority he will be opposed determinedly.

A Series of Accidents.

CITY ISLAND, N. Y., Aug. 6.—The steam canal boat John Lang was in collision with the schooner Douglas Haynes. The Lang had the port side of the cabin and pilot house stove in and broke the mast and derrick. The wife of the captain of canal boat J. F. Moulton (which was alongside the Lang) was thrown overboard by the falling mast and drowned.

Hungarian Pastime.

MOUNT CARMEL, Pa., Aug. 6.—Five Hungarians were stabbed at a wedding here, and two of them will die. The stabbing was done by John Bolton while under the influence of liquor. Bolton refuses to admit or deny that he committed the deed, but witnesses swear that they saw the uplifted dagger in his hands.

An $80,000 Fire.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—Fire last night gutted the six-story brick building known as the Vandyke studio. The three lower floors were occupied by Andrew Lester's Sons, furniture and carpets. The upper floors were given over to a score of artists. The total loss on building and contents is estimated at about $80,000.

Council tonight.

Almost like fall weather.

Copeland street hearing before the City Council tonight.

Mr. Walter Whittemore and family of Wollaston are at the Cape.

John Ross and John Walsh have gone to Meredith, N. H., for two weeks.

The infant found by Officer Nicol last week, died at the Poor farm Saturday.

Mrs. George F. Rand of Newcomb place has gone to Bradford, N. H., to visit her parents.

Mrs. Mary H. Peverly and son Arthur of Chestnut street have gone to Portland, Me., for two weeks.

The estate of Elmer C. Woodworth at Norfolk Downs, has been sold to Albert E. Bonney.

The local yachting fixtures this week are: Quincy, Wednesday; Monatiquot, Thursday; Hull, Saturday.

Our aged and respected citizen, George H. Locke, is spending the month of August in Deerfield, N. H.

It was a fine day Sunday and the street railway was taxed to its utmost to accommodate the large number who desired to ride.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Walter Arnold of Wollaston, will pass the month of August at their summer cottage at Stony Beach, Hull.

Five new members were admitted to the Wollaston Cycle club last week and several more applications will be acted upon this week.

Miss Nellie and Mary Davis of Main street have returned after making a pleasant visit with their uncle at Middlefield, Connecticut.

The City of Quincy carried about eight hundred Sunday. The pretty little steamer continues to grow in favor, and every day scores of ladies take their children for a sail.

The Norfolk County Republican committee organized Saturday with Robert H. O. Schultz of Dedham as chairman; John O. Holden of Quincy as secretary; Morris M. Alden of Randolph as treasurer.

The Park Commissioners of this city have bought of Messrs. John C. Randall, Charles R. Sherman and N. G. Nickerson, 112,000 square feet of land near the Atlantic depot for a playground for that ward.

Mr. and Mr. Charles T. Baker of Wollaston, started on Saturday for the White Mountains, via Portland, where they will stop a few days. They will visit the summit of Mt. Washington and other points of interest.

Norfolk Downs already has a resident physician. Dr. J. N. Jones has had the courage to hang out a shingle there, corner Billings road and Vane street, and is meeting with success. His weekly health talks in the PATRIOT are also appreciated.

Messrs. C. F. Pettingill, George G. Saville, George Jones and W. A. Winslow left Saturday evening in the yacht White Fawn for Casco bay. This is the fourth annual trip these same gentlemen have made to this locality. They will be absent about two weeks.

Dr. Joseph M. Sheahan has purchased the Whicher estate on the corner of School and Summer streets. The estate has a frontage of 128 feet on School street and 213 feet on Summer street. The frontage on Summer street adjoins the estate now owned and occupied by the doctor.

Mr. Perez Joyce, who has resided on Quincy avenue of over half a century, will be eighty-four years old tomorrow. He commenced when a boy of seventeen years to make boots and has worked at that business ever since; and has probably been engaged in that calling longer than any other gentleman in Quincy. There is one or perhaps two bootmakers in this city who are older in years, but have not followed that pursuit constantly from youth, as Mr. Joyce has done; therefore he is at the top of the ladder.

☞Of course, you can chase Mrs. Mosquito and Mr. Fly out of your house with fans and lots of other furnishings—but that don't keep them out. Our screens will do it, practical and scientific, the price but 25 or 50 cents. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

IT WAS LADIES' DAY.

The Squantum Yacht Club Again Entertains the Fair Ones.

THE YACHTS AND THEIR GUESTS.

The Sail Was a Short One But Tide Went Out With the Boats.

The Squantum Yacht club observed its second annual ladies' day Saturday afternoon.

Owing to the unpleasant weather in the morning many of those who had intended to participate were kept away, yet those who did come out had no cause to regret it, as the afternoon proved to be all that was desired.

The non-arrival of the Commondore's boat delayed matters some and it was after 3 o'clock before the boats and their guests passed in review of the Commodore, saluting as they passed, and put out to sea for a sail.

There was but little wind and the sail was much shorter than intended on account of the lateness in starting.

The course was to the spar buoy in West gut and return.

It was after 5 o'clock when the return was made and at that time the tide had ebbed so far that landing was made with difficulty and some of the ladies must have felt the mud oozing over the tops of their low cut shoes before the club house was reached.

In one case a tiny little sailor lad was observed carrying a heavy man on his shoulders from the tender to the shore.

Some of the boys offered to carry the young ladies ashore in their arms but they declined, evidently prefering to be hugged in not quite so conspicuous a place.

The club is unfortunate in not having a float at which a landing can be made at low water, but it is a young club yet and another season they may have this desired improvement.

After the return from the sail refreshments of ice cream, cake and lemonade were served in the club house, and to the credit of this club let it be said it was good and there was plenty of it.

The affair which was very successful was in charge of the house committee, composed of A. F. Picard, H. E. Nelson, G. S. Hollowell, Thomas Atkins, George H. De Huff, H. A. Corbett and Benjamin Sargent.

The yachts with their guests to participate in the sail were:

Myrtle,—Commodore, H. F. Burkhardt, Miss Gertrude Fowler, Miss Lillian Fowler, Mrs. A. L. Picard, C. L. Carter.

Agilis,—Capt. F. E. Badger, Mrs. Edward Richardson, Miss Bessie Drew, Miss Flora Drew, Dr. Maria E. Drew, Miss Louise Kolb, Miss Minnie Kolb, Miss Mamie McLane, Miss Nellie Milner, Elezer F. How to Cure Billious Colic.

I suffered for weeks with colic and pain in my stomach, caused by billiousness, and had to take medicine all the while until I used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which cured me. THE RECORD BROKEN.

Morse Does Some Great Shooting at Wollaston on Saturday.

Morse did great work at the Wollaston Trap club's shoot on Saturday afternoon, breaking 24 blue rocks straight, missing but one out of 25. This beats all of the previous records of the Trap club. This was not a streak of luck as he invariably breaks over 20 at each shoot. After the regular shoot Morse broke 20 birds more.

Whitman came in a good second with 20 to his credit and D. B. Lincoln followed close with 19.

The average score this week was unusually high, it being 15.3. If the club keeps the score up to that average it is probable that it will join the state association.

WON IN THE NINTH.

The South Quincys Defeat the Lincolns in an Exciting Game.

The South Quincys were victorious again Saturday when they won from the Lincolns in a hotly contested game of 11 to 9. The score was 9 to 8 at the close of the eighth inning in favor of the Lincolns. With the South Quincys at the bat Pirivano put a swift grounder past short for one base and stole second on the first ball pitched. Guston hit safe to right and Pirivano went down to third. Guston stole second. This left a man on second and third with Ingram at the bat, who hit for two bases, Pirivano and Guston scoring and Ingram came in on Gill's safe hit. The next three men struck out and finished the first half. Birnie's pitching in the last half was grand, striking out two men. White hit a fly to centre but McIntosh caught it, closing the game. The score:

Lincolns	2	0	1	3	2	1	0	0	0	—9

It is also made of Quincy stone and both within and without is a model of architectural beauty.

A Boston exchange says: The Canada Atlantic & Plant steamship line a few months ago purchased of the North American Steamship company the steamers Worcester and Carroll for $3500. Men have been at work removing the machinery and iron from these steamers, and it is estimated that nearly 600 tons of iron and probably 20 tons of yellow metal—brass and copper—will be secured. Yellow metal is worth about 5 cents a pound, which would be $2000 for that alone, and together with the iron, will be a good return for the purchase. The owners have not decided whether to burn the hulls or sell them for barges.

The Lovell Cycle club is well pleased over the work of two of their crack riders at East Boston on Saturday. It was the ten mile road race under the auspices of the Naveriet Wheel club. OLD COLONY LEAGUE

Close Game With Small Score at Merry Mount Park.

VICTORY FOR THE QUINCYS.

Institutes and Whitmans Win From the Booby Twins.

Games in Old Colony league Saturday, were won by Institutes, Quincys and Whitmans, defeating respectively the Randolphs, Holbrooks and the Braintrees. The only change in the standing of the league is that the Samosets of Whitman have again overhauled the Holbrooks and each have won one-half of the games played. The Institutes and Quincys continue to win, and the Braintrees and Randolphs are rapidly sliding down the toboggan together:

	Played.	Won.	Lost.	Per Cent.
Institutes,	13	12	1	92
Quincys,	11	8	3	73
Holbrooks,	14	7	7	50
Whitmans,	12	6	6	50
Braintrees,	14	3	11	21
Randolphs,	14	3	11	21

TWO TO NOTHING.

The Quincys Whitewash the Holbrooks at Merry Mount Park.

It was one of the old time crowds that gathered on the Quincy grounds Saturday afternoon to see the crack team from Holbrook meet defeat from the hands of Connors, the star twirler of the league, and his companions, by the score of 2 to 0. It was the first shut out a team has got in the league. The game was the finest ever seen in Quincy, abounding in many brilliant plays and timely hitting by Faircloth, Ford and Gilrain.

The batting work of both teams was of the highest order, only two hits being made off Connors, while the Quincys only made five hits off of Fitz, the catching of Nolan and Burrell was very fine, also the batting of Burrell.

In the fourth inning Burrell cracked out a sharp single between short-stop and second, stole second and came home on hit by Gilrain. Score, Quincys 1, Holbooks 0.

In the seventh Connors got his base on balls, Pitts flied out to centre field, Connors stole second and scored on a hit by Faircloth. Score, Quincys 2, Holbrooks 0.

The features of the game was the fine playing of Kisner, C. King and Nolan for the Holbrooks, while the playing of Slade, Faircloth and J. Duffy was very brilliant. Pitts and Gilrain accepted all of the seventeen chances, some of which were very difficult.

The umpiring of Ryan was very satisfactory, considering the many close decisions he had to make, and the steady kicking of B. King and Kisner, the latter using very insulting language. The summary:

Whitmans 16; Braintrees 5.

The Whitmans won with hands down on Saturday, defeating the Braintrees by the score of 16 to 5.

Institutes 6; Randolphs 2.

The Randolphs put up a good game at Weymouth Saturday, but the Institutes were on the home grounds and won by the score of 6 to 2. There was an attendance of about 800.

Around the Bases.

About 2000 people saw the league games on Saturday: 800 at Quincy, 800 at Weymouth and 400 at Whitman.

The Institutes are having many close calls now-a-days. The Randolphs held them down to six runs.

Another game at Merry Mount park next Saturday; Randophs vs. Quincys.

The Holbrooks and Whitmans will dissolve that tie next Saturday when they play together at Whitman.

The Samosets of Whitman made more runs Saturday than all the other five clubs in the league.

The Institutes play at Braintree on Saturday. It was a close contest when these clubs met there before.

FOOT BALL AND SPORTS.

On Saturday afternoon the Quincy Foot Ball club held its first annual picnic and sports at Houghs Neck. The weather being good an enjoyable time was spent.

The first item on the programme was a foot ball game between two teams of club members. The teams lined up as follows:

A Team.		B Team.

J. Smith	"	T. Raleigh

Referee: James Thompson.

B team won the toss and A. Benzie kicked off against the sun and a slight breeze. The ball was kept travelling from end to end of the field, and it was easy to see that the game was going to be a hard one. Close on the call of half time, Simpson, with a low raking shot, sent the ball in and Marr failing to stop it A team went up one point. During the remainder of the first half, the B team fought hard to draw level but were unlucky at the goal mouth. At half time the score stood: A team, 1 goal; B team, 0.

The second half was even faster than the first, as the A's were trying hard to increase its lead, while the B's were determined to draw them, but neither team could score, and the game finished with the score remaining the same: A team, 1 goal; B team, 0.

RANDOLPH, MASS., March 13, 1894—I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and found it excellent for diarrhoea. I have recommended it to friends and know of two cases of diarrhoea having been cured with one small bottle. JOSEPH H. FOSTER.

BESET BY ICE.

An Opinion That the Journey of the Wellman Expedition Was Foolhardy.

LONDON, Aug. 4.—The Royal Geographical society has received the following telegram from Baron Nordenskjold: Six men who were with the Wellman expedit on have returned to Norway. The other members of the party continued northwards on the ice, but it is evidently impossible for them to penetrate far, and the expedition is likely to return very much exhausted to the Swedish houses at Mossel bay.

These houses are excellent, but the provisions they contain will not be sufficient. In August and September there will probably be no ice between Enyl and Icefjord, and Mossel bay will then be accessible. I think a relief expedition is desirable.

The Times, commenting on the foregoing, says that Baron Nordenskjold's opinion deserves the most serious attention. It is too late, it remarks, to express an opinion on the foolhardiness of the expedition. Mossel bay may be beset by ice early in the season, and it is to be hoped that the party will get safely out of their rash adventure. Doubtless Mr. Wellman's countrymen will not delay in taking steps to prevent the possibility of a lamentable calamity.

Caserio Must Die.

LYONS, Aug. 4.—At the second day's trial of the anarchist assassin the court gave these questions to the jury: Did the prisoner, Santo Caserio, assassinate President Carnot, and was the crime premeditated? The jury retired at 12:05 o'clock and were absent just 13 minutes. They returned to court and presented an affirmative answer to both questions. At the announcement of the verdict the supercilious grin which Caserio has worn most of the time during the trial disappeared like magic and his face blanched. Caserio was sentenced to death. As the sentence was pronounced he tottered, and with a weak voice, said: "Vive social revolution." Then in a louder voice, he shouted: "Courage, comrades; vive anarchie."

Boston's Police Investigation.

BOSTON, Aug. 4.—Boston has a full-fledged police investigation on hand. Although an ordinary sergeant appears to be the figurehead in the inquiry, the present indications are that it will be far-reaching in its efforts. Sergeant William J. Sheehan of division 4 is the first of the force to be called to account, and a leading police official told a reporter last night that there would be others who are higher in police councils who would be called upon to explain their conduct. The investigation, according to present plans, will cover the time from the creation of the police commission, nine years ago, to the present day.

Costly Business.

Neumeister, as deputy city clerk, was yesterday served with a bill for $236,000, which the Columbian exposition complains is due to it from the city for damages to property in Jacksonville park, caused by mobs and rioters July 5 last. An immense number of shippers have filed claims against the city for damages occasioned by the strike. The gross amount asked is already well up in the millions.

BRAINTREE ELECTRIC ROAD

The New Franchise Not Acceptable and There It Stands.

People have been at a loss to account for the delay in the construction of the electric street railroad through Braintree, and are expressing the desire on every hand to have an explanation of the matter. So far as we know it is as follows:

July 1st the franchise granted by the town to the Braintree Electric Street Railway Company expired, and it was well for the town that it did, for it was a loosely drawn and worthless document.

This having occurred an application was made for a renewal of the franchise but the Selectmen profiting by the experience which they have had, refused to grant this by drawing up a new franchise containing conditions which in their judgment were necessary to impose for the due protection of the interest of the town.

These conditions may be briefly stated. First, that a practical engineer be engaged to see that the grade of the streets over which the road is to pass, be not altered; that said engineer be paid by the company; that the company shall, in consideration for this privilege of passing over the streets, convey the children free of charge, living in outlying districts to and from school; that there be tangible proof shown that the company have sufficient funds to build the road, and that operations begin not later than the month of October of the present year.

The company demur to the acceptance of the condition of payment of engineer and the other that of conveying of children to and from school free of charge. And here is just where the matter stands.—Observer.

GRAND STAND RUINED

And a Score of People Injured at a Sunday Game In Chicago.

CHICAGO, Aug. 6.—At the beginning of the seventh inning yesterday, fire was discovered under the seats in the north stand, and the game was called. Inside of three minutes the entire stand, together with the bleachers and a portion of the elegant grand stand, was a sea of flame, which was not controlled until two-thirds of the grand stand had been destroyed. In the wild scramble, several arms were broken and a score of people were slightly burned and cut by barb-wire fencing. The fire is supposed to have been started by a boy lighting a cigaret. The colts won the game very handily.

Vaughn of the Cincinnatis is disabled for the rest of the season by a broken arm.

Keeler is the latest man to make his 100th run, accomplishing the feat on Friday.

After a trial of three games, the Cleveland club has given Tony Mullane his release.

In the first Brooklyn-New York game of Friday, Davis made his first error in 17 games.

New Bedford is getting fully as much baseball this season as the New England league cities.

Cleveland is the only western club that appears to have even a fighting chance for the pennant.

The veteran outfielder, Tom York, is managing and captaining the Norwich (Conn.) club.

Jones, second baseman, and Grant, change catcher, are to be released by the New Bedfords.

While Tiernan is on the sick list his place in right field is being more than filled by young Murphy.

There is almost universal condemnation throughout the league cities over the character of the ball furnished by the league.

The Philadelphia Times says that if the players did not give the cue there would not be so much howling at the ball games.

Vickery, released by Springfield and signed by Buffalo, has pitched in four games for the latter and won three of them.

In two games the Haverhills made 42 hits, and every player batted safely in both games, with the exception of Fred Lake.

The Boston players admit that it was Murphy's phenomenal work in right field that saved the New Yorks from defeat last Thursday.

President Ross of the Portland Baseball club announces that Catcher Mahoney has been suspended for refusing to go with the club on its trip.

In a Kansas City-Detroit game Ollie Beard of the former team went to the bat five times and rapped out two doubles, one three-baser and one home run.

Between $2500 and $3000 was due the disbanded Troy players for salaries. They got back about one-third of that amount by the games in Providence.

Scranton, Pa., and its environs has a population of 100,000, and President Powers of the Eastern league says that it will make one of the best cities on the circuit.

If the ball produced at Louisville on Friday had the stamp of Secretary Young upon it, and the umpire decided that it was a proper ball, then Anson had no right to refuse to play with it.

Again In the Toils.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 6.—Albert C. Ward, the check swindler, notorious in every city in the country, was arrested here yesterday. He was a confederate of Bill Kissane of the steamer Martha Washington fame. He was also imprisoned at Fort Lafayette, N. Y., in 1864, as one of a conspiracy of hotel burners, two of whom were hanged. He has not been long out of a penitentiary in New York.

SIMPLY WAITING.

Congress Can Adjourn as Soon as the Tariff Matter Is Disposed Of.

WASHINGTON, Aug 6.—With the tariff disposed of, the senate could probably adjourn in three or four days' time.

The last of the general appropriation bills has passed both houses, and a majority of them have been signed by the president. Some of these bills are in conference still, but if an agreement upon them would bring an adjournment, it would not long be delayed, as there are no irreconcilable differences between the two houses on appropriations. There is no measure other than the tariff bill and the appropriation bills which would be strong enough to hold the senate together for even a day.

The probabilities for the week include a report from the tariff conference committee and subsequent debate, and also the presentation of the conference reports on the sundry civil, river and harbor, Indian and general deficiency appropriation bills and the consideration of the calendar when these more important matters do not occupy a position to receive attention. The immigration bill comes up today at 2 o'clock, and, in lieu of the tariff, may excite considerable debate.

The house will proceed this week, as it did last, with a fixed program, simply awaiting the final report on the tariff bill. All its routine business has been transacted, and it is simply waiting.

Today is being devoted to the Settle-Williams contested election case from North Carolina. If the conferrees on the tariff reach an agreement this week, the report will first be considered in the senate, and after being disposed of there, will come to the house. It is not the intention of the house managers to allow any protracted debate.

NOT CONFIRMED.

Story That the Japanese Captured Three Men-of-War Is Doubted.

SHANGHAI, Aug. 6.—The rumor current to the effect that the Japanese fleet had captured three men-of-war has not been confirmed. It is believed here that the report is possibly a rehash of the reports of the prior engagements of the fleet.

As yet there has been no disorder in Shanghai growing out of the war, beyond a few trifling encounters between Japanese and Chinese rowdies. The municipal council has appointed a rendezvous for the volunteers in the event of an emergency arising that will require their services, but no anxiety is felt as to the safety of Europeans.

The Japanese association, which includes among its members the leading Japanese of Shanghai and vicinity, has issued a warning to the Japanese residents that they must behave themselves and avoid any act that would tend to precipitate a conflict with the Chinese. They are particularly warned to keep away from the Chinese quarters of the city after dusk, and to remain as far as possible within the confines of their own settlement.

Dispatches received at the foreign office from Shanghai confirm The Times' dispatch as to the testimony given by Colonel von Hannekin. The official advices show that some of the British officers of the Kow Shing jumped overboard from the vessel and were rescued by boats from the Japanese warships.

The government has received no confirmation of the report that the Emperor of China has deprived Viceroy Li Hung Chang of the yellow riding jacket.

The Jackson Expedition Starts.

ARCHANGEL, Russia, Aug. 6.—Steamer Windward, having on board the Jackson polar expedition, sailed hence yesterday afternoon for Harbourova, or Juerski Schar, as circumstances shall determine. The expedition secured here additional stores, furs and a number of Russian ponies. At Harbourova, or Juerski Schar, a few Gemoyeds will be added to the crew of the Windward, and the steamer will then proceed direct to the southern shore of Franz Josef land.

PATENTS

NOTICE TO INVENTORS.

THERE Was never a time in the history of our country when the demand for inventions and improvements in the arts and sciences generally was so great as now. The conveniences of man-kind in the factory and work-shop, the household, on the farm, and in official life, require continual accession to the appurtances and implements of each in order to save labor, time and expense. The political change in the administration of government does not affect the progress of the American inventor, who, being on the alert, and ready to perceive the existing deficiences, does not permit the affairs of government to deter him from quickly conceiving the remedy to overcome existing discrepancies. Too great care cannot be exercised in choosing a competent and skilful attorney to prepare and prosecute an application for patent. Valuable interests have been lost and destroyed in innumerable instances by the employment of incompetent counsel, and especially is this advice applicable to those who adopt the "No patent, no pay" system. Inventors who intrust their business to this class of attorneys do so at imminent risk, as the breadth and strength of the patent is never considered in view of a quick endeavor to get an allowance and obtain the fee then due. THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY, John Wedderburn, General Manager, 618 F street, N. W., Washington, D. C., representing a large number of important daily and weekly papers, as well as general periodicals of the country, was instituted to protect its patrons from the unsafe methods heretofore employed in this line of business. The said Company is prepared to take charge of all patent business entrusted to it for reasonable fees, and prepares and prosecutes applications generally, including mechanical inventions, design patents, trade marks, labels, copyrights, interferences, infringements, validity reports, and gives especial attention to rejected cases. It is also prepared to enter into competition with any firm in securing foreign patents.

PATENTS

FOR INVENTIONS.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuable inventions because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With the view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys, and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, we have retained counsel expert in patent practice, and therefore are prepared to

Obtain Patents in the United States and all Foreign Countries, Conduct Interferences, Make Special Examinations, Prosecute Rejected Cases, Register Trade-Marks and Copyrights, Render Opinions as to Scope and Validity of Patents, Prosecute and Defend Infringement Suits, Etc., Etc.

If you have an invention on hand send a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be at once advised as to the best course to pursue. Models are seldom necessary. If others are infringing on your rights, or if you are charged with infringement by others, submit the matter to us for a reliable OPINION before acting on the matter.

HOUSE IS IMPATIENT.

Will Hold a Caucus Today to Discuss the Tariff Question.

THE "PROGRESS" OF CONFERREES

Does Not Appear to Have Yielded Definite Results.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—The growing impatience of members of the house over the failure to agree on a tariff bill culminated last night when Chairman Holman of the house caucus committee issued the following call:

To the Democratic Members of the House:

There will be a caucus held in the hall of the house on tomorrow, Tuesday, Aug. 7, at 8 o'clock p. m. W. S. HOLMAN, Chairman.

The call was in response to a petition signed by 53 members of the house. The petition had been circulated by Mr. Bynum of the ways and means committee, and the success of the move was assured half an hour from the time the petition was started.

Intense feeling was developed as soon as the caucus move began. Members gathered in the lobbies and talked excitedly for and against the step. Representatives Straus, Warner and others friendly to the administration denounced it as a "fire in the rear." Neither Speaker Crisp nor Chairman Wilson had been consulted as to the caucus, and it was recognized as directly in opposition to their wishes.

Conferrees May Stay Away.

Representative Outhwaite, an associate of Speaker Crisp on the committee on rules, said: "The caucus is not endorsed by the committee on rules or by the conferrees. It is evidently a move against the house conferrees. Members of the rules committee will probably enter the caucus, but I expect the conferrees will remain away in view of the fact that adverse action by the caucus would be equivalent to a vote of 'want of confidence.'"

Representative Straus, a close friend of Mr. Wilson's, expressed the opinion that the caucus would prove a boomerang. He believed Mr. Wilson and the other conferrees and their friends would attend the caucus and undertake to carry it. With such men as Speaker Crisp, Chairman Wilson, Bourke Cockran and others urging loyalty to the house conferrees, Mr. Straus did not think an antagonistic resolution would pass. He said also that he expected the caucus would bring out some startling conference secrets, which would insure the conferrees support from the house.

Messrs. Springer and Bynum make no concealment of the fact that the caucus is for the purpose of ending the contest by accepting the senate bill. In this connection they quote a statement made to them by Senator Mills to the effect that further house resistance meant the killing of all tariff legislation.

No Signs of a Report.

When the Democratic tariff conference adjourned yesterday there seemed to be a better feeling among the conferrees than at the close of previous sessions.

Members from both houses announced that the committee had been working over a schedule, and that progress was being made, but they did not indicate when a report would be reached, though some of the conferrees expressed the opinion that an agreement was in sight. For a considerable portion of the day the senators were not in the conference room, but it was stated that no significance was to be attached to that fact, as they were all working toward an agreement.

These senators occasionally repaired to the committee room of Senator Vest and sometimes were in consultation with Democratic managers in the room of the committee on appropriations. Considerable surprise was expressed by the conferrees when they learned that a call for a house caucus had been issued, and it evidently was very distasteful to the house members who had felt that they were beginning to see an agreement.

Mr. Montgomery said that the caucus would make no difference so far as he was concerned, and he would contiue the work he was engaged in, unless some action very different from that which he anticipated should be taken by the caucus. He said that while the caucus was in progress the conferrees would be at work.

Work of Congress.

The discussion of Senator Chandler's Dominion Coal company resolution and of Senator Hill's anarchist exclusion bill occupied the time of the senate yesterday and furnished the texts for two very interesting and at times lively debates. The resolution was sent over without action by the expiration of the morning hour and the exclusion bill was passed. The conference report on the river and harbor bill was resubmitted and agreed to.

The house transacted some unimportant routine business, but spent most of the day debating the senate amendments to the Indian appropriation bill, providing for the ratification of the treaties with the Nez Perce, Yakima and Yuman Indians, but no vote was taken. Mr. Johnson of Ohio presented the memorial of the Central Labor union of Cleveland praying for the impeachment of United States District Judge Ricks of Ohio and it was referred to the judiciary committee.

Reported Infraction of the Reform Laws.

CITY OF MEXICO, Aug. 7.—The government is reported to have sent agents around to the different churches, investigating reports that religious communities have been again formed. The reform law forbids the assembling of members of a religious order in excess of three persons under a single roof.

GOT DISCOURAGED.

Poor Playing of Senators Caused Pitcher Maul to Go to Pieces.

BOSTON, Aug. 6.—Discouraged and disheartened at the rank fielding of his fellow players, Pitcher Maul went to pieces in the seventh inning, and by some great stick work and very rank errors by the visitors Boston scored 12 runs. Up to this time it was as pretty a contest as seen on the home grounds this season, but the Senators couldn't stand the pace, and fumbles, muffs and wild throws came in rapid order. Tim Keefe called the game at the end of the eighth, in order that the Washingtons could get home.

Burned to Death.

MECHANICS FALLS, Me., Aug. 7.—About 9:20 o'clock last night fire was discovered in a house on Myrtle street occupied by Charles McGovern on the first floor and Mrs. Knight on the second floor. McGovern's boy was badly burned and will probably die. Mrs. Knight was rescued from the building, and died in a few minutes. Charles Buckman was nearly suffocated. A man named Cullen was badly burned on the wrists and hands. The cause of the fire is unknown.

Somebody Blundered.

BOSTON, Aug. 7.—At yesterday's session of the state branch, American Federation of Labor, the usual souvenir was found to contain the pictures of Governor Greenhalge, Mayor Matthews and Josiah Quincy, in addition to the advertisement of a boycotted brewery and another non-union concern. Open insinuations were hurled across the floor, and after a long wrangle it was voted to investigate the conditions under which the souvenir was issued and to suppress the present book.

BRITANNIA'S TRICKS

Failed to Deprive the Vigilant of a Well-Earned Victory.

THE SATANITA CAME IN LAST

Notwithstanding Strong Efforts Made In Her Favor.

COWES, Aug. 7.—The announcement that the Satanita, regarded by the British yachtsmen as their representative rough-weather cutter, would take part in the contest yesterday for a prize of $650, subscribed by the Royal London Yacht club, intensified interest in the event.

The shores of the Isle of Wight, around which the three yachts sailed, were skirted with throngs of English folk, and every port of the little place sent out a small fleet of boats of many kinds, whose occupants saw the racers pass on their 50-mile tussle around the island.

The Vigilant started last, but eventually crept through the lee of the Britannia and forged ahead of the Satanita, which was leading. On the home run, from Yarmouth to Cowes, the Vigilant drew away from the prince's yacht and made a show of the Satanita. The Vigilant finished a winner at 5:04:35, beating the Britannia by 8m. 13s. actual time, and 6m. 9s. corrected time. The Satanita was almost hull down.

CAPTAIN HANK HAFF.

It was estimated when the Britannia finished that the Satanita was nearly half an hour astern of the victorious American. Time at the finish: Vigilant, 5:04:35; Britannia, 5:12:48; Satanita not in.

As on Saturday, the whistles of the yachts and the voices of the multitudes were silent when the white sloop swept across the line.

What Captain Haff Thinks.

After the race Captain Haff of the Vigilant said: "It is quite true that the Britannia tried to hold us at the start, evidently in order to allow the Satanita to get ahead. In fact, that was their tactics throughout. When one got slightly ahead, the other immediately tried to hold up, and this led to our running into the shore more than once. The Satanita led only on the run to Bembridge. Directly we turned the point, and started to reach for St. Catherine's point, we began to gain and soon passed her.

"The Britannia also came up and commenced a series of luffing matches. The Britannia was to windward and prevented us from passing, continually bearing down on us and keeping us in shore. Ultimately, when we had just passed Ventnor, we tried to pass the Britannia to leeward, but failed. Then we decided to pass her to windward, whatever the risks might be.

"We succeeded, and the Britannia was pressed in shore and rubbed her bottom. Later on the Britannia again tried the same game, when we were close together. We were determined not to be jockeyed in this fashion, and as both were game, it was simply a case of which would go the farthest in shore.

"As the Britannia draws three feet more water than the Vigilant, she went on the rocks. The Vigilant also bumped, being nearer to the shore, but I do not think that she suffered seriously. Nevertheless, we intend to dock her to ascertain if her keel is injured. The Britannia's position, however, appeared to us

Momentarily as Serious.

Her stern rose three feet out of the water and her men were sent forward. She then, without actually stopping, bumped along into deeper water."

Captain Haff concluded, significantly: "If the Britannia continues these tricks there will be a yacht or two less to race in these regattas."

Captain Carter of the Britannia said that the Britannia grazed the rocks three times during the race. A diver has since examined her bottom, and reports that a part of her keel and copper has been torn away.

A striking effect was realized last night at sunset, when the whole of the bunting which had been displayed on the hundreds of yachts lying in the harbor was simultaneously lowered and immediately replaced with myriads of lights, the most conspicuous being the Atlanta, with a string of electric lamps rainbowed from stem to stern, while the German imperial yacht Hohenzollern and the royal yachts displayed colored lights. The w..e made a brilliant and fairy-like scene viewed from the shore.

Reason.

There is a reason for everything.

When the managers of the Fall River Line recently gave us the contract to carpet their magnificent new steamer "Priscilla"—the finest piece of marine architecture afloat—it was not a hap-hazard award, but it was based on careful judgment as to style, quality, and price.

It will be well to think of this when next you need goods in our line.

THE QUARRY RAILROAD.

The Ledger Representative Takes the Trip—What Has Been Accomplished.

A grade of 150 feet to a mile is what the new Quarry railroad has to overcome and to one who makes the trip up for the first time in the cab of a puffing locomotive, the sensation is a peculiar one. Starting from the point where the road joins the main line of the N. Y. N. H. & H. R. R., near the works of the Granite Railway Company with five dump cars full of gravel, the fireman commences to shovel on coal and the engineer to let on steam and up you go at first very rapid but as the upper grade is reached, much slower.

The road abounds in sharp curves but the speed is not diminished and the shaking and jolting one gets is enough to settle the heartiest dinner a man ever ate. But the top is reached in less than four minutes and the cars are soon dumped and the downward trip commenced. Coming down the speed is much slower, however, than in going up.

At present the rails of the road and many of the spur tracks are in and the work now under way is the balasting which is being done at the rate of about 50 cars per day. That part already completed is in first class shape and fully up to the standard required by a road that is to do the kind of business this one will do. It is expected that the road will be fully completed and ready for operation in about four weeks.

Dr. Hallowell was a sight to behold Monday morning. His family are summering at Germantown, and his son waded out on the beach until he got stuck in the mud. The doctor went to the rescue but also got stuck, and the more he wallowed the deeper he went. Then the tide was coming in and our friend got nervous, for he had read of death in the quicksand. It was not to be his fate, however, for he was rescued, and his best, go-to meeting clothes are being renovated.

Seventy-Fifth Anniversary.

There was a pleasant family gathering on Copland street, West Quincy, on Sunday last. The occasion being the seventy-fifth birthday of Mrs. Michael Elcock.

The day was made pleasant for her by her children, six in number, and grandchildren numbering twenty-five, who presented her with a purse of gold and birthday cake, bearing the inscription

GRANDMA,
1819 and 1894,

Which marked her three-quarter century. She also received several tokens and flowers from friends which showed the high esteem in which she is held.

Though old in years, she is well versed in all of the topics of the day and enjoyed the occasion as well as the youngest present, and wished them all a long life and that their closing years would be as happy and peaceful as hers.

THE CITY COUNCIL.

West Quincy Did Not Enthuse on Copeland Street Widening.

MONEY FOR WATER EXTENSIONS

But the Council First Wants Information as to Income, Expenses, Etc.

Copeland street will not probably be widened as no one outside the Council appeared in favor at the hearing Monday evening. A plan was presented for a widening to 45 feet which the LEDGER will consider in detail in a few days. There was more interest in an appropriation for extension of water mains and other business brought up.

The absent members were Councilmen Baker, Holbrook, Litchfield and Snow.

Incendiaries Beware.

A communication was received from the Mayor asking authority to offer a reward for the apprehension of incendiaries. Placed on file until later in the evening, when an order granting the authority was passed.

Walker Street.

A communication was also received from the Mayor stating that the City Solicitor had called attention to certain informalities in the laying out of Walker street. Referred to Committee on Streets.

More Aid Wanted.

A communication was received from the City Auditor giving notice that the appropriation for aid under chapters 447 and 298, was exhausted and must be replenished before Sept. 1. To Committee on Finance.

Petitions.

Petitions were received from J. E. Butler, for license to give a sparring exhibition; from Misses Flynn to keep an intelligence office; from Alonzo C. H. Lord, for a common victuallers license and for a billiard and pool table license. To Committee on Licenses.

Mrs. C. M. Lapham asked permission to transfer her intelligence office to 4 Washington street. Laid on the table until later in the evening, when order was introduced and passed.

Petitions were also received from the Quincy Electric Light and Power Co. for location for 5 poles on Phipps street, and 2 poles on River street. Referred to Committee on Streets.

Reports of Committee.

The joint committee on Finance and Water Supply reported an order appropriating $30,000 for the extension of water supply and purchase of pipes. Read once.

The Committee on Ordinances reported leave to withdraw on the communication relating to the keeping of dogs. Upon motion of Councilman Holden the matter was laid on the table until the next meeting.

The Committee on Licences reported an order granting a license to John W. Nash to keep and sell gunpowder. Adopted.

The Committee on Finance reported an order transferring $90 to pay bills of fire department over the appropriation for the years 1892 and 1893. Ordered to its second reading.

The order granting a location to the Quincy & Boston street railway on Franklin street came up for its final passage but upon motion of Councilman Bigelow it was laid on the table.

Councilman Bigelow had the order taken from the table later. He said he had intended to oppose the order, but he had received a note from the president of the Quincy and Boston street railway saying that under no circumstances would the company accept a location in the centre of Independence avenue, requiring paving and a flat rail. The Councilman said Franklin street was too narrow for a street railway. We now have object lessons in Copeland and Coddington streets. Locations should never have been granted unless street railway paid for widening these streets. It was about time to legislate for the taxpayers. Upon his motion the order was again laid on the table.

The order granting permission to the Quincy Quarry Co., to cross certain ways was passed to be ordained.

Copeland Street Heaing.

The time had now arrived for the public hearing on widening Copeland street and upon motion of Councilman Rooney a recess of ten minutes was taken to examine plans.

After the recess Henry H. Faxon asked if there had been an estimate of expense.

President Bass replied, no. That if re-

TO BE INVESTIGATED.

An Alleged Scheme For "Bleeding" Colored Government Employes.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—The civil service commission has commenced an investigation into allegations that colored government employes are being blackmailed by the "Afro-American bureau of organization of the Democratic congressional committee."

For some time complaints have been received at the commission from negro employes that letters have been sent to them requesting them to call at the headquarters of the organization, the real object being, it is stated, to solicit contributions for campaign purposes. The clerks who received these communications and failed to respond were communicated with again, and their attention was called to their failure to comply with the request.

The complaining clerks name Chairman C. H. J. Taylor of Kansas, the recorder of deeds of the district, and Treasurer Robert E. Sill as the principal officers of the assessment organization.

Coxswain Gorman's Rash Act.

Northam, which plies between this port and New Haven. He then tried to commit suicide by cutting his throat. To the police Gorman said that while at a boarding house in New Haven Mrs. Fitzgerald grew angry at him because he had allowed another woman to remove his shoes, the quarrel culminating in the tragedy on the Northam.

Oates Will Be Governor.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Aug. 7.—Despite the fact that the campaign just closed has been the bitterest ever known in the state, the election passed off quietly and few disturbances are reported. The new Sayre election law, a modified form of the Australian ballot system, was put in operation for the first time. The ballot was a secret one. The vote was generally lighter than in 1892. Oates (Dem.) is elected by from 10,000 to 15,000 majority, and the legislature will have a Democratic majority of 10.

Placed at a High Figure.

SHANGHAI, Aug. 7.—Viceroy Li Hung Chang expects the British government will claim compensation for the relatives of the victims of the sunken transport Kow Shing, and also for the owner of the cargo, who were under the protection of the British flag when the Kow Shing was sunk. Li Hung Chang estimates the indemnity due to China from Japan on account of the Kow Shing affair at $3,500,000.

True to Cleveland.

CHARLESTON, Aug. 7.—In the convention of the Charleston city and county democracy a resolution was adopted denouncing "the uncalled-for tirade of abuse and misrepresentation levelled at Grover Cleveland by the men now in control of the state Democratic organization, and that the Democracy of Charleston pledge their undivided support to the national Democratic party and its matchless leader, Cleveland."

"America For Americans."

FITCHBURG, Mass., Aug. 7.—Rev. M. C. Peters, D. D., of New York gave an address to a large audience last night on "America for Americans." DANBURY, Conn., Aug. 7.—Detectives of the treasury department have succeeded in unearthing the headquarters of a gang of counterfeiters, of which Russell D. Hoyt and Samuel Massey, who are now under arrest in New York, are leaders, and yesterday they made one of the most valuable and important finds of counterfeiters' tools, plates and paper that has been known in years.

Catholics Objected.

QUEBEC, Aug. 7.—An angry French-Canadian Catholic mob last night drove a contingent of Salvationists out of St. Roch's ward, where they were endeavoring to open a station, with the object of converting Catholics, attacking them with stones and other missiles. THE FALLON CASE.

Four Witnesses for Government and Twenty for Defence.

THE VERDICT SOON REACHED.

The Charges Include Assault, Profanity and Interference at Fire.

The cases against ex-Councilman Peter T. Fallon were taken up in the Quincy court this morning. The first case to be heard was the assault case.

In the case for using profane language Mr. Fallon pleaded guilty and was fined $5.

Upon the complaint for profane language the defendant withdrew his plea of not guilty and entered the plea of guilty. Decision suspended until later.

Antone J. Perry was the first witness. He went to the fire and had on a hat, belt and badge, he took a chemical and went through the crowd to the fire. Mr. Fallon was next to the fire and pushed him with his hand, and using profane language ordered him away. The next night Fallon was at the central fire station and told him he was a —— looking specimen of a fireman.

Charles H. Flowers was present at the Central fire station when the Chief told him that he had put his haud on a fireman's shoulder. Mr. Fallon said he did not. Perry then came up and said, "I am the man you pushed." Then Fallon used some hard language.

Chief Engineer Williams corroborated the testimony in relation to the occurrence at the Central fire station.

When the defence was called some twenty witnesses came forward.

Mr. Fallon testified that when he got there he saw no fireman. He looked at the fire and seeing no one making any effort to put out the fire, he with the assistance of others lifted the platform off the fire. He went back to put out the other part. He did not see Perry or did not put his hand on any man.

Other witnesses corroborated Fallon in many particulars.

The hearing of the assault case consumed considerable time and ended in Mr. Fallon being discharged.

The case against Mr. Fallon for wilfully and maliciously interfering with the extinguishing of a fire was then called and upon the request of the counsel for the government the defendant was discharged.

Thus the case which at the first seemed likely to be a long fought one ended in a first-class fizzle.

Better Sidewalks Wanted.

Residents of Hancock street, north of Woodbine street, are complaining at the way in which the sidewalk on that much travelled thoroughfare has been neglected. The principal grievance is the heavy growth of weeds and grass which hangs over the path, making it impossible to walk there in damp weather. There is so much teaming over that highway that it is dangerous for pedestrians to walk in the street. A short time ago the street department mowed the grass and weeds on the sidewalk south of Woodbine street but for some unexplainable reason the job was not finished. Similar trouble exists on Newport avenue, between Warren ave., and Adams street.

Birthday Celebrated.

About thirty friends and relatives of Mr. J. S. Johnson met at his home on Washington street on Monday last, and from thence repaired to Point Holes. A pleasant day was spent by young and old, and, as they retired to their separate homes at early eventide, it was with earnest wishes, accompanied by several substantial tokens, that Mr. Johnson might see many such anniversaries.

Although he is 71 years old, and in broken health he is still able to enjoy such times, and the friends from Boston and the several wards of this city, who helped him to pass the day so happily, are pleased to think that this mile-stone was marked with such joyful effect.

—Ever since the wooden-nutmeg scheme was broached Connecticut has always had a great reputation for inventiveness. It is not surprising, therefore, that from Connecticut should come a scheme for having telephonic communication with all trolley cars. Superintendent Crilly of the Hartford street railway is considering a plan to put telephones in all his trolley cars, supplied with the same current that furnishes power for the car.

TODAY'S COURT.

It was a large audience, that assembled in the district court room this morning much larger than the room could comfortably accommodate. And it was warm also and many of those who were obliged to stand were kept busy wiping the great drops of perspiration that stood on their faces, yet the Fallon cases bid fair to be interesting enough to more than repay them for the tiresome work it was to stand. The small cases were disposed of first and were as follows:

Benjamin Banner of Braintree was fined $5 for drunkenness.

James Dean of Randolph was fined $10 for drunkenness.

John W. O'Brien of Weymouth was fined $10 for assault on Joseph Lanier.

Michael Slaughenger was arraigned for discharging a firearm in the Metropolitan Park at Quincy. Case continued one week.

Edward Campbell and John Carver of Brockton were arraigned for the larceny of a dog valued at $15 from William J. Fennell of Randolph, and were fined $8 each.

William Shields of Randolph was fined $5 for drunkenness.

At 10.30 Judge Flint came on the bench and the cases against ex-Councilman Fallon came up for hearing. It is reported in length in another column.

THE SPRING OF ETERNAL YOUTH

Carlsbad may be truly termed the Spring of Eternal Youth. For centuries the famous Sprudel has been used as the best natural remedy for constipation, catarrh of the stomach, dyspepsia and liver and kidney complaints, diabetes, etc. Best taken when out-door exercise can be had. TODAY'S COURT.

It was a large audience, that assembled in the district court room this morning much larger than the room could comfortably accommodate. And it was warm also and many of those who were obliged to stand were kept busy wiping the great drops of perspiration that stood on their faces, yet the Fallon cases bid fair to be interesting enough to more than repay them for the tiresome work it was to stand. The small cases were disposed of first and were as follows:

Benjamin Banner of Braintree was fined $5 for drunkenness.

James Dean of Randolph was fined $10 for drunkenness.

John W. O'Brien of Weymouth was fined $10 for assault on Joseph Lamer.

Michael Slaughenger was arraigned for discharging a firearm in the Metropolitan Park at Quincy. Case continued one week.

Edward Campbell and John Carver of Brockton were arraigned for the larceny of a dog valued at $15 from William J. Fennell of Randolph, and were fined $8 each.

William Shields of Randolph was fined $5 for drunkenness.

At 10.30 Judge Flint came on the bench and the cases against ex-Councilman Fallon came up for hearing. It is reported at length in another column.

A RECKLESS GENERAL.

How the Duke of Wellington Trifled with Great Danger.

One day the Duke of Wellington's French cook came to him for orders.

"Oh, get anything," said the Duke, impatiently. "I never think of what I put in my stomach."

The chief was horrified. Whether Wellington was punished with indigestion or not, history does not tell. One thing is certain. People who don't care what they eat soon find themselves unable to eat anything at all without agony. Their offended stomachs go on strike. Natural digestion ceases.

What is to be done, then? One cannot live without eating. The only possible help is in a pre-digested food, which science has furnished in the form of Paskola. It replaces wasted tissue and invigorates the entire system without aid from the stomach. Willard Hettrick, of Bridgeton, N. J., says: "I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia and indigestion until I was induced by a friend as a last resort to try Paskola. I am more than pleased to testify that Paskola has worked wonders in my case, as I have no distress after eating, and eat whatever the appetite craves. I advise all like sufferers to use Paskola."

This is the story of P. A. Hank, of Valpara so, Ind.: "Before I used Paskola I was very weak. I could not digest anything. I tried everything to gain strength but failed. My doctor told me to use Paskola and I am satisfied that it is the only thing for a weak stomach.

"I have gained two pounds in a week. There is nothing that helps indigestion like Paskola. I have tried about twelve doctors and have been suffering more than twelve years.

"At times I could work only two days in a week. For nearly three years I spent all I had for doctoring and had given up hope." Any up-to-date druggist will furnish Paskola. If you want to know how it works send for free pamphlet to

REVIVAL OF BUSINESS

Is Certain to Result In a Large Increase of Revenues.

TALK OF ANOTHER BOND ISSUE

Should the Tariff Fail to Relieve the Treasury.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—There are differences of opinion among treasury officials as to the probabilities of another bond issue. Neither Mr. Carlisle nor Assistant Secretary Curtis is willing to admit that there is any real cause for alarm in the present financial situation.

It is known, however, that the president and his advisers are watching with eager interest every change in the financial situation, and that every phase of it is being carefully and thoughtfully studied. Notwithstanding this solicitude, it is believed that it is the judgment of the president that the situation does not furnish any just apprehension and that better times confidently may be expected soon.

From this point of view it is argued that the passage of the pending tariff bill is sure to result in a prompt and general revival of business, and that in consequence there will be a large increase in the government revenues. Receipts from customs, which for many months past have been gradually growing less, it is believed will show a marked improvement from the very first and will continue to increase until normal conditions have been reached.

It is contended that notwithstanding the fact that the gold reserve has reached the low water mark of about $52,000,000, the government to meet its obligations today than it was just prior to the February bond issue. On Jan. 1, 1894, the net cash balance in the treasury was only $9,483,955, while today it is in excess of $65,000,000, and the officials observe with satisfaction that our own people have not so far exhibited any signs of losing faith in the government's ability to meet every emergency and pay every obligation at maturity.

That this is true is shown by the fact that the gold that is now being drawn from the several sub-treasuries is almost entirely for export. In no known instance has there been a withdrawal of gold that could be traced to a feeling of insecurity. Under normal conditions the government makes a net gain in gold of about $100,000 a day and loses from a fourth to a half of that amount, and even under the present disturbed conditions there has been no marked change from that rule.

During the last few weeks there have been some withdrawals from the sub-treasuries at Philadelphia and New York which were not intended for export, but these have not averaged more than a total of from $30,000 to $40,000 a day. The losses at San Francisco, Chicago and the other sub-treasuries have been merely nominal. This, it is agreed, shows implicit faith on the part of the people in the financial security of the country and it has greatly assisted in tiding over the present depression

Without a Bond Issue.

Another favorable condition is the certainty that very soon there will be a strong demand from western banks for small notes with which to harvest and move the crops, and that they will be very willing to exchange gold for paper.

There are others, however, who take a less hopeful view of affairs. They observe that the gold reserve, which six months ago was brought up to its normal condition by an increase of $50,000,000 in the public debt, is again melting away, and already reduced to a point $13,000,000 below the lowest reached prior to the February bond issue. They contemplate with uneasiness the fact that for a year or more the ordinary expenses of the government have largely exceeded the receipts.

This was true even last month, when, in expectation of a material increase of the tax on whisky, the receipts from internal revenue were abnormally large. It is argued that should the pending tariff bill become a law and go into operation even as early as the middle of the present month, no material increase in the revenue could reasonably be expected earlier than next December, for the reason that the tariff bill will have passed too late in the session to realize any considerable amount from the fall importations.

show that there is now in this country at least a six-months' supply of sugar, so that little may be expected from that source. This is also true of whisky. The statistics of the internal revenue bureau show that the tax already has been paid upon over 13,000,000 gallons of whisky in excess of the amount upon which the tax had been paid one year ago.

Therefore, but little relief may be expected from this source before December. The only recourse, therefore, it is contended, will be to a bond issue, and there are many well informed persons who believe that if this congress does not pass a prohibitive resolution before adjournment $50,000,000 or more will soon be issued.

That there would be no difficulty in placing any reasonable amount, even at the premium exacted in February, seems apparent from the fact that the February bonds are being sold at a premium of 1.27 per cent.

THE CITY COUNCIL.

committed the committee would then consider that and report an order.

Councilman Lamb for petitioners said Copeland street was the principal one in the West Quincy ward and altogether too narrow for the business over it. In reply to Councilman Holden he said he did not consider the street wide enough if there were no electric cars on the street.

Councilman Shackley added a few words saying it was advisable, desirable and a necessity that Copeland street be widened.

Councilman Moxon asked if any petitioners were present.

Councilman Lamb did not see any.

The hearing then closed and the order was recommitted.

Ward Two Hose House.

To make the appropriation of $6500 for hose house in Ward Two more satisfactory to brokers Councilman Moxon offered a substitute order which took one reading.

To Meet Next Week.

Councilman Rooney moved that when the Council adjourn it be to Tuesday evening, August 14, that the water appropriation might be passed. Voted.

Water Statistics.

Councilman Moxon wanted to hear from the Water Commissioners as to income, expenses, water supply, etc., and offered the following order:

That Water Commissioners be requested to inform Council:

1. What proportion of present income is derived from new services and the actual cost of new works.
2. What revenue is expected from proposed new services.
3. Whether present supply of water is adequate.
4. Whether present supply should be taxed with more consumers.
5. What present operating expenses are in detail.

Councilman Moxon spoke in favor of his order believing the Council should have more definite information. It should be shown where extension were contemplated, etc.

Councilman Johnson had no objection to motion but thought the committee should not have introduced an order for $30,000, feeling that the information at hand was meagre as this motion indicated. It was the intention to rush the order through at the next meeting, and Councilmen would not have time to consider the facts presented.

Councilman Anderson believed that the Council should have the information asked of Water Commisioners.

The motion passed and at 8.55 the Council adjourned to meet Aug. 14.

HOUGHS NECK

Mr. J. H. Nolan of the Beatrice cottage leaves Friday morning to occupy a position in the government bindery at Washington. Mr. Nolan was of a very retiring disposition but was always ready to aid any movement to further the interest of the Houghs Neck residents. His friends and neighbors wish him success in his new position.

Mrs. Charles Baston of Bell street has gone to Onset for a week.

Mr. Farmworth and family are at the Fayolin for a month.

The bicycle riders who are obliged to travel morning and evening on their wheel to business say the road from Quincy to Houghs Neck is very bad, hope our city official will remember us before next season.

Things will be lively here for a week, as forty Cadets have pitched their tent near "The Linden."

A Remarkable Storm.

A lady from Newport, R. I., writes to a lady in this city the following facts concerning one of the most remarkable hail storms that has ever occurred in Newport:

"We experienced, July 14th, the most terrific hail storm ever known in this vicinity. Our windows of large plate glass were smashed in a thousand pieces; blinds badly broken; roofs and chimneys much injured. The wind was terrible and the size of the hail stones immense; many were picked up and carefully measured, and varied in size from 2 1-2 inches, to over 3. They were nearly all shaped like tomatoes, and many had sand in the middle of them. I tasted several and they were like phosphorus and camphor. They were a phenomena. Several horses were badly cut by the glass and had to be killed.

IN THEIR 24th REPORT (1893)

make the statement that Sarsaparillas containing Iodide of Potassium are unsafe to use, excepting under the supervision of an experienced physician, and that their continued use tend to impoverish instead of purifying the blood. Also that in many cases they act as a DIRECT POISON, and cause serious trouble, defeating the object for which they are taken.

ALL THE LEADING SARSAPARILLAS were analyzed and found to contain this poisonous chemical in various quantities, EXCEPTING ALLEN'S, which was found entirely free from Iodide of Potassium or other chemicals, and to be purely vegetable, thereby verifying our claim that it is the "HONEST KIND."

This is an unprejudiced statement made by the most scientific body of men in New England as A WARNING TO THE PUBLIC against the use of dangerous and injurious medicines, ALLEN'S is the HONEST KIND, the safe kind, and the kind that CONQUERS DISEASE.

WEATHER AND CROPS

New England Has Been Favored by Copious Showers.

CROPS ARE GREATLY IMPROVED.

New Hampshire Hay Will Be of a Very Fine Quality.

BOSTON, Aug. 7.—The New England weather service issues the following weather crop bulletin for the week ending Aug. 6:

The drought has been very generally broken by copious rains during the week, except in western Massachusetts, southern Vermont and northwestern Connecticut, and in New Haven county, Conn. Only .13 inch of rain fell at Hadley, Mass.; .02 inch at Falls Village, Conn.; .19 inch at West Simsbury, Conn., and .06 inch at Westville, Conn. At Greenfield Hill, Conn., the fall was 1.16 inches; at Lebanon, Conn., .75 inch; at New London, Conn., 1.87 inches. At Block Island, R. I., it was .60 inch, and at Kingston, R. I., 1.35 inches. At Nantucket, Mass., .72 inch came; at Hyannis, Mass., .87 inch; at Boston, .15 inch; at Fairhaven, Mass., 2.12 inches. At Northfield, Vt., the fall was over two inches. In northern New Hampshire over one inch. At Portland, Me., 2.26 inches, and at Eastport, Me., .22 inch.

In the summary below will be found the final returns from the effect of the weather on the hay crop and the conditions in which it has been gathered:

Abundant rains have fallen over the greater part of Maine during the week and crops are doing very well. Grain is ripening very fast and is filling well, with few reports of rust on the leaves. Without exception, the correspondents in this state report an extra large crop of all English grasses, and the greater part of it secured in excellent condition. One report from Kennebec county states that much was injured by getting wet, while another from the same county says that not over 10 per cent was injured by rain and not over 5 per cent from over-ripeness. Generally some were damaged by the showers in the first part of July, and since then the work was consequently delayed a little and some is over-ripe. Meadows are not cut in most places, but are pronounced good.

Fine Weather For Curing Hay.

As has been stated in other bulletins, the hay on old fields in all central and southern New Hampshire was light, on account of the drought, but on well-cultivated lands it is pronounced good. Exceptions are where injured by excessive rains in Grafton county and by late cold weather in the north. Clover was particularly injured by the cold weather and frosts in Coos county, and in all the southern counties in this state. Except during the first 10 days in July, when some hay was wet, it has been an excellent season for curing hay—best for years reported by some—and consequently the feeding quality of the hay is very fine. Considerable grass remains to be cut in all sections, and is getting too ripe in places. Corn is making a great growth.

Second Crop of Clover Injured.

In the greater part of Vermont the rainfall has been sufficient, but in Windham county, in the southern part, it is very dry, and nearly all crops are suffering. Here the second crop of clover has been injured, and on late cut lots the fields have been badly burned, and it is feared the roots are permanently injured. The yield of small grain, especially oats, is promising in Chittenden county. Clover was winter-killed to some extent in Orange county, but is extra good in Windsor county. Most fields of grass were injured by the May drought, but they have generally recovered except on sod three years or more old. The hay is pronounced of fine quality in most places, and does not settle so much in the mow as usual, showing good feeding qualities. One correspondent in Windham county states that the grass crop in some sections was badly injured by the freeze in the spring and was very light, while on adjoining farms the crop was splendid.

A Fair Hay Crop.

In Massachusetts the early drought affected the grass on high lands everywhere, and in western Worcester county the swamp or meadow lands were injured by the dry weather last fall; but generally wet lands show a good crop and of excellent quality. English grasses vary in this state; in Barnstable county they are pronounced light, and in most of Worcester and Franklin counties clover is very poor, though timothy is good. In most other places the crop is fair and was secured in fine condition. The dyke meadows in Plymouth county are reported rather light. The haying on the salt marshes will begin in Essex county this week, and a good crop is in prospect. Apples are ripening early; a large crop is reported in the towns on the higher land east of the Sudbury river valley. The fruit worm is doing considerable damage to the cranberries in places; this crop is pronounced very light in vicinity of Plymouth, on account of the frost last spring.

Gardens Much Improved.

The hay crop in Rhode Island was injured by the dry weather last fall and this early spring, and the prospect for the second crop in the northern part of the state, especially, is not encouraging. In Washington county plenty of rain has fallen, and all crops not too far gone are showing the effects and pushing ahead rapidly. Corn and late potatoes are doing very well. All gardens have been much improved.

Onion and Potato Growers Suffer.

The drought has been broken in Connecticut, except in the northwestern part of the state, where very little rain came this week. Corn shows improvement, but will be late in many fields. Fruit prospects are more encouraging. Pastures had got extremely dry and much feeding has to be done from the barns. The hay crop was secured in remarkably fine shape, very little of it getting wet and only a small amount being over-ripe. The weather was excellent for harvesting, and the hay was secured with less labor than usual. The quality of the crop was apparently never better, and the quanty is far from deficient in any section. In Fairfield and New Haven counties a heavy clover crop was gathered, and timothy and redtop were mostly in good yield. A late report from Greenfield Hill for last week states that the loss to onion and potato growers by the drought will be many thousands of dollars, many acres of onions being unfit to pull, without having any that will grade above small.

This is it.

This is the new shortening or cooking fat which is so fast taking the place of lard. It is an entirely new food product composed of clarified cotton seed oil and refined beef suet. You can see that

Cottolene

Is clean, delicate, wholesome, appetizing, and economical—as far superior to lard as the electric light is to the tallow dip. It asks only a fair trial, and a fair trial will convince you of its value.

A DROP IN WAGES.

Fall River Manufacturers Make Many Changes Affecting Weavers.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Aug 7.—The Fall River Cotton Manufacturers' association yesterday voted to reduce all classes 10 per cent from present rates, the reduction to go into effect Aug. 20.

It was also voted to pay weavers by the pound instead of by cut, to avoid objectional publicity of details of weaving required by the weavers' particulars bill in payment by cut. The new payment to weavers is to be 2 2-7 cents a pound for regular print cloth. The present price is 18 cents for a cut weighing seven pounds. The new price is equal to a reduction of 2 cents a cut.

Operatives in mills have promised to strike if a cut-down is tried, but manufacturers appear indifferent as to the possibility of a strike. They claim that they have held off for a year against low prices for cloth and poor business. Now prices have gone so low that many mills are running at a loss, and in spite of low prices the stock is increasing. The manufacturers claim that the wages are from 10 to 15 per cent higher than in other places.

Evidence Is All In.

BOSTON, Aug. 7.—The board of police commissioners has heard all the evidence pro and con in the bribery charges against Sergeant Sheehan of division 4. Chairman Martin was seen after the hearing had closed, but refused to say anything, with the exception that the lawyer for the defense had made a very able, ingenious and eloquent plea for his client, and that the board would discuss the matter at once and give a verdict in the form of a general order. The opinion is that Sheehan will be acquitted.

A Peculiar Case.

BOSTON, Aug. 7.—Mrs. Charlotte Smith, president of the Woman's Rescue league, was yesterday fined $10 for assault and battery on Louis F. Tobin on July 31. Mrs. Smith said that she had taken the boy off the street and given him a home, and that he had proved himself worthless. From certain statements it is to be inferred that there will be some interesting developments in this case.

Stopped by Police.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 7.—Danny Needham of St. Paul and Louis Greininger of Cincinnati fought here last night for the welterweight championship of America. The mill was hot and heavy from the start. The fight was stopped by the police at the end of the fifth round and Needham was given the decision.

Killed by a Horse.

LYNCHBURG, Va., Aug. 7.—William P. Daniel, the 8-year-old son of United States Senator Daniel, had a horse saddled for a ride, when the horse turned suddenly and the boy hung with his head on the ground. The animal dragged the boy 60 feet, and he was frightfully bruised, dying in a short time.

Marriage of the Czar's Daughter.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 7.—The marriage of Grand Duke Alexander Michailovitch and Grand Duchess Xenia, daughter of the czar, was celebrated at the imprial palace at Peterhof in the presence of the imperial family and numerous other members of royal families and distinguished personages.

Unpopular Police.

BOSTON, Aug. 7.—A third attack within a fortnight was made last night on the South Boston police. Patrolman Riley, while passing along Broadway, was hit on the head with a heavy club thrown by someone in the dark. The unknown assailant escaped.

Away Ahead of Time.

HAMMOND, Ind., Aug. 7.—Frank C. Delvin, the cyclist who left Boston July 21 to make a record to Denver from Boston in 45 days, arrived here last evening in excellent condition, six days ahead of time.

Burned In Their Homes.

LODI, S. D., Aug. 7.—The house of George Johnson was burned yesterday. Two sons, aged 14 and 20, lost their lives in the flames.

PATENTS

NOTICE TO INVENTORS.

THERE Was never a time in the history of our country when the demand for inventions and improvements in the arts and sciences generally was so great as now. The conveniences of man-kind in the factory and work-shop, the household, on the farm, and in official life, require continual accessions in the appurtances and implements of each in order to save labor, time and expense. The political changes in the administration of government does not affect the progress of the American inventor, who, being on the alert, and ready to perceive the existing deficiences, does not permit the affairs of government to deter him from quickly conceiving the remedy to overcome existing discrepancies. Too great care cannot be exercised in choosing a competent and skilful attorney to prepare and prosecute an application for patent. Valuable interests have been lost and destroyed in innumerable instances by the employment of incompetent counsel, and especially is this advice applicable to those who adopt the "No patent, no pay" system. Inventors who intrust their business to this class of attorneys do so at imminent risk, as the breadth and strength of the patent is never considered in view of a quick endeavor to get an allowance and obtain the fee then due. THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY, John Wedderburn, General Manager, 618 F street, N. W., Washington, D. C., representing a large number of important daily and weekly papers, as well as general periodicals of the country, was instituted to protect its patrons from the unsafe methods heretofore employed in this line of business. PATENTS

FOR INVENTIONS.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuable inventions because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With the view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys, and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, we have retained counsel expert in patent practice, and therefore are prepared to

Obtain Patents in the United States and all Foreign Countries, Conduct Interferences, Make Special Examinations, Prosecute Rejected Cases, Register Trade-Marks and Copyrights, Render Opinions as to Scope and Validity of Patents, Prosecute and Defend Infringement Suits, Etc., Etc.

If you have an invention on hand send a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be advised as to the best course to pursue. Models are seldom necessary. If others are infringing on your rights, or if you are charged with infringement by others, submit the matter to us for a reliable OPINION before acting on the matter.

LEFT TO CONFERREES

Status of the Tariff Unchanged by the House Caucus.

MUCH-TALKED-OF "AGREEMENT"

Now Appears to Be Further Away Than Ever.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—Chairman Wilson and his associate house tariff conferrees scored a victory when the house Democratic caucus, called with a view of ending the tariff struggle by instructing or advising the house conferrees, adjourned without taking any action.

The effect of this was to leave the house conferrees to proceed as they saw best, and to show conspicuously that the effort to advise them had failed. The friends of Mr. Wilson found that they had the caucus so well in hand that they could have passed the resolution expressing confidence, but there was no desire on the part of the conferrees to take this course.

Speaker Crisp and Chairman Wilson expressed themselves as gratified with this conclusion, and among the rank and file of the house the sentiment was general that the movement inaugurated to bring about an acceptance of the senate bill had resulted in materially strengthening the opposition to the senate bill.

W. D. BYNUM.

The caucus was called to order by Chairman Holman. The roll-call disclosed the presence of 166 members. Mr. Bynum offered the following resolution:

The Bynum Resolution.

Whereas, house bill 4864, for the reduction of taxation and to provide revenue for the government, passed the house on Feb. 1, and the senate on July 3, and was sent to conference on July 7, last;

Whereas, the commercial interests of the country have been held in suspense awaiting the final settlement of the question, and

Whereas, the people of the whole country have through the public press and by petitions and memorials to both houses of congress demanded a speedy decision that the industries of the country may as soon as possible be adjusted to the proposed changes, and

Whereas, the conferrees appointed by the two houses to hold a full and free conference over the disagreeing votes of the two houses have had the matters in dispute under consideration for one month and have failed to come to any agreement whatever, and

Whereas, the house of representatives, which under the Constitution of the United States is clothed with the exclusive power to originate bills raising revenue, and is, therefore, clothed with the right to pass upon all amendments proposed by the senate freely and without restraint, and

Whereas, the members of the house of representatives have not availed themselves of an opportunity to consider senate amendments to any of them, which right under parliamentary law is superior to all others, and

Whereas, it is currently believed that said conferrees are unable to agree, therefore, be it

Resolved, First, that it is the sense of this caucus that the Democratic conferrees of the house and senate should meet in a spirit of liberality, to the end that the two houses by mutual concessions may agree upon a measure which will meet with the approval of each.

Second—That this caucus stands adjourned until 3 o'clock Friday, the 10th inst., at which time, in case no agreement has been reached, it shall reconvene to take such further action in the premises as it may deem necessary and appropriate, and the chairman of the house caucus is hereby authorized and directed to invite the Democratic senators to meet with the Democrats of the house at that time in joint caucus.

The Tariff Conference

was entirely subordinate to the caucus yesterday, and was devoid of interesting features

The conferrees held two brief sessions during the day and discussed the coal and iron ore questions, besides the sugar schedule. The latter, however, served no purpose, except to emphasize the fact that the disagreement is still unbroken, and that very little if any progress is being made. The purpose of taking up the sugar schedule again cannot be learned.

It is also impossible to ascertain what reasons the house conferrees assigned for declining to accept the sliding scale on coal and iron ore proposed by the senate conferrees. It would appear from all information that can be secured that without giving any special reason they resumed their argument for free raw materials. It has come to be understood that at these meetings the house members are doing the greater part of the talking and that the senators have come to be very impatient listeners.

The yielding of Senator Voorhees has led the house conferrees to the conclusion that other conquests are possible. On the other hand, the senators have not concealed their impatience at the delay, and the senate conferrees have expressed and re-expressed their conviction many times during the past week that if an agreement is not soon reached the situation demands the reporting of another disagreement.

This sentiment found utterance more than once yesterday, and, being repeated in the senate chamber, led to the general circulation of the report that either an agreement would be reached or a disagreement be decided upon today.

Bynum Explains.

In his explanatory statement, which was a brief one, Mr. Bynum said that although there had been a clamor from a part of the press for the passage of a bill, he believed that the overwhelming sentiment of the country was for the best possible bill that could be agreed upon. For himself, he preferred the senate bill to no bill, and as he interpreted the wish of the party, it was for a tariff bill and prompt action.

Chairman Wilson replied to Mr. Bynum in a speech marked by much spirit. He detailed the work of the conference, and told of the troubles that had been encountered. Mr. Wilson said that one of the greatest troubles was just such movements as this for a caucus, by which the house conferrees were subjected to a fire in the rear. He deprecated the adoption of the Bynum resolution.

He was followed by Mr. Livingston of Georgia, who offered a substitute expressing confidence in the house conferrees and leaving all action to their judgment.

Speaker Crisp then spoke with much earnestness for 10 minutes, counseling the caucus to take no action which would embarrass the house tariff conferrees. The speaker's remarks were greeted with much applause.

Bland, Breckinridge and others took part in the debate. At 4:30 the caucus adjourned without passing any resolution.

Work of Congress.

The senate held a short and uninteresting session. The most important event in the day's proceedings was the passage of a resolution directing the president to take steps for the release of American citizens confined in the island of Cuba for participation in recent rebellions.

The house adjourned at an early hour in order to allow the Democratic caucus to be held. While the session lasted, a large number of minor bills were passed, and the house receded from its disagreement to the senate amendments to the Indian appropriation bill and the same were adopted. This sends the bill to the president.

ALABAMA'S ELECTION.

Oates' Majority Will Be Even More Than First Reports Indicated.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Aug. 8.—Nearly every county thus far reported shows heavy losses for Kolb as compared with his vote in '92. Madison county, which in '92 went for Kolb, is given by official returns to Oates by a change of over 1700 votes. Lawrence goes for Kolb by only 125, as against 2135 before; Limestone goes for Kolb by 153, against 168 in '92. Tallapoosa goes for Kolb by 600 against 2449 in 1892. In Cherokee his majority falls off 300. Clershaw went for Kolb 775 in 1892. This year it is very close. Bibbaffords, the same comparison. Sumter goes for Oates by over 15,000, a Democratic gain of over 1000, and Macon for Oates by 800, a Democratic gain of over 1500. Henry, Oates' home county, went for Kolb in 1893 by over 1500, but this year gives Oates over 500. In Barbour county the official Democratic majority has been increased 1236. Oates' majority will be close to 40,000. The returns indicate a safe Democratic majority in the legislature, even without Jefferson's delegation of six, though the prospects are favorable that it has gone Democratic. The Democratic state committee and Colonel Oates, who is here, are jubilant.

Quebec's Riot.

QUEBEC, Aug. 8.—Protestant mission houses have been wrecked in the different parts of the city by a howling body of rioters, and the police here could not, or would not, make a single arrest. The Sunday night mob was altogether French-Canadian. The Irish Catholics held aloof. It was a cowardly mob. It did not start out to fight fighting men, but to attack women and missionaries. The rioters were doubtless inflamed by the utterances of Le Lecteur, a French newspaper here, which described a Baptist mission house in the French-Canadian suburbs of St. Roch's as a Salvation Army barracks.

Tardy Prohibs.

BURLINGTON, Vt., Aug. 8.—Sworn certificates of nominations of Prohibitionists of Vermont should have been received by the secretary of state before midnight, Aug. 4. They were received one day late. The delay will preclude the printing of the party nominees' names on the state ticket. Prohibition voters will have to write the names of their candidates.

For Breach of Promise.

HAMMOND, Ind., Aug. 8.—Miss Livingston, a Crown Point belle, has begun suit against Professor G. W. Christie of Holbert, placing damages at $10,000. The plaintiff alleges that the professor has trifled with her affections for the past two years.

Liabilities Unknown.

ROCHESTER, N. H., Aug. 8.—George W. Anderson, one of the largest lumber dealers in the state, has filed a petition in insolvency with the probate court of Strafford county. Liabilities unknown.

Veal calves—The supply was very good, but the demand did not equal that of last week. Prices were off ½c from the quotations of last week.

Sheep and lambs—There was a very large supply. The demand was very poor, however, and the market was listless.

Swine—There is no change from the quotations of a week ago.

NEARLY ALL ARMED.

Angry Strikers Surround Packing Houses at South Omaha.

A BRISK TRADE IN REVOLVERS.

Strikers Disclaim Attempts at Creating Disturbances.

OMAHA, Aug. 8.—The situation at South Omaha is more serious now than at any time since the strike began, and Adjutant General Gage is closely watching the angry strikers. All the packing houses are surrounded by strikers, most of whom are armed, and all persons desiring to enter the plants must satisfy the guards of the strikers, who are located every 10 yards. The trade in revolvers has been rushing here for the last week.

Permits have been issued to many of the men to carry guns, and each day the situation grows more serious.

"We must have better police protection," said Manager Cudahy. "The men who now want to work are assaulted, both going and coming from their homes. We ought to have at least 800 special police until the excitement abates."

Anthony Franks, a man employed at Cudahy's, was pursued by strikers last evening and fired at five times.

Say They Are For Peace.

The executive committee of the strikers disclaim any knowledge of assaults committed by the union men. They claim all the men who went out were given strict orders not to create any disturbance whatever. The committees have chosen 15 citizens, and will ask Mayor Johnson to swear them in as special policemen. The committee also petitioned the mayor and council not to employ any man as special who does not live in the city.

The packers still claim that many more of the old men want to go back to work, but are afraid to do so for fear they will be assaulted.

The strikers claim none of the old men have gone back to work, but that on the other hand, several more of them came out because they would not work for $1.50 a day. New men are being put to work as they are needed, and the packers say that by the end of the week they will be running a full force.

Investments Depreciated.

PROVIDENCE, Aug. 8.—The comptroller of the currency has notified the officers of the Lime Rock National bank, this city, that they must either call an assessment or reduce capital stock. This bank has a capitalization of $500,000, in $50 shares, and its last dividend was last December, when it paid 2 per cent. No dividend has been declared this year. Its officers say that the depreciation of investments, caused by hard times, is the sole cause.

Great Britain Is Neutral.

LONDON, Aug. 8.—An extraordinary gazette has been issued containing a proclamation of the queen of Great Britain's neutrality in the war between China and Japan. A dispatch from Tien-Tsin says a Chinese cruiser has captured a Japanese trading bark and taken her to Taku. All pilots have been warned officially that they must not guide Japanese vessels nor give them any information as to the waters and coast.

Everybody Made Sick.

CHESTER DEPOT, Vt., Aug. 8.—The citizens of this place gave a reception to the teachers and instructors attending the summer school of methods for Windsor county. Some 400 were present, all of whom were made sick from some unknown cause, supposed to be poisoned ice cream. Most of those affected have recovered, but some are in a critical condition.

Full-Rigger Ashore.

PENSACOLA, Fla., Aug. 8.—The full-rigged Norwegian ship Catharine is stranded on Santa Rosa island. A terrible gale was blowing. Captain Broadbent, with the assistance of his three daughters and one man, hauled their apparatus nearly two miles and rescued the crew of the vessel. The ship is going to pieces.

Figuring on a Platform.

BOSTON, Aug. 8.—Of the state branch of the American Federation of Labor committee appointed to draft a political platform, four favored the platform of the Boston Workingmen's Protective league and three reported in favor of a plank regarding collective ownership and distribution.

Smith For Governor.

DALLAS, Aug. 8.—That division of the Republican party, known as the Lily Whites, placed the following ticket in the field: Governor, J. D. Smith of Denton county; lieutenant governor, W. M. Mann of Dallas; attorney general, W. H. Atwell of Dallas.

With Malicious Intent.

AUGUSTA, Me., Aug. 8.—The state board of railroad commissioners rendered a report that the train wreck at West Outlet on the Canadian Pacific railroad, July 2, was caused by obstructions maliciously placed on the track.

Athol's Sensation.

ATHOL, Mass., Aug. 8.—This town is excited by the mysterious disappearance of two women, Mrs. Winslow Boyden and Mrs. Fred Haskell. The former left a note saying she would not return.

They Deny Guilt.

PARIS, Aug. 8.—The big anarchist trial was continued yesterday. All efforts to tire or trap the prisoners into admission of guilt were futile, as the men stoutly denied everything.

—Boston Chinamen are willing to bet "muchee money" that their country can whip Japan. This is to their credit. The man who will not stick to his native land is a pretty slim sort of a fellow.

Editorial Comment.

THE BRAINTREE Street Railway Company has finally succeeded in arranging with the Selectmen all matters of difference that has heretofore existed between the company and the town; such as carrying the school children, kind of poles to be used, superintendent of construction, etc., and are ready to complete the road from the Quincy line to the Holbrook line. Part of the track was laid last year, and the balance will be pushed rapidly forward. It is now expected that the road will be completed and cars running inside of ten weeks; making a complete line from Braintree to Brockton. There will remain then only about half a mile to be built from Doble's store at South Quincy to the Braintree line, with the exception of a few rods at Neponset, to complete the street railroad from Boston to Brockton.

There is at the present time a little hitch between the City Council and railroad company in Quincy in regard to the extension of the track to the Braintree line. Some say that Franklin street ought to be widened before the track is laid, and the Railroad Company pay for the widening. If it is not done now, it will have to be in a few years, and the city to pay the bills; as on Water, Copeland, Coddington and other streets that have or are to be widened.

We would like to ask if any street has been widened in Quincy that did not need it? Water street needed widening badly, even if we had no street railway, which all must admit has been a great benefit and a source of much pleasure to our citizens. It has become of recent years a great thoroughfare for our granite business, and if it had not been widened last year it would have had to been in a few years at greater expense, if no street railroad had been built.

How is it with Coddington street? All must admit that the corner at the junction of Washington street is very dangerous. That many accidents have happened, and will, as the street is very narrow and the corner sharp and unsightly. No matter if there were no street cars; it should be widened. The travel to the beach is greatly increasing from year to year, and the street is not of sufficient width to accommodate it at the present time; and the longer it is delayed the more expensive it will be.

The extension of the street railway to the Braintree line will be a great blessing to Quincy. It may not be noticed much at first, but within a few years it will be readily seen. The business men of our city will derive more benefit from it in one year, than the whole cost of widening will amount to.

Let our citizens look forward; be progressive. Our city is bound to grow and we might as well look at it in the face, and not turn our backs to needed improvements.

TOMORROW NIGHT and the two following nights is the schedule time for the earth in its annual journey around the sun to meet a shower of meteors. The planets are run upon a cosmical time table from which there is no deviation, and so the meteoric shower may be festively announced at the time appointed.

THE TAX rate for Malden this year is $15.70, an increase of 70 cents over 1893. This is the highest rate since Malden became a city, and is due to the sewer improvements.

PATRICK E. GILL,

A Hyde Park Burglar May Have Been Operating in Quincy.

Some time ago Patrick E. Gill was arrested in Hyde Park for breaking and entering, but escaped from the officers. It has since been learned that when Gill escaped he came to Quincy and pitched a camp in the woods at West Quincy. August 2d he went into the store of Mary D. Lapiene at 113 Copeland street, while the woman was out and stole the money box containing $4.60. Before he could get away the woman returned and a tussle ensued in which the woman came off victorious and got back her box. During all this time Chief of Police Hayden and his officers knew that Gill was in this district and had been chasing him up. So hot had their chase become that Gill left town and was later captured in Boston.

Since that time it has been learned that Gill made his headquarters in Quincy and boarded with Mrs. Lapham at the Hancock house and when she broke up to go to Houghs Neck, Gill went off, probably to Hyde Park, but he left behind a bag which it is alleged contained a lot of burglar's tools which Chief Hayden will take possession of this afternoon. Gill is now in Dedham jail awaiting the action of the Grand jury and when that is disposed of there will be three warrants awaiting him from Quincy, viz: Breaking and entering during the day time, assault on the Lapiene woman and for having burglar's tools in his possession.

Postal Trolley Cars.

The trial of the new mail delivery system, in Brooklyn, N. Y., this week, through the service of postal trolley cars, proves that the experiment is a success and that the system ought to be adopted in other cities.

Especially on car lines covering big suburban areas, the system accommodates very much. The mail is assorted by clerks in the postal car while in transit; it causes little interference with passenger traffic, while neighborhoods now getting but two mails a day may get four or more with ease.

—It is now a year since Congress was called together, and it has practically been in continuous session ever since. In the mean time it has done some things that it ought to have done, and it has left undone more things that it ought to have done before this, and, to follow the words of the prayer book, its a miserable sinner.—Boston Herald.

—The fire loss of the United States and Canada in July, as compiled from the daily fire record, aggregates the enormous sum of $16,307,000. About all these risks carried insurance amounting nearly to the full value. So the month just closed was a severe one for the fire underwriters. There were 223 fires in July of a greater destructiveness than $10,000 each.

Says S. C. Weeks of Melrose, Mass.: "I had been troubled with chronic diarrhoea for over a year when I received a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which I used and it gave me great relief. I then procured a fifty-cent bottle and took about two-thirds of it, and was cured. I have taken some twice since when I had a looseness come on and it stopped it at once. I hope it will help others as it helped me. I feel very thankful to Mr. Stearns, the druggist, for telling me of this remedy and shall be glad to have this letter published."

Bostons Had Lots of Fun With the Sluggers From Philadelphia.

BOSTON, Aug. 7.—It was the easiest kind of a walkover for Selee's men; they started in at the first inning and were never headed. Young Fanning was in the box for the visitors and was soon retired, Carsey taking his place. The change didn't seem to work very well, for the Bostons began to line out Carsey's curves and the Philadelphia fielders went to pieces.

Whole Gang Probably Bagged.

DANBURY, Conn., Aug. 8.—Detectives Scanlon and Esquerell of the secret service of the United States treasury department were in town again yesterday making further investigations into their capture of the counterfeiters' joint in Bethel. They are convinced that they have now secured the whole of the gang and every portion of the outfit, as well as all the counterfeit bills that have been printed. What puzzles them most is where the paper they seized was manufactured.

"Not Guilty."

BOSTON, Aug. 8.—Sergeant Sheehan of police precinct No. 4 was tonight found not guilty of the charges preferred against him by Mrs. Theresa Cushing, who claims she paid for police protection. A NEW ENGLAND HOME.

Comfort, Economy and Beauty Secured by This Design—Cost, $3,000.

[Copyright, 1894, by Palliser, Palliser & Co., Architects, 24 East 42d st., N. Y.]

This house commands a particularly fine view from both sides and the front and is situated in one of the pleasantest country towns in New England, the hotels of this town being crowded during the summer months with people from the cities.

The exterior design is plain, yet picturesque, and at once gives one an idea of ease and comfort. The roofing over the hall and sitting room is a particularly fine feature, and the elevation of the rear is very striking, the roof over porch being a part of the main roof.

The interior arrangements are very nice, the hall being spacious, and in it we have an easy and handsome staircase of plain design constructed of Georgia pine. The newel extends up to ceiling of first floor, while the other two posts extend up to ceiling of second floor. In all country houses one of the first things to be aimed at is to secure ample staircases, and until a man can afford space for an easy ascent to a second floor he should stay below, and today we find in houses, where there is no necessity for it, stairs that are little better than stepladders, making a pretense of breadth at the bottom with swelled steps and winding the steps on approaching the floor above, thus making a trap for the old and for the children.

The corner fireplace between parlor and dining room is a feature we indulge in to a great extent in these days of economy, sliding doors and fireplaces, although we sometimes have clients who object to this, thinking it would not look as well as when placed in center of side wall, but when they are asked how this and that can be provided for with the best and most economical results they readily give in.

There is no water closet in the house, but an earth closet is provided in the rear hall, which is thoroughly ventilated.

The dining room is a very cheerful room, and the kitchen is reached through a passage also connecting with wide veranda. The pantry is lighted with a window placed above press. Each fireplace is furnished with a neat hard wood mantel, and the hall is finished in Georgia pine, the floor being laid with this material and finished in natural color.

The exterior is painted as follows: Ground, light slate; trimmings, buff and chamfers, black. Cost $2,925.

The sight of this house in the locality in which it is built is very refreshing and is greatly in advance of the old styles of rural box architecture to be found there. When people see beautiful things, they very naturally covet them, and they grow discontented in the possession of ugliness. Handsome houses, other things equal, are always the most valuable. They sell the quickest and for the most money. Builders who feign a blindness to beauty must come to grief.

Novelties In Decorating.

One of the most beautiful of bedroom decorations that has ever been produced is the rose pattern which is now being got ready for the next year's trade. It is a meander of roses, printed on the palest and most delicate of grounds. The roses are usually in natural rose tints of exquisite tone, on grounds of mignonette green, medium olive, bright old rose, pale old rose, brownish old rose and greenish blue grounds.

A design of a rococo vase, accompanied by conventional scroll effects, would make an extremely fashionable paper for the modern chamber. There are designs reproducing old tapestry effects. Others are in chintz colorings, and all of the designs include from three to five colors, all softly blended together. The line of shadow silks is peculiarly well adapted for bedchambers. Very soft, delicate blues, pinks, olives, yellows and greens predominate, and with painted rods to match they make charming rooms.—Architectural and Building Monthly.

Hanging a Hammock.

A hammock hung according to rule should be 6¼ feet from the ground at the head and 3¾ feet above the ground at the foot end. The rope that secures the head end should be less than 12 inches, and that at the foot should measure 4½ feet. Arranged in this way the lower part will swing freely and the head be kept comfortable by being nearly stationary.—New York Post.

The Braintree Electrics.

The Braintree Street Railway Company on Feb. 17, 1890, was granted a franchise to establish a line of electric cars to run from the Holbrook line to the Quincy line. The franchise has been extended from time to time and had expired July 1. Half of the road is at the present time completed. A hearing was held at the Town Hall on Monday afternoon and the matters between the town of Braintree and the railroad company were amicably adjusted. The company was granted the desired extension of time and the work will be pushed rapidly to completion. It is expected that cars will be running by Oct. 15.

Hon. James T. Stevens, Elisha Thayer and George D. Willis of the Board of Directors and Treasurer George A. Beaty appeared for the company. There was no remonstrants.

It was agreed to carry the school children for a three cent fare; to pay the salary of a superintendent of construction, who will represent the Board of Selectmen, and that round poles be used, similar to those in other towns.

The company at the present time is free from debt, has $10,000 in the treasury, and cars and other equipments on hand ready for use.

TODAY'S COURT.

Margaret De Cota of Braintree was arraigned for the larceny of a peck of potatoes from John F. Frazier. The evidence was that the De Cota woman and Frazier had gardens which adjoined, being separated by about eighteen inches. Frazier claimed that Mrs. De Cota dug potatoes from his garden, while she claimed the place where she dug the potatoes as her own. As there seemed to be a doubt as to who owned the land the woman was discharged.

Lizzie Rooney of Milton was arraigned for disturbing the peace and was sent to the House of Correction for two months.

DON'T QUARREL WITH THE PAST.

Don't pick a quarrel with the past,
My friend, whate'er you do.
Do not annoy it; let it be,
And it won't trouble you.
But if you plague it long enough
Some time you'll stand aghast
To see how 'twill avenge itself.
Don't quarrel with the past.

Don't pick a quarrel with the past,
My friend, but go your way.
And if you must a quarrel have Come, quarrel with today.
Today is nearer to your size,
The past a monster vast,
Invulnerable and all untamed,
Don't quarrel with the past.

Don't pick a quarrel with the past,
My friend, for if you knew
The past has other foes enough
To fight, and so have you.
But if you willfully persist
You'll surely be outclassed,
And all your other foes will laugh.
Don't quarrel with the past.

—Persis E. Darrow in Good Housekeeping.

THE GOLDEN CAVES.

There were three of us—Ned Copley, an old Rocky mountain hunter, who, when game got scarce or furs unprofitable, took up the equally hazardous calling of gold seeking; Frank Edgerton, a handsome young Kentuckian, who had come out to win a sudden fortune, and myself, who had made one fortune in the goldfields, lost it and was now out to get another and with the firm determination to hang onto it if I struck luck again.

Across the Sierra Madre mountains in the San Juan region was a mighty dreary, lonely country in those days, with the water flowing down out of sight in the bottoms of the canyons, and the nearest white settlement 300 miles away in eastern Colorado.

Ned Copley had hunted all through this country with Kit Carson, and he belived it was rich in gold, and that if we kept our purpose to ourselves we "would make our everlasting fortunes," to use his own words.

We left Taos in the early spring and while all the encircling mountains were covered low down with snow, looking like glistening marble walls supporting a sky so clear and blue and cloudless that it looked as if it was hewn out of a globe of torquoise.

Frank Edgerton had a nobler motive than his two partners. We were out to find gold for the sake of the power and the comforts it would give, and it may be with thoughts of the deference that would be paid us by the less fortunate when we were rich men, but our handsome young companion was moved to face the hardships and brave the dangers of the expedition by no such mercenary purpose.

He was not more than five and twenty, with brown eyes and curly hair, and a silky mustache and beard of the same hue, and a mouth full of even white teeth, and his fine face seemed ever the home of good nature and laughter. No matter how long the march or steep the trail, no matter how long miles between the springs or the indications of Indians in the neighborhood, Frank was always cheery and happy, and his laughter and his songs, for he had an excellent voice, lightened many a long march and dispelled the gloom from many a lonely camp in the heart of the canyons.

We had not been many days out before Frank Edgerton opened his heart and gave us the secret of his constant happiness. He was in love, not "dead in love," but living in love; the glorious passion possessed him. It bubbled from his lips in laughter and song and glared from his eyes in exultation.

"Who is she, boys?" he said one day in answer to my question, for I, an old, loveless and perhaps unlovable bachelor, half envied him his possession.

"She ain't no ordinary girl, Susie Burns ain't. Heaven cut her out for a first class angel and never changed the original plan.

"Here's her picture, and let me say you two are the only strangers that ever looked inside the lids since she fastened it around my neck and told me as she kissed me that so long as I wore it next my heart I'd remain true to her—just as if I could ever dream of being false to Susie!"

By the campfire he opened his coat and hunting shirt and brought to light a slender gold chain that hung about his neck, and at the end of which there was a flat, golden medallion.

He opened it, kissed the picture with the adoration of a pagan for his idol and then let us look at the face of a beautiful blue eyed girl of 19 or 20, who seemed so lifelike that it looked more like the reflection in a mirror than a colored ivorytype.

"Susie Burns ain't rich, for heaven couldn't give her all the blessings without being unfair," continued Frank as he restored the picture to his breast, "but she'll be rich some day if there's gold to be found in these mountains.

"Meanwhile, while I'm out here prospecting, Susie's a-teaching school down by the banks of the Cumberland, and you can bet if she has any time to spare from her work she puts it in a-praying for me. That's why I feel so doggoned sure, boys, that we are going to win. I tell you that an outfit can't fail that has an angel like that a-praying for it."

Frank filled us with his enthusiasm, and Ned Copley and myself felt that we, too, were interested in the girl, as we were very sure she would have been in us had she known the circumstances.

I don't know the name of the stream, for it was in the days before names were given to every strip of wet ground in the west, but it rose in the avalanches of the Sierra Madre and came down by our camp ice cold, and as it brought flecks of yellow gold with it we decided to stop there and go to panning out the gravel.

We did fairly well. What we got would have been big wages anywhere else, but to compensate for what we suffered and the dangers we faced we naturally wanted more.

A hundred dollars a day between three wasn't so bad, but we were in a mood when $1,000 a day would not have satisfied us.

My, my, how hard and cheerfully Frank did work! Why, he got so deeply interested in that unknown girl, away on the banks of the Cumberland in old Kentucky, that he got into the habit of saying every morning, as we ate breakfast by the light of the campfire, "Another day's work for Susie, boys!"

Although the strongest of the three, Frank was not used to this sort of rough life, and I soon saw it began to tell on him, and I wanted him to let up, but the brave fellow stuck to it, working in the ice cold water till he was taken down with chills, followed by a burning fever.

We had some quinine and a few simple remedies for cuts and bruises along, and with these and the skill that came of long years in the wilds we did the best we could for our partner.

Now comes the remarkable part of my story. I've seen men down with the fever when they got so wild they had to be tied, but while Frank was clear out of his head he kept just as peaceful as ever, only that he insisted that up the creek were great caves full of gold, and that the specks we had been picking out of the gulch came from there.

He wanted us to start up there, saying we could get all the gold in a day we wanted for a lifetime.

Of course Ned Copley and I humored Frank and told him we'd go if he'd hurry up and get well, but he swore that instead of being sick he was as strong as a giant.

The third night after Frank was taken down he seemed to be resting quietly, so Ned and I, who had been taking turns watching, thought it would be safe to drop off to sleep—kind of lightly—and we did so.

When we woke up in the early morning and saw that Frank Edgerton's cot was empty and his clothes and pick and revolver gone, you may try to imagine, but you can never realize, just how we felt.

We cooked a hasty breakfast; then, picking up enough provisions from our little store to last three days, we hid the rest, left the mule hid in a little valley where there was lots of grass and then started off to find our insane friend.

Remembering his ravings about "the gold caves" up near the snow line, we determined to follow the creek. We could read a trail as well as an Indian, but the rocks were too hard to retain the impression of a human foot. Yet now and then we saw signs to encourage us.

The creek branched into a dozen streams farther up, and it was only after long consultations that we decided which to take, and then for no reason that would not have applied quite as well to the other stream.

It was a rough, hard road, and now and then as we went on we stopped to shout Frank's name or to discharge our rifles, but only the echoes came back for reply.

That night, thoroughly fagged out, we halted close to the snow line—indeed there were white patches all about us and not a sign of a shrub to make a fire. With a little alcohol lamp we made some coffee and lay down under our blankets, spoon fashion, to keep warm.

We were up by daylight and started off again, this time without coffee, for we had only about a gill of alcohol for the lamp, and we reasoned that poor Frank would want something warm if we found him alive.

Another terrible day and another awful night, and still no sign of Frank Edgerton. We gave him up, and with sad hearts were returning, when Ned, who has eyes like telescopes, said he saw something moving near the snow line across the valley.

There had been an immense snowslide down the valley not an hour before, but we got across, and there under the ledge of rocks, with a great pile of loose glittering stones about him, lay Frank Edgerton, looking like a dead man.

While Ned made some coffee I rubbed Frank with snow till his skin felt warm; then we forced coffee between his teeth, and wrapping one blanket about him we made a stretcher out of the other and our two rifles, so as to carry him down to camp, no easy job, I can tell you.

Just as we were about to start off Ned noticed the pile of stones—Frank's pockets were full of them—and those lying about had evidently been brought there by him. But they were fully one-half solid gold.

Frank Edgerton had discovered the caves of his feverish dreams.

We got him back to camp, and we took turns nursing him and carrying down the gold so mysteriously found with him under that ledge, and the source of which had been concealed by the snowslide.

"To make a long story short," as we used to say when I was a boy, Frank got well. When he was able to travel, we started back to Taos, carrying with us about 130 pounds of solid gold.

We made a second and a third trip to find "the gold caves," of which Frank remembered nothing, and others have often tried it since, but they were lost quite as mysteriously as they were found.

Frank Edgerton had, however, for his share enough money to return to Kentucky and marry the fair Susie Burns. That they are happy as the day is long I can vouch for, for I visited them less than a year ago, and I was highly flattered to find that his oldest son was named after me.—New York Advertiser.

WHAT A MISTAKE!

Mrs. Wilcox Suffered Years Thinking There Was No Relief.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

One night in a terrible snowstorm a man walked in a circle till daylight because he thought that he was lost.

He had been tramping all night within a stone's throw of his home.

There is a woman in Philadelphia who lived for years in a daily circle of suffering, because she thought there was no relief.

Her suffering was caused by female weakness in its worst forms. She had pain in her back and loins, great fatigue from walking, leucorrhœa, local inflammation, and a frequent desire to urinate.

All this time relief was close at hand, and she had only to accept it with the same faith that has saved thousands of others. Every druggist had it.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured her of all weakness and disease, and she is now a different woman. This woman is Mrs. Walter Wilcox, of 736 West Street, who advises all women who suffer so from female weaknesses to try it and be cured. It cures kidney trouble in either sex, expels tumors, removes backache, and invigorates the system.

LIFE IN THE NORTH.

The Bottolfsen Party's Terrible Four Weeks' Journey.

WEATHER WAS INTENSELY COLD.

The Plucky Travelers Surmounted Many Obstacles.

TROMSOE, Norway, Aug. 8.—Captain Bottolfsen, who brought to this place the news of the loss of the Wellman polar expedition steamer Ragnvald Jarl, gives in an interview further details of the adventures of the Wellman party.

He says that the expedition reached Walden island on May 17, when the pack-ice was becoming troublesome. Wellman and his party started north on sledges on May 24. On May 28 the screwing of the ice commenced in real earnest. Near the steamer were icebergs which towered as high as the yardarms of the vessel's masts.

While the crew were drinking their afternoon coffee on that day, the steamer was suddenly crushed by the ice as if it were a matchbox. The water rushed in with terrific force, and in a few minutes the vessel was a complete wreck. The crew in the meantime had escaped to the shore. The men had been occupied for several days previous in bringing provisions and the aluminium boats ashore. They were now obliged to take shelter in a great dog kennel until they were able to build a hut from the wreckage of the steamer. Through a hole which had been made in the side of the wrecked vessel the party were enabled to save a quantity of coal and other useful articles.

An express party was sent after Mr. Wellman, and overtook him and his companions at Marten island. Wellman, Dodge and two others returned to Walden island and held a council. Captain Bottolfsen, Webfeldt and a sailor volunteered to go and seek for sealing vessels to the southward.

Mr. Wellman resumed his journey northward on May 31, but Bottolfsen and his party were unable to start on their trip, owing to the heavy pack-ice, and were still detained at the island on June 23, when Sando, Iversen, Winship and Heyerdahl returned from Mr. Wellman, owing to the lack of provisions and to troubles in regard to ice and water, with orders and mails from Wellman, who had gone forward.

Journey Full of Hardship.

On June 27 Captain Bottolfsen and his party started southward in search of sealers, hauling behind them a 12-foot aluminium boat. They passed four terrible weeks of storm and heavy snow, sometimes hauling their boat, and sailing or rowing where there was open water. In this way they travelled 230 miles along the Spitzbergen islands. They were compelled to throw away nearly all their extra clothes and much of their equipments, as the boat was overloaded.

Their passage across Henlopen strait was particularly difficult and dangerous. All the party were wet to the skin, and the cold being intense their sufferings were most severe. The cold on the nights of July 10 and 12 was simply awful. In a hut at Mossel bay they found and repaired an old gig.

On July 13 they tried to cross Wijde bay, but were obliged to return, owing to the fog and ice. They made another start on the 15th, but the ice proved too dense, and they were obliged to abandon the gig and proceed, hauling the aluminium boat. Seven Norwegian sealers were seen east of the Norse islands, but they failed to respond to the party's signals.

At Norse bay they found Nordenskjold's hut, where a provision depot was maintained by a Tromsoe skipper, named Socciazon. The party had to take their boat around Welcome Point.

On July 19 they were taken aboard the steamer Malygen, Captain Pedersen. Heyerdahl was landed at Danes island to join Professor Oyen, who was well, but still declined to leave the island.

Manager Won't Yield.

SPRINGFIELD, Ills., Aug. 8.—A mass meeting of miners yesterday unanimously voted to accept the Columbus scale, with several conditions. A committee waited upon General Manager Dalzell, but Dalzell refused to entertain any proposition from them, saying that he had never recognized a miners' committee and never would, but would meet the men in mass meeting whenever he was invited. There will be another meeting of the miners.

Couldn't Float Them.

CHICAGO, Aug. 8.—Three thousand 3 per cent drainage bonds of a par value of $1000 each were destroyed by fire yesterday in the furnace of the Rialto building as a necessary precaution in advance of the issuance of a new series of 5 per cent bonds. The bonds destroyed would be worth $4,250,000 had the drainage board been able to float them.

A Wandering Boy.

HARTFORD, Aug. 8.—Thomas Smith of South Wethersfield, father of the boy who disappeared last Thursday, went to Massachusetts yesterday to follow up two clews. A woman in Framingham and a hotel-keeper in North Attleboro have both written Mr. Smith that they have seen him and recognized him from the description furnished the press.

Suspected of Incendiarism.

NEW HAVEN, Aug. 8.—Hyman Marcus and Hyman Weinhouse, proprietors of a grocery store which was burned early on Sunday morning last, were arrested last night on complaint of Fire Marshal Hubbard. They were held in $1000, to answer the charge of firing the establishment to obtain the insurance money.

Tragedy In Low Life.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 8.—Ethel Leroy was murdered by Frank Larrabee, whose mistress she had been, yesterday afternoon. He cut her throat with a razor, and then drew the razor across his own throat. The woman bled to death, but Larrabee will live.

Worked Pool Rooms.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 8.—Operators J. McCloskey, Mittleberger and Lin Martyna are under arrest for tapping Western Union wire running into the principal poolrooms throughout the country.

Bowles Establishes a Record.

DENVER, Aug. 8.—On the Denver Wheel Club track O. E. Bowles of Denver made a half-mile in 1m. 2-5s., and the mile in 2m. 3 2-5s., the fastest time ever made west of the Mississippi.

NOT A SUCCESS.

What Florrie West Thinks of Champion Corbett's Trip to England.

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—Florrie West, the soubrette of the Corbett "Gentleman Jim" company, returned to New York yesterday in the cabin of the Elbe, from Southampton. She said she paid her own passage because she would not travel in the second cabin of the Ethiopia, which she declared is a cattle ship. The other members of the company returned in the Ethiopia, and their names are on the second cabin list.

"The sending of the members of the company back on a second-rate steamship from an obscure port to get the advantage of cheaper rates is the best evidence that the Corbett company did not do a big business," is what Miss West said. "Corbett," continued the pretty soubrette, "made a mistake as to the English public. He thought the people there would dance attendance on him as they do at home, but he was mistaken."

Another comment made by Miss West concerning Champion Corbett was: "The English public were disgusted with the idea of a pugilist appearing at high-class theatres. They did not, therefore, patronize 'Gentleman Jim' liberally.

"The sporting fraternity also did not take to Corbett kindly, because he considered himself too much of a gentleman to associate with them. They invited him to one of their clubs. They thought he was no better man than Charley Mitchell, and when he snubbed them by refusing their invitation they quickly sent him to Coventry, as they call it over there when they boycott a man."

Miss West said she had left the company sooner than return on the Ethiopia.

VIEWS DIFFER.

Still Uncertain as to Whether Fall River Operatives Will Strike.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Aug. 8.—The executive committee of the Mule Spinners' association held their regular meeting last night. The spinners' executive committee discussed the proposed reduction for two hours and agreed to make no decision at present. The regular meeting of the Spinners' association adopted no recommendation in relation to the wage reduction and will offer no suggestion. It favored keeping manufacturers in suspense.

Members of the weavers' executive committee differed in their views. Part favored accepting the reduction proposed. Others favored a strike. The question was discussed. A large number were in favor of a proposition to manufacturers to accept a 5 per cent reduction, and have the mills run three or four days a week. It was argued in favor of the idea that curtailment in production was wanted more than a cut-down in wages.

PATENTS

NOTICE TO INVENTORS.

THERE Was never a time in the history of our country when the demand for inventions and improvements in the arts and sciences generally was so great as now. The conveniences of man-kind in the factory and work-shop, the household, on the farm, and in official life, require continual accessions to the appurtances and implements of each in order to save labor, time and expense. The political change in the administration of government does not affect the progress of the American inventor, who, being on the alert, and ready to perceive the existing deficiences, does not permit the affairs of government to deter him from quickly conceiving the remedy to overcome existing discrepancies. Too great care cannot be exercised in choosing a competent and skilful attorney to prepare and prosecute an application for patent. Valuable interests have been lost and destroyed in innumerable instances by the employment of incompetent counsel, and especially is this advice applicable to those who adopt the "No patent, no pay" system. Inventors who intrust their business to this class of attorneys do so at imminent risk, as the breadth and strength of the patent is never considered in view of a quick endeavor to get an allowance and obtain the fee then due. THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY, John Wedderburn, General Manager, 618 F street, N. W., Washington, D. C., representing a large number of important daily and weekly papers, as well as general periodicals of the country, was instituted to protect its patrons from the unsafe methods heretofore employed in this line of business. The said Company is prepared to take charge of all patent business entrusted to it for reasonable fees, and prepares and prosecutes applications generally, including mechanical inventions, design patents, trade marks, labels, copyrights, interferences, infringements, validity reports, and gives especial attention to rejected cases. It is also prepared to enter into competition with any firm in securing foreign patents.

PATENTS

FOR INVENTIONS.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuable inventions because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With the view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys, and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, we have retained counsel expert in patent practice, and therefore are prepared to

Obtain Patents in the United States and all Foreign Countries, Conduct Interferences, Make Special Examinations, Prosecute Rejected Cases, Register Trade-Marks and Copyrights, Render Opinions as to Scope and Validity of Patents, Prosecute and Defend Infringement Suits, Etc., Etc.

WILL REPORT TODAY

The Tariff Conferrees Have Almost Reached an Understanding.

COAL AND IRON ORE SCHEDULES

Remain the Hitches Which Are Causing Delay.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—When the Democratic conference adjourned late yesterday it was understood on all sides that the Democrats would report to the full conference this evening. Members of the conference supported the general faith by their statements, which were more or less sanguine or guarded, depending upon the temperament of the speaker.

While their utterance at the time of adjournment was not so strong as those which were heard earlier in the afternoon, they were still sufficiently assuring to justify the statement that barring improbable contingencies the Democratic members of the conference will find themselves prepared by this evening, or at the latest on Friday, to call in the Republican members of the conference for a full meeting.

"I will not say," said Senator Jones, "that we have agreed, for that would not be true; but the situation is cheerful and the indications are that we shall finish the work tomorrow. If we do not come to an agreement tomorrow, I shall consider the conference at an end, for I do not see the utility of continuing our interviews with the house conferrees longer."

This was the situation at the end of a day which had started out with a determination on the part of the senate conferrees, supported by the conservative senators, to bring the question at issue to a finality during the day, and which later brought the positive though unofficial announcement that this end had been accomplished and an understanding reached.

Conferrees Confident.

The report began to gain circulation about 1 o'clock, and it grew stronger and stronger without receiving positive confirmation from those in a position to know the facts until about 2:30, when members of the conference and senators who had been closeted with them confirmed it to the extent of saying that while all the details had not been arranged, they felt confident that a basis had been found upon which the conference and both houses could stand and terms actually agreed upon which the conservative senators would accept.

Both Democrats and Republicans accepted this as the approach of the end and as equal to a definite announcement of agreement. The terms given out were that the sugar schedule was to be as published last week, namely, a duty of 40 per cent ad valorem on raw sugar, and 40 per cent on the value of the raw sugar in the refined, and 1-5 cent differential on refined sugar; 40 cents a ton on coal and free iron ore, with slight changes in the metal, woolen and cotton schedules.

When, however, the conference reconvened at 3 o'clock, it soon developed that by no means had all the details been arranged, and also that there was more or less opposition to the program, and it was not long before the conferrees found themselves bothering over many of the same propositions which they had been considering for days. It also became noised abroad that the outlook was not so bright as it had appeared a few hours before.

It was understood that objection had been made from the house to the retention of the duty on coal, and that certain senators, among whom was Senator Pugh of Alabama, had taken a decided stand against what they termed the sacrifice of iron ore. These complaints were sufficient to cause the conferrees to halt for a time, and it is known that some difficulties were encountered in adjusting the differences on other schedules.

Adjustment Near at Hand.

The conferrees were therefore not so sanguine upon the adjournment of their afternoon session as they were when the forenoon session closed. They came out of the conference somewhat anxious, but still, as they asserted, hopeful that today would see the final adjustment of their differences.

They stated, however, that the coal and iron ore rates were among those which had not been fixed beyond recall. Indeed, sugar appears from the statements given out to be the only article upon which a definite conclusion has been reached, but it was understood that either coal or iron would go to the free list and the other would be dutiable at the senate rate.

During the day it was first one and then the other of these articles that was to be free, and finally it was left open until today as to which it would be. Outside of sugar, iron and coal, very little is said about the other schedules, although the senators say there will be few material changes in the manufacturing schedules as passed by the senate.

Bomb Killed Seven.

ATHENS, Aug. 9.—A bomb exploded with terrific force in the Jewish quarter of the city of Corfu last evening, killing seven persons and doing considerable damage to property. There is no clew to the perpetrators of the outrage.

Free Wool Pleases Argentine.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—Dr. Zaballos, Argentine minister, has received from the President of the Argentine Republic a telegram expressing his great satisfaction that congress had voted for free wool in the pending tariff bill.

Crazed by Jealousy.

OTTUMWA, Ia., Aug. 9.—Wid Jenkins shot his landlady, her two daughters, and then committed suicide. He was enamored of the younger daughter and jealous of the attentions of another man.

DRIVEN TO CANNIBALISM.

Awful Experience of the Crew of the Whaling Bark James Allen.

BOSTON, Aug. 9.—The whaling bark James Allen of New Bedford, which sailed for the Arctic ocean on a whaling cruise, left San Francisco April 14, 1894. She ran on an unknown reef about two months out. Five men were lost and 15 missing.

Captain Huntley tells this story: "The ship struck at 1 a. m. in a thick fog. Four boats were lowered. The fifth mate refused to leave the ship. One of the boats, manned by Second Mate Allen and 15 sailors, disappeared in the darkness, and is still missing.

"The others, 26 in number, reached Amlia island, but provisions were scarce and they tried to go to Ounalaska, 120 miles distant.

"On the morning of April 20 my boat capsized, and the crew and myself, numbering 13, were thrown into the sea. The remaining boat came quickly to our rescue, but still too late to save the lives of John White, William Fitzgerald, G. E. Loy and Frank Murphy, seamen.

"On the 1st we landed on Unwak island, living there from hand to mouth by gathering shellfish and catching cod. From the day of landing up to June 6 six men died of exposure. They were William Dory, Joseph Pena, Sam Masterson, Austin Gideon, Harry Taylor and Pat Connelly. All were buried under the sand of the beach.

"On the 5th I selected a crew of five men and started for Ounalaska for help. We provisioned our boat and sailed away, arriving at Ounalaska on the 12th.

"I boarded the Bear and told of the nine men we had left behind. Captain Healy lost no time in getting under way, and on the 14th we arrived back at the island, finding the men alive, but just able to crawl about."

Here the captain paused and passed his hand across his forehead. Then he continued: "This part of the story I would rather not relate, for I found them in a hut clustered about a pot that was boiling over a fire. That pot contained human flesh."

William Andrews, a foremast hand, then related the revolting details of the exhuming of the body of Austin Gideon and devouring it, after they had suffered intensely from cold and hunger. His story was verified by his companions.

Little Ones Made Away With.

DENVER, Aug. 9.—The London Truth recently asked: "Why ought not some one investigate the home for children of W. J. Cornell of Cajon Valley, Cal.?" Acting upon this suggestion, the secretary of the California Humane society, writing under the name of Harper Thompson, began corresponding with Cornell, who finally wrote: "For $10,000 we will take care of your boy and see that he never returns to you again—in short so hide him away he will be as one dead." El Cajon Valley is a small hamlet, having only a few stores. There is no institution of any kind located there.

Stowe's Centennial.

STOWE, Vt., Aug. 9.—Yesterday was the 100th anniversary of this town. From sunrise until late at night the townspeople and visitors joined in a seemingly endless program of events. Guns were fired at sunrise. A parade followed. A sham battle between cowboys and Indians ended the forenoon celebration. The oration was delivered by ex-Governor Hendee of Morrisville. Mrs. Mary A. Jenny read a poem written for the occasion. Games and fireworks in the evening were the other features.

A Bloody Fight.

GUTHRIE, O. T., Aug. 9.—Two farmers, Thomas Hopkins and J. G. Warren, between whom there was an old feud, met at a bridge across the Little River. Each man was accompanied by friends and neighbors. A conflict ensued, in which Warren was killed and several others injured.

No Jobs For Them.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Aug. 9.—The local lodge of the American Railway union at this point has ordered off the strike, the order including the Chicago and Eastern Illinois road, which has hitherto been exempt. All their places are filled and there is no work for them.

Wanted For a Serious Offense.

THREE RIVERS, Mass., Aug. 9.—The authorities are searching for one of the men who represented the Kickapoo remedy in this place. He is charged with attempting to assault Grace Cushing, 13 years old, whom he had enticed into the woods yesterday afternoon.

Big Pottery Destroyed.

SAN JOSE, Cal., Aug. 9.—The Stringers Sons' Pottery company, one of the largest establishments of its kind in the west, was destroyed by fire yesterday. Loss between $80,000 and $100,000.

NEWTON, Mass., Aug. 9.—Thomas Newton, aged 18 years, while at work in the Newton silk mill operating a silk dressing machine, fainted and fell upon the machine, where the dressing knives slashed his breast and arms frightfully. His chances for recovery are said to be good.

Caucus Dates Set.

BOSTON, Aug. 9.—The Republican state committee has fixed upon Sept. 18 and 19 as the dates upon one of which Republicans must hold caucuses in every town in this state to elect delegates to choose candidates for all state offices in the November elections.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—A bill appropriating $75,000 for a public building at Brockton, Mass., was laid aside, with a favorable recommendation by the house.

Todd For Governor.

KALAMAZOO, Mich., Aug. 9.—Albert M. Todd of this city was unanimously nominated for governor by the Prohibition state convention.

SITUATION IS SERIOUS

South Omaha Police Unable to Cope With Angry Strikers.

DECLARATION OF MARTIAL LAW

Thought to Be Necessary to Prevent Bloodshed.

OMAHA, Aug. 9.—A crisis arose last night, and if there is no improvement today several companies of militia will be sent to South Omaha, and the packing house district placed under martial law. The situation is most serious, and the 1100 strikers have been doing as they pleased. At 6 o'clock last evening they forced their picket line, that has for 48 hours surrounded the packing plants, under the walls of the big buildings, and their number was increased by the addition of several hundred men.

At 8 o'clock Mayor Johnson of South Omaha went before the Omaha police board and asked that a detachment of police be sent there, as he was powerless to control the lawless element. He said he had driven all over the city and found gangs of strikers patroling the streets, waiting for some of the workmen to show up on their way to work. He had found gangs of 50 and 75 strikers all armed with clubs.

The local police force was powerless to cope with these organized mobs, and unless some radical measures were taken to suppress the disorderly element there would be men murdered and the packing houses would be in ashes before night. The board was informed that the governor was in consultation with the packers, with a view to putting the packing houses under martial law, and concluded to await his action.

Must Have Protection.

The packing house managers held a conference, and at the close Mr. Cudahy notified the adjutant general that unless the workmen could be given adequate protection all packing houses would be compelled to close at once. He said the managers do not feel like endangering their plants by keeping them at work, while their men are in danger of assassination.

Last evening the governor and the adjutant general met the strikers to canvass the matter. They decided that the situation was most serious, and the governor finally concluded to do nothing until today, and then if there was no improvement to call for troops. The employes last night, on their way to work, were assaulted by strikers.

Many of the men who left the plants last night and went home to sleep were unable to return to work today. In some instances their houses were watched by strikers, and they were afraid to venture out. Men who were on their way to work were turned back by strikers, and not allowed to pass the strikers' picket lines. In one instance three policemen were unable to escort one of the night men to his home. A mob of 50 or more strikers would not permit them to pass, and the laborers had to return to the plant and stay there.

Citizens Become Deputies.

A number of the most prominent citizens were called on yesterday and asked to act as deputies. Many signified their willingness, and met last evening and were sworn in.

Mayor Johnson and Sheriff Drexel visited the various avenues leading to the different packing houses last night. They both reported the strikers to be in an angry frame of mind. They said the entrances to the packing houses were guarded by the strikers with an armed force of men, with clubs, revolvers and stones, and efforts were made to prevent the new men from going to work. Several conflicts occurred between the strikers and the men going to work, in which the latter were more or less bruised and abused.

Mayor Johnson predicts serious trouble, and unless the militia is brought into Omaha at once he says the regular army will have to be brought in to prevent bloodshed on a larger scale. Sheriff Drexel is inclined to think that the police and deputy sheriffs can preserve the peace unless some unforeseen event occurs, and he does not favor the idea of calling out the militia at once.

Anchored Off New London.

NEW LONDON, Conn., Aug. 9.—The New York yacht fleet at anchor here last night presented a rare spectacle of marine splendor. Pequot and Fort Griswold houses were illuminated throughout, in honor of the visit of the largest fleet of pleasure crafts in America. The yachtsmen were elaborately entertained, and scenes of gayety continued until a late hour.

An Exchange of Courtesies.

LONDON, Aug. 9.—United States Ambassador Bayard was the principal guest at a dinner given by William Mather, M. P., at the Devonshire club last night to Mr. Fowler, M. P. Mr. Bayard offered a toast to the British parliament, and Mr. Mather, responding, referred to the courtesy which he had received when he visited the United States.

Bank Funds Went Too.

Reason.

There is a reason for everything.

When the managers of the Fall River Line recently gave us the contract to carpet their magnificent new steamer "Priscilla"—the finest piece of marine architecture afloat—it was not a hap-hazard award, but it was based on careful judgment as to style, quality, and price.

It will be well to think of this when next you need goods in our line.

Boston Post Office.

The annual report of the Boston post office for the year ending June 30th, shows the total receipts for the twelve months amounted to $2,486,955, a net decrease as compared with the subsequent year of $90,393, a fact which indicates that the stress of hard times has lessened to a certain degree the correspondence of the people. The largest receipts for a single month were those of December, amounting to $236,540, and the smallest those of last August, $173,074.

The expendituress, however, have increased over those of the preceding year by $28,572, and are reported at $1,073,316. Thus the net revenue of the office amounts to $1,413,638, a decrease from last year of $118,956.

CHAMPIONSHIP RACE

A Good Breeze and Several Minor Accidents

IN THE QUINCY YACHT RACE.

The Beatrice and In It Get the Championship—Winners in Other Classes.

The fourth championship race of the Quincy Yacht club was sailed Wednesday afternoon off the club house at Houghs Neck, and a pretty race it was, notwithstanding several slight accidents which added to the excitement.

The wind was strong from the southwest and many of the boats went out closely reefed. The warning gun was fired at 3.30 and five minutes later the first class got under way, the Gipsy leading with the Beatrice, Eulalie, Moondyne and Mudjekeewis close upon her heels.

The Gipsy kept the lead until the run from Jacknife to Hull when the Beatrice began to gain upon her and soon took the lead which she retained. The Gipsy however kept steadily after her, and as it was her day she might have overhauled the Beatrice had she not broken her boom.

In the second class there were but two boats, the Opechee and Magpie. The Opechee crossed first and led the way, and upon crossing the line the first time around had increased her lead to 43 seconds which she still further increased to over a minute on the final run.

In the third class the Sunbeam carried away her mast just as she was getting ready to start, and the Dux parted both her stays during the first leg.

The In It crossed first and kept the lead throughout the race. In crossing the line in the first leg she lead the Mab 1 minute 42 seconds, and the Primrose 2 minutes 47 seconds, and at the finish had a lead of the Mab over 2 minutes.

The Cruising class had a poor start. The Smoke and Tautog got away all right, but the Niobe and Korban fouled the flag which delayed them somewhat. The Smoke lost her mast during the first time round, and was towed in by the Eulalie, which had withdrawn from the first class.

This left the race between the Korban and Tautog. The former boat led the way having a lead of over three minutes in crossing the first time around, but as she had to allow the latter boat seven minutes it was thought she would loose [illegible] but she so increased her lead [illegible] the race.

As a result of the race the championship cup was captured by the Beatrice in the first class, and the In It in the third class; while the Opechee and Magpie each have two legs in the championship cup in the second class.

The cash prizes were $7 and $3 in the first, second and third classes; and $2 and $1 in the cruising class.

These prizes were taken as follows: First class, Beatrice and Gipsy; second class, Opechee and Magpie; third class, In It and Mab, and in the cruising class by the Korban and Tautog.

The judges were W. P. Waterhouse and John Evans.

Dedham's Tax Rate.

The assessors of Dedham have so far completed their labors as to be able to announce that the rate of taxation on $1000 for the current year will be $16.80, or $1.60 more than last year.

They find the valuation of real estate to be $4,938,446—an increase of $149,648 over last year. The personal property valuation is $1,045,818—a loss over 1893 of $35,300. The number of polls is 1611.

Scituates tax rate this year is $12.70, a decrease of $1.30 from 1893.

Says S. C. Weeks of Melrose, Mass.: "I had been troubled with chronic diarrhoea for over a year when I received a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which I used and it gave me great relief. I then procured a fifty-cent bottle and took about two-thirds of it, and was cured. I have taken some twice since when I had a looseness come on and it stopped it at once. I hope it will help others as it helped me. I feel very thankful to Mr. Stearns, the druggist, for telling me of this remedy and shall be glad to have this letter published."

Miniature Yacht Race.

The Royal Yacht club, Wollaston's new yachting organization gave its first race of the season Wednesday afternoon before a large crowd of spectators.

A stiff breeze was blowing from the west at the time of the start.

Shortly after two o'clock the boats began to manœuvre for a good start across the line. When the gun for the first class was fired the Hornet and Puritan crossed the line together closely followed by the Wasp with Harry Fairbanks at the helm. The Wasp came in a good first and won a leg in the championship.

But two boats were entered in the second class. The Rival showed her stern to the Duchy over the whole course beating her by 7 seconds, corrected time.

In the third class the Fly and Undine crossed the line as the gun was fired but the Fly gave the Undine a great drubbing beating her 6 seconds and winning a leg in the championship. The summary:

Wasp, Harry Fairbanks, 35 seconds.
Hornet, Albert King, 42 seconds.
Puritan, Carroll E. Bates, 43 seconds.
Rival, H. Fairbanks, 57 seconds.
Duchy, A. King, 1 minute, 7 seconds.
Fly, F. Jacobs, 1 minute, 17 seconds.
Undine, A. Burchsted, 1 minute, 23 seconds.

—The blackberry crop this season is said to be rather light in New Hampshire, and there promises to be a scarcity of this luscious fruit. This is due to the hot and dry weather in July, which dried up the green fruit and caused a premature ripening of the same. There is usually a large quantity of blackberries picked in that state, and when they are plenty many crates of them are shipped into the Boston markets.

—The story is going around about a Wellesley college class of girls who accepted as their motto, "To thy own self be true." They were delighted with it at first but when one of their number objected and said, "For it shall follow as the night the day, thou wilt not then be false to any man," they discarded the motto at once.

BATTED LIKE FIENDS.

Philadelphias Knocked Out the Bostons by Heavy Stick Work.

BOSTON, Aug. 8.—The game between the Philadelphias and Bostons was by long odds the best seen here this season. It was full of uncertainty, and the spectators were kept on the anxious seat from start to finish. Umpire Gaffney roasted both clubs, and received an awful roasting by spectators in return. The visitors batted like fiends, driving Stivetts out of the box in the third inning. Connaughton batted in place of Staley in the ninth.

A Timely Discovery.

BOSTON, Aug. 9.—The members of fire company 6 were last night summoned on a still alarm to the unoccupied building, 10 Lyman street, formerly a house of ill-fame, where they found two floors ablaze. Candles were lighted throughout the house, and in one of the rooms the firemen found a mattress, with husk filling, scattered all over the floor, and a lighted candle in the center of the mess. Kerosene was spilt on the floor and the closets in the room were also saturated with oil. The department soon had the blaze under control. It was found that in nearly every room in the house oil had been poured on the walls and floors.

Typhoon May Prevent Battles.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—In speaking of the probabilities of the pending war between China and Japan, an official of the Japanese legation recalled that the season of the monsoon and the typhoon is now rapidly approaching. The presence of the former is not regarded as a menace to sea maneuvering, but fear is felt of the latter. The typhoon is a revolving windstorm, whose effects are disastrous. It is believed by the officials of the legation that the naval movements during the typhoon season, at least, will be somewhat circumscribed.

A Plea For Unionism.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Aug. 9.—A mass meeting of the weavers of this city was held here last night. The speakers advocated a revolution of the existing industrial system by union affiliation. They denounced the threatened encroachment of the manufacturers on the wages of oppressed operatives. A prominent mill official insinuates that the burden of reduction will have to be borne by the high-salaried operatives, and that low-paid operatives will be dealt leniently with.

The Carroll-Bowen Fight.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 9.—Jimmy Carroll and Andy Bowen met last night in the rooms of the Auditorium Athletic club, and fought for a purse of $1500. Both men entered the ring fit to fight for their lives. At the end of the 25th round Referee Duffy declared the fight a draw. Carroll had the better of the fight, and good judges said he would have won in the 30th round.

American Generosity.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—Secretary of State Gresham has been asked if the United States government will undertake the transportation of the contributions of provisions that it is expected will be made in this country for the relief of starving Coreans. A newspaper of this city has already agreed to contribute 1000 barrels of flour.

Old Ticket Renominated.

RALEIGH, Aug. 9.—The Democratic state convention nominated Chief Justice Shepard and Associate Justices Clark, Macrae and Buswell and State Treasurer Tate to succeed themselves. The platform reaffirms the doctrines expressed in the Democratic platform of 1892, declaring for free silver and demanding the repeal of the state bank tax.

The Colored Voters' League.

NEW CASTLE, Pa., Aug. 9.—The national convention of the Colored Voters' league, in session here, is said to be the largest convention of colored voters ever held in the United States, and it is expected important measures will be adopted for the advancement of the race, socially and politically.

Severe Earthquake Shocks.

PALERMO, Aug. 9.—Nearly all the houses at Zaffarano have been left in ruins by earthquakes. The shocks were also very severe at Aci San Antonio, and scarcely a house in the town was left standing. Four persons were killed and 10 were injured.

Old Company Assigns.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 9.—Queen & Co., incorporated, one of the oldest firms of opticians in this city, has made an assignment. The cause is assigned to the hard times. The company had a capital of $600,000.

Further Gains In Time.

DANVILLE, Ills., Aug. 9.—The Washington-Denver message by bicycle relay was delivered into the hands of the Danville Cycling club at 9:54 o'clock last night, being 17 hours ahead of the schedule time.

Barrett's Aspirations.

BOSTON, Aug. 9.—W. E. Barrett is again a candidate for congress from the Seventh district. He has not announced himself as such, but his statement to a reporter cannot be construed otherwise.

He Can't Be Beaten.

LONDON, Aug. 9.—A. A. Zimmerman easily won the international mile scratch race.

ASK THEM Why?
Ask the men who are making imitations of COTTOLENE, the new vegetable shortening, why they give up lard and try to trade on the merits of COTTOLENE? Perhaps you can guess why.
ASK HIM Why?
Ask the grocer who attempts substitution, why he tries to sell an imitation when people call for that pure, palatable and popular vegetable shortening, COTTOLENE? Perhaps you can guess.
ASK YOURSELF Why?
Why should not YOU use COTTOLENE, instead of Lard for all cooking purposes? It has the highest possible endorsement: from Physicians as to healthfulness; from Cooking Experts as to superiority; from housekeepers as to economy. Use COTTOLENE and stick to it.

HOUGHS NECK.

The next thing to take the attention of the people at Houghs Neck is the annual illumination. With that end in view a number of the residents held a meeting Tuesday evening, to take the necessary steps. It was practically decided that the programme should be the same as last year, provided sufficient funds could be raised, and the matter was placed in the hands of Messrs. Brazie, Wyman, Ramsdell and Downey, who will canvass the cottages and solicit funds. The date fixed upon for the event was Thursday, August 23. The committee promise an even more successful affair than that of last year.

A concert in aid of the new Catholic church will be given in the Casino, next Monday evening.

About fifty of the St. John cadets of Worcester, have pitched their tents off Sea street, and they will doubtless make things a little more lively at the Neck than they have been thus far this summer.

The guests at the Loretta this week are: Mr. and Mrs. Cronin, Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Pfeffer, Mr. and Mrs. Laides, Mr. and Mrs. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Daley, Mr. and Mrs. White, Miss Cronin, Miss Daley, Misses Alice and Lottie White, all of Boston; Mrs. Crane, New York; Miss Masterson and Miss Crane, Lowell; Miss Grace Daley, Chelsea; Miss McDonnell, Masters Bertie and George Kelliher, Boston; and Miss Reed, Andover.

Mr. Smith and family of Dedham, are at their cottage on Bell street.

Mr. Newhall of Boston is at his cottage near the Willows.

Mrs. Eliza O'Tool of Dedham, has a number of guests at her cottage near Mears.

G. H. Heinold is at the Pleasant View cottage on Centre road.

What Gill's Bag Contained.

Chief of Police Hayden took posession Wednesday of the bag left at Mrs. Lapham's by Patrick Gill, who is now in Dedham jail awaiting the action of the grand jury, and upon opening it found that it contained nothing but a burglar's Jimmy nearly new.

As Gill was boarding in Quincy last winter when breaks were of a frequent occurrence, it is more than likely that he might have had a hand in the affairs. However it is too late now to connect him with the affair, and the police of this city will have to content themselves with issuing warwants against Gill for breaking and entering the premises of Mary La Pierre, assault upon her, and having burglars' tools in his possession.

Trotting at Weymouth.

There was some fine trotting at the South Weymouth track yesterday, between the following fast horses: Rodgers, Townsend, William Hayden, Watson, Anderson, and White. The following gentlemen from Braintree, and well known in this city, were the judges: E. F. Porter, S. Willis and B. F. Dyer. The first gentleman acted as starter, and the latter two as time keepers. Anderson won the race, and Towsend came in second. Time,—2.54, 2.50, 2.46 1-2.

—Gov. Francis of Missouri, a man well qualified to know whereof he speaks, at a recent convention of business men paid a tribute to the local work of the paper in these words:—"Each year the local paper gives from $500 to $5,000 in free lines to the community in which it is located. No other agency can or will do this. The editor, in proportion to his means, does more for his town than any other ten men, and in all fairness with men he ought to be supported,—not because you like him or admire his writings, but because the local paper is the best investment a community can make. It may not be brilliantly edited or crowded with thought, but financially it is of more benefit to the community than the teacher or preacher. Understand me, I do not mean mentally or morally, but financially, and yet on the moral question you will find most of the local papers on the right side. Today the editors of the home papers do the most for the least money of any people on the face of the earth."

Dangerous Use of Strong Purgatives.

Pills and purgatives which act quickly upon the bowels, irritate and destroy the mucous linings of the stomach and bowels. A continued use of such remedies inflames the stomach and bowels. The use of the genuine imported Carlsbad Sprudel Salt is highly recommended because its action is due solely to its solvent and stimulating properties, without irritating the stomach. Best results are obtained when out-door exercise can be had. Obtain the genuine imported article only.

THE SENATOR'S SERVANT.

She Lost Her Place That the Dignity of Her Master Might Be Upheld.

Extracts from that great book on life in Washington, "The Autobiography of a Senator:"

I.

On that bright spring morning I strolled into my library and heard the telegraph instrument ticking away noisily in the corner. Mechanically I walked over to the table and picked up the tape. With startled gaze I read, "Sugar, 82¾." The slip of paper dropped from my nerveless grasp. I had bought my sugar at 60½. If I sold now, I would realize a great sum. Should I do it? No! A thousand times no! I was a senator, a member of the most honorable and most dignified deliberative body in the world. I was assisting in the making of a tariff on the stuff which was climbing so rapidly on Wall street. It could not be.

II.

For half an hour I sat and smoked a cigar. The maddening click of the telegraph still rang in my ears. I walked again to the table. The figures on the tape danced before my eyes. "Sugar, 85." A fortune was slipping from my grasp. I sat down and wrote this telegram to my brokers, "Sell my sugar." Then a revulsion of feeling came over me. I could not do it. I felt that I was an honorable man. I left the telegram where I had written it and fled to the garden.

III.

While walking in the garden I saw Mary, the second girl. She bade me good morning. I said to her: "Mary, if by any chance you should go into the library—of course I do not expect that you will go there—but if by any chance you do and see a telegram on my desk addressed to my brokers be sure to remember that the nearest telegraph office is on the next block." The girl courtesied and went into the house. I think she understood that I meant her to stay out of the library.

IV.

Two hours I spent in that garden thinking out a scheme I have for ameliorating the condition of the poor by providing open air performances under national guidance of Ibsen's dramas. Then I went back to the library. A telegram addressed to me was on my desk. I nervously tore it open. It read: "Order executed. Sugar sold at 86. You make $247,000." My heart rose in my throat. The bit of yellow paper dropped from my fingers and fell fluttering to the floor. Here was I, a United States senator, speculating in stocks and taking advantage of information which my official position secured for me. That miserable servant had sent my telegram. Horror!

V.

That afternoon I wrote to my brokers telling them to deposit the $247,000 to my credit. Then I discharged the second girl. The dignity of my great office must be upheld.—Buffalo Express.

THE "MOTHER COUNTRY" ALARMED.

She Has Received News of Startling Character From the United States.

The Winnipeg Free Press claims to have clipped the following from a recent number of the London Chimes:

General Coxey, the gentleman who ran for president in opposition to the late Chauncey Depew, is leading an army of discontented hoboes on Washington. Hobo is the political pseudonym used to designate the members of the independent Republican party. General Coxey is a native of Yuba Dam, capital of the state of Baltimore, and a journalist of some distinction, having edited The Congressional Record, an influential paper published in the Mormon interests of Boston, N. Y. His army has captured the Delaware and Lackawanna railroad, which will afford transportation through the Rocky mountains to Fargo, where the troops will embark in gondolas and sail down the Susquehanna to Washington. As the president, Mr. Cornelius Vanderbilt, is absent in Kentucky on a buffalo hunt, attended by the regular army as a guard of honor, grave apprehensions are felt at Washington as to the possible consequences of Coxey's invasion of that territory. If the Kickapoo Indians should join him, serious consequences may ensue.

Bought His Gift In a Pawnshop.

A funny thing which is just leaking out happened at the recent Sherman wedding in Boston. A man who was a prominent guest, in looking over the presents at the house, discovered a valuable old clock, an antique, that he had bought abroad for a big sum and that had been stolen from his house a year or more before in some mysterious way. He hunted up the donor and found he had bought it from a pawnbroker that had called his attention to it as a rare article. The man wanted to give Miss Sherman something rare and so purchased it. It was not, however, until owner No. 1 insisted upon the right of first proprietorship that owner No. 2 was willing to explain. It was rather a big joke on him to have sought a pawnbroker's shop for his wedding present, and the first man thought it too good a story to keep.—Town Topics.

Discovered a Long Sought For Beetle.

Professor A. D. Hopkins of the agricultural experiment station at Morgantown has just discovered a beetle for which naturalists have been looking for many years in vain. It is the beetle from the eggs of which come the worms which have ruined so much chestnut timber in this section of the country. The worm has long been known, but as long as the beetle which lays the eggs was unknown it was impossible to destroy it. Professor Hopkins has received numbers of the larvæ and has carefully noted every phase connected with their development into the pupæ and then the beetles. The beetle is one that has never been known before and belongs to a species of which but three families have ever before been discovered.—Martinsburg (W. Va.) Dispatch.

CASTLE SQUARE THEATRE.

Boston's Newest and Handsomest Temple of Amusement.

A distinct architectural ornament to the city of Boston will be the new Castle Square Theatre, now in process of erection. Its magnificent front is so far completed as to give some idea of the splendor of the work. The theatre fronts on the square formed by the junction of Tremont, Chandler, and Ferdinand streets, recently named Castle Square by the board of aldermen. It will be absolutely fireproof and first-class, according to building laws. The entrance and corridors will be in marble, with marble stairs running directly to the balcony. Three domes over the grand lobby rise to the full height of the balcony seats. There will be on every floor toilet, writing and smoking rooms and parlors, beside spacious lobbies.

The main entrance arch to the theatre is on Tremont street, through a six-story hotel, the front of which is white brick and white terra cotta.

The stage will be 50 feet from the rear wall to the footlights, 80 feet to the roof and 70 feet to the girdiron. The stage doors open at either side on to two different streets, wide enough for horses five abreast to come prancing through, rushing across the stage and disappearing through the opposite door without being in anybody's way. The width of the stage is 68 feet. The seating capacity of the house will be 2000.

The structure is circular and will be beautifully capped when decorated with a rotunda, glittering with electricity and and gleaming with ornaments. The trimmings and hangings of the theatre are to be of soft and restful color, the whole aspect being one of elegance. The boxes will number 16 and will be done in cream and gold with brass work for fixtures. At one end of the grand lobby, hidden away, will play the orchestra between the acts. Sunk into the walls will be two beautiful fountains of Sienna marble. The theatre will be under the management of Mr. E E. Rose formerly of the Boston Museum.

ALLENS COMPOUND EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA
THE HONEST KIND
Receives the Highest Praise from the Best Physicians.

DR. H. F. MERRILL, the wonderful specialist of Augusta, Maine, after giving it a thorough trial in his practice, writes the following convincing letter of praise:

GENTLEMEN:—
I have of late been using some of your medicine in my practice with the most pleasing and satisfactory results. I find that it acts like a charm upon the whole nervous system, and in scrofula and all cutaneous diseases. Its curative properties are fully equal to the claims made for it, and I do not know of one instance where it has not fulfilled all its claims. In cases of General Debility and Nervous Prostration it has proved itself invaluable. It also gives quick relief in Dyspepsia and Canker of the stomach, and is a remarkable fine restorative remedy. It is a great pleasure to be able to recommend such a remedy, as the results following its use are so wonderfully satisfactory. One great thing in its favor is its freedom from superfluous alcohol, and all injurious ingredients.
DR. H. F. MERRILL.

PROF. W. H. MORSE, M. D., F. B. S. Sc. of Westfield, N. J., author of "New Therapeutical Agents", the standard text book of the newer materia medica, Consulting Chemist and Therapeutist, one of the most widely known men among the medical profession gives it his highest endorsement, as testified by the following voluntary statement:

"Allen's Sarsaparilla commends itself to me therapeutically, chemically and clinically. Its therapeutical power, physiological activity, and chemical purity, are all noteworthy; and the reason is to be found in the fact that it is true to its name, or honest, as the word goes. That is, it is vegetable alterative, and tonic. Perhaps the highest praise that may be given it is that its action represents that of mercury, less the faults of that drug; for, has not Pereira said, "A perfect mercury would be a perfect alterative."
W. H. MORSE, M. D., F. B. S. Sc.,
Westfield, N. J.

Although Allen's Sarsaparilla is such a valuable remedy it is not at all expensive, being the largest bottle on the market for $1.00. Trial bottles 50 cts.

Love Your Neighbor.

"Love your neighbor as yourself,"
So the parson preaches;
That's one-half the decalogue,
So the prayer book teaches.
Half my duty I can do
With but little labor,
For with all my heart and soul
I do love my neighbor.

And I've preached the word, I know,
For it was my duty
To convert the stubborn heart
Of the little beauty.
Once again success has crowned
Missionary labor.
For her sweet eyes own that she
Also loves her neighbor.

—George A. Baker, Jr.

To a College Teapot.

Framed of coarse and common delf,
Bruised and battered as myself,
Naught could win thee from thy shelf—
Not the wealth of nations.
Cracked thy lid, thy handle bent,
Yet I love each dimpling dent.
Every flaw is eloquent
Of old associations.

Thou recall'st the merry quips,
Cheery voices, laughing lips,
Muttered epigrams from gyps
After the teamaking.
Once again, as oft of yore,
I can hear outside my door,
Pitched in cupboard or on floor,
Sounds of china breaking.

In thy rugged urn I trace
Many an old familiar face—
Friends now gone, to whom life's race
Was but a merry canter.
Pass before my eager view,
As when we drank thy nect'rous dew,
Happy, heedless, then—cheu
Quam tempora mutantur!

Each dear friend of other days
Smiles upon me through the haze;
Then before my wistful gaze
Fades, but not forever.
I have thee my lot to share.
Thou canst bid them here repair—
Friendly, faithful earthenware,
Death only us shall sever!

ACTING IN CONCERT.

America and England Are Preserving Peace at Bluefields.

THE DEFEAT OF THE MOSQUITOES

Due to Firmness Displayed by Foreign Powers.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—The advice from London to the effect that Great Britain is co-operating with the United States in Bluefields, Nicaragua, was fully confirmed at the state department yesterday.

At the time of the first outbreak in Bluefields, when British marines were landed on the bluff, the British government assured Mr. Bayard, our ambassador at London, that their only purpose was to protect the lives and property of British and other foreign citizens, and not to occupy the country by taking advantage of the protectorate clause of the treaty of Managua.

Since then the two nations have been working harmoniously, animated by a desire to see some kind of staple and sufficient government established over the reservation, and even in this Great Britain has allowed the United States to take the initiative.

It is believed that the recent defeat sustained by Clarence, the Mosquito chief, was caused by the desertion of the Jamaican negroes from his forces on account of the peremptory notice from the British naval commander that if they participated in the fray he would Withdraw Protection From Them.

The object of General Barrios' mission to England is to secure a modification, not of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty, out of the treaty of Managua, by virtue of which the British protectorate exists. The Clayton-Bulwer treaty is between the United States and Great Britain, and Nicaragua is not a party to it.

It is understood that the purpose of General Barrios is to secure an amendment of the treaty, so as to recognize the right of Nicaragua to assert her supremacy over the Mosquito reservation, while saving to the Mosquitoes the right of administering their local affairs under proper regulations.

Laborers' Wants.

BOSTON, Aug. 9.—The state branch of the American Federation of Labor passed resolutions praying for the abolition of contract labor in prisons of this state and the contract system on public works; favoring a legal eight-hour day in Massachusetts, and favoring a new law that would prevent judicial interference in strikes by suits of contempt of court. Hand-Sewers' assembly 6027, Knights of Labor, of Brockton, was condemned for adopting a "union label" and placing it on "scab" made goods. The following officers were elected: President, John F. Sheehan, Holyoke; first vice president, John B. Cooney, Waltham; second vice president, J. D. Pierce, Worcester; secretary, Frank K. Foster, Boston; treasurer, Charles P. Spencer, Springfield.

Fighting Fifth Elects Officers.

PORTLAND, Me., Aug. 9.—The annual reunion of the old fighting Fifth Maine regiment, now being held on Peak's island, elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, N. R. George Bicknell, Cambridge, Mass.

Declared a Dead Letter.

TOPEKA, Aug. 9.—I. O. Pickering, candidate for governor on the Prohibition ticket and a strong woman suffragist, claims that the action of the last legislature in submitting the suffrage question to the people is a dead letter in many respects. Should Pickering's contention be sustained, woman suffrage cannot be voted for in the fall election.

Tallman has received intimation that he will be served with a writ of habeas corpus by the wife of Eben Byers, the Pittsburg millionaire, calling upon him to produce Mr. Byers. BALTIMORE'S BIG FAIR

Will Be a Grand Show and Over $5,000,000 Will Be Expended Upon It.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 9.—Fred Brackett, who has been selected as general manager of the Baltimore centennial exposition, to be held in 1897, states that this exposition will be the greatest ever held in this country, excepting the centennial of Philadelphia and the Chicago World's fair. It is expected that outside of all expenditures by private corporations and individuals, at least $5,000,000 will be expended upon the fair.

The detailed report of proposed construction expenses shows a total of nearly $2,500,000 for buildings and improvement to grounds. While the exhibition will be national and international in scope, large exhibits from foreign countries being expected it is proposed to supplement the work of Atlanta's southern exposition by the most comprehensive displays of southern resources and of southern manufactured products ever gathered in any section.

Arrangements will be made for special state buildings and displays, with a view to presenting to the world a panorama of the whole south. Owing to Baltimore's location, midway between the south and the north, it has every advantage for making such an exposition a meeting place for the people of both sections, and it is estimated that on a conservative basis an attendance of 6,000,000 can be counted on.

COMMON SCHOOL GRADUATES

Are Considered Amply Able to Fill Positions In the Civil Service.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—Civil Service Commissioner Roosevelt has written a letter to a member of congress in which he takes occasion to deny a report that the commission was specially desirous of having college-bred men enter the classified civil service of the government. The letter says:

Sir—In response to your communication of Aug. 7, you are informed that the statement that the commission prefers young men who are fresh from college is wholly unauthorized by this commission. So far from making any such statement, the experience of the commission has been that the education furnished in the common schools of the country is amply sufficient for all positions in the civil service which do not require technical attainments. The commission does not know how this public announcement came to be made, and must disclaim all responsibility for it.

PATENTS

NOTICE TO INVENTORS.

THERE Was never a time in the history of our country when the demand for inventions and improvements in the arts and sciences generally was so great as now. The conveniences of man-kind in the factory and work-shop, the household, on the farm, and in official life, require continual accessions to the appurtances and implements of each in order to save labor, time and expense. The political change in the administration of government does not affect the progress of the American inventor, who, being on the alert, and ready to perceive the existing deficiences, does not permit the affairs of government to deter him from quickly conceiving the remedy to overcome existing discrepancies. Too great care cannot be exercised in choosing a competent and skilful attorney to prepare and prosecute an application for patent. Valuable interests have been lost and destroyed in innumerable instances by the employment of incompetent counsel, and especially is this advice applicable to those who adopt the "No patent, no pay" system. Inventors who intrust their business to this class of attorneys do so at imminent risk, as the breadth and strength of the patent is never considered in view of a quick endeavor to get an allowance and obtain the fee then due. THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY, John Wedderburn, General Manager, 618 F street, N. W. Washington, D. C., representing a large number of important daily and weekly papers, as well as general periodicals of the country, was instituted to protect its patrons from the unsafe methods heretofore employed in this line of business. The said Company is prepared to take charge of all patent business entrusted to it for reasonable fees, and prepares and prosecutes applications generally, including mechanical inventions, design patents, trade marks, labels, copyrights, interferences, infringements, validity reports, and gives especial attention to rejected cases. It is also prepared to enter into competition with any firm in securing foreign patents.

PATENTS

FOR INVENTIONS.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuable inventions because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With the view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, we have retained counsel expert in patent practice, and therefore are prepared to

Obtain Patents in the United States and all Foreign Countries, Conduct Interferences, Make Special Examinations, Prosecute Rejected Cases, Register Trade-Marks and Copyrights, Render Opinions as to Scope and Validity of Patents, Prosecute and Defend Infringement Suits, Etc., Etc.

If you have an invention on hand send a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be at once advised as to the best course to pursue. Models are seldom necessary. If others are infringing on your rights, or if you are charged with infringement by others, submit the matter to us for a reliable OPINION before acting on the matter.

Tariff Situation Appears to Be More Muddled Than Ever.

HOUSE MEN WANT FREE COAL

To Which Senators Give a Decided Negative.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—The Democratic tariff conference had expected to be able to announce an agreement last evening. Instead of reaching any definite conclusion, the day closed with the bill in quite as uncertain a state as ever before in its history.

The situation is in nowise improved, and the feeling between the friends of the senate bill and the house bill is intensified instead of allayed, and no one is prepared to say what the outcome will be or when the end will be reached.

When the senate conferrees prepared to go on with the bill yesterday upon the basis of a duty of 40 cents a ton on coal and iron ore, the house conferrees announced their unwillingness to accept this arrangement and stated that they would insist upon a reversal of these terms, with coal free and iron ore dutiable, if either was to be, as they understood that they were to have a choice between the two. The avowal of this position produced immediate confusion and led to an exchange of remarks which were not altogether polite.

Conservatives Won't Yield.

The senate conferrees thereupon decided to report the state of affairs to the conservative senators, and when the conferrees adjourned, called Senators Gorman, Brice, Smith and Murphy into consultation. They were not only made acquainted with the demand of the house conferrees for free coal, but were also given to understand that other material concessions would be expected by the house conferrees along the entire line of the bill, including woolens, cott ns, metals, glass and earthenware.

They decided upon an emphatic negative in reply to these propositions, saying that if the body of the bill was not preserved virtually as it passed the senate the report of the conference, when made, would not be accepted by the senate.

Senator Brice proposed an innovation in the shape of a proposition that the house conferrees be given an opportunity to secure free sugar. His idea in detail was that the senate conference should volunteer to recede entirely from the senate sugar schedule, leaving both raw and refined sugar on the free list, as provided in the house bill, and that the senate bill should be otherwise accepted in its present shape with both coal and iron on the dutiable list at the rate of 40 cents a ton.

In urging this upon the conferrees, he said, it would necessarily produce one of three results. If it should be declined by the house conferrees, it would place the responsibility for the sugar duty upon them. If it should be accepted, and the senate should on this account refuse to adopt the committee's report, the house conferrees would still bear the odium for insisting upon amending the senate bill. "If, thirdly," he said, "they should accept, if a report should be made upon these lines, and if the report should be accepted by both houses and should become a law, we should all be happy."

The Question Not Settled.

The conferrees adopted the suggestion and presented the proposition to the afternoon session of the conference. The proposition created some surprise on the part of the house members, who at first evinced a disposition to accept it, but after considerable discussion of the merits of this feature of the proposition and of the other features, involving the acceptance of the other senate amendments, declined to vouchsafe an answer without further consideration. The question was, therefore, undisposed of when the conference adjourned for the day.

The Republican senators, it is understood, have given notice that if there is material change in the more important schedules relating to manufactured articles, they will resist the immediate disposition of the committee's report, when made, and have stated that in that event more tariff oratory may be expected.

President Hasn't Interfered.

The house conferrees have their side of the situation to tell. Mr. Wilson authorized the statement at the close of the conference yesterday that the reports current to the effect that President Cleveland had interfered with the informal agreement reached Wednesday night were wholly unwarranted and untrue. Mr. Wilson said the executive was carefully refraining from exerting any influence on the conferrees, and was leaving the members to shape their courses as they saw fit.

As to the misunderstandings throughout the day, the house men understood when the conference adjourned Wednesday night that the senators had conceded that either iron ore or coal was to go on the free list, the other remaining on the dutiable list. While the house men had given no definite announcement of their choice between the two items, it was generally understood that they would prefer to have iron ore on the free list.

When, however, they entered the conference yesterday they had concluded among themselves that it would be preferable to have coal on the free list, leaving iron ore dutiable at 40 cents a ton. This conclusion was definitely announced to the senators, but the house men were surprised to find that the willingness to concede the choice was somewhat abated.

What had caused the change was not made clear, but in discussing it last night the house conferrees said, with no little feeling, that it was clearly due to the influence of those interested in the sugar schedule, and was apparently another effort to involve the informal agreement on sugar reached last week.

Whether the difficulty would be solved today or would be declared off entirely was not clear to the house conferrees. In the event of an understanding on coal and iron ore today the house conferrees expressed the hope that the Republican conferrees might be called in late in the day or on Saturday, although the differences developed yesterday on coal and iron, as well as on some of the other schedules, made the chances of a full conference less hopeful than they were yesterday.

WASTED A FORTUNE.

Edward L. Collins Recklessly Spent $20,000 In Four Years.

NEWTON, Mass., Aug. 10.—In the police court here a writ of habeas corpus was granted for the release from the Charles-street jail of Edward L. Collins, and to allow Collins to appear in court and be admitted to the privilege of taking the poor debtor's oath.

In this application is the story of a squandered fortune such as is seldom heard. Collins' father died several years ago, leaving property valued at about $150,000, and four years ago his mother also died, leaving all of the property to him unconditionally, with the exception of $10,000 which is held in trust.

Shortly after the death of his mother, the son began a system of living entirely out of keeping with that pursued by his parents. Among his earlier acts was the formation of a land syndicate which initiated a land boom in and about Waban. The family acres were divided into house lots and were placed upon the market. Collins set about the task of spending his fortune. Hotel bills, in which items of $1000 appeared, were, it is said, of a common occurrence at mountain and at shore.

A prominent display of his lavish generosity was during the last encampment of the Grand Army in Boston. Collins engaged an entire floor of a well-known hotel and held "open house" at his personal expense to members and friends of Newton post, 62. Collins made each member of the post a present of a costly Grand Army badge.

The bulk of the fortune which was left him having been spent about a year ago, he made an attempt, which was finally successful, to obtain free use of the $10,000 which was left in trust for him by his mother. Soon after passing into control of his fortune he evinced a desire to enter municipal politics. He was elected to the common council. He made an effort to be elected president of the council, but was defeated.

Collins' appearance in the Newton court attracted a large crowd. His case was continued until March 2, 1895, under bonds of $2000 from Fred D. Hyde. Collins had been living lately at Oxford, Mass.

At Least Eight Persons Killed on the Rock Island Road.

CRUSHED CARS IN A BLAZE.

Rescuers Were Driven Back by Intense Heat.

LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 10.—The northbound Rock Island passenger train was wrecked on a high bridge between four and five miles south of here shortly after 10 o'clock last night. Eight persons are known to have been killed, five of them being burned to death.

Particulars, owing to the distance of the scene of the wreck, are hard to obtain. It is feared that the death list may be largely increased.

The train, which was a local, comprised the engine, tender, combination baggage and smoker and a coach. The engine and the combination car went over the bridge, the coach being suspended on the trestle.

Only two passengers and the brakeman, who were in the end of the coach, were uninjured, and they set about to rescue the luckless train men and passengers imprisoned in the wreck below. They managed to rescue two who were injured, but Whist Party at Atlantic.

A very successful whist party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Chase at their summer residence on Appleton street, Atlantic, on Wednesday evening, August 9. About 40 guests were present. The card tables were arranged in the commodious carriage house which was tastefully decorated with wild flowers, flags, bunting and Japanese lanterns.

Refreshments were served on the veranda of the cottage and music ended the entertainment of the evening.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Spear, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Scott of Boston, Mr. and Mr. W. F. Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Chase of Allston, Mr. and Mrs. Curtain, Mr. and Mrs. Dorman, Mr. and Mrs. Churchill, Mr. and Mrs. Owen, Mr. and Mrs. Stocker, Mr. and Mrs. Bent, Mr. Gay and Miss Ayer of Atlantic.

The prizes were carried off by Mr. Gay and Mrs. Jordan.

Gospel Tent Meeting.

Rev. George S. Avery, the Evangelist, who has become a resident of Ward 5, and lives at No. 5 Winthrop avenue, has been holding nightly meetings in his Gospel Tent on Brook avenue, South Quincy, for the last ten days. The tent is crowded to overflowing, and large numbers listen in respectful silence without.

He is assisted by Mr. T. B. Emery as soloist and choir leader, also by other musical talent from Boston and vicinity.

The preacher's simple direct and earnest presentation of the Gospel message elicits the approval and sympathy of his audience as is evidenced by the growing interest and undiminished attendance. The meetings will continue through next week and as long as they receive the hearty support of the Christian community, and the continued interest of his hearers.

Monatiquot Ladies' Day.

Thursday was not an ideal one for the annual ladies' day of the Monatiquot Yacht club, yet it did not prevent those who attended from having a glorious time, although the threatening clouds kept many from participating in the sail.

Those who did not take the sail, however, enjoyed the band concert at the club house. Returning from the sail, supper was served, being followed by a social hop until a late hour.

Among the yachts to participate in the sail were: Steam yacht Galatia, Beatrice, Adolph, Spry, Gypsy, Posy, Gleaner, Alida, Mabelle, Diadem, Folly and Julia.

Many Quincy people were among those who enjoyed the occasion.

Where's the Commissioner.

The old and favorite town pump at the head of Granite street has been unable to furnish its cooling beverage this week. We hope the Commissioner of Public Works will soon see what is needed and remedy the evil. Also, put on two dippers; as it takes too long these warm evenings for all who wish to get a drink.

Also, to see what can be done to prevent the waste water and street washings from dropping into the well. Where our citizens use the water so constantly, the best of care is needed.

A Handsome Flower.

The pretty residence of Judge Pratt on Spear street, was crowded on Thursday evening by ladies and gentlemen, neighbors and friends. Some passers-by wondered what the attraction was; it proved, however, to be no secret. Mrs. Pratt, having a night-blooming cereus that was to open one of its buds, had notified her friends of the fact and many were anxious to see the beautiful and fragrant blossom, which lasts but a few short hours. It seems singular that so pretty a flower should decay so quickly.

A Rough Road.

Are we going backward? A number of loads of stone have been dumped on the streets in the centre of the city this week and left apparently, for the heavy teams to grind up. It used to be the fashion many years ago to repair our streets in this crude way, but since the purchase of a steam roller we thought this old method had gone forever.

☞In the end it is generally acknowledged that the best is always the cheapest. Then why not get the best? C. W. Guy. and W. G. Shaw carry the best of house furnishings, and sell it at the cheapest prices. Just bear this in mind when in need of anything in this line.

SENATORIAL CONVENTION.

Peoples' Party of First Norfolk District Nominate T. G. Fitch of Braintree.

The adjourned Peoples' Party convention was held in Hardwick's hall, Thursday evening, to nominate a candidate for senator from the first Norfolk district.

James G. Neal of Braintree presided and William W. Burke of Weymouth was secretary. About twenty-five delegates were present and they were a body of representative men much above the standard of what many have an idea the party represents.

Several names were mentioned as candidates but all declined, and the gentleman finally to receive the unanimous nomination was Thomas A. Fitch of Braintree.

William W. Burke of Weymouth was then elected a member of the State Central committee.

A district committee was then elected as follows:

Quincy,—Bernard Donaher.
Wollaston,—Joseph Bass.
Weymouth,—William W. Burke.
Braintree,—James G. Neal.
Holbrook,—J. J. Tearney.
Randolph,—Dr. William M. Babbitt.
Milton,—James Sumner.
Hyde Park,—Mr. Hefferman.

As there were no delegates present from Canton the committee were empowered to fill all vacancies.

This same committee was instructed to organize Populist clubs in all the towns in this district, and were also elected to serve as delegates from their several towns to the councellor convention.

After the convention had adjourned the Quincy and Weymouth delegates held a meeting and decided that Quincy should nominate two candidates in the fifth representative district and Weymouth one, and that the representative convention should be held early in September.

SEVERE STORM YESTERDAY.

Immense Hailstones Fell and Great Damage Done in Revere.

The worst hail storm ever known in Revere occurred yesterday afternoon. Some of the stones measured 1 1-4 inches in size, and the damage done can hardly be estimated.

Fully five minutes the hail continued to fall without a sign of rain, and in an incredibly short time the streets and fields were as white as they ever are in winter.

Garden plants were stripped of their leaves and foliage, and in several cases the great brown canna leaves were torn as though riddled by a big comb. Fruit was cut from the trees, and great numbers of window panes were broken by the hail, which from its size more resembled cracked ice.

More than 1000 panes of glass were broken in the greenhouse of W. S. Janverine on Winthrop avenue, and in some other cases glass of double thickness was broken.

The teamsters had a hard time with their horses, and runaways were very numerous.

TODAY'S COURT.

James H. O'Brien of Randolph was fined $5 for drunkenness.

Oscar Olsen of Cohasset was fined $6 for drunkenness.

The liquors seized from John Corrilla of Quincy were forfeited.

Says S. C. Weeks of Melrose, Mass.: "I had been troubled with chronic diarrhoea for over a year when I received a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which I used and it gave me great relief. I then procured a fifty-cent bottle and took about two-thirds of it, and was cured. I have taken some twice since when I had a looseness come on and it stopped it at once. I hope it will help others as it helped me. I feel very thankful to Mr. Stearns, the druggist, for telling me of this remedy and shall be glad to have this letter published."

A RECKLESS GENERAL.

How the Duke of Wellington Trifled with Great Danger.

One day the Duke of Wellington's French cook came to him for orders.

"Oh, get anything," said the Duke, impatiently. "I never think of what I put into my stomach."

The chief was horrified. Whether Wellington was punished with indigestion or not, history does not tell. One thing is certain. People who don't care what they eat soon find themselves unable to eat anything at all without agony. Their offended stomachs go on strike. Natural digestion ceases.

What is to be done, then? One cannot live without eating. The only possible help is in a pre-digested food, which science has furnished in the form of Paskola. It replaces wasted tissue and invigorates the entire system without aid from the stomach. Willard Hettrick, of Bridgeton, N. J., says: "I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia and indigestion until I was induced by a friend as a last resort to try Paskola, I am more than pleased to testify that Paskola has worked wonders in my case, as I have no distress after eating, and eat whatever the appetite craves. I advise all like sufferers to use Paskola."

This is the story of P. A. Hank, of Valparaiso, Ind.: "Before I used Paskola I was very weak. I could not digest anything. I tried everything to gain strength but failed. My doctor told me to use Paskola and I am satisfied that it is the only thing for a weak stomach

"I have gained two pounds in a week. There is nothing that helps indigestion like Paskola. I have tried about twelve doctors and have been suffering more than twelve years.

"At times I could work only two days in a week. For nearly three years I spent all I had for doctoring and had given up hope."

Any up-to-date druggist will furnish Paskola. If you want to know how it works send for free pamphlet to Shows the Quaker City Team What He Knows About the Game.

BOSTON, Aug. 9.—Pitcher George Hodson did himself proud today, when the brawny Philadelphias were laid low by him. Hodson gave the Quakers only nine hits and but two runs and gave a splendid exhibition of pitching. He has a good head, lots of curves, and excellent ones, good speed and a strategic slow ball. Moreover he is in the game. He was around on all the infield plays backing up. He knows how to work batters and takes plenty of time to gauge his man. And above all he doesn't get rattled. His pitching was the feature of the game, and the triumvirs can thank their lucky stars that they got him.

LOSS OF $2,500,000.

Mine Roof Caves In, Resulting In the Wreck of Twenty-Eight Houses.

SCRANTON, Pa., Aug. 10.—A mine, underlying part of the western portion of this city, caved in yesterday afternoon for a distance of three blocks, affecting property to the extent of $2,500,000, and causing an excitement which almost verged on panic among the residents of the locality. The cave-in was caused by robbing the pillars which support the roof of the mines.

For some time past the men have been taking out these supports in the diamond breaker of the Delaware, Lackawana and Western company. Suddenly, with scarcely a moment's warning, a large section of the roof fell, carrying the upper surface with it, emitting a thundrous report which could be heard for miles.

The property from the corner of Fellows and Eighth sunk from an inch to four feet, 28 houses were wrecked, and the inhabitants are desperate from their loss, and fear another cave-in. No one was at work in the mines when the accident happened.

National Legislation.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—After a session lasting only a little more than an hour and a half, during which no business of any importance was transacted, the senate adjourned. The proceedings of the house were enlivened by an attempt on the part of Mr. Boutelle to make a speech on the recognition of the republic of Hawaii, and to criticise the administration's course, regardless of rulings from the speaker holding that Mr. Boutelle, who had arisen nominally on a question of personal privilege, was out of order in his remarks. The remainder of the day was devoted to the consideration of private claims, six bills being passed.

Wyoming's Democratic Platform.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Aug. 10.—In the Democratic state convention, the committee on resolutions eliminated all references to the administration. The platform favors free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, and pronounces the Wilson bill only a partial fulfillment of pledges; declares in favor of electing senators by popular votes, and condemns the protective association in politics. The convention, after 12 hours' wrangling, not only failed to fix up a ticket, but receded from the nominations already agreed upon.

High Duties Favored.

TRENTON Aug. 10.—The executive committee of the Operatives' National union adopted a resolution commending Senator Smith for "the stand he has taken upon the pending tariff question in favor of high duties," and expressing indignation over the criticisms which have been made upon him because of his course in that direction.

Acquitting Herself Well.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—The commander of the little torpedo boat Ericsson, which is now flying down the Mississippi on her voyage to New York, sent the following telegram to the navy department: "Ericsson performs admirably. Bearings all cool. Machinery performance exceeds highest expectations. Congratulations."

Awful Fall of Six Men.

JERSEY CITY, Aug. 10.—A scaffold on which six men were working, fixing the roof of the new city hall, fell, carrying the six men to the ground with it. One of the men was killed and the other five were badly injured. The cause of the accident is said to have been the overloading of the scaffold with floor tiling.

Regarding Adulterations.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Chairman Hatch of the house committee on agriculture reported favorably the bill to prevent the adulteration and misbrandings of foods and drugs. The accompanying report states that the adulteration of foods has reached alarming extents.

Do They Need Clerks?

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—The house committee on accounts reported favorably a bill giving members of congress clerks during the recess of congress. A minority report urges that recess clerks would be needless extravagance.

Drawing to a Close.

PARIS, Aug. 10.—The government has concluded its case in the trial of 30 anarchists in the assize court, and counsel for the defense has begun summing up for the prisoners.

Indicted For Bribery.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 10.—Indictments have been found against W. J. Kane and Frank B. Thriffilley in connection with the charges of bribery against members of the city council.

Wreck of the William Booth.

SELKIRK, Ont., Aug. 10.—The Salvation Army cruiser William Booth ran on a reef about five miles off Point Hoover. She will prove a total wreck.

The new school building on Church street, East Milton, is practically completed, and will be dedicated some time this month. The building is a model one. At the main entrance there is a wide corridor extending the whole length of the building. On either side of the main entrance are two rooms, one of which will be used as a master's office and the other as a teachers' room. From the corridor, doors lead into three large, well lighted school-rooms. The one at the extreme north will be used as the kindergarten room, and as it has large folding doors, that and the next room can be thrown into one large room if necessary.

Two broad stairways lead to the upper floor, from the corridor, which is arranged in the same manner as the first floor with the exception that there is a good sized room which will be used as a drawing and sewing room.

In the basement are two toilet room, one for the boys and one for the girls, which are entirely separate, and the four furnaces and stack heater. The system of heating and ventilating used being the Fuller-Warren. There are also two exists from this basement.

The building is supplied with double windows throughout and in each room there is a book-case, and speaking tubes and electric bells which connect with the masters room. There are also three set wash bowls on each floor and a plentiful supply of racks for clothing.

The desks used are the patent adjustible ones.

The appropriations for the land and building was $29,500 and there is enough balance of this appropriation to furnish the rooms.

A ROUMANIAN SONG.

In the green garden sitteth on a bed
Of columbine a young and rosy maid,
Under the shade of roses white and red.

A young man lingers as he passes by.
"Oh, fair, and over fair for such as I,
Art thou a maid, dear heart?" is all his cry.

"Or art thou some glad peasant's mated dove
Or a white goddess strayed from heavens above?"
"No goddess I, nor any peasant's love,

"But a carnation in this garden sown,
A red carnation in this garden grown.
Youth, hast thou not some flower for thine own?"

"Nay, none I have," he said. "The dew am I.
I come at nightfall when the leaves are dry,
And when I go, carnation, thou shalt die."
—Nora Hopper in New York Ledger.

HAD TO HAVE A BATH

In the morning of a sultry July day Professor Botkine of the University of California was sitting on his front steps at Berkeley.

He was delightedly watching the efforts of his pet toad to capture a very large angleworm, and his enjoyment was enhanced by the fact that his beautiful German wife, who usually declined to interest herself in anything which she even suspected of a connection with science, was seated beside him, giving eager little pressures to his hand and uttering a pleased exclamation in her pretty foreign accent whenever the toad made an extra effort.

The worm gave a little wriggle as it began to come out of the ground, when, quick as a flash, the toad made a leap and seized the end of the worm in its mouth.

Then began the tug of war. But the toad was not to be discouraged. It jerked and jerked until it fairly stood on its hind legs. Still it could not dislodge the worm.

At this interesting point a train whistled.

"Why, Selma," said the professor, "there is the train already! I had quite forgotten that I must go to the city today. Where is my hat?"

"Do wait an instant, dear. Just see what that toad is doing!" she answered, holding him back.

He glanced down and saw the toad twisting its legs about until the worm was wrapped twice around it. Then the toad gave a hop, and out came the worm. This had been too fascinating a spectacle to the unwary professor. He dashed into the house and back again, kissed his wife, and, with a regretful glance at her rippling hair and soft blue eyes, started off.

Suddenly he rushed back.

"Why, dear," he cried, "I forgot to tell you that Mr. Smith, the Canadian who wrote the paper on bacteria, will be here this afternoon to stop a day or two. He may come before I am back."

She clasped her hands in mock despair.

"Oh, don't be alarmed! Just let him have a good soaking in a bathtub. Then he will come out perfectly human and happy. He's an Englishman, you know."

She grew sober as she thought how ruthlessly science and scientists seemed to dog her unwilling footsteps. Her husband certainly loved her, but he had a way of becoming utterly absorbed in his studies and then bursting into her reflections with remarks which sounded perfectly ghoulish.

Now here was this Canadian coming! And how was she to be properly interested in his old bacteria and not disgrace her husband by betraying her ignorance on the subject? she asked herself.

Manifestly he must take a bath, and everything possible must be done to make the bathroom attractive, so that he would stay there as long as possible. She went up stairs, and her own dimpled hands got down a new cake of perfumed soap.

She eyed it critically. Perhaps his severe scientific mind would be disgusted with such effeminate luxury.

She would place beside it a cake of white castile. Then, whatever his tastes, he must be pleased.

She put the alcohol and a cologne bottle within easy reach, got out smooth and rough towels and a bath blanket, saw that the shower bath worked, and, with a sigh of relief, went down stairs to impress the cook that during the entire afternoon there must be plenty of hot water in the boiler.

Suddenly a happy thought struck her. She went into her husband's study and brought out every book on bacteriology that she could find. These she ranged on a shelf at the foot of the bathtub. Standing out a little beyond the others, as if but just shoved in, was Mr. Smith's own pamphlet on bacteria.

Mrs. Botkine pinned on the wall some colored illustrations of various forms of bacteria and then surveyed the effect with the calm satisfaction of a general who foresees the success of his maneuvers.

She had done all she could. With this virtuous feeling she was able to go about her occupations for the day and in the afternoon even banished the thought of her expected guest enough to take a quiet nap.

She was awakened by a knock at her door, and the maid handed her a card bearing the seemingly innocent inscription, "Mr. Worthington Smith."

She lingered outside the drawing room as long as she dared, and then, putting her trust in the bathroom, walked in and greeted her visitor with a smile of timid welcome.

He did not look at all alarming. She was surprised to see that he was young, darkly handsome and dressed with more regard to fashion than the scientific mind generally deigns to bestow.

After the first polite commonplaces Mr. Smith smilingly observed, "Professor Botkine's recent researches have been of such interest to scientific men that they must lay him open to a great deal of persecution from inquiring admirers, but"——

"Oh, not at all," she answered rather incoherently, "or rather I should say he likes to be persecuted—that is (with some confusion), he will be delighted to find you here when he returns. He was so sorry that he had to go to town for a few hours. In the meantime I hope that you will let me look after you."

"Thank you very much. Perhaps you would be so kind as to explain to me a few things I should like to know about Professor Botkine's theories on bacteria?"

He was surprised to see a deep flush and a look of distress come over her face.

Here he was, plunging into science the very first thing and turning shy besides. Oh, she must send him off to that bath! It seemed rather awkward, but she nerved herself to the effort.

"No, Mr. Smith," she said gayly, "I am sure that I could not tell you anything on the subject, and I cannot think of leaving you here alone. You must let me make you comfortable. I know that after your journey you would like a bath."

He looked amazed and then embarrassed.

"Thank you very much, Mrs. Botkine," he stammered, "but I do not care at all for a bath. I shall do very well here, and"——

"No, no!" she said nervously. "I know that you are only afraid that there is no hot water on such a warm day, and you do not wish to give trouble. Not a word if you please, Mr. Smith. You will really annoy me if you refuse."

She thought to herself that he little knew how more than annoyed she was at the thought of his possible questions.

As he followed James, Mr. Smith remarked to himself that before this experience he would have vowed that she was too pretty to be eccentric. He had no wish to bathe, but fearing to vex her meekly proceeded to perform his ablutions.

She was so elated that she went to the piano and sang for half an hour.

She was startled by hearing some one come rushing into the room behind her. She wheeled on the stool and encountered the gaze of Mr. Smith, who stood before her, looking decidedly uneasy.

"I beg pardon for interrupting you, Mrs. Botkine," he said, "but I wished to thank you for your kindness and to make my adieus."

"Why, Mr. Smith"—she began, but he waved his hand apologetically and continued:

"I am very sorry not to have found Professor Botkine, but perhaps I can come again. There is just time for me to catch the 5 o'clock train."

For a moment she felt stunned. Then a flood of questions poured through her mind. Was the man insane, or what had she done to offend him? What was there in science to turn an apparently "nice" young man into such a distrait savage? The rest of the day seemed endless, but at last she described Professor Botkine and with him a rather dejected and "dug up" looking man.

"Here we are at last," said the professor. "I found our friend on the train. He had mistaken the train and gone to Alameda. Mr. Smith, let me present you to Mrs. Botkine."

She welcomed her guest cordially, but the minute she was alone with her husband she seized him by the lapels.

"What joke have you been playing on me?" she demanded. "Who is this Mr. Smith?"

"Why, my dear, there is no joke. This is the Mr. Smith that I told you I was expecting this afternoon. What is the matter?"

"Matter!" she cried. "Who is the Mr. Smith that came here this afternoon with a satchel and asked about your theories?"

"Why, we met him at the station. He had a few specimens to show me. He is the son of my friend Com Smith of San Francisco. He had just run over for a short call."

"A short call!" she echoed again. "What will he think of me? I sent him up stairs to take that bath!"—Argonaut.

The Slang of the Drawing Room.

If the slang of the streets is vulgar, which is granted, what of the slang of the drawing room? In how many drawing rooms is some such remark as this being made every day of every year: "Thank you so much, Miss Montmorenci; it was perfectly charming. So good of you! Sure you didn't mind? Much too sweet of you, really!" Is not this italicized, adverbial, adjectival sort of observation quite as much slang as the slang of the streets, which is not so vulgar only because it is more idiotic? Listen to the fashionable young lady of the period, Lady Gwendolen Vere de Vere, speaking in the "smartest," most "exclusive" house "in town." "It was an awful lark! He's so frightfully screaming, don't you know. I thought I should have died—fact!" And young Lord Adolphus Grandseigneur in reply: "He's a caution, but I've had a sickener of the chap. He's all very well the first time of asking, but I think he's a bit of a rotter, don't you know." Lady Gwendolen and Lord Adolphus continue in this strain until the conversation finishes. The one picture is no more overdrawn than the other. Put their conversation and the busmen's in parallel columns and say which you prefer.—All the Year Round.

A Very Sensitive Sick Man.

Supersensitiveness is a quality which often subjects those possessing it—perhaps the phrase "a victim to it" better expresses the idea—to a great deal of suffering—suffering endured simply because a peculiar sensitiveness in some one direction prevents the utilizing of means directly at hand to prevent that suffering. A resident of Lansdowne, who may properly be said to be supersensitive, when taken sick recently, for a long time refused to have a physician sent for. When pressed for a reason, he at length explained by saying, "Well, you see, it's been so long since I was sick that I'm ashamed to look a physician in the face."—Philadelphia Call.

—A stone chimney and fireplace have been discovered at the bottom of Oldham pond, Hanover. The top of the chimney is about three feet below the surface of the pond, and can be easily seen when the water is calm. It is accounted for by the theory that the land on which it stands has settled to this depth, and it is supposed that at some remote age this chimney was a part of a city. There is some talk about pumping out the water from the pond and making further investigations.

—The howl made a few months ago about the tens of thousands of fraudulent pensioners on rolls, has dropped to a significant hush. It turns out from a report of Secretary Hoke Smith that the whole number of pensioners stricken from the rolls from March 1893 to May 1894 for all reasons, was only 2751, while 9509 who were suspended were subsequently restored.

THE RESULT OF AN AMERICAN WOMAN'S WORK.

Not An Assertion, But a Truth, Proven by the Accumulated Testimony of 20 Years.

(SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.)

HERE'S a reason for it, when a special remedy for a special disease maintains the first place in the faith of the people for twenty years; when, year after year, the confidence given cautiously at first rolls into a tremendous volume; when one woman's name is known throughout the civilized world; when letters by the thousands come by every mail from all parts of the earth in gratitude and praise; when druggists place this remedy first on the list of standard remedies.

Then there is a reason for it. Lydia E. Pinkham and her wonderful Vegetable Compound, deserve the first place in the hearts of womankind.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured more women from all disease arising from irregularity and derangement of the uterus and womb than any remedy known to medical science.

Are you suffering? then profit by the experience of this thankful woman:—

Dear Mrs. Pinkham, — Last winter I did not think my little ones would have a mother long. I suffered terribly with female troubles.

I could keep nothing on my stomach, and got so "poor" my friends hardly knew me. I suffered with severe headaches, dizziness, faintness, backache, and the blues.

Thanks to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I am now as fat as ever, and have no female troubles.

If you use my letter I hope it may be the means of saving some other poor mother's life as it did mine.—MRS. ELLA VAN BUREN, St. David, Fulton Co., Ill.

The Coming Day.

A better day is coming, girls,
Just wait a little longer.
Its morning breeze now sweeps the trees
Its light is growing stronger.
The car of progress rushes on,
Fresh spoils of conquest bringing,
And on the higher planes of life
The birds of hope are singing.

Hark! On the zephyrs of the west
A strong, new sound is swelling!
Of equal rights and juster laws
Its stirring notes are telling.
Blind prejudice and hoary wrongs
Are swiftly disappearing,
And woman, pleading for her own,
Commands respectful hearing.

Through storms of ridicule and scorn
They bore their cause undaunted
Till through the land, from shore to shore,
Its burning truths are planted.
Their light is shining brightly, girls,
Each year 'tis growing stronger.
Truth must prevail and error fail!
Just wait a little longer.

Sanitation and Health.

From 1700 to 1750 the death rate in London was so high that the population stagnated. In the former year the inhabitants numbered 665,200 and in the latter year 652,900. During this period the deaths were in the ratio of about one per 30 persons living. By 1801 the population had crept up to 777,000, and the deaths had fallen to one in 41 persons living. This great improvement in the state of public health in London was not, except to a trifling extent, the result of sanitary legislation. People were becoming more enlightened on many matters affecting their health, partly owing to a more general knowledge of chemistry, physiology and other sciences relating to man and his surroundings. When those intrusted with the conduct of public affairs became aware how much the health of the people was affected by bad water, by foul emanations and even cesspools, and by too great a density of population, they began to secure supplies of pure water, to construct proper house drains and street sewers, to remove systematically filth from houses and to widen streets. The promulgation of the natural laws of health preceded the enactment of laws of health by the state. Jenner's discovery of prophylaxis in smallpox had for its corollary the vaccination laws. The chemical analysis of water was the basis of acts of parliament relating to water and rivers.—Charles Cameron at Sanitary Congress.

CLAIMS OF KOLBITES

Their Candidate the Rightful Governor of Alabama.

"INSULT IS ADDED TO INJURY"

By Alleged Frauds Perpetrated by Oates Men.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Aug. 10.—The conference of Kolb leaders gave out a statement last night which says: "The election returns, as reported by the press and supporters of the ticket headed by Colonel Oates, show a repetition of the election frauds of 1892, with less pretext and absolutely without the least semblance of justification, in order to overcome legitimate majorities for our ticket in 41 white counties. These false and fraudulent majorities aggregate 34,107 from 15 black belt counties. In 1892 these same black belt counties aggregated majorities of 28,669.

"In addition to this, the frauds being perpetrated in white counties are not less than 15,000. With the consummation of these have also been brought forth four or five fraudulent elections of senators and 11 or 12 fraudulent elections of representatives in the general assembly. This outrageous action, intensified by the impudence and effrontery with which it has been done, displayed a disregard of public sentiment in such a brazen-faced manner that it seems to have been intended to add insult to injury.

"The law under which the election of 1892 was held, which was devised to assure the prevention of fraud with ease, facility and safety, has been amended by the Sayre law, the purposes of which were to disfranchise illiterate voters, and to assure the

by the election just held, and has been known and intended by the usurper who exercises the functions of governor, illustrated by his remark when he signed that bill.

"A contest law which promised to allay and prevent a popular uprising in 1892 was broken in a most shameful manner, and the perfidy and treachery displayed were afterwards boasted of as a fine piece of legerdemain. We admonish our people not to accept promises or pledges from those who have proven themselves recreant to every requirement of law, to every demand of honor and to every exaction of duty. They demonstrated that they are enemies to liberty and republican institutions.

"The conditions in this state have reached a climax. There is no doubt that the state ticket headed by Captain Kolb Has Been Elected.

The alternative is presented of submission to wrong, insult and robbery, or to assert the sovereign power, before which thrones totter, sceptres fall and the outrages of tyrants cease.

"That alternative must meet a response from manhood or silent submission from those unworthy of citizenship. We do not advise fighting or lawlessness of any kind."

The statement recommends the holding of meetings on Thursday, Aug. 23, at the respective courthouses, to act "upon this great crisis, and to insist that manhood, patriotism and love of liberty, which have always evoked prompt and decisive action from them, shall find expression in their course that will be creditable to their revolutionary sires, and furnish a precedent in our history to which all will ever revert with pride and satisfaction. At the same time and place we would urge the organization of law and order leagues to uphold the supremacy of that greatest of all laws and power—the sovereign will of a free people."

Accomplished His Purpose.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 10.—A cablegram was received last night from Rabbi Krauskopf stating that he had arrived safe and well in Luzerne, Switzerland, after a trip through Russia. Dr. Krauskopf left this city bent on an attempt to visit Russia to inquire into the condition of his race there, in the face of a Russian edict forbidding Jews to enter the country.

No Dissension.

SARATOGA, Aug. 10.—Sept. 25 and Saratoga are the date and place determined upon for the holding of the Democratic convention. The Democratic state committee met last night, and instead of bickerings and quarrels there was held one of the shortest meetings on record and not a dissenting voice on the various resolutions presented.

Weavers May Strike.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Aug. 10.—At a meeting of the Weavers' association last night many of the members talked strongly of striking. The leaders are evidently opposed to such action, but may not be able to control the many weavers who favor a strike.

The Pope's Exhortation.

ROME, Aug. 10.—Many Brooklyn pilgrims received communion at the hands of the pope yesterday. The pope exhorted all American Catholics to draw people into the church by the best of all arguments—an unblemished life with Christian charity.

Labor and the Militia.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Aug. 10.—President Wrenn has notified the local unions that an order will be issued in a few days from the Central Labor union requesting all auxiliary unions to withdraw delegates who are members of the state militia.

Troops Withdrawn.

OMAHA, Aug. 10.—The Union Pacific main line between Omaha and Ogden will tomorrow be free from the protection of troops. General Brooks has summoned back to their posts the last of the soldiers remaining along the Overland road.

Caserio Has No Friends.

PARIS, Aug. 10.—Contrary to its general practice, the Italian government has made no demand for mitigation of the sentence of Santo Caserio, the slayer of President Carnot.

Did $100,000 Damage.

GIFFORD, Ills., Aug. 10.—Twenty-one business houses, two grain elevators, the Illinois Central depot and extensive grain cribs were burned here. Loss, $100,000.

Italy Is Neutral.

ROME, Aug. 10.—The official journal announces that the government will maintain a neutral position in the war between Japan and China.

WHITE-WINGED PEACE

Has Settled Over Newfoundland Since the Wreck of the Whitewayites.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Aug. 10.—After five months of unexampled disturbance the crisis in Newfoundland politics was ended yesterday. Governor O'Brien assented to the bills passed at the special session, and the legislature closed until February next. The Whiteway party leaders are disqualified through corrupt practices, and it will be almost impossible for those remaining to win a majority of seats at the coming by-elections.

The governor, in his speech, records with gratitude that measures ordinarily occupying a whole session have been dealt with a week, and thanks the assembly for the supplies granted. He announces a favorable fishery catch, reports the rapid construction of the Western railway and suggests measures for the colonization of public lands along the line of the railway.

The governor also suggests that a new lighthouse be constructed, that the culture of fish be promoted and that a proper survey of Labrador be made. The speech concludes with the announcement of the governor's prospective departure, his term of office expiring in November.

STILL IN FAVOR.

Li Hung Chang Has Not Been Deposed by the Emperor of China.

LONDON, Aug. 10.—The correspondent of The Times at Tien-Tsin declares that the report that the rank and privileges of the viceroy, Li Hung Chang, had been reduced by imperial command is entirely unfounded. The report that the Chinese general, Yen, was killed in a battle with Japanese forces at Asan is also declared to be untrue. A further denial is made of the report that the Chinese steamer Kwangui had been sunk.

The English colony in Tien-Tsin has signed a petition to the home government requesting that British gunboats be sent to that port to prevent panics.

The Chinese government has ordered all the authorities throughout the empire to protect foreigners and missionaries.

A dispatch to a news agency from Tien-Tsin states that the emperor has directed that a levy be made upon the various viceroys for a war tribute.

Worthy of Investigation.

BOSTON, Aug. 10.—If Inspectors McCausland and Burke are correct in their calculations, they have succeeded in breaking up an illegal "medical institute," where, it is alleged, women have had criminal operations performed. Robert A. Clark and Arthur N. Hill, both 23 years old, of 786 Tremont street, are under arrest. Both men call themselves doctors, but others say they never were anything than medical students.

Burns Changed His Mind.

PROVIDENCE, Aug. 10.—Clarence J. Burns lost his position in Hagan's grocery store, grew spiteful and secured evidence against his former employer for selling oleomargarine, which he turned over to the internal revenue officers. Remorse overtook Burns, and securing admission to the revenue office, he destroyed three tubs of the seized stuff. Officers are now looking for him.

Storm Changed It All.

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 10.—The fleet of the New York Yacht club rode anchor in Newport harbor last night, just a trifle the worse for wear. Newport had prepared a big reception, but a thunder storm changed it all. Lightning streaked and danced about the clouds of canvas, while rain lashed the bay into foam, but the fleet suffered no serious mishap.

An Expert Bear Hunter.

BETHLEHEM, N. H., Aug. 10.—A. K. Thompson and Allen Thompson killed a genuine White Mountain black bear on Mt. Agassiz yesterday, about half a mile from the observatory. The animal weighed 220 pounds. Allen Thompson is over 80 years old, and has trapped over 50 bears during his life.

Electrics In Collision.

HAZELTON, Pa., Aug. 10.—Twenty-five people were injured, some seriously, in a collision between two trolley cars on the electric road near Oakdale yesterday. When the collision occurred, the cars were going at a high rate of speed, in opposite directions. Not a single passenger escaped injury.

NOTICE TO INVENTORS.

THERE Was never a time in the history of our country when the demand for inventions and improvements in the arts and sciences generally was so great as now. The conveniences of man-kind in the factory and work-shop, the household, on the farm and in official life, require continual accessions to the appurtances and implements of each in order to save labor, time and expense. The political change in the administration of government does not affect the progress of the American inventor, who, being on the alert, and ready to perceive the existing deficiences, does not permit the affairs of government to deter him from quickly correcting the remedy to overcome existing discrepancies. Too great care cannot be exercised in choosing a competent and skilful attorney to prepare and prosecute an application for patent. Valuable interests have been lost and destroyed in innumerable instances by the employment of incompetent counsel, and especially is this advice applicable to those who adopt the "No patent, no pay" system. Inventors who intrust their business to this class of attorneys do so at imminent risk, as the breadth and strength of the patent is never considered in view of a quick endeavor to get an allowance and obtain the fee then due. PATENTS

FOR INVENTIONS.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuable inventions because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With the view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys, and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, we have retained counsel expert in patent practice, and therefore are prepared to

Obtain Patents in the United States and all Foreign Countries, Conduct Interferences, Make Special Examinations, Prosecute Rejected Cases, Register Trade-Marks and Copyrights, Render Opinions as to Scope and Validity of Patents, Prosecute and Defend Infringement Suits, Etc., Etc.

If you have an invention on hand send a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be at once advised as to the best course to pursue. HILL TOOK THE LEAD

In a Move to Ascertain Differences Between Conferrees.

SENATORIAL DEFENSIVE ALLIANCE

Insisted Upon a Bounty Provision For Sugar.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—Yesterday was the first day in the senate since the senate tariff bill was sent a second time to conferrees that there was unusual interest in the proceedings.

Senator Hill, who has been the central figure in several dramatic scenes during the tariff debate, was again in the van of the fray. His resolution directing the tariff conferrees to report the difficulties and cause of the failure to agree was a sensation. It was almost adopted before the senators fully realized its importance. The conferrees were aware of it and were willing it should be adopted. By parliamentary tactics a vote was prevented on the resolution, either as presented by Senator Hill or in the form urged by Senator Aldrich.

Enough was developed, however, to show the temper of the senate conferrees. Senator Vest hoped that it would pass so that the "calcium light might be turned on," and he be given an opportunity to "refute the infamous lies that have been told about the conferrees on the part of the senate." Senator Harris was willing that the conferrees should have an airing, but wanted it done in a strictly parliamentary manner.

Senators Vilas, Gray, Pasco and others desired that action be postponed.

The conservative senators were anxious that the conferrees should tell all, and upon this point for a time they followed the lead of Mr. Hill. By skillful management those who did not want a rupture at once prevented the impending conflict. At 2 o'clock the resolution went over, and the Republican managers, who were assisting to make trouble, saw that the Democrats were uniting to prevent the storm and would not risk another vote in order to keep the resolution before the senate.

The remainder of the session was devoted to the consideration of the Chinese treaty. The senate adjourned at 4:30 until today, although the peacemakers endeavored to have no session until Monday.

A Crisis In the Tariff Affairs

was reached yesterday, both in the senate and in the secret councils of the Democratic tariff conferrees. When the conference closed it was with the understanding that the meetings would be suspended for the present. No time was set for reassembling the conferrees today, for it was felt that no further sessions would be necessary in case the senate acted favorably on Senator Hill's resolution, directing the conferrees to report the situation of affairs.

What was of most importance was the feeling expressed by the house conferrees at the close of the conference that in case the Hill resolution passed—and they believed it would—the conference would practically be relieved of the work, and it would remain only for the house to accept the senate bill, as a lesser evil, as they believe, than the McKinley law. These conclusions were reached after a day of intense excitement among the tariff leaders.

The day opened with the senate proposition for free sugar still pending before the conference. Chairman Wilson and his house associates were satisfied that the tender of free sugar was not made in good faith, and they had therefore requested the senate conferrees to furnish a poll of the senate, showing that if the proposition were accepted, it would be adopted by the senate and the bill passed.

The poll was considered as soon as the conferrees convened. It disclosed that in the event of acceptance of the free sugar amendment, the bill as a whole would be voted against by 38 Republicans and by Senators Kyle, Allen and Peffer, Populists, and Caffery and Blanchard, Democrats, a total of 43 votes, or sufficient to defeat the bill.

Move of Conservatives.

This poll was made on the best judgment of the senate conferrees. The house men accepted it as showing conclusively that the tender of the free sugar amendment, while made in good faith by the senate conferrees, was a means adopted by the conservative senators for the purpose of defeating tariff legislation and leaving the McKinley law in force.

They discussed the situation from this standpoint, the arguments not lacking very pointed and personal criticism of the motives of those who had offered free sugar and free coal, as well knowing, as they asserted, that they would defeat the bill. The discussion brought for the first time the statement that the defensive alliance between certain senators had proceeded further than mutual co-operation and understanding, and was now reduced to a signed agreement.

While members of the conference did not claim to have seen the agreement, they stated as a fact that Senators Kyle, Allen, Peffer, Blanchard and Caffery had reduced their understanding to black and white, and had signed it to the effect that they would vote against any bill which did not contain a bounty clause for sugar. As free sugar would eliminate the bounty provision, the signed agreement was regarded as showing that the five senators, combined with the Republicans, would defeat the bill.

Hill Caused Worriment.

It was while animated comments were being made on the foregoing conditions that word reached the conference of Senator Hill's coup d'etat in the open senate. The conference hastily adjourned, the senators going on the floor of the senate. Mr. Wilson was not disposed to attach much weight to Senator Hill's move at the outset, and said that it would be futile, as the senate could not act while the bill was in conference.

This feeling was shared to a large extent early in the day by house leaders, who characterized it as one of the "bluffs" which had been made of late to demoralize the house conferrees and force them to yield.

Later in the day, however, this feeling gave way to one of profound concern over the situation and the future of the bill. At 2 o'clock a remnant of the conference again assembled with the Hill resolution and the exciting debate thereon as the main topic among them.

All of the house men were present, but Senator Jones was the only senate conferree in attendance for any length of time, and it was said that Senator Vest felt indisposed to confer pending the Hill resolution.

Discouraged.

Little or no attempt was made to take up items or schedules, the talk being on the sensational general phase just developed, and no progress was made up to 5 o'clock, when the conference separated without fixing a time for reassembling.

The house conferrees no longer disguised the deep concern they felt over the future of the bill. They had made a rough estimate of the vote on the Hill resolution and they felt it would pass today. Under these circumstances, they said, nothing could be done until the resolution was disposed of. If through some hopeful turn it was defeated, they said it would leave the conference to proceed and the contest would be carried on for the Wilson bill. If, however, it was passed, it would practically discontinue the conference.

In case the senate conferrees are recalled the house conferrees say they will hold the bill and wait for the senate to send them other conferrees. If the senate does so, the house conferrees will of necessity report the facts, the bill and the papers back to the house for such action as it may desire to take.

What the House Did.

The house devoted itself to discussing projects for a government exhibit to cost $200,000 at the Atlanta exposition, and to give each of the arid land states 1,000,000 acres of arid lands to encourage the reclamation of their deserts, contained in senate amendments to the sundry civil bill. No decision was reached upon either matter.

MUST GET OUT.

Old Tenants of the Pullman Company's Houses to Get Their Walking Papers.

CHICAGO, Aug. 11.—The Post prints the following: Pullman's tenants will be evicted, Vice President Wickes says. The company claims that it must find houses for its new employes to live in, and as the strikers have been camping in the Pullman flats without paying a cent of rent for the last three months they must get out. This move is the very last in the big strike and it will forever discomfit the employes.

The company's houses cover about 3000 people. These 3000 consisted of the striking workmen and their families. There are about 1000 new men in the shops that have families, and they desire to live near their work.

"Will the company evict the tenants?" Mr. Wickes was asked.

"Something of that kind must be done," he replied. "We must find quarters for our new employes."

"Have you taken any active steps in the matter yet?"

"No, not yet; but we will soon do so."

"When?"

"I cannot say exactly when, but very soon."

Mr. Wickes spoke in a manner from which one might gather that the lawyers were looking about, and would be prepared at any minute to go ahead with the work.

TWENTY-FOUR DEAD.

Further Details of the Disaster on the Rock Island Road.

SUSPICION POINTS TO STRIKERS

As Having Been Responsible For the Awful Affair.

LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 11.—It was nearly dark last evening before the frightful mass of debris occupying the ravine where the Rock Island express was wrecked and burned a few miles south of this city had cooled sufficiently to enable the big crowd gathered at the place in the hope of learning something of the fate of friends or relatives to inspect the charred mass in daylight, but any hope they may have entertained of securing from the great ashpile any information as to the identity of those who lost their lives in the holocaust were soon blasted.

The tons of water thrown on the twisted bed of embers had been sufficient to prevent every vestige of combustible material being destroyed. Occasionally a charred skull or a partially burned human bone was raked from the bed of the furnace, but nothing that remained to tell the tale of those who went down with the ill-fated train, and time was required to determine just how many persons were lost in the wreck. The list of killed and injured, as furnished by the coroner, thus far swells the fatalities to 24.

One victim, whose name will never be known, lay under the tender, the upper end of which lay across his thighs, Crushing Them Into the Gravel.

As Colonel Bills approached, he begged piteously to be released and saved from the flames. Colonel Bills is a man of nerve and decision, but he was confronted by a terrible alternative. To move the tender was an utter impossibility, and the long tongues of hungry flames were reaching out greedily for their victims.

For an instant he thought that only one of the man's legs was pinioned down, and he thought about amputating it. Then he saw both were fast, and while he hesitated helplessly for a moment, a gust of wind drove the flames and smoke upon his blistering face and scorched his clothes. Before he could recover himself, the long fiery tongues had wrapped themselves about the body and head of their terrified victim and stilled his screams.

Theories as to the Wrecking.

It is conceded that the train was derailed by the removal of the rails for about 50 yards across the trestle. There is sufficient evidence to prove this. A fishplate and the bar which goes with it were wrenched loose, and were found near the trestle after the wreck occurred. One theory is that strikers from South Omaha did the work, believing that a company of state troops, who were to have boarded the train at Fairbury, were aboard. The company missed connection, however.

This is not as greatly credited as the other—that the element that has been causing so much trouble in Oklahoma, who are bitter against the Rock Island, did the job—though why they should come this distance to wreck trains that might have been wrecked nearer home is not explained.

Three well-dressed men are known to have left a northbound freight near the bridge late Thursday afternoon, and took a southbound train later in the evening, the last train to pass safely over the structure being the one they boarded. Detectives are looking for them.

Harry Foote, the injured brakeman, is the one who advanced the theory that the train was maliciously wrecked. According to his story, a rail was laid on the bridge and the fishplates, and a crowbar was found in the grass near by. The evidences were plain and unmistakable.

Marks made by a wrench on a loosened rail were plainly visible, and the marks of the crowbar on the crossties were also plain, so that no lantern was needed to examine them. The wood of the ties was deeply dented where the crowbar had been inserted, and the rails were lifted clear off the ties, and the spikes which had been pulled out were lying loose on the bridge.

The police have arrested a colored man named George Davis, who is suspected to be connected with the wrecking.

As the Rock Island offers a reward of $1000 for the apprehension of the wreckers, the county and state will be asked to add to the reward.

Russians Seize an Island.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 11.—The City of Pekin brings advices that the Russian flag is to be seen on the island of Gatsu-bito. It is surmised that Russia has seized it. The Queen of Corea has appealed to the Russian minister for protection in case of emergency, and the minister has consented.

Thieves Identified.

EATSPORT, Me., Aug. 11.—Detective O'Brien of Ogdensburg, N. Y., arrived here and identified Mitchell and Hamp as men wanted in his town for stealing a bag of gold from the mother and sister of one of them.

Orders Coming In.

BIDDEFORD, Me., Aug. 11.—The Saco water power machine shop, which was recently started after a long shutdown, has received orders enough to insure work for the crew during all the fall and winter.

Orono Bank Closed.

ORONO, Me., Aug. 11.—The Orono Savings bank has been adjudged insolvent and is restrained from doing further business. Losses in western investments is the cause.

An Excellent Remedy for Diarrhoea.

RANDOLPH, MASS., March 13, 1894—I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and found it excellent for diarrhoea. I have recommended it to friends and know of two cases of diarrhoea having been cured with one small bottle. JOSEPH H. FOSTER.

GOETHE'S VISIT TO CARLSBAD.

There is no doubt that the life of the great poet was greatly prolonged by drinking the waters of the Sprudel Spring. We have the Sprudel Spring brought to us in the form of Salt, which is obtained by evaporation from the waters of Carlsbad.

The Carlsbad Sprudel Salt (powder form) dissolves tenacious bile, allays irritation and removes obstructions by aiding nature. It acts soothingly and without pain. Best results obtained when out-door exercise can be had. The genuine has the signature of "EISNER & MENDELSON Co., Agents, New York," on bottle.

COPELAND STREET.

How the Proposed Widening will be Made.

That Copeland street should be widened no one who has ever travelled on the street in a carriage will doubt and although the business men of this street realize the same thing none of them had anything to say about it at the public hearing last Monday evening.

The plan proposed by the committee on streets widens the street to a uniform width of 45 feet.

Commencing at the junction of Crescent street the proposed plan takes off a strip on the north, practically 10 feet wide, as far as the estate of Michael Elcock, where it comes to nothing. Commencing again at nothing on the estate of James H. and George F. Elcock, it takes off a narrow strip to the estate of Michael Small, which looses a small corner.

On the south side a narrow strip is taken from the estates of Michael McGoveran and James Berry.

Commencing again at nothing on the estate of Monahan & Breen, a narrow strip is taken off to the estate of William McGann, where it ends in nothing.

At the southerly corner of Copeland and Willard streets the plan proposes to take a triangular piece of land owned by the N. Y. N. H. & H. R. R., at present occupied by F. J. Fuller. This will make a graceful curve into Willard street.

The plan proposed is a FAIR. the land damages QUINCY. good one and if should be carried out. ages will not be too high they

STEAM YACHT PILGRIM.

The Old Cup Defender in a New Dress Will be Launched Monday.

If George Stuart, the former owner of the old cup defender Pilgrim, should see her as she now is upon the ways at McIntyre & Kirk's yards, at Quincy Point, he would hardly recognize her in her new dress.

When L. G. Burnham purchased her of the syndicate, Messrs. McIntyre & Kirk immediately commenced altering her over into a pleasure steamer.

Work has so far progressed that she is practically completed and will be launched on Monday morning about 9 o'clock.

Almost entirely rebuilt, she still retains her rakish look, her long overhang forward giving her a unique appearance.

She is 126 feet over all, 85 feet water line, 23 feet beam and 5 feet draught.

Aft of the pilot house is a commodious saloon which can be used as a dining room. It is finished in natural wood, carved and polished and has an elegant double sideboard in the centre of which is a large French plate glass mirror, the doors of the sideboard being leaded glass.

From this saloon entrance is had to the butler's pantry, which is well supplied with shelves and drawers, and is connected with the kitchen by a dumb waiter and a spiral stairway.

Aft of the engine room is the main saloon, which is divided into three compartments. These rooms are finished in white and gold, and each is supplied with lavatories and other conveniences. The seats in this and the dining room are richly upholstered.

Forward of the engine room on the lower deck is the kitchen, which is a model affair. It has a set range, ice chest and quantities of drawers and shelves.

Leading from the kitchen is the officers' cabin, which also has an entrance from the pilot house. Next, forward from the officers' cabin is the mess room, which has two spare berths, the steward's cabin and the forecastle with berths for the crew, with an entrance from a hatchway near which is the steam winch.

The deck aft of the main saloon is fitted with seats, and the whole deck is inclosed with a netting. In especially hot days an awning will furnish the necessary shade.

It is a twin propeller and has two 200 horse power compound engines, and is expected to develop a speed of [illegible] and [illegible] fourteen knots.

She also [illegible] has two masts so that when necessary she can spin along under canvas.

The outside is painted white and has a broad gold stripe. On either side of the pilot house, in gold letters, is the name, "Pilgrim."

After being launched she will remain at the Point long enough to receive her finishing touches preparatory to making her trial trip.

She will be officered as follows: Captain, R. D. Robinson; chief engineer, John Stevens; assistant engineer, John McChesney.

POLO AT HINGHAM.

The Home Team Captures the individual Cups.

One of the largest crowds of the season was present Friday on the Hingham Polo grounds to witness the game for four individual silver cups, between the Hinghams and the Country club of Brookline.

As a result of the game the four pretty cups will remain in Hingham the pinks having won by one goal.

The competing teams with their handicap was as follows:

COUNTRY CLUB. Color, yellow.	Handicap	HINGHAM. Color, pink.	Handicap
W. H. Goodwin,	2	M. S Crehore,	0
Allan Forbes,	0	R. W. Williams,	0
R. G. Shaw, 2d,	9	C. M. Bryant,	0
F. B. Fay,	5	P. B. Bradley,	2
Total,	16	Total	2

Both teams were out in earnest and the play was fast.

The team play by the visitors was excellent and if they had kept it up there is no doubt but what the final summary would have been different.

This gave Hingham the game by a score of 15 to 14, notwithstanding that they were handicapped by 14 goals.

Today at 3 o'clock there will be a series of races and Gymkhana games.

METHODIST CAMPMEETING. The Martha's Vineyard Campmeeting will begin this year, Sunday, August 19th, and close Monday, August 27th.

There will be sermons each afternoon and evening of the week days. The preachers for Monday, Aug. 20th, are the Rev. J. H. McDonald of East Weymouth, and the Rev. P. M. Vinton of Pawtucket, R. I.

The annual meeting of the Association will be held Tuesday, Aug. 21st, at 1 P. M. On the evening of that day, the brilliant young preacher and orator, the Rev. Matt. S. Hughes, of Portland, Maine, will preach.

—We believe the government is making a mistake in neglecting to encourage the building and opening of the Nicaragua canal. Such a canal would be of inestimable value to this country and would stimulate an enormous amount of ship building and commerce. Arguments seem superfluous in this case. Action is what is needed, before some other country gets the advantage.

—Boston's tax rate this year is $12.80, the same as last year.

BRIDEGROOMS BEATEN.

The Boston Team Succeed In Batting Kennedy Out of the Box.

BROOKLYN, Aug. 10.—Pitcher Kennedy was an easy mark for Boston's beaneaters. During the five innings that "Roaring Bill" twirled the ball the Bostons made 17 hits and 11 runs. Daub was then put in the box and the Bostons only added a safe hit to their column. In consideration of his fine work the management of the Brooklyn club has decided to recall Daub's release.

BRAINTREE.

Nathaniel White of Shaw street, East Braintree, has returned from a two weeks' visit to friends living in Maine.

Rev. A. A. Ellsworth will occupy the pulpit of First church on next Sabbath. Evening Union meeting at 7 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin J. Loring are spending a vacation of a week, at Lake Pleasant, in the western part of the State.

Subscriptions are being taken to have the Union engine properly fixed for the fireman's muster in Waltham next month.

The Warners of Dorchester and the Weymouth Institutes play this afternoon on the Institutes grounds. A crack game may be expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Watson are at Cottage City attending the Summer Institute. Mr. Watson is expected to make a flying visit home tomorrow.

Wednesday night the Butcher Boy was out for practice for the fireman's muster at Waltham in September. She played a stream of a hundred and seventy feet.

Mr. Morris Woodsum and family and Mr. Tom Killian and family, returned this week from Fort Point, North Weymouth, where they have been spending part of the summer.

Alverdo H. Mason, postmaster East Braintree, is to shake the dust off his feet some morning next week and go on a vacation of an uncertain length, in search of the philosopher's stone. Hope he'll get it, and a big one too!

Superintendent Litchfield of the almshouse continues to make great improvements in the appearance of the grounds in front of the building. He has had difficulties to contend with that would have discouraged a less plucky man. When the whole is finished it will be creditable to the town.

R. Elmer Morrison has been organist for the First Congregational church, thirty-five years. He began playing when he was sixteen years old and continuing ever since, has made an excellent record, one should think, both for this world and the next. We know he has for this! Elmer is fifty-one years old; his hair is changing its color but not so his heart.

A gang of fifty Italians and a sprinkling of natives have been busy at work since Thursday morning, pushing along the construction of the Braintree and Holbrook Electric street railroad. It is expected that they will be down as far as the Square in South Braintree this evening when they quit work.

Quite a number of people gathered on the bridge at Union street, over the Monatiquot river, Monday evening, watching the rescuing of four little half drowned kittens, who were thrown in by some unfeeling person and as one gentleman remarked, that the one who did it ought to be arrested for cruelty to animals. There is a humane way to dispose of them, and not throw them in, one by one, only to see them swim out, to be thrown back again.

Mr. Gleason Torrey, of Union street, has moved into his fine new residence on Washington street.

Pickerel fishing is good on Little Pond. James Cuff caught, the other afternoon, seven that weighed a pound each, and four a pound and a half each.

Now it is proposed to have placed in the new tower on the fire engine house, at East Braintree, an electric clock, and a weather vane on top of the tower.

The shares of the Braintree and Weymouth Electric street railroad stock are selling like hot cakes. John Kelley is pushing the enterprise right ahead.

On Tuesday evening, the "H. H.," a society of young people connected with the M. E. church, will hold a lawn party on the grounds at the rear of the church.

Station agent Grier, at Mayflower Park, has skipped to parts unknown accompanied by his wife and family with between two and three hundred dollars of the railroad company's money. Mayflower Park will go ahead now!

Duck's Nest Goslins.

Al Williams, the steward of Duck's Nest, Wollaston, has now in contemplation the putting in of three of the Narragansett Machine company's patent bowling alleys.

The other night Seymour Field broke 20 pipes straight at the novelty pipe tournament. That made Brainerd restive, so on Wednesday evening he came down and took up a rifle and fired away at those pipes until he broke 20 in succession, but, like Field he missed the twenty-first. The next best to these two scores is Sanborn's 11.

Over 1800 "T. D.'s" have been broken in the pipe contest.

The attendance is so large that the present quarters are rather cramped.

Quincy Cycle Club.

Run Sunday to Crescent Beach.

Last Sunday the club ran to Nantasket.

The club wishes to express its thanks to Capt. Dyer of the Eagles, for a copy of the publication on Massachusetts clubs and wheelmen.

Regular monthly meeting Monday, August 12. All members are urgently requested to be present, as important business will be transacted.

Says S. C. Weeks of Melrose, Mass.: "I had been troubled with chronic diarrhoea for over a year when I received a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which I used and it gave me great relief. I then procured a fifty-cent bottle and took about two-thirds of it, and was cured. I have taken some twice since when I had a looseness come on and it stopped it at once. I hope it will help others as it helped me. I feel very thankful to Mr. Stearns, the druggist, for telling me of this remedy and shall be glad to have this letter published."

A Squantum Nuisance.

People of Atlantic are asking why it is that a crowd of men from out of town are allowed to come within our city and make a nuisance of themselves without interruption on the part or the officials. Every pleasant Sunday crowds come from Boston who make their headquarters at new Squantum and indulge in holiday pastimes such as playing base and foot ball, foot-races, etc. As these parties are always well supplied with alcoholic stimulants the combination is complete and the shouts and cries from these crowds can at times be heard in the centre of Atlantic.

—The story is going around about a Wellesley college class of girls who accepted as their motto, "To thy own self be true." They were delighted with it at first but when one of their number objected and said, "For it shall follow as the night the day, thou wilt not then be false to any man," they discarded the motto at once.

—The Chelsea Pottery Co. has purchased a large tract of land at East Dedham, and will remove its manufacturing plant there as soon as necessary buildings can be erected.

NEW BOOT FACTORY.

A Fine Building on the Monatiquot River—Operations Begun.

The advent of this manufacturing firm among us in Braintree was duly announced when it took place, in the columns of the OBSERVER. Also a description of the factory, as it began to be erected; which has now been completed and manufacturing operations begun in good shape, and with spirit. This is good and we breath more freely because of the fact.

The new factory is a large building occupying the place where the Ames' old shovel shops stood having one of the best water privileges on the Monatiquot river. The building stands low and is not seen to advantage at a distance, such as the character of the building, in its exterior proportions and appearance, entitle it to, and which they assume when we approach nearer to it.

The new factory is a wooden building above the first story; measures 156 by 50 feet, with what is called a "Moniter roof."

It's a fine proportioned building, substantial in every part, flooded with light by about five hundred windows.

The motive power can either be steam or water, just as circumstances demand. There is a handsome horizontal Putnam engine, 70 horse power, and a boiler with

When we went through the factory the other forenoon it had the appearance of a bee-hive; there must have been, we should reckon, between two and three hundred people busy at work. In the stitching room there were quite a number of young women employed and their work did not seem to be either irksome or burdensome.

We were surprised to see so many "hand-sewers" at work most of them young men, all seated on the old fashioned style of stools, working with a will; giving the impression to one standing behind them when pulling through the waxed thread, with both hands, each one in an opposite direction, that they were going to fly. There were exactly a baker's dozen of them, and while all made the attempt to fly by turns, none succeeded in getting higher than their "stools" while we tarried.

The superintendent is W. S. Clark of Rockland, who has not moved to South Braintree with his family as yet, although should things turn out pleasant as he expects they will, he may come thither in the Spring. There have been already nine families that have moved into South Braintree, as the result of the starting up of the factory, and more will, as a matter of course, follow.

Most of the workmen were strangers to us; we saw very few Braintree faces among them, this is due to the fact, we were assured, that there are not many bootmakers in Braintree. The firm manufactures mostly for the New York trade. The office of the firm is 91 Bedford street, Boston.—Braintree Observer.

IN THEIR 24th REPORT (1893)

make the statement that Sarsaparillas containing Iodide of Potassium are unsafe to use, excepting under the supervision of an experienced physician, and that their continued use tend to impoverish instead of purifying the blood. Also that in many cases they act as a DIRECT POISON, and cause serious trouble, defeating the object for which they are taken.

ALL THE LEADING SARSAPARILLAS were analyzed and found to contain this poisonous chemical in various quantities, EXCEPTING ALLEN'S, which was found entirely free from Iodide of Potassium or other chemicals, and to be purely vegetable, thereby verifying our claim that it is the "HONEST KIND."

This is an unprejudiced statement made by the most scientific body of men in New England as A WARNING TO THE PUBLIC against the use of dangerous and injurious medicines, ALLEN'S is the HONEST KIND, the safe kind, and the kind that CONQUERS DISEASE.

The Spelling Match.

Ten little children, standing in a line,
"F-u-l-y, fully," then there were nine.

Nine puzzled faces, fearful of their fate,
"C-l-l-l-y, silly," then there were eight.

Eight pairs of blue eyes, bright as stars of heaven,
"B-u-s-s-y, busy," then there were seven.

Seven grave heads, shaking in an awful fix,
"L-a-d-d-y, lady," then there were six.

Six eager darlings, determined each to strive,
"D-u-t-i-e, duty," then there were five.

Five hearts so anxious, beating more and more,
"S-c-o-l-a-r, scholar," then there were four.

Four mouths like rosebuds on a red rose tree,
"M-e-e-r-y, merry," then there were three.

Three pairs of pink ears, listening keen and true,
"O-n-l-e-y, only," then there were two.

Two sturdy laddies, ready both to run,
"T-u-r-k-y, turkey," then there was one.

One head of yellow hair, bright in the sun,
"H-e-r-o, hero," the spelling match was won.

The Unbidden Guest.

Within my home, that empty seemed, I sat
And prayed for greater blessings. All
That was mine own seemed poor and mean and small,
And I cried out rebelliously for that

I had not—saying, if great gifts of gold
Were only mine, journeys in faroff lands,
With rest for weary brain and burdened hands—

If love, the love I craved, would come and fold
Its arms around me—then would joy abide
With me forever; peace would come and bless,
And life would round out from this narrowness
Into a fullness new and sweet and wide.

And so I fretted 'gainst my simple lot,
And so I prayed for fairer, broader ways,
Making a burden of the very days
In mad regret for that which I had not.

And then one came unto my humble door
And asked to enter. "Art thou Love?" I cried,
"Or Wealth or Fame? Else shalt thou be denied."
She answered: "Nay, my child, but I am more.

"Open to me, I pray. Make me thy guest,
And thou shalt find, although no gift of gold
Or fame or love within my hand I hold,
That with my coming cometh all the best

"That thou hast longed for." Fair, though grave, her face,
Soft was her voice, and in her steadfast eyes
I saw the look of one both true and wise.
My heart was sore, and so with tardy grace

I bade her enter. How transfigured
Seemed now the faithful love that at my feet
So long had lain unprized! How wide and sweet
Shown the small paths wherein I had been led!

Duty grew beautiful. With calm content
I saw the distant wealth of land and sea,
But all fair things seemed given unto me
The hour I clasped the hand of dear Content.
—Carlotta Perry.

Prospective Wealth.

Landlady—No, I'll not give you another day. Pay me now or get out. You'll not have any more money tomorrow than you have today.

Hall Bedroomer—Oh, yes, I will. I'm going to have a friend here tonight to teach him how to play poker.—Puck.

A SHORT CORN CROP

Threatens to Cause a Serious Loss to All Consumers.

BUSINESS ON A GAMBLING BASIS

Owing to Continued Uncertainty on the Tariff.

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: With changes every hour in the prospects about the tariff and a decision expected every day, business has unpleasantly resembled gambling. Orders and purchases have been largely based upon individual opinions regarding the legislative outcome, and a vast amount of business has been deferred because the decision was yet in the future.

In such circumstances the present indications and conditions are of comparatively little value, but the startling advance in corn discloses a general belief that the injury to this most important crop has been so great as to affect materially the traffic of railroads, the demand for manufactured products and the cost of meats for the coming year.

Unless the markets are entirely deceived, the country has to face a real calamity in the loss of something like 500,000,000 bushels of corn, and this loss consumers have to share through the advance of 14 cents in two weeks and 9 cents since Friday of last week.

Neither official nor unofficial statements as yet preclude the hope that the loss may prove less serious, but at current prices 1,500,000,000 bushels would cost as much as 2,000,000,000 bushels would have cost a fortnight ago.

Wheat has risen 3 1-2 cents in the fortnight, and 2 1-2 during the week, although western receipts have been 5,223,128 bushels against 3,162,694 last year. Atlantic exports are still about half as large as a year ago, 1,389,485 bushels against 2,734,784 last year.

Pork products are a little stronger, as is natural. Cotton has twice risen and again declined 1-16 cent, with increasing prospects of a very large yield, closing without change for the week.

Good Boot and Shoe Trade.

The business in boots and shoes is strong and healthy, though conspicuously confined to medium and low priced articles, such as 75 cent shoes for men and 55 to 60 cents for women's wear, but shipments from Boston have been in two weeks 166,693 cases against 122,826 last year.

Demands for textile goods clearly represent exhaustion of stocks and continuing needs for consumption in the main, though there has sprung up quite a speculative business on the possible failure of tariff legislation. Lower prices in some cotton goods have encouraged larger operations, and the proposed reduction of wages at Fall River is announced, as yet without clear indication whether it is to be followed by a strike. Woolens for winter go as before, and the opening of spring goods discloses a decline of about 12½ cents on the average from last year's prices, but the goods are not urged by makers nor hungrily sought by buyers.

Wool.

The sales of wool would have been larger, according to reports from the different markets, if there had been sufficient stock available, but amounted to 7,623,400 pounds at the three eastern markets, against 9,220,700 pounds two years ago. Country holders of wool do not at present appear to be anxious to let somebody else speculate on its price, and are said to be keeping back supplies quite generally, although receipts at Chicago were 4,000,051 pounds for the week, against 1,127,000 for the same week last year.

The failures for the five weeks ending Aug. 1 showed liabilities of $11,144,713, of which $5,626,594 were of manufacturing and $5,220,247 of trading concerns. The failures during the past week have been 251 in the United States, against 394 last year, and 54 in Canada, against 25 last year.

Vest to Retire.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 11.—The Journal's Washington correspondent this evening wires his paper as follows: It is generally understood and accepted as true among the Missourians that Senator Vest will not seek another election. Hon. Champ Clark announces himself as a candidate for the place. Ex-Governor Francis is a standing candidate, and it is also understood that ex-Congressman Clary will be in the race.

Shot a Rival.

MANCHESTER, N. H., Aug. 11.—A shooting affray occurred in the town of Merrimac last evening. William Trudo and Isaac Nutting were employed on the farm of Mrs. I. N. J. Woods. While the men were in the hayfield love and jealousy culminated in Nutting firing two shots at Trudo, one bullet taking effect in Trudo's hip. The wound is serious, but not necessarily fatal.

Marching Toward Seoul.

LONDON, Aug. 11.—The correspondent of The Times at Shanghai telegraphs that 12,000 Japanese troops from Fusan and 8000 from Yuensan are marching toward Seoul, the capital of Corea. The Sung-Li-Yamen, the supreme council of the empire, have guaranteed the safety of foreigners in the interior of China.

Must Pay Over $11,000.

PROVIDENCE, Aug. 11.—The suit of Angelia V. Burnham against the Consolidated railroad was settled yesterday by the payment of between $11,000 and $12,000 to the plaintiff, whose husband was killed in a collision. The accident occurred here in 1890, and the case has been in the courts since that time.

To Meet at Pittsburg.

SYRACUSE, Aug. 11.—Mrs. S. C. Mink and Mrs. E. Phillips, president and secretary, respectively, of the National Women's Relief corps, have sent out the general orders for the convention to be held in Pittsburg next month in conjunction with the meeting of the Grand Army.

Taking a Rest.

LONDON, Aug. 11.—United States Ambassador Bayard started today on a yachting cruise in the Mediterranean with Sir John Pender and party. Mr. Bayard will be away until September. In his absence Secretary Roosevelt will have charge of the affairs of the embassy.

☞ Hammocks, hang one almost anywhere, and then you have rest and dreamy lazing on tap. The season is just about half gone, and the remainder of our hammocks will go at about half price. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

Damaging Evidence Obtained Against "Doctors" Hill and Clark.

BOSTON, Aug. 11.—It was the city hospital which was chiefly instrumental in the arrest of Arthur M. Hill and Robert A. Clark in the Ingalls malpractice case.

Within a year or two, says The Post, so many victims of criminal practice have turned up at the hospital that the greatest indignation was aroused among the reputable members of the profession, and an instance was eagerly awaited in which the offenders could be made an example of.

The inside history of the matter, which has not yet been published, is as follows: Mrs. Agnes Ingalls, who is rather pretty and only about 21 years of age, is the wife of a coachman or teamster in Lexington. The marriage certificate of the couple was said to have been dated in the early part of the past July.

Mrs. Ingalls has a brother and sister living in Jamaica Plain, and some weeks ago she came to Boston and went to reside with her relatives for a short time. When a prominent physician of Jamaica Plain was called upon one night by Mrs. Ingalls' sister, the case was reported to be one of a trivial complaint.

As the physician had a more important call than this to attend he prescribed a simple remedy. The next morning he called at the house, and suspecting malpractice, questioned the woman. She finally admitted it, mentioned the names of "Drs." Clark and Hill, and told of the payment. The physician immediately ordered her to the hospital.

Yesterday the woman's condition had very much improved. She was very comfortable, and it was given out by the physicians that she would be taken from the "dangerous list" in the night or morning.

Clark and Hill, however, had no knowledge of this favorable turn of affairs, and spent a very miserable night in the Charles-street jail.

Judge Adams continued the case until Thursday next, fixing the bail at $12,000 apiece, which was not obtained.

NAVAHOE AND EMERALD

Carry Off the Honors In the New York Yacht Club Races.

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 11.—Royal P. Carroll, owner of the sloop Navahoe, is wealthier in the possession of one silver cup, valued at $500. J. R. Maxwell, who owns the schooner Emerald, has a much larger cup under the same conditions, and valued at $1000. These two facts, coupled with the certainty that lovers of yachting, both in and out of society in Newport, have passed a most enjoyable day, tells the story of the long anticipated Goelet cup races.

It was a great day for Newport, and proved to be the same for the New York Yacht club. It was a little dubious at first. There was wind and then there was more, and then came more wind, which finally developed into a first-class sailing breeze. After this there was plenty of fun.

There was not a little disappointment that Mr. Forbes did not enter the Volunteer in the sloop class, and in this way give experts a chance to see her against the Navahoe. As it was, the Navahoe had a walkover, but delighted everybody by her fine showing. In the schooner class it was close work for the Emerald, as both the Ariel and Marguerite were at her heels at the finish.

Trying to Identify Him.

BOSTON, Aug. 11.—Several officers at police headquarters are of the opinion that Alfred G. Highton, arrested for forgery, is none other than Robert Bowman, a forger, notorious in New York and western cities. Highton's picture will be sent to New York and other large cities where Bowman is known.

Charged With Mail Robbery.

BOSTON, Aug. 11.—John S. Smith, 24 years old, a former postoffice clerk, gave himself up last night on the strength of a warrant charging him with the larceny of a United States mail box and contents saved from the Roxbury conflagration May 15 and a key to all mail boxes.

NOTICE TO INVENTORS.

THERE Was never a time in the history of our country when the demand for inventions and improvements in the arts and sciences generally was so great as now. The conveniences of man-kind in the factory and work-shop, the household, on the farm, and in official life, require continual accessions to the appurtances and implements of each in order to save labor, time and expense. The political change in the administration of government does not affect the progress of the American inventor, who, being on the alert, and ready to perceive the existing deficiences, does not permit the affairs of government to deter him from quickly conceiving the remedy to overcome existing discrepancies. Too great care cannot be exercised in choosing a competent and skilful attorney to prepare and prosecute an application for patent. Valuable interests have been lost and destroyed in innumerable instances by the employment of incompetent counsel, and especially is this advice applicable to those who adopt the "No patent, no pay" system. Inventors who intrust their business to this class of attorneys do so at imminent risk, as the breadth and strength of the patent is never considered in view of a quick endeavor to get an allowance and obtain the fee then due. THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY, John Wedderburn, General Manager, 618 F street, N. W., Washington, D. C., representing a large number of important daily and weekly papers, as well as general periodicals of the country, was instituted to protect its patrons from the unsafe methods heretofore employed in this line of business. The said Company is prepared to take charge of all patent business entrusted to it for reasonable fees, and prepares and prosecutes applications generally, including mechanical inventions, design patents, trade marks, labels, copyrights, interferences, infringements, validity reports, and gives especial attention to rejected cases. It is also prepared to enter into competition with any firm in securing foreign patents.

PATENTS

FOR INVENTIONS.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuable inventions because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With the view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, we have retained counsel expert in patent practice, and therefore are prepared to

Obtain Patents in the United States and all Foreign Countries, Conduct Interferences, Make Special Examinations, Prosecute Rejected Cases, Register Trade-Marks and Copyrights, Render Opinions as to Scope and Validity of Patents, Prosecute and Defend Infringement Suits, Etc., Etc.

If you have an invention on hand send a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be at once advised as to the best course to pursue. Models are seldom necessary. If others are infringing on your rights, or if you are charged with infringement by others, submit the matter to us for a reliable OPINION before acting on the matter.

FINAL ADJOURNMENT

May Be Brought About by the Latter Part of the Week.

BUSY SUNDAY AT THE CAPITAL.

Tariff Leaders Preparing For the Final Struggle.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—The hope is general about the senate that the present will be the last week of the session. This is based upon the belief that the tariff bill will be disposed of in some way early in the week, and with the tariff out of the way final adjournment can be brought about at almost any time.

None of the appropriation bills, with the exception of the sundry civil and the general deficiency, are yet to be acted upon to any extent by either house, and these two are in such an advanced stage in conference that a day of zealous work would probably suffice to put them both in shape to be sent to the president.

The Chinese treaty is the only other business that would hold Congress for a day, and this is also in condition to be taken up and voted on at once. When the senate adjourned on Friday, after giving the greater part of the day to the treaty, there was an understanding that the senate should go into executive session on Monday immediately after the reading of the journal, for the purpose of taking the vote upon the treaty. It was also agreed that this should be done without further debate.

The order of business after the treaty shall have been passed upon shall be Senator Chandler's resolution for the investigation of the Alabama election. After that, all is uncertain, but there is no prearranged program for the entire week.

Almost everything will depend upon the action of the house on the tariff bill, but whatever that action may be it can be counted upon as quite certain that the two remaining appropriation bills will receive final attention some time during the week. The conference report on the sundry civil bill has already been largely disposed of, and it is not probable that much more time will be spent upon it.

The conference committee on the general deficiency bill was in session 11 days Sunday, and it will be in shape for early presentation to both houses.

If, therefore, the house should decide to accept the senate amendments to the tariff bill, the senate could be prepared to suspend proceedings on almost any day after Tuesday. If the house should decide upon the opposite course there is no saying what might happen in the senate. The tariff is engrossing the attention of the house, and it has so far no program whatever for the week.

An Exciting Day.

Yesterday was anything but a day of rest for the tariff leaders. They were on the go from early morning until late last night. It was a day of conferences at the White House, at the private residences of the conferrees and at the hotels. Secretary Carlisle was with President Cleveland throughout the afternoon. The senate and house conferrees made no effort to get together, and they remain as wide apart as when their meeting broke up on Friday night.

The house conferrees were in consultation informally most of the day, although at no time were they all together at once. Chairman Wilson spent the day with Representative Breckinridge of Arkansas at the Normandie hotel, and was there called upon by the other conferrees. Mr. Wilson did not see the president through the day.

The meeting of the house men brought about a thorough understanding among them as to the line of action to be taken at the caucus today, and at the subsequent proceedings of the senate and house.

They reviewed the situation from every possible standpoint and prepared themselves for all emergencies. As one of them said, it was like going over the field of battle and learning the topography of the ground on the night before the great fight. At the outset the house conferrees satisfied themselves of the parliamentary situation of the bill. They had done this with the greatest care toward securing an accurate and authoritative decision.

Seeking Advice.

Speaker Crisp has been asked to examine with care the president's bearing on the case, and it was understood that he had in turn consulted with Secretary Carlisle, who, as ex-speaker of the house of representatives, is regarded as one of the best authorities on parliamentary procedure. From the examinations which had been made, the conferrees were fully satisfied that the house of representatives had the right to pass the senate bill now or at any time.

This determination went much further than has heretofore been understood. It was that the house, having the actual physical possession of the tariff bill, could pass it with the senate amendments before the Hill resolution passed. That is, so confident were the house conferrees of their right to pass the bill at any time, that they regarded their rights as entirely unaffected by anything the senate could do with the Hill resolution or with any other resolution.

They recognized that there were some precedents against this position, but they regarded the overwhelming force of authority with them, and they therefore accepted it as settled that the house had supreme authority over the bill without reference to what the senate might do today or thereafter.

This conclusion was of the utmost importance in bearing on the action of the caucus today. It assured them in the first place that there was no need of precipitate action toward accepting the senate bill before Mr. Hill's resolution had passed. The resolution could be taken up in the senate at 12 o'clock, and it had been feared at first that the house caucus would be compelled to take hasty action in accepting the senate bill in order to prevent the house from losing its opportunity to pass the senate bill by the adoption of the Hill resolution.

Deliberation the Order of the Day.

It was agreed, however, that no such haste was necessary. On the contrary, it was felt by the house, in having possession of the bill and a parliamentary right to pass it at any time, had everything to gain and nothing to lose by deliberate action. Under the circumstances it was thought advisable to inform the house fully as to the situation and to explain that precipitation in accepting the senate bill would gain nothing.

While deliberate action in waiting to see what the senate would do might accomplish much good, it was pointed out in this connection that the house need be in no fear of the Hill resolution being rushed through.

Mr. Wilson and his associates have some strong friends in the senate, notably Senators Vilas, Gray, Lindsay and others, who could, if the occasion required, insist on a complete debate on the Hill resolution, which might last from day to day. This the house conferrees regarded as assuring them a breathing spell and as making it plain that the house need not rush to its conclusion.

Entertaining the views, the house conferrees did not believe that it was necessary or prudent for the house caucus today to then and there pass a resolution to at once accept the senate bill. They realize that the situation is so critical that the question of accepting the senate bill might come before the caucus, and develop such overwhelming and resistless strength it would be useless to oppose.

Gravity of the Situation Realized.

They were prepared for this emergency and were ready to accept it if it came. They would not, however, counsel it themselves, and if it came it would have to be the outgrowth of the spontaneous sentiment in the caucus. It was felt, however, that a dispassionate statement of the case, showing that the house would lose none of its rights to pass the senate bill by deferring action for a day or so, would bring about a conservative result in the caucus.

Exactly what this action will be was not definitely outlined, although the house conferrees thought that it would, perhaps, be best for the caucus to adjourn and wait to see what the senate did. Then, if need be, another caucus could be held and a more intelligent action taken after the senate acted. In the meantime, the house would lose nothing.

If the Hill resolution was defeated—and the house conferrees think there is at least a chance of its defeat—then the conference between the senate and house could be resumed with every prospect, in the judgment of the house conferrees, that a speedy agreement and report could be reached. If, on the other hand, it was passed, then the second caucus could accept the senate bill or take such other action as it desired.

In any event, the house conferrees feel there would be nothing lost by waiting for the senate to show what it intended to do. As yet, they say, the Hill resolution and similar moves in the senate are only menaces, and it is well enough to wait to see if they become accomplished facts.

Senators Inactive.

Meantime the senate is quiescent and is disposed to remain in a state of inactivity until the house shall have had an opportunity to explain itself upon the situation. It is believed that if the house should agree to the senate amendments, the senate would acquiesce in this action, and waive the technical objections which might be raised over the possession of the bill.

It is understood that even Senator Hill, notwithstanding his opposition to the bill, would be disposed to accept the favorable action of the house as final, and to permit the bill to go to the president without raising any parliamentary questions concerning it. The Hill resolution has had its day in court, has gone to the calendar and could not be taken up except upon a vote of the senate.

It is also suggested that without the actual possession of the bill a motion for indefinite postponement would be out of order, and that the only process by which the senate could secure possession would be through a motion to reconsider its action granting a conference, and then to ask the house to return the bill.

There would be two difficulties in the way of the execution of this plan. Reconsideration could not, in view of the lapse of time since the granting of the conference, be held except by unanimous consent, and even with this received and the request made upon the house, the return of the bill would depend upon the courtesy of that body. It would, therefore, seem that the senate can do nothing with reference to the tariff at the present stage.

Anarchists' Trial Ended.

PARIS, Aug. 13.—The trial of the 30 anarchists before the assize court ended yesterday in the acquittal of all but three of the accused. The verdict was that the charge against the prisoners of belonging to a criminal association was not proved. Ortiz, Chericotte and Bertani were found guilty of robbery and of having been in illegal possession of weapons, and were sentenced, respectively, to 15 years, eight years and six months at hard labor. The end of the trial was marked by no incident.

Dived to Death.

PROVIDENCE, Aug. 13.—James W. Gorman, manager of a Wild West show, that is now playing at Crescent park, was in bathing, and while diving from the wharf, struck his head against a spile that was just beneath the water. He lived but a few minutes. Gorman was 40 years old, and was well known in theatrical circles.

Nineteen Passengers Hurt.

LONDON, Aug. 13.—At the St. Pancras station in this city, a Scotch express train, instead of slowing up, dashed ahead and overshot the buffer stops at the end of the rails. The forward portion of the train was wrecked and 19 passengers were injured. The accident was due to the failure of the brakes to work.

Is Probably Insane.

BROOKLYN, Aug. 13.—Thomas Holt, janitor of the Church of the Atonement, shot his wife three times last night at their home in Brooklyn, and then cut her throat with a razor. She died soon afterward. No reason for the deed is known beyond the supposition that Holt is insane.

STRONGLY GUARDED.

Japanese Warships Could Not Capture the Port of Wei-Hai-Wei.

PORT ARTHUR WAS THEN ATTACKED

Fifty Shots Exchanged Without Material Damage.

LONDON, Aug. 13.—The Times publishes a dispatch from Tien-Tsin confirming the story of an attack by a Japanese fleet upon the Chinese port of Wei-Hai-Wei and its repulse.

The Times says that 21 Japanese warships and transports made an attempt to capture Wei-Hai-Wei, but found that the fortifications guarding the port were too strong to allow of an entrance being forced. The warships attempted to run the forts, but were driven back by a heavy fire from the large Armstrong guns that are there mounted on disappearing carriages.

Finding itself compelled to draw off out of range of the guns, the fleet went about and headed for Port Arthur on the other side of the bay, with the evident intention of making an attack there. When the fleet arrived at Port Arthur, that place was found to be also prepared to resist an attack. The warships fired a few shots at the forts and were promptly answered, and then all the fleet departed.

Japanese Attack Repulsed.

The Japanese squadron that attacked Wei-Hai-Wei Friday consisted of 26 vessels. It is not definitely known how many of the fleet were men-of-war. The warships drew up in line of battle off the port, and opened fire early Friday morning. There were no Chinese warships in the vicinity, and the engagement was entirely between the Japanese men-of-war and the forts. The whereabout of the Chinese fleet was unknown. The forts, however, were able, without much difficulty, to repulse the attack.

About 50 shots were exchanged, but no material damage was done on either side. The soldiers manning the guns of the fortifications showed themselves to be lamentably deficient in markmanship. Most all of their shots were ill-directed, the shells either falling short of the vessels aimed at or going wide of their marks.

When the fleet withdrew it proceeded to Port Arthur, which place it attacked Friday evening. Little, if any, damage is reported to have been done at this place. The operations are regarded as having been not attempts to capture either Wei-Hai-Wei or Port Arthur, but simply ruses on the part of the Japanese commander to ascertain the exact position and strength of the Chinese guns at the two places.

On Thursday last two small Chinese gunboats were sighted going at full speed in the direction of Tien-Tsin.

The Relay Ended.

DENVER, Aug. 13.—The relay rider reached this city at 10:37 last night. The time consumed in carrying the message from Washington to this city, a distance of 2037 miles, was 6 days, 10 hours and 37 minutes, a gain of 37 hours and 23 minutes over the scheduled time, breaking all records. The message was delivered to Governor Waite from President Cleveland and General McCook from General Coxey. Both recipients immediately telegraphed, acknowledging receipt of the messages, and Governor Waite made a speech. The streets were thronged with people.

Vermont Soldiers In Camp.

BRATTLEBORO, Vt., Aug. 13.—The annual six days' muster of the Vermont National Guard opened here today on the grounds occupied by Vermont soldiers during the war. Brigadier General Esty is in command. The National Guard is composed of 12 companies, divided into three battalions. During the week there will be reunions in the camp of veterans of the war, and Governor Fuller will give a reception.

Gratifying Results.

OLD ORCHARD, Me., Aug. 13.—The Christian Alliance convention held its final meetings yesterday. The audience showed itself in touch with the doctrines expounded by pledging $40,000 in aid of foreign missions during the coming year. Several candidates who had been healed and anointed during the convention received baptism in the waves of the Atlantic.

Wreck and Fire.

HALIFAX, Aug. 13.—Steamer Newfield arrived from Sable Island yesterday, bringing Captain Cole, wife and three children and 14 men of the bark Nicosia, which went ashore on the island July 30, and became a total wreck. After striking, the vessel caught fire and was consumed. The crew all escaped.

To Meet at New Bedford.

LOWELL, Mass., Aug. 13.—The New England district of the National Loom Fixers' union held its semi-annual meeting here yesterday. The session was devoted to routine business. The date and place of the annual convention will be Feb. 11, at New Bedford, Mass.

Peru's War.

VALPARAISO, Aug. 13. — The government of Peru, it is reported, is shooting the rebel prisoners. Seminario declares that the country will be in possession of the revolutionists before September. This is believed to be exaggerated, though the rebels are gaining ground.

Parents Wanted.

BOSTON, Aug. 13.—An officer took from the water at the West Boston bridge yesterday the dead body of a male infant. There was no clothing about the child, and consequently no clew which could lead to the identity of the child's parent or parents.

An Excellent Remedy for Diarrhoea.

RANDOLPH, MASS., March 13, 1894—I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and found it excellent for diarrhoea. I have recommended it to friends and know of two cases of diarrhoea having been cured with one small bottle. JOSEPH H. FOSTER.

SLOCUM'S OZONIZED Norwegian COD LIVER OIL WITH GUAIACOL

What makes consumption? This question is less interesting to sufferers than one other: What

CURES CONSUMPTION?

Sometimes there is no cure at all, but that is not the case as often as folks suppose. Slocum's Ozonized Norwegian Cod Liver Oil, with Guaiacol, allays inflammation, stops that weakening cough, and promotes the formation of solid, healthy flesh on emaciated bodies. And it is pleasant to take. It contains healing properties of great value, scientifically combined. That answers the second question.

Water Supply.

The State Board of Health, acting under authority given by the legislature, is now investigating the matter of a metropolitan water supply for Boston and the region ten miles around,—of course, including Quincy. The report of the board will not be made until the next legislature comes in. In a general way, however, it is understood that the board intends to utilize the present supply of cities within the district so far as possible; supplementing this with an additional supply drawn from the Nashua river at Clinton. When these supplies are exhausted, it is proposed to go still farther west and bring a supply from the Ware river. If the next legislature should act favorably on the report of the State board, it would take till 1900 to get such a great system in use. Without waiting for the State board, Cambridge is going to spend more than $1,000,000 in extending her local supply.

The Pilgrim Launched.

The steam yacht Pilgrim was successfully launched this morning at Quincy Point in the presence of a large crowd of interested spectators. Steam was made before the launching took place and at 9.30 the last block was knocked out and she slid gracefully from the ways into her native element amid the cheers of the crowd on the shore and the screaming of the whistle on the yacht. On board the yacht were a few passengers who were equally enthusiastic as the crowd on the shore. After the steamer had been launched she was towed to Sheppard's wharf where she will receive her finishing touches preparatory to making her trial trip.

Narrow Escape.

John McKay of Liberty street had a narrow escape Saturday night from a serious accident. He came out from Boston on the late train, somewhat the worse for liquor, and attempted to get off at South Quincy after the train had started. In doing so he fell and rolled down between the platform and the moving train. Officer Nicol who witnessed the accident signaled the train to stop and John was rescued from his perilous position.

—Boys will be put on the cable cars in New York by a company to sell papers and other periodicals. In addition to supplying cable and horse car passengers with newspapers the concern will do their shopping for them. Any of its boys will take orders for goods and have them ready for the passenger when she or he boards the car again or will have them sent to the purchaser's house. For doing this the concern will get its pay in commissions on the things ordered. It will do business on the C. O. D. plan. A trip down town on a cable car and a trip back an hour later, will then enable one to read the news of the day, glance through the latest novel and do a lot of shopping, by proxy. It is a great time for great labor-saving inventions.

—Work is now progressing on the grounds nearest the water occupied by the Putnam Nail Co., Neponset, the old fence having been removed and a new stone wall built. When this is capped with an iron fence as contemplated, the whole appearance of the place will be greatly improved.

—The Somerville Journal says: "The People's party has just received a severe blow. The officers of the American railway union has just issued an address asking all the members of the organization to vote the People's party ticket."

OLD COLONY LEAGUE

The Game at North Weymouth Rather Mixed.

HOLBROOKS WIN AT WHITMAN.

The Institutes and Braintrees Take a Rest—Other Games.

But two games were played in the Old Colony league Saturday, one at North Weymouth between the Quincys and Randolphs and one at Whitman between the Whitmans and Holbrooks. As the game between the Quincys and Randolphs is a rather mixed up affair the official result will not be known until after a meeting of the league directors.

The standing up to date is:

Quincy, 9; Randolph, 0.

The Randolphs visited North Weymouth Saturday to play their fourth and last game of ball with the Quincys in the Old Colony League series. The game was very loosely played and full of disputes, and after playing eight innings the game ended in a despute, the score, Quincy, 13; Randolph, 11. The game finally was given to the Quincys 9 to 0. The features of the game was the terrific batting of Faircloth and the fine fielding, Harkins, O'Connell and J. Duffy.

The score by innings was:

Quincys,	3	2	1	3	1	0	0	3	—	13

ANOTHER STREET RAILWAY

From Mattapan in Boston to the Railway Station in East Milton.

An association has been formed, to be known as the Milton and Boston Street Railway company, with a capital of $50,000, for the purpose of constructing and operating a street railway from the East Milton station to Mattapan; its length will be about four miles.

The following named persons will act as directors until others shall be legally chosen by the corporation, viz:

John A. Duggan of Quincy.
A. A. Brackett of Milton.
John R. Lawrence of Milton.
Thomas H. McDonnell of Quincy.
D. J. Brown of Milton.
Walter P. Pinel of Quincy.
William H. Rice of Milton.

Among the subscribers of stock we find the names of the following gentlemen:

John A. Duggan, Atlantic.
J. B. L. Bartlett, Mattapan.
N. V. Titus, Atlantic.
Dudley Talbot, Dorchester.
Thomas H. McDonnell, Quincy.
E. H. Kitfield, Swampscott.
A. A. Brackett, East Milton.
H. E. Sheldon, East Milton.
Edwin S. Clark, Boston.
Josiah Babcock, Milton.
Leander M. Matthews, West Quincy.
George H. Bent, Milton.
Charles Mitchell, Milton.
Henry P. Rice, Milton.
Walter P. Pinel, Quincy.
William H. Rice, Milton.
John Swithin, Quincy.
W. F. Loud, West Quincy.
D. J. Brown, East Milton.
John R. Lawrence, Milton.

It will not be, probably, many months after this association completes the above railway to East Milton before the Quincy and Boston, or some other company, will connect East Milton with Quincy, by a street line. Then our citizens will be able to attend court at Dedham, by way of the street cars; as the street line from Dedham to Mattapan is already completed, and is receiving a large amount of travel. The citizens of Dedham can then come down to the Quincy beaches for a few cents; enjoy an ocean bath and a fish dinner; and go back at night to enjoy a sound sleep in the shire town of old Norfolk.

Good railroad ties are expected to last eight years.

Another surprise at the Duck's Nest, Wollaston, last week. Starrett has been doing some work at the pipe shoot with indifferent success as compared with Brainerd's and Field's magnificent scores of 20 straight, each. But Starreth's has had his innings and done out with flying colors with 23 straight. If the crowd had not cheered and rattled him he would have undoubtedly run the score up higher.

Chester Street.

Some three weeks ago, during a severe storm, a large willow tree that for years has beautified Chester street, Wollaston, was blown over, completely blocking up the thoroughfare. The limbs of the fallen tree extended upwards to a height of 20 feet.

Chester street, much to the surprise of the abuttors when they read this article, is a private way, although it has been laid out and travelled over for 20 years. The city, through carelessness, has never, as required by law, marked the street with the warning sign: "Not a public way, dangerous passing." To all intents and purposes so far as the public is concerned, this is an accepted street, as without the warning sign the city is liable for any damage occurring on it.

The commissioners has been repeatedly appealed to remove the tree, but as yet, has taken no action in the matter. In the meantime the city is liable to be mulcted in a heavy suit for damages, caused by a team running into it in the night, there being no lights on this street.

At the Beaches.

Notwithstanding the cool and comfortable weather yesterday there were immense crowds at the beaches. It was the largest crowd this season at Nantasket. The Atlantic house did the most business of any time for years.

Depot Cab Drivers.

Some time since, the managers of the N. Y., N. H. & H. R. R. gave the exclusive right to solicit passengers at the Quincy station to Messrs. Penniman & Son, and at the time created some comment.

It will be seen however by the following clipping taken from the Globe that Quincy is not the only place where this plan is carried out.

For some time past a rumor has been current along the line of the Old Colony railroad that the N. Y., N. H. & H. R. R. company, which controls the Old Colony, was preparing to get rid of all public barges, carriages and the like, except in the case of a lease or contract by the railroad corporation to the parties controlling the same.

The case of Quincy, where some such departure has recently been made, is cited as an instance, and the cab drivers and barge owners are protesting in consequence.

General Superintendent Allen of the N. Y. N. H. & H. R. R. said to a Globe reporter yesterday in reference to the matter: "There has been no change whatever in our policy of dealing with the owners or the drivers of public conveyances along any of our lines.

"In the case of Quincy I found myself compelled in the interests of the travelling public to get rid of a lot of drivers who made life a burden to all respectable people.

"I stood it as long as possible, and finally drove them off our property, at the same time leasing the privilege to the Pennimans, a respectable and reputable livery in all respects.

"That is practically the same arrangement that we have in Boston with the Armstrong transfer company, and also in Providence.

"I believe there are one or two other places on our line in Massachusetts where some such arrangement is likewise in force. It is not general, and is resorted to by us only when the public drivers or cabmen and bargemen get to fighting among themselves and become in reality a public nuisance.

"No money consideration enters into the lease, as the compensation to us is merely nominal, and agreed upon simply to bind the contract."

OLNEY'S TEAM WINS

In a Shoot That Did Not Abound in High Individual Scores.

Mr. Morse's cousin, Frank Copeland of Brockton, came out on Saturday afternoon to try his hand at the blue rock on the Wollaston trap club's grounds. He is a good shot and an old sportsman. He was high man, 21 being his score, and Morse was second with 19. Copeland broke 11 straight.

In the team shoot Olney's defeated Marsden's, 80 to 69.

After the regular shoot Elcock and Morse and Whitman and D. B. Lincoln had match shoots at straight-away birds. Their scores are appended.

The average this week was 10.8 against 15 3 at the previous shoot.

Quincy, Aug. 13.

Coming to Quincy.

Scribner & Smith's New York circus is coming to Quincy. The above circus is twice its former size and all new. They will have 250 people, 125 horses, 10 cages of animals, three open dens in parade, three golden cars, two bands of music and an extra strong ring performance. Mr. William O. Dale, for many years the principal bareback rider for Barnum, will be one of their features, and another feature will be a giant elephant, the largest in this country. The following is from the New York Clipper of March 7th:

"J. D. Harrison, a former Henderson newspaper man, but now connected with Scribner & Smith's New York Circus is in the city. After endeavoring for two years, Harrison has succeeded in obtaining possession for his firm, of the largest elephant in the world, Bazal. The beast was bought by Scribner & Smith's foreign agent from a Hindoo trader two years ago at Tassisudon, Bhotan, India, but the authorities there would not allow the animal to be removed. After almost endless red tape, Harrison succeeded in winning the Maharajah's favor and that dignitary ordered the authorities not to interfere with the elephant's removal, and the brute is now with this Big show.

WEYMOUTH.

The Gazette says: The thing nearest the hearts of Weymouth people just now is the proposed electric railroad from Shaw's Corner to Braintree depot.

Citizens are subscribing liberally and all are taking an interest in the road. It will be built largely by popular subscriptions of the people. The majority of the subscribers are taking from one to three shares.

The road will be an assured success if subscriptions continue to come in for a few days longer at the rate that they have during the past week.

It will connect with the Quincy & Boston system at Shaw's Corner and eventually with the line from South Weymouth to East Weymouth. The future growth and good of the village demands additional transportation facilities, and the Gazette gives a long list of names, subscribers to the stock.

The Fitchburg Change Their Station.

The Union station in Boston is now the biggest in the world. The Fitchburg people began to move to the Union station at 12 o'clock Saturday night; and henceforth all trains on that road will leave and depart from the Union. The station now has 578 trains each day, and no railroad station in the world compares with it.

GYMKHANA GAMES.

Contests Requiring Skill on the Hingham Polo Club Grounds.

It was a very large and select gathering that watched the annual Gymkhana games of the Hingham Polo club, Saturday afternoon at Hingham and among them were a number of Quincy's 400. There were ten events in all and were of special interest to Quincy people as ex-Councilman C. M. Bryant, who is a member of the club participated in several of them, although he was not fortunate enough to carry off any of the prizes.

The first event was a half mile race on the flat for polo ponies only. There were six entries. Mr. Bryant got the lead at the start but was overhauled by H. Braman, who finished 1 minute 3-4 seconds.

The quarter mile run on the flat was won by Mr. Fay in 29 1-2 seconds.

Nine started in the third event which was a 100-yard dash, which was also won by Mr. Fay in 7 1-2 seconds.

The other events took place on the polo field the first of which was a polo ball and bucket race, which consisted of taking four balls, one at a time from a given point and placing them in a bucket. There were five starters and the event was won by H. Braham.

The fifth event was a bending race for polo ponies. Each competitor raced up and down a line of posts leaving a post alternately on the right and left. Knocking down a post disqualified. This race was run off in heats. In the first heat Mr. Williams won and in the second Mr. Bryant, in the final struggle between Mr. Bryant and Mr. Williams, both broke, the wands and the whole race was run over again and was finally won by Mr. Forbes.

The sixth event, a cigar and umbrella race was very amusing. The ponies were brought to the starting point with the bridle only on, saddle on the ground. At the signal each competitor, without assistance puts on his saddle, rides over the course to starting point, then puts saddle on the ground, lights a cigar, resaddles pony, opens an umbrella, mounts and rides over the course a second time, with umbrella open and cigar lighted. This was won by A. C. Aldrich.

The seventh event was to drive a polo ball between two goal posts from a line 200 feet away. This was won by H. Braman.

The next event was an egg and spoon race. Each competitor to ride over the course with a wooden spoon containing an egg. The spoon to be held in one hand.

This race was won by Mr. Forbes with Mr. Bryant second.

The ninth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The last event was the thread and needle race, the conditions of which were: Starters to come provided with a shirt minus the button at the neck, which they must hang on a line at the far end of the field. At the post they will be given a needle, thread, and a button. At the signal they are to get the shirt and proceed each to a lady previously selected by himself, stationed at one side of the field, and after dismounting, hand her the needle which she shall thread, and sew the button to the neck of the shirt. The rider shall then put on the shirt, button the neck, and remount and ride over the course, and the first past the judges, with shirt buttoned at the neck, to win. This race was won by Mr. Williams.

The prizes were: Each race a sweepstake of $1.00; each to go to the winner, with a pewter added.

Says S. C. Weeks of Melrose, Mass.: "I had been troubled with chronic diarrhoea for over a year when I received a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which I used and it gave me great relief. I then procured a fifty-cent bottle and took about two-thirds of it, and was cured. I have taken some twice since when I had a looseness come on and it stopped it at once. I hope it will help others as it helped me. I feel very thankful to Mr. Stearns, the druggist, for telling me of this remedy and shall be glad to have this letter published."

UNEMPLOYED COMMISSION.

The Last Hearing in Boston Represented by Several Granite Cutters.

The Unemployed Commission gave the last hearing to be held in Boston to members of unclassified trades at City Hall Friday evening.

James McAdams, a granite cutter from Quincy, accounted for the present lack of employment in his trade to the business depression. He was sure that when business revived the old complement of men in each shop would regain their employment. His figures were that in 1892 there were 1500 men employed at the granite works in Quincy. This number being exclusive of the apprentices.

"At the present time there are but 900 or 1000 journeymen in Quincy, while the apprentices are very much more numerous that in previous years." He thought the employers, pressed by the hard times, were displacing regular workmen and filling their places with the apprentices, who receive 87 cents a day for the first year, $1.25 or $1.50 for the second, and $1.50 or $1.75 the last year of their apprenticeship.

William Taylor, also a granite cutter from Quincy spoke in the same strain, laying especial stress upon the fact that skilled granite cutters were being ousted by apprentices of foreign countries, who manage to subsist on starvation wages.

Edward F. McDougal, a granite cutter of Boston, quoted figures. "In Boston," he said, "there are about 250 granite cutters, about 20 per cent. of whom are now out of employment. In 1893 there were but 10 per cent. at this season of the year who had no steady work. Sometimes there are 75 per cent. and even 80 per cent. of all the granite cutters in the city seeking employment."

He blamed the awarding of contracts to parties outside of Boston by the city of Boston and by private contractors as one of the main causes for the lack of work. He could state no reason why the work should be sent out of the city. He was aware that claims had been made that the work was done cheaper outside, but he failed to see how such could be the case when freight charges, etc., were added to the actual cost of the granite cutting. He also had a word to say against convict labor.

This week the Commissioners will visit Southern Massachusetts, taking in Brockton and Fall River.

—It doesn't speak well for the common sense of the great American public that when a man or woman becomes notorious it is generally profitable for him or her to go upon the stage. For instance, it is announced now that Debs is going to lecture and Madeline Pollard is going to act.

—County Treasurer Hayden has negotiated a loan for the county of Middlesex of $100,000 for ten years at three and one-half per cent. per annum and a premium of one-sixteenth per cent.

A Blind Love.

Love knows not knave from honest man.
Blindly he bends his bow.
The arrows speed, and hearts—they bleed,
Yet smile 'neath wounds and woe.
They smile to see the red drops flow
And kiss the hand that hurt them so.

FRANK L. STANTON.

They say, "Love, being blind,
Heedeth no flying dove,"
And stroke his curls and call him kind—
This cruel fellow, Love!
They call him kind and hold him sweet
And lowly lean to kiss his feet.

But one there is shall not
Wear this Love's pain or pearl,
Nor shall he in a garden spot
Ensnare me with a curl.
Yet would I, if he caught me so,
Kiss his mad curls and—let him go?
—Frank L. Stanton.

Fortune Favors the Small Town.

Within five years, through the operation of the interstate commerce law, the small town has been placed upon an equality with the larger city in the matter of freight rates. Previously prohibitory rates ruled wherever there was but one railroad. Cost of transportation was as unstable as the wind. Cut rate followed pool rate, one extreme the other, and each succeeding 1st of January terminated all. The law now has given permanency to the conditions which regulate the carrying tariff. Rates are based upon distance and not upon the elements of competition. This fact redounds to the advantage of the small town, for freights being equal the manufacturer naturally seeks the location where his employees can obtain lowest living and cheapest rents or perchance by the exercise of thrift and energy may gain independence and secure homes. Many places which were virtually at a standstill before the enactment by congress of the interstate law have since doubled in population and become actual manufacturing centers. A village possesses advantages for the laborer and consequent advantage for the employer which cannot exist in populous and area covering cities.

VISITED THE CHICAGO

Prince of Wales Expresses Admiration For Our Cruiser.

YANKEE TARS FEEL OFFENDED

At the Lack of Enthusiasm Over Their Victory

LONDON, Aug. 13.—During the fetes in London some time ago in honor of the American cruiser Chicago, which was then lying at Gravesend, the Prince of Wales expressed to Admiral Erben and Captain Mahan a desire to visit the vessel the next time she was at Cowes. The prince's engagement to visit the Chicago Saturday was fixed at a recent dinner given on board the royal yacht Osborne.

Accordingly the prince's pinnace arrived alongside the Chicago Saturday evening. As he stepped aboard the cruiser a salute of 21 guns was fired, the British ensign was hoisted at the foretruck and the yards were manned by the crew. Admiral Erben, Captain Mahan, Lieutenant Commander Potter and Lieutenant Clover greeted the royal party as they came aboard the ship.

The Prince of Wales wore the uniform of a British admiral and the Duke of York that of a post captain, while the members of the prince's suite were attired in the uniforms of their respective ranks. A guard of marines was drawn up on the port side of the quarter deck, and they were carefully inspected by the prince. The sun was shining brightly, and the brilliant and snow-white decks made

A Most Picturesque Scene.

At the request of the prince all the officers of the Chicago were presented to him in turn. The royal party was then escorted to all the different parts of the ship, except the sick bay. This latter part of the ship the prince especially desired to see, but was unable to do so, owing to the accident that had occurred to Seaman Hill, who had fallen from aloft just as the prince was boarding the vessel. The prince remarked that he understood that the American medical department was the best equipped of any in the world.

The members of the royal party repeatedly expressed their admiration of the splendid appearance and cleanliness of the vessel. On quitting the Chicago the Prince of Wales expressed the pleasure that his visit had afforded him.

The officers and crew of the Chicago are elated with the success of their boat's crew in Friday's regatta, as they beat several heretofore unbeaten crews. Some feeling is expressed at the coldness displayed by the spectators ashore. The men declare that had a British boat won a victory in American waters, her crew would have been given a far better reception than was given to them here.

Emperor Entertains Yankees.

The officers of the Chicago were guests at a 5 o'clock tea and reception given by Emperor William on board the Hohenzollern. The imperial yacht was decorated with flowers and plants that Queen Victoria had sent from the conservatory at Osborne House.

Captain Mahan viewed with the liveliest interest the pictures of the chief Prussian naval battles from the time of the great elector to the engagement at the Cameroons, which are hung in the cabin of the emperor.

George Gould was also a guest at the reception. Emperor William visited Mr. Gould on board the Vigilant yesterday. The crew of the Chicago half expected that the emperor would visit the vessel, and especially as at the queen's dinner party on Wednesday he had a long talk with Captain Mahan. His not going aboard of the vessel was therefore the cause of some disappointment.

PATENTS

NOTICE TO INVENTORS.

THERE Was never a time in the history of our country when the demand for inventions and improvements in the arts and sciences generally was so great as now. The conveniences of man-kind in the factory and work-shop, the household, on the farm, and in official life, require continual accessions to the appurtances and implements of each in order to save labor, time and expense. The political change in the administration of government does not affect the progress of the American inventor, who, being on the alert, and ready to perceive the existing deficiences, does not permit the affairs of government to deter him from quickly conceiving the remedy to overcome existing discrepancies. Too great care cannot be exercised in choosing a competent and skilful attorney to prepare and prosecute an application for patent. Valuable interests have been lost and destroyed in innumerable instances by the employment of incompetent counsel, and especially is this advice applicable to those who adopt the "No patent, no pay" system. Inventors who intrust their business to this class of attorneys do so at imminent risk, as the breadth and strength of the patent is never considered in view of a quick endeavor to get an allowance and obtain the fee then due. THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY, John Wedderburn, General Manager, 618 F street, N. W., Washington, D. C., representing a large number of important daily and weekly papers, as well as general periodicals of the country, was instituted to protect its patrons from the unsafe methods heretofore employed in this line of business. The said Company is prepared to take charge of all patent business entrusted to it for reasonable fees, and prepares and prosecutes applications generally, including mechanical inventions, design patents, trade marks, labels, copyrights, interferences, infringements, validity reports, and gives especial attention to rejected cases. It is also prepared to enter into competition with any firm in securing foreign patents.

PATENTS

FOR INVENTIONS.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuable inventions because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With the view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys, and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, we have retained counsel expert in patent practice, and therefore are prepared to

Obtain Patents in the United States and all Foreign Countries, Conduct Interferences, Make Special Examinations, Prosecute Rejected Cases, Register Trade-Marks and Copyrights, Render Opinions as to Scope and Validity of Patents, Prosecute and Defend Infringement Suits, Etc., Etc.

If you have an invention on hand send a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be at once advised as to the best course to pursue. Models are seldom necessary. If others are infringing on your rights, or if you are charged with infringement by others, submit the matter to us for a reliable OPINION before acting on the matter.

HERE Was never a time in the history of our country when the demand for inions and improvements in the arts and nces generally was so great as now. The niences of man-kind in the factory and k-shop, the household, on the farm, and ncial life, require continual accessions to appurtances and implements of each in r to save labor, time and expense. The ral change in the administration of rnment does not affect the progress of American inventor, who, being on the , and ready to perceive the existing deices, does not permit the affairs of govnment to deter him from quickly conceiv the remedy to overcome existing disancies. FORCED TO RECEDE.

House Accepted the Ultimatum of "Senate Bill or Nothing."

SOME SEPARATE BILLS PASSED.

Gorman Says They Will Be Soon Pigeon-Holed.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—The long struggle over the tariff bill came to a close at 6 o'clock last evening, when the house, by a vote of 182 to 105, decided to discharge the house conferrees from further consideration of the bill, recede from its opposition to the 634 senate amendments and agree to the same.

It was a complete victory for the senate. The result grew directly out of the sensational course of events at the senate end of the Capitol precipitated by Senator Hill on Friday. Up to that time, the house conferrees had stood firm against the senate amendments, especially on coal, iron ore and sugar, and the temper and voice of the house were for war to the end. But the indications that the Democrats of the senate might be unable to longer hold a majority of the votes in line for even the senate bill, and that the bill was in terrible jeopardy, forced the house Democrats to immediate action.

The Democratic conferrees of the house at last admitted that they were beaten and that another vote could not be risked in the senate; that it must be either the senate bill or no bill.

The whole question was precipitated at the caucus held just before the house convened yesterday, at which, after a thorough review of the situation and speeches in favor of receding by Speaker Crisp, Chairman Wilson and others, it was decided to take the senate bill and immediately afterwards pass separate bills placing coal, iron ore, sugar and barbed wire on the free list.

The program arranged in the caucus was carried out to the letter in the house under an ironclad special order. The scenes in the chamber throughout the day and even in the night were exciting and at times sensational. The galleries were packed and the members applauded their respective leaders to the echo.

The Caucus Proceedings.

Chairman Wilson's speech in the caucus was simply explanatory, telling of the difficulties and embarrassments which the house conferrees encountered from the outset. He informed the house that he and his associates had finally become convinced that it was the senate bill or nothing. Therefore, he and his associates, with Speaker Crisp and other leaders, had reluctantly accepted the situation.

There was a spirited discussion on the question of immediately bringing forward a proposition as soon as the tariff bill was disposed of to pass bills to put sugar, coal and iron ore on the free list. The sentiment of those present was overwhelmingly in favor of such a course and it was almost immediately adopted.

Efforts were made by several members in the caucus to ascertain the attitude of President Cleveland, and whether he would sign the measure, but no one present, not even Chairman Wilson, was authorized to say what course the president would take in the matter. His friends in the house, however, are confident that he will sign the bill.

One of the conditions that induced him to consent to the senate bill was that the house should immediately pass a bill for free coal and iron ore. This is what he has been contending for from the beginning. He did not approve of the free sugar proposition. He wanted the revenue that would be derived from this article.

Republicans Seem Pleased.

The Republicans seem pleased that the contention is ended. They would have preferred much to defeat all tariff legislation. They will antagonize all efforts to pass the bill and the other tentative measures. They are powerless, however, and will have to submit to the inevitable.

Although the action of the house caucus was anticipated in the senate, its announcement created much comment on both sides of the chamber. Gorman's face was wreathed with smiles, and he was congratulated by several of his Democratic colleagues and also by many Republican senators.

When informed that the caucus had decided to pass the bill putting coal and iron ore on the free list, he remarked that he and his associates will take care that they were properly pigeon-holed when they reached the senate.

The Concurrent Vote.

The vote in detail on the report of the committee on rules to concur in the senate amendments to the tariff bill was as follows:

SMUGGLING OF CHINESE.

An Inquiry Into It at Boston May Lead to Changes In Agents' Office.

BOSTON, Aug. 14.—An investigation, or inquiry, by Special Employe T. A. Byrne of the United States treasury department is being conducted at the federal building, which will undoubtedly result in a sensation and probably a shakeup in the special agents' office in this city.

The investigation consists of an examination of the special agent in charge, Converse J. Smith, Chinese Inspector Miller, Special Customs Inspector O'Neil, and Special Employes Heintz and Bunn, as to the method they have pursued in the examination of Chinese papers at this port since their appointment.

An effort has been made to keep the investigation a profound secret, but the facts leaked out yesterday through an authoritative source.

Although no charges have been brought against the officials which will reflect upon their character, yet certain things have developed during the past few days that will make the investigation one of interest.

The recent Chinese smuggling expose which was brought about by Chinese Inspector Scharfe of New York hinted that the Chinese business at this port was not being conducted in a proper manner, and that certain officials were in sympathy with the Chinese.

It is believed that the expedition will be found at Walden island.

THE CHINESE TREATY

Ratified After Having Been Hung Up Since March 19.

THE FEATURES OF THE DOCUMENT

Which Will Act as a Strong Barrier to Mongolians.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—The Chinese treaty has been ratified by the senate in executive session. The vote by which the treaty was ratified was 47 to 20, the western senators generally voting for the treaty. Senators Lodge and Hoar, Massachusetts also voted against ratification.

The following is the text of the principal features of the Chinese convention agreed upon March 17, and sent to the senate as a confidential document March 19:

The high contracting powers agree that for a period of 10 years, beginning with the date of the exchange of notifications of this convention, the coming, except under conditions hereafter specified, of Chinese laborers to the United States should be absolutely prohibited.

This shall not apply to the return to the United States of any registered Chinese laborer who has a lawful wife, child or parent in the United States or property therein of the value of $1000 or debts of like amount due him and pending settlement. Nevertheless, every such Chinese laborer shall, before leaving the United States, deposit as a condition of his return with the collector of customs of the district from which he departs, a of his family or property or debts.

Such right of return to the United States shall be exercised within one year from date of leaving the United States, but such right of return to the United States may be extended for an additional period not exceeding one year, in cases where, by reason of sickness or other cause of disability beyond his control, such Chinese laborer shall be rendered unable sooner to return.

The provisions of the convention shall not affect the rights at present enjoyed by Chinese subjects, being officials, teachers, students, merchants, or travelers for curiosity or pleasure, but not laborers, coming to the United States and residing therein. To entitle such Chinese subjects, as are above described, to admission into the United States, they may produce a certificate from their government or the government where they last resided, by the diplomatic or consular representatives of the United States in the country or port whence they depart.

It is also agreed that Chinese laborers shall continue the privilege of transit across the territory of the United States in the course of their journey

To and From Other Countries.

It is understood and agreed that Chinese laborers or Chinese of any other class either permanent or temporarily residing in the United States shall have for the protection of their persons and property all rights that are given by the laws of the United States to citizens of the most favored nations, excepting the right to become naturalized citizens.

The government of the United States having, by act of congress (approved May 5, 1892, as amended by act approved Nov. 3, 1893), required all Chinese laborers lawfully within the limits of the United States before the passage of the first-named act to register as in said act provided with a view of affording them better protection, the Chinese government will not object to the enforcement of such act, and reciprocally the government of the United States recognizes the right of the government of China to enact and enforce similar laws or regulations for the registration, free of charge, of all laborers, skilled or unskilled (not merchants as defined by said acts of congress), citizens of the United States in China, whether residing within or without the treaty ports.

This convention shall remain in force for a period of 10 years, beginning from the date of the exchange of ratifications; and if six months before the expiration of the said period of 10 years neither government shall have formally given notice of its final termination to the other, it shall remain in full force for another like period of 10 years.

Shock of Paralysis.

We regret to learn that one of our successful and enterprising business men, Mr. David B. Stetson, while sitting in the parlor conversing with his family on Sunday evening, was stricken with paralysis, and has since laid in a helpless condition. He has lost all use of the left side of his body; and although apparently conscious he is unable to speak, or make his wants known. He is surrounded by the kind and willing hands of his affectionate daughters and son, who do everything they can to make him comfortable. His condition is such that he cannot probably remain with them long.

He has for many years carried on the boot and shoe business at his store on Washington street with great success, and his numerous customers will be sorry to learn of his sudden and untimely shock.

John E. Drake & Co.

There were filed at Dedham yesterday the schedules of John E. Drake and Stedman Williams, both of Quincy, doing business as John E. Drake & Co., manufacturers of boots and shoes. Liabilities amount to $42,200. Individual liabilities of John E. Drake, $5,700, and his indirect liabilities, $3,283. Individual liabilities of Stedman Williams amount to $7,525. Assets of firm: Real estate and buildings in Quincy, mortgaged to Mr. John O. Holden for $2,600; also machinery, tools, stock, etc., and bills receivable. Mr. Williams has no assets. John E. Drake's assets are real estate at Quincy, mortgaged for $36,300; horses and carriages, also two mortgages aggregating $1,800.

JOHN QUINCY ADAMS.

Death Removes One of Quincy's Illustrious Citizens.

John Quincy Adams is dead. Such was the announcement that came like a shock to the citizens of Quincy this morning, for hardly was there a man better known or more highly respected than he.

The news of Mr. Adams' death was a great surprise, for few knew that he was ill. When he was in Europe he contracted malaria and ever since his return, a few months ago, he has not been enjoying the best of health and has been gradually failing, although nothing serious was anticipated.

About two weeks ago he had a slight shock of apoplexy, the result of weakness, but soon rallied and was apparently on the road to recovery. This morning about four o'clock he sustained another shock, but did not rally and shortly after five o'clock he passed away.

John Quincy Adams was a son of Charles Francis Adams, and was born in Boston, September 22, 1833, and graduated from Harvard college in 1853.

He spent several years abroad with his father, who was United States Minister to London. Returning he settled in Quincy and has resided here ever since that time, occasionally however making a European trip.

In public life Mr. Adams was well known. In 1867, 1868 and 1869 he was the Democratic candidate for Governor but was defeated. He was elected to represent this district in the Massachusetts Legislature in 1870 and 1871, and in 1872 was a candidate for the Vice Presidency on the ticket with Charles O'Conor. In 1873 he was a candidate for Lieutenant Governor and for the Legislature and was elected to the latter office. He has also served twice since that time.

In 1884 he was nominated for congress in the seventh district, but declined in favor of Dr. William Everett.

In town affairs Mr. Adams has always taken a deep interest, and for many years officiated as moderator at all of the town meetings, and a member of the school board for several years. He has also been identified with many projects for public improvement.

He was a member of the Fifty associates of Boston, and several local and historical organizations.

He leaves a widow, three sons and a daughter. His children are Charles Francis Adams, 2d, a member of the present city government, George R. Adams, Arthur Adams and Abigail Adams.

Funeral services will be held from his late residence, Thursday afternoon, and will be strictly private.

A Vigorous Canvass.

Mr. Thomas R. Fitch, the nominee of the Populist party for senator in this district, was notified of his nomination Saturday, and stated that he would accept.

Mr. Fitch was invited to take the stump for the party in the seven towns and one city, comprising the district, and expressed his willingness to address the voters on the issues of the campaign. Arrangements are being made to have him speak in every village and ward in his district, and he will open his campaign in Weymouth this week by addressing four open air meetings, one each at the Landing, North, East, and South Weymouth.

Next week he will come to Quincy and expound the doctrines of the party in every one of the six wards, provided meetings can be arranged. It is the intention of the district committee to issue a challenge to the Democratic and Republican committees for a joint public discussion of the issues of the campaign, between Mr. Fitch and the other senatorial candidates.

Henry R. Legate and E. C. Baldwin of Boston, E. Gerry Brown of Brockton, Thomas A. Watson of Braintree and William W. Burke of Weymouth will also take the platform for the dissemination of the party doctrines in this district.

Moonlight Trip.

Next Thursday night at eight o'clock the famous midnight excursion of last month on the steamer City of Quincy to Minot's light will be repeated. Those who enjoyed the last one will be pleased to hear this; as one and all decided at that time that it was the most delightful sail of the season. Old Minot light looked grand, the moonlight scenery was beautiful, the well gotten up lunch and various colored lemonade was in great demand, and those on the boat were of the nicest citizens in Quincy and Weymouth.

The Thursday evening trip will be under the management of John F. Merrill and John R. Graham of Quincy, F. E. Jones of South Quincy, and D. M. Eaton and Frank Thayer of Weymouth. That decides it, the trip will be a success. Music and plantation melodies will be furnished by some colored artists from the South. Boat leaves at 8 o'clock for Minot light, and a sail on return around the Islands of the harbor. Everything, lunch, music and all for fifty cents. Don't fail to enjoy this chance of having such a pleasant trip.

Lovell's Grove.

Bates' full orchestra propose to open Lovell's grove free to the public, and on every Wednesday and Saturday evenings to hold regular dances, where the best of order will be maintained. Music will be furnished by Bates' full orchestra, and street cars run to accommodate those who may wish to attend.

—The effect of the hard times upon wage-earners and others in moderate circumstances is strikingly shown by the fact that in the twelve months ending July 1, 1894, the people of New York and Brooklyn drew out of the savings banks nearly twenty-three million dollars more than they put in.

HODSON'S CURVES

Appear to Have Lost Their Power Since He Joined the Bostons.

BROOKLYN, Aug. 13.—The final game of the year between Boston and Brooklyn at Eastern park was by no means a brilliant contest. The Champions had as their pitcher, Hodson, late of the Scranton club, but his curves just appeared to suit Foutz's men—18 hits were recorded against him. Stein had an easy game, and consequently did not exert himself to any great extent. Everything does not appear to be running smoothly in the Boston club, for when the Brooklyns got ahead, the Beaneaters began to play in a sort of a-don't-care way.

No Strike at Present.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Aug. 14.—Action taken by the textile amalgamation last night practically prevents all chance of a strike by cotton mill operatives here for the present. NEW HAVEN, Aug. 14.—Mrs. Ellsworth Maltby, the wife of a New York broker, who yesterday shot herself, died last night at the home of her mother-in-law in Fair Haven, Conn. The members of the Maltby family claim that the shooting was purely accidental, and after making an investigation Medical Examiner White rendered such a decision. There is a belief, however, that suicide was intended.

GENEVA, O., Aug. 14.—A cyclone swept over North Madison yesterday, levelling forests and destroying crops. The storm cut a path three miles long and a quarter of a mile wide. The wind was accompanied by hail. Standing crops were broken down and beaten into the earth, houses and barns were unroofed and not a pane of glass was left in the devasted district. No lives were lost.

THE ELEMENTS PROTEST.

A Warning to the Chaps Who Think the Fish Story Teller Is Safe.

Emmet Washburn and Irving Smith were on their way to Wilbur's mill, near Pinesville, in upper Delaware valley, the other day. Washburn was driving a team of valuable young horses. The sun was shining brightly over their heads, but the sky to the northward was black with thunderclouds. The last thing Washburn remembered while they were driving along was that he was listening to a fish story Smith was telling him, when suddely there came a frightful crash over their heads and a flash of intense light.

The next thing Washburn remembers is his finding himself lying in the bottom of his wagon, with Smith lying near. After awhile he was able to rise and look about him. Both of his horses lay dead in the road. Smith revived soon afterward. The sun was still shining brightly, and the thunderclouds in the north had broken away. A thunderbolt from a clear sky had evidently burst upon them. Each horse had a hole in his neck. Smith was wearing a pair of blue overalls, with a patch in each knee. The patches were gone, having been cut out around the edges as neatly as if the separation was done with a pair of shears. The rim of Washburn's straw hat had been cut entirely away in the same manner.

Neither of the men was injured in the slightest degree, but each felt a strange numbness in his body and limbs for two hours. They buried the horses at the roadside.

A peculiarity of this freak of freaky lightning is that while Smith can remember distinctly the story he was telling Washburn up to the point when it was interrupted by the thunderbolt he cannot remember the closing part of it, although he says the incidents of it happened to him this season, and he had told the story several times. The team was valued at $500.—Hoverdale (Pa.) Dispatch.

THOSE ROGUISH GIRLS.

In Paterson They Worried a Car Conductor Until He Resigned His Job.

One of the shortest of New Jersey politicians is authority for the statement that Paterson girls have laughed him out of a job. He is an unusually handsome bachelor of 32 New Jersey winters and is known among his friends as one of the most bashful men in the state. After the legislature adjourned his political friends got him appointed conductor of a Paterson trolley car. All would have gone well if the silk mill girls hadn't got talking about him among themselves. Their attention was attracted by seeing the good looking little conductor jump up to ring the bell or record a fare. This, though only moderately funny at first, grew in humor as each girl became conscious that other girls were watching him as they rode on his car from day to day. They called him "Shorty" among themselves, and soon it came about that if his car contained any silk mill girls they all smiled in unison whenever a fare was rung up.

At length the bashful bachelor confided his trials to a friend. He was advised to hold on to his conductorship through the hard times. Accordingly he smothered his feelings for a time. One day the traveler got off the trolley wire, and he couldn't reach the rope that hangs from the arm. The car was standing still, and it was full of girls who had nothing to do but watch the little conductor. Every time he jumped and missed the rope the girls laughed.

This was too much. When the month ended, he notified the railroad company that he was going to leave to take a job at his former trade.—Paterson Standard.

A JOKE ON THE P. G.

He'd Give a Week's Salary to Know Who Is Responsible For a Certain Story.

The postmaster general is irate. He wants to know who wrote it. About one week ago a correspondent for a western paper sent out a story to the effect that the postoffice department had decided to furnish a proof of each of the postage stamps issued by the department upon application for same. This item touched a responsive chord in the breasts of the great American public and was widely copied. The applications have begun to come in. Several hundred have come in on each mail for the past five days, and the number is increasing.

There is a deluge of this kind of mail matter, and to save the department from being swamped Postmaster General Bissell has been compelled to order printed a circular setting forth that the department is not distributing proofs of stamps and has also been compelled to transfer some of the clerical force of the department from legitimate work to the work of sending these circulars to the stamp applicants. The affair is regarded as a practical joke on the department, but General Bissell didn't regard it in that way when he said to The Star man, "I'd give a week's salary to know who wrote it."—Washington Star.

To Europe For $10.

To Europe for $10, including board and lodging, is the present rate of the competing steamship lines. Persons who make frequent trips first class can not view the war in steerage rates without some feelings of envy. The remarkable price of $10 for a trip of from seven to nine days, with good sanitary quarters, plenty of wholesome food and drink, and in a record breaking steamer at that, is one reason for the very large emigration during the past two months. Though the transatlantic companies are fighting to the death for the steerage traffic, they display an altogether wonderful degree of indifference to first class passengers. Competition in this direction is apparently barred by a cast iron mutual agreement.—New York Sun.

THE TARIFF BILL

Passed by the House by a Vote of 181 to 105.

The House at last decided to concur in the Senate Amendments, and last evening swallowed at once the six hundred amendments made by the Senate to the Tariff bill.

The bill provides for free coal, free iron, free sugar, and free barbed wire.

The measure having now passed both houses of congress, goes to the President. He will probably sign it, or allow it to become law by lapse of time without his signature.

COMMENTS OF DAILY PRESS.

The Boston Herald says: "We hardly need say that, in our opinion, the complete surrender which the House has made to the Senate in this matter is very regretable, alike in its moral, its financial and its industrial aspects. We regret it all the more because we cannot think that it was necessary. As we measure the matter, the House was "bluffed" into throwing down its cards, when it really held the better hand of the two. If it had coolly and courageously played its cards for all they were worth, it might have won the game, or, at the lowest, have forced the Senate to divide the stake."

The Boston Advertiser calls it a roaring farce; and says "there are certain formal and perfunctory performances yet to take place, but to all intents and purposes the tariff question in this congress is settled. It was nominally settled yesterday morning when half a dozen men, including Speaker Crisp, gathered in the latter's room and told one another that nothing remained for them but to accept the senate bill. The note of the Democratic caucus half an hour later dutifully confirming this dictum of the bosses was merely a matter of routine."

The Boston Journal says "it has good Democratic authority for the statement that this bill is full of abominations; that it was drawn in the interest of the trusts; that it contains outrageous discriminations, and that it involves a complete surrender of Democratic principles. President Cleveland himself, smiting impressively on his breast, has told the country that the bill stands for party perfidy and party dishonor; and it perpetrates inconsistent absurdities and violates Democratic good faith."

"The Boston Globe has shared the well-nigh unanimous dissatisfaction of the Democratic party, with the Senate amendments to the tariff bill, because it wanted the best bill it could get. But now it is made manifest that nothing better than the Senate bill can be extorted from existing conditions at Washington, and therefore the Globe bids it sincere and hearty Godspeed on its way toward an immediate solution of a vexatious problem. The inevitable is a great reconciler, and when the acceptance of the Senate bill by the House has demonstrated to the Democratic masses that this is the most they can get under the peculiar circumstances of the situation their dislike for a few features of the act will give way to a delighted surprise that any legislation whatever could be achieved with only one majority in the Senate."

—Physicians and druggists in New York say their business is bad. A druggist said it was due to hard times, which kept the people healthier. Said he: "When money came easy to people they lived too high they eat too much, and spent more money for drink and tobacco than they ought. The result was derangements consequent on such excesses and a lively demand for drugs to remedy them. Now workingmen are on short commons. They eat plain food and not too much. The diet is as good as medicine and conducive to health. Of course, if the times were so hard as to cause actual privation, the inevitable result would be poorly nurtured bodies, disease and a bigger demand for drugs." There's a silver lining to every cloud if you have enough patience and philosophy to look for it.

Says S. C. Weeks of Melrose, Mass: "I had been troubled with chronic diarrhoea for over a year when I received a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which I used and it gave me great relief. I then procured a fifty-cent bottle and took about two-thirds of it, and was cured. I have taken some twice since when I had a looseness come on and it stopped it at once. I hope it will help others as it helped me. I feel very thankful to Mr. Stearns, the druggist, for telling me of this remedy and shall be glad to have this letter published."

ALLENS COMPOUND EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA THE HONEST KIND
Receives the Highest Praise from the Best Physicians.

DR. H. F. MERRILL, the wonderful specialist of Augusta, Maine, after giving it a thorough trial in his practice, writes the following convincing letter of praise:

GENTLEMEN:—
I have of late been using some of your medicine in my practice with the most pleasing and satisfactory results. I find that it acts like a charm upon the whole nervous system, and in scrofula and all cutaneous diseases. Its curative properties are fully equal to the claims made for it, and I do not know of one instance where it has not fulfilled all its claims. In cases of General Debility and Nervous Prostration it has proved itself invaluable. It also gives quick relief in Dyspepsia and Canker of the stomach, and is a remarkable fine restorative remedy. It is a great pleasure to be able to recommend such a remedy, as the results following its use are so wonderfully satisfactory. One great thing in its favor is its freedom from superfluous alcohol, and all injurious ingredients.
DR. H. F. MERRILL.

PROF. W. H. MORSE, M. D., F. B. S. Sc. of Westfield, N. J., author of "New Therapeutical Agents", the standard text book of the newer materia medica, Consulting Chemist and Therapeutist, one of the most widely known men among the medical profession gives it his highest endorsement, as testified by the following voluntary statement:

"Allen's Sarsaparilla commends itself to me therapeutically, chemically and clinically. Its therapeutical power, physiological activity, and chemical purity, are all noteworthy; and the reason is to be found in the fact that it is true to its name, or honest, as the word goes. That is, it is vegetable alterative, and tonic. Perhaps the highest praise that may be given it is that its action represents that of mercury, less the faults of that drug; for, has not Pereira said, "A perfect mercury would be a perfect alterative."
W. H. MORSE, M. D., F. B. S. Sc.,
Westfield, N. J.

Although Allen's Sarsaparilla is such a valuable remedy it is not at all expensive, being the largest bottle on the market for $1.00. Trial bottles 50 cts.

When?

Shall it be after the long misery
Of easeless pillows, and the waste of flesh
In sickness, till some worn and widening mesh
Frays out at last and lets the soul go free?
Or shall some violent accident suddenly
Dismiss it, or some black cloud in the brain
Lower till life maddens against life amain?
Where, in what land or on what lonely sea?
When, in the light of what unrisen sun?
Under what fatal planet? There is none
Can tell or know aught but that it shall be.
The one thing certain which all other things
Have taught my being in its inmost springs
To feel the sole impossibility.

A CHUNK OF LEAD.

It Killed a Brave Man's Chances of Promotion.

"Somewhere inside of me," said a veteran officer in the United States army, "is the bullet that struck me down at the first battle of Bull Run. It spared my life, but killed my chances of promotion, because I could not pass the doctor. So I must stay in my present grade the rest of my life."

They have a stern sense of duty, these army surgeons. One of them treated Sergt. Henry Chilton of Battery M, Fourth Artillery, for chronic dyspepsia. In a few months the sergeant, who is six feet tall, lost twenty-eight pounds. He was discharged for disability March 11, 1894, and went to live at 40 Washington street, Anacostia, D. C.

He heard of Paskola, a pre-digested food, absorbed directly into the system, and rapidly taking the place of cod liver oil. Paskola is made of starchy products and puts fat on emaciated bodies. "Just the thing for me," he thought.

"I concluded to try a few bottles and am pleased with the result," he writes. "My weight is now 149 pounds—a gain of eleven pounds with only eight small bottles."

Says Mrs. Emma Clark of Bridgeton, N. J.: "I take pleasure in handing you my testimony as to the benefit I have derived from taking Paskola. After being under the care of my physician for a long time and trying almost every remedy known to science I was induced by my friends to try Paskola as a last resort. I felt a great improvement and benefit before I had consumed the first fifty cent bottle and had no trouble to retain it on my stomach when all other preparations nauseated me.

"I now have a ravenous appetite and can eat the most hearty food and know I am gaining in flesh daily."

How this was done is explained in a pamphlet which will be mailed free on application to

WEATHER AND CROPS

Conditions Have Been Generally Favorable For Harvesting.

THE LONG DROUGHT CONTINUES

To the Detriment of Some Portions of New England.

BOSTON, Aug. 14.—The New England weather service issues the following weather-crop bulletin for the week ending Aug. 13, 1894:

The week just passed gave warm weather with plenty of sunshine for the first few days, and very cool weather with clouds and light rain for the last part. There was a light frost on very low lands and swamps on the morning of the 11th, but no report of injury to vegetation has been received. There has been less than the normal amount of rainfall over New England, and in northern, western and southeastern districts much more is needed to insure good crop results. Slightly more than half an inch of rain fell at Boston, Block Island and in northern New Hampshire, but in other sections it was less than one-fourth inch, with little more than a trace in the southwest.

Potatoes Promise Well.

There is some complaint of a want of rain in northern and eastern Maine this week, one correspondent in Aroostook county saying that on light land potatoes are at a standstill. Generally, this crop promises well, and the warm days and cool nights of the week are favorable for them, serving to check or hold off the rust. From reports we judge that the rust has affected them very little in any place as yet, and they are maturing fast. Grain is maturing and much of it has been secured in very good shape. The fruit conditions continue favorable.

More Rain Needed.

Light showers have fallen during the week over most of New Hampshire, but throughout all central counties much more moisture is needed for the proper development of field crops of all kinds. The pastures are reported as feeling the want of rain as much as anything now. There is little feed and cows are shrinking badly. The following from a correspondent in Hillsboro county summarizes the conditions very well: "A trip 20 miles south, 30 southeast, 20 north, and meeting many farmers from other sections, emphasizes the fact that the drought in southern New Hampshire is not yet ended. Corn and potatoes are suffering; pastures are dry and bare; hardly any second crop; blackberry crop very small; cows drying and milk and butter products decreasing; early potatoes partial failure, late planted now in need of rain; blight is on many pieces and rot will follow." Corn on low land is making a good growth generally. Pears, peaches and grapes reported a light crop.

Good Harvesting Weather.

There is some complaint of a lack of rain in the northern part of Vermont, but generally crops are growing very well. Corn is pushing ahead. In the south it has a heavy growth and is reported to be generally well eared. In southern counties the potato crops appear greener and more luxuriant than common, but there are few potatoes in the hills; there are some pieces damaged by blight or rust, but it is not general and only slight as yet. There have been much sunshine and good harvesting weather, and farmers are securing their oats in good condition. This crop is quite variable; one correspondent in Windsor county writes: "The yield and quantity of oats both vary greatly in fields not far apart. I am making inquiries to find out the cause if possible." There was a slight trace of frost in southern counties on the morning of the 11th, but no damage to crops has been reported.

Second Crop of Grass Suffers.

Conditions of drought continue in southeastern and all western-central and western Massachusetts. Pastures are drying badly and flow of milk is shortening. In Hampden county there is a large growth of corn, and the ears are generally set well, but rain is needed in good quantities to insure full crops. In the southeast the cranberry crop is pronounced very light, and the fruit work worm is working havoc in Plymouth county. The second crop of grass here is reported a total failure. In northeastern sections the second growth is now starting well, but can hardly be a full crop. Pastures are much greener here, and most crops are now doing fairly well. Apples are looking fine in places. Pears are light in northern Worcester county. Onions are in bad shape generally. Beets for winter use had a poor start, and there is prospect of a light crop.

In Southern New England.

Good showers have fallen in Rhode Island and eastern Connecticut during the week, and the crops are much improved. Corn, especially, is pushing ahead fast, though some pieces are permanently injured and will not ear as well as usual. The grass on mowed fields is starting, but present conditions point to a short second crop, even if favorable conditions continue, as it is coming up sparsely. Potato digging has begun with a very light yield on dry land. In central and western Connecticut fields are brown and pastures dry and bare. Cows have to be fed almost entirely in most places. One correspondent in Litchfield county reports that with the dry weather and the work of the Texas fly the dairy industry has received a severe blow. Springs are drying up in the pastures and not a few are bothered for drinking water. Corn is badly curled, but will improve with rain. Potatoes are reported to be fair in New Haven county, but generally they are far below that. Tobacco cutting has begun in places and will be general this week on early pieces. Early fields look fairly well, but late ones are rather poor and need rain very much to complete proper growth and maturing; green worms are pronounced plenty in Fairfield county. Apples promise a fair crop—generally of good size and smooth, but dropping badly. There is quite a large acreage of turnips sown in New Haven county. Tomatoes are affected with dry rot in this county and also in Fairfield county. A few fields of late-sown onions could be benefited by a rain, but the main part of the crop is reported past help or a failure in Fairfield and New Haven counties.

Will Keep Employes at Work.

FITCHBURG, Mass., Aug. 14.—The G. W. Wheelwright Paper company, employing 35 hands, shut down the mill yesterday for two months. The employes, however, will be utilized in making repairs.

CALLED EACH OTHER NAMES.

Corbett and Jackson Then Shook Hands and Declared Everything Off.

NEW YORK, Aug. 14.—There will be no fight between Corbett and Jackson. The heavyweights yesterday afternoon called each other bluffers and finally declared all negotiations looking toward a meeting between the two off.

Corbett had an appointment to meet Jackson at Manager Brady's office at 9:30 About that time Jackson sent Corbett word to meet him later at the office of The Police Gazette. This angered Corbett, and he went in search of the dusky pugilist. Jackson was in his room in the Grand Union hotel when Corbett and his manager entered the room. Corbett said to him:

"I want to fight you. Come, now; get down to business."

"It's about time you did," replied Jackson.

This angered Corbett, and each called the other "bluffs." "I am too much of a gentleman to call you a liar," said Corbett when Jackson said he (Corbett) did not want to fight. Then each called the other more names.

Jackson positively refused to fight in the south and Corbett offered to fight him to a finish before the National club in England. Jackson said they would be permitted to fight only 20 rounds there, and refused.

Finally, they could not agree on any place in the north where they could fight, and began again to call each other bluffers. They declared everything off, and, shaking hands, Corbett left the hotel.

Robbery Alleged.

BIDDEFORD, Me., Aug. 14.—Henry W. Lash, proprietor of the Gorham House at Old Orchard, was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Goldthwaite yesterday on the charge of robbing Henry Tice of Boston of $1700. The robbery is said to have been committed two weeks ago. Tice ran a faro bank at the Gorham House, and had left the money in his trunk while he went in bathing. Lash has been locked up in Saco jail.

Russia Must Be Consulted.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 14.—Considerable excited comment is being made here in regard to a story that it is Great Britain's intention to propose that the powers intervene in Corea with a view of obtaining the evacuation of that country by China and Japan, and the establishment of international control. It is stated here that Russia would not permit this, and that she would prefer to allow the war to continue.

A Bad Youngster.

HARTFORD, Aug. 14.—The 7-year-old son of a man named Cosgrove, of Seymour, was playing with a hatchet and his 3-year-old sister yesterday. He told his sister he would cut her fingers off. She did not object, and he brought the weapon down on the third and fourth fingers, taking one off and partly severing the other.

A Cut In Wages.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Aug. 14.—The following notice was posted in all the mills in this city yesterday: "Notice is hereby given of a reduction in the wages of the operatives employed by this corporation to take effect on Monday, Aug. 20, 1894. Details of prices to be paid will be furnished by the overseers."

New Almshouse Burned.

CENTRE LEBANON, Me., Aug. 14.—The town almshouse, hardly completed, was set on fire by an incendiary and totally destroyed, together with ell, sheds, barn and 30 tons of hay. The house was a donation to the town by R. W. Shapleigh of Boston and valued at $3000.

Two Attempts at Suicide.

WHITINSVILLE, Mass., Aug. 14.—Jacob Houston, 35 years old, endeavored twice to commit suicide yesterday by jumping in Munford river. He was rescued with difficulty both times. He has been sick for some time.

A Disastrous Cyclone.

MADRID, Aug. 14.—A cyclone swept over the provinces of Madrid and Ciudad Real. Considerable damage was done to crops, and over 100 persons were either killed or injured.

NOTICE TO INVENTORS.

THERE Was never a time in the history of our country when the demand for inventions and improvements in the arts and sciences generally was so great as now. The conveniences of man-kind in the factory and work-shop, the household, on the farm, and in official life, require continual accessions in the appurtances and implements of each in order to save labor, time and expense. The political change in the administration of government does not affect the progress of the American inventor, who, being on the alert, and ready to perceive the existing deficiences, does not permit the advent of administration to deter him from applying the remedy to overcome existing discrepancies. Too great care cannot be exercised in choosing a competent and skilful attorney to prepare and prosecute an application for patent. Valuable interests have been lost and destroyed in innumerable instances by the employment of incompetent counsel, and especially is this advice applicable to those who adopt the "No patent, no pay" system. Inventors who entrust their business to this class of attorneys do so at imminent risk, as the breadth and strength of the patent is never considered in view of a quick endeavor to get an allowance and obtain the fee then due. THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY, John Wedderburn, General Manager, 618 F street, N. W. Washington, D. PATENTS

FOR INVENTIONS.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuable inventions because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With the view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys, and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, we have retained counsel expert in patent practice, and therefore are prepared to

Obtain Patents in the United States and all Foreign Countries, Conduct Interferences, Make Special Examinations, Prosecute Rejected Cases, Register Trade-Marks and Copyrights, Render Opinions as to Scope and Validity of Patents, Prosecute and Defend Infringement Suits, Etc., Etc.

WILL BECOME A LAW.

President's Action on the Tariff a Matter of Speculation.

THE SUGAR BILL MAY BE AMENDED

So as to Be Made a Revenue Bill Pure and Simple.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—There were but a scattering of senators present yesterday when the vice president called the senate to order.

Mr. Gorman was not in his seat. Mr. Hill was present, but buried himself in a newspaper. During the reading of Monday's journal Mr. Mills asked unanimous consent that its further reading be dispensed with, but Mr. Blanchard objected and the reading was resumed.

At 12:15 o'clock the reading of the journal was concluded, when a messenger from the house of representatives was announced, and informed the senate that the house had passed the bills placing coal, iron ore, barbed wire and sugar on the free list, in which it asked the concurrence of the senate. Without comment these bills were received and laid on the vice president's table.

Several bills of minor importance were passed.

What Will Cleveland Do?

The tariff bill is expected to reach the president some time today, after which he will have until a week from next Monday, Aug. 28, if he desires it, in which to consider it before returning it to the senate.

It can be stated, with almost absolute certainty, that the bill will become a law, either by the president's signature or by his retaining it 10 days without action, the presumption being largely in favor of the latter alternative.

The president has repeatedly told his friends that he could not sign the bill, but during yesterday many of his closest personal and political friends urged him to sign the bill without delay. Several reasons were urged, among them the fact that the opening of fall trade was close at hand, and that the delay of 10 days might result in serious loss of customs revenue.

Another reason stated was that congress was extremely anxious to adjourn. With the exception of two months, the members have been in constant attendance for over a year, and it was represented that now that the work was practically accomplished it would be hardly fair to compel them to remain here in idleness. No positive good could be accomplished thereby. He was advised to forget his scruples in the matter, sign the bill and return it with a message which would leave no room for doubt as to his views thereon.

It is estimated that during the next 10 days the receipts from internal revenue probably will amount to between $100,000,000 and $150,000,000, and the government will lose the increased whisky tax to this extent. In view of the depleted condition of the treasury, this argument probably will have weight with the president. It is known though that up to this time the president has not changed his determination to permit the bill to become a law by retaining it the necessary 10 days without action.

Senate May Agree to Free Sugar.

A number of Democratic senators, in speaking of the action of the house in putting sugar on the free list by an almost unanimous vote, expressed the belief that it would receive the votes of two-thirds at least of the Democrats in the senate, and nearly all the Republicans. These senators are therefore of the opinion that the free sugar bill will pass that body.

Objection will be made to it being referred to the finance committee when a motion to that effect is made. The committee, as at present constituted, with Voorhees absent on account of sickness, is under the control of the Republicans. If Voorhees was present the committee would be tied, as no one has been selected to take the place of Vance, deceased.

The fight, therefore, on the sugar bill will be made in the senate. The Republican senators have not yet determined their attitude, but those who have been spoken to, assert that they will not vote for the house bill. Some are in favor of continuing the bounty for this year, but if that cannot be secured, will vote for the bill.

Amendments Probable.

There is an evident tendency on the part of a majority of Democratic senators toward amending the sugar bill so as to make it a revenue bill pure and simple, and it is now the program of the Democratic leaders to amend the bill if there should prove to be a prospect of its becoming a law, reducing the duty, making it uniform, and striking off the differential on refined sugar. The reduction would depend upon the figures which the treasury department will furnish as to the amount of revenue it will be necessary to secure from sugar under the new tariff.

Secretary Carlisle was at the Capitol while yesterday's conference was in progress and was asked to supply this estimate, which he promises to do. A leading member of the steering committee expressed the opinion that a duty of 25 or 30 per cent on sugar would afford all the revenue from that source that would be needed.

Considered by Steerers.

The Democratic leaders of the senate occupied a considerable portion of yesterday in trying to determine what course to pursue with reference to the supplemental tariff bills.

The Democratic steering committee was in session for two hours after the senate adjourned, trying to determine upon the most advisable policy under the circumstances, and previous to the meeting the conservative senators had a consultation on the same subject.

It is understood that the conservatives advocate the reference of the bills to the finance committee, while the steering committee is apparently somewhat divided on the question. Appearances all indicate, however, that a large majority of the Democratic senators would like to have the bills passed if they could feel assured that their passing will not reduce the governmental revenues to too great an extent. The interest in these bills, as in the main tariff bill, is in the sugar question, and it is to the free sugar bill that they are giving their principal attention.

CRAZED BY ALCOHOL.

Ed Pardridge's Enforced Visit to an Asylum For Inebriates

CREATED A LIVELY DISTURBANCE.

Attendants Found That They Had a Tough Customer.

CHICAGO, Aug. 15.—Strapped down to his bed, imprisoned by barred windows and locked doors in a barren room on the fourth floor of the Washingtonian Home, Plunger Ed Pardridge, who on Monday threw the board of trade into a turmoil by fighting with a doorkeeper, underwent a most rigorous treatment for alcoholism. He was taken to the home by his son, who was assisted by several friends.

The nervy speculator had to be bundled to the home in a closed carriage, and was placed in charge of the doctors only by main force. He became violent when he was being searched, preparatory to a protracted stay, and it required four attendants to install him in one of the cell rooms which are reserved for the worst patients.

Pardridge is one of the most prominent of the Chicago board of trade operators, accounted a multi-millionaire, the proprietor of one of the largest dry goods stores in the city and an operator of remarkable nerve. For months he has been on the bear side of the wheat market, and his winnings on 'change for the last year are said

To Reach Into Seven Figures.

Pardridge has frequently of late worshipped freely at the shrine of Bacchus, and has created several scenes on 'change. A few days since he appeared on the floor in an unsteady condition, and threw money broadcast about the pit, raising such an uproar that he was suspended for 60 days. On Monday he attempted to go on the floor, and after a fierce fight with a doorkeeper was finally carried from the building.

At the Washingtonian Home for Inebriates Pardridge succeeded in creating as much excitement among the inmates as he did on 'change. Immediately upon his arrival he was handcuffed and placed in a box-like apartment, with three blank walls and a grated window left to his gaze. When the physicians and guards left him, however, he put at naught their efforts to tie his hands and feet.

One little article on his person was overlooked by the custodians in searching him—a gold locket attached to his watch chain. When the guards left him he managed to reach and unfasten the locket. This contained a small, sharp knife, with which he Proceeded to Cut His Bonds.

He soon pacted the leather handcuffs, and next broke the leather strap tied around his feet. Pardridge next jumped up to his window and yelled down at the crowd: "I am Ed Pardridge; you know me; they are trying to rob and kill me; I'll give $500 to the man who will get my lawyer. For God's sake, help me."

As he continued his entreaties, he grew more and more excited, and said: "If none of you will get my lawyer for $500, I will give you $600, $700, $800, $900, $1000. Hurry up, for the love of heaven. They are going to kill me. I'll give any one half my fortune if he will get my lawyer."

The attention of the guards was attracted by the fearful yelling, and two of them went to the Plunger's room to subdue him. The latter, when he heard steps in the hall, made ready to brain some of his captors. He stood with a heavy wooden chair uplifted in his hands. As the door opened and the head of the first guard appeared, he brought his weapon down with a crash. The guard dodged just in time to escape the blow. Pardridge was then bound to his bed.

The employes said that Pardridge's was the worst case they have ever handled, and they were all much relieved when he had been finally strapped down. The guards were afraid to go near the Plunger during the night, but his struggle before he was subdued had weakened him, and yesterday

He Collapsed Utterly.

His only demonstrations yesterday were a few yells and a series of warwhoops which could be distinctly heard all over the house. This stopped soon, and he mumbled, talked to himself and then fell into a sullen stupor and went to sleep.

Superintendent Somerville said: "Mr. Pardridge is suffering from a severe case of alcoholism and will require a long course of treatment before he will be cured. It is our belief that we shall effect an ultimate and permanent cure, but just now he is in a very discouraging condition.

"Does his mind seem at all affected?"

"Yes; in fact his trouble now seems to be due more to a temporary derangement than anything else."

Pardridge left the Washingtonian Home yesterday in charge of friends. Manager Summerfield says his treatment was that usually accorded patients. He will answer the writ in Judge Dunn's court today.

Attorney Deakin appeared before Judge Dunne yesterday afternoon with a petition for a writ of habeas corpus to compel the manager of the Washingtonian Home to produce Pardridge in court. The petition recited that the noted plunger was being held a prisoner in the Washingtonian Home against his will. Judge Dunne granted the writ and made it returnable today.

NEW QUARRY LAND.

Milton Stone May Soon Rival Quincy—On the New Street Railway.

Recently there has been opened up in Milton, near the Quincy line, a valuable piece of quarry land. It comprises the Lyman and Bailey estates in what is known as New State and contains about 100 acres and is owned by Pinel Bros. and Matthews, and Pinel Bros. and McDonnell Sons. The quarries at present opened are those of Deacon Bros., McDonnell Sons., John Miller and Reinhalter.

The granite is of a very dark quality, even darker than anything found in Quincy and is a very handsome stone. Another advantage of the new quarry land is that the granite on the top is equally as good as that down deeper. This is of great advantage, as in many cases it has been found necessary to go to a great depth before suitable stock is reached.

The best quarry in the territory is doubtless that situated next to Deacon Bros.; it comprises about 4 3-4 acres and is very dark and handsome, and lies on top of the ground. This quarry, however, is at present undeveloped, but great things are expected of it.

As the new land is but a short distance from the new Quarry railroad, it will be of easy access and transportation will in the near future be an easy matter.

Besides the quarries there is also plenty building land which will be brought into the market and be increased in value with the advent of the proposed street railway from East Milton to Mattapan as the proposed route passes the new property.

Houghs Neck Illumination.

The annual illumination of Houghs Neck will take place next week Thursday and it is the intention of the committee having the matter in charge to make it eclipse all previous illuminations. In the evening there will be fireworks and a grand illumination of cottages.

The ladies have been invited to contribute a loaf of cake each for the children's festival. No tickets for the children's festival will be issued except to those who contribute. A full programme will be issued later.

THE CITY COUNCIL.

Action Taken on Death of John Quincy Adams.

THE WATER EXTENSION ORDER.

The Commissioners Reply to Questions Asked—Other Business Transacted.

An adjourned meeting of the City Council was held Tuesday evening, the absent members being, Councilmen Adams, Federhen, Holbrook, Litchfield and Snow.

A Communication.

The Mayor forwarded the following communication:

E. W. H. BASS, ESQ.,
President of the City Council.

Dear Sir:—

It is with deep regret that I call the attention of the Council to the sudden death of our eminent fellow citizen, John Quincy Adams. He was a man who had occupied many posts of honor and duty, always with dignity and ability, and his loss will be a personal one to the inhabitants of our city. I trust that the Council will take such action as seems best suited to express our sorrow.

Yours respectfully,
WILLIAM A. HODGES,
Mayor.

Upon motion of Councilman Anderson it was voted that a committee of three be appointed to draft suitable resolutions and present them at the next meeting of the Council.

President Bass appointed the following as the above committee: Councilmen Anderson, Federhen and Shackley.

Water Department Finances.

The following communication was received from the Water Commissioners in response to the resolution passed at the last meeting of the Council.

QUINCY, Aug. 14, 1894.

To the City Council of the City of Quincy:

GENTLEMEN:—The Board of Water Commissioners, in accordance with your request, submit the following:

The construction account, since the city came into possession of the plant, is about $130,000; which includes about $10,000 worth of cast iron pipe on hand.

About fifteen per cent. of the present income is derived from the services on the lines of pipe laid by the City.

With the exception of pipes laid for the purpose of improving the general distribution service, the Board expect a revenue of from six to eight per cent. from the proposed extensions.

The supply of water is adequate for present demands, and assuming that the City Council cooperates with the Mayor and Board of Water Commissioners in carrying out the plans that will be presented for increasing the supply next year, we see no objection to laying additional street mains.

The maintenance expenses for seven months ending August 1, 1894, are as follows, viz:

Office expenses, including superintendence, clerical assistance, rent, stationery, printing, postage and miscellaneous expenses,	$1,976.18
Pumping station expenses payroll, including repairs and small items,	3,047 40
General expenses, maintenance of reservoir, stand-pipe, mains, hydrants, gates, etc.,	1,725.21
Total,	$6,565 79

The total cost of maintenance for 1893 was $12,140. This account will be increased somewhat this year owing to the general increase of the business. The appropriation made for this purpose will probably be sufficient.

Respectfully submitted,
H. T. WHITMAN,
Chairman of the Board.

Councilman Moxon said he regretted that the information was not more explicit, but moved that the communication be placed on file. Voted.

Petitions.

Petitions were received from Scribner & Smith for a license for a tent, show. Laid on the table.

From F. C. Sloan for State Aid. To Committee on State Aid.

The Committee on Finance reported favorably on the substitute order for the Ward Four hose house appropriation and under suspension of the rules it was passed to be ordained.

The same committee reported a slight amendment to the order appropriating $800 for heating apparatus for the Thomas Crane Public Library, which was adopted and under suspension of the rules was passed to be ordained.

The same committee reported that it had attended the hearing to determine what proportion the city should pay toward the cost and support of State parks, and that the matter was deferred until sometime in November. Report adopted.

The same committee reported order transferring $200 from appropriation for miscellaneous expenses to appropriation for State Aid. To second reading.

Other Matters.

Upon motion of Councilman Johnson, the petition of Scribner & Smith was taken from the table, and he offered an order

Gumbert's Pitching Struck the Bostons as Being Just the Thing.

BOSTON, Aug. 14.—Base hits, two-baggers and home runs, with a grand exhibition of yellow decisions by Umpire Hoagland, were the conspicuous features of the game. The Bostons were minus their star fielders, Duffy and Long, but they batted the ball hard and often enough to win almost any game. Gumbert did the twirling for the visitors, but only in two innings did he have the power to stave off the "Champs." When they did succeed in finding him, the ball was sent out of the lot very often.

A MOTHER'S DUTY
TOWARDS HER DAUGHTERS.

Suggestions Which May Help to Avoid Many Dangers.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

Less than twenty years ago even the medical profession scouted the idea that young girls could suffer from the misery of uterus troubles.

That form of disease, it was claimed, came only to married women.

When Lydia E. Pinkham first sent out the news of her great discovery, there was no lack of harsh speech from those whose practice and opinions she set at defiance.

But when young girls by the hundreds were absolutely cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, then the tongues of the traducers were stilled, and faith was allowed to live in the hearts of the people.

Young girls are subject to this trouble. It robs them of the buoyancy of youth. It makes all effort distasteful.

It causes retention and suppression of menses, leucorrhœa, severe headache, waxy complexion, depression, weakness, loss of appetite and interest.

This being the condition of your daughter, what is your duty, loving mother?

Certainly you ought to know that these are all symptoms of the one cause of nearly all the suffering that comes to women; and to save your daughter you ought to begin that treatment at once, which for 20 years proved its power throughout the world.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the surest and most natural remedy for women ever compounded. It will accomplish its work with certainty.

ANXIOUS TO FIGHT.

Jackson Declares That He Is Even Willing to Meet Corbett In Private.

CHICAGO, Aug. 13.—Peter Jackson has left for New York, where he goes to personally learn from Corbett whether the champion is trying to fool him out of a match. "I will never fight in the south," declared Jackson. "I expressed myself clearly upon the point when I first came to this country, and, even when the original articles of agreement for my second fight with Corbett were drawn up, it was stipulated that the contest should take place north of Mason and Dixon's line.

"My objection is solely on the score of the race prejudice which exists there. I notice that Brady, Corbett's theatrical partner, said recently that one of the reasons why Jim had not wished to fight in England was because I had too many friends. Well, I'll just ask any man how I should feel about fighting him in the south, when I should not only have Corbett's friends to contend against, but with the prejudice as well."

"Do you think Corbett wants to avoid a meeting with you," was asked.

"I won't go so far as that," replied Jackson, "I say, though, that he has delayed matters right along. Now I hear he is booked in the show line up to next February. I have been told over and over again, too, that Corbett has said he won't fight me until he gets me where he wants me, and I suppose that means until old age has laid its hands upon me. I know this, that before Corbett went to England, he raised objections to every place that made a bid for the fight."

"Suppose that Corbett should propose fighting in private, what then?"

"That would suit me," replied Peter, eagerly. "All I want is to be assured protection and have a voice in the selection of the referee, and I'd just as lief fight in private as any other way."

SUICIDE OR MURDER?

Weighted Body of an Unknown Man Found In Cambridge Reservoir.

WALTHAM, Mass., Aug. 13.—The city of Waltham and the town of Weston are involved in a mystery concerning the finding of the body of an unknown man in the Cambridge reservoir.

The body was weighted down by two bags full of stones attached to it with a stout rope in a very peculiar manner. The rope was tied around the trunk and wound about the shoulders and neck. From all outward evidences it may be a case of suicide. Murder is an equally plausible theory.

The body was that of a man apparently not much over 21 years of age. It was dressed in a suit of black or blue diagonal. The collar of the shirt was of the turned down description, there were gold buttons in the sleeves and the tie was pink silk. The clothes, even to the under garments, were new or nearly new.

The face was that of a [illegible] and smooth shaven; the hair [illegible], and the eyes blue.

The drowning, whether voluntary or violent, has created a certain amount of excitement in Waltham and Weston. The Weston selectmen have had the remains photographed, and the Waltham police will co-operate in investigating the matter.

The reservoir is in a rather secluded spot in the rear of the Sibley estate, near the Fitchburg railroad, and about an eighth of a mile from the Stony Brook station. Suicide or murder might be committed at the place without any great fear of witnesses.

Tried to Kill Two.

LANCASTER, Pa., Aug. 13.—Frank B. Shibley was shot and probably fatally wounded yesterday afternoon by George Simmons, aged 64 years. Simmons accused his wife with being improperly intimate with Shibley, the charge, it is said, being entirely without foundation. Simmons also attempted to shoot his wife, but the woman escaped.

Strikers Going Back.

OMAHA, Aug. 13.—As all is quiet at South Omaha the Omaha Guards and the Thurston Guards were released yesterday, and only three companies will be retained at the scene for a day or so longer. Probably two-thirds of the strikers have returned to work, and the balance will if they can secure positions.

Arrested the Watchman.

BOSTON, Aug. 13.—The livery stable of F. G. Chadbourne in the Brighton district, was destroyed by fire. The fire caught in the loft from carelessness, it is said. The watchman was arrested by the police on a charge of drunkenness after the fire. The loss is $4000.

Up In the Millions.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—A comparative statement of appropriations and expenses of the bureau of Indian affairs shows that the total amount covered by the Indian appropriation bill for the fiscal year, 1894, was $7,884,240, and for 1895, $9,338,880.

Back to Germany.

COWES, Aug. 13.—Emperor William paid farewell visits yesterday to his personal friends on board their yachts, prior to his return to Germany. He took lunch at Osborne House, and there bade farewell to the members of the royal family.

An Alleged Polygamist.

LEE, Mass., Aug. 13.—William Brown was arrested here yesterday, charged with polygamy, having recently married Dora Marton of this place, a runaway from an industrial school, while his first wife is said to be living in this state.

THE LATE MR. ADAMS

A Characteristic Speech Delivered Twenty-Five Years Ago.

WIDELY DISCUSSED AT TIME.

Bold Language for a Northerner in the South in 1868.

The recent death of our distinguished townsman, gives us an opportunity to extol his excellent qualities. He was fearlessly independent, as many of our readers well know, and when invited in 1868 by the Democratic Committee of South Carolina to speak, he told them what they might expect and then said it.

In his note acknowledging the invitation he said bluntly that if he should go South he should say some very unwelcome things. He told them frankly that the attitude of the North toward the South was largely inspired by distrust, which was based in part upon the unwise legislation of the Southern states by what were known as the "black codes" and "vagrant laws." He did not think it worth while, under all the circumstances, to accept the invitation, believing that as a tableau his appearance in South Carolina would be a failure. Fortunately, however, the committee prevailed upon him to go, and his visit gave him the opportunity to deliver two speeches—one in Columbia on October 10 and the other in Charlestown four days later—which are now well worth recalling and to be judged in the light of today.

It was fair to say that these speeches were the first, the severest and the most sympathetic words spoken after the war to the Southern people by a Northern man. At Columbia, Mr. Adams promised that he came at the request of the Democratic Committee of South Carolina, and announced as his purpose to do what he might to promote a better understanding, a kinder feeling and ultimate harmony between the mass of white people in the South and a very large portion of the people of the North, and especially of his own state of Massachusetts.

With characteristic boldness he introduced himself to the South Carolinians as "a grandson of one of the earliest opponents of your peculiar institutions," and as "an ardent supporter of Mr. Lincoln in favor of the vigorous prosecution of the war," and as "one who hailed with gratitude the abolition of slavery." He then proceeded to sketch the political events which had led up to the existing state of affairs, and which, as he believed, involved an infraction of constitutional principles, first by the South and later by the North.

After a terse recital of the fundamental principles underlying the war Mr. Adams passed to the reconstruction legislation, entering into minute details and urging most strenuously the cheerful acceptance of the results of the war.

In discussing the pending political contest he deprecated partisan spirit, and said: "Most of you doubtless regard the success of the Democratic party as essential to your release from your present situation, but it is my duty to remind you that men in your position have no right to be bigoted partisans."

Mr. Adams considered at some length the relations between the whites and the blacks, and to both gave wholesome advice, suggesting friendly relations with the negroes. It was bold language for a Northern man to use in 1868 to the citizens of South Carolina, yet in his Charlestown speech, which was substantially the address, he used even plainer words, challenging the audience to tell him if any one of them would restore slavery if it were possible, if any would restrain the right of free speech, or if any of them would in any contingency contemplate the possibility of a renewal of the rebellion in the event of Grant's election or of continued coercive legislation.

Passing to more peaceful topics, he summoned up the memory of old associations between South Carolina and Massachusetts and invoked the obligations which common interests impose. He referred in prophetic words to the natural affiliation between the North and South and the identity of their interests in future national politics.

His conclusion was impressive, and, according to the newspaper reports of the time, evoked hearty sympathy on the part of his hearers, both white and colored.

"Let us forgive and forget. With slavery, its cause, let all our feeling cease. Let good will and brotherly love cast out old bitterness, and let us all hasten the day when Massachusetts and South Carolina may stand once more, hand warmly grasped in hand, under the old ancestral roof tree and beneath the old flag. I have carefully avoided any attempt to stir your feelings or amuse your minds. It did not seem to me an occasion for eloquence if I had it, or humor if I felt it. I am deeply and seriously impressed with the difficulties under which you labor and the dangers which threaten our system of government, and I have spoken seriously because I feel serious. Whatever may come of it, I shall feel amply rewarded if by any chance I may have turned one heart to a calm, earnest, patient, honest effort to forward so far as in it lies the restoration of the Constitution and the Union."

The speeches at the South were widely noticed, and formed an important topic of discussion both North and South. For the South it was pretty strong food, and was criticised vigorously, but respectfully, by papers in Richmond, Raleigh, Montgomery and elsewhere throughout the Southern States. In the North it was of course, sharply criticised by the Republican journals, though some of them generously gave him credit for his independence and his frank and manly utterances, and but few of the Democratic papers were able to take so broad and advanced a view of the situation.

THE ONLY DEMOCRAT.

Congressman Everett Explains Why He Voted Against the Senate Tariff Bill.

Readers of the LEDGER will be interested in the following Washington dispatch to the Herald concerning the vote of the Congressman from this city:

Dr. Everett, the only New England Democrat who voted against the adoption of the Senate tariff bill by the House, says in explanation of his vote:

"I could not bring myself to accept the Senate bill. It seemed to me that it was condemned on all sides, that it was thoroughly a bad bill, and that we had been emphatically called upon only six days before to resist such a measure to the uttermost. If it had been the result of a conference report, where each house had yielded something, I might have been able to accept it, but it was not. It was simply dictated to us by the Senate, or rather, as all the evidence tends to show, by a limited number of senators.

"I had voted for the Wilson bill with very great reluctance, carried away at last by the enthusiastic eloquence of its author. The Senate bill seemed worse in almost every respect, constructed on no principle, acceptable to no party, hardly to any single person, and forced upon us by the most doubtful agencies.

"I entirely understand the force of the argument that some settlement of the tariff question is needed, that this is the best we can get, that it is an advance on the McKinley act, and that half a loaf is better than no bread. But the bill is so little an improvement on the McKinley act that it cannot be accepted as a settlement by any tariff reformer.

"The agitation must begin again immediately. It has begun by the supplementary bills passed in the House, and, really, the bread is so very musty that I reject it, however large the loaf.

"It has been said that if the Democratic House had not voted to pass the bill, it would have proved the Democrats, as often charged, incapable of legislation. I cannot think that such a law as this is in accordance with any principles or pledges of the Democratic party new or old.

"I am sure those who voted for it believed they were doing the bravest, as well as the best, thing, but I should have felt like a coward had I joined them. I voted against the bill to make all imported sugar free, because I believe sugar to be an article in all respects suited for the purpose of raising revenue, as Mr. Wilson himself said in his remarks on moving the bill, and that there are better ways of fighting the trust than this."

"THESE ARE MY JEWELS,"

said the Roman matron, pointing to her children. The joy of motherhood is often paid for by the loss of strength. The Summer is so weakening to the mother—so trying to the child.

A little of Johann Hoff's Malt Extract taken by the mother gives her strength and allays the peevishness of the child. Look for the signature of "Johann Hoff" on neck label. None other is genuine.

Until the Evening.

Tired with the daily toil for daily bread,
The spirit slaving for the body's needs,
The brain and nerves are dulled, and the heart bleeds
And breaks with grief of brooding thought unsaid:
Were we but born to labor and be fed?
To spend our souls in lowly, trivial deeds?
Mere sordid coin the crown of what succeeds?
Ah, yet press on, though with a fainting tread,

Till evening ends our work and stills our cries;
Then we may find our lowness is our height:
Our crown, the tasks we wrought with sobbing breath.
As common things a sunset glorifies,
This life at last may robe itself in light
And stand transfigured at the touch of death.

DID YOU EVER

hear tell of a purchaser wanting to buy an imitation? Why do men who try to sell such articles speak of the act as "working them off?" Simply because people want the best, and it takes work and likewise deception to sell them the worst. This unpleasant experience may befall the housekeeper who determines to the new vegetable shortening. The healthfulness, flavor, and economy of this wonderful cooking product has won for it the widest popularity, which in turn has attracted the attention of business parasites who are "working off" imitations and counterfeits. A CHANCE TO CHEAT

Afforded by a Tariff Section Providing For Free Alcohol.

DOCTORING OF ALCOHOLIC SPIRITS

Gives Advantages Intended For the Arts Alone.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—It is highly probable that a strong effort will be made to repeal section 94½ of the senate bill, providing for free alcohol used in the arts. This section reads as follows:

Any manufacturer finding it necessary to use alcohol in the arts or in any medicinal or other like compound may use the same under regulations to be prescribed by the secretary of the treasury, and on satisfying the collector of internal revenue for the district wherein he resides or carries on business that he has complied with such regulations and has used alcohol therein, and exhibiting and delivering up the stamps which show that a tax has been paid thereon, shall be entitled to receive from the treasury of the United States a rebate or repayment of the tax so paid.

The figures at the treasury department show that on June 1 last there were in bond about 138,000,000 gallons of spirits of all kinds, and it is estimated that since that time this amount has been reduced by withdrawals to about 122,000,000 gallons, and of this amount probably is beverage whisky, the remainder being alcohol, cologne spirits or other forms of what is known as refined spirits.

If this provision of the bill becomes law and remains unrepealed, it is asserted that it will reduce the revenue at least one-half of the increase of 20 per cent proposed by the bill, and result in almost unlimited frauds upon the government. Under it all kinds of bitters, cordials, rock and rye, medicinal wines of all kinds, and an infinite variety of so-called patent medicines, which are in reality little more than adulterated whisky, can be manufactured and sold without payment of any tax whatever.

Treasury officials, it is believed, would not seriously oppose a measure which would apply only to the arts, but the provision of the present bill is extremely distasteful for the reason stated, and for the further reason that a standing army of revenue officers, which would largely increase the cost of the service, would be required to enforce it. It is very probable that a bill will be introduced in the house at once repealing this section.

NOTICE TO INVENTORS.

THERE Was never a time in the history of our country when the demand for inventions and improvements in the arts and sciences generally was so great as now. The conveniences of man-kind in the factory and work-shop, the household, on the farm, and in official life, require continual accessions to the appurtances and implements of each in order to save labor, time and expense. The political change in the administration of government does not affect the progress of the American inventor, who, being on the alert, and ready to perceive the existing deficiences, does not permit the affairs of government to deter him from quickly conceiving the remedy to overcome existing discrepancies. Too great care cannot be exercised in choosing a competent and skilful attorney to prepare and prosecute an application for patent. Valuable interests have been lost and destroyed in innumerable instances by the employment of incompetent counsel, and especially is this advice applicable to those who adopt the "No patent, no pay" system. Inventors who intrust their business to this class of attorneys do so at imminent risk, as the breadth and strength of the patent is never considered in view of a quick endeavor to get an allowance and obtain the fee then due. THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY, John Wedderburn, General Manager, 618 F street, N. W. Washington, D. C., representing a large number of important daily and weekly papers, as well as general periodicals of the country, was instituted to protect its patrons from the unsafe methods heretofore employed in this line of business. The said Company is prepared to take charge of all patent business entrusted to it for reasonable fees, and prosecutes applications generally, including mechanical inventions, design patents, trade marks, labels, copyrights, interferences, infringements, validity reports, and gives especial attention to rejected cases. It is also prepared to enter into competition with any firm in securing foreign patents.

PATENTS

FOR INVENTIONS.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuable inventions because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With the view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, we have retained counsel expert in patent practice, and therefore are prepared to

Obtain Patents in the United States and all Foreign Countries, Conduct Interferences, Make Special Examinations, Prosecute Rejected Cases, Register Trade-Marks and Copyrights, Render Opinions as to Scope and Validity of Patents, Prosecute and Defend Infringement Suits, Etc., Etc.

If you have an invention on hand send a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be at once advised as to the best course to pursue. Models are seldom necessary. If others are infringing on your rights, or if you are charged with infringement by others, submit the matter to us for a reliable OPINION before acting on the matter.

THE FIGHT ON SUGAR

Wages With Increased Vigor In the Senate Chamber.

SUNDRY CIVIL BILL AGREED TO.

Tariff Bill Before the President For His Decision.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—For five hours yesterday afternoon the senate debated the question of proceeding immediately to the consideration of the house bill placing sugar, raw and refined, on the free list.

Secretary Carlisle's letter stating that the free entry of sugar would deprive the treasury during the next fiscal year of $13,000,000 revenue and cause a deficit of $30,000,000, which was read in the senate, was made the justification of Mr. Harris' motion to refer the bill to the committee on finance, but Mr. Berry (Dem., Ark.) wanted the bill considered at once, on the ground that the question was thoroughly understood, and its reference to the committee would mean its death.

One of the most sensational speeches of the session followed. Senator Vest of Missouri turned on the calcium light in a speech of 2½ hours. Always eloquent, the Missouri senator, smarting under what he believed to be unjust criticisms and slanders heaped upon himself, railed with fine frenzy against the president and all those who assailed him (Vest), his associates on the finance committee, or their motives.

He gave a complete history of the struggles in conference, and justified the action of the senate conference committee throughout. Upon the question of referring the sugar bill, Mr. Vest unequivocally maintained that its inference to the finance committee meant its death. He was in favor of considering it immediately, and of either placing sugar on the free list or at least striking out the differential in favor of the trust.

Mr. Vilas defended the administration against the aspersions put upon it by the senate, and also favored immediate action, as did Mr. Mills of Texas, who challenged Mr. Carlisle's statement that the tariff bill would not yield sufficient revenue if sugar went on the free list.

Mr. Jones of the finance committee offered an amendment to place a duty of 30 per cent "flat on raw and refined sugar, with no differential."

The pending motion to refer had not been acted upon when the senate adjourned.

The conference report on the sundry civil bill was agreed to.

Figures Cut Down.

The sundry civil bill finally agreed upon at the second conference appropriates $34,202,776, which is $1,991,300 less than the bill passed by the senate, and $1,686,333 less than the house bill. The house gained its point in aid of the Atlanta exposition, the bill containing the substance of the original appropriation of $200,000. The house amendment for the government printing office site was stricken out.

The house provision for granting arid lands to the arid land states for reclamation, stands, with an amendment stipulating that not less than 20 acres of each 160-acre tract shall be reclaimed. The appropriation of $100,000 for public buildings at Cheyenne, Wyo.; Boise City, Helena, Mon., and Spokane, Wash., are stricken out, as is the item of $105,000 for heirs of the war department clerks who were killed in the Ford's theater disaster. A joint commission to report upon the claims is provided for.

The item of $25,000 for a quarantine station at Southport, N. C., is retained, and that of $40,000 for a station at the mouth of the Columbia river is stricken out; $45,000 instead of $86,000 is appropriated for a drydock at Puget Sound, Wash.

The provision for the bureau of American republics is reduced from $16,000 to $5000. It is placed under the control of the secretary of state and he is directed to report to the next congress the propriety of continuing the establishment and whether any obligation exists on the part of the government for its continuance.

The Tariff Bill's Progress.

The amended tariff bill was laid before the house immediately after the reading of the journal, as having been correctly enrolled and signed by the speaker. It was at once sent to the senate.

The chief clerk of the house delivered the message from the house notifying the senate of the discharge of the house conferees on the tariff bill and of the fact that the house had receded from its disagreement to the senate amendments; and further that he (the clerk) had been directed to present to the senate, for the signature of its president, the enrolled tariff bill. Within a few minutes afterwards the vice president announced that he had signed the tariff bill.

In the President's Hands.

A few minutes after 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon, a horse drawing a phaeton entered the White House grounds at a lively trot, and a heavy-eyed man, carrying a large roll of parchment, stepped nimbly out when it reached the White House and ran up stairs. The man was Representative Pearson of Ohio, and the roll was the famous tariff bill.

He was admitted at once to Mr. Thurber's office and delivered his precious burden into the hands of the private secretary, just as was done with other bills. After exchanging a few courteous words with the bearer, Mr. Thurber took up a rubber stamp and impressed upon the bill characters indicating that it had been received by the president at 1:15 o'clock, Aug. 15, 1894.

That was all the ceremony there was about the reception of the bill. Mr. Pearson would have liked to have handed it to the president in person, but Mr. Cleveland was getting ready for his luncheon, and no exception was made to the usual practice. Then Mr. Pearson, looking relieved of a heavy duty, started back for the Capitol.

Before leaving, he confided to the reporter that he had not closed his eyes in two days and nights, but had been steadily at work pushing the enrollment of the bill. When asked if he expected to get away in a few days, he replied: "May be, but I am ready to stay until the other tariff bills are passed."

A Strong Message Probable.

There continues to be much speculation on all sides as to the probable fate of the tariff bill when it reaches the president. The most authentic information indicates that he will sign the bill, but will accompany this action with a message to the house which will be mighty interesting reading, especially to those who have thwarted and defeated tariff reform within the Democratic lines.

The president does not mean that the tariff issue shall be relegated to the background, and the financial questions, including free silver, shall come to the front. It is alleged that the message will be far more pronounced than his letter to Chairman Wilson.

Clearing the Decks.

One more of the appropriation bills was finally disposed of in the house by the adoption of the report of the conferees on the sundry civil bill. The report on the general deficiency bill was also made. All of the report was agreed to but the Southern Pacific railroad item, which gave rise to prolonged debate. The discussion was not finished. This is now the only appropriation bill which awaits final action by congress. The only bill of any importance passed by the house was to provide a penalty for infraction of the meat inspection act.

FERDINAND'S GENEROSITY.

Bulgaria's Prison Doors Opened and Political Offenders Released.

SOFIA, Aug. 16.—Upon the occasion of the annual celebration of the accession of Prince Ferdinand of Saxe-Coburg to the principality of Bulgaria, the prince has granted an amnesty to all political offenders, including those who were connected with the Panitza conspiracy and Beltscheff murder, with the exception of Karaveloff, who refused to sue for clemency. In addition, 245 common law criminals were set at liberty.

After the abdication of Prince Alexander of Bulgaria, in September, 1886, Prince Waldemar of Denmark was elected Prince of Bulgaria, but he eventually declined the honor. Considerable trouble followed. Sofia was in a state of siege, there were military revolts in various parts of the country and a Russian fleet anchored off Varna.

Eventually Prince Ferdinand of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha was elected prince of Bulgaria by the Sobranje on July 7, 1887. About July 14 the prince arrived at Ticinova, signed the constitution, and on Aug. 14, 1887, issued his first proclamation, against which the Russian government protested.

Magnar Panitza and 14 others in February, 1890, conspired to overthrow the government and assassinate Prince Ferdinand and his ministers. Panitza was shot at Sofia on June 28, 1890; his fellow-conspirators, just liberated, were sentenced to various terms of imprisonment.

M. Beltscheff, Bulgarian minister of finance, was assassinated on the street March 28, 1891, in the presence of M Stambouloff, then premier, for whom it was thought he was taken.

Claim of Illegal Arrest.

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—Russell B. Hoyt and James W. Murphy, who are charged with manufacturing a dangerous $10 counterfeit, were again before Commissioner Alexander yesterday. Lawyer Stern, counsel for Hoyt, contended that his client was illegally arrested, and on these grounds asked for Hoyt's discharge. The examination was adjourned to give counsel time to take action and also prepare the defence of Murphy.

Looks Bad For Ezeta.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 16.—The Bennington has arrived outside the Golden Gate, having on board Antonio Ezeta and three other fugitives from San Salvador. The gunboat was detained by an aide to the Mare island commandant with secret orders, and will not enter the three-mile limit. It is believed the Bennington will remain outside until a vessel arrives from San Salvador to take back the extradited fugitives.

Coming to New England.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—Secretary Herbert, accompanied by members of his family, his naval aide and another officer of the navy, especially detailed as a member of the party, left here today on the Dolphin for a cruise along the New England coast on an official inspection of the navy yards at New London, Conn., Boston and Portsmouth, N. H.

SPINNERS TO STRIKE.

Ten Thousand Operatives In New Bedford Mills Will Be Idle.

WILLING TO FIGHT ALL WINTER.

Manufacturers Given Till Monday to Make Concessions.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Aug. 16.—The Spinners' union of this city voted last night to institute a general strike Monday morning unless the manufacturers recede from their determination to reduce the wages. Nearly 400 spinners were present at the meeting, which lasted about two hours. During that period the wage question was discussed in all its phases.

The sentiment of the various opinions expressed was—that in view of the change in the business situation since manufacturers gave notice of the reduction, owing to the passage of the tariff bill—that a reduction in wages was unnecessary; in fact, some thought circumstances warranted an increase, if anything.

Conservative members endeavored to have definite action postponed for a few days in hopes that a change would take place in the situation, but the operatives refused to listen to the suggestion, and demanded a ballot. Determination characterized every action of the meeting, and when a vote was taken it was found to be unanimous. It was also voted not to touch a dollar of the union funds for one month after the strike begins, a fact which testifies to the determination of the men

To Win the Struggle.

The treatment accorded the operatives in not discussing the proposed reduction with them before putting it into effect, had a strong effect on the men, and, as if if in reciprocation, they rejected a proposition to have a committee wait on the manufacturers.

The strike is destined to be the greatest in the history of the city, as it closes down every mill and affects almost 20,000 people. The union is in splendid condition for a prolonged fight, as all the men belong to the union and the treasury is full.

After the meeting, Secretary Ross said that if the strike takes place on Monday, as it surely will, unless concessions are made by the manufacturers, as the men who are about to enter upon it weighed the results well before deciding what to do. He also blamed the manufacturers for the hostile spirit they displayed in not endeavoring to compromise affairs before launching forth their manifesto. He expressed a hope that before it was too late they would try to reconcile the difficulty by seeking a conference with the men.

It Will Last All Winter,

In view of the action taken by the local union the Fall River spinners, it is understood, will work on the reduction and support the local strikers. The effect of the strike can be conceived from the following figures: It will silence 1,078,300 spindles, including 16,900 looms, and will affect 13 mills, having a weekly payroll of $76,000 and employing 10,000 operatives.

"Coteric" Denounced.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 16.—The following ticket was nominated by the state Democratic convention: Judge, supreme court, First district, G. F. Reinhard; Fourth district, J. S. Daily; secretary of state, W. R. Meyers; auditor of state, J. T. Fanning; treasurer of state, Morgan Chandler; attorney general, G. M. Griffith; clerk of supreme court, C. W. Wellman, superintendent of puplic instruction, Charles Thomas. The platform denounces "robbery fostered by the McKinley tariff and praises Cleveland for his stand on the tariff." The plank referring to "coterie" of United States senators masquerading as Democrats caused pandemonium, and cries of "Name them," and the names of Brice, Gorman and Smith were cried out in derisive tones all over the great hall. The anti-A. P. A. plank called forth loud cheers.

Policeman Arrested.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Aug. 16.—People here last night enjoyed the spectacle of the captain of the police force leading a drunken policeman through the street to the police station. The latter was Dayton W. Robinson. At the station the policeman was made to take off his uniform and go home. It is expected that Robinson will resign.

Goods Were Out of Sight.

PROVIDENCE, Aug. 16.—Writs will probably be issued for the arrest of Isaac Marks, a shoe dealer who recently failed, on the charge of attempting to defraud his creditors by concealing goods valued at $3000 where they could not be found by the assignee.

Town In Holiday Attire.

BUCKSPORT, Me., Aug. 16.—Veterans of the Sixteenth Maine regiment are holding their 19th annual reunion here. The town is given over to the entertainment of visitors, and flags, banners, garlands and streamers were floating from every house and shop.

A "Rumor" Only.

YOKOHOMA, Aug. 16.—A rumor has reached here of an important naval engagement between Japanese and Chinese fleets off Wei-Hai-Wei on Aug. 10. Seven Chinese vessels belonging to the northern squadron were sunk, according to the report.

Wiped Out by a Storm.

CHATTANOOGA, Aug. 16.—The village of New England City, 20 miles distant, was nearly wiped out of existence by a severe hail and wind storm yesterday. The damage to property was up into the thousands of dollars, but no lives were lost.

Editorial Comment.

A GREAT MANY Republicans are looking for success next fall in this strong Democratic Congressional district, and several Quincy gentlemen are mentioned, including ex-Councilman John Shaw, ex-Mayor Charles H. Porter and John F. Merrill, the present senator from this district. The last named is one of the latest in the field, but is probably the leading candidate in Quincy. He has always met with success when nominated for public office, and would stand a good chance at election with the united support of the party.

The district is composed of wards 13, 14, 15, 20, 22, 24, a part of 19 in Boston, Quincy and Milton. There will be 89 delegates in the convention, besides those from ward 19, whose eight must be divided between the ninth and tenth districts.

The prominent Boston candidates are Harry H. Atwood and ex-Representative M. J. Murray, but there are others, and there is likely to be a very active campaign for the nomination.

THERE IS a movement in Lynn for the enactment of a State law for the taxation of bicycles and providing that the money shall be used in keeping in repair that portion of the street within five feet of the curb. Bicyclists should be willing to be taxed if this portion of the street is kept in good condition, but it seems hardly necessary to have a special law. The receipts would be an indefinite sum, and would not go very far either.

President Adams of the Lynn Cycle Club is quoted as follows: "We are in favor of anything that will give us better roads, and are willing to pay our share of the expense. It would be nice to have a part of every street set off for our use, but it would be impracticable to attempt to keep the drivers of heavy drays, and other carriages from using such a path as it is proposed to make. Then again, the L. A. W. is opposed to legislation that will create special benefits for its members. The wheelmen want the same privileges as other citizens have and no more. A case in point is the St. Louis boulevard case, where the league opposed the setting off of a strip of road for the exclusive use of wheelmen. Still we want better roads and will do anything in our power to get them."

WHITE DRESSES in the evening seem to scare about as many horses as electric cars. Two Dorchester women were seriously injured last evening by this cause, and other cases have been reported recently.

THERE WERE built in the city of Medford the past year 133 houses. Wonder if our city did as well. Perhaps better.

QUARRY EXPLOSION.

A Seam Blast Ignited Before Powder had been Covered.

Moses White, employed at Shea's quarry, was blown up this morning and quite badly burned about the eyes, and was also cut and bruised about the limbs. He was taken to the City Hospital and his wounds dressed, after which he was taken to his home. Although quite badly bruised it is not thought that his eyesight is injured.

At the time the accident occurred White was engaged in blowing out a seam blast. He had filled the seam with powder and ignited it by mistake before he had covered the powder.

Flying Kites at Blue Hill.

The observers at the Blue Hill Observatory Wednesday made some more experiments with Eddy tailless kites with gratifying results. Prof. John Ritchie, who has been interested in this work, was present when the experiments were made, and will convey to Mr. Eddy a statement of the results. The kites were sent up with self-recording instruments attached to them, and a height of from 600 to 750 feet above the top of the hill was reached. This means about 1500 feet above the level of the sea, and the observations made with the instruments at that height, during a period of several hours beginning at noon, were extremely interesting.

IN RESPECT TO J. Q. ADAMS.

The Funeral This Afternoon to be Strictly Private and Simple.

The funeral of Hon. John Quincy Adams will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock, and will be strictly private. Rev. D. M. Wilson, formerly pastor of the First church, will officiate.

The interment will be in the family lot in the Mount Wollaston cemetery, where two children are buried.

The remains will be incased in a plain broadcloth casket upon which is a solid silver plate bearing the simple inscription:

* * * * * * *
* SEPT., 1833. *
* JOHN QUINCY ADAMS. *
* AUG., 1894. *
* * * * * * *

The services will, upon request of the family, be the same as used by Mr. Wilson at the funeral of the deceased father, Hon. Charles Francis Adams.

The casket was closed this noon and will probably not be reopened.

Mr. Adams left three brothers, but Mr. Henry Adams of Washington, D. C., will alone be present, as Charles Francis Adams and family, and Brooks Adams are in Europe.

The flags on City Hall and a number of buildings are at half mast today. City Hall and Quincy Savings Bank were closed during the whole afternoon, and the stores of the Centre between the hours of 3 and 4.

FAMOUS FAMILIES.

Our Late Townsman an Example of Transmitted Abilities.

In John Quincy Adams was embodied the full intellectual power, the sterling independence and the native force of character that had distinguished his family for the three preceding generations.

He did not attain the high distinction that some of his ancesters attained; but that he was capable for every position they filled is not open to doubt.

We have no reigning family in America, but it may be questioned whether many reigning families in Europe have kept up to the Adams' standard of ability for four successive generations. It is said that genius is seldom transmitted, and in a comprehensive sense of the term the Adamses are not geniuses. But they have shown that intellectual activity, a capacity for achievement and sterling common sense are transmissible for successive generations.

Our country is young, but there have been other families, though none perhaps so conspicuous as the Adams family, that have transmitted abilities of a distinguished character through several generations. The Beecher family, the Washburn family, the Baynard and the Harrison families are instances which will readily occur.

But the belonging to a distinguished family in America neither helps nor retards a man to any great extent in reaching the limits to which his abilities entitle him. Lineage counts far less than brains, and a man is judged by his own achievements rather than by the achievements of his father or grandfather.—Globe.

The Fifty Associates.

I see the newspapers all note in connection with the late J. Q. Adams that his wife is one of the "50 Associates." There is a great deal of misunderstanding in regard to that mystical combination. Originally there were literally "50 associates," but now the number is much greater. The original shares have been divided among heirs. This "50 Associates" is really a corporation with a capital stock of $1,000,000, divided into 1000 shares of $1000 each. The shares are now valued at $3200 each and pay dividends of $120 a year, besides carrying a comfortable surplus. By a special charter it is exempt from ordinary corporation laws, but the understanding is that at the next legislature a strong effort will be made to have it brought within the same terms as other corporations of similar character.—Boston Advertiser.

The late John Quincy Adams was the fifth member of the Harvard class of 1853 who has died during the present year, the others being Dr. Charles E. Brigg, Theodore Chase, Rev. Winslow W. Sever and William I. Shreve. Eleven members of this class have died since the last Quintennial Catalogue was issued four years ago.

There must be quite a respectable number of the grandsons of presidents living in this country. But how many of them are as worthy of their ancestors as the late John Quincy Adams?—Globe.

Shawmut Spring.

THE Shawmut Spring is located at the base of a high hill near the Metropolitan Park reservation, on land owned by the undersigned.

This water has been in constant use by workmen from all the quarries in the vicinity, as well as residents of immediate surroundings, for fifty years at least.

Workmen and other persons have come from miles away to get water from this spring, while other springs and wells are very much nearer to them, thus showing their appreciation of this water.

The water is very cold in summer, and never freezes in winter.

The location being at the base of the hill, with nothing but trees and rocks above it, no wash from cultivated fields or other polluted ground can enter it.

The unsatisfactory waters we are compelled to drink, and the earnest solicitations of friends, induce me to offer this water to the public at a normal price, trusting that its merits will sustain the reputation with patrons that it now has with those who have long known it.

This water will be furnished to all patrons in such quantities as may be desired.

Water will be delivered at Six Cents per gallon for less than five gallons. Jugs or cases of five gallons at Five Cents per gallon.

Yours truly, F. J. FULLER.

West Quincy, July, 1894.

Having made use of Shawmut Spring water in my family, I take great pleasure in recommending it to others as superior in taste and purity to any other spring water I know of.

The ladies in this vicinity will appreciate the introduction of the celebrated Standard Patterns, of which we have put in a full line, and will certainly be a convenience to our numerous patrons.

After a thorough examination by ourselves, and receiving the endorsement of some of the best dry goods houses in the New England states, and particularly from several houses who formerly carried Buttericks—who now carry the Standard—we are convinced that the "Standard Patterns" are far superior to all others—in being more up to date, better modeled, simpler directions for making—insuring perfect satisfaction, a great saving in time, much less fitting to do, and allowing just enough seams, thereby considerable saving in material—there being no waste as in others every pattern is modeled to the human form, and are so nicely proportioned that it is almost impossible to produce anything (if directions are followed, and which are extremely simple) but a beautiful fitting garment.

Try one of the STANDARD PATTERNS on our recommendation and we think you will agree with us that they are better than any other pattern sold in this city.

The Standard Fashion Sheets and the beautiful Handy Catalogue are free to all.

The Ladies' Standard Magazine is issued monthly, costs but 50 cents per year and should be in every household; you will surely subscribe for it when you have examined a sample copy at our store; it is the best and cheapest Ladies' magazine in existence, single copies 5 cents.

The Standard Catalogue contains over 1000 illustrations of beautiful styles—up to date—price 20 cents.

PATENTS

NOTICE TO INVENTORS.

THERE Was never a time in the history of our country when the demand for inventions and improvements in the arts and sciences generally was so great as now. The requirements of man-kind in the factory and workshop, the household, on the farm, and in social life, require continual accessions to the appliances and implements of each in order to save labor, time and expense. The political changes in the administration of government does not affect the progress of the American inventor, who, being on the alert, and ready to perceive the existing demand, does not permit the affairs of government to deter him from quickly conceiving the remedy to overcome existing disagreeables. Too great care cannot be exercised in choosing a competent and skilful attorney to prepare and prosecute an application for patent. Valuable interests have been lost and destroyed in innumerable instances by the employment of incompetent counsel, and especially is this advice applicable to those who adopt the "No patent, no pay" system. Inventors who intrust their business to this class of attorneys do so at imminent risk, as the breadth and strength of the patent is never considered in view of a quick endeavor to get an allowance and obtain the fee then due. THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY, John Wedderburn, General Manager, 618 F street, N. W., Washington, D. C., representing a large number of important daily and weekly papers, as well as general periodicals of the country, was instituted to protect its patrons from the unsafe methods heretofore employed in this line of business. The said Company is prepared to take charge of all patent business entrusted to it for reasonable fees, and prepares and prosecutes applications generally, including mechanical inventions, foreign patents, trade marks, labels, copyrights, interferences, infringements, validity reports, and gives especial attention to rejected cases. It is also prepared to enter into competition with any firm in securing foreign patents.
Write for instructions and advice.

HOUGHS NECK

The hoodlums at the Neck make night anything but quiet for the residents, as their amusement seems to be tipping over boats, smashing windows, etc. For variation they amuse themselves by throwing stones at the bell on the engine house. This however did not seem satisfactory, so the other night about 10 o'clock they tied a string to the tongue of the bell and ran it across the street back of a cottage and had commenced to ring the bell when the string broke and put a stop to their devilry. The residents think there is urgent need of night police so that they can get a little sleep, As it is now a policeman only puts in appearance on Sundays and the balance of the week the hoodlums have thing their own way. Some of the people have tried to get appointed as special police, so as to protect their own property but found that they could not as they were not residents of Quincy.

Frank Packard and family of Brockton are at their new cottage, the Outlook. They have as a guest Miss Ina McIlvena of Whitman.

The guests this week at the Happy Thought are Hugh McCue, Miss Rose Lines, Misses Katie and Lizzie McCue and John Lines, Milton; Misses Katie and Lizzie O'Brien Cambridge; Henry McDonnell, Quincy and Miss Mary Kennedy, Boston.

The favorite pastime at the beach this summer is bathing and every day at high water scores of men, women and children can be seen attired in dainty costumes taking a dip in old ocean.

Mrs. Hickey and family of Hyde Park are at the Daisy cottage.

Guests at Pierce's this week are Mrs. Hutchings, Hyde Park; Mrs. Chase and Miss Lizzie Chase, Milton; Mrs. Randall and Miss Laura Randall, Brockton.

M. W. Baker and family of Randolph are at the Furnald cottage.

The illumination committee will hold a meeting Saturday evening to perfect arrangements.

Guests at the O'Toole cottage are: Mrs. Patrick Sullivan, Charlestown; Mrs. Lawbridge, Boston; Mrs. Leonard, Miss Mary Hunt, Miss Stoddard, Miss Mary A. Golden, Dedham; Mr. and Mrs. Hayes, Miss Annie Cronin, Miss Kate Summers, Mr. Nolan, Masters George and Samuel Sullivan, Boston; Miss Bride, Charlestown; Mr. Frothingham, Cambridge.

Walter D. Packard and family of Brockton are at their new cottage on Western road.

New arrivals at the Loretto are: Miss Newman, Miss Talbot, Miss Cronin, Miss Daly, Miss Brady, Miss Cusic, Boston; Mrs. L. Tibbits, Mrs. J. B. Clough, Stoneham, Madam Bruthio, Chelsea.

Mrs. Hoey of the Moondyne has as guests, George Hemming and Messrs. Daly of the Herald.

All that's Yellow is not Cottolene

WON BY SECONDS.

Four Classes Sail in the Race of Royal Yacht Club at Wollaston.

The Royal Yacht club of Wollaston sailed its second race of the season on Wednesday.

The wind was from the s.u'west and rather fluky, kicking up a heavy sea on Frog pond. The crew of all the yachts donned there sou'westers and oilers and made everything snug for a rough time.

The interest centered in the long talked of race between the Beatrice and Vigilant, but the Vigilant did not show up so the Beatrice sailed over the course alone winning a leg in the championship.

In the second class there was a lively tussle between the Wasp and the Hornet. At the start when the gun was fired, there was a display of skilful seamanship as to which should cross the line first, but both boats divided the honor between them. The Wasp was an easy winner by four seconds, corrected time.

When the third class started the Duck was over the line and away before the Rival's skipper could coax her up to the line, but on the home stretch the positions were reversed and the Rival went past the Judge's stand flying, and winning the race.

In the fourth class the Undine showed her heels to the Duchy over the whole course, winning by five seconds. The summary:

First Class.

Name and owner.	Corrected time.
Beatice, Harry M. Fairbanks,	33 seconds

Second Class.

Wasp, H. M. Fairbanks,	32 seconds
Hornet, Albert M. King,	36 seconds

Third Class.

Rival, H. M. Fairbanks,	41 seconds
Duck, Ed. Brown,	42 seconds

Fourth Class

Undine, Allie Burchstead,	55 seconds
Duchy, A. M. King,	60 seconds

M'CARTHY'S GREAT PLAY

Retired the Pittsburg Men and Carried the Day For the Champions.

BOSTON, Aug. 15.—In the ninth inning Tommy McCarthy, by one of his great trapped ball plays, retired the Pittsburg team on a triple play. It was a wonderful feat, and, as was afterward proven, was the only thing that saved the day for Boston. The game itself was by long odds the best seen on the home grounds this season, 11 innings being necessary before the boys from the Smoky City gave way. For clever fielding, opportune batting and general excellence, its superior would be hard to imagine.

A Bad Smashup.

LEBANON, N. H., Aug. 16.—A railroad collision occurred at East Lebanon yesterday afternoon. The noon mail south was temporarily stalled, when a freight train crashed into it with terrific force. The freight was drawn by two 10-wheel locomotives. Both were badly damaged, four freight cars were telescoped and two passenger cars smashed. Baggagemaster Doucette was instantly killed. Brakeman Stearns was probably fatally injured. A passenger on the rear platform of the passenger car shouted, "Jump for your lives," but for which many lives would probably have been lost, as the car was demolished.

Turney Renominated.

NASHVILLE, Aug. 16.—Governor Turney was renominated by Democrats of this state by acclamation. The platform declares for a tariff for revenue only; opposes the growth of trusts and combines; calls for legislation to exclude criminals, paupers and anarchists, and others of the scum of Europe; favors the rigid enforcement of foreign labor contract laws. The financial plank favors the bi-metallic standard as it existed before 1873.

Had a Journey For Nothing.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—The Hawaiian Royalist commissioners left the city last evening for Chicago, presumably on their return home. The commissioners refused steadfastly to talk publicly as to the object of their visit to the city. During their visit the president officially recognized the new republic of Hawaii, so that if the commissioners attempted to have the recognition deferred their efforts were futile.

NEW DUTY ON GRANITE.

A Reduction of Twenty-five per cent. on Dressed and Polished Granite.

The new tariff bill affects the chief industry of Quincy, bringing our granite workers into more active competition with the cheap labor in foreign countries.

Under the McKinley bill "freestone granite, sandstone, limestone and other building or monumental stone, except marble, not specially provided for in this act, hewn, dressed or polished," was taxed 40 per cent. ad valorem. The new rate under the new bill will be but 30 per cent., a reduction of 25 per cent.

The Herald, upon authority of the New York Herald, says there will also be a reduction on marble but both are probably mistaken. Under the McKinley bill the duty on marble of all kinds in block, rough or squared only, was 39.20, while the new rate will be 50 cents per cubic foot. Sawed and dressed marble was 60.90 and will be 85 cents per cubic foot. Manufactures of marble, onyx or alabaster not specially provided for were 50 and will be 45 per cent. ad valorem.

It is plain that there has been a discrimination against granite in favor of marble. If an increased duty is good for Tennessee marble it is equally good for New England granite, but the South is now taking its innings.

WEYMOUTH.

Officers Pratt and Bailey raided the Allen house at East Weymouth, Wednesday and seized 63 bottles of beer and 1 pint of whiskey.

Says S. C. Weeks of Melrose, Mass.: "I had been troubled with chronic diarrhoea for over a year when I received a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which I used and it gave me great relief. I then procured a fifty-cent bottle and took about two-thirds of it, and was cured. I have taken some twice since when I had a looseness come on and it stopped it at once. I hope it will help others as it helped me. I feel very thankful to Mr. Stearns, the druggist, for telling me of this remedy and shall be glad to have this letter published."

The HONEST KIND
ACKOWLEDGED BY THE HIGHEST AUTHORITY.
The Massachusetts Board of Health
IN THEIR 24th REPORT (1893)
make the statement that Sarsaparillas containing Iodide of Potassium are unsafe to use, excepting under the supervision of an experienced physician, and that their continued use tend to impoverish instead of purifying the blood. Also that in many cases they act as a DIRECT POISON, and cause serious trouble, defeating the object for which they are taken.
ALL THE LEADING SARSAPARILLAS were analyzed and found to contain this poisonous chemical in various quantities, EXCEPTING ALLEN'S, which was found entirely free from Iodide of Potassium or other chemicals, and to be purely vegetable, thereby verifying our claim that it is the "HONEST KIND."
This is an unprejudiced statement made by the most scientific body of men in New England as A WARNING TO THE PUBLIC against the use of dangerous and injurious medicines, ALLEN'S is the HONEST KIND, the safe kind, and the kind that CONQUERS DISEASE.
Physicians and druggists unite in its recommendation.

The Mother.

"Where is my little man going?"
She calls to her baby boy
As over the floor he scampers
In search of his newest toy.
A moment he stops at the threshold,
And then he is out of the door.
The hall, with its unrevealed wonders,
His pleasure it is to explore.

"Where is my little boy going?"
She thinks of a tall young man
As out in the night he hastens
As only a lover can.
"Perhaps he will stop at some doorway
Where Folly will beckon him in.
O Love, put thy strong arms around him
And save him from sorrowing sin!"

"Where is my baby going?"
She knows as the lifeless clay
Of her son, who lived to manhood,
Is laid in the earth away.
Her heart asks the question no longer.
Whatever has been his life,
She knows in the heavenly mansion
She will find him secure from strife.

Three Loves.

There was one I dearly loved whose heart
Seemed to mine a counterpart.
The notes were false, or my ear was wrong,
And so an ending of that song.

There was one who loved me well whose soul
Fitted to mine as oar to thole.
A gale sprang up, as a gale well may,
And tomorrow was turned to yesterday.

There was one I loved whose radiant face
Made me run a perilous race.
There is one I love and one loves me
With a love that spells eternity.

A LACK OF COURAGE

Displayed by Assassin Santo When Time of Death Arrived.

THE CARNOT MURDER AVENGED.

Execution Occurred at Lyons Early This Morning.

LYONS, Aug. 16.—The city was so crowded with visitors who came to be present at the execution of Santo, that Deibler, the official executioner, after several hours of fruitless search for lodgings, was obliged to invoke the aid of the authorities to procure quarters. The guillotine did not arrive from Paris until 6 o'clock last evening.

The people appeared to rejoice at the approaching end of the detested assassin. Santo appeared to be unconscious of his speedy fate. His demeanor has been stolid. He occupied his time yesterday in reading Don Quixote, which he never finished.

SANTO.

At 1 o'clock this morning the police commenced to clear the people away from the vicinity of the prison. When the troops marched to the square, called Cour Suchet, in which the execution took place, hardly a score of onlookers were in it.

The aspect at dawn was most dismal. Nobody was permitted to walk the pavement around the prison. Black figures passed through the deserted streets, and after an exchange of words with the soldiers, crossed the square to the prison. These were detectives and journalists.

At 3 o'clock this morning from a prison window, not Santo's, a prolonged sigh, followed by the cry, twice repeated, of "Vive l'Anarchie!" broke the stillness. This was followed by a dead silence. It was thought to be a signal to warn Santo of his approaching doom.

The Execution.

After the guillotine had been brought out of the prison, shortly after 3 o'clock, it took but a short time to put it in readiness for the execution. Newspaper reporters were allowed to take up a portion inside the cordon of the troops.

The crowd outside the lines at 3 o'clock was small, but from that time it quickly swelled, until toward 4 o'clock, the time at which the execution was expected to take place, it had grown to large proportions. When the preparations of Deibler had been completed he twice tested the guillotine and pronounced it satisfactory. It was then 4:25 o'clock.

The troops then closed in around the guillotine. When daylight arrived the square and the streets near by were thronged with people. Deibler and his assistants doffed their working clothes and put on coats of black. Then escorted by a squad of gens d'armes, the executioner and his men entered the prison at 4:30 o'clock.

M. Raux, the governor of the prison, awakened Santo, saying to him, "Courage, Santo; the hour has arrived." The condemned man with a great effort raised himself, his face turned livid and his hands and limbs trembled convulsively, despite his efforts to appear careless at his fate.

This trembling continued until the last moment. He could hardly stand, and his limbs were so stiff with cold and fright that his clothes were put on him with the utmost difficulty. In reply to the question of the governor whether he would have breakfast, Santo declined either food or drink. He also refused religious consolation from the priest.

Asked whether he desired to speak to the judge, he replied in the negative. He also declined to see his counsel.

His Shaking Increased

while he was making his toilet to such an extent that Deibler's men had much trouble in pinioning him.

When he was assisted into the wagon he was in a most pitiful condition. His knees shook together and his teeth chattered violently. He no longer appeared like a man, but a being half dead with terror.

The command to "fix bayonets" was sounded from squadron to squadron of troops, while murmurs arose from the evergrowing crowd. Deibler and his assistants and the officials issued from the prison at 4:50. At the command of "present arms" and "draw swords," the wagon issued from the building and took up a place on the left side of the guillotine.

The assistants fixed the gangway. The priest approached Santo, who pretended not to see him.

When Santo appeared, walking with extreme difficulty, his open shirt displaying his breast, frail and bony, his eyes were first fixed on the guillotine and then wandered to the troops and the crowd.

He uttered the cries, "Courage, mes camarades!" "Vive l'Anarchie!" but the sound issued feebly from his closed teeth and was scarcely audible beyond the troops.

The words were hardly uttered when Santo was seized and pushed towards the bascule. He made a feeble struggle and fell. His weight was much too light, and his executioners were compelled to raise him and thrust him forward. He made another frantic movement, which made Deibler to come to the assistance of his men and place Santo's head under the lunette.

Much time was taken up with these movements. At last Deibler pressed the handle and released the knife. A sharp, short sound announced the severance of the vertebra, a spurt of blood sprinkled the wagon, the head fell into a basket of sawdust and the body was rolled into another. Bravos sounded from the crowd, which seemed less moved than at ordinary executions.

COMMISSION AT WORK.

Howard and Sovereign Favor Government Control of Railroads.

CHICAGO, Aug. 16.—The strike commission appointed by President Cleveland to investigate the Pullman and railroad strike began its work yesterday. The sessions were held in the government building, in a courtroom, and attracted many spectators.

After the preliminary work, Vice President S. W. H. Howard of the American Railway union was called as the first witness. Mr. Howard began his statement by expressing the hope that the commission would use every effort to get to the bottom of the matter under consideration. Commissioner Kernan assured him that the investigation would be thorough, and asked the witness numerous questions as to his past and present occupations and the nature of his official position in the American Railway union.

"Have you any plans by which these troubles can be averted?" asked Mr. Kernan.

After long deliberation, Mr. Howard replied: "I believe the only solution is in the government ownership of railroads."

General Master Workman Sovereign of the Knights of Labor, who is also a member of the American Railway union, testified that the Knights of Labor refused to patronize the Pullman company, and used what persuasive powers they could in getting others to act in the same manner.

They also suggested that a general strike be instituted throughout the country, but the other industrial unions would not strike. No violence was allowed by the Knights of Labor. He knew the cars in Chicago were fired by United States deputy marshals. He said he believed in government ownership of railroads.

ITS FIRST MURDER CASE.

Town of Henniker Startled by the Murder of a Girl by a Lad.

HENNIKER, N. H., Aug. 16.—Arthur McLean hired a team at one of the livery stables here Tuesday evening, and in company with Miss Nettie Douglass, left in the direction of Contoocook. About 3 o'clock yesterday morning the team came back to the stable with no one in the carriage, but nearby the lifeless body of Miss Douglass was found with three bullet holes in her head.

Search was made for McLean and he was found in a field half a mile from the village. He is 18 years of age and Miss Douglass was 15. This is the first murder ever committed in this town. McLean borrowed a revolver from a gunshop here Tuesday evening, and purchased cartridges at another place.

McLean was arraigned in the Concord police court last night on a charge of the wilful and premeditated murder of Nettie Belle Douglass. Through his counsel, F. H. Gould, he waived the reading of the complaint, and pleaded not guilty. County Solicitor Donovan asked for a continuance until Wednesday next. This the court ordered, and as bail was denied, McLean went back to his cell. He appeared absolutely unconcerned throughout the proceedings, and his face changed its settled expression neither when his counsel declared his innocence nor when Mr. Donovan spoke in the strongest terms of the terrible crime that had been committed.

Brown was delivered, and addresses were given by John Bigelow, Charles Dudley Warner, Julia Ward Howe, Charles E. Norton, Rev. J. W. Chadwick, George W. Cable, President G. S. Hall and others. The Bryant homestead here is filled up with guests.

PATENTS

FOR INVENTIONS.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuable inventions because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With the view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, we have retained counsel expert in patent practice, and therefore are prepared to

Obtain Patents in the United States and all Foreign Countries, Conduct Interferences, Make Special Examinations, Prosecute Rejected Cases, Register Trade-Marks and Copyrights, Render Opinions as to Scope and Validity of Patents, Prosecute and Defend Infringement Suits, Etc., Etc.

If you have an invention on hand send a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be at once advised as to the best course to pursue. Models are seldom necessary. If others are infringing on your rights, or if you are charged with infringement by others, submit the matter to us for a reliable OPINION before acting on the matter.

VOL 6. NO. 192. QUINCY MASS., FRIDAY, AUGUST 17, 1894. PRICE 2 CENTS.

D. E. WADSWORTH & CO.

The ladies in this vicinity will appreciate the introduction of the celebrated Standard Patterns, of which we have put in a full line, and will certainly be a convenience to our numerous patrons.

After a thorough examination by ourselves, and receiving the endorsement of some of the best dry goods houses in the New England states, and particularly from several houses who formerly carried Buttericks—who now carry the Standard—we are convinced that the "Standard Patterns" are far superior to all others—in being more up to date, better modeled, simpler directions for making—insuring perfect satisfaction, a great saving in time, much less fitting to do, and allowing just enough seams, thereby considerable saving in material—there being no waste as in others every pattern is modeled to the human form, and are so nicely proportioned that it is almost impossible to produce anything (if directions are followed, and which are extremely simple) but a beautiful fitting garment.

Try one of the STANDARD PATTERNS on our recommendation and we think you will agree with us that they are better than any other pattern sold in this city.

The Standard Fashion Sheets and the beautiful Handy Catalogue are free to all.

The Ladies' Standard Magazine is issued monthly, costs but 50 cents per year and should be in every household; you will surely subscribe for it when you have examined a sample copy at our store; it is the best and cheapest Ladies' magazine in existence, single copies 5 cents.

The Standard Catalogue contains over 1000 illustrations of beautiful styles—up to date—price 20 cents.

A Complete Stock of Standard Patterns Constantly on Hand.

Shawmut Spring.

THE Shawmut Spring is located at the base of a high hill near the Metropolitan Park reservation, on land owned by the undersigned.

This water has been in constant use by workmen from all the quarries in the vicinity, as well as residents of immediate surroundings, for fifty years at least.

Workmen and other persons have come from miles away to get water from this spring, while other springs and wells are very much nearer to them, thus showing their appreciation of this water.

The water is very cold in summer, and never freezes in winter

The location being at the base of the hill, with nothing but trees and rocks above it, no wash from cultivated fields or other polluted ground can enter it.

The unsatisfactory waters we are compelled to drink, and the earnest solicitations of friends, induce me to offer this water to the public at a normal price, trusting that its merits will sustain the reputation with patrons that it now has with those who have long known it.

This water will be furnished to all patrons in such quantities as may be desired.

Water will be delivered at Six Cents per gallon for less than five gallons. Jugs or cases of five gallons at Five Cents per gallon.

Yours truly,
F. J. FULLER.

RECORD SMASHING

The Order of the Day at the Wheelmen's Meet at Denver.

EXCITING ONE-MILE OPEN RACE.

Titus Disqualified and the Race Given to Brown.

DENVER, Aug. 17.—The national racing tournament of the League of American Wheelmen was inaugurated here in the presence of over 10,000 people. There was some disappointment over the non-appearance of J. S. Johnson, the Minneapolis champion. His wheel broke in the mile open trial in the morning and he did not qualify.

The records lowered yesterday are those for the one-mile novice, one-mile open, class B, and five-mile national championship.

Lee Richardson of Chicago went against the half-mile record for backward riding, and reduced it from 2:47 to 2:35. The mile novice was paced by Chaffin and Phillips, and the result was the fastest mile ever ridden in a novice race.

The first championship race was that of a mile. Twelve men started. Sanger went clear of the bunch in the back stretch, but gave up in the straight. Bald, the winner, is from Buffalo.

The fourth event, the one-mile open, created the greatest enthusiasm of the day. Sanger took the lead at the two-thirds and held it until 200 feet from the tape. Sanger, Titus, Brown and Bald were all lapping each other. Sanger had the pole, or was close to it, and Titus, coming very fast, cut inside of him. Sanger's wheel was seen to wobble for an instant, and Titus and Brown finished ahead of him.

Foul Riding Claimed.

Titus was disqualified for foul riding and Brown was given first place, with Sanger second and Bald third. Titus' friends claim he was near enough to the pole to claim, and state Sanger tried to elbow Titus off the track. Titus' time was 2:10 3-5, which is the record for a scratch race, the previous record being 2:11 3-5 by Sanger. Brown, the winner, is a Cleveland man.

In the two-mile handicap, Barnett of Lincoln, Neb., who had a handicap of 190 yards, passed the leader in the second mile and won by 200 feet.

In the five-mile championship the time limit was set at 16 minutes. Seven men started. The pace was set by seven riders alternately, and at the four-mile point Cabanne took the lead. The spurt in the last race was very hot, and at the finish the men were prettily bunched.

Titus won, and beat the world's record for five miles in competition, making the distance in 12:19 1-5. The previous record was 12:27 2-5, also held by himself. Murphy of Brooklyn was second; Zeigler of California, third.

Fell From a Trapeze.

LYNN, Mass., Aug. 17.—Robert Maby, an aerialist, who, in company with another, travels under the name of Rose Brothers, was fatally injured at the Point of Pines yesterday afternoon. The Rose Brothers were performing upon a trapeze for the amusement of the spectators when a bolt broke. Maby was thrown to the ground, a distance of 20 feet. He sustained a fracture at the base of the skull. There is but little hope of his recovery.

Body Awaits a Claimant.

LOWELL, Mass., Aug. 17.—After an autopsy on the body of the woman found at the Harris House, Medical Examiner Irish reported death from hemorrhage, but declined to say how it was superinduced. The woman was identified as Carrie Dalton, formerly of the Metropolitan Opera company. There is some mystery which will not be cleared up until the body is claimed.

Reviewed by Governor.

AUGUSTA, Me., Aug. 17.—At Camp Cleaves nearly 1000 men passed in review before Governor Cleaves and staff. The weather was perfect, and the review and parades were the finest ever witnessed at a Maine encampment. An unusually large number of spectators were present.

Headed Off.

BERLIN, Aug. 17.—The Lokalanzeiger asserts that infernal machines were discovered in the domiciles of many anarchists who have been arrested in this city recently. The police believe that this indicates that a series of outrages, to be perpetrated simultaneously, was intended Thrown From His Seat.

LYNN, Mass., Aug. 17.—Timothy Shugrue, driver of chemical engine 1, of the Lynn fire department, was thrown from a coal wagon which he was driving to exercise his horses, yesterday afternoon, and almost instantly killed, his neck and left shoulder being broken by the fall.

Was a Famous Singer.

ABINGTON, Mass., Aug. 17.—Mrs. Emily Keene died yesterday. She was the first American soprano soloist engaged by the Haydn society. She went to Europe as the leading soloist of Father Kemp's chorus years ago, but has not done any public singing for several years.

Peruvian Disturbances.

LIMA, Aug. 17.—President Caceres has sent re-enforcements to the northern provinces to attack the stronghold of the insurgents. If the insurgents succeed in stopping the attack of the government troops the situation will become serious.

Got Nothing For Their Pains.

HOLYOKE, Mass., Aug. 17.—Burglars entered the Holyoke Savings bank through a window. The iron grating was forced off and the glass broken. The safe was not disturbed. The thieves retreated before they reached the vault room.

WAGES AT PULLMAN

Appear to Have Been Squeezed Down to the Lowest Possible Amount.

CHICAGO, Aug. 17.—In the strike commissioners' investigation yesterday Secretary Kelliher, when asked for his views as to the best method for preventing strikes, said that he firmly believed government ownership of railroads would solve the problem. "Next to that," he continued, "I think compulsory arbitration would answer."

"How would you force the railroads to abide by the arbitrators' decision?" asked Commissioner Wright.

"By law," promptly responded the witness. "Let the law be such that in case of trouble with its employes the railroad be compelled to submit the matter to arbitration. Then let it be understood that if the railroads will not accept the terms upon which arbitrators decide, the companies can be compelled to go out of business. In other words, the railroads should be compelled to abide by the decision, and as to the employes, if they are not suited by the the decision, let them leave the employ of the company."

Miss Jennie Curtis, president of the Girls' union at Pullman, testified that her father had been in the employ of the Pullman company for 15 years, until shortly before his death last year. He was delinquent in his rent to the amount of $60; the company compelled her to assume the debt and sign a contract to pay it out of her wages at the rate of $3 a week. Some weeks she had so little left from her wages that she could not pay board. In 1893 the company was paying its girls 22½ cents an hour for sewing, and the poorest seamstress earned $1.50 a day. Before the strike the strike the best of them had got down to 70 or 80 cents a day, while the poor needle women could make only 40 or 50 cents.

Theodore Rhode, representing the painters' department, had worked for the company 12 years and had been gradually cut down until he could not make $1.25 a day. The foreman abused the men and the management experimented with the materials until piece-workers could make nothing.

R. W. Combs of the freight car shops had been in the employ of the company for 10 years. Where men in that department were able to earn $2.25 a day piece work, they were not able to make more than 68 cents a day in March of this year. Between 1888 and 1891 there had been no reductions, but in November, 1893, came a cut that made a difference of $8 in a freight car to the men who built it, and $6 of this fell on the car carpenters. The witness said that he had $3.50 left from his February wages after he had paid his rent, and with the $3.50 he was expected to support a wife and two children.

A STATE OF UNCERTAINTY.

Fall River Operatives Are Between Two Minds as What to Do.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Aug. 17.—The manufacturing situation is unlike anything ever known here. New Bedford spinners, of whom there are 350, have voted to strike, even though the acting secretary of the Fall River union was present at their meeting and advised them to work along under the reduction until a more favorable opportunity presented itself for action.

The Amalgamated association, made up of all the textile unions, voted to accept the reduction, under protest. Later, at general meetings, the Leaders', Slasher Tenders' and Loom Fixers' unions voted to endorse this action.

Weavers representing mills in two opposite sections of the city also voted to recommend that the general meeting of weavers, to be held tonight, instruct all members to take a vacation for one month.

Secretary O'Donnell of the Spinners' union says he shall ask the spinners to abide by the decision arrived at by the Amalgamated association, because the executive committeemen who guide him believe that it would be the wiser and more prudent course under the present conditions.

Secretary Whitehead, on the other hand, believes that the voluntary vacation idea is the better one to follow, and he thinks that is the feeling of most of the weavers who are members of the union.

Wellman Not Discouraged by the Failure of His Plans.

A THOROUGH TEST OF ALUMINIUM

Showed It to Be All That Was Claimed For It.

TROMSOE, Norway, Aug. 17.—Walter Wellman, with the crew of the crushed steamer Ragnvald Jarl, arrived here by the fishing yacht Bertine, Captain Johnsen, from North Spitzbergen. All the members of the party are well. Discussing the failure of his expedition to reach the pole, Mr. Wellman said:

"After the loss of the Ragnvald Jarl and the consequent breaking up of my line of retreat, I was compelled to modify my plans for the summer work and make sure of being able to return to the coast of Spitzbergen earlier than we intended, though the expedition reached within a few miles of the 81st parallel on May 12, 11 days from Tromsoe.

"The season had then changed to the other extreme. North of the Seven islands, situated at the extreme north of Spitzbergen, so far as we could see, were masses of heavy, unbroken ice, which appeared absolutely impassable.

"The expedition then turned its face east, along the northeast land, and though the northeast gales quickly broke up the ice, which had promised to afford smooth and easy traveling, the whole northeast land was explored.

"The scientific men of the party made many interesting observations in geology and natural history. Professor French accurately surveyed a large part of the coast. Among the points added to the map by the virtue of the discoveries made during this survey are Capes Gresham, Whitney, Armour and Scott, and Walsh Island.

"On July 1, with seven men and an aluminium boat, I started to force my way north over the pack-ice, but I was compelled, after several days of frightful struggles with the ice, to give up the attempt.

A Disagreeable Fourth.

"On July 4 I started to return to Walden island, crossing Dove bay. We were all compelled for hours to wade through water waist high. The screwing of the pack-ice threatened to destroy the boats and sledges, but though they were subjected to the hardest usage the aluminium boats came through uninjured. Had it not been for the protection afforded the stores by the water-tight aluminium cases progress would have been impossible in pack-ice, where men and sledges were half the time in the water and half the time on the ice.

"Crossing Dove bay, Alme, the meteorologist of the party, broke a bone in his right leg and had to be carried in the boats to Walden island, which was reached on July 22.

"We waited a fortnight in vain for open water, and on Aug. 4 decided to push through the ice. The attempt, which was a most dangerous one, was wholly successful, and our four boats reached Low island on Aug. 6, where we sighted the Bertine. Eventually, we hired her to convey our party to Tromsoe. We sailed for Low island on Aug. 7, and reached Danes island on Aug. 8. There we took off Professor Oyen, the geologist, and Hyerdahl, the ski runner and sportsman, from the University of Christiania, and the stores.

"Though we were unsuccessful in getting as far north as we hoped in 1894, on account of the loss of our steamer, etc., and the bad nature of the season, I am determined to try the Spitzbergen route again in 1895."

Work Is Scarce.

BROCKTON, Mass., Aug. 17.—The state commissioners on the unemployed gave a hearing here yesterday. Witnesses testified that fully one-third of the working people of Rockland were without employment, and that out of 6000 shoe workers in this city, one-third had been out of work during the year. Cuts of 25 per cent had been made in many departments. The Lasters' union reported that 300 of its men had been without work during the year, while the wages were cut down fully a third.

Kane Found Guilty.

BOSTON, Aug. 17.—In the trial of Henry Kane for manslaughter a verdict of guilty was returned by the jury. Sentence was reserved. Kane and one Daniel Connolly became involved in a quarrel on the night of July 25, when Kane knocked Connolly down in such a way that his head struck the sidewalk, causing a fracture of the skull, from the effects of which he afterward died.

Brothers All Died Suddenly.

MYSTIC, Conn., Aug. 17.—Mason M. Stanton, one of the best-known farmers in this state, dropped dead out of his wagon yesterday afternoon from heart disease. Deceased was a large stock raiser and farmer, and his wealth is estimated at $100,000. He was the last of five brothers, who all died in a similar manner.

Telephone Company Won't Obey.

PROVIDENCE, Aug. 17.—The efforts of the chief of police to close the pool rooms resulted yesterday in an order to the Western Union Telephone company to remove its tickers. Manager Hurlbut refused to do so and threatened to bring suit against the city if they are seized.

Live Wires Are Dangerous.

ELLSWORTH, Me., Aug. 17.—On the top of a 30-foot pole last evening Lineman Percy A. Smith caught hold of a live wire. He fell, and, besides a severe shock, his right hip and leg are broken, his side bruised and head badly cut. His condition is critical.

MR. RICE A MEMBER.

Nominated by Governor and Confirmed by Council For METROPOLITAN COMMISSION.

To Investigate Advantages of a Common Government for Greater Boston.

Governor Greenhalge named the Metropolitan District Commission, Thursday, which is to consider a greater Boston, or a common government for surrounding municipalities, and one of the three gentlemen is a respected citizen of this city. The members are: William B. Rice of Quincy, Osborne Howes, Jr., of Brookline, and Charles P. Curtis, Jr., of Boston. The commissioners are to receive no remuneration for their services, but may incur necessary expenses not exceeding $4000.

The bill of Representative Cook of Boston which was presented to but not adopted by the recent Legislature included these cities and towns in the Metropolitan district:—Chelsea, Everett, Malden, Saugus, Wakefield, Melrose, Stoneham, Woburn, Winchester, Medford, Somerville, Cambridge, Arlington, Lexington, Belmont, Watertown, Waltham, Newton, Brookline, Dedham, Milton, Hyde Park, Winthrop, Revere, Lynn, Nahant, Swampscott, Marblehead, Quincy, Weymouth, Hingham, Hull.

Mr. Rice is one of the largest taxpayers both of Boston and Quincy, and is prominent in the affairs of each. He was at one time chairman of the executive committee of Boston business men. In Quincy he has served on the board of park commissioners, and was the founder of the Quincy Hospital, in which he is deeply interested. He has served the state on the Governor's Council, and is an exceptional good man for the position.

Mr. Rice was born in Hudson, and for over 25 years has been engaged in the shoe manufacturing business. He is a Director in the Continental National Bank of Boston. Mr. Rice is about 54 years old, and a successful business man.

Mr. Rice has spoken on the subject of "Greater Boston" and was quoted in the LEDGER at the time. It is to be hoped, however, that he will not recommend the annexation of Quincy to Boston. Some metropolitan government might be devised which would be acceptable, but Quincy desires its independence.

The editorial in today's Herald is explanatory of the duties, and complimentary to our townsman:

"The metropolitan district commission as it is officially designated, just appointed by Gov. Greenhalge, ought to be able to perform a valuable public service in its discharge of the duties with which it is intrusted. The creation of this commission is a result of the 'Greater Boston' discussion, which has developed a general feeling that it is time that something was done toward effecting some form of common government for Boston and the surrounding municipalities, who interests are identical to an extent that makes them practically one great community.

"The commission, as authorized by the Legislature of this year, is directed to consider the expediency of establishing for Boston and the surrounding cities and towns, constituting what is known as the metropolitan district, a general government with limited powers, with a central administration for those functions in which they have a common interest, and leaving to the separate municipalities jurisdiction in matters of purely local concern; also the advisability of the direct annexation to Boston of any or all of the surrounding municipalities; and as to whether any other form of complete or partial union would be desirable. The committee is directed to report in print to the next General Court.

"Gov. Greenhalge has shown good judgment in the selection of the commissioners, with reference to their qualifications for the task before them. With one member a resident of Boston and two citizens of suburban municipalities, the commission well represents metropolitan Boston. All three members are indentified with Boston in their daily business life. Mr. W. B. Rice of Quincy is a particularly able business man of broad views. As a member of the Quincy park board he took an active interest in the work of the preliminary metropolitan park commission. Mr. Osborne Howes of Brookline has had valuable experience in similar lines of investigation, and has taken special interest in work of this character. It is important that the legal profession should be well represented on a commisson of this kind, and the choice of Mr. Charles P. Curtis of Boston is an excellent one. The report of this commission should form a notable contribution to the science of municipal government, as well as exert a beneficent influence upon the future of the great metropolitan population that constitutes the real city of Boston."

Spoken.

It was quite a surprise to Quincy people to be saluted on the City of Gloucester just after leaving the dock at 2 P. M. Thursday, and they were still more so when they discovered by the glasses that it was Quincy's four enterprising business men, Messrs. Saville, Jones, Pettengill and Winslow, in the fast Cape boat, White Fawn. She was under jib and mainsail only, had a fair tide and wind and probably harbored at Marble head by sundown.

D. B. STETSON DEAD.

He Was the Oldest Business Man of Quincy in Years of Service.

Quincy has lost another of its business men in the death of Mr. David B. Stetson who died this morning from a paralytic shock received last Sunday while seated with his family at home.

Loving hands did all that was possible for him but his age was against him and after hovering between life and death he passed peacefully away at 3 o'clock this morning.

Mr. Stetson was one of Quincy's pioneer business men, commencing the boot and shoe business more than a half century ago in a small way.

He would purchase his goods at a local store and then with a hand cart go from door to door selling his wares, and many of our young men who have now grown into manhood can remember him as he carefully fitted his goods to his customers.

By strict attention his business thus commenced gradually increased and finally outgrew the old fashioned hand cart and a horse was substituted. This he also outgrew and opened a store on Washington street where he has carried on business ever since, although for a few years, owing to his hearing failing him, his son and daughter have largely managed it for him.

Mr. Stetson was born in Weymouth, Feb. 1, 1817, and came to Quincy in 1839. He entered the employ of Nathan Fisk, afterwards keeping books for Willett & Sumner, and has, with the exception of one year, in which he was with Mr. Henry Newton at North Weymouth, always resided here.

He commenced business for himself, as noted above, more than a half century ago and was at the time of his death the oldest, in consecutive years, in business in this city.

He leaves two sons and two daughters, who mourn the loss of a kind and affectionate father.

Funeral services will be held from his late residence, Sunday, August 19, at 2 P. M. Burial private.

BUSINESS MEN'S OUTING.

They Go Down the Bay and Secure Big Haul of Fish.

Thursday a number of Quincy's business men, among whom were Osborne Rogers, Lester M. Pratt, John Curtis, 2d, Fred Hardwick, A. Denton, Bert Lambert, S. F. Willard and James W. Pierce, embarked on the good steam yacht Gitto make an onslaught on the finny tribe.

Capt. Hunt handled the throttle and soon the party were anchored off Fort Warren where they were having fairly good luck, but as they were within the range of the 1st Regt. M. V. M., they thought it hardly safe to remain, and so hauled up the anchor and sped away toward Boston light.

Here the fish bit so fast that they hauled them in two at a time. Notwithstanding this excellent fishing, some of the party felt a peculiar sensation in the vicinity of their breadbaskets and abandoned it to lay about the decks, trying to look happy if they did not feel so. However, they had a good time and when they arrived back at 6 o'clock had nearly 400 pounds of fish to their credit.

THE EXECUTION on Thursday of the murderer of President Carnot is the prompt last chapter of a memorable tragedy. The crime was committed on the night of Sunday, June 24, within less than two months the murderer expiates his crime on the scaffold—prompt justice for the most indefensible of assassinations. The lesson of the punishment is the more effective from its promptness. No one can say that the assassin did not have a fair trial according to the laws of France. Indeed, the whole conduct of the French Government throughout has been admirable.

Champions Wound Up the Series With Pittsburg With Another Victory.

BOSTON, Aug. 16.—The Champions made the record of victories in the Pittsburg series three straight by winning a featureless game. Luck was with Boston from the start, and timely bunching of their singles while Manafee was warming up yielded their runs. Pittsburg hit Staley at the wrong time, and a chance to even the score in the ninth was lost by Connaughton's quick stop of a liner.

TAKEN BY SURPRISE.

New Bedford Manufacturers' Plans of Action Not Yet Decided Upon.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Aug. 17.—As the result of the action taken by the Mule Spinners' union the mill managers held a meeting yesterday and discussed the trade situation in its different phases. The opinion was expressed that the reduction should have taken place three months ago. No indications of receding from the stand already taken were manifested, although it is the belief of many that conciliatory arrangements will be made before the inauguration of the strike Monday morning.

The manufacturers were unmistakably taken by surprise by the action of the Spinners' union, and it is hinted that several of them are willing to withdraw the reduction rather than enter into a conflict with the spinners, while others persist in letting matters take their course. It is rumored that another meeting of the mill managers will be called before the end of the week.

Secretary Hart expressed the opinion that the weavers will vote to strike. They are desperate, he said, and will fight the issue if they starve. The card and picker room operatives are said to be determined to strike Monday unless the threatened reduction is withdrawn.

Beatrice and Harbinger.

Saturday afternoon the final race for the Commodore's cup will be sailed off Winthrop over the usual course. The stake boat off Nahant will not be used, but the yachts will turn Flip Rock Buoy instead. The Beatrice and Harbinger will probably be the only starters, as each has a leg in the contest, and it needs but one more race to decide which takes the cup. The trophy is now on exhibition in the Washington street windows of Jordan, Marsh & Co., and it is a magnificent affair—29 inches high, 43 inches in circumference and finely engraved, etc. It was made by George H. Richards, Jr., & Co., Boston. Last Tuesday evening at Hotel Rossmore bets were made of over $1000 on the result, all but one being even. A bet of $400 was made that Harbinger would outsail Beatrice three minutes actual time.—Journal.

A CHUNK OF LEAD.

It Killed a Brave Man's Chances of Promotion.

"Somewhere inside of me," said a veteran officer in the United States army, "is the bullet that struck me down at the first battle of Bull Run. It spared my life, but killed my chances of promotion, because I could not pass the doctor. So I must stay in my present grade the rest of my life."

They have a stern sense of duty, these army surgeons One of them treated Sergt Henry Chilton of Battery M, Fourth Artillery, for chronic dyspepsia. In a few months the sergeant, who is six feet tall, lost twenty-eight pounds. He was discharged for disability March 11, 1894, and went to live at 40 Washington street, Anacostia, D. C.

He heard of Paskola, a pre-digested food, absorbed directly into the system, and rapidly taking the place of cod liver oil. Paskola is made of starchy products and puts fat on emaciated bodies. "Just the thing for me," he thought.

"I concluded to try a few bottles and am pleased with the result," he writes. "My weight is now 149 pounds—a gain of eleven pounds with only eight small bottles."

Says Mrs. Emma Clark of Bridgeton, N. J.: "I take pleasure in handing you my testimony as to the benefit I have derived from taking Paskola. After being under the care of my physician for a long time and trying almost every remedy known to science I was induced by my friends to try Paskola as a last resort. I felt a great improvement and benefit before I had consumed the first fifty cent bottle and had no trouble to retain it on my stomach when all other preparations nauseated me.

"I now have a ravenous appetite and can eat the most hearty food and know I am gaining in flesh daily."

How this was done is explained in a pamphlet which will be mailed free on application to

PATENTS

NOTICE TO INVENTORS.

THERE Was never a time in the history of our country when the demand for inventions and improvements in the arts and sciences generally was so great as now. The conveniences of man-kind in the factory and work-shop, the household, on the farm, and in official life, require continual accessions to the appurtances and implements of each in order to save labor, time and expense. The political change in the administration of government does not affect the progress of the American inventor, who, being on the alert, and ready to perceive the existing deficiences, does not permit the affairs of government to deter him from quickly conceiving the remedy to overcome existing discrepancies. Too great care cannot be exercised in choosing a competent and skilful attorney to prepare and prosecute an application for patent. Valuable interests have been lost and destroyed in innumerable instances by the employment of incompetent counsel, and especially is this advice applicable to those who adopt the "No patent, no pay" system. Inventors who intrust their business to this class of attorneys do so at imminent risk, as the breadth and strength of the patent is never considered in view of a quick endeavor to get an allowance and obtain the fee then due. THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY, John Wedderburn, General Manager, 618 F street, N W., Washington, D. C., representing a large number of important daily and weekly papers, as well as general periodicals of the country, was instituted to protect its patrons from the unsafe methods heretofore employed in this line of business. The said Company is prepared to take charge of all patent business entrusted to it for reasonable fees, and prepares and prosecutes applications generally, including mechanical inventions, design patents, trade marks, labels, copyrights, interferences, infringements, validity reports, and gives especial attention to rejected cases. It is also prepared to enter into competition with any firm in securing foreign patents.

LAID AT REST.

The Funeral Services Yesterday of the Late John Quincy Adams.

Nothing could have been less ostentatious than the funeral services Thursday afternoon over the remains of Hon. John Quincy Adams, our distinguished townsman. Many citizens regretted very much that they were not permitted to attend and thus show their respect. Had the ceremonies been public the funeral would have been one of the largest ever held in the city, and would have included prominent officials of the nation, state and city, and others distinguished at the bar and in educational, charitable and other movements.

But the burial was private, quiet and simple, in accordance with the wishes of the family. Flags however, were at half mast in Quincy and most of the stores and offices of the city were closed during the afternoon from three to four o'clock.

The family took a final look at the remains at noon, when the casket was closed not to be reopened. The casket was of broadcloth with heavy silver trimmings, the inscription being on a solid plate.

The services took place at three o'clock and were conducted by the Rev. D. M. Wilson, formerly pastor of the First church. Only the immediate family were present. There was no music and no pall bearer.

At the cemetery quite a number of citizens gathered in the vicinity of the grave, most of them poor people who had often been befriended by Mr. Adams. Rev. Mr. Wilson offered prayer, and then the casket was lowered into its brick-walled sepulchre which was covered with heavy stone slabs.

Says S. C. Weeks of Melrose, Mass: "I had been troubled with chronic diarrhoea for over a year when I received a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which I used and it gave me great relief. I then procured a fifty-cent bottle and took about two-thirds of it, and was cured. I have taken some twice since when I had a looseness come on and it stopped it at once. I hope it will help others as it helped me. I feel very thankful to Mr. Stearns, the druggist, for telling me of this remedy and shall be glad to have this letter published."

THE MIDNIGHT TRIP.

They Steamed to Marine Park and Minot's and Also Fed the Fishes.

Nearly three hundred ladies and gentlemen from Quincy and Weymouth appeared at the wharf of the steamer City of Quincy Thursday evening to participate in the moonlight sail. At 8 o'clock with a shrill whistle, the lines were cast off and the outward trip was commenced.

The boat sailed up by the Marine park at South Boston and then headed down the broad channel toward Minot's. The moon was gorgeous and the water glistening under its rays was handsome. Everybody was happy. Some sang, others whistled to themselves, while still others constituted themselves a committee to point out the various points of interest. Deer Island light was pointed out by some as Boston light, by others as Long Island, Bug and Cape Ann lights. But that did not matter, everything went and all were happy.

On the way down the broad channel refreshments were served and it was here that some of the party put away quantities of sandwiches, crackers and lemonade which were served by Caterer Wales, forgetting that it is far better to go on the water with an empty stomach, if it is anyways rough.

They heeded not this advice and when off Boston light the singing suddenly ceased, and sundry persons were seen with their heads over the rail intently bent upon seeing if there were any fishes that wanted to be fed, and it is hardly necessary to add that they found what they sought.

The east wind which had been blowing quite fresh for the past few days, made quite a heavy swell. Minots was reached, and looked grand, and the sight well repaid those who were in a condition to enjoy it.

On the home trip the water was much smoother and a change for the better came over the party, and as Hull appeared in sight it was noticed that refreshments were sought after and that the singing had commenced again. As the clock chimed the midnight hour the boat was made fast to the wharf once more, and the electrics that were in waiting were soon speeding homeward. The passengers, notwithstanding the little unpleasantness, thoroughly enjoyed the trip and are ready and willing to go again.

TODAY'S COURT.

Phillip Gillis of Quincy was arraigned for drunkenness and given a week to raise his fine of $5.

John Gillman of Weymouth was fined $5 for drunkenness.

John Tearney of Milton was fined $10 for drunkenness.

John Tearney of Milton was arraigned for non-support of his wife Bridget. Case continued one month.

John Sullivan of Weymouth was arraigned for the illegal sale of liquor to Edward J. Sandberg. Case continued until Aug. 31.

Passengers All Taken Off.

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—The excursion steamer General Slocum, with 1500 passengers aboard, ran upon the point at Rockaway inlet last evening. There was a heavy wind and rain storm at the time. Luscomb's Action Worries Cyclers.

DENVER, Aug. 16.—President Luscomb of the L. A. W. has not only remained away from the meet, but, it is said, has declared that the expenses of the officers who do attend will not be paid out of the treasury. His action has caused bitter feeling. Otto Seigler of California rode an unpaced mile, flying start, at the track yesterday in 2m. 9 1-5s., beating the record by 2s.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Aug. 16.—A strike of motormen on all lines of the San Antonio Street railway was inaugurated last night. The strike is for higher pay and the discharge of boycotted conductors. Twenty-seven miles of road are tied up.

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, Aug. 16.—A protocol has been signed uniting Guatemala, Nicaragua, San Salvador and Honduras into one republic, to be known as the Central American republic. Costa Rica declined to sign the protocol.

A Legal Light For Congress.

PINE BLUFF, Ark., Aug. 16.—Judge John S. Little of Greenwood was nominated for congress for the unexpired term of C. R. Breckinridge, and also for the new term beginning next March.

Hart's Body Found.

HARTFORD, Aug. 16.—The body of the missing painter, Lewis G. Hart, was found in the Connecticut river at South Glastonbury last evening. He fell overboard from a steamer Sunday night.

A Gotham Blaze.

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—Fire, which caused a loss of about $250,000, broke out in the building occupied by R. C. Williams & Co., wholesale grocers. The cause of the fire is not known.

FINANCE COMMITTEE

Will Be the Next Landing Place of the Tariff Bill.

SECRETARY CARLISLE'S FIGURES

Have Much to Do With the Fate of the Sugar Bill.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—The question has been raised whether it would be practicable to put the new tariff bill into immediate operation in view of the fact that customs officers at a distance from Washington could not know the new rates established by it.

Hitherto, it is learned, the treasury department has suffered no great inconvenience under similar circumstances. The McKinley act was passed Oct. 1, 1890, was signed on Oct. 3, and by terms went into operation on Oct. 6. At that time the department sent copies of the bill to all near customs officers, but those at too great a distance to be reached were notified by wire to assess new rates from the best information they had. This was done, and all the differences from the true rates were adjusted and settled afterward without difficulty.

The Unexpected

generally occurs in the senate. Yesterday a resumption of the sensational scenes of Wednesday over the disposition of the four house free list bills, placing sugar, coal, iron ore and barbed wire on the free list was anticipated, but not a word was spoken on the subject.

Everything was as calm as a May morning. After two hours spent in a rather interesting debate on a resolution of Mr. Kyle, the South Dakota Populist, to prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquor in the senate wing of the Capitol during the recess, and a resolution of Mr. Call of Florida for a senatorial trip by the common patents, a vote was taken without debate on Mr. Harris' motion to refer the sugar bill to the finance committee, and it was so referred by a vote of 32 to 17.

An analysis of the vote shows that 16 Republicans, 13 Democrats and 3 Populists voted for the motion, and 17 Democrats against it, 8 Republicans, 1 Populist and 1 Democrat were paired in favor of the motion, and 3 Republicans and 7 Democrats against it. The majorities in favor of referring the free coal, iron ore and barbed wire bills were even larger than on free sugar.

Carlisle's Figures Did It.

It is now understood on both sides of the senate that the measure will not even be considered by the finance committee at this time. It is clearly evident that but for the prompt action of Secretary Carlisle in transmitting his letter showing the exact condition of the treasury, present and prospective, the free sugar bill would have had immediate consideration, and would have been supported by nearly a solid Democratic vote.

Nothing but the urgent demand of the depleted condition of the treasury could induce the Democratic majority to impose a duty on sugar. The Democratic members of the finance committee, and also of the ways and means committee, are now sorry that they did not make some provision for raising the additional revenue required by the government from other sources than sugar.

Several of them remarked that an additional tax of $1 a barrel on beer would have raised all the revenue required. They were repeatedly urged to adopt this plan by some of the shrewdest men in their party, but they were afraid of the German vote. Now they are convinced of the mistake they made, and it is too late to remedy it.

It is very apparent from the utterances of many of the leading Democratic senators that if there was time and they could hold a quorum here, they would amend the free sugar bill by eliminating the deferential duty on refined sugar embodied in the tariff bill; but as this or any other proposition cannot be passed at the present time, the sugar bill, with the other tentative measures, will be allowed to go over until next December.

A Message Probable.

The president's sudden departure to Buzzard's Bay has caused much comment in both houses of congress. Several Democratic senators called at the executive mansion. They were informed that the president was out of the city. The impression generally prevails that he has gone away to prepare a message of some kind on the tariff bill.

There are still some of the president's friends who think he will veto the bill, and they point to his letter written to Chairman Wilson on Monday, as soon as the result of the Democratic caucus was known to him, as proof of the fact that the president has not in any way backed down.

In that letter he spoke very highly of Wilson, and approved of everything he had done, and expressed great regret at the unfortunate ending of the whole matter. This would seem to indicate that he has no sympathy with the action of the house caucus. Notwithstanding all this, those near the president believe that he will sign the bill.

"Sick" Cases Are Numerous.

The members of the house have been dropping off so quietly and surely that at no time yesterday was there a quorum present, and requests for leave of absence on account of "sickness" and sickness in family were received with derisive laughter. The senate bill repealing the clause in the tariff act placing alcohol used in the arts on the free list was passed after debate.

Quarrelled Before the Shooting.

STAPLETON, S. I., Aug. 17.—A spring gun set by Thomas Bourke of South Beach killed Fred Bergman, his son-in-law, as the latter was entering the house of Bourke, with whom he was living. Bourke says that he set the gun to protect his property, but it is alleged that he and Bergman had a quarrel yesterday.

Brought a Million.

LOUISVILLE, Aug. 17.—Charles S. Corter, representing Drexel, Morgan & Co., bought the Louisville Southern railway at public auction yesterday, bidding $1,000,000 therefor. He was the only bidder. The sale is to be submitted to Judge Lurton for confirmation.

India's Rupee Debt.

CALCUTTA, Aug. 17.—It is practically certain that the government will proceed gradually to convert the entire 4 per cent rupee debt into a ½ per cent rupee debt.

A LECTURE ON REFORM.

Governor Waite Thinks Populists Represent the Only Honest Party.

DENVER, Aug. 17.—Governor Waite has written an open letter to the Populist party of Colorado, in which he strongly opposes fusion with the Democrats.

GOVERNOR WAITE.

He says: "I have endeavored to the best of my ability to run the affairs of the state in the interests of the miners and the laboring men, and so far as I could, have stepped upon the aristocratic thieves and robbers who have stolen the state poor in previous administrations, and even defrauded the school children of the state of nearly half a million dollars. If we cannot after two years, and after carrying the state, succeed again on our own platform and with our own men, and without looking for support outside the party organization, then the People's party is premature and the American people not ready for reform."

THE DOUGLASS MURDER.

Nettie Loved Her Parents and Was Always Willing to Help Along.

CONCORD, N. H., Aug. 17.—It is understood that the authorities are in possession of evidence that will go far toward convicting young McLean of murder. He still preserves unbroken silence.

The parents of the dead girl are objects of universal commiseration, and received many tokens of condolence. The almost heart-broken father and mother, with a few neighbors, it appears, kept a lonely vigil over the remains. Neither closed their eyes during the night.

The remains lay in the neat and cosy little sitting room, where off and on during the past few months the girl was in the habit of spending an evening in the society of her lover. The grief-stricken father noted this fact in talking over the murder with some of his neighbors.

That he has ever been a hard-working and industrious man was amply attested by some of the older people of the town, who have known him most of his life. He was early in life engaged in the lumber business, and, in following his avocation of teamster, drove steadily for one concern in Goffstown.

In discussing the murder he referred to Nettie as having been the apple of his eye. She was of a most affectionate nature, and dearly loved her parents. The father remarked that Nettie, to help along the family, was eager to do any extra work for the neighbors, whereby she might earn a dollar.

Thus it happened that she went picking strawberries during the berry season, and within a few weeks helped the Ripley family in caring for their household.

The funeral of the murdered girl will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the house, and the pastor of the Methodist church will officiate.

Big Rewards Offered.

SHANGHAI, Aug. 17.—The government of Formosa has published a schedule of rewards to Chinese who capture or destroy Japanese ships, or capture Japanese soldiers or sailors, who may be taken dead or alive. The government offers 6000 taels (about $10,000) for the destruction of a big Japanese warship. For the destruction or capture of a small warship 4000 taels are promised. Two hundred taels will be paid for the head of a Japanese officer and 100 taels for the head of a Japanese private.

Coxey Airs His Views.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 17.—The Populist state convention was called to order by J. S. Coxey, the originator of the Commonweal army. Coxey condemned the present financial system of the country, and attributed the panic to contraction of currency and the repeal of the silver purchasing clause. His road improvement bills and issue of $500,000,000 legal tender was presented as the safeguard against depression.

Mexican Revenge.

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 17.—Silvario and Santiago Villegas, two brothers, were killed by Joaquin and Felipe Galacia, father and brother of the sweetheart of Silvario Villegas. The young woman had been deserted by her lover, who had the audacity to pass her house with another woman, and the double murder followed.

Wholesale Discharge of Railroaders.

OMAHA, Aug. 17.—Over 2000 men have been formally discharged from the Union Pacific as a result of the great strike. In some cases the places of the strikers have been filled with new men, but many of the places will remain vacant until business will warrant an increase.

British Crops Suffer.

LONDON, Aug. 17.—The continued wet weather has done great damage to the crops. There are places where hundreds of acres of oats and wheat have been beaten flat. The potato blight prevails in many districts of Ireland.

A Tough Character.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 17.—J. M. Loggan, a self-confessed firebug, says he has been starting fires in various towns all over the country for some years. It seems to be a mania with him.

Government Business Only.

LONDON, Aug. 17.—In the house of commons a motion that all the time during the remainder of this session be devoted to government business was carried by a vote of 130 to 23.

SANDY HOOK, Aug. 17.—At the dynamite gun battery tests made yesterday of one of the 15-inch guns, which has a length of 50 feet, the results were very satisfactory.

PATENTS
FOR INVENTIONS.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuable inventions because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With the view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys, and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, we have retained counsel expert in patent practice, and therefore are prepared to

Obtain Patents in the United States and all Foreign Countries, Conduct Interferences, Make Special Examinations, Prosecute Rejected Cases, Register Trade-Marks and Copyrights, Render Opinions as to Scope and Validity of Patents, Prosecute and Defend Infringement Suits, Etc., Etc.

If you have an invention on hand send a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be at once advised as to the best course to pursue. Models are seldom necessary. If others are infringing on your rights, or if you are charged with infringement by others, submit the matter to us for a reliable OPINION before acting on the matter.

THE MONEY QUESTION

Declared to Be the Supreme Issue Before the Country.

STANDARD OF GOLD AND SILVER

Necessary to Restore Prosperity, Say Bi-Metallists.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—The policy to be pursued on advancing the principles of bi-metallism was outlined at yesterday's session of the American Bi-Metallic league conference. The following declaration was adopted:

"A year has passed since congress was called together in extra session to repeal the silver purchase law and complete the establishment of the single gold standard. After a memorable struggle this deed was accomplished on Nov. 1 last. The results of this policy are before the country.

"Every prediction and every promise made by the advocates of the gold standard that prosperity would immediately follow the repeal of the so-called Sherman law have utterly failed. Things have gone from bad to worse, without cessation, from the day the act was repealed. Gold has steadily increased in value, increasing the money standard by not less than 15 per cent in a single year, and prices have fallen in a corresponding degree.

"No such change in the value of the money standard took place before in so short a period in the history of the world. Industries are now everywhere paralyzed; the employment of labor is unsteady and precarious; business enterprise is imperilled, and Debtors Made Bankrupt.

"The great agricultural classes are brought to the verge of ruin, nor is there any hope of relief so long as this policy is pursued. We must throw off the yoke of the single gold standard and restore to the country the constitutional standard of gold and silver, or hopelessly suffer on. The money question, therefore, is the supreme issue before the country.

"The only way out of the grave situation is to restore the bi-metallic standard of money, and until this is done there can be no return of prosperity to the country. At bottom, the silver question is one of ethics, of right against wrong, of justice against injustice, and will not down.

"Therefore, this conference, believing the time has come for action, recommends that the silver question, in all congressional elections and in all state elections where members of state legislatures are to be elected who will elect United States senators, be made paramount, and that all other questions be subordinated to this.

"This conference urges upon voters everywhere, without regard to party affiliations, to vote only for free coinage candidates to represent them in congress who will pledge themselves, as heretofore recommended by the league, to subordinate everything else to this overshadowing issue; trust no candidate for the Fifty-fourth congress who has been unfaithful in the Fifty-third.

"The conference further recommends that the mining and agricultural states combine to make the

in all elections, agree to stand together and to send no representatives to the house or to the senate who cannot be relied on to subordinate every party consideration to the cause of bi-metallism; to send none but free coinage delegates to national conventions, and to vote for no presidential candidate who would veto a free coinage bill.

"To this end the conference recommends that a convention be held at some central point in both the mining and agricultural states to perfect such organization as will secure this result and prevent the will of the people from being thwarted, as in 1892, by the manipulation of party machinery. Be not misled by doubtful professions or by delusive phrases in platforms.

"Accept nothing but the immediate restoration of free and unrestricted coinage, 16 to 1, without asking leave of or waiting on any other country."

It was decided to appoint a committee of five to arrange for the conventions and provide ways and means to carry out the plan recommended.

Is Carlisle to Retire?

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—The rumor was freely passed round at the Capitol yesterday that Secretary Carlisle would retire from the cabinet, and that in his place would be Mr. Wilson of West Virginia. Of course, no verification or contradiction of this rumor could be had from the persons chiefly interested.

Taking It Easy.

BUZZARD'S BAY, Mass., Aug. 18.—President Cleveland passed a very quiet day at Gray Gables yesterday. He spent the day resting, and did not even go for a short drive. The trip by water from New York did him more good than even his friends expected, and with a few days' rest he will be quite himself again.

One Has Confessed.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Aug. 18.—George W. Parker and George R. Dunbar, conductors on the N. Y., N. H. and H. railroad, are under $500 bail each, charged with embezzlement of tickets. Charles H. Mesick, a commission merchant, is charged with receiving the goods. Parker confessed his crime.

Much-Needed Rain Arrives.

OMAHA, Aug. 18.—Not in a month has so much rain fallen along the lines of the Burlington and Union Pacific as that of the past few hours. While the rain comes too late for corn, it will help grass considerably, and it is that which is needed by farmers in the drought-stricken districts.

CHOATE FOR GOVERNOR.

Eminent Lawyer Would Accept Nomination by Empire State Republicans.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—The Commercial Advertiser prints a double-leaded editorial

JOSEPH H. CHOATE.

of half a column under the headline, "Choate for Governor," of which this is the first paragraph:

"While Joseph H. Choate is in no sense a candidate seeking nomination for the governorship, it can be said authoritatively that he is not unmindful of the honor and dignity of this high office, and that if nominated by the Republican state convention he will accept."

DIDN'T WANT TO FIGHT.

Chinese Squadron Fled From Japs—The Kow Shing Investigation.

SHANGHAI, Aug. 18.—The Japanese fleet which has been searching for the Chinese squadron came in sight of the enemy on Wednesday, and bore down upon them.

The Chinese admiral, however, declined battle, and steamed into a harbor northwest of Chee-Foo. The Japanese have made no attempt to attack Chee-Foo, but the vessels of the fleet are cruising off that port.

The naval court which has been investigating the sinking of the transport Kow Shing, by which nearly 2000 Chinese soldiers lost their lives, finished its sittings yesterday. The court finds that the Kow Shing was destroyed by a broadside from a Japanese warship. It praises the conduct of the Kow Shing's officers. It says that the Japanese gave the surviving officers of the transport a liberal supply of money to pay traveling expenses.

It is officially stated that the Japanese fleet, which consists of 17 vessels, is hunting for the Chinese fleet with the purpose of engaging it in battle. The Japanese troops in Corea have been ordered to occupy all the passes on the China-Corean frontier and prevent at all hazzards the entry into Corea of Chinese re-enforcements.

The Old, Old Story.

CANAJOHARIE, N. Y., Aug. 18.—Moses Welden, an aged farmer, was buncoed out of $4800 yesterday by two strangers. In the usual manner they induced him to play cards. Moses won $200, and one of the strangers then offered to play for $5000. Welden accepted. It was agreed to put all the money in one box, which should be given to the winner. Welden won and was handed the box. On returning home the farmer opened the box and found only a couple of newspapers, a stone, and a note warning all against the danger of gambling.

Irish Nationalists Raise a Row.

BELFAST, Aug. 18.—The celebration of the Feast of the Assumption has been made the occasion for a series of riotous demonstrations in this city. A mob of Nationalists first attacked and beat a party of Protestants and then vented their wrath on Protestant property. The extensive linen factory of Mather & Bunting was almost wrecked. The residences of a number of Protestants were then attacked and more or less damaged.

Not Just Ready to Talk.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18. — Ex-President Harrison, in the course of an interview, which The World publishes today, said: "I shall make two, and possibly three, speeches during the coming campaign. I shall make them in my own state. All that I have to say about the tariff and every other topic that you want me to talk about will be said then."

Watson Ruddy's Prize.

CHICAGO, Aug. 18.—Mrs. Mackin, nee Byrnes, who married the aged millionaire, Thomas Mackin, shortly before his death, and has been recently having differences with the other Mackin heirs over his fortune, has wedded again. The new benedict is Watson Ruddy, a local politician and race-horse owner.

Venezuelan Insurgents Were Whipped.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—W. G. Riley, the retiring United States consul at Puerto Cabello, has arrived here. He says the recent insurrection in Venezuela ended in a pitched battle at Merida on Aug. 5. The insurgents were defeated, with great loss of life.

Death's Sudden Call.

NORRISTOWN, Pa., Aug. 18.—Lizzie Lanning, a variety actress, aged 40, who formerly lived at Waterbury, Conn., died suddenly while visiting her mother here.

Again Afloat.

SHANGHAI, Aug. 18.—The British bark Alcider, from New York, which stranded at Woosung, was floated yesterday after having lightered 400 tons of cargo.

Against Confirmation.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18. — The senate committee on the judiciary has made an adverse report on the nomination of James D. Porter to be United States judge of the eastern middle district of Tennessee.

A Serious Offense.

PROVIDENCE, Aug. 18.—James Harrington, aged 18 years, was arrested in Woonsocket last evening for attempting to pass a bill that had been raised from $2 to $5. Harrington lives at Boston.

Miners Staid Out.

SPRINGFIELD, Ills., Aug. 18.—About 250 miners assembled at the Black Diamond coal shaft yesterday, and when the men appeared to go to work prevailed upon them not to go in.

GOOD TIMES COMING.

Expected Recovery In Business Is Already Apparent.

A BIG BOOT AND SHOE TRADE.

Prices on Spring Goods Will Soon Be Demanded.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: The new tariff bill, if signed by the president, as expected, provides a definite basis for business. While it is not wise to look for a great "boom," there is warrant for a reasonable and prudent hopefulness. It is too early to look for effects of the new situation in the great industries, but the grand recovery, which has appeared for some time, is seen in a better demand for products.

Speculation in wool has been stopped, and the sales, which have been 6,929,750 pounds for the week, and 14,553,150 for two weeks of August, against 3,897,400 last year and 16,385,300 in 1892, naturally diminished on Wednesday and Thursday, as it is expected that the recent advance may be lost, though no change yet appears.

As woolen manufacture has the old duties with free wool until Jan. 1, orders are expected to be governed by the consuming power of the people with the accumulated business so long deferred, and while recent trade has been enough to crowd the mills at work on some specialties, it has been far short of the capacity of all the works in the country.

Makers will be pressed within the next week to put prices on spring goods, of which a few lines are open.

Slight Increase In Cotton Trade.

Cotton manufacturers have been carrying extraordinary stocks of goods for the country, and the strike threatened at New Bedford, Mass., will not alarm them, but the reduction of wages seems likely to be accepted at Fall River, Mass. A slight increase in transactions is reported, buyers and sellers having at least a common basis for settlement.

Iron and Steel.

Resumption by iron and steel works, which were stopped by the strikes, continues to depress prices of some finished products, but with more furnaces operating prices of pig iron are not lower. Comparisons show a fall in prices ranging from 20 to 44 per cent in iron and its products since October, 1890, which sufficiently accounts for the idleness of more than a third of the works. The demand for structural forms seems smaller, and does not increase for railroad uses, though traffic improves, but for some other products is better.

Boots and Shoes.

The boot and shoe industry leads all others in recovery from depression, and shipments from Boston for two weeks are 47 per cent larger than last year, orders for low-priced goods pressing shops that produce certain qualities, although most manufacturers are working on orders covering only a week or two. Demands for speedy delivery and numerous sales from stock indicate that jobbers are carrying short supplies.

Grain and Provisions.

Speculation in corn has been active, the price falling 4 cents, rising 2½ cents and falling 2 cents, with various reports of injury, which in some of the great states is undoubtedly severe. White western receipts in two weeks have been only 2,486,578 bushels, against 4,378,103 last year; the high price explains exports of only 541,685 bushels, against 3,031,908 in the same weeks last year.

Pork advanced 50 cents, lard 35 cents, per 100 pounds, with justification in the injury to corn. Wheat is about 1 cent lower, western receipts being very heavy, for two weeks 10,080,418 bushels, against 5,940,581 last year, and it is claimed that Minnesota and the two Dakotas will yield 125,000,000 bushels, the second largest in their history. Atlantic exports are small, in two weeks 2,679,546 bushels wheat, against 6,376,568 last year.

Cotton had advanced 1-16 cent, without worse prospects. The value of cotton exported in July was $2,462,000, or 45 per cent less than last year, and the value of breadstuffs was $8,138,593, against $19,416,260, or 58 per cent less.

Liabilities of firms failing in the week ending Aug. 9 are a little larger than of late, $3,294,689, of which $1,041,491 were of manufacturing and $1,608,198 of trading concerns. Full returns for July show an aggregate of $11,291,305. The failures this week have been 226 in the United States, against 455 last year, and 45 in Canada, against 27 last year.

The ladies in this vicinity will appreciate the introduction of the celebrated Standard Patterns, of which we have put in a full line, and will certainly be a convenience to our numerous patrons.

After a thorough examination by ourselves, and receiving the endorsement of some of the best dry goods houses in the New England states, and particularly from several houses who formerly carried Buttericks—who now carry the Standard—we are convinced that the "Standard Patterns" are far superior to all others—in being more up to date, better modeled, simpler directions for making—insuring perfect satisfaction, a great saving in time, much less fitting to do, and allowing just enough seams, thereby considerable saving in material—there being no waste as in others every pattern is modeled to the human form, and are so nicely proportioned that it is almost impossible to produce anything (if directions are followed, and which are extremely simple) but a beautiful fitting garment.

Try one of the STANDARD PATTERNS on our recommendation and we think you will agree with us that they are better than any other pattern sold in this city.

The Standard Fashion Sheets and the beautiful Handy Catalogue are free to all.

The Ladies' Standard Magazine is issued monthly, costs but 50 cents per year and should be in every household; you will surely subscribe for it when you have examined a sample copy at our store; it is the best and cheapest Ladies' magazine in existence, single copies 5 cents.

The Standard Catalogue contains over 1000 illustrations of beautiful styles—up to date—price 20 cents.

THE NEW CHAPEL.

Extensive Additions and Improvements Being Made to

THE CONGRECATIONAL CHURCH.

The Enlargement to Cost $8000—Warren D. Higgins the Contractor.

When people go to the Congregational church Sunday they will be reminded that work on the enlargement of the chapel has commenced this week in earnest. Warren D. Higgins, the contractor, intends to rush things along as fast as possible.

The proposed addition will cost in the neighborhood of $8,000 and will be in keeping with the wants of a growing congregation.

The addition will be 37x70 feet and the elevation will be in keeping with the present edifice. In the basement there will be located three toilet rooms; a pantry 8x14 feet; a kitchen, 15x18 feet, with numerous closets; a large banquet or supper room, 35x51 feet; two class rooms, one 12x18 feet and one 11x12 feet, and a cloak room, 12x12 feet.

The main entrance to the basement will be through a large vestibule on the Chestnut street front and by a back door leading direct into the supper room. The dimensions of the vestibule are 16x16 feet, and from this a door leads to the several rooms and a broad stairway to the floor above.

There will also be another stairway leading to the upper room from the kitchen.

On the floor on a level with the present edifice, and ten feet back from the present outer wall of the auditorium will be flexible doors 28 feet wide opening into the infant class-room, so that when necessary the whole can be thrown into one large room.

Leading from the infant class-room is the ladies' parlor, which is 21x25 feet.

The small room formerly used as a class-room now will be divided and enlarged so as to make a library 8x16 feet and to class-rooms 10x16.

At the northern end of the auditorium there will be a pulpit 10x16.

There is also on this floor a large vestibule directly over that in the basement, and from this a stairway leades to the attic, where there will be another class-room 15x20 feet and a store-room 8x10 feet.

There is also a small vestibule opening from the side entrance near the LEDGER office.

Under the ceiling below several skylights are windows that light the auditorium, besides the windows on the sides. These windows are to be white rolled cathedral glass.

The interior will be finished to correspond to the present finishing of the church.

The building will be wired for electric lights and piped for gas and will be heated by steam.

The architect is James Murray of Boston.

The Dog Survived.

Yesterday afternoon about five o'clock an outward express train on the South Shore road struck a dog at Commercial street crossing, and sent it spinning up into the air.

The gate tender at Widow's Square crossing happening to be on his way home for the day at the time, saw something up in the sky right above him and thinking it was the tariff bill, stretched out his arms to clasp it in his embrace, but low and behold instead of receiving that battered and lightly esteemed measure it was a poor doggie that fell into his outstretched arms.

The poor animal was not killed by its rough usage, but it cannot stand on its legs. Just the same condition in which the tariff bill finds itself. Curious!—Braintree Observer.

Why he Was Never Elected.

The Looker-On of the Record says: Apropos the passing away of Hon. J. Q. Adams, I heard an interesting little incident of his political career the other day. It was on one of the three times he was nominated by the Democrats for the governorship away back in the early 70s, when their chances of carrying the State were about as good as they are this year. These were before the days of young men in politics, and Mr. Adams at that time presented the spectacle of considerable youth compared with the dignitaries that had always occupied the chair of state.

Conscious of this fact, he told a story on himself, when accepting the nomination. An aunt of his, he said, had remonstrated with him for assuming to run for governor declaring that he was altogether too young for the office. "I only told her," said Mr. Adams, "that there was no doubt but that I should be eligible in point of age before I was elected." He certainly was.

Blue Hill Predictions.

The comiag week promises to average cool, and frosts are likely to occur in the valleys of New Hampshire and Vermont, and possible in central Massachusetts on the 18th and again about the 23d or 24th. The temperature will probably rise slowly after the morning of the 18th and be moderately warm on the 20th to 21st, followed by cooler from the evening of the 22d to the 24th. Generally cloudy and rainy weather is probable between the evening of the 19th and morning of the 22d, and generally fair weather during the remainder of the week.—Norfolk County Gazette.

It is a fine looking, substantial affair, and was made by the Gleason & Bailey manufacturing firm of Schenectady, N. Y. If it has a fault, it is a trifle too heavy. Last night an ice cream scrape and social dance took place in Union hall, East Braintree, gotten up, as a formal dedicatory soiree, in honor of the completion of the new tower on the engine house. There was a snug, cheerful little company present. The "Alderman" acted as floor director. The heel and-toe and whirl ——and——round part, was kept up with spirit 'till the wee short hour o' the morning." The tower bore the honors of the occasion grandly.

ZEIGLER'S FEAT.

Two-Mile Championship Record Lowered by Six and Four-Fifths Seconds.

DENVER, Aug. 18.—Ten thousand spectators saw the second day's racing of the L. A. W. The sport was started by the half-mile handicap, class B. Wells of California won in 59¼s., which clips 3-5s. from all previous records.

The big race of the day was the two-mile championship. The pacemakers were Coulter, Geering and L. C. Johnson. At the one mile point Tttus of New York had the lead, with Bald of Buffalo and Zeigler of California close up. At a mile and a third the pace was so hot that the field began to string out. In the beginning of the last lap the field was scattered a quarter of a mile, and most of the riders quite exhausted L. C. Johnson was pacing, with C. M. Murphy of Brooklyn next, and Zeigler coming up fast, followed by Titus. Up the backstretch Zeigler headed Murphy and the pacemaker, and won. Bicyclists went nearly wild over the lowering of the world's record by 6 4-5s.

The five-mile handicap was won by Bird of St. Paul. Bird's time, 12:15, lowers the record 4-5s.

H. H. Maddox went against the unpaced world's record of 2:11 1-5, with flying start, and made it in 2:10 1-5.

Opinions Greatly Divided.

By a vote of 784 to 184, the Weavers' union decided to take a vacation of four weeks. By a vote of 409 to 300 the Spinners' union voted to accept the reduction under protest, and to lend every possible assistance to their brethren in New Bedford, who recently voted to strike.

Pleases The Thunderer.

LONDON, Aug. 18.—The Times approves of the acceptance of the senate tariff bill as an installment of the more liberal policy which President Cleveland desires. Shawmut Spring.

THE Shawmut Spring is located at the base of a high hill near the Metropolitan Park reservation, on land owned by the undersigned.

This water has been in constant use by workmen from all the quarries in the vicinity, as well as residents of immediate surroundings, for fifty years at least.

Workmen and other persons have come from miles away to get water from this spring, while other springs and wells are very much nearer to them, thus showing their appreciation of this water.

The water is very cold in summer, and never freezes in winter.

The location being at the base of the hill, with nothing but trees and rocks above it, no wash from cultivated fields or other polluted ground can enter it.

The unsatisfactory waters we are compelled to drink, and the earnest solicitations of friends, induce me to offer this water to the public at a normal price, trusting that its merits will sustain the reputation with patrons that it now has with those who have long known it.

This water will be furnished to all patrons in such quantities as may be desired.

Water will be delivered at Six Cents per gallon for less than five gallons. Jugs or cases of five gallons at Five Cents per gallon.

Yours truly, F. J. FULLER.

West Quincy, July, 1894.

Having made use of Shawmut Spring water in my family, I take great pleasure in recommending it to others as superior in taste and purity to any other spring water I know of.

Emperor Charles II,

accompanied by half the nobility of Austria, went to the Carlsbad Springs for the recovery of his health. Six thousand, six hundred horses, so the town records say, were necessary to convey the company to the place. The Carlsbad Sprudel Salt can be obtained at every drug store in the United States now at trifling cost. It is the best remedy for catarrh of the stomach, constipation, liver and kidney troubles, gout, rheumatism, etc. Best results are obtained when out-door exercise can be had. OUR AGED CITIZENS.

A List of the Gentlemen in Quincy Over 70 Year of Age.

VALENTINE SHIRLEY OVER 90.

Quite a Number Are Octogenarians—Many in List Still in Business.

It is quite surprising when one consults the poll list issued annually by the Assessors to find what a large number of men there are who have passed the three score and ten mark, that is allowing that the poll list is correct, and in the majority of cases it is practically so.

Of these men many are familiar faces that are seen upon the streets every day, engaged actively in business pursuits, and in fact to all appearances they are "just as young as they used to be," for the only thing that tells of declining years is the tinge of gray in the hair.

Many of these men, as given by the list below, have resided in Quincy many years if not all their lives. They have seen the little town that was once a part of old Braintree grow and prosper; have witnessed the advent of the telephone, electric lights, and electric street cars; have seen the large farms that were once the pride of the owners built upon and cut into streets.

They have also witnessed, perhaps with not a sigh of regret, the old town form of government change to a municipality, and the old Town hall, where annually each could express his opinion freely upon all subjects of town affairs, pass into the control of a small body of men, some of whom have grown from childhood within their memory.

Something characteristic might be said of each and every one of the names below but that would be an impossibility in one brief article.

The oldest person given in the poll list is Valentine Shirley who resides off Common street, West Quincy, his age being given as 90.

ALLENS COMPOUND EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA THE HONEST KIND

Receives the Highest Praise from the Best Physicians.

DR. H. F. MERRILL, the wonderful specialist of Augusta, Maine, after giving it a thorough trial in his practice, writes the following convincing letter of praise:

GENTLEMEN:—

I have of late been using some of your medicine in my practice with the most pleasing and satisfactory results. I find that it acts like a charm upon the whole nervous system, and in scrofula and all cutaneous diseases. Its curative properties are fully equal to the claims made for it, and I do not know of one instance where it has not fulfilled all its claims. In cases of General Debility and Nervous Prostration it has proved itself invaluable. It also gives quick relief in Dyspepsia and Canker of the stomach, and is a remarkable fine restorative remedy. It is a great pleasure to be able to recommend such a remedy, as the results following its use are so wonderfully satisfactory. One great thing in its favor is its freedom from superfluous alcohol, and all injurious ingredients.

DR. H. F. MERRILL.

PROF. W. H. MORSE, M. D., F. B. S. &c. of Westfield, N. J., author of "New Therapeutical Agents", the standard text book of the newer materia medica, Consulting Chemist and Therapeutist, one of the most widely known men among the medical profession gives it his highest endorsement, as testified by the following voluntary statement:

"Allen's Sarsaparilla commends itself to me therapeutically, chemically and clinically. Its therapeutical power, physilogical activity, and chemical purity, are all noteworthy; and the reason is to be found in the fact that it is true to its name, or honest, as the word goes. That is, it is vegetable alterative, and tonic. Perhaps the highest praise that may be given it is that its action represents that of mercury, less the faults of that drug; for, has not Pereira said, "A perfect mercury would be a perfect alterative."

W. H. MORSE, M. D., F. B. S. Sc.,
Westfield, N. J.

Although Allen's Sarsaparilla is such a valuable remedy it is not at all expensive, being the largest bottle on the market for $1.00. Trial bottles 50 cts.

Republicans Will Choke Off Further Tariff Legislation.

WHITE FOR FINANCE COMMITTEE.

Free Sugar Advocates Get a Tip From Harris.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—Republican senators held a caucus after the adjournment of the senate yesterday to consider the question of party action, with reference to the appointment of a member of the finance committee, and of the policy to be pursued generally with reference to the free sugar bill and other supplemental bills.

The caucus adjourned without having accomplished a great deal. Senator Aldrich brought up the question of Republican interference with the selection of a Democrat on the finance committee, when Senator Pettigrew stated that there was no need of discussing the question, as there were eight White Republicans who would not agree to it, as it would result in breaking up all party discipline in the senate. The matter was then dropped.

As to taking action on the filling of the vacancy the general feeling was that no party action was necessary.

The resolution of Senator Murphy was discussed, and it was decided that the Republicans would support, in a modified form, which would not specify tariff legislation, but would state, in view of the fact that the session was so near the end, that it is impracticable to pass any contested legislation during the remainder of the session, and that it is the duty of congress to adjourn as soon as possible.

The Republicans claim that any separate tariff bill to which there is an objection will be debated until it is defeated by lack of a quorum, and that it is useless to make any attempt to secure the passage of any of those now before the senate.

White the Choice.

The Democratic steering committee, at the suggestion of the Democratic members of the finance committee, decided yesterday to fill the vacancy on that committee. This was found necessary, if any report is to be made on the four tentative bills. It also decided to recommend that White of California should be selected. He is in favor of reporting immediately all of the bills back to the senate, and so announced to his friends.

Mr. White was named by the silver men on the committee, who said they would not agree to let any man go there who had voted against silver in the recent fight on the repeal bill; the man for that place must be, they said, a well-known silver man, and not a "gold bug." There is likely to be much contention over this question before it is ended.

Free Sugar Again.

Senator Harris, acting chairman of the senate finance committee, has informed his Democratic associates who favor free sugar that it is useless to attempt to pass that measure or any other proposition interfering with the sugar schedule in the tariff bill just passed. He further informed them that even should the existing vacancy be filled, giving the Democrats a majority, the Republicans, with the assistance of the Democrats and the Louisiana senators who are opposed to free sugar, would make it impossible to secure action on any measure relating to sugar that they might report. The Republicans could, he said, if they were so disposed, prevent the filling of the vacancy on the finance committee for several days by antagonizing the selection which the Democrats might make.

Republicans Won't Yield.

Senator Harris is right in his assertion as to the attitude of the Republicans in the pending sugar question. They are determined not to allow any action to be taken that is not in conformity with their views and ideas on this question. Several amendments have been proposed restoring the bounty, repealing the differential duty in the sugar schedule of the tariff bill, and also the repeal of the entire tariff bill.

There are several others which will be dropped if the measure comes before the senate, all of which will lead to an extended discussion. The Democratic members of the committee and their associates in the senate now fully understand this, and are satisfied that it would be impossible to accomplish anything in the direction proposed by them, if they are to remain here two months.

In the Senate.

The senate held a brief but interesting session, which was largely devoted to discussing the proposed appointment of Mr. White of California to the vacancy on the finance committee.

During the course of the debate Mr. Hill delivered a little tariff speech, and incidentally entered a plea for the calling of a caucus to consider the appointments, so that the state of New York might have some voice in a selection in which it was so vitally interested. The resolution, however, went over without action until today.

The conference report on the last of the appropriation bills—the general deficiency bill—was adopted.

Resolutions were offered and ordered to lie on the table as follows: By Mr. Murphy, declaring it to be the sense of the senate that no further legislation should be attempted at this session, and by Mr. Gray, directing the finance committee to make a prompt report on the house free sugar bill, but offering no amendment for a revenue duty and no differential duty to refiners. The house bill to repeal so much of the recently enacted tariff bill, as exempt from taxation, alcohol used in the arts and manufactures, was received and referred to the committee on finance.

THE MASSACHUSETTS PLAN

Recommended as the Proper Basis For Settling Labor Troubles.

CHICAGO, Aug. 18.—There was a dearth of witnesses at the session of the national labor commission yesterday. In vain the clerk called out half a dozen names or more of persons who had promised to be present. Not one responded.

A. M. Goodwin, a director of the American Railway union, was the first to testify yesterday. He thought in a "co-operative commonwealth" lay the solution of all the troubles of labor. He meant by this, he said, a government by the people only. He claimed that the government as now conducted was one for the corporations only.

He was succeeded by Professor Bemis, professor of social economy in the University of Chicago. He did not believe in compulsory arbitration. He cited the Massachusetts law, which provides for a state court of three men, which shall arbitrate labor difficulties.

Professor Bemis stated that this board had been very successful in settling labor differences. The only times when the board had failed were cases where the one side or the other had refused to arbitrate. In this event, the board had a right to make an inquiry, publish the result broadcast and lay the blame where it belonged. The board does not have the right, as Professor Bemis thought it should have, of inquiring into the employers' profits.

"As to railroads, I believe it is necessary to keep them running, as they are public institutions. At the same time, it will be necessary to give both sides fair play. I think the time is coming when the experiment of government ownership will be tried."

Several men who took part in the recent strike testified that they had been black-listed therefor, and had been refused work by various corporations on that account.

RECRUITING DEPOTS ABOLISHED

Raw Recruits Will Hereafter Be Trained With Veterans In the Service.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—The three great army recruiting depots at Davis island, New York harbor; Columbus, O., and Jefferson Barracks, Mo., were yesterday wiped out by the war department, and in their places will stand three large military posts.

The department has had this change under consideration for some time past, the scheme originating with Adjutant General Ruggles. Heretofore the men picked up at the small recruiting stations scattered about the country have been sent in small squads in charge of a sergeant to these three central recruiting depots, where they were quartered and drilled until they were ready for assignment to some regiment in active service.

The department has concluded that these green recruits will become proficient soldiers much sooner if sent immediately to join and train with the veterans at the different posts, and that is why the change is made. The transformation of the recruiting depots into army posts will also be in line with the accepted policy of concentrating a good force of regulars at places near the great cities.

In place of about 150 recruits, each of the new posts will have a permanent garrison of about 300 men, and in the case of two of them at least, the rank of the commanding officer will be raised from lieutenant colonel to full colonel. Little expense is involved in the change.

PATENTS

NOTICE TO INVENTORS.

THERE Was never a time in the history of our country when the demand for inventions and improvements in the arts and sciences generally was so great as now. The conveniences of man-kind in the factory and work-shop, the household, on the farm, and in official life, require continual accession to the appurtances and implements of each in order to save labor, time and expense. The political change in the administration of government does not affect the progress of the American inventor, who, being on the alert, and ready to perceive the existing deficiences, does not permit the affairs of government to deter him from quickly conceiving the remedy to overcome existing discrepancies. Too great care cannot be exercised in choosing a competent and skilful attorney to prepare and prosecute an application for patent. Valuable interests have been lost and destroyed in innumerable instances by the employment of incompetent counsel, and especially is this advice applicable to those who adopt the "No patent, no pay" system. Inventors who intrust their business to this class of attorneys do so at imminent risk, as the breadth and strength of the patent is never considered in view of a quick endeavor to get an allowance and obtain the fee then due. THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY, John Wedderburn, General Manager, 618 F street, N. W. Washington, D. PATENTS

FOR INVENTIONS.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuable inventions because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With the view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys, and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, we have retained counsel expert in patent practice, and therefore are prepared to

Obtain Patents in the United States and all Foreign Countries, Conduct Interferences, Make Special Examinations, Prosecute Rejected Cases, Register Trade-Marks and Copyrights, Render Opinions as to Scope and Validity of Patents, Prosecute and Defend Infringement Suits, Etc., Etc.

If you have an invention on hand send a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be at once advised as to the best course to pursue. Models are seldom necessary. If others are infringing on your rights, or if you are charged with infringement by others, submit the matter to us for a reliable OPINION before acting on the matter.

FIGURES BY CANNON

Showing Appropriations Made at This Session of Congress.

PENSION FIGURES CUT DOWN.

Increase In Salaries of Our Representatives Abroad.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—Representative Joseph G. Cannon of Illinois, the senior Republican member of the appropriations committee of the house, and who was chairman of the appropriations committee during the Fifty first or "Reed" congress, has prepared a statement which he will submit to the house, setting forth a comparison from his standpoint of the appropriations of the present and the Fifty-first congress. It is captioned "Pension Appropriations Reduced $39,999,504. Total of Other Appropriations Increased."

JOSEPH G. CANNON.

Mr. Cannon says: "Mr. Cleveland, by his estimates, asked congress to appropriate for the public service for the coming fiscal year, including permanent appropriations, $520,662,840, and congress has appropriated for such service $490,668,369. This in round numbers is $30,000,000 less than the president asked for the public service. A large part of this $30,000,000, however, will be appropriated next winter by way of deficiencies.

"A comparative statement of appropriations made at this congress for the fiscal year ending June 30 next, with appropriations made at the first and second sessions of the last congress (the Fifty-second congress), and at the first and second session of the Fifty-first, commonly known as the "Reed" congress, shows, and such is the fact, that the appropriations this year are greater by $27,269,859 than were those made by the first session of the Fifty-first, or "Reed" congress.

Pension Appropriations.

"The statement also shows that the appropriations made this year are $28,835,989 less than those made at the second session of the last, or Fifty-second congress. This reduction is covered by the item for pensions alone. There was appropriated this year for pensions $29,000,504 less than was appropriated last year.

"It will be noticed, therefore, that the appropriations this year, excepting pensions, are greater than the appropriations made last year by $263,515. The total appropriations for the Fifty-first, or "Reed" congress, two years, were $888,417,183; those for the Fifty-second, or last congress, two years, were $1,027,104,547."

Mr. Cannon then read the statement issued by the treasury department on July 2, giving the expenditures and receipts of the government for the past year and those of the previous year. Mr. Cannon's statement then continued:

Postal Figures Left Out.

"This statement does not include the postal receipts or expenditures therefrom, and as they balance each other, it is not material to state them here. It shows the receipts of the United States for the 12 months ending June 30, 1894, to have been $88,859,392 less than the receipts for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1893.

"This statement shows also that the expenditures for the 12 months ending June 30, 1894, were $16,884,595 less than for the 12 months ending June 30, 1893; but this same statement shows that the payment for pensions made for the year ending June 30, 1894, were $18,180,272 less than they were for the year ending June 30, 1893.

"In other words, exclusive of pensions, President Cleveland, for his first full fiscal year, expended $1,295,677 more to carry on the government than was expended in the final fiscal year under President Harrison.

"There have been many increases in the salaries of Democratic officials, and especially in the diplomatic and consular service. The salary of the first assistant secretary of state is increased from $3500 to $4500. The minister to Belgium is increased from $7500 to $10,000. The ministers to Switzerland and Portugal, Messrs. Caruth and Broadhead, are increased from $5000 to $6500, respectively.

"The minister to Mexico, who receives an annual salary of $17,500, has the salary of his secretary of legation increased from $1800 to $2250. The ministers to Nicaragua and Costa Rica for the first time are allowed secretaries of legation at $1800 each, while the bureau of American republics is cut down from $30,000 to $10,000; the six auditors of the treasury department are increased from $3000 to $4000 each."

Dr. Freire Steps Out.

RIO JANEIRO, Aug. 20.—Dr. Freire, minister of finance, has resigned. The office will be filled ad interim by Senhor Do Nascimento, minister of foreign affairs.

A Long Distance Contest.

MUNICH, Aug. 20.—J. Fischer, on a bicycle, and Cody, an American, on horseback, rode seven hours a day for three days Fischer covered 160 miles and Cody 130.

Four Months' Vacation Ended.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Aug. 20.—The coke ovens near Blairsville, employing 300 men, have resumed business, after a four months' idleness caused by the strike.

FOUGHT A MADMAN.

Mrs. Hewitt's Awful Battle With Her Husband, Crazed by Sickness.

KEARNEY, N. J., Aug. 20.—Thomas Hewitt made an attempt yesterday to kill his wife and four children. He wounded them all, but not fatally, and then sprang from a window and ended his life.

He was suffering from typhoid malaria. Early yesterday morning he entered the room where his wife and children were lying. He had a sharp knife with which he gashed his throat. Mrs. Hewitt was awakened by her husband's exclamation when he drew the knife across his neck. She screamed at the sight he presented and sprang toward him. He raised the knife and exclaimed: "Julia, our time has come!"

With this he pushed the woman aside and sprang to the bed. He made a vicious lunge at the eldest child, a boy of 7 years, with the knife. He appears to have been so excited he could not see, for the knife buried itself in the bedding beneath the child and another two years younger. He drew it out and struck again and again at the children, but they had been awakened by a scream from the mother, and he inflicted no serious injury, although all of the four were more or less cut.

Mrs. Hewitt threw herself between the insane husband and the children. In endeavoring to catch his arm she received a bad stab wound in the arm. The point of the knife entered the flesh near the elbow on the inside of the arm and penetrated the bone. The downward stroke of the knife continued, and tore the arm from the elbow to the wrist.

Hewitt then sprang through the window, carrying the sash and wire netting with him. He landed on his head and fractured his skull, dying an hour later.

Wanted In a Murder Case.

NEWBURYPORT, Mass., Aug 20.—Josiah L. Johnson, one of the parties wanted on suspicion of being implicated in the murder and burglary at Merrimac, is in custody at the Newburyport jail. Johnson refuses to have much to say, but claims to be innocent of the grave charge laid at his door. He claims that he was unaware that the police were after him until he saw it printed in the newspapers Saturday afternoon. He says he was about Haverhill all day Saturday and that he made no effort to elude the officers.

BEDFORD, N. H., Aug. 20.—Frank Little, the alleged principal in the murder of Edward Crosby of Merrimac, Mass., Friday night, was captured here last night at the home of his brother. He acknowledged being in Haverhill Friday night, but claims he can prove an alibi. He will go to Massachusetts without requisition papers.

A Female Impostor.

HARTFORD, Aug. 20.—The Hartford police arrested early this morning a woman who is said to have been working Springfield, Mass. Her method was to secure the names of Yale men in the different cities, call at some offices and inquire for a graduate she knew was not there. She claimed to be a personal friend of that person, and then told the old tale of having lost her pocketbook, and being in a strange city, with no friends and without money. She has been quite successful in duping a number of business people. She gave the name of Mrs. Wallace Robbins.

Spinners to Be Assessed.

BOSTON, Aug. 20.—The executive committee of the National Spinners' union met here yesterday to discuss the strike situation at New Bedford. It was the sentiment that the action of New Bedford spinners in striking was just, as was also the action of the Fall River spinners in voting to accept a reduction and support them. It was voted to assess all spinners in the country 50 cents a week for three weeks, and at the end of that time, if a settlement was not reached, to call a convention of mule spinners in Boston.

Rifled a Dead Body.

LUFKIN, Tex., Aug. 20.—While an engine on the State road was running to a scaling camp near here, the engineer observed a pile of ties across the track. He reversed his engine and all on board jumped. Among the party was Dr. Dreweny, who was shot dead by a masked man. Holding the other men off with a pistol, he robbed the body of the doctor. The robbers evidently thought they were wrecking the pay car which was to pay off at the mines.

A Providence Sensation.

PROVIDENCE, Aug. 20.—Francisco Lanni made an assault on Frederick Stotte in the Italian colony last night, knifing him seriously. When the police went to arrest Lanni, his friends seized the officers and locked them in a room, releasing Lanni. An hour later the police were released, a detail having been sent from the station to see why they had not returned. Lanni and the leader of the gang, Dominico Mastrangelo, were subsequently arrested.

Now For a Fight!

SIOUX CITY, Ia., Aug. 20.—The Sioux City Athletic club has received a telegram from Manager Brady saying Corbett accepts the offer of the club of a purse of $25,000 to fight Peter Jackson here. The offer was at once telegraphed Jackson in New York, guaranteeing training expenses. Members of the club expect no interference, and think that the fight will be pulled off in Sioux City.

Corpse Rode on the Pilot.

NEW LONDON, Conn., Aug. 20.—Thomas Hart, a printer, was killed by an owl train a mile from here. He had worked in New London last week and was walking to Providence. The engineer did not see the man struck, and the body was thrown on the platform over the pilot, and remained unnoticed until the engine backed into the roundhouse.

One Man Badly Burned.

SALEM, Mass., Aug. 20.—The repair shop of the Boston and Maine road here was totally destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon. The loss will be in the vicinity of $35,000. During the fire Assistant Foreman Spinney was badly burned. All the wires to Portland and many of the local lines of the road were destroyed.

Servants Were Careless.

LISBON, Aug. 20.—The negligence of servants in leaving a lighted brazier unattended caused a fire to start in the palace occupied by the Dowager Queen Maria Pia at Cintra. Three men were seriously injured. The building sustained considerable damage, but its costly contents were saved.

DOWNRIGHT MURDER.

French Naval Officer Tells of the Sinking of the Kow Shing.

JAPAN WILL EVENTUALLY SUFFER

For the Merciless Slaughter of Helpless Captives.

VICTORIA, B. C., Aug. 20.—A letter received in this city from M. G. Lefan, one of the officers of the French cruiser Lyon, serving for some time past on the China station, contains an interesting account of the story and incidents of the Japanese war which had but fairly opened when it was dispatched. The Lyon was the only neutral witness of the sinking of the British steamer Kow Shing. The latter incident of the campaign, M. Lefan referred to at some length in his letter. He says:

"I do not think much of the Japanese or Chinese as sea fighters. It seems a shame to give good ships and modern arms to such a set of cowardly butchers. Take the Kow Shing affair. It was nothing but cold-blooded murder. The Naniwa overhauled the Kow Shing and two smaller craft, the Naio and Tooman, just outside of Shopa island, early in the morning of July 25. The Kow Shing was flying her British colors and so was the Tooman. The Japanese gunboat dropped her anchors when she reached signalling distance, and we did the same.

"Two boats were lowered from the Naniwa, and her officers spent several hours on the Kow Shing, sending the boats back and forth in the meantime. We were anxiously awaiting developments, but did not expect to see powder burned as much on account of the defenceless condition of the Kow Shing as owing to her flying the English colors. Of course we knew as well as the Naniwa that she had Chinese troops on board.

Captive Was Helpless.

"Finally the boats returned to the Naniwa, and the Kow Shing went to the lee of the island and anchored there by order of the Japanese, as we afterwards learned. The next we knew, two hours later, the trading steamer was under steam and the Naniwa was standing out of the open sea, cleared for action. There was not even half or a quarter of a mile between the two; nevertheless, the big cruiser tried some of her heaviest metal on the captive. Then she got her torpedoes working, and in a few minutes the floating wreckage was all that was left of the steamer.

"We lowered our boats, picking up 23 men who were swimming. The Japanese were shooting the swimmers in the water with rifles and gatling guns when we came up, but suspended firing and lowered boats, too, though we did not see them pick any one up. They said that the transport was trying to escape. The Englishmen we picked up told us she was merely shifting anchorage, so as to be safe from wreck at the turn of the tide, and that she was not so foolish as to try to get away.

The Loss of the Naio.

"The saddest part of the affair is that in the excitement the Naio disappeared. Whether she, too, went under or escaped, we do not yet know. The Tooman stood by to rescue the drowning Chinese from the Kow Shing, although she was herself badly crippled. This drew on her the firing from the Naniwa and a torpedo quickly settled her.

"The skipper of the Tooman, I think, was an Englishman or an American, so I have been told. Whatever conntry he belonged to it should be proud of him. He faced the music with not a chance in a hundred, stood by the Chinese as long as they floated and died game.

"It was nothing but wholesale murder, and if Japan does not suffer in the long run it will not be because she does not deserve to."

By Way of China.

LONDON, Aug. 20.—A special dispatch from Shanghai says that instead of a large Chinese army, only a small force was routed at Yashan by the Japanese. The remainder of the army has, It is said, gone north to join the northern forces. Skirmishes are reported to have taken place at Ping Yang.

The Chinese government has prohibited the exportation of horses. Horses are regarded as contraband of war. Urgent orders have been sent from the northern to the southern arsenals for powder and other munitions. Recruiting for the army is progressing actively.

The Japanese have fortified the passes leading from China into Corea, and have established elaborate defenses at Seoul, the capital.

One hundred and sixty thousand men have been mobolized by Japan, and the reserves have been called upon for service in Corea.

Sickness prevails in both the Chinese and Japanese armies.

China has accepted the offer of Lui-Yung-Fi, the celebrated ex-chief of the Black Flags in Tonquin, who is now a naval commodore at Canton, to reorganize the Black Flags to fight against Japan.

ALBANY, Aug. 20.—Frederick Gerike, aged 50, hanged himself yesterday in his garret. His wife says the cause of his suicide was bantering from friends who twitted him of intimacy with a Greenbush woman.

The ladies in this vicinity will appreciate the introduction of the celebrated Standard Patterns, of which we have put in a full line, and will certainly be a convenience to our numerous patrons.

After a thorough examination by ourselves, and receiving the endorsement of some of the best dry goods houses in the New England states, and particularly from several houses who formerly carried Buttericks—who now carry the Standard—we are convinced that the "Standard Patterns" are far superior to all others—in being more up to date, better modeled, simpler directions for making—insuring perfect satisfaction, a great saving in time, much less fitting to do, and allowing just enough seams, thereby considerable saving in material—there being no waste as in others every pattern is modeled to the human form, and are so nicely proportioned that it is almost impossible to produce anything (if directions are followed, and which are extremely simple) but a beautiful fitting garment.

Try one of the STANDARD PATTERNS on our recommendation and we think you will agree with us that they are better than any other pattern sold in this city.

The Standard Fashion Sheets and the beautiful Handy Catalogue are free to all.

The Ladies' Standard Magazine is issued monthly, costs but 50 cents per year and should be in every household; you will surely subscribe for it when you have examined a sample copy at our store; it is the best and cheapest Ladies' magazine in existence, single copies 5 cents.

Perhaps you don't know what Guaiacol is, but you know something of creosote as a remedy for indigestion and other diseases. Well, is a refined form of creosote, and is made from the resin of beech trees. It stimulates a languid appetite as the air of the woods does. As long as they can and will eat, consumptives can fight their disease. That is why Guaiacol is combined with ozone, a very active form of oxygen, in Slocum's Ozonized Norwegian Cod Liver Oil.

Guaiacol

ANOTHER RESIGNATION.

City Treasurer Adams Feels Compelled to Give Up Treasury Portfolio.

Bryant N. Adams, the efficient City Treasurer almost from the time of the incorporation of the city, has tendered his resignation to take effect Sept. 1. Mr. Adams has been greatly overworked and recovery from his illness will be slow. He was Tax Collector under the town government and a few months after the formation of the city government in 1889, upon the resignation of Mr. Horace B. Spear, also assumed the position of City Treasurer.

Mayor Hodges informed the LEDGER today that his successor had not been officially appointed. It is current rumor that Mr. Clarence Burgin will be the next City Treasurer.

This is the 103d year of the history of Quincy and there have been but eighteen Treasurers. Mr. Horace B. Spear, late cashier of the Mount Wollaston Bank, had the honor of filling the position of Treasurer more years than any of his predecessors, 17 years. Wyman Abercombie was custodian of the funds for 16 years, and Noah Curtis for 13 years, and the others for shorter periods. No incumbent ever died in office, and only three have resigned the office, viz: Moses Black, Horace B. Spear and Bryant N. Adams.

Funeral of D. B. Stetson.

The funeral of the veteran shoe dealer, Mr. David B. Stetson, took place Sunday afternoon from his late residence on Washington street. Rev. Edward Norton, pastor of the Congregational church, was away on his vacation, but came to officiate at the services of Mr. Stetson, who was a very constant attendant at his church. A quartette from the church choir rendered selections, and the church, relatives and friends contributed flowers. The interment was at Mt. Wollaston cemetery.

Mr. Faxon's Gift.

The Prohibition newspaper in New York, the Voice in a recent issue said in reply to a query by a correspondent, that it was Mr. Henry H. Faxon of Quincy, who gave that $1000 to the Prohibition campaign fund in 1892, about which so much was said at that time, when it was generally surmised that it came from the treasury of the Democratic State Committee.

The statement seems to be made upon authority, and though in recent days it has been suspected that Henry did it, it has until now been a matter altogether of conjecture—Journal.

Commissioner W. B. Rice.

Mr. Rice is a mugwump, with all that the word implies. He has taken the stump sometimes for the Democrats, but is decidedly independent. A characteristic remark he made was:—"I don't know anything good about myself, I don't want to say anything bad, so I usually keep still."—Record.

Says S. C. Weeks of Melrose, Mass.: "I had been troubled with chronic diarrhoea for over a year when I received a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which I used and it gave me great relief. I then procured a fifty-cent bottle and took about two-thirds of it, and was cured. I have taken some twice since when I had a looseness come on and it stopped it at once. I hope it will help others as it helped me. I feel very thankful to Mr. Stearns, the druggist, for telling me of this remedy and shall be glad to have this letter published."

'RAH FOR QUINCYS.

They Win While the Institutes of Weymou'h Lose

IN THE OLD COLONY LEAGUE.

Institutes Lead of 17 Per Cent. Reduced to 9 Per Cent.

The Quincys have kept right on winning lately, waiting a little impatiently to get at the Institutes or for other clubs to do them up. It took the tailenders of Randolph to show the Weymouthites how to play ball Saturday, and their victory, coupled with the Quincy's victory, reduces considerably the lead of the Institutes, and the Quincys may yet win that pennant.

The standing up to date is:

	Played.	Won.	Lost.	Per Cent.
Institutes,	14	12	2	86
Quincys,	13	10	3	77
Holbrooks,	15	8	7	53

Braintrees,	14	3	11	21

FIVE TO THREE.

A Great Game at Merry Mount Park. Won by Home Club.

The Whitmans and Quincys played their second game of ball for the championship in the Old Colony league series at Merry Mount Park Saturday, which resulted in a victory for the home team by a score of 5 to 3.

The Quincys presented the "star" battery of the league, Connors and Burrell, who were touched up for only four scattering hits, while the visitors had Clements as catcher and Seeds, formerly of Brockton, as pitcher. Seeds seemed to pitch as well as ever he did. He had plenty of speed and control of the ball at the start, but, put the ball where he would, they would be caught and sent in every direction in the first two innings, after which he settled down to business.

The Quincys made four runs and six hits with a total eight in the first two innings.

Connor's backing was first-class.

Norton at second base did some very beautiful work, as did Gilrain at shortstop, Faircloth at first and Pitts at third base.

The batting of Faircloth and Burrell was very fine, also the catching of Burrell.

The Whitmans as a whole put up a very fine game, especially Jimmy Hayes at third base and Cook at short-stop.

The umpiring of Hanley was the finest the Quincys have seen, especially on balls and strikes.

Attendance about 900. The summary:

Earned runs: Quincys, 3; Whitmans, 1. Two-base hits: H. Faircloth, Burrell, Cook. Three-base hit: French. Passed balls: Clements, 1. Hit by pitched ball: Poole, Furguson. Time: 2 hrs. Umpire: Hawley.

Randolphs, 6; Institutes, 3.

It was a great game at Weymouth Saturday, and a great victory for the Randolphs. It was the second defeat for the Institutes in the series, and they do not relish the tune 6 to 3.

Hot Grounders.

But fifteen hits have been made off Connor in the last 4 games.

Young Duffy judges a ball in great style and returns it to the infield like a professional. He also hits well meeting the ball good and hard.

Burrell has hit safely in every game, making 25 hits in 13 games, including 2 home runs, 3 triples and 7 two baggers.

Faircloth is hitting the ball hard and with a little more practice on ground balls would be the finest first baseman in the league.

Pitts was cheated out of a fine three base hit by the crowd pushing on the diamond so that the umpire could not tell where the ball struck.

Only $22 was collected out of an audience of nearly 1000. It seems if the people knew that the club had to pay the visiting team $35 and the umpire $5 and expenses, to say nothing of incidentals, that they would be more liberal.

Three New England league players were against the Quincys Saturday, Hayes, Seeds and Fitzgerald.

The Quincys now have a good chance to beat out the Institutes for the championship.

Gilrain and Norton both put up a fine game Saturday.

RAID AT HAYDENVILLE.

Liquor Found at Two Places—Loring Hayden Arrested for Assault.

Officers from Randolph, Braintree and Quincy, made one of their raids upon Haydenville Saturday night, and as usual were successful. The illegal dispensers of the ardent in this village live close to the line between Braintree and Randolph, and when Randolph officers appear in sight the stuff is carried across the line. To prevent this, search warrants are secured for both towns. Saturday night the officers visited the premises of Edward Carter and Theodore Hayden at Braintree, and I. Willie Hayden at Randolph.

At Carter's eight gallons of beer were seized; at I. Willie Hayden's a quantity of empty bottles, and nothing at Theodore Hayden's.

While at I. Willie Hayden's, Loring Hayden made an assault on Officer Knight but came out second best and was placed under arrest.

THE THIRD RACE.

Commodore Fairbanks' Boats Win First in Two of the Three Classes.

The Royal Yacht Club of Wollaston held its third race of the season on Frog pond, Wollaston, on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock before a large crowd of spectators.

The wind wistled across the top of Third Hill, kicking up a lively cross sea causing the hardy skippers to douse their topsails and house their topmasts. It was well that they did for the wind was so puffy that more than one of the crafts would have stuck its mast into the water and turned its toes up, so to speak. But baring the dipping of a boom now and then nothing exciting occurred.

A few minutes before the judges fired the gun to start the first class there was the usual jockeying to secure good positions near the line.

The Wasp and Duchess crossed the line together followed by the Hornet, when the first class started, but the Wasp at once took the lead and held it through the race.

Skipper Fairbanks is a second Capt. Haff on handling yachts.

When the gun was fired for the second class the Rival, Swan and Firefly bunched and crossed together, but Fairbanks' boat showed the way over the course in this class.

In the third class, the Undine crossed the line first, closely followed by the Duchy, which took the lead and held it to the finish.

The summary:

FIRST CLASS.

Name and Owner.	Corrected Time.
Wasp, H. M. Fairbanks,	31 seconds.
Hornet, A. M. King,	44 "
Duchess, Fred Jacobs,	40 "

SECOND CLASS.

Rival, H. M. Fairbanks,	40 seconds.
Swan, Leon Nash,	45 "
Firefly, Ed. Prince,	40 "

THIRD CLASS.

Duchy, A. M. King,	46 seconds.
Undine, Algie Burchstead,	52 "

The officers of the Royal Yacht club are as follows:

Commodore,—Harry M. Fairbanks.
Vice Commodore,—Carrol E. Bates.
Secretary and Treasurer.—Albert M. King.
Measurer,—Edward Brown.
Fleet Captain.—Leon Nash.
Regatta Committee,—Algie Burchstead and Fred Jacobs.

MISHAP TO BEATRICE.

And the Harbinger Won the Commodores' Cup at Winthrop.

Capt. Cavanagh's Beatrice and Capt. Daly's Harbinger were the only contestants Saturday for the Commodores' cup, off Winthrop. Each had won a leg and the race was therefore to decide the ownership of the costly and beautiful trophy.

The wind at the start was from the southwest by south, strong and puffy, and there was a good sea on. The Harbinger had a single reef tied down, while the Beatrice carried jibmainsail and jibtopsail. On the reach out to the first mark, the Beatrice gained about 20 seconds but soon after rounding, one of the puffs proved too much for her and her topmast snapped, causing her withdrawal. The Harbinger finished the course and was awarded the cup.

It is probable that a series of matches will be arranged, as the Beatrice is not satisfied, and will undoubtedly challenge.

Twelve to Eight.

The St. Marys of Quincy defeated the St. Mary's Young Men's Catholic Association club of Boston Saturday by a score of 12 to 8. Galvin distinguished himself in right field and at the bat. The score:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
St. Marys,	0	1	2	1	2	1	3	2		—12
St. Mary's,	0	2	3	1	0	0	0	0	2	—8

Earned runs—St. Marys, Quincy, 3; St. Mary's Y. M. C. A., 1. Struck out—by Laurandea, 5; by Spellman, 1. Two-base hits—Galvin, Laurandeau. Time—2 hours, 30 minutes. Umpire—Mr. Davoran.

He was baptised yesterday after 10 o'clock mass in the presence of a large number by Rev. Francis A. Friguglietti at the church of St. Frances-by-the-Sea. Mrs. Morey is in good physical health, with clear intellect and enjoyment of all her faculties. She keeps to her bed considerably, being a large women, but can get up and go about the house as she desires. With her present health she appears likely to overgo the century mark several years.

Observant doctors have been taking measurements of the height of women in France, England and America, and announce that the English woman is the tallest and the American next.

☞ It was an old Westerner that remarked: "There's just as much difference in some things as there is in others." It was an open hearted expression, but full of meaning—even in furniture warerooms, the expression bears wonderous weight. Some, scarcely worth the name—others, filled with delightful household suggestions, bright, attractive, durable and modest priced—that's ours. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

RRAINERD HIGH MAN.

And His Team Won Saturday at the Wollaston Shoot.

The high wind of Saturday afternoon interfered seriously with the Wollaston Trap Club's score. Owing to this cause the average shooting was low, it being 9.7.

Brainerd was high man. He broke 17 blue rocks.

Mr. Olney picked up the fore-stock of a gun which the owner can have by applying to him.

Sanborn's team defeated Keating's 78 to 71.

McETTRICK AS A REGULAR.

Congressional Nomination Said to Have Been Promised Him.

Republicans who were looking for a widening of the breach in the Democratic ranks in this Congressional district will probably smother their boom if the following report of the Journal is verified. It says:

"There is a good deal of gossip over the Democratic nomination for Congress in the Tenth district this fall in the last few days.

"Very likely it was started by the interview with Mr. McEttrick published exclusively in the Journal some days ago, in which he said that he had been promised the regular nomination, or clearly conveyed that impression.

"Since that time there has been a regular buzzing about the ears of the local Democratic chiefs, and the friends of ex-Senator McNary, who was defeated two years ago as a regular by Mr. McEttrick, have been very anxious to know if the statement of Mr. McEttrick is to be taken as an indication of machine intentions. If so, they think it will be a bad day for Democratic discipline, and a notice to men who fail in the caucus and convention that an Independent candidacy may be as successful as a regular one, and not in the least endanger party standing.

"It is taken for granted in some quarters that the machine is going to yield something to Mr. McEttrick rather than endanger the success of the party in the city election, and because there is a general Democratic feeling that there are no seats in the next Congress which can safely be thrown away or jeopardized.

'RAH FOR QUINCY.

The Quincys' postponed games will be played as follows:

Sept. 8, Whitmans at Whitman; Sept. 15, Institutes at Quincy; Sept. 22, Whitmans at Whitman.

Aug. 25th is the date the Quincys go to Weymouth Landing to do the Institutes. Connors and Burrell will be batters for the Quincys. As this is the game of the season a fine contest may be expected.

The Quincys played a great game considering the fact that Slade and Ford were out of the team.

In Duffy at centrefield the Quincys have one of the best fielders as well as batters in the league.

The Whitmans used young Hart very mean by getting him to Quincy expecting to pitch, and then putting in Seed, a New England League player.

Angels Unaware.

If we could dream when still and sad beside us
Our loved ones sit through silent summer eves,
Of days when blessedness will be denied us,
And life be as a wan, weak wind that grieves,
What tender speech would give them joy of living,
As winds wild roses that the dews forsake,
And into what sweet paeans of thanksgiving
The harps of solitary souls would break!

If we could hear above the mounds where roses
Lie like small vales with violets inlaid,
Above the shadows of the Parian crosses
A little stir by seraph pinions made,
How swiftly would the olden, wine red flushes
Leap to our lips, where no red flush has been Since in the saddest of September hushes
We touched warm hearts that held no pulse within!

We know not till the summer time is over,
And something sweet is missing from the air,
How our large lives were wedded to the clover
And to the buds that brightened everywhere;
And, oh, we know not till from off our bosoms,
Fainting, we miss a flow of fragrant hair,
How silently amid the summer blossoms
God's angels walked beside us unaware!

—Hester A. Benedict.

Forgiveness.

My heart was heavy, for its trust had been Abused, its kindness answered with foul wrong
So turning gloomily from my fellow men
One summer Sabbath day I strolled among
The green mounds of the village burial place,
Where, pondering how all human love and hate
Find one sad level, and how soon or late
Wronged and wrongdoer, each with meekened face
And cold hands folded over a still heart,
Pass the green threshold of our common grave,
Whither all footsteps tend, whence none depart,
Awed for myself and pitying my race,
Our common sorrow, like a mighty wave,
Swept all my pride away, and tremblingly I forgave.

—Whittier.

WANT TO GO HOME.

Senators Waiting For Cleveland's Action on the Tariff.

HOUSE IS READY TO ADJOURN.

No More Work To Be Done at This Session.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—The final action of the president on the tariff bill is the only thing that stands between the senate and final adjournment.

It is the general opinion that with the bill passed upon by the chief executive, adjournment could be arranged within a day's time. The last of the appropriation bills received the final consideration of the senate during the past week, and even without the passing of the Murphy resolution, there would not have been much probability of any general legislation, owing to the likelihood of there being no quorum.

The last rollcall Saturday discovered only 45 senators, two more than a quorum, in the chamber, and the highest number of the day was 54. Several have left since. It is probable, therefore, that the daily sessions from this time forward will be brief, and that only bills to which there is no opposition from any senator or over which there is no contest will be taken up.

The Democratic managers hope to have the bill repealing the provision in the tariff bill exempting alcohol used in the arts and in the manufacture of medicinal preparations included in the list. There appears a likelihood of opposition on the Republican side, and, if there should be, this bill must necessarily go over until the next session. The Democratic members of the finance committee also hope to report the supplemental tariff bills during the week, but do not expect action on them. Probably considerable time will be spent in executive session in confirming nominations to which no one objects.

The House of Representatives is now ready to adjourn. Its work has been completed; it is only awaiting the action of the senate and the president. It is probable that it will adjourn from day to day until congress adjourns.

It may be, however, that the time will be partly occupied by giving days to the several committees of the house to consider such business as they care to bring before the house, but this question has not been decided.

Speaker Crisp is at Old Point Comfort, and Mr. Outhwaite, one of the other members of the committee on rules, is out of the city, and no program will be arranged until they return. Today, under the rules, is suspension day, as are also the last six days of the session, but as a resolution for adjournment will not be passed until the president acts on the tariff bill, the rule with reference to suspension days will not go into effect until the date of adjournment has been fixed by both houses.

SEEKING RE-ADMISSION.

Brotherhood Men Are Sorry They Joined the American Railway Union.

CHICAGO, Aug. 20.—A conference was held here yesterday by representatives of the railroad brotherhoods for the discussion of matters affecting the old organizations, as a result of the work of the American Railway union during the recent strike. An agreement was reached to endeavor to secure the reinstatement of hundreds of members of the order who joined the A. R. U., and having since repented of their course, are applying for membership in their old lodges.

Mr. Wilkinson of the Brotherhood of Trainmen said after the conference that many of the men were out of positions since the strike, and had applied for readmission to the brotherhoods, confessing that they had been swept away by the excitement attending the strike and profuse promises of the leaders of the American Railway union, and they now had no jobs, and the American Railway union was in no financial position to give them support.

"The trainmen lost several lodges by defection to the A. R. U.," he said, "and applications are being made for a renewal of the charters of all of them. We agreed to take the men back and will do all in our power to have the railroads lift the boycott against them, for we are assured that the men will not again desert their lodges under similar circumstances."

"The Order of Railway Telegraphers," said Mr. Powell, grand chief of that organization, "was fortunate in the defection of but few of its members. We lost but two lodges, one at Helena and the other at Ripon."

The officials of the orders left Chicago last night to effect the reorganization of the lodges and will make personal appeals to the various roads to reinstate their men. As the brotherhoods stood firm against the strikers, the officials believe they will get repentant members back to their places.

WOLVERTON CUP WITHDRAWN.

London Times Makes Some Pertinent Inquiries Concerning the Vigilant.

LONDON, Aug. 20.—The Times says that Captain Haff telegraphed from Southampton to Mr. Gould at Cowes, stating that he discovered that the yacht's centerboard had not been displaced from its fastenings and lost, but that it had been jammed in the "trunk," in which it is raised and lowered.

The Times adds that some further explanation of the affair seems to be required when all the circumstances are taken into consideration. It may be further said that members of the sailing committee were anxious to learn how the accident had occurred. They telegraphed to Captain Draper, the pilot of the Vigilant, to come to the Royal Yacht squadron's quarters, but no notice had been taken of the dispatch.

Lord Wolverton has withdrawn the cup he offered to the winning yacht and has decided to send it to the Royal Dorset club to be raced for by first class yachts at Weymouth on Friday.

The Sportsman today, commenting upon the yacht fiasco of Saturday, says that it disappointed hundreds of people who traveled to the Isle of Wight on what turned out to be a fool's errand. The paper adds that the Vigilant seemed to an ordinary spectator to sail as well after the loss of her centreboard as she did before.

Battle In the Congo.

NOTICE TO INVENTORS.

THERE Was never a time in the history of our country when the demand for inventions and improvements in the arts and sciences generally was so great as now. The conveniences of man-kind in the factory and work-shop, the household, on the farm, and in official life, require continual accession to the appurtances and implements of each in order to save labor, time and expense. The political change in the administration of government does not affect the progress of the American inventor, who, being on the alert, and ready to perceive the existing deficiences, does not permit the affairs of government to deter him from quickly conceiving the remedy to overcome existing discrepancies. Too great care cannot be exercised in choosing a competent and skilful attorney to prepare and prosecute an application for patent. Valuable interests have been lost and destroyed in innumerable instances by the employment of incompetent counsel, and especially is this advice applicable to those who adopt the "No patent, no pay" system. Inventors who intrust their business to this class of attorneys do so at imminent risk, as the breadth and strength of the patent is never considered in view of a quick endeavor to get an allowance and obtain the fee then due. THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY, John Wedderburn, General Manager, 618 F street, N. W., Washington, D. C., representing a large number of important daily and weekly papers, as well as general periodicals of the country, was instituted to protect its patrons from the unsafe methods heretofore employed in this line of business. The said Company is prepared to take charge of all patent business entrusted to it for reasonable fees, and prepares and prosecutes applications generally, including mechanical inventions, design patents, trade marks, labels, copyrights, interferences, infringements, validity reports, and gives especial attention to rejected cases. PATENTS

FOR INVENTIONS.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuable inventions because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With the view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys, and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, we have retained counsel expert in patent practice, and therefore are prepared to

Obtain Patents in the United States and all Foreign Countries, Conduct Interferences, Make Special Examinations, Prosecute Rejected Cases, Register Trade-Marks and Copyrights, Render Opinions as to Scope and Validity of Patents, Prosecute and Defend Infringement Suits, Etc., Etc.

If you have an invention on hand send a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be at once advised as to the best course to pursue. Models are seldom necessary. If others are infringing on your rights, or if you are charged with infringement by others, submit the matter to us for a reliable OPINION before acting on the matter.

The ladies in this vicinity will appreciate the introduction of the celebrated Standard Patterns, of which we have put in a full line, and will certainly be a convenience to our numerous patrons.

After a thorough examination by ourselves, and receiving the endorsement of some of the best dry goods houses in the New England states, and particularly from several houses who formerly carried Butchericks—who now carry the Standard—we are convinced that the "Standard Patterns" are far superior to all others—in being more up to date, better modeled, simpler directions for making—insuring perfect satisfaction, a great saving in time, much less fitting to do, and allowing just enough seams, thereby considerable saving in material—there being no waste as in others every pattern is modeled to the human form, and are so nicely proportioned that it is almost impossible to produce anything (if directions are followed, and which are extremely simple) but a beautiful fitting garment.

Try one of the STANDARD PATTERNS on our recommendation and we think you will agree with us that they are better than any other pattern sold in this city.

The Standard Fashion Sheets and the beautiful Handy Catalogue are free to all.

The Ladies' Standard Magazine is issued monthly, costs but 50 cents per year and should be in every household; you will surely subscribe for it when you have examined a sample copy at our store; it is the best and cheapest Ladies' magazine in existence, single copies 5 cents.

TENSION IS STRONG.

Neither Side In New Bedford Strike Is Disposed to Yield.

FALL RIVER YARN SPINNERS

Claim That Employers Contemplate Another Cut.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Aug. 21.—The labor troubles here involve the largest cotton manufacturing establishments, with an investment of $11,400,000. There are 1,042,000 spindles and 15,250 looms involved. Six of the factories are cloth mills and seven are yarn mills.

The battle against a reduction in wages is in force with all the vigor and persistency which characterize the efforts of organized labor. There was a brightening of the situation yesterday by the announcement that the strikers would return to work in at least three of the 28 mills. Aside from this, the outlook for settlement is not at all promising.

The temper of both sides is at its highest pitch and neither is willing nor ready to make concessions. There is some talk of arbitration, and while there appears to be much to arbitrate, both manufacturer and employe are waiting for somebody to take the initiative.

How long the strike will last depends largely upon the condition of the market. The demand for goods holds the key to the situation.

A National Affair.

There is considerable importance attached to the New Bedford strike. In fact it is a national affair, and upon the result of the battle depends the uniformity of the wage system in the textile industry of the country.

The mill owners realize this fact also, for, according to the agreement, New Bedford and Fall River were selected as the places for an entering wedge.

Secretary Ross says it will be a long fight. The mill owners say likewise, but underneath this latter assertion there is a certain feeling of local pride which may any day terminate the labor storm which is raging furiously in this city.

There was some disturbance yesterday at two of the mills, but not serious. The police force is held in readiness to protect life and property, but no trouble is feared so long as the arrival of non-union help is delayed.

Everybody, including business men, the press, the clergy, even to the youngest mill operative, hope for the end.

AT FALL RIVER.

Spinners Think That Manufacturers Are Breaking Their Agreements.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Aug. 21. — The following data shows the extent of the cotton industry involved in the Fall River troubles:

Capital invested, $23,650,000; spindles, 2,546,500; looms, 60,000; employes, 25,920; weekly pay rolls, $172,675; cotton consumed weekly, 6000 bales; production, 720,000 yards of cloth per annum.

The executive committee of the spinners' association held a special meeting last night. The spinners in the yarn mills, in particular, feel that the manufacturers are not keeping faith with them. The spinners in these mills understood that no change was to be made in their wages till the outcome of the spinners' strike in New Bedford was known. Now it is proposed to reduce them, though not the full 10 per cent.

Discussions at the meeting were loud and long, and a strong sentiment was shown in favor of striking. Delegations appeared from the Granite and Hargraves No. 2 mills, where the piecers have refused to work under the reduction. At the Granite mill they will receive $5.85 a week and at Hargraves $5.65. Efforts will be made to have piecers' wages raised. If competent weavers cannot be secured, spinners will be allowed to go out.

A delegation from the Shove mill represented that the doffers had gone out, and the spinners' action in refusing to do boys work was endorsed. Border City spinners are not satisfied with their conditions, as the corporation is piling up yarn. Sanford Spinning company spinners complain that they were assured that there would be no cutdown. They were notified yesterday that wages would be cut from $12.28 to $11.50. Similar cuts are expected at the Globe Yarn mills, which are under the same management.

Treasurer Chase of the King Philip mill is reported to have promised to keep his spinners' wages at the rate paid in New Bedford. Now they complain that he proposes to cut. The spinners suspect that there is an understanding among the yarn manufacturers to cut to a rate equal to the wages to be paid by New Bedford mills that made concessions yesterday.

A special general meeting was voted for next Monday night. It was the opinion of the committee that the action accepting the reduction will be reconsidered at the meeting Monday night. The vote will then be on the question of strike.

Wampanoag and Stafford mills shut down yesterday, and Flint, Sagamore, Weetamoe and several others are expected to close.

Signs of Foul Play.

ROCKAWAY BEACH, L. I., Aug. 21.—Two fishermen who live on the beach eight miles from here found the body of an unknown man floating in the water yesterday. There were two bullet holes in the head, which, it is said, could not have been self-inflicted.

Fire Still Burning.

VIENNA, Aug. 21.—The fire that broke out in the warehouse on the water front of Fiume on Aug. 13 has not yet been quenched, although 10,000 tons of water are thrown upon the burning mass hourly.

TITLES A FACTOR.

Miss Florence Pullman to Give Her Hand and Heart to a Prince.

LONDON, Aug. 21.—The engagement is announced of Miss Florence Pullman, a daughter of George M. Pullman, to Prince Charles of Isenburg-Birstein, eldest son of Arch-Duchess Marie Louise of Austria, and a cousin of the Emperor of Austria.

Miss Pullman's father only consented to his daughter's engagement to the prince on condition that her children shall possess the full rights of succession to the title, dignities and hereditary privileges of the house of Isenburg-Birstein.

According to the Austrian law, however, the magnates of the house of Isenburg-Birstein must, by formal document, recognize the equality of Mr. Pullman's grandchildren with their own descendants. If Miss Pullman could obtain the title of princess from some foreign court this difficulty would be overcome.

The Crosby Tragedy.

AMESBURY, Mass., Aug. 21.—The alleged murderers of Edwin Crosby were brought here last night, Little from Manchester, N. H., and Hunt from Haverhill. Both pleaded not guilty. The cases were continued until Aug. 25. They were taken to Newburyport jail this morning. Fred Crosby, brother of the murdered man, was thrown from a team at Merrimac yesterday afternoon and seriously injured. Little and Hunt still maintain their innocence.

Sisters In Public Schools.

EBENSBURG, Pa., Aug. 21.—In the suit brought to prevent the employment of Catholic sisters wearing their religious garb as teachers in public schools, Judge Barker decides that sisters may be employed as teachers; that they may be attired in the garb of their order, and that they may be addressed by pupils by their religious names, but refuses to allow the Catholic catechism taught. The costs were divided.

Should Be Run to Earth.

CHICAGO, Aug. 21.—Inspector Conway has secured a chestful of the peculiar machines used by the gang of incendiary conspirators in this city. He has also secured a chest containing anarchist literature. The machines lend color to the theory of a plot for wholesale destruction of property and probably of life.

Cassella Not Guilty.

BOSTON, Aug. 21. — Guy Cassella was found not guilty of manslaughter in causing the death of Max Lewis, a 4-year-old boy, on the Common July 4. Cassella was one of many who discharged revolvers at random in celebrating the day, and it was not clearly proven that he was the one who fired the fatal shot.

SENT TO CALENDAR.

The Free List Bills Out of the Way Till December.

ERROR IN ALCOHOL SCHEDULE

All That May Be Considered at This Session.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—The Democrats having filled the vacancy in the finance committee, yesterday, reported all the tentative bills, including sugar, with amendments. In the latter article the differential duty is eliminated, and is amended so as to provide a duty of 40 per cent flat on all sugars.

The finance committee did not report back any of the amendments, and several senators who had previously given notice of amendments reserved them.

The free coal bill was reported back amended so as to provide for reciprocal free coal.

The iron ore bill was reported back without amendment.

The barbed wire fencing bill was amended so as to make barbed wire free, the house making free only the material from which it was made.

The finance committee decided to report these bills yesterday by a strict party vote, Mr. White (Dem., Cal.) acting with the committee for the first time. The bills were sent to the calendar, where they can only be called up by a majority vote and where they will remain until the December session. All the Republican members of the committee voted against them.

The radical reformers, like Mills, Vilas and Gray, are not disposed to allow the tariff agitation to cease, notwithstanding the house has accepted the senate bill. They propose to keep it up and carry it into the coming fall campaign.

It is quite certain that the question of free sugar will reappear, and it is not improbable that in some form or other it may win. The opponents of the Sugar trust in the senate seem determined to push that issue and get up a revolt against the gigantic trust, to which they attribute most of their failure to secure a satisfactory tariff reform measure.

No Further Legislation.

The Republicans say there will be no more business of importance transacted in the senate this session, except, perhaps, the passage of the bill correcting the alcohol schedule.

The Republican leaders say this session is over, to all intents and purposes, and they include in this the making of speeches as well as the passing of bills.

From the time the senate met yesterday until it went into executive session, Senator Lindsay of Kentucky was ready to make a speech. The Kentucky senator desires to defend the action of the senate finance committee and the Democratic senators who supported them. It is also understood that Senator Allison of Iowa was ready to make a speech of some length on the part of the status of tariff legislation.

It is possible that both of these speeches will be made by the courtesy of the senate, although the Republicans said that no speeches would be made, and that the interdict against any more business included also speeches. Some of the Democrats asserted, however, that if any attempt is made to prevent the speeches on the Democratic side, that a quorum of the senate will be recalled under duress and by the sergeant-at-arms.

Senators Going Home.

On the Republican side it is claimed that the tariff debate, as well as tariff legislation, is closed. This may lead to some ugly feeling if insisted upon. If Senator Lindsay should get the floor he could not be interrupted by points of no quorum, as he could not be taken off the floor without his consent, but whenever the attempt is made to call up the resolution upon which he is to speak the point can be made, and the present indications are that when the senate meets again there will not be a quorum present, as a number of senators intend leaving at once.

Senator Harris has given notice that immediately after the reading of the journal tomorrow he will move an executive session. This is in the interest of Judge Porter of Tennessee, whom he desires to have confirmed. If there is objection in the executive session sufficient to cause the point of no quorum to be made, it will result in carrying the nomination over until after adjournment. There seems, though, to be a quasi understanding that there shall be a confirmation or rejection without regard to the presence of a quorum upon the vote which may be cast.

Nothing Doing.

The session of the house lasted less than an hour. A few unimportant bills were passed by unanimous consent. The house managers have decided not to permit any more legislation, save by unanimous consent, and the regular program from now until the final adjournment will probably be the consideration only of such minor bills as encounter no objection.

Editorial Comment.

THE HERALD has long been an admirer of Josiah Quincy, and there is considerable truth in its editorial on his resignation, but it is a little amusing to read that when his party won, it was one thing, and when it lost, quite another. Nevertheless "there's no doubt Mr. Josiah Quincy has earned a brief season of rest and repose." The editorial reads:

"Mr. Quincy has resigned the chairmanship of the Democratic state committee, and the party managers will have a good deal of difficulty in finding a successor who can fully take his place. The gap that his retirement makes is too wide to be easily filled. He is a born organizer; a bold and dexterous strategist, and an untirable worker. Strong both on the stump and in the council chamber, he makes a very broad mark in a political campaign. A leader endowed with his qualifications is not to be met with every day, nor every year, for that matter.

"Mr. Quincy won something like a national reputation in political circles by the ability with which he conducted the state campaign of 1892. The election of a Democratic Governor of Massachusetts in a presidential year was regarded as a miracle of politics, and though Gov. Russell's boundless popularity was recognized as the main factor in that marvellous victory, Mr. Quincy deservedly obtained a great deal of credit for his share in the notable achievement. His prestige was somewhat impaired by the defeat which the Democrats suffered at the state election last year. But the blame for that disaster does not at all attach to him. He did his best under very untoward conditions, and failed only because it was a contest where failure was inevitable."

The Journal views it different. Speaking of the resignation it says:

"This is generally taken as meaning that he does not care again to wage a helpless fight against the people of the Commonwealth, who are not just now bubbling over with any great enthusiasm for the Democratic party, or with zeal to see it perpetuated here or in the National Congress.

"Some of his friends say that this also means that Mr. Quincy is definitely in the fight for the Mayoralty, and that he does not wish to lower his prestige by another State campaign in which his leadership is ineffectual to avert the righteous verdict of an indignant people."

IS ALL the hereditary talent in the old Bay State to be found in Quincy? We are ready to believe it so, and the Herald is prompted to say:

"Hereditary talent fares favorably in public life. There are the Adamses and Quincys and Everetts of our state. The Dodges, father and son, were once in the United States Senate together from the West. The Bayards in successive generations have held office in Delaware off and on for about a hundred years. The Tuckers of Virginia are now represented by a second generation in the national House of Representatives. We have just heard of a son of Congressman Culberson of Texas being nominated for Governor at home. A very important succession in this way is the son of Abraham Lincoln, who has not only been in the cabinet and a foreign minister, but as regards whom his friends will not apparently be satisfied till they have at least made him a candidate for the presidency."

ABOUT THE time Quincy became a city Attleboro considered a city form of government but finally divided, and behold North Attleboro announces a tax rate of $24 this year. The town had a population of 6,727 in 1890, and the two towns together had 14,304. It will be seen that Quincy is much better off for the course it took, the average tax rate being below what it was as a town.

SALEM'S TOTAL gain in valuation, as reported by the Assessors of 1894, was but $126,844.

New Drunk Law Discounted.

The sight of Officer Ferguson had the effect of transforming a drunken man almost instantly into an apparently sober man this morning. The fellow came out in the train due here at 10.33 and was so drunk that he had to be taken off the train.

Officer Ferguson was signaled for and as he approached the man saw him, and like a flash a change went over him and he walked down the depot yard and Hancock street as straight as a man would who had not taken a drop for a month. The sight of the officer must have thoroughly frightened him. If the sight of this officer will perform such miracles as this he could make money by going into the business.

THE ORDER PASSED

Making a Further Appropriation of $30,000 for

EXTENSION OF WATER MAINS.

The City Council Also Adopts Resolutions on Death of John Quincy Adams.

Ward One was without a representative on the floor at the meeting of the City Council Monday evening. There were 17 present, the absentees being Councilmen Adams, Babcock, Holden, Holbrook, Litchfield and Snow.

The principal discussion of the evening was on the order making an additional appropriation for extension of water mains which is reported at length below.

Appropriation Gone.

Auditor Hall informed the Council by communication that the appropriation for miscellaneous fire expenses was exhausted. To Committee on Finance.

An Invitation.

A communication from Paul Revere post, G. A. R., extended an invitation to attend the 25th anniversary, Monday evening, Sept. 3. The clerk was instructed to acknowledge the same with thanks.

Several applications for licenses and State aid were referred.

John Quincy Adams.

The special committee instructed to frame resolutions on the death of Hon. John Quincy Adams reported as follows:

WHEREAS,—It is proper that the City Government of Quincy should pay fitting tribute to the memory of Hon. John Quincy Adams, whom death has so recently and suddenly removed from our midst.

Resolved,—That we desire to place upon record our appreciation of the distinguished ability of our late fellow townsman, manifested not only in our municipal and educational affairs, but in the larger field of statesmanship, finance and of corporate management, in which his wise guidance and sterling counsel were always of potent weight.

Characterized by unusual directness of speech and purpose, his unbending and inflexible integrity commanded the respect and admiration of all with whom he came in contact, while his administration for many years of the duties of Moderator of our town meetings, at great personal sacrifice, revealed executive and parliamentary ability of the highest order.

Mr. Adams' memory will always be cherished tenderly by the many of humble means in the community, to whom his counsel was gratuitously proffered, as well as by those fortunate enough to be associated with him in the management of fiduciary and corporate interests in Quincy and the country at large.

Resolved,—That this tribute of respect be spread upon the records of the Council, and a copy thereof, suitably engrossed, be transmitted by the Clerk to the family of the deceased.

The resolutions were adopted by a unanimous rising vote.

Reports.

The Committee on State Aid recommended $6 per week on petition of F. C. Soule. Adopted.

The order to lay out Buckley street was passed to be ordained; also the order for transfers in the fire department.

Water Order.

The order appropriating $30,000 for extension of water mains came up for passage.

Councilman Moxon was sorry so many were absent. He was convinced that it was legal to make the appropriation under the act of 1891, but considered that the Council did not have information enough to warrant the appropriation. In a general way the Council doubtless was in favor of extensions, but the request of the Water Commissioners should be more specific as to needs, revenue, etc., and the Council should know whether the supply will stand a further drain. Council should insist on having some proof. It should know the principal extension contemplated. He knew some of the extensions recently made would not pay.

Councilman Anderson coincided. The Water Commissioners had not furnished all the information asked. The Council had a right to expect more, and with present information he could not vote for order.

Councilman Johnson thought Councilman Moxon must have received additional information since his committee made the favorable report. He was surprised to see any objection. It was unreasonable to ask streets where it was proposed to make extensions. Recently $50,000 was placed at the disposal of the Park Commissioners for playgrounds without knowing where they would be located. Now was the time of year to make extension, and our citizens needed work very much. There was no claim that the Water Commissioners had not expended appropriations judiciously.

Councilman Moxon said business should be done in a business like way, and taxpayers demand it. Quite a sum had already been appropriated.

Councilman Federhen asked why committee had not got the information it wanted when Water Commissioners were before them.

Councilman Moxon replied that they got all they could.

Councilman Federhen suggested that as Chairman Whitman was present that Councilman Moxon ask for such information as he wanted.

Councilman Moxon said he was not prepared to ask categorical questions, but he

LOCATE A FACTORY.

Opportunities For a Town Which Should Be Embraced.

The present is the age of organization and concentration. Financial and trade depression has just now stilled many wheels and rendered ample time to manufacturers generally in which to take account of stock. This stock taking of 1894 is upon an entirely different basis than that upon which ordinary annual inventories are taken. It follows a time when banks by concerted action universally refused to refund the money which had been deposited with them; when the largest and richest corporations employing labor paid the weekly wages in paper promises; when the ordinary manufacturer, dependent in a measure upon borrowed capital, was forced to liquidate to his very last cent and suffer usurious rates upon what he could not pay; when 20 per cent of the population of most towns and half the population of many towns were absolutely without work and, alas, too often penniless.

Depressed values, curtailed consumption and precarious credit were the conditions which confronted every business man as he footed his ledger at the beginning of the year and contemplated his plans for the future. The circumstances which compel all sorts and classes of men to adjust their finances to a severely economical or practically hardpan basis must necessarily cause many business changes and changes of location in the commercial world. Manufacturers who have heretofore suffered the loss of a small percentage by reason of a lack of railroad or power or other facilities will naturally cast about for a place where this percentage can be saved.

The minimum cost will enter more largely into the problem of production for the next few years than ever before, and the town or city which is most alive to its own interests and importance will be most benefited by the changes that occur. It is incumbent upon business men everywhere to organize and act together for the betterment of the several commercial interests which they represent. A board of trade is a necessary adjunct to the welfare of every community. Its objects should be primarily to foster present industries, develop local resources, publish practical information, solicit and encourage immigration, investment and the establishment of new manufactories and to secure to the town and incidentally to its members the benefit of co-operation in the furtherance of legitimate projects. Its work is coextensive with the particular interests of the city in which it is located. It should have a salutary effect upon municipal affairs if needs required it and be at once the recognized factor capable of building, sustaining and insuring to perpetuity the best interests of all the people.

THE ORDER PASSED.

thought the Commissioners should give information as to the principal extensions proposed.

Chairman Whitman considered that the appropriation was asked for specific work, for extension of mains. The same as the appropriation for general repairs of highways. It was not easy to state just where it was proposed to make extensions, but there was a general demand, and many places where it would not from six to ten per cent. Then the city had considerable pipe on hand which should be laid that it would return interest. The citizens also should have work. He questioned if the Council could act intelligently on the petitions now before the board. He courted questions for information desired.

Councilman Anderson thought Water Commissioners could give some general plan.

Chairman Whitman said the appropriation was desired largely for short extensions in different parts of the city.

Councilman Johnson knew that there was urgent demand for employment. Thought many of the Councilmen did not realize it. If streets were named a difference of opinion would immediately arise.

Chairman Whitman said the Council might insert any special streets and make order more specific.

Councilman Moxon still protested against voting blindly, but would vote for the order this time, hoping the Commissioners would be more specific in future.

Councilman Johnson thought committee to blame for not having properly considered the question.

Councilman O'Brien of the committee thought Commissioners had given committee many of the proposed streets.

Councilman Anderson would waived further information at this time but considered it a bad precedent.

Councilman Lennon asked if Water Commissioners contemplated extension on Centre street.

Mr. Whitman did not know of any petition for Centre street.

Councilman Lennon called attention to the five dead ends on Centre street, and said people refused to connect because thereof.

Mr. Whitman said it would be a very proper thing to abolish the dead ends.

Councilman Moxon considered that there were many unexpended appropriations which would give work to the unemployed.

Councilman Anderson cited Fuller's lane and Walker street extensions.

Commissioner Cavanagh said it was not a question of giving work but of supplying water. He had given committee some of the proposed extensions. He believed supply sufficient for all citizens at present in city. It cost considerable to open up dead ends occasionally and it would be a saving to abolish them. The order making the appropriation passed 16 to 1, viz:

YEAS—Anderson, Baker, Bass, Bigelow, Clark, Federhen, Johnson, Lamb, Lennon, Mc Keon, Moxon, O'Brien, Robbins, Rooney, Shackley and Sullivan—16.
NAY—Waterhouse—1.
ABSENT—Adams, Babcock, Holden, Holbrook, Litchfield and Snow—6.

New Orders.

Councilman Johnson offered an order requesting the Commissioner of Public Works to locate a gas light on Edwards street, opposite the risidence of Herbert Rogers. Read once.

Councilman Johnson moved that the Council request of the Committee on Streets, the petitions of the Electric Light and Power Co., for locations of poles on Phipps and River streets. Passed.

The same Councilman then offered an order granting the same, which took its first reading.

Councilman Moxon moved that the petition for a school house at Norfolk Downs be taken from the table and referred to the School Committee. Passed.

Councilman Moxon moved the suspension of Rule 1. Then he moved that when the Council adjourn it be until Sept. 10. Voted.

The order transferring $200 to the appropriation for State Aid was advanced another stage.

Adjourned at 9 o'clock.

—The legislative lawyers and the lobbyists were well paid this year. J. Otis Wardwell took in $17,100 during the session; R. A. Southworth, $11,750; and ex-Governor Long, $10,500; while one of the lobbyists, F. J. Ladd, took in $6,950 while the legislature sat. Having "influence" with statesmen evidently pays.

—Ernest H. Pierce, editor and proprietor of the Revere Journal, has bought the Chelsea Evening Record and will manage both papers. With his experience, energy and will, we doubt not that he will make it a successful business.

Says S. C. Weeks of Melrose, Mass.: "I had been troubled with chronic diarrhoea for over a year when I received a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which I used and it gave me great relief. I then procured a fifty-cent bottle and took about two-thirds of it, and was cured. I have taken some twice since when I had a looseness come on and it stopped it at once. I hope it will help others as it helped me. I feel very thankful to Mr. Stearns, the druggist, for telling me of this remedy and shall be glad to have this letter published."

THE LISTENER.

Senator John Sherman has kept all his letters since he was 15 years old.

Senator Gorman has been elected a director and treasurer of the Columbia and Maryland railroad.

Mirabeau L. Towns of Brooklyn recently presented his client's case in a local court exclusively in rhyme.

John Hunt of Providence, who died a short time ago at the age of 70, had not spoken to his wife for 20 years and did not even repent on his deathbed.

Mr. Labouchere carries his radicalism so far as to refrain from giving the readers of his paper any information of the birth of an heir to the throne.

Professor Henry Drummond, the now famous Christian philosopher, while a student, traveled with Moody and Sankey on their evangelical tour of Great Britain.

John W. Mackay is seldom seen in New York. He is beyond 60 years of age, but has a color that many a schoolgirl might envy. In the morning he goes through a prescribed system of athletics.

Fergy Malone, the once famous baseball catcher, has been reported dead, but erroneously so. He is and has been for several years a special inspector in the United States customs department in Philadelphia.

Thomas J. Jackson, who died recently and who was believed to be the richest man in Webster county, Ky., arranged his business matters so that persons indebted to him will have until five years after his death to make settlement.

Joseph Pulitzer has presented to the city of Paris a bronze group, 12 feet high, reproducing Bartholdi's work, portraying the founders of American independence (Washington and Lafayette), which was exhibited in the salon of 1892.

Senator Palmer of Illinois is in his seventy-eighth year, and no one in the whole body of senators is more active or well preserved than he. He is sturdy and robust of frame and voice and invariably walks to the capitol when the weather is fine.

General John Tyler, son of the tenth president of the United States and his private secretary, is living in humble circumstances, a sufferer from paralysis, in Washington. He is supported by a nephew who has a position in the treasury department.

Senator Butler is handsome in a high bred way and is immaculately well dressed. His tailor is an artist. His shoemaker and hatter are men of the finest discernment. His snow white shirt front is like a toboggan slide for unwrinkled smoothness.

The late President Carnot of France, according to French papers, was never baptized. He belonged, it is said, to the Theophilanthropists, founded by La Revilliere-Lepaux. Among the original members of the sect was Lazare Carnot, grandfather of the president.

John I. Blair made the first few dollars of his fortune of $20,000,000 by trapping muskrats and rabbits and selling their skins. He became a clerk in a country store at the age of 10, and at 17 he had a store of his own, with a cash capital of $500 and a good commercial reputation.

OBSERVATIONS.

It takes lots of money to make poverty decorative.

Pessimism and optimism are only other names for temperament.

The truest humor keeps along a line drawn from the center of gravity.

A sarcastic woman is not allowed to choose whether she will be loved or feared.

Generosity of soul is more important than that of purse, but it will never be as popular.

Nature conspires with the courageous. As soon as one is wet through the sun comes out.

Lovers are eloquent, but conversation does not seem to be a domestic accomplishment.

Hearts are like apples. They fall when they are ripe and get picked up by the first comer.

That development of a genius is interesting to everybody but those who assist in the process.

The worst thing about an astigmatism—physical or moral—is that one does not know one has it.

It is the woman of independent fortune who is horrified that her sex should marry for a maintenance.

We grow more humane as we grow older. Whereas once we kicked the neighbor's dog openly, we now poison him on the sly.—Kate Field's Washington.

THAT BABY'S NAME.

And so the York infant is christened Edward Albert Christian George Andrew Patrick David. And he still lives.—Boston Herald.

The York baby has been so named as to propitiate several nations, but it is noticed that "Jonathan" was not among the string conferred on the helpless infant.—Baltimore American.

There is some speculation as to which of his various names the new royal baby will be known by among his familiars after awhile. Possibly Eddie or Al, but certainly not Patsy.—Philadelphia Ledger.

The new York baby may never become the king of England, but he has already attained to a great name. It was given to him the other day and takes up over a line and a half of ordinary type.—Boston Globe.

The infant son of the Duke of York has been christened, and will have to bear through life the burden of the name of Edward Albert Christian George Andrew Patrick David. This is one of the disadvantages of royalty, and the worst of it is that there is no royal exemption from teething or the measles.—Providence Journal.

LABOUCHERE'S CYNICISMS.

A woman only gives her second kiss. Her first must be stolen from her.

A woman who casts down her eyes is generally looking for some one at her feet.

When a woman discovers her first gray hair, she becomes far more amiable to her sweetheart.

Do not dispute about woman's rights. It is a woman's privilege to have all the rights of man.

If a woman has many faults, console yourself with the reflection that she might have a good many more.

However many compliments you may pay a woman, she will think you have not said as much as you might have done.

The ways of reaching a woman's heart have been known from time immemorial, and yet how difficult it is to find the right one!—London Truth.

THE BREAKING OF RECORDS.

What Science Can Do in This Line When She Tries Hard.

Steamship captains, horse owners, bicycle riders, and a lot of other people, are making strenuous and untiring efforts to "break the record." The great public looks on at the game with good-natured interest.

Once in a while sober science does a little record-smashing on her own account. One of her latest and great achievements is the discovery and application of a process for artificially digesting food so that it is absorbed immediately by the system, without imposing the least labor on a weak stomach. This food is called Paskola. It restores the debilitated, and gives fat to the thin because it is starchy. Only starches add real, solid lasting flesh to the body. "Oils and fats don't and never will.

Mr. H. O. Mayhood, of Emlenton, Venango Co., Pa., says: "I was so weak and run down that I thought I would have to give up my business. I could not eat nor sleep. After one bottle of Paskola I began to gain at once and I have gained over 15 pounds in less than three weeks and I now feel like a new man."

No wonder.

Mrs. S. C. Stonch, of Wellington and Dauphin Sts., Philadelphia, writes: "I have been sick nearly three years, at times suffering terrible burning pains in my back and then cold in the lower part of the bowels. Sometimes I thought I should die. All this time I was constipated. When I first began taking Paskola I was tempted to give it up, thinking it would do me no good, because I had taken so much medicine. I feel Paskola beginning to do me good, and today I took a longer walk than I have been able to take for three years. I am much stronger. I am taking my fifth bottle of Paskola, and I eat almost everything now. I am 56 years old, and was always active, having worked hard."

Paskola may be bought of any reputable druggist. An interesting pamphlet on food and digestion will be mailed free, on application to make the statement that Sarsaparillas containing Iodide of Potassium are unsafe to use, excepting under the supervision of an experienced physician, and that their continued use tend to impoverish instead of purifying the blood. Also that in many cases they act as a DIRECT POISON, and cause serious trouble, defeating the object for which they are taken.

ALL THE LEADING SARSAPARILLAS were analyzed and found to contain this poisonous chemical in various quantities, EXCEPTING ALLEN'S, which was found entirely free from Iodide of Potassium or other chemicals, and to be purely vegetable, thereby verifying our claim that it is the "HONEST KIND."

This is an unprejudiced statement made by the most scientific body of men in New England as A WARNING TO THE PUBLIC against the use of dangerous and injurious medicines, ALLEN'S is the HONEST KIND, the safe kind, and the kind that CONQUERS DISEASE.

PATENTS

NOTICE TO INVENTORS.

THERE Was never a time in the history of our country when the demand for inventions and improvements in the arts and sciences generally was so great as now. The conveniences of man-kind in the factory and work-shop, the household, on the farm, and in official life, require continual accessions to the appurtances and implements of each in order to save labor, time and expense. The political change in the administration of government does not affect the progress of the American inventor, who, being on the alert, and ready to perceive the existing deficiences, does not permit the affairs of government to deter him from quickly conceiving the remedy to overcome existing discrepancies. Too great care cannot be exercised in choosing a competent and skilful attorney to prepare and prosecute an application for patent. Valuable interests have been lost and destroyed in innumerable instances by the employment of incompetent counsel, and especially is this advice applicable to those who adopt the "No patent, no pay" system. Inventors who intrust their business to this class of attorneys do so at imminent risk, as the breadth and strength of the patent is never considered in view of a quick endeavor to get an allowance and obtain the fee then due. THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY, John Wedderburn, General Manager, 618 F street, N. W., Washington, D. C., representing a large number of important daily and weekly papers, as well as general periodicals of the country, was instituted to protect its patrons from the unsafe methods heretofore employed in this line of business. The said Company is prepared to take charge of all patent business entrusted to it for reasonable fees, and prepares and prosecutes applications generally, including mechanical inventions, design patents, trade marks, labels, copyrights, interferences, infringements, validity reports, and gives especial attention to rejected cases. It is also prepared to enter into competition with any firm in securing foreign patents.

Via Solitaria.

Alone I walk the peopled city
Where each seems happy with his own.
O friends, I ask not for your pity—
I walk alone.

No more for me yon lake rejoices,
Though moved by loving airs of June.
O birds, your sweet and piping voices
Are out of tune.

In vain for me the elm tree arches
Its plumes in many a feathery spray;
In vain the evening's starry marches
And sunlit day.

In vain your beauty, summer flowers,
Ye cannot greet these cordial eyes.
They gaze on other fields than ours—
On other skies.

The gold is rifled from the coffer;
The blade is stolen from the sheath;
Life has but one more boon to offer,
And that is—death.

Yet well I know the voice of duty,
And therefore life and health must crave,
Though she who gave the world its beauty
Is in her grave.

I live, O lost one, for the living
Who drew their earliest life from thee
And wait until, with glad thanksgiving,
I shall be free.

For life to me is as a station
Wherein apart a traveler stands—
One absent long from home and nation
In other lands.

And I, as he who stands and listens
Amid the twilight's chill and gloom
To hear approaching in the distance
The train for home.

For death shall bring another mating
Beyond the shadows of the tomb.
On yonder shore a bride is waiting
Until I come.

In yonder field are children playing,
And there—oh, vision of delight!—
I see the child and mother straying
In robes of white.

Thou, then, the longing heart that breakest,
Stealing the treasures one by one,
I'll call thee blessed when thou makest
The parted—one. —Longfellow.

WEATHER AND CROPS

Rain Still Needed In Many Portions of New England.

APPLES MAKE A GOOD SHOWING.

A Decided Improvement In Crops In Connecticut.

BOSTON, Aug. 21.—The New England Weather Service has issued the following weather-crop bulletin for the week ending Aug. 20, 1894:

On the afternoon of the 20th a thunder shower passed over eastern Massachusetts, which gave a heavy downpour of rain at Boston. At the weather bureau office, there was registered nearly one-half inch of rain in five minutes; 1.48 inches in 30 minutes; 1.66 inches in one hour, and 2.10 inches in four hours. This storm was very local, apparently, as at Concord, Mass., 20 miles to the northwest, only .01 was recorded. It has been estimated that $10,000 damage was done by the rain in cellars in Boston alone.

Prospects Brightening.

The weather for the week was generally favorable in Maine, with moderate temperature and occasional showers of rain. Except in places where the oat leaves have been affected by the rust the grain crop is pronounced heavy; it is lodged badly on some fields. The second crop of grass is starting well and will be good; there is an excellent catch of grass seed.

There is no report of rot in the potatoes yet, but rust is being seen. One correspondent in Aroostook county says that the rust is quite prevalent, but if it gains no faster than it did last week, most of the potatoes will have 10 days more to grow in. Apples are falling badly, but the blossom was so heavy, it is considered that there are plenty on most trees.

"Rain or Ruin."

There is still a great want of rain in central and southern New Hampshire. Many correspondents say they have had no good soaking rain this summer; showers have come, but the rainfall has been local and has furnished temporary relief only, without filling up the ground. Consequently, during a short period without rain, everything suffers. Wells and springs are drying, and feed is extremely short.

This is particularly true in southern Grafton and most of Sullivan, Merrimack, Cheshire and Hillsboro counties. One correspondent in Hillsboro county says, "Rain or ruin." Spring-seeded fields are being ruined, and the summer seeding is being delayed. Berries are scarce in this section, and apples are falling badly and making slow growth. Grain is mostly a fair crop, and corn is doing well, except on the driest land. No rot or rust to do injury to the potatoes has been reported yet in this state, except by one correspondent in Coos county, who states that "potatoes are rusting badly, but promise more than an average yield."

Good Potato Weather.

Cool nights and warm days have been the rule in Vermont, and have been favorable to potatoes, although this crop is rusting to a considerable extent. The rust is not evenly spread, and the potatoes are so far advanced that no great injury is anticipated. Frost has appeared on one or two nights, but not enough to do any damage.

Wheat is rusting badly in Orleans county, and some farmers say the crop will be an entire failure. Oats are looking well in the northern counties. Threshing is going on in the south, and the yield is very variable, ranging from less than 25 to 36 bushels to the acre; it is said that the latest sown oats are proving the best. Corn is doing well, and apples make a good showing. Rain is needed in most sections.

Ground Is Very Dry.

The conditions remain much the same in Massachusetts. Except where the few local showers have occurred rain is still badly needed. Pastures are dry, and fall grain promises exceptionally poor. Apples hang on pretty well, and a fair crop is indicated in most sections where not injured by the spring frosts; their quality is very good. Corn stands the dry weather fairly well, though there is some complaint of the leaves curling daily. Tomatoes, cucumbers, squashes, etc., would be greatly benefited by more moisture.

In Bristol county some of the potatoes where dug are found better than were expected; in Middlesex some of the tops are reported dying and others are blossoming the second time. One correspondent in northern Worcester county states that one piece of early potatoes planted the last of April is now quite full of blossoms. He says that early potatoes on good land are of good size and extra quality, but with few in the hill. The fruit worm is reported still at work on the cranberries in the vicinity of Marshfield and South Dennis; this crop is very light in that vicinity.

A Scarcity of Feed.

The drought continues unbroken in Rhode Island; wells are reported dry and feed scarce. Some farmers are feeding cattle from the barn.

Crops Picking Up.

A good rain occurred on the 15th and 16th in west central sections of Connecticut, and moderate showers are reported in the southeast counties; all crops have been much improved, pastures are looking better, and the grass is starting in the fields. Most of our correspondents in other counties, however, report that drought conditions still continue, and that everything suffers.

Corn in places rolls badly during the day and does not entirely straighten out at night. Pastures are bare and fields dry, while brooks and springs are rapidly failing; some springs that were never before known to fail are now dry. Potatoes are being dug in New Haven county, and the land being sowed to turnips, with a fair prospect that they will be a partial failure.

Tomato Crop Injured.

The rot on tomatoes is increasing. Winter apples are dropping in Fairfield county and pears are ripening prematurely; the latter crop is generally pronounced fairly good.

At Milford most onion seed has been cut, and there is about an average crop; onions are being pulled, also, with some fields very good and others pronounced not worth pulling. One correspondent in Hartford county states that there are but few pieces of good tobacco; this crop was badly damaged at Granby on the 15th by hail. The scattered showers in the vicinity of Hawleyville have been accompanied by so much hail that the farmers almost prefer the drought to the damage.

MILLIONS LOST.

Tennessee County Almost Bankrupt From a Series of Swindlers.

MEMPHIS, Aug. 21.—The Memphis grand jury has unearthed frauds of gigantic proportions. Through the criminal carelessness and neglect of the county officials, the state and county have been defrauded out of nearly $2,000,000 in revenue during the past eight years. Nearly 600 saloons and several other firms have not paid a cent in taxes and privileges in eight years. The jury made a partial report of its work to the criminal court yesterday, and as a result 76 indictments have been returned against the delinquents.

The investigation is the result of the change of the office of criminal judge. L. P. Cooper has announced that he intends to enforce the law to the letter, and every person convicted will be punished. The disclosures have created a sensation. The citizens are organizing to aid the criminal court in bringing the delinquents to justice.

The county has been hard pressed for money for several years to meet necessary expenses, and it was only a short time ago that bonds were issued to raise money to repair the courthouse. Had the officials done their duty the county would have had a large surplus, instead of being a borrower.

An Unexplained Accident.

CHICAGO, Aug. 21.—One of the shrapnel in a caisson exploded with great force yesterday, throwing three cannoneers on the seat of the limber into the air and shattering the cover of the rear chest of the caisson into splinters. The artillerymen were not injured. No definite cause could be given for the accident.

The Sons of Veterans' Encampment.

DAVENPORT, Ia., Aug. 21.—The 13th annual encampment of the Order of Sons of Veterans opened here with 300 delegates present. The reports of Commander-in-Chief Maccabe and Quartermaster Loebenstein were read. They showed the order to be in good condition and $2705.11 in the treasury.

A Sensible Conclusion.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 21.—Christopher Columbus Jones and Marshal McKee, who were in charge of the commonwealers at Hyattsville, were yesterday released from the house of correction. They had intended to fight Governor Brown in the courts, but accepted an unconditional pardon.

Historical Event Celebrated.

TOLEDO, Aug. 21.—About 5000 people assembled yesterday on the battlefield of Fallen Timbers, where, on Aug. 20, 1794, Wayne defeated the Wyandotte, Ottawa and Delaware Indians, breaking the power of their confederacy and securing peace to the then northwestern frontier.

Invited to a Banquet.

SOUTHAMPTON, Aug. 21.—Public officials of this port have conveyed to the officers of the Chicago and the United States training ship Portsmouth an invitation to attend a banquet to be tendered them by the city of Southampton.

Fought For the Fatherland.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 21.—The national convention of the Kreigerbund, composed of men who fought in the German army, was formally opened here yesterday. A large parade was held. After the parade the members held a picnic.

Big Fire at Memphis.

MEMPHIS, Aug. 21.—Fire broke out early this morning in a four-story building occupied by the Mansfield Drug company, and is now beyond control. The famous Gayoso hotel seems to be doomed.

Blown Through a Roof.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 21.—An ammonia tank in the Heidridges company's plant exploded, blowing Wilson Sanders through the roof, killing him. Several others were more or less injured.

Hippolyte Dying.

KINGSTON, Jam., Aug 21.—Dispatches from Port-au-Prince say that President Hippolyte is mortally sick, and a revolution is inevitable.

Death Was Instant.

LANCASTER, N. H., Aug. 21.—George Stevens of Jefferson, aged 50, was struck by a train near Riverton station and instantly killed.

A tack dropped in a picker machine, in a carpet mill in Philadelphia, Aug. 2, and caused a $70,000 fire; two firemen were killed and seven injured by a falling floor. PATENTS

FOR INVENTIONS.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuable inventions because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With the view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys, and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, we have retained counsel expert in patent practice, and therefore are prepared to

Obtain Patents in the United States and all Foreign Countries, Conduct Interferences, Make Special Examinations, Prosecute Rejected Cases, Register Trade-Marks and Copyrights, Render Opinions as to Scope and Validity of Patents, Prosecute and Defend Infringement Suits, Etc., Etc.

If you have an invention on hand send a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be at once advised as to the best course to pursue. Models are seldom necessary. If others are infringing on your rights, or if you are charged with infringement by others, submit the matter to us for a reliable OPINION before acting on the matter.

The ladies in this vicinity will appreciate the introduction of the celebrated Standard Patterns, of which we have put in a full line, and will certainly be a convenience to our numerous patrons.

After a thorough examination by ourselves, and receiving the endorsement of some of the leading dry goods houses in the New England states, and particularly from several houses who formerly carried Buttericks—who now carry the Standard—we are convinced that the "Standard Patterns" are far superior to all others—in being more up to date, better modeled, simpler directions for making—insuring perfect satisfaction, a great saving in time, much less fitting to do, and allowing just enough seams, thereby considerable saving in material—there being no waste as in others every pattern is modeled to the human form, and are so nicely proportioned that it is almost impossible to produce anything (if directions are followed, and which are extremely simple) but a beautiful fitting garment.

Try one of the STANDARD PATTERNS on our recommendation and we think you will agree with us that they are better than any other pattern sold in this city.

The Standard Fashion Sheets and the beautiful Handy Catalogue are free to all.

The Ladies' Standard Magazine is issued monthly, costs but 50 cents per year and should be in every household; you will surely subscribe for it when you have examined a sample copy at our store; it is the best and cheapest Ladies' magazine in existence, single copies 5 cents.

The Standard Catalogue contains over 1000 illustrations of beautiful styles—up to date, price 20 cents.

A Complete Stock of Standard Patterns Constantly on Hand.

AN APPEAL FOR AID.

Governor Altgeld Says the Pullman Strikers Are Starving.

HE MAKES A FEW SUGGESTIONS

Which Fail to Meet the Approval of Mr. Pullman.

CHICAGO, Aug. 22.—Governor Altgeld spent several hours yesterday in conference with a committee of citizens of Pullman, who were called upon to give him information regarding the starving strikers.

The governor last night issued the following proclamation, addressed "To the people of the state of Illinois, especially those of the city of Chicago: There is great distress growing out of the want of food in and around the town of Pullman. More than 1000 families, or in the neighborhood of 6000 people, are utterly destitute—nearly four-fifths of them are women and children. The men have endeavored to get work, but are unable to do so.

GOVERNOR ALTGELD

"As a rule the men are of a superior class of laboring people, industrious, capable and steady, and some of them have worked for the Pullman company for more than 10 years. Those who have been given work can get food, but are still in such an impoverished condition that they cannot help their neighbors if they would. The relief society is unable to get more supplies.

"We cannot now stop to inquire the cause of this distress. The good people of this state cannot allow women and children by the hundreds to perish of hunger. I therefore call upon humane and charitably disposed citizens to contribute what they can toward giving relief to these people."

The governor also called upon the commissioners of Cook county to do all in their power in the matter.

A Letter to Pullman.

After making a personal visit to Pullman, Governor Altgeld addressed a letter to Mr. Pullman, reading: "I examined the conditions at Pullman yesterday. I learn that last spring there were 3260 people on the payroll. Yesterday there were 2220 at work, but over 600 of these were new men, so that only about 1600 of the old employes have been taken back. Many have applied for work, but were told they were not needed. These are utterly destitute. The relief committee has exhausted its resources.

"I will make this suggestion: If you had shut down your works last fall when you say business was poor, you would not have expected to get any rent from your tenants; now while a dollar is a large sum to each of these people, all the rent now due you is a comparatively small matter to you. If you will cancel all rent to Oct. 1, you would be as well off as if you had shut down. This would enable those who are at work to meet their most pressing wants.

"Then, if you cannot give work to all, work some half time, so that all can at least get something to eat for their families. This will give immediate relief, and then by degrees assistance to as many to go elsewhere as desire to do so, and all whom you cannot give work. Then something like a normal condition could be re-established at Pullman before winter, and you would not be out any more than you would have been had you shut down a year ago."

Pullman to Altgeld.

Mr. Pullman replied at length, making reference to Governor Altgeld's declination of the escort of Vice President Wickes, which fact Mr. Pullman regretted. Mr. Pullman then continued:

"While it has not been represented to the officers of this company by any persons concerned that there was any such extended distress at Pullman as was represented for the first time by the extraordinary method of a published telegram to you in your official capacity, I do not doubt that there are many cases of need caused by the refusal of the employes for more than two and a half months to earn offered wages of more than $300,000, and that such cases have been increased and made more severe by the persistence of more than 6500 of our employes, of whom about 3000 live in Pullman, refusing to apply for their old places after the strike was practically over, and after they were publicly invited on July 18 to resume their work, until by the gradual coming in of new men during the whole month, their places have been filled and the full force engaged for all work on hand.

"As to those who are not at work, the cancelling of their rents is not a question to which attention should first be given at the present juncture of their pressing needs, as you suppose it to be.

"Suggestion that the work should be divided so that a sufficient number of our employes now working should be put on half time, in order to give at least half time work for all, was tried last winter. The result has been that the gross earnings of various individuals were last winter so small as to give an erroneous impression with reference to the sufficiency of the rate of the wages. The policy of the company is now to employ as many men as is possible to furnish work for full time."

CLEARING THEIR SKIRTS.

House Men Object to Being Blamed For Errors In the Tariff Bill.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—The enrolling clerks of the house and the chairman of the house committee on enrolled bills deny most emphatically that they are responsible for any of the errors in punctuation or otherwise that threaten to defeat the intention of congress with reference to various tariff schedules. They say that four comparisons of the enrolled bills and the measure as passed by the senate were made and that congress is responsible for any errors. It is asserted that a careful comparison will show that the enrolled bill is an absolutely perfect copy of the bill as it passed the senate.

George B. Parsons, the chief enrolling clerk, said: "We cannot go by scholastic standards, but are obliged to follow copy to the strict letter. As a newspaper man, you can understand what is meant by following copy. We suppose that the house and the senate know what they are about. Now I don't deny that there are mistakes in the bill; that is very apparent. But these mistakes were made in the drafting of the senate amendments, which, as you know, were adopted by the house without a stroke of difference.

"The main error seems to be that diamonds have been placed upon the free list. This occurred evidently because the senate used a semicolon instead of a colon after the word 'diamonds' in the free list. Although it occurred to me, after we had copied the item, that a colon was meant, we had no authority here to make a change, for that would be for us to assume the right to legislate."

BODY EXHUMED.

An Examination Which Makes Things Look Bad For a Doctor.

BOSTON, Aug. 22.—Another case against one member of the Drs. Hill and Clarke firm, whose "sanitarium" on Tremont street has figured in police matters of late, has been brought to light by the work of Inspector McCausland.

The body of a woman buried in Mt. Hope cemetery on June 22 has been exhumed, an autopsy held, and the fact discovered that the death certificate filed with the board of health fails to state the correct cause of death.

The woman's name was Mary A. McDonald, age 40, and her home was in Winchendon. Dr. Robert A. Clarke, alias R. A. Monroe, who is now under arrest on the charge of having performed a criminal operation on the woman named Ingalls, is charged with the crime, and was yesterday taken from the Charles-street jail on a habeas corpus and arraigned in court. He was held in $3000 for a hearing next Thursday.

The Problem of the Unemployed.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Aug. 22.—The state commission of the unemployed held three sessions in this city yesterday. The work provided by the city to alleviate the distress of the unemployed last winter was described, and the opinion was advanced that similar measures will be necessary the coming winter. C. C. Merritt advocated providing the worthy poor with small farms to operate. Labor representatives favored taking municipal work out of the hands of the contractors.

Gathering of Methodists.

EAST EPPING, N. H., Aug. 22.—About 1000 people attended the opening meeting of the annual session of the Methodist campmeeting at Hodding grounds, and among them were many clergymen prominent in southern New Hampshire and eastern Massachusetts. Rev. George W. Norris is in charge of the season of worship.

LONDON, Aug. 22.—Patrick A. Chance, Irish Nationalist, has resigned from parliament. There is little doubt that the seat which he vacates will fall to a Healyite.

A CHINESE VICTORY.

The Japanese Lost Heavily In Two Recent Battles.

ARMIES MARCHING TOWARD SEOUL

Indications That the Chinese Have the Upper Hand.

SHANGHAI, Aug. 22.—General Tio, commander of the Feng-Tien division of the Chinese forces, telegraphs as follows:

"The Chinese on Friday attacked the Japanese forces at Ping-Yang, driving them back, with heavy loss, a distance of 11 miles to Chung-Ho. The Chinese made a second attack on Saturday, and drove the Japanese from Chung-Ho, which is now in Chinese hands. The Japanese again lost heavily on Saturday's fighting. Another great battle is expected soon."

Admiral Fremantle, the British commander, has established the headquarters of his fleet provisionally at Che-Foo, where the British, Russian and Italian ministers now are.

The Chinese fleet is enjoying full possession of the gulf of Pe-Chi-Li.

The Japanese are re-embarking in numbers of troops at Fusan. Seoul is probably their destination.

Coreans Join Chinese.

The Chinese force which occupied Yashun has evacuated that place and has marched eastward in the direction of Seoul. The force, which is under General Yeh, who was falsely reported to have been killed in a recent battle, has been augmented by the adhesion of sympathizing Coreans. The Chinese forces are converging on Ping-Yang. The telegraph line at the latter point remains in the possession of the Chinese.

Nine thousand Japanese troops have left Seoul and marched in the direction of Ping-Yang.

It is stated that James Wylie, a Presbyterian missionary, has died from injuries received at the hands of Chinese soldiers marching in Corea at Liao-Yang, north of New-Chwang, China.

The German fathers of the Catholic mission at Si-Ning-Chou, in the southern part of the province of Shan-Tung, have been captured by banditti and held for ransom. A government posse in pursuit of the robbers has been unable to capture them.

A Rational Statement.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 22.—The first convention of the Polish National Church of America convened yesterday in Father Kolassiewiski's church in Newburg. The seceders from the regular church were of such numbers as to fill the large church. "We should be Americans for America and not for the Roman Catholic church," said Archbishop Vilatte. "Our church is founded on American principles and American power." The election of a president then took up some time, the archbishop being unanimously chosen to fill that position.

The New Bedford Strike.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Aug 22.—At a meeting of the committee on arbitration of the board of trade, last night, J. J. Connolly, secretary of the card and picker rooms of the operatives' association, was present and stated that all secretaries of the local unions were willing to confer with the mill managers, and if the managers could show that it was necessary to reduce wages to run their mills they would take steps to bring around a peaceful settlement.

More Mills Shut Down.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Aug. 22.—Kerr thread mill has made satisfactory terms with the spinners employed, but the members decline to say just what they are. It is believed the Kerr will continue paying the old wages until the mixed condition of things in other concerns is cleared up. The conditions at the Hargraves, Granite and Shove mills are unchanged. Less than 25 per cent of the looms are in operation, and 13 mills did not resume this morning.

Anarchist Made a Mistake.

PARIS, Aug. 22.—Albert Daudey, an anarchist, stabbed Police Sergeant Babestan in the Rue de la Cite. The sergeant will recover. Daudey was arrested. He said he had mistaken Babestan for Officer Poisson, who arrested Emile Henry. Somebody else would have to dispose of Poisson now. After Poisson's death, Daudey asserted, Premier Dupuy and President Casimir-Perier would be cared for by the anarchists.

Tried the Game In Providence.

PROVIDENCE, Aug. 22.—Dr. C. H. Leonard denies that he gave $200 to "Mrs. Robbins." He says that she asked him for $20, but he was suspicious of her and only gave her $5. There are many Yale graduates in Providence, and while some admit having been approached all deny that they gave money to the woman.

A Summer Resort Fire.

LEWISTON, Me., Aug. 22.—The big stable connected with the Poland Spring House was burned to the ground last night, with about 30 horses, several carriages, all the harnesses, about 70 tons of hay and 20 tons of straw. The cause of the fire is unknown. The loss is estimated at from $15,000 to $20,000.

Wreck of the Leo.

YARMOUTH, N. S., Aug. 22. — The schooner Leo, from Parrsboro for Yarmouth, with a cargo of coal, struck on Chegoggin point, six miles above Yarmouth light, during a dense fog, and has become a total wreck. The crew were saved.

Editorial Comment.

THE FACT is noted in the news columns today that an aged citizen of Quincy has more direct descendants than he is years old. Valentine Shirley, ninety years of age, has ninety-two direct descendants, viz: Nine children, sixty-nine grandchildren and eighteen great-grandchildren. This must be an unusual record, especially in these days of small families, and yet Mr. Shirley is a smart old man and promises to have a much larger number of descendants. Should he live ten years and become a centenarian he may have 500 descendants, certainly 200 to 300. Wouldn't this make a grand family gathering to celebrate the centennial anniversary!

THINGS HAVE come to such a pass in our twin city of Woburn that the president of the Common Council was removed last night and his successor chosen. Woburn seems to have more municipal disturbances for its size than any city with which we are acquainted. Would that Quincy might shake her twin sister.

THE ILLUMINATION.

The Attractions for Houghs Neck Gala Day Tomorrow

The grand illumination at Houghs Neck, now an annual event of great importance at this popular seaside resort will be celebrated tomorrow with the usual pomp. Briefly summarized the events are:

1 to 4,—Sailing parties.

1.30,—Children's festival, admission by ticket.

2,—Sports near club house, including running, wheelbarrow, potato and sack races, and blind hunt for a dollar.

3 30,—Aquatic sports near clubhouse, including tub, swimming, skiff, and lady and gents pleasure races.

2 to 6,—Concert by Columbus band of Quincy.

2 to 6,—Punch and Judy shows.

7 to 10,—Band concert by the Columbus band.

7.30,—Grand illumination and fireworks.

The LEDGER of tomorrow will probably contain a list of entries for the sports which will close at 11 A M., and Friday's paper will publish an extended report of the illumination.

THE SEA SHORE.

Rights of Public in This State Briefly Summarized.

In the third annual report of the trustees of public reservations appears a summary statement of the rights of the public on the sea shores of Massachusetts, which will be of interest to Quincy people. It is given in full:

In general, the sea, harbor, and creek shores of Massachusetts are private property as far as mean low-water mark or as far as one hundred rods from mean low-water mark is more distant.

The parts of the shore which are freely open to the public are:—

First—The terminations of such public highways as lead to high-water mark.

Second—The sides of certain public highways which, like the road over Nahant Beach, have been laid out as bounded by the sea.

Third—Certain "common or public landings" and certain seashore "commons" reserved from the common domain by the original commoners or proprietors.

Fourth—The shores of the so-called Province Lands upon Cape Cod, reserved from the public domain by Plymouth Colony, and inherited by the Province and the Commonwealth.

Fifth—Certain parts of the shore which have in recent years been made "parks" by the action of State, city, or township authorities.

Lastly, in addition to the right to resort to these special places, the public possesses the general right to traverse "for fishing or fowling," and, presumably, for mere pleasure, that strip of the shore which extends from mean high-water mark to mean low-water mark, except where the State Board of Harbor and Land Commissioners have, upon petition, allowed the private owners of the fee of this strip to enclose the same or build wharves or buildings on it.

A BOLD ROBBERY.

Money Drawer of a Business Firm Rifled this Morning.

TWO MEN DID THE JOB QUIETLY

Then Take a Boston Train and are Among the Missing.

One of the boldest robberies ever committed in Quincy transpired this morning in City Square at the clothing store of C. F Derby in the Adams building.

About 7 o'clock two men entered the store, which was at that hour in charge of a boy, and one of them made a small purchase for which he tendered a $10 bill, which the boy changed.

The other man then said he would like to look at some trunks and the boy took him to the back of the store. While there the first man who was at the front end of the store rifled the money drawer of $36 and then walked out of the store and beckoned to the man with the boy, at which they both started for the depot. The boy soon discovered the loss and notified Chief Hayden who hastened to the depot where he arrived just in time to see the 7.32 train pull out with the men aboard. Chief Hayden telegraphed to Boston to police headquarters to detain the men on the arrival of the train, but word came back that the men got off at Neponset and that the officers there had been notified to look out for them. It is more than probable that they may be apprehended.

This is one of the boldest robberies that has ever been committed in Quincy in broad daylight and at a time when there is usually a number of men in the vicinity.

ON THE ELECTRICS.

Some Rules That "Are Wrote Sarcastical," for the Benefit of the Hog.

The conductors of the Q. & B. have promised to buy a large number of LEDGERS, therefore these rules on how to behave are published:

1. Never motion to the motorman when you wish to take a car. He is supposed to know.

2. If you get the next car make the conductor's ears ring with words, because the motorman ahead did not know that you wished to ride.

3. Never have your fare ready when you see the conductor coming. Pretend not to see him, he might miss you.

4. Give the conductor a five-dollar bill. When he gives the change back and the fare has been rung in, tell him you want an 8-cent check.

5. If you have three or four bundles, lay them on the seat beside you, especially if the car is crowded. If the conductor objects, threaten to report him.

6. If you are not a smoker be sure to occupy the seats where smoking is allowed. This rule is especially applicable to women.

7. If in a closed car, cross your legs so that they will occupy the full width of the aisle. This makes it pleasant for the other passengers, and will afford additional exercise to the conductor, who is badly in need of it.

8. In getting on or off the car knock against as many people as possible; otherwise they might not be aware of your importance.

9. Be sure to put your feet upon the seats at every opportunity. It shows your independence—of decency.

10. In cold weather always leave the car door open on entering or leaving the car. The conductor or somebody will be sure and close it, so why should you take the trouble?

11. It is a good plan to spit tobacco juice on the car floor; this enables strangers to obtain a souvenir of you, and keeps the car cleaners from idleness.

12. If you have any lead nickles or punched silver pieces try and work them off on the conductor.

13. Always take up as much room as possible, so as to get the worth of your money.

14. When you wish to leave the car always wait until the car has passed the stopping place before signaling to the conductor; he is supposed to know that you wanted to get off the car, and will enjoy your wrath while riding to the next stopping place.

15. If the conductor respectfully explains that he had no possible way of knowing that you wished to get off, threaten to report him for "sassing passengers."

16. By close attention to these rules you will soon be qualified for membership in the Immortal Order of Hogs.—The Echo.

The Board of Health will cause to be placarded the following contagious diseases, viz:—Scarlet fever, diphtheria, and membraneous croup and all houses that have contained a case of scarlet fever, diphtheria or membraneous croup will have to be disinfected under direction of the Board of Health.

Hose 1 was called out on a still alarm about 12.30 o'clock last night to extinguish a fire on President bridge which had been set by a passing locomotive. It is getting to be a common occurrence to have this bridge get afire and as it is always in the same place it will not be a great while before the bridge will be weakened.

PAGE—POWERS WEDDING.

A Quincy Young Man Weds a Belle of Old Cambridge.

Many Quincy people were at the old Christ church in Cambridge Tuesday evening to witness the marriage of Miss Cora Amelia Powers of that city and Mr. J. Harvey Page; the bride the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Powers of Cambridge, and the bridegroom the prosperous son of Mr. John Page of this city.

The bride was prettily attired in white satin trimmed with Point Venice lace. She wore the conventional white veil and carried a bouquet of white asters.

The maid of honor was Miss Ida Powers, sister of the bride. Mr. G. H. Sperry of Boston was best man. The ushers were Mr. H. F. Nye of Quincy, Mr. S. N. Merrill of Boston, Mr. Charles Scallon of South Boston and Mr. W. L. Powers, an uncle of the bride.

Rev. Edward Parker of Cambridge officiated. A reception followed the ceremony at the residence of the bride's parents.

Mr. Page is now the London representative of a Boston manufactory, and has been abroad about a year, whither he will take his beautiful bride.

FELL INTO QUARRY.

Serious Tumble for Quarryman—He Lives but Recovery Is Doubtful.

How the man could receive the fall that William Johnson did Tuesday afternoon and live is little short of a miracle. Johnson was employed as a quarryman at Craig & Richards quarry and was at work on the top of the quarry prying a stone with a crowbar, when he lost his balance and fell over head first into the quarry, landing on his head 30 feet below on a pile of rocks.

He was picked up unconscious and taken to the City Hospital. It is very doubtful if he recovers as the physicians say that they cannot tell the full extent of his injuries for some days.

He is about 36 years of age and resides on Kidder street.

How to Cure Billious Colic.

I suffered for weeks with colic and pain in my stomach, caused by billiousness, and had to take medicine all the while until I used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which cured me. I have since recommended it to a good many people. MRS. F. BUTLER, 22 Fillmore street, Fairhaven, Conn.

A MILE IN 2:05 1-4.

A Wonderful Performance by Alix on Washington Parks Slow Track.

CHICAGO, Aug. 22.—Alix trotted in 2:05¼ at Washington park yesterday, and the exhibition was pronounced by nearly all the horsemen present to be the greatest ever made in the sulky. It reduced the track record of 2:06¾ held by Nancy Hanks, and while it fell a second and a quarter short of the world's record, was really a better performance, conditions considered. The Washington park track is at least a second and a half slow.

ALIX.

It has not been so fast since the new loam was placed on it before the June running meeting and it needs a good hard rain. All the drivers agree that the track is slow. John Kelly, who handled Directum last year, said: "This is the greatest mile ever trotted. Had Alix been sent against the record last week at Terre Haute, she would have undoubtedly beaten it." McDowell, who handled Alix yesterday, said the track was two seconds slow at the smallest estimate.

Abbott Whipped by Everhardt.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 22.—There were 5000 spectators seated in the Olympic club arena last night when time was called for the 25-round scientific glove fight between Stanton Abbott, the champion lightweight of England, and Jack Everhardt of this city, for a purse of $1500. In the 25th round Abbott was knocked out, after having been knocked down a half-dozen times. During the last part of the contest, Everhardt fouled Abbott several times, but no notice was taken of it.

OUR JOSIAH.

Every Paper Has a Comment on His Resignation as Chairman.

When Josiah Quincy resigns as chairman of the Democratic State committee of Massachusetts, is it for the purpose of November fishing? or does he wish to be absolutely without trammel in his enthusiasm for civil service reform.—New York World.

We observe that the Republicans are indulging in a good deal of hilarity over the announcement of the retirement of Josiah Quincy from the chairmanship of the Democratic State committee. It is not altogether unnatural that they should. Chairman Quincy has given the Republicans a good deal of trouble, first and last.—Boston Herald.

Several private interests are said to need Mr. Quincy's attention. One is the West Chop land business on Martha's Vineyard, which he has been interested in for some time. Quite a business has been built up, and a future is expected for this summer resort. Then there is the management of the family property, which devolves upon him in the absence of his father in Europe. In the third place is a new safety bicycle which will be put upon the market before long. He was interested in a single wheel invention, but that has been given up, and the company will manufacture safeties.—Boston Advertiser.

"Then and now" must have had much to do with bringing about Josiah Quincy's resignation. In 1888 the Democratic party was on the rise. Where is it now? Echo answers "Where?"—[Boston Journal.

Says S. C. Weeks of Melrose, Mass.: "I had been troubled with chronic diarrhoea for over a year when I received a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which I used and it gave me great relief. I then procured a fifty-cent bottle and took about two-thirds of it, and was cured. I have taken some twice since when I had a looseness come on and it stopped it at once. I hope it will help others as it helped me. I feel very thankful to Mr. Stearns, the druggist, for telling me of this remedy and shall be glad to have this letter published."

A HINDOO POEM.

A Hindoo died—a happy thing to do
When fifty years united to a shrew.
Released, he hopefully for entrance cries
Before the gates of Brahma's paradise.
"Hast been through purgatory?" Brahma said.
"I have been married!" and he hung his head.
"Come in! come in! and welcome, too, my son.
Marriage and purgatory are as one."
In bliss extreme he entered heaven's door
And knew the bliss he ne'er had seen before.
He scarce had entered in the garden fair,
Another Hindoo asked admission there.
The self same question Brahma asked again,
"Hast been through purgatory?" "No. What then?"
"Thou canst not enter," did the god reply.
"He who went in there was no more than I."
"All that is true, but he has married been
And so on earth has suffered for his sin."
"Married? 'Tis well, for I've been married twice."
"Begone? We'll have no fools in paradise."
—Charles Hills in Home and Country.

A PIECE OF CLOTH.

When I was on the detective force—by the way, my name is Jack Hindson, at your service—I had a case on my hands that baffled me. I wanted to get on, for I was at that time engaged to Kitty Pease, and she had said that though she was very fond of me she did not mean to marry me until I had enough to marry on, which I should have as soon as I had found out the party who committed a certain murder.

Mrs. Jeffries, a rich, miserly sort of old lady, had been found dead in her bed, murdered by some one. No one knew who it was.

Everybody was under suspicion—a manservant who had been dismissed weeks before; a dissipated nephew, who had quarreled with her; a peddler; a man who had mended the roof. But it seemed likely that no one would be actually proved guilty. To be sure, the nephew would come in for her property, being her only relative, but though he had been to the door that evening he had been seen to go away again, and no doors were found unlocked, and the servant had to call for help before the bedroom door could be broken in.

The only clew I had was a bit of black cloth clutched tight in the dead woman's hand—a fine bit of old black broadcloth torn in quite a singular shape. We hid the fact that this had been found from the newspaper men, and I was looking for the coat it had been pulled out of. That would be my chance.

The dismissed servant was a waiter, but I bribed myself into a chance of seeing his black coat off duty, and it had not been torn or patched. I hunted up the nephew's boarding house and got into his room under pretense of having been sent from the telegraph office to see the wires, but his clothes were all of thick, coarse cloth. I talked these things all over to Kitty, and she set her wits to work to help me. She asked me to let her go to the old lady's home and show her the room she slept in, and she went out on the roof, as I had done many a time, and went along first in one direction and then in another, looking at all the scuttle doors, until I thought she would go off into the street, but she stopped at the last of the row and beckoned me. I hurried up.

Close to the scuttle door lay a little black button.

"This belongs to the garment the bit of cloth came from," she said. "There are blacks and blacks. This is a button that matches that black. Not a blue black, nor a brownish black, nor a foxy black, but a black that is almost invisible green. Do you know No. 100?"

"It's a very respectable first class boarding house," said I.

"Will they take ladies?" she asked.

"If they are well introduced."

"I shall go there to board."

Next day I got a card from her—she hadn't been in the habit of having cards—with that address on it. I called. She came down to see me in her best black silk, with her bonnet and mantilla on.

There was an old lady in the room. She introduced me to her and then said she was ready. I took the hint. We went out together.

"Of course you know why I came here," she said. "I'm spending all my salary and wearing my best clothes, but I've found something out already. Mrs. Jeffries' nephew calls here sometimes. He calls on a young widow, who has the upper front room. He has been engaged to her for some time."

She paused a long time and then said: "He was here the night of the murder."

"Well!" I said. "Has she let him out upon the roof?"

"I wish you wouldn't ask me any questions," said Kitty. "I shall know before long. When I send for you, come at once. Will you let me have that bit of cloth?"

"It's more precious than diamonds," I said.

Her answer was:

"Yes, I know it." She put it into her pocketbook. "I have changed my room," she remarked. "I am next to her. There is a locked door between us. That is all. And I have made a peephole."

"You are a born detective, but as this widow is respectable you can't watch young Jeffries that way."

"Yesterday," she said without answering me, "Jeffries called. I saw him coming up the street and hid behind a screen in the parlor. I should have pretended to be asleep in a chair there had I been seen, but no one found me out. She came to him, and he talked like an innocent man.

"'The poor old woman has done me another injury by getting herself murdered,' he said. 'I believe I'm suspected, because I shall profit by her death. Why, what do they take me for? I wonder who killed her? They say nothing was gone.'

"'Whoever it was, you ought to be thankful that the crabbed creature is dead,' she said. 'Some common burglar, of course. She'd scream and shriek if she saw one at her jewel case and get herself killed.'

"'Well, poor old woman, I'd have been his death if I had been near,' Jeffries said. 'She wasn't half bad. She never made a will and left things away from me, as she might, after I told her I'd never cringe to her for her favor. Hang it, I wish I wasn't her heir! People will suspect me secretly perhaps. I can prove I wasn't inside the house that night, but you know how the papers talked. Poor Bitzner, the roofer, came to me and cried over what they said about him. Kill Aunt Jessy! Why, good Lord!'——

"'You used to call her Aunt Jezebel,' said the widow. Mrs. Mull is her name.

"'Yes, I'm sorry I did, but she had a temper,' said Mr. Jeffries. 'I've a mind not to take the money.'

"'Then I shan't take you,' said Mrs. Mull. 'Such an idiot! I should be ashamed of you.

"See here!" Kitty handed me an address on a piece of paper. It was Mrs. Preston Mull, at a certain number, CLestnut street. "It is her mother-in-law. Can you send our Mrs. Mull—Eliza Mull—a telegram saying, 'Come at once to this address?' she asked.

"I can," said I.

"Do it," said she. "No, don't ask me. I am helping you. I have my thoughts. Now take me home."

I took her home and telegraphed to a brother detective to telegraph to the widow, and I waited and watched. I saw her get into a carriage and go away. I followed and saw her take the train. If Kitty wanted her out of the way, she was safe.

A few hours afterward I received a note:

"Disguise yourself as an old woman and come here at once. Come in a cab. Wear a thick black veil. Send up word that you are my Aunt Agnes. Lose no time."

I lost none. As I went slowly up the stairs, with my black veil down, I could hear my heart beat. Kitty opened the door, called out, "Why, aunty, dear!" and shut it.

"I have opened the door between my room and Mrs. Mull's," she said. "I have found something. I can't appear in this matter. You must see for yourself."

She led me into the handsome room and went to a wardrobe. There, from beneath other dresses, she drew a plainly cut coat, or redingote, of thin black cloth, with many buttons down the front, and spread it on a chair. About the height of the knees a piece was torn away and a button gone.

"Hush!" she said. "We don't know who may be listening. Make no sound."

Then she took the bit of cloth from her pocket, fitted it to the rent and laid the button on it.

"The piece of cloth found in dead Mrs. Jeffries' hand came from this garment," was her remark.

"Yes," I said, "she must have disguised him in it. But—why"——

"Goosey!" said Kitty. "Mr. Jeffries could not get into this. Mrs. Mull wore it herself. Mrs. Mull killed old Mrs. Jeffries. The nephew knows nothing about it—guesses nothing. This wicked woman wanted to marry him when he had inherited the estate. She has done it. I watched her through the peephole I had made. I saw her writhe in agony, and, without speaking a word, wring her hands and tear her hair. It was an awful sight, but I knew it was a guilty conscience that moved her. There—you have it all in your own hands now. I'll go and tell Mrs. G—— that I have news which must take me away, pay her my board and go with you in the cab."

I left her at her own door. Mrs. Mull was arrested at the station on her return, and it was all as Kitty said. She made full confession. She had conceived the idea of murdering the old woman that her nephew might get the money, and she had hoped the poor roof mender would be charged with the crime.

She was a fiend in female form, but the thought that I had driven a woman to the gallows haunted me and sickened me of the detective business, which I left very soon.

Kitty and I are keeping a little hotel now and prospering very well.—London Tit-Bits.

Almost a Tragedy.

A company of local talent started out to do a few one night stands as a flier, with the hope that enough would be in it to justify the manager in effecting a permanent organization for the winter. After the first night the company returned.

"What's the matter?" asked a friend of the manager.

"Oh, I thought I would lay the company off for awhile."

"Didn't you open to a good business?"

"Well, not exactly—that is, we didn't have much of an audience when the curtain went up, but there was a full house in the last act."

"How did that happen? People catch on to what a good show it was?"

"Not exactly. You see everybody had got out before the last act except one fellow, and he was so full that he couldn't, and we played the piece out on him."—Detroit Free Press.

Nothing Original About Him.

One of the greatest sorrows of famous personages is that it is impossible to live up to the ideal opinion which the people whom they meet in the ordinary affairs of life have formed of them.

It is recorded that a certain literary man of high reputation had occasion to remark to a waiter in the restaurant where he sometimes lunches:

"Waiter, this beefsteak is tough."

The waiter looked at him with a sorrowful expression and sighed deeply.

"Perhaps you will tell me," said the literary man, "why you sigh in that fashion."

"Ah, sir," said the waiter, "I took you for a man who always said original things, and here you come and say just the same thing that all the rest of them do!"—Exchange.

OUR OLD MEN.

Mr. Alexander Feltis a Few Months Older Than Mr. Shirley.

The list of aged citizens published in the LEDGER Saturday gave Mr. Valentine Shirley the credit of being the oldest, but Mr. Alexander Feltis is also 90 years of age, and was born in June while Mr. Shirley was born in October.

Mr. Feltis, Quincy's oldest man at present lives with his daughter Mrs. W. C. Baker at Germantown. Mr. Feltis was born in Bristol, Maine, June 20, 1804 and came to Braintree at the age of twenty years where he was employed a number of years for Oliver Ames, making shovels. He then came to Quincy and was employed as a blacksmith by T. O. Sylvester, afterward employed by Samuel Newcomb sharpening tools. Later he bought out Sylvester and ran the business up to fifteen years ago. He has been married three times and has had five sons and one daughter all of whom with the exception of one son, are living. Of the family one son, Charles A. and one daughter Mrs. W. C. Baker reside in Quincy. He has also living thirteen grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. His wife is 79 years of age. Mr. Feltis enjoyes remarkable good health and is frequently seen about the centre and to all appearance one would never take him to be 90 years of age. He has always voted the Democratic ticket.

Valentine Shirley, the next old st, was born in the northern part of Ireland in 1804. In 1870 he came to this country and settled in Pennsylvania where he remained six years and then came to Quincy, where he has since resided. His trade in the old country was that of a linen weaver. He is quite smart for a man of 90 years and does work about the house such as sawing wood and working in the garden. In 1891 he accidentally broke his leg but it mended as readily as if he was a young man. In 1829 he married and his wife is living at 85 years of age. They are the oldest couple in Quincy. Mrs. Shirley is also quite smart and the old couple keep house off Common street. The fruit of their union were 9 children, 6 daughters and 3 sons, all of whom are married and have families of their own. Of the children Alexander and George O. reside in Quincy, one daughter is in the old country, one in Kansas and the others resides in Pennsylvania.

Mr. and Mrs. Shirley have 69 grandchildren and 18 great grandchildren. Mr. Shirley came from a family of 14 and his mother lived to be 103 years of age.

"I OWE MY LIFE TO YOU."

A Wilton, N. J., Girl's Experience With a Noted Massachusetts Woman.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

Life is never more precious than in the heyday of youth, when every dream is a promise, and every thought an inspiration.

It is natural that Miss Gertrude Sickler, a young lady who lives at Wilton, N.J., is grateful for the great boon of life.

She suffered terribly with suppressed and painful menstruations. The doctors could only prevent her from having fits each month by dosing her with morphine.

At last, when she was completely prostrated, her father got her a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which at once gave her relief.

That did what the doctors could not do. It cured her. She has no trouble now, and no dread of the coming month. "I owe my life to you," she writes to Mrs. Pinkham. "Oh, if other suffering women could try your valuable medicine they would bless you as I do."

The Coming of Summer is Supposed to End the Social Season.

Dinners, cotillions and balls are done. Society seeks rest at the shore or mountains. But is it found? Fashion's sway still rules. The belle and chaperone alike are fatigued. Almost as much to do as in the city. Just as tiring because it is so hot.

Johann Hoff's Malt Extract then taken makes the Summer easy. It banishes fatigue, and fortifies the system for Winter, aids digestion, gives health and strength.

Beware of imitations. Look for signature of "Johann Hoff" on neck label.

PATENTS
NOTICE TO INVENTORS.

THERE Was never a time in the history of our country when the demand for inventions and improvements in the arts and sciences generally was so great as now. The conveniences of man-kind in the factory and work-shop, the household, on the farm, and in official life, require continual accessions to the appurtances and implements of each in order to save labor, time and expense. The political change in the administration of government does not affect the progress of the American inventor, who, being on the alert, and ready to perceive the existing deficiences, does not permit the affairs of government to deter him from quickly conceiving the remedy to overcome existing discrepancies. Too great care cannot be exercised in choosing a competent and skilful attorney to prepare and prosecute an application for patent. Valuable interests have been lost and destroyed in innumerable instances by the employment of incompetent counsel, and especially is this advice applicable to those who adopt the "No patent, no pay" system. Inventors who intrust their business to this class of attorneys do so at imminent risk, as the breadth and strength of the patent is never considered in view of a quick endeavor to get an allowance and obtain the fee then due. THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY, John Wedderburn, General Manager, 618 F street, N W., Washington, D. C., representing a large number of important daily and weekly papers, as well as general periodicals of the country, was instituted to protect its patrons from the unsafe methods heretofore employed in this line of business. The said Company is prepared to take charge of all patent business entrusted to it for reasonable fees, and prepares and prosecutes applications generally, including mechanical inventions, design patents, trade marks, labels, copyrights, interferences, infringements, validity reports, and gives especial attention to rejected cases. It is also prepared to enter into competition with any firm in securing foreign patents.

Couriers of Civilization.

There were three little sturdy boys sat by their grandpa's knee
And blitheiy plotted out the plans of what their lives should be.
The eldest, he of quiet ways and mild and thoughtful face,
Declared that when a man he'd go to every heathen race
That roamed the torrid tropic wilds in manner idly rude
And teach to them the wickedness of being nearly nude.

Up spake the second—sharp and shrewd, a cunning kid was he,
Says he: "That's just the thing. 'Twill work exceeding well for me.
When Willie dear has taught those folks habiliments to wear,
Of course they'll have to buy them, and that's when you'll find me there.
I'll sell those heathens overcoats and mufflers and skates
And other things they do not need and charge them triple rates."

The youngest mused a moment, with his chin upon his hand,
Then said: "I'll as a soldier go to that benighted land,
And when the natives rise in wrath at Henry's awful rates
And show some signs of lapsing to their former heathen states,
Imperiling the foreign trade and their immortal souls,
I'll take my little rifle down and fill them full of holes."

Alien Anarchists Look Longingly Toward the United States.

SPEEDY LEGISLATION IS UFGED

To Prevent Evil Doers From Gaining a Foothold.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—A strong report favoring the rigid exclusion and deportation of alien anarchists has been made by the house committee on judiciary. The report says:

"It is admitted on all hands that the question is one of very great importance and that legislation on the subject is called for by every consideration of public safety. The committee is advised that, owing to the severe legislation recently adopted by France and Italy, a great many dangerous anarchists are making their way to the United States, and as under the existing law they cannot gain admission to our territory, the United States will soon be the rendezvous of the human monsters, unless the proposed legislation is speedily adopted.

"Your committee is of the opinion that the United States is fully justified by existing conditions in using all its powers to prevent immigration and settlement in this country of men who repudiate all law, all government, and practically proclaim themselves as the enemies of mankind. The peculiar method which they have adopted of impressing the public with the justice of their views by detestable assassinations and wanton destruction of property will not, we think, commend them to the favorable consideration of any one in this country."

The report takes up the various objections made to the proposed measure and Disposes of Each of Them.

Concerning the objection that the bill is faulty in not defining anarchy, the report says: "As the meaning of the word is defined as 'absence of government; the state of society where there is no law or supreme power; a state of lawlessness; political confusion,' and its meaning well known, it is considered unnecessary to encumber the act with a special definition."

The committee meets the objection that a person should not be charged with anarchy and deported without jury trial by saying: "It would hardly be contended, we suppose, that the government ought to maintain a jury at every port of entry for the purpose of passing on the qualifications of immigrants who desire to enter, and as the immigrant who has been permitted to enter acquires no rights not possessed by the foreigner who desires to enter, we are unable to perceive upon what principle a jury trial is insisted upon in order to deport an alien whose continual residence in the country is considered detrimental to the public welfare."

In conclusion, the report states that there is full constitutional power for the enactment of the proposed law and that there is urgent necessity for the immediate passage of such a measure.

Segregation Not Likely.

DENVER, Aug. 22.—Stephen Little, the accountant whose examination of the accounts of the Atchison railway resulted in the recent change in management, says, regarding the rumor that the Atchison would cast off its branches as the Union Pacific is doing: "I have no authority to make such statement, but I do not think it will be segregated. There will be nothing done until the reorganization committee receives my final report."

PATENTS
FOR INVENTIONS.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuable inventions because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With the view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, we have retained counsel expert in patent practice, and therefore are prepared to

Obtain Patents in the United States and all Foreign Countries, Conduct Interferences, Make Special Examinations, Prosecute Rejected Cases, Register Trade-Marks and Copyrights, Render Opinions as to Scope and Validity of Patents, Prosecute and Defend Infringement Suits, Etc., Etc.

If you have an invention on hand send a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be at once advised as to the best course to pursue. Models are seldom necessary. If others are infringing on your rights, or if you are charged with infringement by others, submit the matter to us for a reliable OPINION before acting on the matter.

The ladies in this vicinity will appreciate the introduction of the celebrated Standard Patterns, of which we have put in a full line, and will certainly be a convenience to our numerous patrons.

After a thorough examination by ourselves, and receiving the endorsement of some of the best dry goods houses in the New England states, and particularly from several houses who formerly carried Buttericks—who now carry the Standard—we are convinced that the "Standard Patterns" are far superior to all others—in being more up to date, better modeled, simpler directions for making—insuring perfect satisfaction, a great saving in time, much less fitting to do, and allowing just enough seams, thereby considerable saving in material—there being no waste as in others every pattern is modeled to the human form, and are so nicely proportioned that it is almost impossible to produce anything (if directions are followed, and which are extremely simple) but a beautiful fitting garment.

Try one of the STANDARD PATTERNS on our recommendation and we think you will agree with us that they are better than any other pattern sold in this city.

The Standard Fashion Sheets and the beautiful Handy Catalogue are free to all.

The Ladies' Standard Magazine is issued monthly, costs but 50 cents per year and should be in every household; you will surely subscribe for it when you have examined a sample copy at our store; it is the best and cheapest Ladies' magazine in existence, single copies 5 cents.

The Standard Catalogue contains over 1000 illustrations of beautiful styles—up to date—price 20 cents.

GENERAL SHUTDOWN

Likely to Be the Conclusion of Fall River Manufacturers.

THE SITUATION AT NEW BEDFORD

Has Developed Into a Period of Dogged Inactivity.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Aug. 23.—The executive committee of the Cotton Manufacturers' association met yesterday to discuss the condition and decide upon some action. The committee is reported to have decided to recommend that all the mills in the association shut down at once for a month. Manufacturers are thoroughly dissatisfied with the present conditions, as not enough looms are running in any more than four or five mills to pay for running.

The market price for print cloths has advanced to 2¾ cents, over ¼ cent since last week, but there is no strength to the demand. The manufacturers simply declined to sell under 2¾ cents, and buyers who had to have cloth were compelled to pay that price. The manufacturers could win in the end if they were really determined upon a fight. They have nothing to gain by fighting and would go to a heavy expense. The weavers want a vacation, and a curtailment will not brace up the market.

It is this feeling that leads to the opinion that all, or nearly all, of the mills accept the recommendation of the executive committee, and shut down for a month. The cloth manufacturers who have shown a determination to keep running if possible have been seen by members of the executive committee, and are reported as being willing to shut down if no mills are left running. One or two corporations that were understood to be bound to keep running as long as a single weaver was ready to work are now understood to be ready to close.

The yarn mills may keep on running if they succeed in clearing up their own troubles with the operatives. There are six of these yarn mills. The shutdown of the cloth mills will cover all except the Fall River Iron Works company, Conanicut and Barnaby, and practically shutdown the town. Only about 5000 at the outside will be left at work in the mills.

AT NEW BEDFORD.

Both Sides Unwilling to Be Decided Against by the Board of Arbitration.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Aug. 23.—The board of arbitration connected with the board of trade met to discuss the strike situation yesterday afternoon, but owing to the absence of a quorum nothing was done. Some of the members stated that they had no right to take action without being requested to do so.

In relation to the proposed action of the state board of arbitration, Secretary Ross stated that although he was a firm believer in the board and its work, still he would not say whether the spinners would be governed by this decision should it be unfavorable to them. Some of the manufacturers say that a decision adverse to their stand by the board would not be accepted by them.

The great strike has developed into a period of dogged and determined inactivity on both sides. The feeling is that the other yarn mills of the city are not likely to follow the lead of the Howland corporations so soon as was predicted. Whatever their decision may be, there is likely to be a continuation of the strike on the part of the cloth manufacturers far beyond the time set by many at the beginning of the trouble. All the arrangements made by the operatives and their employers are in anticipation of a long battle.

Mayor Brownell has issued the following call:

"The fact that 10,000 operatives in our city are unemployed is a public calamity of so much importance to all classes of citizens that I feel justified in making an attempt to relieve the city of this unhappy and embarrassing situation, so fatal to New Bedford's interests. I feel that if citizens representing our mill management or interests, and also those representing the operatives, will come together and confer and consider the situation in the spirit of the greatest number, that some course may be determined on which will be of benefit to all concerned.

"A fire is much more easily extinguished at its commencement than after the structure is in flames, while the saving of property is vastly greater. I therefore invite representatives of the mill corporations and operatives to meet in room 4, Library building, Thursday evening, at 8 o'clock. Let us meet as citizens, imbued with a spirit of reconciliation and a desire to accomplish what is for the best interests of our city."

Mayor Brownell states that he hopes that the board of arbitration committee, in which he is chairman, will decide to act with him in the matter. He thought it well, however, to issue the call in his official capacity as mayor of the city in order to save time.

Weavers Out at Suncook.

SUNCOOK, N. H., Aug. 23.—Four hundred weavers in the China mill yesterday afternoon walked out, surprising the overseers. The company here is run by Fall River (Mass.) prices. A 10 per cent cutdown was ordered Tuesday, which reduces weavers to about 17 cents a cut. The help are French, good laboring people, and the company wants them to work under the same schedules as are in force in Fall River. It is rumored that all three of the large mills, the China, Pembroke and Webster, will have to shut down, as their help may refuse to work.

UPRISING IN HAWAII

"Might" Have Occurred Had Not Admiral Walker Changed His Mind.

HONOLULU, Aug. 12, via cruiser Philadelphia, San Francisco, Aug. 23.—Six days ago it was announced that the Philadelphia was to leave here, and about the same time the captain of the British ship Champion stated that his vessel was about to leave on a two weeks' cruise, ostensibly to look over the route of the proposed Pacific cable. On the day following this announcement a petition was circulated by the British residents asking that the Champion remain.

The petitioners professed to be in fear of trouble if they were left without armed protection. The Champion's commander agreed to remain in port, whereupon Admiral Walker announced that he had changed his mind about sailing with the Philadelphia, and that he, too, would remain in port. This unexpected change in the plans of the naval commanders caused unusual comment. The Royalists professed to believe that had the Philadelphia left, there would have been an uprising against the government.

The war between China and Japan threatens disturbance of a more or less serious nature on these islands. Reports have been received of one fight between Chinese and Japanese laborers, and outbreaks are feared on some of the large plantations.

Judge Kinkead Heaps Denunciations Upon Breckinridge's Head.

LONG YEARS OF SECRET INFAMY

With His Sins Covered by the Cloak of Piety.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Aug. 23.—Twenty thousand people gathered here yesterday to attend the Owens barbecue and hear speaking at Woodland park. A Kentucky barbecue was spread. No such enthusiasm has been seen here in years.

Preparations had been made to entertain 15,000, and the provisions fell far short of supplying all. The speakers were Hon. W. C. Owens, Hon. G. C. Lockhart, Judge Kinkead, Judge Jere S. Morton and Professor C. M. Albert of Lexington.

W. C. OWENS.

There were 5000 ladies present, and the affair was a magnificent upheaval of the time-honored Ashland district against being longer represented in congress by W. C. P. Breckinridge. The speeches all teemed with scathing denunciations of Breckinridge, and were the most sensational yet spoken against him.

Judge Kinkead, for years a neighbor of Breckinridge's, was exceptionally severe in appealing for Mrs. Blackburn's defense and Breckinridge's retirement. He said: "Breckinridge declares his opponents are throwing stones at him made of lies, yet he does not tell what lies are being told. He has been charged with the most hideous offenses in public, but he has not denied them. How absurd for Colonel Breckenridge to charge that his opponents are lying about him? Review the long list of crimes, admitted and proved, which during his life made up his character. Think for a moment of Colonel Breckinridge inflamed with virtuous indignation by the utterances of lies.

"Review the life that he himself discloses; picture this chosen orator

Enveloped In a Cloak of Sanctity

as he appears through the long series of years before august religious orders; see him again in the role of morality and virtue as he points the true course to the little inmates of the female seminary, and then follow him through nine long years of secret infamy, husband and fathers, and let him conduct you as he does in testimony from the home he should have guarded to the brothel he should have shunned.

"See him in the city of his home, and go with him through the disgusting details of his own testimony in that first visit with his cyprian to that brothel. With what brazen forehead did he leave this place and seek the society of his home, and of what material is the fibre of his heart, that, hastening through his meal, he hied himself again to his degrading meeting. Hypocrisy herself would have turned pale as she viewed the votary at her shrine. See him again as he introduced his mistress into the school at which your little children are taught, and toward which he occupied at that time the relation of trustee."

On the Road Again.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 23.—Sixty dilapidated creatures, remnants of Coxey's army, arrived in this city last night. They applied at city hall for shelter and were referred to a wayfarers' lodge, where only three of them were taken in, leaving the others to seek lodgings wherever they could find them.

Editorial Comment.

IF YOU want to get into a crowd you want to attempt to take a 7 o'clock or 7.30 car tonight for Houghs Neck. The street railway people will of course do all they can but they seldom overestimate the size of the crowd. The annual illumination at Houghs Neck are always a grand sight, and one all the people of the city should witness. The weather today is exceptionally fine, cool and pleasant. Most everybody will try to go and the need of widening Coddington street and the building of the boulevard to Houghs Neck will be apparent. Sea street will be thronged with carriages, cars, bicycles, and possibly pedestrians.

THERE IS surprise among taxpayers that the appropriation for miscellaneous fire expenses is exhausted so early in the year, but it reminds us of something overheard at the central fire station soon after the new regime came in. One of the fireman remarked that under Chief Ripley we had to take what we could get, but now we can get all we want. Chief Ripley replied it was always easy to make purchases the first of the year, but Chief Williams might find money scarce the last of the year as he had. Here it is August, and the appropriation of $1500 is probably overrun, and over four months yet to come.

IT IS to be regretted that Hon. John Quincy Adams did not endow the institution of learning in this city which was founded by his illustrious ancestors, and is now struggling for an existence. The Adams Academy might again be popular if it were not in such straitened financial condition. Could the founder see the popularity of its rival, the Woodward Institute for girls, he would promptly endow it, and it is hoped that Mrs. Adams will remember the institution.

IT WAS unwise for the sneak thieves to rob a clothing store, as was done in this city on Wednesday. Few people are able to give an accurate description of a stranger a short time after meeting them, but clerks in clothing stores naturally observe the dress of their customers, and young Walsh was able to give an accurate description of Sheldon, and acting promptly, the police were able to arrest the offender in a few hours. It was a good job for the police.

IT SHOULD also have been noted yesterday in the comment on the division of Attleboro, that the tax rate of Attleboro this year is $20. Neither of the new towns is a paradise for taxpayers, North Attleboro as noted having a tax rate of $24. The average of the two is $22.

ARE YOU ready for the tax rate? The LEDGER has no inside information but predicts that it will be about $18 per $1000, a little less rather than more. Tomorrow will probably tell the story. It will be a record breaker if it goes above $17.50.

Steamer City of Quincy.

A large party enjoyed the moonlight sail to Nahant on the steamer City of Quincy, Wednesday evening. The air was warm and the water very calm, so that there was not the least sign of sickness. The steamer went as far as Egg Rock, off Nahant, and back. As they passed Hull where Ladies' Day was being celebrated, a search light on one of the steam yachts lit up the sea, making it look very beautiful. Tonight the steamer will sail along Houghs Neck, affording an excellent view of the illumination at that summer resort.

Glennon Gave Chase

The Journal reports Wm. H. Glennon of West Quincy to have been passing through Lincoln street last night, when a young man made a grab for his watch chain and ran, taking watch and chain worth about $10 with him. Glennon gave chase to the thief, who ran into the arms of Patrolmen Gallagher and Lynch of the Lagrange Street Station. At the police station the young man described himself as Frank Ryan, 23 years of age, and claimed to belong in Chicago.

THE SNEAK- THIEF.

The Fellow Who Worked Quincy a Notorious Crook.

PROMPT ARREST AT NEPONSET.

Where the Gang Also Attempted to Work the Little Game.

The man who robbed the money drawer at the clothing store of C. F. Derby Wednesday morning did not have an opportunity to enjoy his ill-gotten gains, as he was arrested at Neponset before noon.

The boy employed at Derby's store gave a good description of the two men, which was telegraphed to the Boston officers, who were on the lookout for them.

It seems that when the two men left Quincy they got off at Neponset, where they tried the same game, without success, however.

They entered the store of J. B. Light on Neponset avenue, where one of the men asked the young lady clerk to show him some stockings. The tall man of the two asked if she had any objection to his putting them on and walked down the store to do so. Meanwhile, the other man walked about the store to the safe. The combination was off, but as he turned the knob there was a click, which alarmed the lady, who screamed, and the men hurriedly left. Although parties gave chase the men separated and got away.

Later Officer Hook saw a man lying under the trees on Ashmont street, that answered the description of the Quincy man, and arrested him.

The arrested man gave the name of William A Stanton but refused to give his residence. The man was taken to police headquarters, where he was identified as John P. Sheldon a famous crook who has done sneak work all over the country, and had served time in several prisons.

Chief Hayden of Quincy was notified of the arrest and Officer McKay and Derby's boy went to Station 11, and the boy positively identified Stanton, as Sheldon, as the man who did the job in his store.

Another thing that will seem to connect him with the Quincy break was that he had the shirt bought in Quincy, which was tied up in a paper with Derby's name on it and some cigars which was purchased at Durgin's drug store in the morning. He also had over $50 in money.

Chief Hayden got out a warrant for him which Officer McKay took to the Dorchester court this morning where the fellow was arraigned for the Neponset racket.

Inspector Gerraughty of Boston identified Sheldon as the man whom he had convicted in Boston for larceny on Jan. 20, 1873, or about the time of the Boston fire. He served forty-eight months for that offence.

Special officer Shields of the inspector's force identified him as a man whom he convicted under the name of Eagan on Sept. 13, 1892, on the charge of larceny, and for which he served 12 months. He has also served a term in Sing Sing prison.

THE ILLUMINATION.

Festivities Begun at 1.30 This Afternoon and will be Prolonged Into Night.

Illumination day has arrived and the tide of travel to Houghs Neck set in early this morning. There was a lull just before noon, but all the afternoon it has been large, and from six to eight will be something tremendous.

The children's festival began at 1.30 and the little ones whose regular dinner hour was at 12 were a little impatient to partake of the ice cream and cake. The sports, band concert, etc., commenced about two o'clock. These with the sailing parties will round out the afternoon and at 7.30 prompt the illumination, fireworks and band concert will be the attraction.

As a protection against fire, Chief Engineer Williams has detailed Engineer Packard and a combination engine to proceed to Houghs Neck this afternoon. The illumination committee has also cautioned all cottages to have a large quantity of water handy for emergency.

NO PUBLIC BEQUESTS.

John Quincy Adams Left All His Property to His Wife.

At Dedham on Wednesday there was filed the will of the late John Quincy Adams of this city, which was executed Sept. 24, 1879.

It is a very brief document, covering less than half a sheet of commercial note paper. The will contains no public bequests, the entire estate being given to his wife, Mrs. Fannie C. Adams, who is made executrix of the will. The four children are bequeathed nothing in the will, which, however, states that the property left to his wife is so given in the full confidence that she will make such disposition of it during her lifetime and trust distribution of it among their children at her decease or before, as he himself would have deemed wise and prudent. The will was witnessed by C. F. Adams, Jr., Charles H. Richardson and Joseph H. Paine.

DISASTER AVERTED.

An Accident to 7.55 Train from Boston Last Evening in Quincy.

Local passenger train No. 841, which leaves Boston at 7.55 P. M., threw out of running order for over four hours the entire Plymouth division of the Old Colony system, last evening.

Just before the train reached Furnace brook bridge at Wollaston, one of the journals on the rear wheel of the rear truck to the engine's tender broke, throwing the forward wheels of that truck off the track. The engineer closed his throttle and applied the air brakes instantly, bringing the train to a stop within a hundred feet of the bridge. If the engine had reached the bridge there would have been another great Quincy disaster.

Conductor Peckham immediately walked to Quincy and telephoned to Boston for the wrecker and a crew. The passengers all left the train and walked to Quincy.

In the meantime Chief Train Despatcher Wright and his assistants at the Boston depot had to do some lively work to get the trains around the obstruction. All through trains were run over the Granite branch.

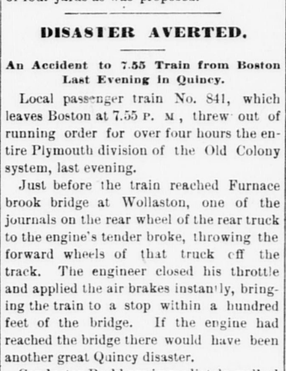

The outward locals were run from Atlantic to Quincy on the inward track. The 9.10 train out was one hour late and the other trains were delayed about the same time. The inward train which leaves Wollaston at 9.17 was delayed until 9.35 and so on.

At 10.40 the wrecker and a crew under the charge of Master Mechanic Willis arrived and began operations.

Chief Train Dispatcher Wright of Boston was also on the wrecker. He proceeded to the Quincy depot and from that time on operated the Plymouth division from that station, co-operating with his assistants at Boston.

The wrecking crew jacked up the tender removed the rear wheels from the rear trucks, rolled them over the banking, run under a new set and the blockade was raised shortly after 12 o'clock this morning.

BOSTON, Aug. 22.—The good pitching of Nichols and the new man Fournier was perfectly backed by Ganzel and Murphy. The fielding was the best of the year, there being six double plays. Lowe sent a homer over the leftfield fence. Fournier lost his grip on the ball only in the fifth, when three men filed around the bases and came home on Lowe's hit.

Oaks agreed to accept the office of commander-in-chief of the Union Veterans' union, which was unanimously tendered him by the convention. The other officers elected were: Deputy commander-in-chief, General Wardrop, Massachusetts; second deputy commander, General L. E. Ellis, Ohio; surgeon general, Dr. S. S. Bond, Washington. A resolution was passed to petition congress to set aside the 17th of June as a national holiday, to be called Veterans' Day, in commemoration of Bunker Hill.

Brief Vacation Ended.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23. — President Cleveland returned to Washington last night from Gray Gables. So far as his appearance can indicate, the president has profited by his short trip. An effort was made to obtain some information as to what course the president is likely to pursue with reference to the tariff bill, but not the least intimation thereof could be obtained.

Cattlemen Won't Settle.

EL RENO, O. T., Aug. 23.—The Kiowa and Comanche Indians are becoming alarmingly troublesome because the money to the amount of $60,000 long due them by cattlemen for the lease of their country has not been paid them. In some sections they have destroyed range fences and slaughtered cattle. There is much uneasiness among cattlemen and settlers.

BOSTON, Aug. 23.—Fire last night in the tailor shop of M. Rubin showed signs of incendiarism. Firemen found bottles of benzine lying about and a number of fires in different parts of the room. Arrests will probably be made.

MONATIQUOT RACE.

Beatrice, Gleaner and Primrose Have Walkover for Legs in Championship.

Eight boats were entered Wednesday in the Monatiquot championship race off Fort Point.

The Beatrice had it much its own way in the first class, with the Gypsy as its only rival, and obtained such a lead that the latter withdrew.

The Gleaner took the lead in the second class early in the race and maintained it to the finish, and the Eulalie was second all the way. The little Opechee however jumped into second place on corrected time. Much interest centered in Maybury's new 21-footer, but she did not show up well with the crack boats.

The Primrose played solitaire in the third class and won in 1 hour, 46 minutes, 10 seconds corrected time.

LOG OF THE AGILIS.

A Week's Cruise of a Party of Ten Along the South Shore.

On Saturday evening, August 11, about seven o'clock, the yacht Agilis, owned by the Seaweed club, got underway from her moorings off Eaton Bros.' landing, foot of Appleton street, Atlantic, bound on a cruise along the South Shore. It had on board a party of ten, O. F. Lathrop, captain; Edward H. Richardson, mate; J. Everett Drew, steward; George Woodbury of the club; also Mr. J. D. Woodbury, who acted as cook, for the trip; and Messrs. Burrill, Halliwell, Croucher, Priest and Master Auther Drew.

They run down as far as Hull, then Capt. Lathrop decided he would run into Hull and lay there until morning. Here we met the yacht Starlight, owned and sailed by Messrs. Barstowe & Freeman of Norfolk Downs.

On the morning of the 12th the Agilis got underway about 5 o'clock, she was followed out by the Starlight, bound on the same cruise. There was a good breeze and the sea was choppy. As Messrs. Richardson and Croucher had to get home that night the skipper decided he would put into Scituate. The Starlight arrived about half an hour afterwards, an able little seaboat.

We lay there until Tuesday, the 14th, getting under way in the morning early, both run out by the breakwater and shaped our course for Green Harbor, arrived off the mouth of the river about 11 o'clock A. M. we had just got anchored and tied up when the Starlight arrived, but it was slack tide and there was not water enough to get in over the bar. We lay outside until about 9 o'clock. The yachts attracted a good deal of attention on arrival at the bar with their club, private, local and absent flags, also their morning and night guns, for colors.

On the morning of the 18th about 10 o'clock both yachts run out of the river bound home. On the way up we parted company with the Starlight, as she had to run into Scituate. We kept on our course arriving in Hull harbor about 7 35 o'clock A. M, anchoring off Hull club house. About noon of the 19th we run up to our mooring and had dinner on board. We went ashore to part, with the agreement that next season the same voyage will be sailed, all hands having had a jolly good time. It made us sad to have to part. A vote of thanks was given Mr. J. D. Woodbury for acting as cook on the trip, also to Capt. Lathrop for the fun he made for us. I wish you could get him to give you a history of his travels between Green Harbor and Blue Fish Rocks.

AMERICAN CITIES.

St. Paul is the North State City and Minneapolis the Flour City.

Raleigh, N. C., is the Oak City, from the nature of most of its trees.

Up to 1825 Charleston, S. C., had a larger commerce than New York.

Madison, Wis., is the Lake City, from the abundance of beautiful little lakes in the neighborhood.

Pittsburg has 20 blast furnaces, 64 iron and steel mills, 50 glass works, 20 natural gas companies and 60 oil refineries.

Portland, Me., is the winter port for all Canada, which sends out and receives over $50,000,000 worth of goods every winter.

Cincinnati was formerly called Porkopolis, from the prominence of its packing industries. It is no longer entitled to the name.

Cheyenne, Wy., is 6,000 feet above the sea, is 1,918 miles from New York, 1,348 from San Francisco and 1,432 from Galveston.

Buffalo has a city hall which cost $1,350,000. Over 90,000,000 bushels of grain have passed through Buffalo going east in a single season.

The site of old Boston is now given up to the poorest residents in the city. Fashionable Boston is built on the Back Bay on land made by filling up the harbor.

St. Louis is the greatest mule market in the world. The mules that transported the baggage of the British army during the last Egyptian war were bought in St. Louis.

Salt Lake City is one of the most beautiful cities in the United States. It was laid out when land was worthless, the streets are wide, and each has a rivulet running through it.

New York is the first manufacturing city in the country. It has 11,000 factories, which make every year $500,000,000 worth of goods, including $80,000,000 of clothing, $25,000,000 of books and papers and $18,000,000 of cigars. Central park covers 862 acres and cost $15,000,000.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

PLAYS AND PLAYERS.

Mr. Louis Aldrich will make another tour in "My Partner" the coming season.

William Pruette has been engaged to sing the role of Rob Roy in De Koven's new opera of that name.

Mr. C. C. Ferguson, the tenor, has been engaged for a five months' tour through the country with Innes' band.

Besides the successful "New Boy" from London, America is, of course, to be afflicted with an imitation called "The Old Boy."

The American prima donna, Mme. Nordica, has made an immense hit as Elsa in "Lohengrin" at the Wagner festival in Bayreuth.

Lewis Morrison has had an entirely new stage setting constructed for the "Brocken" scene in "Faust" in order to admit some entirely new illusions.

Stuart Robson has declined to play the part of Bottom in "A Midsummer Night's Dream" in Chicago. He does not enjoy the idea of studying the part.

J. H. McVicker is again in personal charge of his Chicago theater after an absence of several months' duration. His health is completely restored.

Augustin Daly is expected to arrive from Europe soon. The first production of the season at his New York theater will be "A Gaiety Girl" early in September.

"New Blood," by Augustus Thomas, which was recently produced by Joseph Brooks' stock company at McVickers' theater, Chicago, appears to have scored a success.

Mr. Frederic Robinson of A. M. Palmer's company has been engaged by Manager Charles Frohman. He will make his first appearance in the production of "The New Boy."

Sir Augustus Harris, the well known theatrical and operatic manager, and Lady Harris will pay a flying visit to New York, Boston and Philadelphia to arrange for the production of a pantomime.

THE STAMP OF STYLE.

A stylishly made dress of Priestly silk warp clairette, with either satin or moire trimming, will be found one of the most satisfactory additions to the summer wardrobe.

A stylish waist is of india silk. The front and back are shirred full at the waist line, a shirred collar and enormous bow finish the neck, and the sleeves are made of black and white striped satin.

A much admired waist is of velvet and embroidery. The sides and back are very nearly close fitting. The front is slightly loose, the sleeves are in full bishop style and shoulder ruffles and a suggestion of a figaro jacket are of embroidery.

The sash is an institution by itself, and the young woman of means invests in one almost every time she goes shopping. Sashes are in all styles, from stiff moire ribbon to soft silk, depending largely on the dresses with which they are worn.

Cotton sateens are again coming into favor. It is to be hoped that some way will be devised to weave them so that they will not get stringy as soon as they are worn. Most of these dresses, after a few hours' use, look as untidy as a tumbled pocket handkerchief.

Draperies are growing more eccentric. One of the latest is an overskirt cut in very wide scallops. A large sized milkpan must have furnished the model for the scallop. This skirt is draped quite full at the sides and very scant in front over a plain skirt of embroidery or some figured material. The waist is of the figured goods. The enormous sleeves are plain, to match the draperies.—New York Ledger.

HERBERT SPENCER'S PROPHECIES.

Alas, poor Herbert Spencer! According to him, this country is going right straight to the demnition bowwows. A child can teach some philosophers wisdom.—Exchange.

Herbert Spencer should take something for his dyspepsia right away or he'll imagine all sorts of calamities are coming to himself as well as to the devoted America.—Boston Globe.

The earthquake shocks and the gloomy prophecies of Herbert Spencer leave little room to doubt the early outbreak of hostilities. The next gale that sweeps from anywhere may bring to our ears the clash of resounding arms.—St. Louis Republic.

Mr. Herbert Spencer suffers from dyspepsia. If it was not such hot weather, his evil prognostications might make us unhappy, too, but nothing can possibly make Boston folk any more miserable than they are at present, not even this "social dissolution" of his prophecy.—Boston Herald.

—Cars were run Wednesday over that portion of the Braintree street railway between South Braintree and Holbrook, and will continue daily.

—Ladies' day of the Hull yacht club Wednesday was in every way a great success. It included a sail, collation, band concert and hop.

Says S. C. Weeks of Melrose, Mass.: "I had been troubled with chronic diarrhoea for over a year when I received a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which I used and it gave me great relief. I then procured a fifty-cent bottle and took about two-thirds of it, and was cured. I have taken some twice since when I had a looseness come on and it stopped it at once. I hope it will help others as it helped me. I feel very thankful to Mr. Stearns, the druggist, for telling me of this remedy and shall be glad to have this letter published."

ALLENS COMPOUND EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA THE HONEST KIND

Receives the Highest Praise from the Best Physicians.

DR. H. F. MERRILL, the wonderful specialist of Augusta, Maine, after giving it a thorough trial in his practice, writes the following convincing letter of praise:

GENTLEMEN:—

I have of late been using some of your medicine in my practice with the most pleasing and satisfactory results. I find that it acts like a charm upon the whole nervous system, and in scrofula and all cutaneous diseases. Its curative properties are fully equal to the claims made for it, and I do not know of one instance where it has not fulfilled all its claims. In cases of General Debility and Nervous Prostration it has proved itself invaluable. It also gives quick relief in Dyspepsia and Canker of the stomach, and is a remarkable fine restorative remedy. It is a great pleasure to be able to recommend such a remedy, as the results following its use are so wonderfully satisfactory. One great thing in its favor is its freedom from superfluous alcohol, and all injurious ingredients.

DR. H. F. MERRILL.

PROF. W. H. MORSE, M. D., F. B. S. Sc. of Westfield, N. J., author of "New Therapeutical Agents", the standard text book of the newer materia medica, Consulting Chemist and Therapeutist, one of the most widely known men among the medical profession gives it his highest endorsement, as testified by the following voluntary statement:

"Allen's Sarsaparilla commends itself to me therapeutically, chemically and clinically. Its therapeutical power, physiological activity, and chemical purity, are all noteworthy; and the reason is to be found in the fact that it is true to its name, or honest, as the word goes. That is, it is vegetable alterative, and tonic. Perhaps the highest praise that may be given it is that its action represents that of mercury, less the faults of that drug; for, has not Pereira said, "A perfect mercury would be a perfect alterative."

W. H. MORSE, M. D., F. B. S. Sc.,
Westfield, N. J.

Although Allen's Sarsaparilla is such a valuable remedy it is not at all expensive, being the largest bottle on the market for $1.00. Trial bottles 50 cts.

Slocum's Ozonized Norwegian Cod Liver Oil

With Guaiacol

It is as easy to explain a cold as to catch one. The skin, exposed to a sudden change in temperature, ceases to throw off waste matter, and double duty is imposed upon the lungs. Hence, inflammation of the bronchial tubes and frequently consumption. A medicine to cure consumption must help not only the lungs but the stomach, because good appetite and good digestion are required to fortify the system. Slocum's Ozonized Norwegian Cod Liver Oil, with Guaiacol, is a great flesh-maker.

NOTICE TO INVENTORS.

THERE Was never a time in the history of our country when the demand for inventions and improvements in the arts and sciences generally was so great as now. The conveniences of man-kind in the factory and work-shop, the household, on the farm, and in official life, require continual accessions to the appurtances and implements of each in order to save labor, time and expense. The political change in the administration of government does not affect the progress of the American inventor, who, being on the alert, and ready to perceive the existing deficiences, does not permit the affairs of government to deter him from quickly conceiving the remedy to overcome existing discrepancies. Too great care cannot be exercised in choosing a competent and skilful attorney to prepare and prosecute an application for patent. Valuable interests have been lost and destroyed in innumerable instances by the employment of incompetent counsel, and especially is this advice applicable to those who adopt the "No patent, no pay" system. Inventors who intrust their business to this class of attorneys do so at imminent risk, as the breadth and strength of the patent is never considered in view of a quick endeavor to get an allowance and obtain the fee then due. THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY, John Wedderburn, General Manager, 618 F street, N. W., Washington, D. C., representing a large number of important daily and weekly papers, as well as general periodicals of the country, was instituted to protect its patrons from the unsafe methods heretofore employed in this line of business. The said Company is prepared to take charge of all patent business entrusted to it for reasonable fees, and prepares and prosecutes applications generally, including mechanical inventions, design patents, trade marks, labels, copyrights, interferences, infringements, validity reports, and gives especial attention to rejected cases. It is also prepared to enter into competition with any firm in securing foreign patents.

A $15,000 Fire at Haverhill.

HAVERHILL, Mass., Aug. 23.—The four-story Chase block on Merrimack street was the scene of a $15,000 blaze last evening. The fire started on the second floor in a suite of rooms occupied by J. H. Norton & Co., upholsterers, and its origin is shrouded in mystery. Several occupants had narrow escapes fleeing from the building.

A Sick-Bed Confession.

LOWELL, Mass., Aug. 23.—Mary A. Hatch, a widow, aged 57 years, lies at St. John's hospital, seriously sick, having been removed there from a charitable institution. She has confessed to a clergyman of having stolen quantities of goods from Boston stores, a portion of which plunder is in trunks still in her possession.

Narrow Escape From Wreck.

PROVIDENCE, Aug. 23.—Four-masted schooner O. H. Brown collided with the steamship City of Berlin off Fire island during a fog Monday night, the steamship scraping along the schooner's side and cutting off all chains, bolts and plates as if done by a plane.

PEN, CHISEL AND BRUSH.

William Black is reported to be Queen Victoria's favorite novelist.

Count Tolstoi is writing a "cosmopolitan drama," which he says is to be the last of his works.

Daudet, one of the best novelists of the day, has tried to dictate his work, but finds it unsatisfactory and has resumed his labor with his pen.

Caroline Bruce and Agnes Kjellberg, two Swedish ladies, have received honorable mention at the Paris salon for sculpture. The latter holds the scholarship of the Swedish academy.

Colored people of Philadelphia can boast of having graduated from their ranks the finest artist of their race in America. Henry C. Tanner's picture of "The Bagpipe Lesson" excited great interest at a recent academy exhibit.

One of the pictures at the Royal academy this year is a portrait of Mme. Sarah Grand. It is the work of Miss Augusta Becher, and it represents the writer as a rather scrawnily æsthetic looking person, with prominent cheek and collar bones, and hair done low in the neck.

ERRORS IN THE NEW TARIFF BILL

Not Important Enough to Cause Serious Concern.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23.—Receipts from internal revenue service continue to be abnormally large, with every prospect of continuing so until the new tariff bill goes into effect.

During these last working days, from Aug. 15, the receipts have reached the unprecedented sum of $11,000,122, and it is confidently expected that by next Saturday at midnight, when the new act will become operative, the aggregate receipts for the preceding 10 days will have reached $15,000,000.

These large receipts under the circumstances are deprecated by the treasury officials, who liken the situation to that of the poor man paying 10 per cent per month for money upon which to live. The reason for this is that the aid coming to the treasury in this way is only temporary at best, and will really add to the embarrassment later on, for on every gallon of whisky now being withdrawn, the government sooner or later is bound to lose 20 cents.

As soon as the tariff bill goes into operation the receipts from this source are expected to drop down to a merely nominal amount, and so continue some months until the great supply now being laid in is exhausted. These abnormally large receipts have swelled the cash balance in the treasury to nearly $121,000,000. At the same time the gold reserve is slowly increasing, until it has now reached $54,000,000. This increase is due almost entirely to the western demand for small notes with which to harvest the crops.

Rushing It Along.

Preparations for carrying into effect the new tariff bill are going forward at the treasury department with all possible speed. Secretary Carlisle has already prepared a blank form of license for custom house brokers provided for in the bill, and it is now in the hands of the printer.

Several clerks are also hard at work preparing an index for the new bill. This will occupy about 20 pages in the new tariff volume, which, for the convenience of custom officials, will contain both the new law and the McKinley act of 1890. It is expected that by the time the new bill becomes a law, all preliminary work, save that of issuing instructions to customs and internal revenue officials, will have been done.

Nothing to Worry About.

The legislative and engrossing clerks of the senate have been comparing the statement of errors in the new tariff bill made in various papers yesterday with copies of the bill, and say that there are only two or three errors that need give importers or the officers of the treasury any concern.

These are the paragraphs relating to the free admission of alcohol for use in the arts, the diamond schedule and perhaps the omission of a period in the paragraph relating to stamping foreign manufactures. Even in the case of diamonds, they believe the construction placed will be that intended by congress, and that they will pay the duty imposed on precious stones.

As to the other errors enumerated, it is claimed by these clerks that by no system of construction can the alleged mistakes in punctuation be made to either impose higher duties or allow the free admission of articles named.

To Serve Three Years.

TOPEKA, Aug. 23.—The 29th triennial convention of the general grand chapter of the Royal Arch Masons of America elected the following officers for the ensuing three years: General grand master, J. W. Coburg, New York; general grand deputy master, Bradford Nichol, Nashville; general grand principal conductor, W. A. Love, Atlanta; general grand treasurer, C. H. Heaton, Montpelier, Vt.; general grand recorder, H. W. Murdhurst, Fort Wayne; general grand captain of the guard, W. H. Mayo, St. Louis; general grand conductor of council, S. Bowen, Boston; general grand marshal, G. D. McBride, Gallipolis, O.; general grand steward, A. P. Swanstrom, St. Paul.

Greatly Beyond Expectations.

SANDY HOOK, N. J., Aug. 23.—In continuation of the trial of the pneumatic dynamite guns, the test yesterday was for accuracy. Eight loaded 10-inch projectiles, each containing 200 pounds of nitro gelatine, all struck the water apparently in the same spot. The range was 3500 yards. Those who witnessed the exhibition were not merely satisfied, but amazed.

Crisp's Prediction.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23.—Speaker Crisp said yesterday that he felt very certain that the tariff bill would become a law without the executive signature, and that congress would adjourn within an hour after this fact becomes known to the members and senators.

Waste of Printers' Ink.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23.—The Congressional Record yesterday contained 85 pages of Senator Quay's speech, inserted under the "leave to print" privilege. Representative Brosius (Rep., Pa.), under "leave to print," has a speech loaded with campaign poetry.

"Treasury Watchdog" Renominated.

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., Aug. 22.—Congressman Holman was nominated in this (Fourth) district yesterday on the first ballot. Hall received 30 votes and Holman 166. At the expiration of this term, Holman will have been in congress 30 years.

Does the Barber Act.

FORT WAYNE, Aug. 23.—Mabel Shelvsey, aged 14, was followed by a man yesterday, who seized her long flowing locks in one hand and slashed them off close to the head with a razor. Several ladies have been similarly attacked recently.

Each Crowd Is Distinct.

BERLIN, Aug. 23.—Regarding the alleged connection between anarchists here and anarchists of Chicago, or any other American city, there is nothing to warrant the statement that such a connection exists.

A Correction.

BUENOS AYRES, Aug. 23.—The statement that the appeal of Jabez Balfour against his extradition had been rejected was premature. It has not yet been decided upon.

THE SALVADOREAN REFUGEES

Have Got Federal Authorities Tangled Up In Government Red Tape.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 23.—The singular international complications involving the liberty of General Ezeta and his fellow refugees, which have been so prolific in opera bouffe sensations, developed a new tinge of conflicting authority yesterday. Warrants were finally issued for the arrest of the refugees, but they could not be served.

United States Marshal Baldwin, armed with the authority of the federal courts, set out to have the refugees brought within the jurisdiction of the law, but he ran up against Captain Hawalson, commanding Mare island navy yard, who declared he had no legal authority to furnish transportation for the marshal, and he refused to place that official on board the Bennington. Without the assistance of the navy department, the marshal could not reach the gunboat. The law allows the marshal but $2 for serving each warrant, and under this compensation he could not afford to hire a tugboat.

Furthermore, Captain Thomas of the Bennington, has strict orders to receive no one on board his ship but accredited naval officers from Mare island. Under these conditions, the United States marshal must have the assistance of the naval authorities, if he shall ever arrest the culprits of whom he is in pursuit.

BY HIS OWN HAND.

Questions as to Whether Juul's Suicide Was Accidental or Otherwise.

BOSTON, Aug. 23.—When Conrad Juul, a Danvers contractor, rose from his bed in Lexington on Tuesday morning he forgot his 38-caliber revolver, and the person who made his bed up found the weapon under his pillow. Juul did not forget it yesterday, and his young son Neil found the father's gasping body with the revolver under his left leg.

The dying man was taken to a house near by. He was unconscious, and remained so until he died, about 9 o'clock. Drs. Valentine and Tilton were called, but could do nothing. There was a hole in the man's head into which a finger could be inserted. Medical Examiner Marsh of Winchester held an examination, the result of which was a finding of "accidental shooting."

But the motive? Here's the mystery. There is nothing to point to suicide in the dead man's affairs. He was happily married and in good circumstances.

He was in Dr. Valentine's office the night before the shooting, and appeared to be in his usual good spirits. The physician says that he had no physical ailment which might have caused him to act rashly.

Electric Companies May Fight.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 23.—The Westrom Electric company of Baltimore has sold out to the Fort Wayne Electric corporation. This deal puts the Fort Wayne company in control of patents which it is said are being infringed by other manufacturers, and the Fort Wayne company will, it is said, immediately begin an active fight upon all who are reported as infringing its patents.

Killed by Machinery.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass, Aug. 23.—Jeremiah Doyle met a frightful death at the West End railway power house last evening. While at work he missed his footing and fell between two engine wheels, which were about eight inches apart. In falling his clothing became entangled in the machinery and he was horribly mangled. Death must have resulted almost instantly.

Bad Celestials.

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—There was a riot in Chinatown yesterday. Thirty Celestials battled with clubs and other weapons. It required a section of police to quell the disturbance. Eight Chinamen were made prisoners, and Sam Wah, a laundryman, was sent to the hospital. The trouble arose over the theft of $12 by five Chinamen.

Favorable to Pullman.

CHICAGO, Aug. 23.—Several of the witnesses examined by the strike commission yesterday gave testimony very favorable to the Pullman company, in which employes' heavy expenditures for liquor and cheap rents at Pullman figured largely. The commission has concluded its inquiry into the strike from the side of employes.

Crack Racers Coming East.

PORTLAND, Me., Aug. 23.—Alix and Directum are to race on Rigby track for a purse of $10,000. This race will be the most important in the history of New England tracks, and will come off about Sept. 20.

Ran Into a Cattle Guard.

HAZEL, Ky., Aug. 23.—As a northbound express train was nearing this place yesterday it struck a wagon loaded with people, killing five of the occupants and wounding one. The team was crossing the railroad track, and ran into a cattle guard.

Ed Peace Is Very Sick.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 23.—Ed Peace, captain of the Princeton football team of 1883, a noted college athlete and member of the City Troop and Philadelphia club of this city, is dangerously sick with neuritis. Recovery is doubtful.

Excursionists All Escape.

RAT PORTAGE, Ont., Aug. 23.—The steamer Monarch struck a rock and went to the bottom at Long Sault, Rainey river, and 50 excursionists escaped by a rope. None were lost. The steamer was the largest on the lakes.

Receiver For the South Jersey.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 23.—The South Jersey railroad, which only two months ago opened its line to Cape May, has passed into the hands of a receiver. The urgent unsecured indebtedness is $35,000.

Bicycle Records Lowered.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Aug. 23.—J. P. Bliss made a new world's bicycle record, half-mile, flying start, of 54 3-5s.; also, world's standing start of 58 1-5s, at Hampden park yesterday afternoon.

A Dishonest Executive.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 23.—Mayor Callahan was yesterday convicted of demanding and receiving bribes while a member of the city council. There are several indictments against Callahan.

Cremated in a Mow.

FOREST, Ont., Aug. 23.—A threshing machine in William Hayward's barn broke the cylinder shaft and fired the straw, cremating two men who were in the mow above.

The Duryea Cup Race.

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 23.—The race for the Duryee cup was sailed yesterday. The finish was in the order following: Vaquero, Celia, Adelaide, Houri, Dorothy.

PATENTS

FOR INVENTIONS.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuable inventions because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With the view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys, and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, we have retained counsel expert in patent practice, and therefore are prepared to

Obtain Patents in the United States and all Foreign Countries, Conduct Interferences, Make Special Examinations, Prosecute Rejected Cases, Register Trade-Marks and Copyrights, Render Opinions as to Scope and Validity of Patents, Prosecute and Defend Infringement Suits, Etc., Etc.

If you have an invention on hand send a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be at once advised as to the best course to pursue. Models are seldom necessary. If others are infringing on your rights, or if you are charged with infringement by others, submit the matter to us for a reliable OPINION before acting on the matter.

The ladies in this vicinity will appreciate the introduction of the celebrated Standard Patterns, of which we have put in a full line, and will certainly be a convenience to our numerous patrons.

After a thorough examination by ourselves, and receiving the endorsement of some of the best dry goods houses in the New England states, and particularly from several houses who formerly carried Buttericks—who now carry the Standard—we are convinced that the "Standard Patterns" are far superior to all others in being more up to date, better modeled, simpler directions for making—insuring perfect satisfaction, a great saving in time, much less fitting to do, and allowing just enough seams, thereby considerable saving in material—there being no waste as in others every pattern is modeled to the human form, and are so nicely proportioned that it is almost impossible to produce anything (if directions are followed, and which are extremely simple) but a beautiful fitting garment

Try one of the STANDARD PATTERNS on our recommendation and we think you will agree with us that they are better than any other pattern sold in this city.

CONGRESS IS TIED UP.

Sergeant-at-Arms Will Try to Hunt Up Absent Senators.

CLEVELAND AND THE TARIFF BILL

The Principal Topic of Discussion at the Capital.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—Without even waiting for the reading of Wednesday's journal the absence of a quorum of senators was pointed out yesterday, and the senate got into a hard knot, which it was impossible to untie. Absolutely no business was done beyond receiving the report of the sergeant-at-arms, and then making orders more stringent by directing him to compel the attendance of the absentees. After drifting aimlessly on the stagnant road of inactivity, the senators who were present got tired of waiting for their absent colleagues and adjourned.

The Return of the President has again aroused interest in the fate of the tariff bill. The rumors that he intends to veto the measure are being circulated with more persistency than apparent foundation. These reports have their rise principally from two sources, the first from leading Republicans in both houses of congress, who are anxious to have the measure vetoed, and the second emanates from Wall street, and are used there for stock-jobbing purposes.

When the president left Washington for Gray Gables, remarked a high official yesterday, it was his purpose to allow the bill to become law without his signature, and if the president has changed his mind since then, none of those who are on intimate terms with him are aware of the fact. There are the very best of reasons for believing that this change has not occurred.

Everything that has taken place through the secretary of the treasury and the attorney general points to the belief that they think the bill is to become a law. The fact that the secretary of the treasury has written numerous letters to importers, giving them information as to the effect of the proposed measure, is regarded as conclusive evidence that the law is to go into operation.

Will Surely Become a Law.

Those who are supposed to have some knowledge of the president's intentions, and these include Chairman Wilson, Speaker Crisp, Senators Vilas, Mills and Gray, feel certain that the bill will become a law. The president may not sign, the gentlemen assert, although this is not regarded as impossible. Hundreds of letters have been received by the president from prominent Democrats from all over the country, urging him to sign the bill.

Several members of the cabinet who saw the president yesterday afterward stated their belief that no change had come over him during his stay at Buzzard's Bay, Mass., and that he would permit the tariff bill to become a law without his signature. It is generally thought, however, that the president will send a message to the house announcing that he has permitted the bill to become a law and announcing his reasons therefor.

The house held a session of an hour yesterday. A few bills of local interest were passed by unanimous consent. The only thing of general importance was the adoption of a resolution directing the secretary of the navy to remove some of the alleged defective armor plates from vessels, and subject them to the ballistic test at the Indian Head proving ground. Mr. Cummings, the chairman of the committee, declared that a point in the investigation had been reached where this action was necessary.

Nash and Lowe fielded beautifully, and Lowe and Stivetts raised their batting averages. McAleer played a perfect game at center, and Zimmer found two triples in Stivetts' delivery.

ALLOWANCE CUT OFF.

A Decision Which Does Not Please King Philip Mill Strikers.

ARBITRATORS AT NEW BEDFORD

Listen to Both Sides of the Strike Question.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Aug. 24.—The weavers' association held a special meeting yesterday afternoon to consider the continuance or suspension of the allowance which the striking weavers have been drawing for 20 weeks. The meeting was very lightly attended. A delegation of the strikers under consideration was allowed to be present, but they were not allowed to vote.

The sentiment of the members was against allowing the King Philip strikers any special allowance. They have been drawing $4 each, and every member with children has received 50 cents a week for each under 10—the money for these allowances was secured by a special levy of 10 cents a member.

When the strikers present understood that the feeling was against the continuance of their allowance they were bitter in their denunciation of the members for such action. The meeting lasted two hours, and the members became much excited. The King Philip weavers protested against the cutting off of their allowances, as their 20 weeks of idleness had given them no opportunity to strengthen their own resources.

The convincing argument was that the weavers of the several mills that had shut down for repairs during the labor difficulty could claim breakdown pay from the association during the vacation if the King Philip weavers' allowances were continued. The vote was 38 to 15 against continuing the allowances until the association should act upon the question at the next general meeting, three weeks hence. The regular allowance for this week will be paid.

The shutdown of the mills today is not attended by any excitement. The operatives are accustomed to shutdowns because of strikes or depression in business and take them quietly. The streets are crowded with idle mill people, but they have more the appearance of people on a holiday than of people out of work.

There is a general hope among the manufacturers as well as among the operatives that the shutdown will by the attendant curtailment improve the market, and so render the reduction in wages unnecessary when the mills finally start up again.

TALKED STATISTICS.

The Strike Situation as Viewed by Both Sides at New Bedford.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Aug. 24.—The state board of arbitration held a three hours' session here last night. Representatives of all the labor unions were present. William W. Crapo, one of the city's leading manufacturers and president of the Wamsutta corporation, was present, armed with statistics.

He said he did not come to represent manufacturers, but as a private citizen. He contested the arguments of labor men hotly, on the ground that the situation was entirely due to the condition of the cloth market, and on the same basis endeavored to prove that the wage reduction was justified. Several hot exchanges took place between him and Secretary Ross.

Mr. Ross said it was a matter of experience that one reduction in wages is usually followed by another. In 1884 they were reduced 13½ per cent, in '85 10 per cent more, or at least a reduction of 23½ per cent in two years. Between these years he said a reduction in the spinning of fine numbers was made amounting to 30 per cent. Out of all these reductions only 12½ per cent has been restored.

"The condition of the markets since then," said Mr. Ross, "have warranted further increases, and when the spinners asked for a 10 per cent advance they received 7. Under this condition of affairs things went along till last year, when another reduction of 10 per cent was enforced. The spinners asked for a conference, and it was granted. The outcome was that the reduction was accepted. In all that time manufacturers have never voluntarily increased wages, no matter how high prices were.

"Although trade has been bad for some time, still many corporations have been making money. We were not told the amount of this last reduction, and spinners will never go back to work till they know what prices are to be. We want the best feeling to exist between spinners and manufacturers." Other labor men spoke in the same vein.

In reply, Mr. Crapo said he considered the labor men had testified with great moderation, but considered them in the wrong. Mill men would all like to pay high wages. Manufacturers have resorted to every fair means before reducing wages, and some corporations have been paying dividends out of money laid away for other purposes. After this wages were reduced. Manufacturers did everything to make both ends meet before a reduction was enforced. There are 1200 stockholders in the Wamsutta corporation, and most of them are poor women.

Mr. Crapo was then asked if he was willing to submit the matter to arbitration. He replied that he was not willing to take the responsibility on his shoulders, but that he would not be an objector to such a course. The public are anxiously watching the outcome of the conference.

Two Records Broken.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 24.—W. W. Taxis made a flying half mile against the state bicycle record yesterday, lowering it from 1:03 1-5 to 1:02 2-5. Richardson lowered his own record for backward riding from 2:35 to 2:32 4-5.

MR. BURGIN APPOINTED.

The New City Treasurer One of Quincy's Bright Young Men.

Mayor Hodges has appointed Mr. Clarence Burgin to succeed City Treasurer Adams resigned. Mr. Burgin is one of our accomplished young men, a native of the Green Mountain state, being born in Rutland, Oct. 27, 1865. He came to Quincy in 1884.

Mr. Burgin is the son of Mr. Thomas Burgin and Mrs. Jane (Scudder) Burgin, both of London, England. In 1870 the family moved from Rutland to Springfield, Mass., and it was in that city Treasurer Burgin was educated, graduating from the High school in 1882. While perusing his regular studies in the High school he attended the evening drawing school.

Mr. Burgin was first employed by Charles Sidney, architect and civil engineer. In 1883 he went to Boston and worked for John Lyman Faxon, the architect, and the following January entered the employ of Frederick & Field of this city as bookkeeper and draughtsman, continuing five years.

In 1888 he entered in partnership with R. D. Gordon of this city, to engage in the wholesale and retail jewelry business, and is still actively engaged at No. 6 Winter street, Boston.

During the vacations of Mr. Horace F. Spear the past four years, Mr. Burgin has acted as cashier of the National Mount Wollaston Bank and conducted the affair very satisfactory. He is treasurer and director of the Lyons Granite Co., and represents the corporation in the Granite Manufacturers' Association. He is also a director of the Quincy Quarry Company, and a member of Rural lodge, F. A. M.; St. Stephen's chapter, R. A. M; and South Shore commandery of Knight Templars.

Mr. Burgin has shown an interest in all matters of finance, and by the positions he has held has proved himself a good accountant and competent bookkeeper. He has attended to all the finances of the Quincy Quarry Company, and with the endorsement of the retiring City Treasurer and bank directors promises to make a worthy treasurer and official for the city of Quincy. He was the candidate of the Democrats of the present City Council for the position of City Auditor, but does not consider himself a Democrat. In 1891 and 1892 he was a member of the Republican Ward and City Committee. The appointment is therefore a non-partisan one.

Danger All Around.

W. E. Simmons, Jr., a well known bicyclist of Wollaston went into training Wednesday evening as a hurdle jumper. He was riding on the Quincy Point bridge when to escape a runaway horse he jumped over the fence onto the portion of the bridge used by the street railway, and then to avoid being runover by an electric car he jumped the other fence into the river. He was rescued in an exhausted condition by Albert Smith and Edward Hyland who were in a row boat near by.

MILTON.

The new school building on Church street, East Milton, which was fully described in the LEDGER two weeks ago was thrown open for public inspection Thursday, from 2 to 6 P. M., and many citizens availed themselves of the opportunity to inspect this model building. Invitations had been sent to the school committee of adjoining towns and [illegible] also present.

There was no formal exercises [illegible] as the dedication will be held next month.

MY! WHAT A CROWD

The Annual Illumination at Houghs Neck Last Night

ATTRACTED MANY THOUSANDS.

The Ledger Representatives Obtain a Good Report of Decorations.

The annual illumination of Houghs Neck is over and the season of '94 can be said to have been mustered out in grand style and by a large number of people, way up into the thousands.

The last box of red fire has been burned, the last rocket exploded and the candles in the thousands of lanterns has burnt into the sockets and the season of 1894 has passed into history.

It was well into morning before the last light was extinguished and many a sigh of relief went up that there had been no serious accident or fire to mar the occasion.

The day was all that could be desired, and everything passed off according to the programme, and taken as a whole the event eclipsed all previous efforts in the point of number of cottages illuminated and in attendance.

The crowd began to go down early in the day, and few of the cars had spare seats after the early morning trip. In the evening they gathered thick and fast and in all manner of conveyances. Some came on wheels other in carriages, hay racks, barges, tally-hos and some even walked. The street railway was taxed to its utmost and considering the crowd they handled them well.

A Grand Sight.

In the evening the sight was grand, the whole place being one mass of flags, bunting and Chinese lanterns which coupled with the numerous fireworks that were exploded at different points, and the music of the Columbus band on The Plains, the National band at Taber's, and the orchestra music in the dance halls, and the ever floating crowds, made the scene a fascinating one not soon to be forgotten.

Crowds would gather on the main street only to be broken by a crowd of bicyclists or a team, and the officers on duty had no easy time of it. Yet it was a happy-go-lucky sort of crowd and as there was very little drunkenness the quiet ones were spared the sight of the drunken rows that usually take place on such an occasion as this.

The festivities commenced at 1 o'clock with the children's festival, and about 350 were treated to ice cream and cake at the car house.

Then the steamer Athlete and the numerous yachts of the Quincy Yacht club took many ladies for a sail about the bay.

At 3 o'clock the band arrived and were stationed near the club house and Punch and Judy held forth in the field back of the Pavilion.

Result of Sports.

Later came the sports which resulted as follows:

Running race—John Nolan first, Homer Fitts second, Adolph Moebs third.

Sack race—Adolph Moebs first, John Nolan second, Walter Dolan third.

Potato race—John Nolan first, Homer Fitts second, Adolph Moebs third.

Blind hunt for a dollar—Charles Kelly.

Tub race—William Jacobs first, Adolph Moebs second.

Skiff race—William Moebs first, George F. Munn second.

In the Evening.

As night drew on the band was moved to the band stand on The Plains.

Chief of Police Hayden with a force of specials arrived.

Soon after Combination No. 2 of Atlantic with Engineer Edwards and Capt. Nyhan put in an appearance and Capt. Nyhan put his men doing patrol duty about the Neck. At the Chemical house Engineer Packard held forth with his weather eye open to see that things went along all right and proper.

A climb to the top of Great Hill well repaid the exertion, for as far as the eye could see there was one tangle of lights. The individual beauty of each could not be seen, however, except upon a close inspection.

Along Sea street Capt. Boyd, with his usual patriotic spirit, outdid himself at the postoffice, the front being covered with flags and lanterns. All of the various booths on this street were also gayly decorated.

On the Bayside.

On Bay View avenue and The Plains the decorations were many.

The Mascot was gaily bedecked with red and blue oil lanterns, which gave a pleasing effect to the bunting draped about the piazza.

Henry Moebs at the Bayside as usual made a great display. Around the edge of the house was transparent bunting and numerous lanterns. On a large flag pole were strung quantities of lanterns and about the whole yard were hundreds of lanterns of all shapes and sizes.

One of the prettiest illuminations was that of Mrs. Eastman at the Dot. The piazza was prettily trimmed with golden rod and flag bunting while strings of lanterns were suspended from the roof to the piazza and from there to a pole in the [illegible]where.

A well known Quincy man was driving from Wollaston to Quincy, Thursday afternoon, on Newport avenue, when his horse deliberately turned a somersault in the shafts. The horse was slightly bruised, and the harness injured a little, but otherwise there was no damage and he proceeded on to Quincy.

Boston papers reports two Swedish girls, giving their names as Helen Jackson and Nellie Nelson of Quincy, being arrested by Inspector Knox Thursday afternoon on the charge of shoplifting. The girls were but 16 and 18 years of age. They were committed to the House of Detention and their friends notified of their whereabouts.

NOT FOR MONEY VALUE.

A Woman Who Has For Many Years Made a Business of Stealing.

BOSTON, Aug. 24.—In the Lowell general hospital in the city of Lowell there lies at the point of death a woman who, for her whole life long, has been a victim of kleptomania.

Her true name is Mrs. Mary A. Hatch, but during the 15 years in which she has been known to the police of Boston she has borne numerous allases, among others those of Stevens and Hammond. The latter is the name she has most commonly used.

Seven years ago, when the first case was made out against her, she was a good-looking woman of about 50, of youthful appearance for her age, and generally dressed in the height of fashion.

The most curious fact in connection with the woman's long career of thievery appears to be that she has never sold or even offered for sale any of the articles which she took from the various stores. As she told the Lowell officers, and later Inspector Knox, her collection was begun over eight years ago, and has been steadily accumulating ever since, and nothing has been taken from it.

AFTER MANY YEARS.

A Divorced Woman Kidnaps Her Child and Mysteriously Disappears.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 24.—Mary Meyer, the 14-year-old daughter of Gottlieb Meyer, was playing in front of her home, at 552 Scovill avenue, when she was approached by a strange woman.

"Are you Mary Meyer?" asked the woman. "Yes," replied Mary.

"My child," exclaimed the woman, throwing her arms about her neck and wrapping the heavy cloak she wore about the frightened girl. Since that time nothing has been seen or heard of the girl or the strange woman.

Fifteen years ago Meyer was married to Mary's mother in Switzerland, and four years later they were divorced, Meyer coming to Cleveland and his divorced wife remaining in Switzerland. Meyer again married and has since lived in Cleveland.

He heard his divorced wife was in New York and was planning to kidnap Mary and take her back to Switzerland. He guarded her carefully, but relaxing his vigilance Wednesday night for a short time, the opportunity looked for by the mother presented itself, and Mary was carried away.

One May Die.

MORRISVILLE, Vt., Aug. 24.—Officers of this town were summoned at 2 o'clock yesterday morning to arrest two men, John McDermott and Gregg Aldrich. Both were intoxicated and had been fighting for several hours at a point a mile from here. Both were taken to jail, where Aldrich is in a very dangerous condition. His skull is thought to be fractured, and it is believed that he will die. There will be no hearing in the case until Aldrich's real condition is known.

Calm at Suncook.

SUNCOOK, N. H., Aug. 24.—The strike situation here is about the same, 400 of 1500 employes being out. A committee waited on Agent Jewell, who informed them that they had better work and let Fall River settle the question. The selectmen of Allenstown and Pembroke have taken measures to prevent unlawful demonstrations during the strike, saloons being closed and a large force of special police sworn in.

One Year For Kane.

BOSTON, Aug. 24.—One year in the house of correction was the sentence imposed upon Henry Kane yesterday by Judge Dewey, for manslaughter in causing the death of Daniel Connolly, June 26 last. The deceased, who was a baseball umpire, was struck by the defendant, on Court street, near Alden street, June 25, felled to the ground and died the next day from his injuries.

Warning to Japanese.

SHANGHAI, Aug. 24.—Owing to Chinese irritation against the practice of Japanese residents here wearing the Chinese costume, the American consul has ordered all the Japanese within his jurisdiction to wear the clothing of their own country. The consul also expressed the opinion that they would best consult their own safety by returning to Japan.

Independents Denounced.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 24.—Resolutions roundly condemning the new Polish Independent Catholic church were adopted by the Roman Catholic Polish union. Officers were elected as follows: President, Josh Josewisk, Bay City, Mich.; vice president, Boles Laus Strazinski, Milwaukee; secretary, Frank Wiklinski, Chicago.

Butchered by a Doctor.

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—A coroner's jury last evening held Dr. E. R. McIntyre for the grand jury to answer to a charge of malpractice. Mrs. Elizabeth Raymond died a day ago, after giving berth to twins. Dr. Mitchell of the coroner's office testified that he found the woman mutilated in a shocking manner.

It Will Bring Peace.

PARIS, Aug. 24.—The Journal Des Debats asserts that King Humbert of Italy will create the "Viceroyalty of Sicily," and will make the Prince of Naples viceroy. It says the news of the king's intention is favorably received in Italy as a happy solution of the problem of Sicilian disaffection.

A Hot Battle.

MOUNT PLEASANT, Pa., Aug. 24.—Slav coke strikers were coming through West Overton when one of them fired off a pistol. It started a pitched battle with the colored men of the plant. Several hundred shots were exchanged, but the only person hit was a Slav, who is expected to die.

Signs of Prosperity.

LAWRENCE, Mass., Aug. 24.—The valuation of the city, as shown by the assessors, is $33,436,593—$8,458,718 personal and $24,-997,875 real estate. The gain over 1893 is $229,221. The tax rate is $16 per $1000, 80 cents lower than 1893. The Pacific mills pays the largest tax, $68,000.

Electrics Scared the Horse.

NEW LONDON, Conn., Aug. 24.—The New London Street railroad was sued yesterday by Gordon W. Miller and Charles H. Church for $3000. They were thrown out of a team, the horse being scared by electric cars, and dumped on rocks.

Another Tie-Up Threatened.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 24.—The employes of the Hocking Valley railway at Nelsonville are on a strike, because Receiver Waite has not recognized the old committee of the employes that managed the former strike. It promises another tie-up.

Ask the men who are making imitations of COTTOLENE, the new vegetable shortening, why they give up lard and try to trade on the merits of COTTOLENE? Perhaps you can guess why.

Why should not YOU use COTTOLENE, instead of Lard for all cooking purposes? It has the highest possible endorsement from Physicians as to healthfulness; from Cooking Experts as to superiority; from housekeepers as to economy. Use COTTOLENE and stick to it.

THE CROOK HELD.

Stanton Alias Shelden Held by Dorchester Court for Grand Jury.

William A. Stanton, alias John P. Sheldon, was arraigned Thursday in the Dorchester police court charged with an attempt to rob the safe in the dry goods store of James B. Light at Neponset. He waived examination and was held for the superior court in $1500 bonds. In default he was committed to the Charles street jail, and Officer McKay, who had warrant with him charging Stanton with the Quincy robbery, delivered it at the jail, so that the crook might be re-arrested should he be bailed.

WHAT ARE THE "BLUES"?

Woman's Color is an Unfailing Thermometer.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

A woman's thermometer is her color. She is red with embarrassment or some deep emotion; she is white with fright; she is supposed to be green with envy; but when she is blue it means that she is sick.

It is not the fault of the woman if she has the blues and that "want-to-be-let-alone" feeling. It is the fault of her condition which makes happiness impossible.

No woman can be happy and light-hearted when painful female complaints crush out her life.

If she is melancholy, excitable, nervous, dizzy, or troubled with sleeplessness or fainting spells, they are symptoms of serious female weakness.

A leaf out of the experience of Mrs. Anna Miller, who lives at Duhring, Pa., shows that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will cure that terrible weakness and bearing-down pain in the abdomen, the dizziness in the head, the feeling of irritability, and loss of appetite.

"I can highly recommend your Vegetable Compound," she writes, "for all female complaints. It's my greatest friend."

Squire's cottage occupied by J. J Gutierrez had its piazza covered with lanterns, shedding a brightness all around.

Heath cottage had strings of lanterns from the gable end to the piazza top and the Roxbury orchestra enlivened the occasion.

On Bell Street.

Camp Comfort had its yard hung with lanterns.

The Little Jack had its piazza hung with numerous lanterns.

Mrs. John Robertson of the Fayolin, had her piazza hung with lanterns and bunting.

Notes by the Way.

A party from Nantasket called upon Charles Jacobs of the Jackson cottage and presented him with a gold-mounted whip.

Day fireworks were set off near Mears' pavilion in the afternoon.

Many of the residents kept open house throughout the day and evening and entertained largely.

The six policemen on duty had their hands full in the evening keeping the teams in the main street moving.

Not an arrest was made.

The crowd gathered was the largest ever there and is variously estimated from ten to fifteen thousand.

Officer McAloon had an accident. He was riding down on his wheel when he came into collision with a team with a drunken driver. He was thrown off and bruised and his wheel smashed.

The Wollaston Cycle club, headed by a drum, paraded about the beach.

There were a number of other cottages that were illuminated, but as some of them had no name and the occupants were absent when the LEDGER man called they do not appear here.

The street railway had 15 cars on the Manet line and although at times it consumed some time to reach Quincy when the last cars left the beach at 1.10 this morning everybody that wanted to had gone and two cars came up empty.

The celebration in the afternoon was fully, if not more enjoyable than that of the evening as the crowd was not so large and then the ladies had an opportunity to enjoy the sail.

THE TATTLER.

Mrs. Spencer of Bourbon, Ind., now 60 years of age, has had 11 husbands and seven sets of children.

Mrs. Eugene Kelly, Jr., wife of the New York banker's son, is a Mexican, but not a great beauty. She is a decided brunette.

There is a report that Miss Vanderbilt, who is now in Paris with her parents, is engaged to the eldest son of an Irish nobleman and diplomat.

It is becoming quite the thing in society for women to get their lives insured. One of the Miss Lorillards has recently taken out a policy for $100,000.

Mrs. Rebecca T. Robinson of West Newton, Mass., is to defray the expense of the erection of a new scientific building at Tufts college, Massachusetts.

Miss Badger about 46 years ago started an institution for the blind in Birmingham and has held up to the present day the post of honorable lady superintendent.

Mme. Casimir-Perier, wife of the French president, is a charming woman, devoted to her children, of whom she has two—a daughter of 14 and a boy somewhat younger.

Mrs. Calvin S. Brice and Miss Brice were among the guests at the recent state concert at Buckingham palace. Mrs. Chadwick, Mrs. Miller and Mr. J. Roosevelt were the other Americans present.

The Baroness Adolphe de Rothschild has a luxurious farm at Boulogne-sur-Seine, France, and as she enjoys an income of a million or two francs the fair agriculturist contrives possibly to make both ends meet.

Mrs. E. S. Mogridge, who is known among the museums of two continents for her unique skill in making wax flowers, has sailed for England, where she will do some work for the South Kensington museum before her return.

Miss Samantha King, a pretty schoolteacher of Inland, O., owns property in her own name. She was jokingly dared to work out the poll tax. The next day she appeared with a wagon and team and put in a full day's work on the roads.

Mrs. Leland Stanford is said to contemplate converting her San Francisco residence into a fine art gallery and museum for the benefit of the public. The house is big, and the rooms on its lower floor are so large and admirably arranged that little change would be needed to adapt it to such uses.

CYCLING CHAT.

In a tight box—bearings where oil is needed.

Blessed are they in cycling who can let well enough alone.

The order of the garter—"Send me one pair stocking supporters."

Cycling's like wine, not properly judged of till the second glass.

The obstinate man in cycling is the fellow who doesn't agree with us.

Learning is the dictionary, but practice is the grammar, of riding a bicycle.

A man is scared a hundred times for every time he is actually hurt in cycling.

We dream great things of cycling's tomorrow, but all it ever becomes is another yesterday.

Aschabad, in central Asia, is said to boast a cycling club mustering upward of 80 members.

An unduly long handle bar is weak. It spreads the rider out too much, and it unsteadies the steering.

"This is a soft snap," said the bulldog as he fastened his teeth in the tire after having bitten at the rider's leg and missed it.

Truth told about a poor wheel does not shame the devil, but as a novelty it attracts his attention and sometimes raises him.

It is as difficult to be interested in another rider's mishaps without being meddlesome as it is to be kindly without being patronizing.

The cyclist should eat often rather than heavily and should carry some light refreshment, such as chocolate, for an emergency.—Sporting Life.

THE BREAKING OF RECORDS.

What Science Can Do in This Line When She Tries Hard.

Steamship captains, horse owners, bicycle riders, and a lot of other people, are making strenuous and untiring efforts to "break the record." The great public looks on at the game with good-natured interest.

Once in a while sober science does a little record-smashing on her own account. One of her latest and great achievements is the discovery and application of a process for artificially digesting food so that it is absorbed immediately by the system, without imposing the least labor on a weak stomach. This food is called Paskola. It restores the debilitated, and gives fat to the thin because it is starchy. Only starches add real, solid lasting flesh to the body. Oils and fats don't and never will.

Mr. H. O. Mayhood, of Emlenton, Venango Co., Pa., says: "I was so weak and run down that I thought I would have to give up my business. I could not eat nor sleep. After one bottle of Paskola I began to gain at once and I have gained over 15 pounds in less than three weeks and I now feel like a new man."

No wonder.

Mrs. S. C. Stonch, of Wellington and Dauphin Sts., Philadelphia, writes: "I have been sick nearly three years, at times suffering terrible burning pains in my back and then cold in the lower part of the bowels. Sometimes I thought I should die. All this time I was constipated. When I first began taking Paskola I was tempted to give it up, thinking it would do me no good, because I had taken so much medicine. I feel Paskola beginning to do me good, and today I took a longer walk than I have been able to take for three years. I am much stronger. I am taking my fifth bottle of Paskola, and I eat almost everything now. I am 56 years old, and was always active, having worked hard."

Paskola may be bought of any reputable druggist. An interesting pamphlet on food and digestion will be mailed free, on application to

Quincy, May 3—tf

Says S. C. Weeks of Melrose, Mass: "I had been troubled with chronic diarrhoea for over a year when I received a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which I used and it gave me great relief. I then procured a fifty-cent bottle and took about two-thirds of it, and was cured. I have taken some twice since when I had a looseness come on and it stopped it at once. I hope it will help others as it helped me. I feel very thankful to Mr. Stearns, the druggist, for telling me of this remedy and shall be glad to have this letter published."

PATENTS

NOTICE TO INVENTORS.

THERE Was never a time in the history of our country when the demand for inventions and improvements in the arts and sciences generally was so great as now. The conveniences of man-kind in the factory and work-shop, the household, on the farm, and in official life, require continual accessions to the appurtances and implements of each in order to save labor, time and expense. The political change in the administration of government does not affect the progress of the American inventor, who, being on the alert, and ready to perceive the existing deficiences, does not permit the affairs of government to deter him from quickly conceiving the remedy to overcome existing discrepancies. Too great care cannot be exercised in choosing a competent and skilful attorney to prepare and prosecute an application for patent. Valuable interests have been lost and destroyed in innumerable instances by the employment of incompetent counsel, and especially is this advice applicable to those who adopt the "No patent, no pay" system. Inventors who intrust their business to this class of attorneys do so at imminent risk, as the breadth and strength of the patent is never considered in view of a quick endeavor to get an allowance and obtain the fee then due. THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY, John Wedderburn, General Manager, 618 F street, N W., Washington, D. C., representing a large number of important daily and weekly papers, as well as general periodicals of the country, was instituted to protect its patrons from the unsafe methods heretofore employed in this line of business. The said Company is prepared to take charge of all patent business entrusted to it for reasonable fees, and prepares and prosecutes applications generally, including mechanical inventions, design patents, trade marks, labels, copyrights, interferences, infringements, validity reports, and gives especial attention to rejected cases. It is also prepared to enter into competition with any firm in securing foreign patents.

BITS FROM EDMUND RUSSELL.

Beauty, not style, should be the standard for dress.

Do not own one inch of black, even in shoes. Have shoes to match your gowns. Black reduces the size, but also reduces power and influence.

If women who have original and intelligent ideas on dress would band in clubs of 30, they could emancipate themselves and dominate the dressmakers, who now rule them.

In environment as well as in dress beware of nonessentials. A cheap lace tidy on a $25 chair reduces the value of that chair to 10 cents. So nonessentials in dress minimize the personality.

Beautiful events should be honored by beautiful apparel. Street clothes should not be worn to social gatherings which promote culture. If we would pay as great a tribute to art as to society, culture would become society.

Study occasion as well as garb. The commercial life of woman is pressing her into a uniform of tailor made gowns and business dress which is deplorable. Receptions and social functions are injured in beauty by such dressing.

Treasure and use your bits of antique jewelry and fabrics. We should mourn the loss of the high type, old time beautiful clothes, the old silks, satins, laces and ornaments, which gave beauty and elegant personality to social assemblies.

ARMOR PLATE FRAUD

Proven by the Special Committee Appointed to Investigate.

"ADMISSIONS" BY CARNEGIE'S MEN

Plates Now In Use to Undergo a Ballistic Test.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—The special committee of the house which has been investigating the charges affecting the reliability of the material for the new ships furnished by the Carnegie company of Pittsburg laid its report before the house yesterday. The report shows that the contract with the company covered a period of two years and three months, from November, 1890, to February, 1893.

The amount of armor plate contracted for was 8978 tons, costing $5,441,920. In opening the report Mr. Cummings, the chairman of the committee, gives the 10 charges made against the company and follows it with the admissions made under each charge.

Mr. Schwab admits under the first charge that the plates did not receive uniform treatment, explaining this by saying that uniform results alone were required. The committee construes the specifications to mean uniform quality before treatment, and practically uniform treatment, when practically uniform results will necessarily follow.

Reports Were Doctored.

The second charge, that false reports of treatment of plates were systematically made, the committee holds is proven by the rough records of the company itself. There were "fake" reports of treatment of plates that received no treatment whatever, says the report, and over 95 per cent of the records show changes which were evidently made for the purpose of deceiving the government inspectors. The reports were made to make it appear that the plates had received the uniform and efficient treatment required by the contract.

It is evident to the committee, the report continues, that there were not enough furnaces to turn out the work reported if plates were treated according to contract specifications. After the charges of fraud were made and a penalty had been exacted by President Cleveland, other furnaces were added.

The charge that "specimens taken from the plates both before and after treatment, to ascertain the tensile strength of each plate, were stretched without the knowledge of the government inspectors, so as to increase their apparent tensile strength," is admitted by Superintendent Corey, as is practically the allegation that "false specimens taken from other plates were substituted for the specimens selected by the government inspectors."

He also practically admits the charge that the testing machine was "jockeyed" with, to deceive inspectors. Superintendent Corey admits that plates selected for ballistic test by government inspectors were re-treated without the knowledge of the inspectors.

Contractors and Inspectors Criticised.

The report severely criticises both the United States inspectors and the contractors. The inspectors, it says, were not corrupt, but the work of inspection was negligent and defective. Both company and inspectors, the report states, were culpable.

The frauds are characterized by the committee as crimes for which no fine or money consideration can adequately atone. The committee does not feel the necessity of drafting a criminal statute, but the interests of the treasury, the lives of our seamen, and to satisfy the nation, demands that such acts shall be severely punishable in all persons connected with them.

"The efforts of the company and its superintendents, Cline, Corey and Schwab," the report concludes, "have been to satisfy the committee that the armor is up to the requirements of the contract, notwithstanding the false reports to inspectors, doctoring of specimens, plugging of plates, etc. The unblushing character of the frauds to which these men have been parties, and the disregard of truth and honesty which they have shown before the committee, render them unworthy of credence."

Plates to Be Tested.

The only way to determine the actual condition and strength of the armor is by subjecting certain plates of the groups passed by fraud to ballistic tests. The committee can go no further into this investigation without knowing the actual ballistic resistance of groups of plates passed by a test of plates that did not really represent these groups.

These tests should be made by the government, if the company will not pay the expense. The committee has selected the plates which, in its opinion, ought to be tested. It recommends that the money necessary for such tests be taken from any heretofore appropriated for the increase of the navy under the head of "armor and armament."

Before the house adjourned a joint resolution directing the secretary of the navy to have plates now on certain ships removed and subjected to ballistic tests was agreed to, and the report of the armor plate committee was ordered to be printed.

IN MARSHAL'S CUSTODY.

Ezeta and Other Salvadorsan Refugees Are Prisoners at San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—General Antonio Ezeta and his fellow refugees are prisoners at last by authority of the United States district court. The warrants for the arrest were served yesterday afternoon. Early in the morning the local officers received notification that the difference between the navy department and the department of justice had been compromised, at least in a measure, and that the naval authorities of Mare Island would permit the United States marshal to serve his warrants. The navy department maintained its position on one point, however, it would not furnish transportation for the marshal and his deputies to the gunboat.

Dr. Calderon, the consul of the Salvadorean government, prevented serious rupture between the departments by chartering the tug Relief with his own funds. The tug arrived alongside the Bennington about 9 o'clock in the morning. Marshal Baldwin and his deputies went on board the gunboat and made the arrests. The tug steamed away, heading for this port.

Immediately afterward the Bennington's anchors were hoisted. She had been lying at anchor near the Farallone island, about 30 miles from port. A few minutes later the Bennington was steaming toward San Francisco bay, but as one of her engines is disabled, she made only slow progress. She steamed directly to Mare Island.

The prisoners were landed in San Francisco, and are now confined in the federal building here in the custody of Marshal Baldwin.

PATENTS

FOR INVENTIONS.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuable inventions because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With the view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys, and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, we have retained counsel expert in patent practice, and therefore are prepared to

Obtain Patents in the United States and all Foreign Countries, Conduct Interferences, Make Special Examinations, Prosecute Rejected Cases, Register Trade-Marks and Copyrights, Render Opinions as to Scope and Validity of Patents, Prosecute and Defend Infringement Suits, Etc., Etc.

If you have an invention on hand send a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be advised as to the best course to pursue. Models are seldom necessary. If others are infringing on your rights, or if you are charged with infringement by others, submit the matter to us for a reliable OPINION before acting on the matter.

NO MORE BUSINESS.

Both Branches of Congress Will Adjourn on Tuesday.

NO MESSAGE FROM CLEVELAND.

Neither Will He Affix His Signature to Tariff Bill.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—The senate held one of the shortest open sessions on record yesterday, lasting just five minutes, the greater part of which was taken up by the chaplain's prayer. Even the reading of the journals of Thursday and the day before was dispensed with, and at 12:25 p. m. the senate went into executive session, in which some general business was transacted, among other things the resolution for final adjournment on next Tuesday being agreed to.

Yesterday was the wind-up of all legislative business in the senate. Senators and representatives are leaving in every direction. The action of the two houses in passing the final adjournment resolution cannot be reconsidered, except by unanimous consent, and that cannot be obtained. The senators who were recalled on account of what the Democrats thought was party expediency have left the city again, or will have departed before Monday.

Senator Harris recognized that further legislation was out of the question, and when the senate was doing business behind closed doors he had the order directing the sergeant-at-arms to compel the attendance of absent senators reconsidered.

Legislative Business Closed.

A few moments before adjournment, Senator Quay notified the senate that this was the end of all legislative business. He said: "I desire to mention that it is more than probable that there will be no further legislative business transacted at the present session, and if any senator has any matter of that character which he desires disposed of today, it had better be done now, before the senator from Tennessee takes us back into executive session."

Mr. Cockrell—I supposed we were through.

Mr. Quay—If we are through, it is all right.

And as Mr. Harris immediately had an executive session of one minute and the senate adjourned, it was obvious that all was over.

When the senate meets on Monday there will be little or nothing done, except to confirm nominations to which there are no objections, and an early adjournment to meet again on Tuesday for the final adjournment. In neither house will there be anything like a quorum on the two legislative days yet remaining of the second session of the Fifty-third congress.

The house was in session but 55 minutes and then adjourned until Monday. A sine die adjournment resolution fixing the time at 2 p. m. Tuesday was adopted. An effort was made to have the Hill anti-anarchist bill amended so as to meet the objections stated on the floor considered, but Mr. English of New Jersey interposed an objection.

Won't Sign the Bill.

President Cleveland was subjected yesterday to great pressure from Democratic senators, representatives and prominent Democrats now here from different sections of the country to induce him to sign the tariff bill.

They assured him that the party could defend the senate bill from the stump with much greater force if he would assume his share of the responsibility.

It is recognized by many of the leaders that it would be awkward to be confronted in the coming campaign with the failure of the president to approve an act that had received support of the Democratic senators and nearly every Democratic representative and which must stand as a Democratic measure.

Those who talked with him say that he was evidently not insensible to their arguments, but they left him with the feeling that the possibility of the president's signature to the measure was very slight. He took occasion to say to a number of his callers that his objections to the bill were as strong today as when he wrote the letter to Chairman Wilson.

No Message.

It would, of course, add to the personal victory of the managers of the senate if the president should sign his name to the measure now before him in its original form. This Mr. Cleveland fully understands, and it is hardly likely, under the circumstances, that he will go so far as this. When he returned here it was with the unchanged determination not to sign the bill.

It was thought at first, by some of his friends, that he would communicate a message to congress expressing his voice in regard to the measure. It is understood that his friends have finally dissuaded him from such action. The fact that he is absolutely free from any understanding with any at the time the senate bill passed the house makes him thoroughly independent in his action, and increases the probability that he will not sign the bill, but allow it to become a law.

No Friend Was Near.

TWENTY KNOTS AN HOUR.

The New York Beats the Paris Record by an Hour, Less a Minute.

QUARANTINE, S. I., Aug. 25. — The American liner New York arrived last evening after a phenomenal passage, beating all previous records, having made the passage from Southampton to New York in 6 days, 8 hours and 38 minutes. She sailed from Southampton Saturday, Aug. 18, at 1:48 p. m., and arrived at the Sandy Hook lightship at 5:26 p. m. last evening.

THE NEW YORK.

This beats the record of her sister ship, the Paris, by 59 minutes. Her best record was 6 days, 9 hours and 37 minutes. The New York steamed 17 miles further than the Paris when she made her record of 6 days, 9 hours and 37 minutes. The total distance covered by the New York was 3049 knots—an average speed of 20 knots an hour.

A FALL OF COAL

Released Gas, Which Became Ignited and Caused a Serious Accident.

ASHLAND, Pa., Aug. 25.—Two men were killed and 11 injured by an explosion of gas in the Gilberton colliery, near this city, yesterday afternoon. The explosion was primarily caused by a fall of coal, which became dislodged by the mining operations. This released an immense volume of gas, and at the same time forced it along the gangways to a distance of more than 1000 yards, stifling and choking the miners as it swept along.

Finally it reached a gang of miners who were working with naked lamps, and instantly ignited. An explosion, which shook the earth and was heard by the people in their homes above, followed. Flames and smoke burst from the mouth of the pit, and inside and outside there were scenes of frantic terror. The imprisoned and burning miners forgot their pain in an agony of terror, and their wives and children rushed to the scene, shrieking with fear and despair.

Rescuing parties were quickly organized, and the men were brought to the surface as rapidly as possible. A temporary hospital was erected and medical attendance procured, the injured being removed either to their homes or to permanent hospitals as soon as their sufferings were somewhat alleviated.

Outlook Is Unpleasant.

SUNCOOK, N. H., Aug. 25.—Six hundred out of 1500 mill operatives are out, and there is a possibility that the mills may have to shut down Monday. Everything is very quiet. At a mass meeting the strikers voted to remain out, 200 more having left work, including 40 ring spinners. Merchants here will not give much credit if a shutdown occurs, and the outlook is decidedly unpleasant.

Followed Them to the Brickyard.

LYNN, Mass., Aug. 25.—Eugene Tagney reports that at an early hour he was garroted by two women while on his way to his home. The women, he claims, accosted him and asked for a drink. He refused, but was induced to follow them into that section of the city known as the "Brickyard" district. Here, he claims, they threw him down and robbed him of all the money he had.

Worse Than Slavery Days.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Aug. 25. — Robert Tucker and Scott Van Meter yesterday captured Andy Martin, a negro, 65 years old, and tried to make him tell about the murder of Tucker's son. The negro knew nothing of the murder. The men then dug a grave, pinioned Martin's arms and legs and buried him for nearly 20 minutes. The old negro is in a bad condition.

Obsolete Law Revived.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—The secretary of state has been advised that the Haytien government has revived the law relative to persons arriving from foreign countries and their departure. By its terms all such passengers must have passports issued by Haytien consuls, and they must also have a passport to leave the country.

Murdered by Burglars.

MCMINNVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 25.—Carroll Martin was murdered at his home near Laurstburg last night by two men, who, it is thought, were white, but were disguised as negroes. Martin was shot several times, and his daughter and granddaughter are wounded. The object of the murder was robbery.

Nobody Hurt.

SALEM, Mass., Aug. 25.—Steamer City of Portsmouth of the Boston, Beverly and Salem line went ashore on Little Aqua Vitae rock in Salem harbor last night. The passengers were all taken off without mishap or panic.

Defective Ammunition.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—Captain Birnie, the ordnance expert, has been ordered to proceed to Fort Sheridan to examine and report as to the shrapnel which exploded a few days ago.

Dr. Buchanan's Appeal Filed.

ALBANY, Aug. 25.—The appeal of Robert W. Buchanan, now confined in Sing Sing, awaiting death, for the murder of his wife by poison, was filed yesterday.

Made a Clean Sweep.

DRAVOSBURG, Pa., Aug. 25.—Fire in Red Men's hall consumed that building, a saloon and five residences. Loss, $30,000.

IS SLOW BUT SURE.

The Improvement In Business Not Inclined to Be Flighty.

INCREASED DEMAND FOR GOODS.

Small Corn Crop Will Affect Prices of Meat.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: Changes during the past week have not been definite nor very important. As the president's final decision regarding the new tariff is assumed, but not yet clearly known, part of the hesitation which appears may be attributed to the lingering uncertainty which must soon terminate.

Other conditions, if not entirely favorable, have at least not changed for the worse during the past week. The injury to corn is less than many apprehended, but is still believed to have reduced the yield about 500,000,000 bushels. The strike of coke workers and coal miners has ended, and while the lockout of cotton operatives is important, it affects the earnings and livelihood of a much smaller number.

The business so long delayed by tariff uncertainties begins to come forward, so that transactions in many departments are larger than of late, and on the whole larger than at the time of especial stagnation last year, but it is still too soon to determine how far the satisfaction of postponed demands will set idle hands at work or raise transactions toward the normal volume. But it is a healthy sign that the gain thus far is gradual and not spasmodic or flighty in appearance.

Boots and Shoes Are Booming.

In all the great industries some increase in demand for products has appeared, and the boot and shoe trade continues to lead others in recovery, as shipments from the east not only exceed last year's largely, but surpass those in August of previous years. Economy appears here in purchases of cheaper qualities, rather than in purchases of fewer pairs or cases, and the demand is largely for speedy delivery, reflecting unusual reduction of stocks.

The Cotton Market.

The cotton manufacture, which has been employing a larger portion of its normal force than most others, and accumulating goods greatly in advance of current demands, has about 23,000 workers on strike at Fall River and New Bedford, Mass., to resist a proposed reduction of wages, and the mills have been closed, with the apparent expectation that the difficulty will last some weeks. A somewhat increased demand for goods has appeared, but perhaps not yet as great as many have anticipated.

Cotton fell a shade, mainly on account of curtailment of consumption by the strikes, but recovered. Accounts from the south continue to promise a yield considerably larger than that of 1893.

In the iron and steel manufacture, the demand for finished products increases, but is at present not as large as the capacity of the works which have endeavored to resume operations, so that their competition results in prices nearly as low as have been reached at any time.

Staple Products.

About 1,600,000,000 bushels is now the more common estimate of the yield of corn, which will leave nothing for export, and falling below full supply for feeding, will materially affect prices of meat for the coming year.

Wheat has been stronger, in spite of such favorable reports that a yield of 500,000,000 bushels or more is commonly expected. Receipts at the west for the week were 4,464,228 bushels, against 2,724,240 last year, and Atlantic exports only 1,437,435 bushels, against 2,095,427 last year. Hog products are only a shade stronger.

The liabilities of firms failing for the second week of August amounted to only $1,613,369, and for the last three weeks to only $7,262,076, of which $2,633,269 were of manufacturing and $3,787,329 of trading concerns. The failures this week have been 234 in the United States, against 410 last year, and 29 in Canada, against 20 last year.

Cheeky Hoboes.

BUFFALO, Aug. 25.—Sheriff Haggart was very angry yesterday when his deputies reported that the leader of the army of hoboes encamped across the city line in Cheektowaga had refused to obey the official edict to move on, and sent in word that they would like more bread. The sheriff's deputies arrested the whole gang.

The Machias' Assignment.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—In execution of a pledge that Columbian relics should be returned to the Vatican on a ship of war, the navy department has decided that the Machias shall perform this service about Oct. 1. As she is going to China by way of the Mediterranean sea and Suez canal, she will not be diverted from her cruise.

More Records Smashed.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Aug. 25.—On the Hampden park track yesterday afternoon Harry C. Tyler made an unpaced half, flying start, in 56 4-5s. He made the quarter in 29¾s. These marks smash the record of 28s. flat for the quarter, and 1:00 1-5s. for the half, made by Taylor day before yesterday.

Worked Lowell Frenchmen.

LOWELL, Mass., Aug. 25.—Complaints are coming in that George St. Germaine, alleged bogus lawyer of Chicopee, has been duping French people here through an employment bureau and alleged legal business. The police will try to get him back.

The ladies in this vicinity will appreciate the introduction of the celebrated Standard Patterns, of which we have put in a full line, and will certainly be a convenience to our numerous patrons.

After a thorough examination by ourselves, and receiving the endorsement of some of the best dry goods houses in the New England states, and particularly from several houses who formerly carried Buttericks—who now carry the Standard—we are convinced that the "Standard Patterns" are far superior to all others—in being more up to date, better modeled, simpler directions for making—insuring perfect satisfaction, a great saving in time, much less fitting to do, and allowing just enough seams, thereby considerable saving in material—there being no waste as in others every pattern is modeled to the human form, and are so nicely proportioned that it is almost impossible to produce anything (if directions are followed, and which are extremely simple) but a beautiful fitting garment.

Try one of the STANDARD PATTERNS on our recommendation and we think you will agree with us that they are better than any other pattern sold in this city.

The Standard Fashion Sheets and the beautiful Handy Catalogue are free to all.

The Ladies' Standard Magazine is issued monthly, costs but 50 cents per year and should be in every household; you will surely subscribe for it when you have examined a sample copy at our store; it is the best and cheapest Ladies' magazine in existence, single copies 5 cents.

The Standard Catalogue contains over 1000 illustrations of beautiful styles—up to date—price 20 cents.

Editorial Comment.

WELL, BROCKTON, we have tried to imitate you. We have been extravagant, but progressive, and our tax rate is nearly as large. Perhaps it will be larger when we have been a city as long. But then, you have been held up to us as a model, and some of our citizens will follow you blindly. We are content, however, that Brockton should have a higher tax rate than Quincy. May it be ever thus. The Enterprise explains the $19.70 tax rate in Brockton as follows:

"There have been too many public improvements to pay for, and Brockton can't eat her cake and keep it. The result, we should imagine, will be satisfactory to the mass of the taxpayers. A good many experts had figured that the tax rate for this year would be over $20. The other figures given out by the assessors, and presented in today's Enterprise, indicate plainly that the city is getting along nicely, and is retaining her place among the progressive cities of the State."

IN ITS issue of June 7 the LEDGER in discussing the probably tax rate said: Under most favorable circumstances, a reduction to $300,000 in the amount to raise, and an increase of a million dollars in valuation—the tax rate will be $17.28. It is not much over these figures, and the taxpayers who believe in progress have no occasion to grumble.

ANOTHER VETERAN GONE.

George Fred Wilson, Quincy's Pioneer Marketman Dead, in His 75th Year.

Mr. George F. Wilson, one of Quincy's pioneer business men, died this morning after an illness of nearly five years' duration. Mr. Wilson was born in Quincy, 74 years ago last January, and has resided here ever since. In 1843 he commenced business in a small way travelling from house to house with meats. The business grew rapidly and he finally opened a market in the court room building and since that time has always carried on business, being located at various times in the building now occupied by Miss Hubbard, C. B. Tilton and C. H. Johnson, the later standing where the Adams building now is. He erected the building occupied by him on Hancock street where he has been ever since, although for the past few years not actively engaged in business, he has always taken an interest in it.

He has had several partners during his business career, among whom were, James N. Blake, William A. Hodges, Alonzo Richards and Samuel B. Allen, but in later years he has been in business with his son George H. Wilson.

He married Marie French Stetson of Randolph, and the fruit of this union was 10 children, all of whom have passed away but four,—two sons, George H. and Walter B., and two daughters, Mrs. William A. Hodges and Mrs. W. E. Howe.

For Odd Fellows Only.

The Odd Fellows are a favored class, not only have they a noble institution, but also some beneficially auxilaries. One of the latter is the Ridgely Protective Association of Worcester, a council of which is about to be organized in this city. The Association has four classes and pays a weekly indemnity of $5, $10, $15 or $20 for twenty weeks for both sickness and accident, together with a death benefit of $100, at a quarterly cost of $2, $3, $4 or $5, certainly protection at a small cost. The association is incorporated under Massachusetts laws. O. J. Wakefield, the representative, is in town and is meeting with success in securing members.

☞ It was an old Westerner that remarked: "There's just as much difference in some things as there is in others." It was an open hearted expression, but full of meaning—even in furniture warerooms, the expression bears wonderons weight. Some, scarcely worth the name—others, filled with delightful household suggestions, bright, attractive, durable and modest priced—that's ours. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

How to Cure Billious Colic.

I suffered for weeks with colic and pain in my stomach, caused by billiousness, and had to take medicine all the while until I used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which cured me. SOME GAIN IN THE VALUATION.

The Rate $17.60 Against $15.80 in 1893 —An Increase of $1.80.

The Assessors of 1894 announce the following valuation of the city by wards:

Valuation by Wards.

The figures of the Assessors by wards for this year are:

Ward.	Personal Estate.	Real Estate.	Total.
1,	$1,205,050 00	$4,433,050.00	$5,638,100.00

Valuation in 1893.

The valuation of the city by wards last year was as follows:

Ward	Personal Estate.	Real Estate.	Total.
1,	$1,527,290.00	$4,271,980.00	$5,799,270.00
2,	323,760 00	1,517,350.00	1,841,110.00
3,	363,245.00	1,840,760.00	2,204,005 00
4,	343 200.00	1,983,395.00	2,326,595 00

	$3,032,395.00	$13,605,675.00	$16,638,070.00

A comparison of the valuations of this year and 1893 shows that the net gains were principally in Wards Five and Six, the Atlantic ward leading. Wards Two and Three made slight gains while Ward One and Four lost, the Centre ward about $161,000. The total gain in valuation was $181,205, against a gain of over a million last year.

The Total Levy.

City tax, (levy voted by the City Council)	$175,000 00
City tax, (notes maturing during the year)	89,730 00
City tax, (interest to be paid during the year)	15,000 00
County tax, (less polls)	8,5 0 26
State tax, (less polls)	6,540 00
Overlayings,	1.356 94
Polls,	11,840 00
Total,	$307,827 200
Number of polls,	5,920

The Levy of 1893.

There was assessed on the polls and estates of the city in 1893, the sum of $273,947.50 as follows:

City tax, (levy voted by the City Council)	$160,000 00
City tax, (notes maturing during the year)	62,962 00
City tax, (interest to be paid during the year)	16,000 00
County tax, (less polls)	7,795 24
State tax, (less polls)	10,042 00
Overlayings,	6,082 26
Polls,	11,066 00
Total,	$273,947 50

The total levy of 1894 is $33,879.70 in excess of 1893. There was an increase of $20,000 in maturing debt, and $15,000 in tax for current city expenses. The County tax is slightly larger, while the State tax, interest and overlayings are less. An increase of 487 polls helps out some.

The Tax Rate.

The Assessors announce a tax rate of $17.60 for 1894. This is somewhat smaller than was estimated and will therefore cause rejoicing among the taxpayers. It is however, $1.80 in excess of 1893, and $1.60 in excess of 1892. It is in fact a record breaker, for the tax rate of Quincy has never exceeded $17.50. That was 25 years ago in 1869, shortly after the war. In 1867 and again in 1873 it touched at $17 per $1,000, but in all other years, has been below this sum.

The average tax rate of the city is less, however, than the average rate of the town for the last six years, as is shown by the following summary:

TOWN. Year.	Rate.	CITY. Year.	Rate.
1883,	$14.00	1889,	$10.80
1884,	15 00	1890,	13.60
1885,	13.60	1891,	13.60
1886,	15.40	1892,	16.00
1887,	15 80	1893,	15.80
1888,	16.70	1894,	17.60
	$90.50		$87.40
Average,	$15.08⅓	Average,	$14.56⅔

In tax rate therefore, there has been a saving of 51⅔ cents per $1000 each year by becoming a city. Perhaps there has been an increase in valuation, but generally it was warranted, and the assessed value is still below the market value.

Tax Rate in Cities.

This is the first year that Quincy's tax rate has been above the average among the Massachusetts cities. In 1892 the rate of 16 of the 28 was as high or higher, and last year 20 of the 30. A few cities have not yet announced their tax rates for 1894, but in the list below which includes 24 of the 30, it will be seen that 5 are in excess of Quincy, while 4 which had a larger rate in 1893 have not reported. The average rate of the 24 reported is $16.28 1-3, while the average of those not reported was higher in 1893. What think you of Brockton with a tax rate of $19.70, which is the same amount as last year. Other cities with a higher rate than Quincy are: Waltham, Gloucester, Fitchburg and Haverhill.

The city rates for three years are given below:

BRAINTREE.

The Butcher Boys of South Braintree were out practicing Wednesday evening; played 193 feet; this beats the Union, 5 feet.

Hon. Edward Avery lost a valuable horse yesterday, one of his span He had brain fever and had to be killed, which was accomplished by the use of chloroform.

The Union fire engine intended to go to muster at Waltham and take 1st prize Labor Day, but will not be allowed to go as they were not organized before July 1st.

William Orr of East Braintree has been heard from. Mrs. Orr has had two letters from him dated Belfast, Ireland, where his father lives and the place where he was born. The change has proved beneficial to William, who, it will be remembered, was ill for several months before he left.

It is noticeable that the English sparrows are getting fewer in number in Braintree. This is accounted for because of the foolish things persisting in building their nests in the globes of the arc lights, and the certain removal of them every time the "lamp cleaner" comes round; thus destroying the raising of brood.

Superintendent of Schools, I. W. Horne, is expected home again today.

The annual shoot of Co. K of Braintree will be held on Labor Day. There will also be contests for honorary members and for G. A. R. posts for prizes. In the evening there will be a campfire.

The dog that was thrown up in the air by a locomotive, noticed in last week's OBSERVER, receiving a limp in its gait, is all right again, thus beating the tariff bill record which is still out of joint.

A sad accident occurred in Braintree on Tuesday. A little boy by the name of Walsh, 3 1-2 years of age, belonging in Weymouth, fell into a well on the Wainright place, on Quincy avenue, and was drowned.

Wednesday the annual reunion of the Fourth Regiment Association took place in the Ocean View House at Nantasket. Representatives were present from companies A, B, C, D, F, G, H, J, K of the nine and three months' men, among whom were Capt. James T. Stevens, Joseph E. Holbrook and William M. Richards of this town and James Leonard of Milford, formerly of Braintree. There were about a hundred present.

Thursday night the N. F. T. Hayden Hose celebrated the reception of their handsome new hose carriage with a grand display of enthusiasm and rejoicing.

Early in the evening the new carriage was yoked to two heavy, fine looking grey horses, owned and driven by William May, over the principal streets of the three villages to the startling music of the gong played by pressure of the foot of the dexterous and fearless driver.

Mr. J. Frank Perry, superintendent of the electric lighting plant informs us that the fire alarm system will be completed and ready for use in about a week.

Catholic Picnic.

The annual picnic of St. John's Sunday School is being held at Lovell's grove today, and a better day could not be had. The picknickers began to go down early this morning, and the street railway are running extra cars. From 10 to 11 o'clock the Columbus band paraded up and down School street in front of the church and then took a car for the grove. This afternoon the prizes will be distributed to the Sunday School children.

Blue Hill Predictions.

The coming week promises to be moderately cool with the coolest days about the 26th and 31st, the warmest days about the 28th and 29th. Showers or general rain are probable between the 29th and 30th, and possibly on the 25th. The remainder of the week will be generally fair.

The outlook for September is for dry and moderately warm weather. — Norfolk County Gazette.

TODAY'S COURT.

Sydney Whalen of Milton was fined $15 for cruelty to a horse.

The liquors seized from Felix Franzi of Quincy were forfeited.

—Miss Carrie Follett Spear of Quincy, formerly supervisor of music in the public schools of Holbrook, has recently closed a very gratifying term as music teacher in the North Attleboro schools; she also taught in Braintree as in former years.—Holbrook News

Says S. C. Weeks of Melrose, Mass.: "I had been troubled with chronic diarrhoea for over a year when I received a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which I used and it gave me great relief. I then procured a fifty-cent bottle and took about two-thirds of it, and was cured. I have taken some twice since when I had a looseness come on and it stopped it at once. I hope it will help others as it helped me. I feel very thankful to Mr. Stearns, the druggist, for telling me of this remedy and shall be glad to have this letter published."

NEAT COUNTRY DWELLING.

Convenient, Simple In Style and Contains Ten Rooms and Attic.

[Copyright, 1894, by Palliser, Palliser & Co., Architects, 24 East 42d st., N. Y.]

This design was carried out and is a very neat and attractive home, and as it was necessary in the arranging of this plan to obtain the required amount of room and conveniences at a given cost the exterior had to be very plain and simple in detail to allow it.

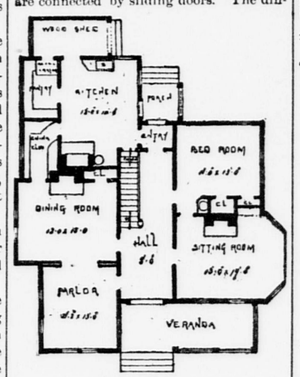

The front faces the west. Thus we have a south view from four rooms on first floor and a front view from dining room.

PERSPECTIVE VIEW.

The front veranda is wide and arranged so that a group can sit out upon it with ease. The hall is 8 feet wide, with an easy flight of platform stairs leading up to the floor above, the platform or landing being on a level with floor over kitchen wing, making two risers more up to floor in main house. There is a cellar under the whole house, the laundry being under kitchen. The stairs to cellar are placed under main stairs and reached directly from the kitchen.

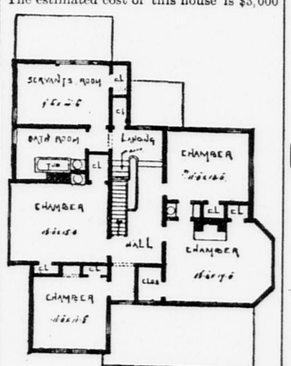

The wood shed is a convenient feature to all country houses and should always be connected with kitchen. The refrigerator is built in pantry, with an opening into wood shed, through which to put the ice into tank. The connection from kitchen to dining room is through the large china closet, which is fitted up with shelves, press, table, etc., and makes a perfect butler's pantry. The parlor and dining room are connected by sliding doors. The dining room and sitting room have open fireplaces, with hard wood mantels. The sitting room has a hard wood bookcase built into recess to right of mantel, and the bedroom connected with sitting room is a good room and provided with two closets and stationary washbowl.

FIRST STORY.

The second story contains four large chambers, with an abundance of closet room, a good servant's bedroom over kitchen and a large bathroom. Hot and cold water is supplied to all washbowls, sink and bath. There is also a large attic over the second floor capable of being finished off into two or three rooms, if desired, and yet have enough for storage. The roof is shingled and the exterior walls clapboarded, the interior finished in pine, which is filled and varnished, the cut and incised work being picked out in ebony. The estimated cost of this house is $3,000 and is a good example of what can be done for that sum, as the general arrangement is such as to show considerable variety on the exterior, producing an architectural effect only obtained by the natural combinations and workings of the constructive part of the structure with the least expenditure of labor and detail in design. This is one of the most attractive homes for the amount expended, and for the country is all that is desirable in every respect.

Hanging Portieres.

Many single doors are using only one curtain, the material bought by the yard and the fringe sewed on. No rings are used. The rod is put on inside the doorways, with space above sufficient to permit the portieres to be thrown over the pole once or twice, according to the width of the doorway, one end reaching to the floor, the other quite short.

Double doorways, of course, use two curtains, and many are hung in the way mentioned, coming from the ceiling.

The most of them, however, are put on "movable cranes," fastened inside the doorways. These cranes are fastened like brackets in either side of the doorway and lack several inches of touching each other. They swing in and out with the portieres on them with the greatest convenience to passers.

Among the most popular materials for doorway curtains in drawing rooms are the French empire brocades in blue, pink or yellow, with lace curtains of fine handiwork hung over one side.

Equally high in favor are the heavy red French tapestries, used with bands of wide cream lace inserting stitched on the curtains, forming a border. This color generally matches Turkish or French decorations and can be used with an empire curtain of pink on the other side of the folding door.—Cor. St. Louis Republic.

A BRIGHT PROSPECT.

A Better Demand for Monuments of Quincy Granite.

LARGE PURCHASES BY AGENT.

A Ledger Representative Makes a Tour of South Quincy Yards.

It really looks very much like a revival of the granite business in Quincy as a visit to the yards at South Quincy finds nearly all of them running a good force of men and the manufacturers themselves say that business looks a little brighter. New orders are coming in.

At Swingle & Falconer's the sheds are full of workmen and several are crowded out into the open air without shelter from the sun. This firm is thoroughly equipped for doing business and the regularity with which they conduct it makes it seem almost like play.

The pneumatic tool is a great labor saving device and nearly every shed in this vicinity is equipped with it. It does its work quickly and much finer than by hand.

E. C. Willison has just finished a handsome statue of sorrow which was cut from a block of granite 2-8 by 5 2 quarried at Brookline, N. H., in Badger Bros.' quarry.

The figure is seated on a three legged antique chair, the right arm being extended 22 inches in relief. Each finger of the hand is also cut in relief, the longest being 3¼ inches. On the head is a crown of laurels from which hangs drapery which is also draped about the body. In the left hand is a sprig of laurel. There is an immense amount of relief work about the statue, and it is said it could not have been executed without the use of the pneumatic tool. It is the first statute ever cut in Quincy of this granite, and will be shipped to New Jersey in a few days.

E. J. Qualey has a large number of men at work and business appears to be rushing.

Fred Barnicoat has a number of statutes under way and his work has become so noted that fresh orders are coming in almost every day.

Thomas & Miller as usual are doing a good business and are turning out some fine work.

A Western retail buyer has been in town this week and up to Friday noon had purchased three car loads of cut monuments from the several dealers, and as he pays cash for the goods when delivered on the cars, between $4,000 and $5,000 will be left in Quincy as the result of his visit.

Milne & Chalmers yard does not denote a lack of business and this firm is constantly receiving new orders.

Cook & Watkins have all the men at work they can accommodate and report that new orders are being received every few days.

In fact there is hardly a shed at South Quincy where the merry clink of the workmen's hammer is not heard, and the prospect seems to be brighter for the future.

An "Up-and-Up" Match.

CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—Tommy Ryan has signed articles of agreement to fight Billy Layton, the western welterweight champion, at St. Joseph Mo., on Sept. 14, 20 rounds with small gloves, for a purse of $2500 and a side wager of $1000. There is no losing end of the purse, the winner taking all.

Still the Champion.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Aug. 25.—At the Hudson River Driving park yesterday afternoon the champion pacer Mascot, in the free-for-all pacing race, went the first heat in 2:05½, which lowers the track record of 2:07, made here by Johnson, three years ago, and is the fastest heat paced this season.

The Famous Counterfeiters.

NEW LONDON, Conn., Aug. 25.—Hoyt and Murphy, the counterfeiters caught at Bethel, were brought here yesterday afternoon by two New York detectives and turned over to United States Marshal Morris. They will be arraigned in New Haven before Commissioner Wright.

The Croquet Championship.

NORWICH, Conn., Aug. 25.—Germond has practically won the croquet championship of the United States. Burgess leads in the second division and Bryant in the third.

A Fatal Runaway.

MANCHESTER, N. H., Aug. 25.—Samuel Keyes of Boston, while riding with his wife and niece, was thrown out, by the horse becoming frightened. One leg and several ribs were broken, one rib puncturing his lungs. His body is inflated to twice its natural size and totally unrecognizable.

Youthful Tramps.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 25. — Arnold Schjelle, aged 15 years, of New York, and his sister Emily, aged 14 years, were arrested yesterday in a freight car at Overbrook. The case will be investigated.

Farm Buildings Burned.

ST. ALBANS, Vt., Aug. 25.—The dwelling and two barns belonging to W. Booth, at Essex Junction, were burned yesterday. Hay, grain and a large quantity of eggs were destroyed. Loss, $13,000.

Crispi's Eye Is Affected.

ROME, Aug 25.—Premier Crispi is about to undergo an operation for a cataract on his eye.

—The New England fair is to be held in Worcester, Mass., September 4, 5, 6 and 7. The New England Agricultural society has become a somewhat venerable institution, having been organized in 1864. It was the creation of Dr. George B. Loring, who was its first president and held the office continuously until 1890.

Quincy Cycle Club.

Run Sunday to Echo bridge; start 1.30. Thursday evening the club ran to the illumination at Houghs Neck, and Wednesday evening to North Weymouth.

Several of the members including President "Cottage City" Parsons, Secretary White, and 2d Lieut. Thomas, are at Cottage City.

One of the Quincy Cycle Club tried to imitate Steve Brodie last Wednesday evening. He was going from Quincy across the bridge at North Weymouth, when to avoid a horse which had become frightened at a passing electric car he jumped the railing between the bridge and car track, thinking that the track ran close to the bridge, while it is three feet away. He took a clean jump of about ten feet into fifteen feet of swift running water. He went down and as soon as he rose struck out for the nearest pile, where he clung till taken into a boat by two men. He mounted his wheel, which had escaped injury, and started for home and was back with the boys again inside of an hour. His only injuries were a pair of badly blistered hands.

Important meeting Monday, Aug 27.

—The stamp collectors will bless the recent strike for one thing. It caused the issuing, in California, of a "bicycle postage stamp," for local mail carrying. Only a few were printed, which will make them all the more valuable.

—One extra good winter blooming fuchsia is speciosa. Given a large pot, light fibrous soil of leaf mould and sand, good drainage and plenty of water at the roots and overhead, it will make rapid growth and flower abundantly from January to April without cessation.

The Massachusetts Board of Health

IN THEIR 24th REPORT (1893)

make the statement that Sarsaparillas containing Iodide of Potassium are unsafe to use, excepting under the supervision of an experienced physician, and that their continued use tend to impoverish instead of purifying the blood. Also that in many cases they act as a DIRECT POISON, and cause serious trouble, defeating the object for which they are taken.

ALL THE LEADING SARSAPARILLAS were analyzed and found to contain this poisonous chemical in various quantities, EXCEPTING ALLEN'S, which was found entirely free from Iodide of Potassium or other chemicals, and to be purely vegetable, thereby verifying our claim that it is the "HONEST KIND."

This is an unprejudiced statement made by the most scientific body of men in New England as A WARNING TO THE PUBLIC against the use of dangerous and injurious medicines, ALLEN'S is the HONEST KIND, the safe kind, and the kind that CONQUERS DISEASE.

PATENTS

NOTICE TO INVENTORS.

THERE Was never a time in the history of our country when the demand for inventions and improvements in the arts and sciences generally was so great as now. The conveniences of man-kind in the factory and work-shop, the household, on the farm, and in official life, require continual accessions to the appurtances and implements of each in order to save labor, time and expense. The political change in the administration of government does not affect the progress of the American inventor, who, being on the alert, and ready to perceive the existing deficiences, does not permit the affairs of government to deter him from quickly conceiving the remedy to overcome existing discrepancies. Too great care cannot be exercised in choosing a competent and skilful attorney to prepare and prosecute an application for patent. Valuable interests have been lost and destroyed in innumerable instances by the employment of incompetent counsel, and especially is this advice applicable to those who adopt the "No patent, no pay" system. Inventors who intrust their business to this class of attorneys do so at imminent risk, as the breadth and strength of the patent is never considered in view of a quick endeavor to get an allowance and obtain the fee then due. THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY, John Wedderburn, General Manager, 618 F street, N. W., Washington, D. C., representing a large number of important daily and weekly papers, as well as general periodicals of the country, was instituted to protect its patrons from the unsafe methods heretofore employed in this line of business. The said Company is prepared to take charge of all patent business entrusted to it for reasonable fees, and prepares and prosecutes applications generally, including mechanical inventions, design patents, trade marks, labels, copyrights, interferences, infringements, validity reports, and gives especial attention to rejected cases. It is also prepared to enter into competition with any firm in securing foreign patents.

REFUGEES IN COURT.

Their Counsel Claimed That They Were Illegally Held.

CASE IS FINALLY CONTINUED.

Prisoners Will Rest at Some Hotel Under Guard.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 25.—General Antonio Ezeta and fellow-refugees from San Salvador were prisoners before Judge Morrow in the United States district court yesterday.

The court proceedings were opened by the United States assistant district attorney, who stated that the warrants had been issued in conformity with a mandate issued by the secretary of state.

The assistant district attorney stated that he appeared in the case at the request of the attorney general of the United States. He explained that the United States government had no further interest in the proceeding than those to see that they are regular and proper. When, after the process in the case had been read, he stated that the United States government left the further prosecution in the case to the private attorney in the employ of the Salvadorean government.

At this juncture the prisoners' counsel interposed and demanded an immediate hearing under the charges. They stoutly maintained that the prisoners were political refugees and were unlawfully held. Objection was therefore made to a continuance.

The attorneys for the government of San Salvador argued as earnestly to show the Justice of a Continuance.

After listening to the arguments, Judge Morrow continued the cases until Monday, Sept. 3, declaring that the treaty with San Salvador provides for such continuances, and that the delay asked for was not unreasonable. Thereupon counsel for defense moved that the defendants be admitted to bail.

The motion was taken under advisement, though Judge Morrow stated that he had no doubt that the law would debar him from releasing the defendants.

Finally the defense objected to the jurisdiction of the court, arguing that the defendants had been brought into the United States against their will. It was stated that the case was different from any other in this respect. The men had not been within the country, but had been forcibly brought into it.

Marshal Baldwin has not yet decided how he will dispose of the prisoners. He stated that he would probably permit them to take up quarters at one of the hotels under guard.

Awful Tragedy at Sea.

VIENNA, Aug. 25.—A sailor on the Russian steamer Sebastopol became enamored of a young American lady named Garrett, who was a passenger, and made his feelings known to her. Miss Garrett scorned his addresses. The sailor's comrades learned of his discomfiture, and ridiculed him until he was frantic. He turned on his tormentors and shot two of them dead. He next beat Miss Garrett until she was dead, and then jumped into the sea and perished.

A Cool Murderer.

ATLANTA, Aug. 25.—Alexander Carr emptied a five-chambered pistol into H. O. King and killed him, on South Broad street, yesterday afternoon, and then folded his arms and waited for a policeman. Carr had been in King's employ at a pyrites mine which King operated near Vila Rica. Carr says King owed him money, and the shooting grew out of this indebtedness.

The Bluefields Imbroglio.

LONDON, Aug. 25.—The Standard, commenting upon the arrest at Bluefields of British Consular Agent Hatch, says: The arrest of Mr. Hatch is an offense of the gravest character, although the whole incident has a flavor of comic opera. We do not doubt that the United States will support our demand for satisfaction against Nicaragua.

Fatal Boiler Explosion.

FRANKFORT, Ind., Aug. 25.—A boiler explosion occurred here yesterday, in which two men were killed outright and six were injured. The accident occurred at P. E. Kramer's sawmill. The building and machinery were demolished, and half a dozen residences were more or less wrecked and the occupants injured.

MUST BE REFUNDED.

United States Wrongfully Collected Duties on Colombian Products.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—A secret has leaked out from diplomatic circles to the effect that our government has become sadly entangled with one of the Central American republics as a result of the operation of the reciprocity treaties, and will have a bill to pay, beside which the Behring sea claims will appear trivial in amount.

The country in question is the United States of Colombia, one of the Central American republics, which steadily refuses all efforts of the state department to induce them to become a party to one of the reciprocity treates. Moreover, when her sister republics and Spain (as to Cuba and Porto Rico) began to ship their products free to the United States under the terms of their new treaties, Colombia claimed the same exemption for her staples—hides, coffee, sugar and molasses.

Many letters have been exchanged on the subject, and at last the United States has been obliged to admit the strength and correctness of the Colombian position. This being done, it follows that the government must refund to importers the amounts they have paid in duties on Colombian products which would have been free. Just what the total will amount to no one can tell at present, but steps are being taken to ascertain the amount from statistics.

Choctaw Troubles.

PARIS, Tex., Aug. 25.—The situation in the Choctaw nation is more serious. Thursday night a large body of Indians entered the house of Albert Jackson and dragged him from a sick bed and killed him. Yesterday they surrounded two other Indians and killed them. Both parties are searching for each other and there is no quarter shown or asked.

The Dynamite Gun Trials.

SANDY HOOK, N. J., Aug. 25.—Firing at the dynamite battery was continued yesterday afternoon. Large shells, weighing 1100 each, were fired. The first and third shells exploded a short time after they struck the water. The second and fourth shells exploded when striking. Great destruction would have been done by these shells.

Skeleton Dug Up.

ATHOL, Mass., Aug. 23.—The skeleton of a man was found yesterday afternoon near the residence of Dr. Harris, on the North Orange road, which had evidently been buried from 30 to 50 years. It is thought the body might have been that of a pedler, who mysteriously disappeared 40 or 50 years ago.

Repulsed by Chinese Cavalry.

SHANGHAI, Aug. 25.—A letter from Chemulpo, Corea, reports that 78 Japanese warships and 13 transports arrived in the Taung river on the 18th inst. They landed 6000 men, who, proceeding inland, were attacked by 1000 Chinese cavalry, who succeeded in dividing the Japanese force into two parts.

SETTLEMENT IN SIGHT.

New Bedford Troubles Expected to End After Labor Day.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Aug. 25.—The great strike here will be ended in a week or so, if the statements of Hon. W. W. Crapo are to be credited. Mr. Crapo said that he looked for a speedy adjustment of the trouble, and, when pressed for a more definite reply, said he thought that after Labor Day the end of the fight would be in view.

He stated further that he believed the manufacturers were at fault for the manner in which they posted the notice of reduction. He thought they should have given the operatives at least two weeks' notice, and also stated definitely the amount of the reduction. He also practically admitted that the pound system of payment adopted by the manufacturers, in order to avoid the particulars law, was a failure, so far.

His statement was borne out yesterday afternoon when the Wamsutta laborers were paid off, for all weavers found on opening their pay envelopes that they were paid by the cut. This is due to the fact that the manufacturers found after making up the payroll that wages were increased nearly 10 per cent by the pound payment system.

When asked regarding the action of the manufacturers in absenting themselves from the arbitration conference Thursday evening, he said that for the sake of harmony and good feeling he thought it was best they did not attend. He believed in arbitration, and thought the manufacturers would attend the next conference of that body.

He did not think any understanding had been reached by New Bedford and Fall River manufacturers by which the latter should lock out their operatives because they voted to accept the reduction and support local strikers.

This calamity could have been averted if the manufacturers had shut down their mills for a month or so during the summer and allowed operatives to enjoy a vacation. In conclusion, he said he could propose no scheme by which the strike could be terminated, but was satisfied that employment must be given the 15,000 operatives if crime and lawlessness were to be averted.

THIRTY-SEVEN WERE KILLED.

Explosion of Gas Causes Havoc In a Northwestern Mine.

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 25.—A terrific gas explosion occurred in breast 62 on the sixth level of the Franklin mine, at Franklin, yesterday afternoon. Sixty-two miners were imprisoned and 37 were killed. The fire was soon extinguished, and the work of taking out the bodies began. All were recovered.

About half of the miners were negroes, having been brought from the east to replace strikers.

The mine is owned by the Oregon Improvement company. The damage to the mine is not large.

Several men were badly bruised and one colored man was taken out with a broken neck, their wounds indicating that they had thrown themselves against the posts and timbers of the gangway in a wild and desperate endeavor to escape. But the majority of the bodies bear no marks at all, not even a scratch, and their features were in quiet repose, indicating that their death had been a speedy and painless one.

At one place eight men were lying together and in another one man was found under a mule—five mules in all being dead. A rescuer says that the men were all lying in the middle of the gangway with their hair in the mud, as if they had tried to bury themselves completely and thus escape the smoke and gas. He could not believe they were dead, and turned them over so they could breathe. He was soon satisfied, however, that they really were dead.

As the bodies began to arrive at the surface of the mine, the excitement of the wives and mothers, and, for that matter, the whole populace, became almost uncontrollable.

At 3 p. m. the last of the 37 bodies was brought out, and then the people began to quiet down. Many of them were completely prostrated with their violent grief.

Queen Victoria's Reproof.

LONDON, Aug. 25.—The queen's speech proroguing parliament will contain a strong paragraph on the subject of social and administrative difficulties in Ireland. This is the nearest approach to a declaration against the house of lords which is admissible in the speech.

PATENTS

FOR INVENTIONS.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuable inventions because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With the view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys, and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, we have retained counsel expert in patent practice, and therefore are prepared to

Obtain Patents in the United States and all Foreign Countries, Conduct Interferences, Make Special Examinations, Prosecute Rejected Cases, Register Trade-Marks and Copyrights, Render Opinions as to Scope and Validity of Patents, Prosecute and Defend Infringement Suits, Etc., Etc.

If you have an invention on hand send a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be at once advised as to the best course to pursue. Ninety Per Cent. of the Patterns Sold in this Country at Retail Are Butterick Patterns.

These Patterns are warranted to be absolutely correct in adjustment. They are fitted upon living models. They are graded in all the different necessary sizes.

The printed labels attached to the patterns give exact information regarding the quantities of materials, trimmings, etc., required, explicit instructions for cutting and making, and pictures of the garments when finished.

MISS C. S. HUBBARD, 158 HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

D. E. WADSWORTH & CO.

The ladies in this vicinity will appreciate the introduction of the celebrated Standard Patterns, of which we have put in a full line, and will certainly be a convenience to our numerous patrons.

After a thorough examination by ourselves, and receiving the endorsement of some of the best dry goods houses in the New England states, and particularly from several houses who formerly carried Buttericks—who now carry the Standard—we are convinced that the "Standard Patterns" are far superior to all others—in being more up to date, better modeled, simpler directions for making—insuring perfect satisfaction, a great saving in time, much less fitting to do, and allowing just enough seams, thereby considerable saving in material—there being no waste as in others every pattern is modeled to the human form, and are so nicely proportioned that it is almost impossible to produce anything (if directions are followed, and which are extremely simple) but a beautiful fitting garment

Try one of the STANDARD PATTERNS on our recommendation and we think you will agree with us that they are better than any other pattern sold in this city.

The Standard Fashion Sheets and the beautiful Handy Catalogue are free to all.

The Ladies' Standard Magazine is issued monthly, costs but 50 cents per year and should be in every household; you will surely subscribe for it when you have examined a sample copy at our store; it is the best and cheapest Ladies' magazine in existence, single copies 5 cents.

The Standard Catalogue contains over 1000 illustrations of beautiful styles—up to date—price 20 cents.

A Complete Stock of Standard Patterns Constantly on Hand.

Yours Respectfully,

WAS NOT A DECREE.

Mgr. Satolli's Famous Letter In Danger of Being Magnified.

LIQUOR SELLING IS NOT A SIN.

Ablegate's Letter as Interpreted by Dr. McGlynn.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—Fifteen hundred persons assembled at Prohibition park, Staten Island, yesterday, to hear Rev. Dr. McGlynn discourse on "A Model Commonwealth." Preceding his regular address, he gave by request a prelude upon Mgr. Satolli's confirmation of Bishop Watterson's famous order.

At the meeting at the park a week ago, the question was asked if the importance and seriousness of the ablegate's utterances against the saloons were not overestimated, and it was also asked if a single representative Catholic could be named who was opposed to the saloon.

In introducing Dr. McGlynn, the utterances of Archbishop Ireland, Bishop Michaud of Vermont and Bishop Messner of Wisconsin were read, endorsing Mgr. Satolli's position. Father McGlynn said there was a danger of magnifying Mgr. Satolli's letter beyond the intention of the writer and beyond its real effect.

Satolli Not a Law Maker.

It was not a decree. Mgr. Satolli was not here to make laws. Mgr. Satolli hardly meant, and Bishop Watterson hardly meant, that it was a sin to drink intoxicating liquors or to sell them. They have not gone so far as that. In effect, the letter meant that Catholics should look to it that their churches, families and business should be so conducted as to be no occasion of sin.

"The letter of the apostolic delegate had no more force than the order of the bishop of Columbus, but it did not require great perception to understand how far-reaching would be its effect. The letter plainly insinuates that if each bishop in the United States should issue the same orders as had Bishop Watterson, and Mgr. Satolli should be appealed to for a reversal of that order, that he would give the same answer.

It would have an effect in encouraging the Catholic people and clergy to practise and to preach temperance. It would cause saloon keepers to conduct their business with greater public decorum when they understood they might be excluded from the church for engaging in the traffic.

Clarence Not Recognized.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—Definite information concerning the Nicaraguan policy of the administration has been obtained from an official source. Briefly expressed, the recognition of the complete sovereignty of Nicaragua in the Mosquito reservation is the policy which has been agreed upon. Neither Chief Clarence nor his successors, in any event, are regarded as having any authority or rights separate from or independent of national control. Nicaragua is considered the only treaty power in the strip, and the sole source of government there.

Unmasked.

CHICAGO, Aug. 27.—The man giving his name as Gorman, who participated in the Deerfield hold-up and subsequent stirring events late Friday night and Saturday morning, and who was identified as Billy Williams, a well-known character on the Pacific coast, was again identified yesterday by responsible parties as H. E. Griswold, a well-to-do fire risk inspector of the Manchester Assurance. It appears that Griswold filled the position of inspector and used it as a cloak for his marauding excursions during the night.

A Fall River Holiday.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Aug. 27.—It was a very quiet Sunday in this city, despite the idleness of so many operatives, and contrary to the usual midsummer Sunday. Two lieutenants of police say it was one of the most orderly holidays for some time. In general there is nothing new to be said regarding the manufacturing situation.

Cyclers In a Hole.

HARTFORD, Aug. 27.—The effects of the Columbia Cycle club have been attached for a debt of nearly $400, incurred by the purchase of prizes awarded at its July tournament. It is thought that the club will let the matter go by default, and the organization will die.

He Was Demented.

PEABODY, Mass., Aug. 27.—Samuel Patterson, aged 74 years, walked into Craigs pond yesterday and drowned himself, holding his head under the water until he was dead. He was partially demented, and has been an inmate of the Peabody almshouse.

Had Once Practised Law.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 27.—E. J. Taylor, proprietor of Westlake's Palace Museum, died yesterday, aged 47 years. He was from England. He settled in New England, and later practised law in Nebraska and Dakota. He came here last spring.

Cleaning Out "Speak Easies."

BOSTON, Aug. 27.—Under the new system in the police department, the liquor squad raided a number of unlicensed barrooms yesterday, and seized about 250 gallons of lager beer, 26 gallons of whisky and a large amount of other intoxicants.

Attributed to Anarchy.

MENTONE, Aug. 27.—M. Huisset, secretary to the police commissary, was shot on the street yesterday, and the murderer effected his escape unmolested. It is supposed that the shooting was done by an anarchist.

READY-MADE REPLIES

Peddled Out to the Ubiquitous Reporter by Ex-Vice President Morton.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—Among the passengers who arrived on the French line steamer La Normandie yesterday was Levi P. Morton, who evidently anticipated reporters' questions, as the following note, which he handed to those who greeted him, will show:

LEVI P. MORTON.

"In reply to your questions, I can only say that although I have no desire to reenter public life, I have received so many letters from personal and political friends in different parts of the state, urging me to allow the use of my name as a candidate for governor, that now, that I am at home, I shall feel it due to them and to the Republican party which has so highly honored me in the past to give the question serious consideration." Mr. Morton was apparently in excellent health and spirits, and enjoyed a very pleasant passage.

DECISIVE BATTLE AT HAND.

Chinese Main Body Augmented For an Attack Upon the Japanese.

LONDON, Aug. 27.—The Times this morning publishes a dispatch from Tien-Tsin, stating that General Yeh with 4000 men has effected a junction with the Chinese main body at Pingyang. The remainder of the force under General Nieh is expected at Pingyang tomorrow.

The dispatch adds that the retreat from Azan was brilliantly carried out. The troops marched miles through a difficult country, although they were harassed by the enemy along the whole route. They succeeded in breaking through the Japanese lines at Changhwa. The heat in Corea since July has been intense.

An imperial edict has been issued in connection with the outrages perpetrated on missionaries and the murder of Rev. James Wylie, a Presbyterian missionary, who was recently killed at Liao-Yang by Chinese soldiers who were marching to Corea.

A special dispatch to The Standard says that China is about to address a note to the powers protesting against the King of Corea declaring his independence. The dispatch adds that several of the powers are likely to recognize the justice of the protest because they are certain that the declaration was made under compulsion after the king was captured, and that it was antedated to make it appear voluntary.

Strike Decided Upon.

DOVER, N. H., Aug. 27.—The mule spinners of Dover, New Market, Great Falls and Salmon Falls held a meeting yesterday afternoon. The outsiders urged the Dover spinners to strike, and at last they consented to do so, though it was contrary to their wishes. John Holland, agent for the Cocheco Manufacturing company, says he is sorry they have decided to strike, as the condition of the cloth market will not warrant starting the mills without the cutdown. He does not want to fight, but he is prepared for defense.

Was a Temperance Worker.

HARTFORD, Aug. 27.—The untangling of the much-mixed life history of Mrs. Robbins, the confidence woman who beguiled dollars from so many Yale men, presents new features continually. It has now been ascertained that Mrs. Robbins has once shone as a platform star. The unfortunate wreck of a once proud womanhood now in Hartford county jail is none other than Mrs. Kent Mason, the gifted temperance lecturer.

Padrone Defrauded Them.

AUGUSTA, Me., Aug. 27.—Seventeen Italians from the Wiscasset and Quebec railroad contractors' gang arrived here Saturday penniless and hungry. Contractor Mills has receipts showing that he made all payments to his men. The Italian boss appears to be the one that defrauded the men. He has disappeared.

Quarrel Over Cards.

STOUGHTON, Mass., Aug. 27.—Petrie Sullivan, an Italian laborer, was stabbed in the left breast by his brother, Dominick Sullivan, during a quarrel over cards. The assailant used a big pocket knife. Petrie is in a critical condition. His brother escaped, but the police are on his track.

Electricity's Power.

ATLANTIC CITY, Aug. 27.—A single flash of lightning killed William Carr, aged 20, and so shocked Mrs. Rachel Falnmeir that her condition is extremely critical. The same flash rang the fire alarm, split a telegraph pole and tied up traffic on the electric railroad.

Accident or Suicide?

PROVIDENCE, Aug. 27.—George Tuxedo, 10 years old, was drowned while bathing in Seekonk river last night. As his father intended to send him to the reform school this week, police believe he committed suicide.

Caused a Sensation.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Aug. 27.—George O. Barnes, an Evangelist, dellvered a sermon here last night in which he begged all Christians to vote for Colonel Breckinridge. It created a tremendous sensation.

Bay State Democrats.

BOSTON, Aug. 27.—The Democratic state committee elected Judge John W. Corcoran chairman, to succeed Josiah Quincy, resigned. It was voted to hold the state convention in Music hall, Boston, Oct. 8.

Slapped the Colonel's Face.

CHICAGO, Aug. 27.—Colonel Crofton was struck in the face yesterday by First Lieutenant Welsh. It is said the attack of Welsh was entirely unprovoked. Welsh will be tried before a court-martial.

Cable News.

A THOUSAND VICTIMS

Of the Awful Cyclone Which Swept the Sea of Azov.

FEARS FOR AMERICAN TOURISTS.

Towns on the Coast Almost Entirely Destroyed.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 27.—A wind of death, no other name can describe the cyclone that swept across the sea of Azov Saturday. It will be impossible for days yet to compute the damage done, but it is almost certain that at least 1000 people have perished, some by drowning, others by being crushed under falling houses and trees.

The excitement is great among the American colony in this city, for it is feared that at least two parties of American tourists were on the sea of Azov at the time the wind did its deadly work. All yesterday afternoon there was a stream of callers at the office of the American minister asking, almost begging, for news from Odessa, whence the tourists were to have started on the regular sightseeing trip across the Crimea, visiting Sebastopol and the other famous battle scenes.

The parties were separate, but it is probable that they started within 12 hours of each other, and according to the schedule of these excursions they would have reached the strait of Kertch Saturday morning, thence to go by steamboat north to Berdiansk, where they were to take the train back to Odessa.

It is said that the leader of one of the parties had proposed a trip a short distance north from Temrink into the land of the Black Cossacks. If his party branched off in that way, they for the hurricane ravaged almost the entire east shore of the sea of Azov.

Have Unquestionably Perished,

Everybody is praying that some lucky chance delayed the excursionists so that they could not reach their embarking port. At a late hour there was still only a general report of the disaster on which to base surmises of the Americans' safety. This report recounts wide havoc. The wind was first felt at Nogaisk. Nogaisk is populated mostly by fishermen, who were out on the water.

When the hurricane had swept out to the north a terrible scene was presented. The village was razed, overturned as if an immense plow had been pushed through it. Lying everywhere were women and children, dead or in the last agonies of death. The shallow waters of the sea of Azov were lashed into such a height that it was plain that every fishing boat must have been sunk.

The cyclone swept on to the northeast after wrecking Nosgai. Its path seemed to have been wide, for at Mariopol it devasted the country to a point 11 miles inland and had its outer edge far upon the sea. Mariopol was practically blotted out of existence. Not three houses in a hundred are left standing.

It is estimated that over 200 perished in this town alone.

North of Mariopal the storm seems to have made a sudden turn to the eastward over Dolga point, its left edge inflicting slight damage to the town of Berdiansk. Houses there were unroofed and a dozen persons were killed by falling timbers.

Only at Sea

the storm made its full fury felt. Of the steamers that touch at the port of Berdiansk not one had come in at the hour of the latest report. Grave fears are expressed that every craft in the sea has gone to the bottom and that every passenger is drowned.

When the wind swept over the northern end of Azov it took a new course, going southerly along the coast of the land of the black Cossack. In turn Eisk and Acuev were ravaged, each town being almost totally destroyed.

Telegraphic communication with this district is suspended, and it is impossible to learn the extent of the destruction, but at least 1000 persons must have died on the two shores.

The storm, as nearly as can now be learned, seems to suddenly have lost its force near Temerink and passed off with comparative quiet southerly over the Black sea.

A Vigilant Mayor.

ROCKLAND, Me., Aug. 27.—Mayor Knight has offered $100 reward for the detection and conviction of the person or persons who have been concerned in setting the numerous incendiary fires about the city. He also offers another $100 for the conviction of any person who may be detected setting fires.

Bridge Collapsed.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 27.—By the collapsing of a bridge over a ravine at Fairmount park last evening, 50 persons were precipitated to the ground a distance of 15 or 20 feet, and 20 of them were injured. None of those injured are in danger.

A Quiet Day.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Aug. 27.—The second week of the great mill strike commenced this morning. The situation is practically unchanged, and the mill managers and operatives are apparently as far apart as they were at the first.

Whole Country Ablaze.

HARRISVILLE, Mich., Aug. 27.—Heavy forest fires are raging throughout Algona county, doing great damage to the lumber mills and standing pines, destroying crops of all kinds and burning the homes of many settlers.

THE FIRST CAR LOAD.

Elcock & Sons Send the First Granite Over N w Quarry Railroad.

On Saturday afternoon, locomotive No. 783 of the New York, New Haven & Hartford put up a flat car to Elcock's quarry to load with stone destined to Brooklyn, N. Y.

Upon the engine were Supt. L. S. Anderson of Quincy, Engineer C. A. Fenderson, Fireman D. H. Drew, Conductor Fred M. Buzzell of South Braintree, and Miss Georgiana C. Lane of this city, the latter, on August 4, being the first lady to enjoy a locomotive ride over the new railroad. The train crew on Saturday was composed of Foreman William Grady of Boston, and brakemen C. Cooper, H. J. Martin and John Keating of Braintree.

This car was shipped loaded today and was the first granite to be transported from any quarry over the new Quincy Quarry Railroad, a fact of which Messrs. Elcock may well be proud.

Engineer Fenderson, it may be added, was formerly a stone cutter in the employ of the Granite Railway Co., and therefore takes especial pride in being the first engineer to run upon the new road.

TODAY'S COURT.

Neil Spillson of Quincy for being drunk was fined $5.00.

John Poole of Quincy for being drunk was fined $5.00.

Herman Taylor and Thomas A. Hensey of Roxbury were arraigned for violating section 19 of the city ordinances by writing obscene words in an outbuilding at Merry Mount park, Sunday. The defendants were found not guilty and were discharged.

Circus at South Quincy Today.

Scribner & Smith's circus arrived in town this morning, and the street parade was witnessed by large crowds.

It is a very fine show, if we can judge by many favorable notices in our exchanges. The Wakefield Citizens says:

"At the evening performance the tent was crowded and about every seat was occupied. The show was better than the average, the athletic features being especially fine. The exhibition given by the trained dogs and a pony was also an attractive feature, Bazal the "ponderous elephant" gave an exhibition of his intelligence and trickery. A concert and minstrel show followed."

The seating capacity of the tent is 3,300. There are 125 people with the circus and 80 fine horses. Our readers will find it an unusually attractive entertainment.

A Snake Story.

An English journal puts the liquor problem in this form:

"Twenty-five snakes running through the streets—that's free whiskey. Twenty-five snakes gathered in a box in which 25 holes are made by the authority of the court—that is low license. Ten of the holes are closed, and the snakes all get through the other 15—that is high license. Drive all the snakes over to the next village—that is local option. Kill all the snakes—that is prohibition."

Resignation Accepted.

The Democratic State committee accepted on Saturday the resignation of Josiah Quincy as chairman, and adopted resolutions. John W. Corcoran was elected chairman. Mr. Quincy will be chairman of the committee on resolutions and write the platform for the State convention to be held Oct. 8. He also continues on the executive committee.

—Hon. William S. McNary who was defeated by Congressman McEttrick in 1892, denies that it has been practically decided to give the latter the regular nomination, and states positively that there will be an opposition candidate.

AN INTERESTING comparison of valuations of the city by wards will be made in tomorrow's LEDGER. It will compare separately both the real estate, the personal estate and the ward totals.

Saturday was a red letter day in the history of the Quincy Yacht Club. The 20th anniversary of the club could not have been celebrated in a more fitting manner, unless it be by patronizing the home printers.

The club house was open to everybody who was interested in yachting. Long before the preparatory gun was fired the club house, floats and piazzas were thronged by crowds of people from Quincy and adjoining towns. Over a hundred teams were on the pier in front of Mears'.

Concert waltz, "Fin de Siecle," Waldteufel
Finale, "Entre Nous," Rowell

Among the many distinguished spectators was Mrs. McDowell (Fanny Davenport) who came up from her summer home at South Duxbury to watch the performance of her new Hanley caper, the Cleopatra, which was sailed by Mr. McDowell and C. C. Hanley, the famous Monument beach boat builder.

Hanley, by the way, to go ahead of our story, brought the Cleopatra up from South Duxbury especially to pit her against his other hitherto invincible creations, Harrison Gray Otis' Magpie and William P. Barker's Opechee. The improvement over those two boats is extraordinary. Saturday's race has resulted in placing Hanley at the top of American boat builders. His fame after that race will be natural. Harrison Gray Otis in speaking of it after the race to the judges, said that it was the most wonderful performance that he ever saw in yachting.

The regatta was the largest and most successful ever given by the Quincy Yacht club. The prizes, $15 for the first and $10 for second, in each of the seven classes were liberal, and attracted a large number of crack boats. There were 55 entries and 41 took part in the regatta.

A brisk wind was blowing from the southwest at the rate of eighteen miles an hour when the preparatory gun was fired at 3.30, and the blue peter was hoisted over the judges' stand. The small boats put in double and the large ones single reefs, while some of the more venturesome carried full sail. The scene at this time was grand as over seventy yachts, counting those who came to witness the race, sailed the waters opposite the club house.

Numbers 1 and 3 were run up to denote the courses for the different classes.

At precisely 3.45 the gun boomed out for the first-class to start.

The Gretchen of the Squantum yacht club was the first to get away closely followed by the White Fawn. The Amorita and Beatrice crossed the line a few seconds before the gun was fired and had to put about and try it over again. The Mudjekeewis and Moondyne crossed together. The wind began to freshen and the Beatrice although having a poor start, pulled upon the other boats and soon headed the procession. The Mudjekeewis made an error on the first leg and turned Jacknife ledge buoy instead of channel rock buoy. The Amorita parted a shroud, sprung her mast and withdrew. When near Sheep Island ledge the Gretchen, White Fawn Mudjekeewis bunched, and the "Mudje" was crowded on to the rocks. She slid off but made water so fast that her crew decided to beach her on Bunker's Island. The White Fawn stood by her and brought the crew up to the club house. That made three starters in the first-class that were obliged to withdraw. This narrowed the fight down to the Beatrice, Moondyne and Gretchen. The Beatrice had a walk over and won first money, with the Moondyne second. The Gretchen protested the Beatrice for fouling the White Fawn off Channel rock buoy. The protest will be decided later.

In the second class the Dorothy was the first to cross the line, followed by the Sea Bird and Good Luck. The Dorothy's lead was brief as on the second leg her sheet parted, letting the boom swing around the mast, springing it. The Gypsy made a good fight and came in first followed by the Good Luck. The Gypsy was the second boat to finish in the two classes, she being but 1 minute 33 seconds corrected time behind the Beatrice.

In the third class four boats started with the Alpine in the lead followed by Lem Hayward's Diadem, and the Cutty Sark. It was a hot fight from the beginning to the finish between the Alpine and Diadem. The Alpine won on corrected time and the

GEORGE FRED WILSON.

Quincy's Oldest Grocer—Was Actively in the Business Over Fifty Years.

The New England Grocer in its issue of August 10 had the following sketch of Mr. Wilson:

It may not be a fact that the grocery and provision business is conducive to longevity, but there are so many who have long since passed the allotted three score years and ten, who are still engaged in that trade, that, at least, the business must be an attractive one to induce those engaged therein to continue in active life long after those engaged in other occupations have retired.

Every town in New England probably has within its borders at least one grocer who has been engaged in business for half a century.

The oldest grocer in the city of Quincy is Mr. George F. Wilson, more familiarly known as Fred Wilson, who can look back with satisfaction to a long, successful and honorable business career of more than 50 years. Mr. Wilson commenced business in 1843, commencing in a small way, and although he depended principally upon customers who lived over a large and sparsely settled route, to whose houses he went on stated days during the week, he had a small store on Hancock street, in Quincy.

At that time Quincy was not the large and thriving municipality of the present day, and Mr. Wilson's route extended through the adjoining towns of Weymouth and Braintree.

As the population increased and his trade extended, Mr. Wilson, from time to time, removed to more commodious stores, all of which, however, were located within a quarter of a mile of his present location. His present store, occupying the whole of the first floor and cellar of his block on Hancock street, just south of the Greenleaf Hotel, was built by him in 1881. The upper stories are used for office purposes, and lawyers, and other professional men occupy the rooms.

Mr. Wilson possesses the unique distinction of being the only man in New England who has retired, temporarily, from business on account of the exorbitant demands of his landlord. At one time he hired a store from one of the largest and most prominent real estate owners in Quincy, who is also a well known temperance advocate, and whose name is a household word throughout Massachusetts.

This he leased for a year, putting in a good stock of groceries, meats and provisions. When the year had expired, the landlord came to him and said: "Wilson, your trade here seems to be increasing, and I shall be obliged to ask for $50 more on the rent." Mr. Wilson agreed to pay the increase and took a lease for another year. At the expiration of the second year the rent went up another $50. About three weeks before the expiration of the third term, he received another visit from his landlord, who gravely informed him that, on account of the way in which the business had increased he thought that Wilson could stand another raise of $50.

The next day Mr. Wilson notified his salesmen to inform the customers that for the next three weeks all his old patrons could purchase anything in his store for just what it cost, and that after that he was going to quit the business. Not being able to obtain another suitable location, and a determination to refuse the demands of his landlord, induced him to retire from business.

During the time intervening before the expiration of the lease, the store was thronged with an eager crowd of purchasers, who took advantage of the sale to get their goads at wholesale prices. The owner of the building was away from home during the time, and only returned just a day before Mr. Wilson's lease expired. On the evening of his return he came to the store, and was very much surprised to find bare counters, denuded shelves and empty ice chests. Asking what it meant he was informed that Mr. Wilson did not propose to pay the advance asked for, and was giving up business rather than submit.

About six months afterward an opportunity offered of obtaining another suitable location, and he again embarked in business, in which he has been uninterruptedly engaged ever since.

The store remained unoccupied for three years, and then was let at a greatly reduced rate from that which Mr. Wilson had been paying.

Mr. Wilson belongs to an old Quincy family, and is a descendant of one of three brothers of the name who settled in Boston in 1635. In his boyhood days he attended the district schools during the winter months, where, on account of his genial disposition and good natured ways, he was a great favorite with his schoolmates, and the same characteristics which distinguished him in his youth have remained with him through life, and even now, although in his 74th year, he is never called anything but "Fred" Wilson. In his youth Quincy Point was quite a ship building and shipping port, and like so many boys who were born and lived near the salt water, Fred had a desire to become a sailor bold. So he accordingly engaged on a coaster that run between Boston and Galveston. The captain under whom he sailed was a hard master, and after one trip, lasting about six months, he gave up his intention of being a sailor and settled down to a contented and happy life on land.

He was married in 1841 to Maria F. Stetson, of Randolph, who bore him ten children, four of whom are still living, and all still make Quincy their home. The oldest is Mrs. Annie M. Hodges, wife of Mayor Hodges, of Quincy; Mrs. Mary H. Howe, George H. Wilson and Walter B. Wilson.

THE LUCK WAS AGAINST US.

The Whitmans Also Victorious Over Holbrooks.

The Quincys missed their opportunity to lower the standard of the Institutes on Saturday, and the latter now has a good claim on the championship of the Old Colony league as will be seen by summary.

The standing up to date is:

The great Institute—Quincy game in the Old Colony league took place Saturday and the Institutes won. The Quincys made fewer errors, and only one less base hit, but the Institutes were lucky as usual:

Sheldon's Pal also Arrested and Identified by Young Walsh.

Harry Harris alias Harry Sawyer, who was with Sheldon at the robbery at C. F. Derby's store last week, was arrested Saturday by Special Officer Gilmore. He is held by the Boston authorities first for the attempt at safe robbery at Light's store in Neponset, and was arraigned in the Dorchester court this morning.

There is no doubt but he was Sheldon's pal at Quincy, having been identified by young Walsh.

TIMELY RESCUE.

Two Little Children Rescued from a Watery Grave at Atlantic.

Two young men of Atlantic, Austin Sutherland and Harold Moody, are deserving of considerable credit, on Friday last, in saving the lives of two babies, whom they saw fall into the water at Atlantic. The children were in a baby carriage on the wharf near the water. The older one, between two and three years of age, reaching over the side turned the wheel and over went the carriage and babies into the water.

The young men being only a short distance away, rushed to the rescue. Sutherland without stopping to remove any of his clothing jumped in and grabbed the older one and handed it to its mother who was on the wharf; and then started back for the babe which was floating in the carriage; and succeeded by the help of Moody, who had removed his coat and hat, in bringing the child and carriage to the shore. The babe belonged to Mr. Disbroe, and the other infant to his housekeeper.

The young men deserve recognition at the hands of the Humane Society for the noble deed they performed. A few seconds delay and both children would have been drowned; as their heads were under water when rescued.

Challenge from Cavanagh.

J. T. Cavanagh is willing to back the Beatrice against the Harbinger for a large sum and issued the following challenge on Saturday:

Owing to the feeling among the supporters of the yacht Beatrice at the unsatisfactory result of the three races for the commodore's cup and their belief that the Beatrice would have won had it not been for the accidents in the first two races, I hereby challenge the Harbinger for a series of three races, best three in five, over the same course, or any other course that may be mutually agreed upon, for $500 a side.

Alarm from Box 26.

The Sunday morning slumber of many was disturbed by an alarm about 4.45 from Box 26 in City Square. The hostler at the residence of Mr. Joseph C. Morse on Goffe street had been awakened by a crackling sound and discovered the shed connecting the house and stable to be on fire. It was easily extinguished however with a sill cock stream. It was caused by the spontaneous combustion of an oily piece of cloth crowded behind a beam after using. The loss was slight.

Says S. C. Weeks of Melrose, Mass.: "I had been troubled with chronic diarrhoea for over a year when I received a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which I used and it gave me great relief. I then procured a fifty-cent bottle and took about two-thirds of it, and was cured. I have taken some twice since when I had a looseness come on and it stopped it at once. I hope it will help others as it helped me. I feel very thankful to Mr. Stearns, the druggist, for telling me of this remedy and shall be glad to have this letter published."

WAS GREAT SAILING.

Diadem on actual time. There was too much wind for the Cutty Lark and Cupid, the water was also beginning to get hubbly.

The next came the fourth class or knockabouts. They did not withdraw owing to the heavy wind. It was just what they were looking for. The Spinster got over the line first and showed the way over the whole course to the other three boats. The Nike came in second.

But the interest of the spectators and yachtmen centered in the fifth class, for Hanley had come up from Monument Beach to bring Fanny Davenport's Cleopatra around from South Duxbury to race against the crack flyers's, Magpie, Opeechee and Arab. The Cleopatra is a curious looking craft, having an extremely long overhanging bow and stern. Although a cat boat her mast was stayed up with shrouds, preventer back stays and a bob stay. Hanley was at the helm. At the start the Arab crossed the line first, with the Cleopatra second, Magpie third, and Joker fourth. The Cleopatra soon took the lead and passed the other boats as though they were at anchor. She finished in 8 minutes 1 second ahead of the Magpie. She actually almost left the other flyers hull down, in fact would have if the course had been a straight one. The astonishment among the old skippers and yachtsman when they realized what had taken place is indescribable. The Joker was dismasted and towed to Hull and the Smoke sprung her new mast.

When the sixth class was started there was considerable excitement caused by the Mab fouling the sloop Electra and spliting her silk sail which broke her mast. The Gwendoline crossed first followed by the Mirage. The Duck made a good race, beating Commodore Faxon's Primrose 2m, 57 sec. Charlie Colby's Dux did well.

A special class was made for the 21 footers. Kit Cleverly sailed the Eulalie and got over the line first. The Vanessa crossed second but made an error in turning Jacknife ledge buoy and withdrew. This narrowed the race down to the Eulalie and Wellington's new Gleaner. The Gleaner gave the Eulalie a bad drubbing.

The judges were Mr. George E. Pfaffmann, Mr. James S. Whiting, Mr. Charles F. Pettengill and Mr. Harrison A. Keith. The summary:

Russ B. Walker, well known in Boston and Quincy as a dancing master, died in Biddeford, Me., Sunday night after a lingering illness.

The picnic of the Congregational Sunday School on Saturday afternoon, at Merry Mount Park, was exceedingly enjoyable. It was attended by over 300, and there was a great variety of amusements and an abundance of refreshments.

Letters and papers are advertised at Houghs Neck postoffice for the following persons: Mrs. F. H. Caney, C. W. Clattenburg, Mrs. Carrie E. Dow, Mrs. Sarah E. Mehan, Miss Lillian Smith, Mr. G. H. Barrister, Patrick Donahue, Thos. Lewin. W. I. Peck, Hugh T. Peck.

There was another big surprise party at the Duck's Nest, Wollaston, on Saturday evening. Mr. Daniel B. Lincoln broke 31 "T. D.'s," straight. This leaves Brainerd's and Starrett's scores of 23 each, way behind. The boys will have to do some fine work to break that record.

The funeral of Mr. George Fred Wilson took place this afternoon at two o'clock from his late residence on Hancock street. The Grocers' association attended in a body, and the stores of the city were closed from 1.30 to 3.30. Rev. E. C. Butler o the First church officiated. The interment was at Mt. Wollaston.

Riot at Lovell's Grove.

A typical crowd of North End Boston toughs were at Lovell's grove Sunday afternoon, and there were scraps and disturbances from the time of their arrival to their departure. Officer Thuber on duty was powerless. The commanding officer of the Steamer Clifford objected strongly against taking the party back. It was a hard crowd.

GEORGE FRED WILSON.

The business is now carried on under the firm name and style of George F. Wilson & Co., the partners consisting of Mr. Wilson and his son George H. Mr. Wilson met with an accident about six years ago, which obliged him to give up active participation in the business in the store, but he is still interested in the affairs of the firm. Previous to that time he was at his post every day, working early and late to serve his customers. The principal management now devolves upon his son George H.

He was one of the first subscribers to the New England Grocer, and for twenty years has been a constant reader of the paper. WILLIAM W. BURKE.

PATENTS

NOTICE TO INVENTORS.

THERE Was never a time in the history of our country when the demand for inventions and improvements in the arts and sciences generally was so great as now. The conveniences of man-kind in the factory and work-shop, the household, on the farm, and in official life, require continual accessions to the appurtances and implements of each in order to save labor, time and expense. The political change in the administration of government does not affect the progress of the American inventor, who, being on the alert, and ready to perceive the existing deficiences, does not permit the affairs of government to deter him from quickly conceiving the remedy to overcome existing discrepancies. Too great care cannot be exercised in choosing a competent and skilful attorney to prepare and prosecute an application for patent. Valuable interests have been lost and destroyed in innumerable instances by the employment of incompetent counsel, and especially is this advice applicable to those who adopt the "No patent, no pay" system. Inventors who intrust their business to this class of attorneys do so at imminent risk, as the breadth and strength of the patent is never considered in view of a quick endeavor to get an allowance and obtain the fee then due. THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY, John Wedderburn, General Manager, 618 F street, N. W., Washington, D. C., representing a large number of important daily and weekly papers, as well as general periodicals of the country, was instituted to protect its patrons from the unsafe methods heretofore employed in this line of business. The said Company is prepared to take charge of all patent business entrusted to it for reasonable fees, and prepares and prosecutes applications generally, including mechanical inventions, design patents, trade marks, labels, copyrights, interferences, infringements, validity reports, and gives especial attention to rejected cases. It is also prepared to enter into competition with any firm in securing foreign patents.

BILLS OF IMPORTANCE

Which Have Been Acted Upon by Congress During the Past Month.

A FEW PECULIAR INCIDENTS.

No More Business to Be Done at This Session.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—The last month of the present session of congress, excepting the 10 days during which the tariff bill has been in the president's hands, has been fairly productive of general legislation.

All of the appropriation bills have become laws. The general deficiency and sundry civil bills were both signed late in the session. The latter measure embraces two important pieces of legislation—the appropriation of $300,000 for a government exhibit at the cotton states exposition to be held at Atlanta, and the cession to each of the arid land states and the states which may be formed from the territories of 1,000,000 acres each of desert lands for reclamation.

The bill to subject to state and municipal taxation national bank notes and United States treasury notes, under the same provisions by which gold, silver and other money is taxed, became a law on the 13th. It is left optional with the states, however, to tax those exempted forms of money.

Among the acts of the session relating to the military was a law regulating enlistments in the regular army upon new principles, most important of which are that recruits in time of peace must be citizens of the United States, or have declared their intention to become citizens; must be able to read, write and speak the English language and be under 30 years of age.

To promote the efficiency of the naval militia, congress authorized the temporary loan to any state making application for it, of any vessel of the navy which was not fitted for regular service.

For the Benefit of Mariners.

A law was enacted providing that the stations on the Atlantic and Gulf coasts shall be manned from Aug. 1 to June 1 following, and those on the lakes from the opening to the close of navigation; also extending the benefits of the marine hospitals to the crews of these stations.

The quarantine laws were amended to exempt vessels plying between nearby ports of the United States and Canada and Mexico. The act relating to lights on fishing vessels was continued in force by special enactment. Range lights, as well as a lightship with fog signal, were established in Boston harbor.

The towns of Manchester and Vernon, Conn., were annexed to the customs district of Hartford, and the city of Rockville, Conn., was made a port of delivery.

The laws relating to barratry on the high seas were so amended as to make imprisonment for life or for a term of years the punishment in certain cases.

The most important act emanating from the common judiciary were: An act for the protection of persons furnishing materials and labor for the construction of public works by allowing them to bring suit against contractors in the name of the government; one changing the lines between the judicial districts of North Carolina, and an act amending the funding act of Arizona.

The Judiciary.

The contest between the interior department and the railroads operating in Oklahoma was settled by the enactment of a law compelling the roads to maintain depots and stations at all town sites on the lines established by the department.

An act was passed extending from four to five years the limit of time within which final proof may be made by settlers who have declared their intention of taking up desert lands. Affidavits in land entry cases made before a United States commissioner, instead of a United States circuit court commissioner, were made valid by a special enactment. Other legislation relating to public lands includes an act to enable the state of Montana to select as a part of the lands granted to her on becoming a state any of the lands in the Bitter Root valley above the Lo Lo fork of the Bitter Root river; an act extending the time of payment to purchasers of lands of the Omaha tribe of Indians in Nebraska to Dec. 1, 1897, and a grant of public land in Castine, Me., for use as a park.

The house committee on labor has authorized an investigation into the effects of machinery on labor with reference to its productive power and effect upon wages, hours of work and employment of women and children; also an investigation of the extent of the employment of women and children and the conditions under which they work. Both inquiries will be conducted by the commissioners of labor.

The Closing Days of the Session have been marked by a number of peculiar incidents.

One of these incidents has been the transaction of legislative business behind closed doors. Senators of both parties have a number of measures that require only the final action of the senate to enact them, but the Republicans were not willing to provide the quorum, nor would they permit business to proceed in open session by unanimous consent, for fear the Democrats would, by some means, find the opportunity to make the campaign speeches they have prepared.

For this reason the legislative business, against which no objection was made, was transacted behind closed doors by general consent Thursday and Friday. Under this arrangement no speeches could be made, and the Record was prevented from becoming the vehicle for the dissemination of alleged campaign literature.

Republicans were not, however, the only ones who offered objections to the consideration of contested matters. Mr. Blanchard has effectually blocked, for this session at least, any effort to change the rules so as to provide for closure.

Mr. Blackburn wanted to have his committee sit during recess and consider the many amendments to the rules that have been referred to his committee. He asked consent to this arrangement Friday, but Mr. Blanchard, who sees in closure the possibility of free sugar, entered an emphatic objection.

There will be no legislation of any sort today nor tomorrow. A few odds and ends may be cleared up, but nothing more than that. Tomorrow the president will send a message with his approval or disapproval of the various matters that reach him at the last moment, and at 2 o'clock the second session of the Fifty-third congress will stand adjourned without day.

THE WORKING GIRL.

Miss Sallie Palmer Gives Some Suggestions to Girls About Backache, Faintness, and Dizziness.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

Did you ever notice working girls on their way home from stores or factories?

Did you notice how many of them had pale cheeks, dull eyes, and heavy steps? and did you wonder why they were not ruddy and bright?

The story which is told by Miss Sallie Palmer, of Nicetown, Pa., gives the reason for this sad condition of many working girls.

Sometimes their back and sides will ache terribly. They are faint and dizzy with pain and weight in the lower part of their stomach. They watch the clock, and wish that the day would end, as they feel so ill and tired.

Standing all day, week in and week out, they have slowly drifted into woman's great enemy, displacement of the womb. That, or some other derangement of the organ, causes irregularity or suspension of the "monthly periods," bloating, flooding, or nervous prostration.

"Take warning in time," she says; "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the surest and safest remedy in the world for you."

AMONG THE MISSING.

Creditors of Kraus Bros. Said to Have Been Cheated Out of $75,000.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—Benjamin and Morris Kraus, constituting the firm of Kraus Bros., dealers in horses, carriages and harnesses in Brooklyn and New York, are missing, leaving their creditors to mourn their loss. It is said that they have disposed of nearly $75,000 worth of goods, secured for the most part on four months' time, and have decamped with the proceeds.

The Krauses were horse dealers in Brooklyn for many years, and had established a good financial reputation. During the past year they decided to extend the scope of their operations and opened a carriage and harness store in Brooklyn, and also one in this city. They then laid in large stocks of carriages, wagons and harnesses on four months' credit. They bought from city dealers and from others all over the country.

This stock was disposed of at auction, cut rates or any other way to get rid of it on a cash basis. Most of their notes fell due Aug. 1, and they still had about $20,000 worth of stock. They asked for and secured a loan of $5000 from Bloomingdale Bros. of this city and gave a chattel mortgage for $11,000 to cover this loan and back rent. Since then they have not been seen.

Many of the creditors have placed their claims with lawyers for collection. Several replevins have been made on the remaining stock.

PYTHIANS DRENCHED.

Inclement Weather, However, Had but Little Effect Upon Their Spirits.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—An unwelcome house warming was given the Knights of Pythias, encamped in the "white city" of tents around the Washington monument yesterday afternoon. It came in the form of a fierce thunder storm, which swept over the city almost without warning, and then settled into a steady rain until sunset.

Several tents were dismantled by the sheets of rain which beat against them, and the lightning was unpleasantly sharp. All of the discomforts incidental to the storm were accepted in a hilarious mood by the Knights, however, after the first drenching wave of rain had passed over. There were reunions and cheers for the arriving companies, while the bands in camp kept up a continual concert, endeavoring to outplay the rivals.

In the face of the weather, hundreds of residents flocked to inspect the camp during the day. Fine discipline was maintained in the encampment, something like a martial regulation being enforced. Three thousand men slept on the light cots under canvas last night.

Washed Overboard.

LONDON, Aug. 27.—Mate Simons and Caterer Roper of the Britannia, now at Weymouth, left the yacht for the shore in a dingey, taking with them Engineer Brookman of the steam yacht Tabura. A heavy storm was prevailing at the time. The dingey was afterward found floating bottom up, and it is now supposed that the three men who were in her were drowned.

PATENTS

FOR INVENTIONS.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuable inventions because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With the view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys, and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, we have retained counsel expert in patent practice, and therefore are prepared to

Obtain Patents in the United States and all Foreign Countries, Conduct Interferences, Make Special Examinations, Prosecute Rejected Cases, Register Trade-Marks and Copyrights, Render Opinions as to Scope and Validity of Patents, Prosecute and Defend Infringement Suits, Etc., Etc.

If you have an invention on hand send a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be at once advised as to the best course to pursue. Models are seldom necessary. If others are infringing on your rights, or if you are charged with infringement by others, submit the matter to us for a reliable OPINION before acting on the matter.

PRESIDENT EXPLAINS

Why He Did Not Affix His Signature to the Tariff Bill.

THE MACHINATIONS OF TRUSTS

Barred the Progress of Honest Tariff Reform.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—The president yesterday sent the following letter to Representative Catchings of Mississippi, who consented to its publication in view of its public character and importance:

EXECUTIVE MANSION,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 27, 1894.

Hon. T. C. Catchings:

MY DEAR SIR—Since the conversation I had with you and Mr. Clark of Alabama a few days ago in regard to my action on the tariff bill now before me, I have given the subject further and most serious consideration. The result is I am more settled than ever in the determination to allow the bill to become a law without my signature.

When the formulation of legislation which was hoped would embody Democratic ideas of tariff reform was lately entered upon by the congress nothing was further from my anticipation than a result which I could not prompt y and enthusiastically endorse. It is, therefore, with a feeling of the utmost disappointment that I submit a denial to this privilege.

I do not claim to be better than the masses of my party, nor do I wish to avoid any responsibility which, on account of the passage of this law, I ought to bear as a member of the Democratic organization. Neither will I permit myself to be separated from my party to such an extent as might be implied by my veto of the tariff legislation, which, though disappointing, is still chargeable to Democratic effort.

But there are provisions in this bill which are not in line with honest tariff reform, and it contains inconsistencies and crudities which ought not to appear in the tariff laws or laws of any kind. Besides there were, as you and I well know, incidents accompanying the passing of the bill through the congress which made every sincere tariff reformer unhappy, while influences surrounded it in its latter stages and interfered with its final construction which ought not to be recognized or tolerated in Democratic tariff reform councils.

An Improvement, Nevertheless.

And yet, notwithstanding all its vicissitudes and all the bad treatment it received at the hands of pretended friends, it presents a vast improvement to existing conditions. It will certainly lighten many tariff burdens that now rest heavily upon the people. It is not only a barrier against the return of mad protection, but it furnishes a vantage ground from which must be waged further aggressive operation against protected monopoly and governmental favoritism.

I take my place with the rank and file of the Democratic party who believe in tariff reform and who know what it is, who refuse to accept the results embodied in this bill as the close of the war, who are not blinded to the fact that the livery of the Democratic reform has been stolen and worn in the service of the Republican protection, and who have marked the places where the deadly blight of treason has blasted the councils of the brave in their hour of might.

The trusts and combination—the communism of pelf—whose machinations have prevented us from reaching the success we deserved, should not be forgotten nor forgiven. We shall recover from our astonishment at their exhibition of power, and if then the question is forced upon us whether they shall submit to the free legislative will of the people's representatives, or dictate the laws which the people must obey, we will accept and settle that issue as one involving the integrity and safety of American institutions.

Hope of Further Legislation.

I love the principles of true Democracy, because they are founded on patriotism and upon justice and fairness toward all interests. I am proud of my party organization, because it is conservatively sturdy and persistent in the enforcement of its principles. Therefore I do not despair of the efforts made by the house of representatives to supplement the bill already passed by further legislation and to have engrafted upon it such modifications as will more nearly meet Democratic hopes and aspirations.

I cannot be mistaken as to the necessity of free raw materials as the foundation of logical and sensible tariff reform. The extent to which this is recognized in the legislation already secured is one of its encouraging and redeeming features; but it is vexatious to recall that while free coal and iron ore have been denied us, a recent letter of the secretary of the treasury discloses the fact that both might have been made free by the annual surrender of only about $40,000 of unnecessary revenue.

I am sure that there is a common habit of underestimating the importance of free raw materials in tariff legislation, and of regarding them as only related to concessions to be made to our manufacturers. The truth is, the influence is so far reaching that if disregarded, a complete and beneficent scheme of tariff reform cannot be successfully inaugurated.

When we give to our manufacturers free raw materials we unshackle American enterprise and ingenuity, and these will open the doors of foreign markets to the reception of our wares and give opportunity for the continuous and remunerative employment of American labor.

How Consumers Are Benefited.

With materials cheapened by their freedom from tariff charges, the cost of their product must be correspondingly cheapened. Thereupon justice and fairness to the consumer would demand that the manufacturers be obliged to submit to such readjustment and modification of the tariff upon their finished goods as would secure to the people the benefit of the reduced cost of their manufacture, and shield the consumers against the exaction of inordinate profits.

It will thus be seen that free raw materials and a just and fearless regulation and reduction of the tariff to meet the changed conditions would carry to every humble home in the land the blessings of increased comfort and cheaper living.

The millions of our countrymen who have fought bravely and well for tariff reform should be exhorted to continue the struggle, boldly challenging to open warfare and constantly guarding against treachery and half-heartedness in their camp.

Tariff reforms will not be settled until it is honestly and fairly settled in the interest and to the benefit of a patient and long suffering people. GROVER CLEVELAND.

PATRIOTIC PYTHIANS

Would Have All Members of Their Order Become American Citizens.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—Expectations with regard to the great biennial encampment of the Knights of Pythias are beginning to be realized, and everything indicates a magnificent gathering, not only of the uniform rank, but of many thousands of visitors in excess of the number predicted.

A serious question to be decided is whether the ritual shall be translated into German. Some German lodges are disposed to be mutinous, because this has not been done. The policy of America for Americans has been set up in opposition to this, and Supreme Chancellor Blackwell says it may come to the point of saying to the German members: "Either become citizens of this country or get out of the order." The questions of admitting the Pythian Sisters to the membership, heretofore refused, and that of allowing liquor dealers to be admitted, will also be considered by the supreme lodge.

Convention hall was brilliant with banners and the evening costumes of hundreds of ladies during the reception given last evening to the supreme lodge by the citizens' committee. Vice President Stevenson was escorted to the platform by Richard Goodhart and followed by the officers of the supreme lodge and members of the committee, who took seats upon the stage.

Chairman Goodhart introduced John W. Ross, commissioner of the District of Columbia, whose remarks were in harmony with the spirit of the occasion, dwelling upon the establishment of the order in Washington. Mr. Ross then presented Vice President Stevenson, who delivered the address of welcome.

Supreme Chancellor W. W. Blackwell, who was to have responded, refrained from speaking, on account of the death of his predecessor in office, Congressman Shaw of Wisconsin.

Congressman C. G. Conn of Indiana, a member of the fraternity, gave an address of welcome on behalf of the knights of Washington, incidentally paying a tribute to the late Chancellor Shaw, whose untimely death, he said, had changed the rejoicing into mourning.

In Congress.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—There were only 12 senators present while the opening prayer was being offered. The reading of Friday's journal was dispensed with, and then the galleries were cleared, the doors locked and the senate proceeded to the consideration of executive business. The Pythian hosts were fully represented in the galleries of the house. The floor was occupied by not more than 60 or 70 representatives. Messages were received from the president and the senate, the former announcing his signature to "sundry bills and joint resolutions."

Bangor's Incendiary Fire.

BANGOR, Me., Aug. 28.—A watchman last night discovered flames in the rear of the big grand stand of the eastern Maine state fair's ground in this city. A pile of oil-saturated rags had been placed under a corner of the building, and only quick work prevented a disastrous conflagration. The fair opened yesterday, and thousands of dollars' worth of goods were in the exhibition hall beneath the stand. There is no clew to the incendiary.

A Southern Political Sensation.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Aug. 28.—A sensation was created yesterday by the announcement that Senator Butler would not abide by the result of the primary elections. At those elections members of the legislature will be nominated who will elect a successor to Senator Butler. In withdrawing from the primary, Senator Butler leaves himself and friends free to make a contest in the general election which takes place in November.

Griffo Declared Beaten.

CONEY ISLAND, N. Y., Aug. 28.—Australia's featherweight, Young Griffo, met Jack McAuliffe in the Seaside arena and fought 10 hard rounds with the American champion lightweight, the decision at the end of the bout being given to McAuliffe. The award is generally regarded as a roast on the Australian. A draw is the most that the spectators expected Mac to get.

Little Ones Made Happy.

LAWRENCE, Mass., Aug. 28.—The Sun gave a free outing yesterday to 3000 poor children. Open electric cars conveyed the party to Glen Forest. The entire night force of police volunteered to look after the safety of the little ones, in addition to 25 prominent society ladies. The entertainment comprised music, dinner, theatricals, swings, etc.

Michael Was Homesick.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—Michael Fennell, aged 15 years, and John Walsh, 14 years old, both of Boston, ran away from their homes last week. Last night Fennell was found crying on First avenue. His parents will be communicated with. The Walsh boy is missing.

New York's Legislative Apportionment.

ALBANY, Aug. 28.—The majority report from the committee on legislative organization presented to the constitutional convention an amendment providing for an increase in the number of senators from 32 to 50, and of assemblymen from 128 to 150.

Farmhouses Swept Away.

BRUSSELS, Aug. 28.—A hurricane swept over the district between Mons and the German frontier, accompanied by lightning and hail. Several farmhouses were completely destroyed.

The Fastest Yearling.

WOODLAND, Cal., Aug. 28.—Alsdall won the yearling dash in 2:26, breaking the trotting record for yearlings. Alsdall is a brown colt and is owned by the Palo Alto stock farm.

Tar Caught Fire.

ST. ALBANS, Vt., Aug. 28.—Barns belonging to B. M. Foss were destroyed by fire yesterday. It originated in a cauldron of tar being boiled to coat roofs. Loss, $30,000.

Held For Bigamy.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Aug. 28.—Robert Blynn was bound over to the grand jury under $1500 bonds for bigamy. His first wife was present and testified against him.

Stricken by Apoplexy.

CHICAGO, Aug. 28.—John C. Gault, the veteran railroad official, was stricken by apoplexy and is in a dying condition. He has been unconscious since Wednesday.

CHARLIE EENNETT'S BENEFIT.

The Popular "King of Catchers" Made Richer by About $6000.

BOSTON, Aug. 28.—Charlie Bennett, former catcher of the Boston team, was given a rousing reception at the South End grounds by 9000 of his friends, who had gathered at his "benefit" to see the Champions play a picked team of college men. When Bennett arrived, supported on crutches and surrounded by Champion Corbett, Nash, Nichols and the whole Boston team, there was a roar of welcome from the crowded stands. James J. Corbett had come on from New York to gather the balls in the left field. There were good plays, plenty of hitting, numerous errors, and every one was happy. The benefit will net Bennett nearly $6000. Many private subscriptions were received.

Death of Celia Thaxter.

ISLES OF SHOALS, N. H., Aug. 28.—Celia Thaxter, the "Sweet Goddess of Appledore," and the widely-known and much-loved poet, died suddenly here. Mrs. Thaxter was taken sick on Friday last with neuralgia. Her condition, however, gave no cause for alarm until Sunday afternoon, when neuralgia of the heart developed in its acutest form, and then the use of opiates became necessary. She rapidly grew worse as the night wore on, and at 11:30 "softly death touched her and she passed away." She was in her 60th year. Portsmouth, N. H., was her birthplace.

Boston Coppers' Shakeup.

BOSTON, Aug. 28.—Had a cyclone struck town it could not have created greater consternation than did a sweeping general order from the police commission last night. Nearly one-third of the officers of precinct 4 are transferred to country districts. This is the famous tenderloin precinct from which a sergeant was recently called before the commission to answer charges. There were also many transfers in other districts. The sweeping reform is the work of General Martin, lately appointed to the chairmanship of the board.

Prohibition the Theme.

BANGOR, Me., Aug. 28.—The Democratic state campaign opened at Calais last night. Hon. C. F. Johnson, candidate for governor, spoke. Mr. Johnson's main argument was for the resubmission of the prohibitory amendment to the people for decision. Maine Democrats in general realize the uselessness of expecting a great victory at the coming election, but they will make a strong stand to win.

Were Afraid of a Veto.

PEORIA, Ills., Aug. 28.—Sales were made yesterday of 90 carloads of whisky at the 5 cents advance of yesterday, and the tariff on this was promised by the trust officials, but it was believed that the company was waiting until the very last moment in fear of a veto by paying the tax.

Outrages by Strikers.

SYDNEY, Aug. 28.—A strike among the sheep shearers has caused a number of outrages. The police shot two unionists in one of the engagements. Steamer Rodney, which was conveying some free shearers up the Darling river, was set on fire and totally destroyed.

The Dover Strike.

DOVER, N. H., Aug. 28.—The strike situation here is that No. 1 mill has half of its mules running, and that mill will be kept running regularly for the present. The other mills' 1400 looms stopped today, as yarn cannot be obtained to run them. Everything is quiet.

In Hard Luck.

SOUTHAMPTON, Aug. 28.—The Vigilant left the drydock yesterday and was towed to the Empress dock. During the hoisting of the centreboard, a rod and bolt connected with the centerboard trunk was damaged, and a new rod will have to be made.

Was a New Member.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—Word of the death of George B. Shaw of Wisconsin at Eau Claire reached the house shortly after the session opened. He was a new member, this being his first term, but social qualities had made him many friends.

Will Be Court-Martialed.

CHICAGO, Aug. 28.—The commission appointed to inquire as to the sanity of Lieutenant Welch, who assaulted Colonel Crofton, commandant at Fort Sheridan, reported that the lieutenant is mentally sound. A court-martial will follow.

Wanted For Forgery.

DETROIT, Aug. 28.—C. M. Hobbs, under arrest here on a charge of attempting to secure money under false pretenses, has been identified as A. M. Van Auken, who is wanted at Quincy, Ills., for a $30,000 forgery.

Too Sick to Travel.

DENVER, Aug. 28.—Rear Admiral Skerrett, who has been appointed to succeed Rear Admiral Irwin, retired, arrived at Denver yesterday. He is quite sick and may be detained here several days.

Backed Down.

HUDSON, Mass., Aug. 28.—At a town meeting last night the vote taken after the fire of July 4 favoring a new water main was repealed. This means no more water for years to come.

Editorial Comment.

That is an absurd report which comes from Quincy to the effect that the increase in the tax rate of that city this year is chiefly due to the withdrawal of valuable lands from taxation through taking them for park purposes by the metropolitan park commission. As the land thus taken lies entirely in the Blue Hills, and is wild and of little value, such action cannot have affected the tax rate to any material extent.—Herald.

Not as absurd as it might be, neighbor. Perhaps it is putting it too strong to say the increase is chiefly due to the park takings, but it is quite a factor, as a few figures will show. Every ward in the city (except Ward Four from which the land was taken) shows a large increase in valuation of real estate, and the presence of the reservation did not enhance the value one dollar. While the real estate of Ward Four increased in value in 1893 over $100,000, this year there is a loss of nearly $100,000, a difference of $200,000. The other five wards of the city increased in value of real estate $563,020, and had Ward Four (the largest ward) done as well as usual the total increase in real estate would have been over $670,000. The total increase in valuation of the city for 1894 was $181,205. Will anybody pretend that had the increase been over twice as large it would not have had any material effect. The sum of $200,000 may not play much of a part in a large city like Boston, but it does in a city with a valuation of $16,000,000. Not only does Quincy sustain this loss annually, but its tax rate for the next 50 years is likely to be about fifty cents larger because of the assessment for reservations. An assessment of $8000 annually requires a levy of about fifty cents per $1,000. It should be remembered that about 2,529 1-2 acres of land were taken from Quincy for the Blue Hills reservation, where less than 9,000 acres were assessed in the whole city.

NOW THAT the Somerville Journal has apologized for stating that Waltham's tax rate was $18.20, when it is but $16.30, we also hasten to correct the error, as we took the figures from the Journal.

Sons of Veterans.

At the encampment of the Commandery in Chief held during the past week in Davenport, Ohio, many changes were made most notable of which was the changing of the age of eligibility from twenty-one to eighteen years, the annual inspections from April to October, the admission of all honorably discharged soldiers of the Civil War to the meetings instead of Grand Army men only as heretofore and the adoption of a new ritual comprised of three degrees which entirely abolishes the present ritual and necessitates many changes in the constitution, rules and regulations. Massachusetts was honored with the election of Col. Albert C. Blaisdell to the position of Inspector General of the order.

It is expected that the change of the age of admission from twenty-one to eighteen years will prove beneficial to Camp 27, as there are several sons under 21 years that are desirous of joining. At the last meeting the camp accepted the invitation of Paul Revere Post 88, G. A. R., to attend its Twenty-Fifth Anniversary, to be held Sept. 3, at Hancock hall. The camp is to furnish the music for that occasion, a committee of five being chosen to make arrangements. Commander in Chief "Jack" Adams is to be present which will assure a large attendance of the members of Post 88 and the Camp.

On the Quarry Railroad.

Car No. 3002, New York, New Haven & Hartford, the first car of stone to be shipped over the new Quincy Quarry R. R. left Elcock's quarry at 3 55 P. M. yesterday, drawn by engine 783, in charge of superintendent Anderson and the same engine and train crew as put it up to load on Saturday. Upon this occasion Miss Lillian T. Harlow graced the seat in the cab usually occupied by fireman D. F. Drew. The car left West Quincy, south bound, at 5.15 P. M. hauled by Old Colony locomotive 64, in charge of engineer Saulpaugh and conductor A. H. Wilson.

New York, New Haven & Hartford car 3003 was put up to Berry Bros' quarry to load at 3 50 P. M. yesterday and went out loaded at 10.20 today, this being the second car of stone to pass over the Quarry railroad.

OUR VALUATION.

How and Where the City Has Increased in Wealth.

CENTRE WARD AWAY AHEAD.

An Increase of Over 72 Per Cent. in Six Years—Doubled in Ten Years.

The LEDGER gives below the valuation of this city, both real and personal for the past eleven years. It will be noticed that Quincy has more than doubled its wealth during the last decade; and that the Assessors' present valuation is over sixteen million dollars.

Year	Real Estate	Personal Property	Total Valuation
1883	$6,071,660	$1,665,278	$7 736,937
1884	6,332,795	1,765,691	8,098,486
1885	6,604,375	1,884,490	8,489,465
1886	6,887,800	1,931,266	8,819,066
1887	7,434,350	1,950,370	9,284,720
1888	7,825,250	1,632,710	9,757,960
1889	9,736,625	2,582,620	12 319,045
1890	10,468,200	3,209,210	13,677,410
1891	11,157,925	3,268,905	14,426,830
1892	12,272,575	3,291,845	15,564,420
1893	13,605,675	3,032,635	16,638,070
1894	14,088,175	2,729,280	16,817,455

In the past six years the city has grown even faster than in the previous decade, the per cent. of increase being over 72 per cent. It would have been even larger but for the hard times this year, and the fact that there have been large takings of taxable lands for the Blue Hill reservations, the playgrounds in each ward, the new High school, etc. The removal of Charles Francis Adams from the city has also been a severe blow, as he took with him about $150,000 of personal property and a fifth interest in the Adams Real Estate Trust.

The value of the real estate has increased in ten years from $6,332,795 to $14,088,175, and has more than doubled in eight years. The increase has been both in land and buildings, a great many new houses having been built, as the LEDGER will show in a few days when the Assessors complete their table of aggregates; probably 1,300 in the last eight years, making the total about 3,500, against 1,753 in 1880.

With two exceptions, the real estate of each ward has increased in value each year since 1889. Ward Two in 1891 and Ward Four this year reported losses.

The land of Ward One is by far the most valuable, in fact is nearly equal to that of the two next largest.

The Wollaston ward is a good second in value of real estate, although the West Quincy ward held that place up to 1891. The Atlantic ward passed the Quincy Point ward in 1893, and with another such gain as this year will pass Ward Three and Four next year. The value of land in Ward Two is now less than in any other ward of the city.

In personal estate Ward One is also decidedly in the lead, having nearly one-half the total. The other Wards rank in this order:—Three, Four, Two, Five and Six, the Atlantic valuation being very small.

In totals it will be seen that the Centre Ward pays over one-third the total tax, a fact that should be remembered when anyone claims that Ward One gets more than its share of the improvements. The Wollaston Ward pays very nearly one-sixth while Ward Four, which is said to get all the improvements pays less than one-seventh of the taxes.

Here are the figures showing the gain in valuation for one and five years:

	Gain in One Year.	Gain in Five Years.
Ward One,	$161,070	$1,116,150
Ward Two,	22,350	322,600
Ward Three,	43,665	547,450
Ward Four,	*90,520	340,575
Ward Five,	146,225	1,120,600
Ward Six,	198,710	804,475

ISSUED ILLEGAL WARRANTS.

State Officials of Mississippi May Be Prosecuted by the Government.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—The attorney general has sustained Chief Hazen of the secret service on every point in his position against the issue by the state of Mississippi of special warrants in the similitude of the United States notes.

Upon the showing made by Chief Hazen and upon the recommendation of Secretary Carlisle, Attorney General Olney has instructed the United States attorneys at St. Louis, Chicago and Jackson, Miss., to begin proceedings under section 5430 of the revised statutes against the St. Louis Bank Note company, the Western Bank Note company of Chicago and the persons in the state of Mississippi who were responsible for the issue of the warrants and all parties who have passed them as United States money.

Section 530 makes a felony to print anything in the likeness of obligations of the United States, and fixes the punishment at a fine of not more than $5000 and imprisonment at hard labor not more than 15 years.

It is assumed that under the instructions of the attorney general actions will be begun against Governor Stone, the auditor of the state and other state officers.

Stewart Says Blackmail.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—The statement that Charles L. Glasscock of this city has filed a suit for absolute divorce from his wife, and that he named as co-respondent a senator, created a sensation here. Senator Stewart says that he is probably the person referred to. A year and a half ago, he says, Mrs. Glasscock applied to him for assistance, and out of pity he gave her a few dollars to keep her family from starving. Finally she commenced writing letters, assuming that improper relations existed. The senator says he told her that he should in the future treat her as a blackmailer. He says he has ample proof that the charges she makes are false.

Carlisle Sustained.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28. — Judge Cole yesterday rendered his decision in the matter of the application of Littleton T. Dryden of Baltimore for a writ of mandamus directed against Secretary Carlisle to compel the latter to restore him to the position he formerly held as United States shipping commissioner at Baltimore. The opinion of the judge was against Mr. Dryden. The court held that the fact that Secretary Carlisle had removed the petitioner was conclusive evidence that he had been dismissed for cause.

Situation About the Same.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Aug. 28.—There is no disposition on the part of the spinners here to yield to a reduction of wages, and the weavers are equally as firm. The reported increase in the prices of cotton and print goods has made the operatives all the more disinclined to resume work at the old prices.

Franklin Mine Was Fired.

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 28.—The coroner's jury investigating the disaster in the Franklin coal mine, in which 37 men were killed, has rendered a verdict, finding that the fire was started by parties unknown. No one has an opinion as to who did the deed.

Three Mills Running.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Aug. 28.—The hum of industry was again heard in New Bedford yesterday, the three mills of the Howland corporation opening their doors to the 1700 operatives employed in them, otherwise the situation is unchanged.

Jealousy and Rum.

NEWBURYPORT, Mass., Aug. 28.—T. Connors attempted to kill his wife by cutting her throat in two places with a razor. She will recover. Connors was arrested. Jealousy and rum were the causes of the trouble.

Old Enough to Know Better.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., Aug. 28.—M. C. Decker, who is over 50 years of age, is under arrest, charged with abducting and trying to marry Mary, the 13 year old daughter of William McNeil.

Knocked Unconscious.

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 28.—Edgerton L. Winthrop, Jr., of New York, while playing polo yesterday afternoon, was thrown from his horse and knocked insensible. Will probably recover.

Li Yung In Command.

SHANGHAI, Aug. 28.—Li Yung has been vested with the supreme military command of the Chinese forces in Corea. He will proceed to that country without delay.

The Circus.

Scribner & Smith had a good sized tent for their circus but it was difficult Monday evening to accommodate the crowd in attendance. It was the best show of the season in this city.

Willie O. Dalf, the champion bare-back rider of America, was one of the great attractions of the evening, and received numerous applause. The clowns were full of wit and rich jokes and kept the audience in good humor.

An Excellent Remedy for Diarrhoea.

RANDOLPH, Mass., March 13, 1894—I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and found it excellent for diarrhoea. I have recommended it to friends and know of two cases of diarrhoea having been cured with one small bottle. JOSEPH H. FOSTER.

SUMMER COTTAGES.

Some at Houghs Neck Novel in Appearance—Old Hulks Utilized.

A correspondent of the Post at Houghs Neck writes:

Lately, while spending an afternoon at Manet Beach, my attention was called to several curiously constructed buildings on the north shore of Hough's Neck.

Upon closer observation I found they consisted of cabins and deckhouses, which I learned were obtained from old and unseaworthy vessels brought to an adjacent island to be burned. Before the doomed crafts are consigned to the flames a disintegration is executed by the fishermen and "campers out," and every available stick, spar and plank is procured and floated to the opposite shore for the improvisation of huts and sheds to shelter them during their summer outing.

Two large schooners now lie stranded and disabled, awaiting the day of their complete destruction, while on the beach are the upper decks of each, with the cabins, pilothouses, hatchways, etc., unaltered in the least. They bear the names, which have not been removed, "Worcester" and "Carroll," respectively, and are occupied by "summer boarders." They use the wheelhouse for a parlor, reception room and observatory; cook in the galley, and dine in the messroom. The only inconvenience occasioned is their having to come out on deck to reach their staterooms.

The appearance is very novel, and their few weeks "before the mast," provided they are not sea-sick, must surely be pleasant ones. How delightful to go to sleep in a 2x6 "bunk," dream of Jonah feeding the fishes and wake up singing "Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep."

TODAY'S COURT.

George A. Collier of Quincy for drunkenness, plead guilty and was fined $8.

James F. Gaynor of Randolph was arraigned for maintaining common nuisance and case continued to Saturday, Sept. 8.

William J. Carroll of Randolph was arraigned on two accounts; for disturbing the peace and drunkenness. On the former he was fined $10, and on the latter was sentenced to 3 months in the House of Correction. Appealed.

W. W. Burke of Weymouth was arraigned for disturbing the peace, and Charles O. Miller of Braintree for assault. Both cases were continued until Saturday. It seems that Miller at the Institute-Quincy game last Saturday attempted to put Burke off the ground for disturbance, and Burke in turn charges assault. The grounds where the game was played is a public park.

BEAUTY IS NO INHERITANCE.

Cosmetics do not beautify, but often destroy a healthy complexion. A natural rosy and healthy complexion cannot be had by the use of cosmetics, but only through the health of the body in general. Nothing is better to secure this result than the genuine imported Carlsbad Sprudel Salt when taken early in the morning, before breakfast (about a small teaspoonful dissolved in a tumblerful of water). It clears the complexion and produces a healthy color. Best taken when out-door exercise can be had. Obtain the genuine article, which has the signature of "EISNER & MENDELSON CO., Agents, New York," on the neck of every bottle.

Around the Bases.

Nash has joined the .300 class in batting.

Only nine more scheduled games in Boston this year.

"Jocko" Fields has been released by the Milwaukee club.

The attendance at the games in Pawtucket is badly padded.

The Bostons have won another series, that with the Clevelands.

Joe Sullivan of the Phillies has done some splendid hitting of late.

Mike Slattery's fall was unexpected. He had a good chance in Bangor.

Miller, Cooley and Ely have been doing the best batting for the St. Louis.

Sioux City appears to be gradually losing its hold on the Western league pennant.

Young Davis of Pawtucket used to catch the late Clarence Bayne in Philadelphia.

The Cincinnati club will be re-enforced by some of the best blood in the Western league next season.

Sockalexis of the Poland Spring team is said to have thrown a ball 135¼ yards at Poland Spring recently.

Walter Burnham made a good try for the Toronto franchise in the Eastern league, but was unsuccessful.

Washingtonians have been much pleased by the improvement of Hassamaer and Abbey in batting and fielding.

The matter of putting a New England league team in Lawrence has been canvassed by The Eagle most favorably.

Three straight by the Washingtons from the Louisvilles wasn't so bad. The Washingtons led in the series, 5 games to 3.

If the present Louisville ball team was in the New England league, it would have hard work to hold even a respectable position.

Manager Schmelz of the Washingtons has been looking up western talent. His team for 1895 will be vastly superior to the present aggregation.

A Cleveland exchange hints that Manager Tebeau had better keep an eye on several of his men between the hours of 9 p. m. and the break of day.

Manager Bacon, late of the Bangors, is to be congratulated that he has severed his connection with that organization. Mr. Bacon is altogether too good for such company.—[Boston Herald.

Gave Up the Ghost.

BROCKTON, Mass., Aug. 27.—The Brockton ball team threw up the sponge Saturday night. The players are in a bad fix, and claim that $1600 in salaries is due them, and a large board bill is due at the hotel.

Many Were Injured.

ORANGE, N. J., Aug. 27.—On the Suburban traction road an electric car filled to the doors with men and women was going down the grade when the brake failed to work. The car rapidly gained momentum, and before any one had time to jump, the wheels of the forward truck struck a bend in the road. The car leaped from the track, turning completely over. The passengers were piled in a heap. The broken glass of the windows and doors scattered through the crowd, causing many injuries.

Don't Like the Lords.

LONDON, Aug. 27.—Hyde park yesterday was the scene of a demonstration by the National league against the house of lords. It is estimated that 70,000 persons were in the park, but the number was largely made up of curious onlookers. A joint resolution was adopted declaring that the "useless hereditary chamber" be abolished.

Good Police Work.

BOSTON, Aug. 27.—Officers Abbott and Gilmore have succeeded in running to earth the remainder of the gang that held up Benjamin B. Brown in his office last Friday and attempted to chloroform him with the intent of robbing the safe. Oliver B. Cannon was arrested yesterday for participating in the affair.

A Peculiar Case.

BOSTON, Aug. 27.—William Melvin, 7 years old, was playing on Congress street when a colored man passed him with a revolver in his hand. A second afterward the boy was shot. A bullet had entered the left breast and came out at the back. The colored man escaped.

The End of a Debauch.

BOSTON, Aug. 27.—Patrick Shannon went into the house of Mrs. Elizabeth Brennan Saturday night while under the influence of liquor. He laid down there and was found dead yesterday morning. Heart disease.

Stabbed His Brother.

BOSTON, Aug. 27.—Robert McDade, aged 45, was stabbed yesterday afternoon by his brother James, during a dispute. The weapon was a pocket knife, the large blade of which entered his left side. James was arrested.

Quickly Grabbed.

BRUSSELS, Aug. 27.—De Fuisseaux, a socialist, who some time ago was sentenced to a term of imprisonment, though he was not present at the trial, was arrested yesterday as he was entering Belgium from France.

A Peruvian War.

LIMA, Aug. 27.—A band of 600 insurgents are reported to be moving northward from the southern frontier. The government has sent further re-enforcements south, and a collision is daily expected.

Going on Marine Railway.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Aug. 27.—Brig Manson, Captain McGuire, New York to Exeter, Eng., which ran ashore on Naushon, was towed into this port yesterday. She will go on railway for repairs.

A Farmer's Loss.

MANCHESTER, N. H., Aug. 27.—Farm buildings occupied by Fred M. Ray in Bedford were burned. Two horses, five hogs and the entire contents of the house and barn were destroyed.

—Don't confess to the people who are coming home from their cool vacations that we have had any hot weather in Quincy this summer.

—A sooty chimney can be cleaned by firing a gun or pistol up the flue. The concussion dislodges the soot and it tumbles down.

THE SLAVE'S STORY.

It is About a Rebellion that Ended in Flat Failure.

The wise old slave, Æsop, tells how the jaws and the arms refused to supply and to grind food for the stomach, which, they said, was a lazy thing living on its neighbors. Of course the rebellious members suffered and grew weak. As what we call science did not exist in Æsop's day, it isn't likely that even he understood the full force of this fable.

We understand today the supreme importance of treating the stomach well, for the consequences of indigestion extend from the brain to the toes. Because of bad digestion there are so many skinny, pale, bloodless men and women in the world. Nothing will fatten and strengthen them unless they can find a food that will pass from the stomach into the blood without digestion. Paskola is such a pre-digested food.

"It gives me great pleasure," says Dr. G. W. Babcock, of Chelsea, Mass., "to speak in the highest terms of your delightful preparation, Paskola. I have lately prescribed it for one of my lady patients, and I am greatly surprised at its wonderful power as a flesh producer. The young lady has been out of health and losing flesh. She began taking Paskola as directed. Her weight was 103 pounds. She has taken four bottles and now weighs 109 pounds, and is looking much improved. She says she feels like a new creature. This change has been brought about by Paskola.

Another physician's testimony:

OSWEGO, N. Y., May 31, 1894.

Gentlemen:—The bottle of Paskola received a week ago today and I immediately commenced the use of it, in connection with Poland water. I am feeling very much better and have increased 11 pounds. During the eight days' use of Paskola, no eructions of gas, in fact, seeming perfect digestion. If this condition continues I shall be a devotee of Paskola and will prescribe it when indicated to my patients. Sincerely yours,
E. M. MANWARREN, M. D.

Paskola may be obtained of any reputable retail druggist and a pamphlet fully descriptive will be mailed upon application to

D. E. WADSWORTH & CO.

The ladies in this vicinity will appreciate the introduction of the celebrated Standard Patterns, of which we have put in a full line, and will certainly be a convenience to our numerous patrons.

After a thorough examination by ourselves, and receiving the endorsement of some of the best dry goods houses in the New England states, and particularly from several houses who formerly carried Buttericks—who now carry the Standard—we are convinced that the "Standard Patterns" are far superior to all others—in being more up to date, better modeled, simpler directions for making—insuring perfect satisfaction, a great saving in time, much less fitting to do, and allowing just enough seams, thereby considerable saving in material—there being no waste as in others every pattern is modeled to the human form, and are so nicely proportioned that it is almost impossible to produce anything (if directions are followed, and which are extremely simple) but a beautiful fitting garment.

Try one of the STANDARD PATTERNS on our recommendation and we think you will agree with us that they are better than any other pattern sold in this city.

The Standard Fashion Sheets and the beautiful Handy Catalogue are free to all.

The Ladies' Standard Magazine is issued monthly, costs but 50 cents per year and should be in every household; you will surely subscribe for it when you have examined a sample copy at our store; it is the best and cheapest Ladies' magazine in existence, single copies 5 cents.

The Standard Catalogue contains over 1000 illustrations of beautiful styles—up to date—price 20 cents.

A Complete Stock of Standard Patterns Constantly on Hand.

ALLENS COMPOUND EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA THE HONEST KIND

Receives the Highest Praise from the Best Physicians.

DR. H. F. MERRILL, the wonderful specialist of Augusta, Maine, after giving it a thorough trial in his practice, writes the following convincing letter of praise:

GENTLEMEN:—

I have of late been using some of your medicine in my practice with the most pleasing and satisfactory results. I find that it acts like a charm upon the whole nervous system, and in scrofula and all cutaneous diseases. Its curative properties are fully equal to the claims made for it, and I do not know of one instance where it has not fulfilled all its claims. In cases of General Debility and Nervous Prostration it has proved itself invaluable. It also gives quick relief in Dyspepsia and Canker of the stomach, and is a remarkable fine restorative remedy. It is a great pleasure to be able to recommend such a remedy, as the results following its use are so wonderfully satisfactory. One great thing in its favor is its freedom from superfluous alcohol, and all injurious ingredients.

DR. H. F. MERRILL.

PROF. W. H. MORSE, M. D., F. B. S. Sc. of Westfield, N. J., author of "New Therapeutical Agents", the standard text book of the newer materia medica, Consulting Chemist and Therapeutist, one of the most widely known men among the medical profession gives it his highest endorsement, as testified by the following voluntary statement:

"Allen's Sarsaparilla commends itself to me therapeutically, chemically and clinically. Its therapeutical power, physiological activity, and chemical purity, are all noteworthy; and the reason is to be found in the fact that it is true to its name, or honest, as the word goes. That is, it is vegetable alterative, and tonic. Perhaps the highest praise that may be given it is that its action represents that of mercury, less the faults of that drug; for, has not Pereira said, "A perfect mercury would be a perfect alterative."

W. H. MORSE, M. D., F. B. S. Sc.,
Westfield, N. J.

Although Allen's Sarsaparilla is such a valuable remedy it is not at all expensive, being the largest bottle on the market for $1.00. Trial bottles 50 cts.

WEATHER AND CROPS

Drought in New England Continues to a Serious Extent.

GENERAL FROST IN LOWLANDS

Did Some Damage to Tender Crops In Southern States.

BOSTON, Aug. 28.—The New England weather service issues the following weather-crop bulletin for the week ending Aug. 27, 1894.

Moderate showers fell over the greater part of New England on Monday, the 20th, though the heaviest fall, as reported in the bulletin of last week, was in the immediate vicinity of Boston. During the week only very light showers have fallen on the extreme southern coast and in northern New Hampshire and Maine. The showers and dew have revived conditions a little in Connecticut, but in most of central and western Massachusetts and in Vermont and New Hampshire the drought conditions are every day growing more serious.

A general frost prevailed in the lowlands on the morning of the 22nd, doing some damage to tender crops in the southern states rather more than in the northern sections. On the morning of the 27th a frost occurred in Vermont and New Hampshire that did considerable damage in places. The weather bureau station at Northfield recorded a minimum of 32°, while in other places the thermometer fell lower than that. The greatest damage was done in the valleys in the highland districts of these two states.

Complaints of Potato Rusting.

Mostly favorable conditions have prevailed in Maine during the week, although it is getting dry, and the hot weather of the last of the week was injurious to potatoes. Potatoes are rusting badly in the vicinity of Caribou, Aroostook county. They are turning out well where being dug in Washington, Kennebec, Penobscot and Piscataquis counties. There are many rotting in Kennebec county. Pumpkins and squashes will not be abundant. Apples are growing well, though many have fallen from the trees in central counties. Fall feed is good in most places and pastures hold out well. Corn is pushing to maturity very fast.

The drought continues to serious extent in New Hampshire, and all crops are suffering very much. Some report that not for years have the springs been so low as now. Corn is doing very well, except on dry land; late planted, for fodder, is not growing well. Feed is very poor in pastures, and there the mowed fields have started very little.

There has been little grass seed sown yet this summer, as all are waiting for rain. Grain is threshing out rather light in Grafton and Belknap counties. The drought is affecting the fruit on the trees, as much is dropping, and that remaining grows very slowly. Beans that were not ripe are drying up. Light damage by the frost of the 22nd, but considerable in mountain valleys on the 27th. Some pieces of potatoes are dead with rust in Coos county, but no rot has been reported.

Apples and Tobacco Doing Well.

A week of sunshine and drying weather has prevailed in Vermont. Crops are suffering in most sections for want of rain, pastures are getting dry and streams lowering rapidly. No damage of any amount is reported from the frost of the 22nd in this state. The sunshine is coloring up the apples well, and much grain is being harvested in northern counties with the fine weather.

Fall apples are very plenty. Tobacco is being harvested in Windham county and is very good. Squashes and pumpkins promise a small crop. The corn crop is maturing rapidly and is a fine growth, with well-filled ears. Silos are being filled. In Windsor county the potatoes are pronounced a very good crop, and as far as dug are very satisfactory; they are light in northern counties.

Crops Ripening Too Fast.

It has been a fine week in Massachusetts for work, and crops are maturing well, though it is so dry in places that they are ripening too fast, and much fruit is dropping. It is dry throughout the state, but there are local sections where the showers seem to have passed by that give very discouraging reports, indeed.

There is hardly a county but has one or more of these dry districts, and there corn is poor and wilting, potatoes are light, no second crop, pastures very dry and bare, fruit dropping, no seed starting, etc. The second crop will probably be light everywhere on dry land, but on moderately wet land it promises fairly well. Corn is doing well generally and sweet corn is plenty. Grapes are ripening very early. Strawberry beds set for next year are running very well and look nicely. Beans are reported to be of good growth and filling well. In Middlesex county onions are short. The frost on the 22nd did considerable damage to gardens, corn, cranberries, etc., on low lands.

A Shortage of Milk.

Showers came the first part of the week in places in Rhode Island, doing great good, but in other sections, sometimes in the same town, no rain fell. Wells and streams continue very low, some farmers in Providence county hauling water a long distance to the wells. Cattle have to be fed at the barn, and even then a great shortage of milk is reported. Fruit of nearly all kinds promises to yield a full crop in Washington county. No damage of any account is reported from the frost of the 22nd.

Light Rains Helped.

Although wells and springs continue very low in Connecticut, and all crops would make better growth with more rainfall, yet the moderate showers on the 20th and the heavy dews that have deposited on nearly every night during the week, have served to keep most crops growing well and to partly revive pastures and mowed fields.

It is almost impossible to plow for rye, the ground is so dry, and there is complaint that turnip seed does not come well. Late set cabbage is making a good growth. Corn on dry land is not earing well, but on moist land is a good crop; some corn has been cut in southern counties. Potatoes are being dug and are reported light everywhere. It has been fine weather for harvesting tobacco, and most of the early setting has been cut in good condition. The report on onions is of a very light crop. The outlook for apples, pears and grapes is very good indeed. Peaches are scarce.

PATENTS

NOTICE TO INVENTORS.

THERE Was never a time in the history of our country when the demand for inventions and improvements in the arts and sciences generally was so great as now. The conveniences of man-kind in the factory and work-shop, the household, on the farm, and in official life, require continual accessions to the appurtances and implements of each in order to save labor, time and expense. The political change in the administration of government does not affect the progress of the American inventor, who, being on the alert, and ready to perceive the existing deficiences, does not permit the affairs of government to deter him from quickly conceiving the remedy to overcome existing discrepancies. Too great care cannot be exercised in choosing a competent and skilful attorney to prepare and prosecute an application for patent. Valuable interests have been lost and destroyed in innumerable instances by the employment of incompetent counsel, and especially is this advice applicable to those who adopt the "No patent, no pay" system. Inventors who intrust their business to this class of attorneys do so at imminent risk, as the breadth and strength of the patent is never considered in view of a quick endeavor to get an allowance and obtain the fee then due. THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY, John Wedderburn, General Manager, 618 F street, N. W., Washington, D. C., representing a large number of important daily and weekly papers, as well as general periodicals of the country, was instituted to protect its patrons from the unsafe methods heretofore employed in this line of business. The said Company is prepared to take charge of all patent business entrusted to it for reasonable fees, and prepares and prosecutes applications generally, including mechanical inventions, design patents, trade marks, labels, copyrights, interferences, infringements, validity reports, and gives especial attention to rejected cases. It is also prepared to enter into competition with any firm in securing foreign patents.

M'KINLEY BILL DEAD.

The New Democratic Bill Became a Law at Midnight.

ONE SECTION IS BADLY MIXED.

An Easy Matter to Evade the Tax on Alcohol.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—At 12 o'clock last night the McKinley tariff law, which had been in operation since Oct. 30, 1890, practically four years, died on the statute books, and the new Democratic tariff bill, passed by the Fifty-third congress, became a law without the signature of President Cleveland.

The constitutional period of 10 days allowed the president to consider the bill expired with the midnight hour, and according to the terms of the constitution, the president having failed to return the bill to congress with or without his approval, it became a law.

The placing of the bill on the statute books ended one of the longest and most remarkable struggles in the history of the government. It was practically a year ago that the preparation of the new tariff law was commenced. The extraordinary session of congress was called Aug. 7, 1893, for the purpose of repealing the Sherman silver purchasing law.

Started In at Once.

Two weeks later the ways and means committee of the house, with Mr. Wilson of West Virginia as chairman, was appointed, and almost immediately the work of framing the Democratic tariff reform measure began. Months were spent in its preparation, and it was not reported until after the holidays during the regular session beginning in December.

For three weeks it was debated in the house, passing that body on Jan. 29 by a vote of 204 to 140. Seventeen house Democrats voted against it. The bill went to the senate, after being considered until March 20, and was reported, greatly changed from the house bill. The debate, which began in the senate April 2, lasted until July 3, when the bill passed by a vote of 39 to 34.

The crisis occurred when the bill reached conference. On Aug. 13 the house yielded and accepted the senate bill in toto. In five days afterwards it went to the president, and at the expiration of the constitutional 10 days (Sunday is not counted) it became a law without Mr. Cleveland's signature.

The Alcohol Tax.

There seems to be serious doubt entertained as to whether or not the treasury officials will be able to carry into effect the section of the new tariff bill making alcohol used in the arts free of internal revenue tax.

Section 61 of the act provides that any manufacturer finding it necessary to use alcohol in the arts or any medicinal or like compound may use the same under regulations to be prescribed by the secretary of the treasury and on satisfying the collector of internal revenue for the district in which he resides or carries on business that he has complied with such regulations and has used such alcohol therein, exhibiting and delivering up the stamps which show that a tax has been paid thereon, shall be entitled to receive from the treasury a rebate or repayment of the tax so paid.

There are approximately 200,000 druggists in the United States who use alcohol to some extent in the manufacture of compounds of various kinds, and this number, it is believed, would be increased from 50 to 100 per cent under a liberal application of this provision of the act.

Another Hitch.

While the law provides that manufacturers may use it free of tax under regulations prescribed by the secretary, no appropriation is made to carry the provision into effect, and it is argued that it would require a small army of revenue agents to prevent fraud upon the government and the loss of millions of revenue to it from the operations of unscrupulous persons.

Under these circumstances, it is believed that the secretary will find it practically impossible to enforce the law, and will therefore refrain from issuing any regulations on the subject, at least until congress, which reassembles in December, shall make sufficient appropriations for the carrying out of the provision.

Planned Long Ago.

LONDON, Aug. 28.—The Times publishes a letter from Seoul, in which the writer declares that Japan planned an invasion of Corea three years ago. The plan of operations was secretly matured to the minutest detail. After detailing the genesis of the war, the correspondent declares that the Corean administration is a cesspool of corruption from the king to the meanest official.

After the Pullman Company.

CHICAGO, Aug. 28.—Attorney General Maloney will at once serve an amended bill of information in quo warranto proceedings on officers of the Pullman Palace Car company. He claims that the company runs "saloons on wheels" and manufactures bricks, neither of which is a legitimate part of their business.

Took Five Human Lives.

MELBOURNE, Aug. 28.—A settler at Ruther Glen, having become involved in desperate financial troubles, cut the throats of his three children, shot a neighbor dead who tried to interfere and then took his own life.

Set by Poultry Thieves.

PITTSFIELD, Mass., Aug. 28.—The house, farm buildings and live stock of George Hurlbut, just over the Lanesboro line, were burned yesterday. Loss, $16,000. The fire was probably caused by chicken thieves.

On Hampden Park Track.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Aug. 28.—Harry C. Tyler broke the world's record of 2:10 for unpaced mile at Hampden park yesterday afternoon, making it in 2:07. Fred H. Allen made an unpaced half mile in 1:01.

I then procured a fifty-cent bottle and took about two-thirds of it, and was cured. I have taken some twice since when I had a looseness come on and it stopped it at once. PATENTS

FOR INVENTIONS.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuable inventions because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With the view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys, and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, we have retained counsel expert in patent practice, and therefore are prepared to

Obtain Patents in the United States and all Foreign Countries, Conduct Interferences, Make Special Examinations, Prosecute Rejected Cases, Register Trade-Marks and Copyrights, Render Opinions as to Scope and Validity of Patents, Prosecute and Defend Infringement Suits, Etc., Etc.

If you have an invention on hand send a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be at once advised as to the best course to pursue. Models are seldom necessary. If others are infringing on your rights, or if you are charged with infringement by others, submit the matter to us for a reliable OPINION before acting on the matter.

WIND-UP WAS TAME.

Only Perfunctory Work In Congress Before Adjournment.

CHAIRMAN BABCOCK'S "SYMPATHY"

Would Use Cleveland's Letter For Campaign Purposes.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—The eventful second session of the Fifty-third congress closed in the senate without a ripple on the surface to mark the fact.

The spirit of peace seemed to pervade the chamber, and the last day's session was as dull as it was peaceful. The great effort of the few senators remaining on deck was to kill time during the two hours intervening between assembling and adjourning, and this they did by a succession of short speeches.

The usual resolutions of thanks to the presiding officers, Vice President Stevenson and President pro tem Harris were offered by Senators Quay and Manderson, and were adopted unanimously.

The close of the second session of the house of representatives for the Fifty-third congress was the tamest in years. It was absolutely devoid of interesting features. Although the galleries were crowded, there were not more than 75 of the 356 members on the floor. The usual committee was appointed to wait on the president and inform him that congress was ready to adjourn.

A resolution to print copies of a comparison of the new tariff bill with the Wilson bill and the McKinley law encountered the enmity of Mr. Johnson of Ohio, who did not think the comparison (prepared under the direction of Senator Gorman) revealed all the facts, and a deadlock ensued, which forced a recess until just after 2 o'clock, when, after an unsuccessful attempt to pass several local bills by unanimous consent, the speaker declared congress adjourned sine die.

Campaign Document For Republicans.

Chairman Babcock of the national Republican congressional committee was asked what he thought of the attitude of the president in refusing to sign the tariff bill. Mr. Babcock said:

"I confess that I have a great deal of sympathy for the president in the position he finds himself. He has been humiliated by his party and obliged to give his consent tacitly to the enactment of a law which is positively against all his convictions on tariff legislation.

"I can readily appreciate the situation in which he is placed, he being obliged to subordinate his own feelings as to what is right to the behests of the trusts and corporations. The letter of the president to Mr. Catchings very positively indicates the disappointment he feels. It is pleasing to note that he admits that he is not better than the masses of his party.

"The admission the president makes that he will not permit himself to be separated from his party 'to such an extent as might be implied by a veto of this tariff legislation,' and that the provisions of the bill are not in line with honest tariff reform, will make it rather embarrassing for Democratic speakers, who will find it necessary to say that Mr. Cleveland is still 'a Democrat,' and that this bill is Democratic tariff reform, notwithstanding it has been repudiated by a Democratic president.

"The plain admission that the president makes in his letter as to 'the communism of pelf, whose machinations have prevented us from reaching the success we deserved,' must indeed be very humiliating to him and disgraceful to the Democratic party, who are responsible for the enactment of this bill. I cannot help but look upon the letter of the president as being an excellent campaign document for the Republicans. It is, as the president says, full of inconsistencies and crudities which ought not to appear in tariff laws or laws of any kind."

The few senators at the Capitol refused to express any opinion for publication on the letter of President Cleveland to Mr. Catchings.

Whole Hog or None.

VIENNA, Aug. 29.—The home ministry is preparing a bill to carry into effect the proposals that the government acquire all the insurance business of the empire, and that insurance in the future shall be compulsory. No suggestion has been made as to how the existing companies are to be compensated in the event of the adoption of the bill.

Verdict Not Rendered.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Aug. 29.—The trial of Conductors Parker and Dunbar for embezzlement of tickets from the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad company and of Charles Mesick for receiving embezzled goods was held yesterday. Judge Bosworth reserved decision.

Of New England Stock.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 29.—Ex-State Senator Charles E. Coffin was unanimously nominated for both the long and short term in congress. The nominee is a man of large wealth, and comes of one of the wealthiest and most influential families in New England.

Emperor is Sorry.

BERLIN, Aug. 29.—Emperor William has issued an order forbidding large gatherings of civilians on the occasion of the army maneuvers, on account of the fear of the cholera. The emperor expresses regret that such an order should be necessary.

Damaging Testimony.

CHICAGO, Aug. 29.—General Superintendent Sullivan of the Illinois Central testified before the strike commission that many of the striking railroad men had committed acts of violence, and backed up his assertions with tangible evidence.

A VERY SICK MAN.

Russians Alarmed at a Serious Disease Which Threatens the Czar.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 29.—The health of the czar is causing general anxiety in Russia. There is no longer any doubt that his majesty is threatened with grave kidney trouble. It has been apparent for some time to those who have seen the czar in public that he is a sick man. He has grown thin, his complexion is pale and of a bad color, and he has the air of a man who is greatly fatigued.

THE CZAR'S LATEST PICTURE.

When Professor Zacharin was summoned to St. Petersburg to the czar it was the opinion of the palace physicians that his majesty was suffering from a loose kidney. Professor Zacharin, after a thorough examination of the patient, declared that that dangerous malady did not exist, but that his majesty was suffering from albuminuria.

The future movements of the imperial family will be regulated by the progress of the czar's disease. He will undoubtedly go to Copenhagen, as his physicians are of the opinion that the voyage and change will do him good.

Professor Zacharin will be appointed inspector of medical affairs at the imperial court, so that he will be able to be in constant attendance upon the czar and watch closely the changes in his condition.

WINDOWS SHATTERED.

A Bomb Went Off In the Cellar of a Natick Lodging House.

NATICK, Mass., Aug. 29.—Excitement prevails here over an unsuccessful attempt made early yesterday morning to blow some 30 Armenians and Swedes into eternity.

About 1 o'clock the occupants of the boarding house of Hiram P. Ring on Foskett court and the surrounding houses were awakened by a loud explosion and the crashing of breaking glass.

No further disturbance was heard, and the wonder as to what caused the explosion prevented many from returning to their slumbers before dawn.

As soon as the smoke and noise had passed away, an investigation was made. In the cellar was found a piece of gas pipe, three feet long and quite thick, which had been loaded with an explosive and used as a bomb.

Every pane of glass in the cellar windows had been blown to pieces, while the stone foundation was cracked in several places. Either it was the intention of the person who placed it there to only scare the occupants, or they knew little about making bombs, for the powder used was not sufficient to do much damage.

Landlord Ring attributes the explosion to revenge on the part of strikers, as his lodgers are all non-union men. The strikers, however, disclaim all knowledge of the affair.

Fleeing From Fire.

DULUTH, Aug. 29.—Word from Hibbing says extensive forest fires are driving into town the logging and mining operators near there. The smoke from fires in this vicinity and northern Michigan has been so dense that fog signals have been blown almost continuously for a week, and navigation at this end of Lake Superior is very much hindered.

Whipped by Natives.

ROTTERDAM, Aug. 29.—A dispatch from Batavia gives further details of the fighting on the island of Lombok. The natives of Bali island made an attack on the Dutch at a point close to Mataram. After a hard fight the Dutch were forced to retreat to Ampanam with a loss of 185 men missing or killed. This loss included 50 officers.

Stole the Statue.

BERLIN, Aug. 29.—The statue of the Regent Prince Luitpold in Wittlesback park, Garmisch, was removed from its pedestal and has not been recovered. The removal of the statue of the regent is a significant demonstration against him.

A Tariff Decision.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—In answer to a telegram from the Boston customs authorities, Secretary Carlisle has replied, holding that no goods which arrived in port before midnight on Aug. 27 are entitled to entry under the new tariff act.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS

Parade at the Nation's Capital, Fifteen Thousand Strong.

REVIEWED BY THE PRESIDENT.

Over a Hundred Thousand People Saw the Show.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—The feature of the Pythian encampment was the grand parade of the united uniform rank yesterday afternoon, 15,000 knights being in line. The procession was more than two hours passing the presidential reviewing stand. Pennsylvania avenue was crowded with more than 100,000 people, a large proportion of them being visitors from out of the city.

The president reviewed the procession from a small stand erected on the curb just in front of the White House. A few minutes after 4 o'clock he emerged from the executive mansion in company with Colonel Kaloe, chief of staff, representing the Knights of Pythias, and Colonel Wilson. The procession was greeted with cheers by a crowd of several hundred people assembled about the entrance of the White House.

Mr. Cleveland walked slowly to the western gate and thence along the sidewalk, which had been enclosed by ropes, to the stand. As he stood up the crowd broke into cheers and handclapping, which continued for several minutes, while the object of their attention removed his hat and bowed his acknowledgements.

Then ensued a rather disagreeable wait for the procession, which was late. The president seated himself and waited patiently for fully 20 minutes before the head of the line appeared. Then he arose, and as the knights swept past acknowledged the salutations of the commanding officers by bowing repeatedly.

A Brilliant Scene.

Ranks were formed in the camp around the Washington monument, where, at 4 o'clock, the body started. The line of march was through the White House lot, past the executive mansion, and down Pennsylvania avenue to the Peace monument in front of the Capitol, whence the body was counter-marched up the avenue to the treasury department.

The scene was a brilliant one looking down the mile stretch of the avenue, with noble lines of marching men, buildings covered with bunting and spectators at all corners.

At the head of the line rode the members of the citizens' committee in black clothes and tall hats and escorted by the crack military organizations of the city. After them came Major General Carnahan and his staff on horseback.

All the knights were uniformed in black broadcloth frock coats, with silver buttons, red belts and white or silver helmets with heavy scarlet plumes. Their officers were mounted and richly uniformed. Every division was headed by a band and displayed handsome banners.

Major General Carnahan reviewed the line near the treasury department on its return march, and the review was not ended until after 7 o'clock.

Last night the United States Marine band gave a concert in Convention hall.

Waite In More Trouble.

DENVER, Aug. 29.—A warrant was issued yesterday for the arrest of Governor Waite on the serious charge of opening and retaining a letter addressed to Mrs. Likens, formerly matron at police headquarters. The warrant was issued by United States Commissioner Hinsdale, who also issued warrants for the arrest of President Dennis Mullins of the police board, Hamilton Armstrong, chief of police, and Kate Dwyer, matron at police headquarters. The governor gave personal recognizance to appear for trial in the sum of $100.

Forest Fires In Michigan.

GRAND RAPIDS, Aug. 29.—The little lumber town of Vesper was destroyed by a forest fire yesterday. Large saw and planing mills and 23 buildings, all there were in the town, were burned. A dispatch from Marengo, in Ashland county, states that forest fires are still raging along the line of the Wisconsin Central railroad.

A Long and Honorable Career.

JEFFERSON, O., Aug. 29.—Hon. W. C. Howells died here of paralysis, in his 88th year. He was a newspaper man from 1855 until 1874, when he was appointed United States consul to Quebec, serving four years. He also served five years at Toronto. He served in the senate in 1864.

A Bomb For Bathers.

LEGHORN, Aug. 29.—A great panic was caused among the patrons of the Pancaldi sea bathing establishment, near here, by the explosion of a bomb in one of the dressing rooms. The building was partially shattered and several bathers were slightly injured.

Senator Butler Downed.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Aug. 29.—Returns from all over the state indicate that only about a two-thirds vote was polled in the primary elections. The legislature will be overwhelmingly for Tillman for United States senator, insuring Senator Butler's defeat.

Editorial Comment.

Brockton's eggs are all in one basket, and when shoes are down everything is flat. Here we have diversity, and in spite of "democratic blessings" which have nearly knocked the life out of all enterprise, our business concerns have kept going, and people have found something to do and had something to live on.—Old Colony Memorial.

And yet so deep a writer as Mark Twain advises, in Puddn'head Wilson, in favor of placing all one's eggs in one basket and then watching that basket. Brockton is watching her basket, and feels that it is all right. Better one live industry than several half dead ones.—Brockton Enterprise,

If Quincy is to follow the example of Brockton it must put all its thoughts on the granite business, and brace it up. Don't overtax it, for our eggs are all in that basket.

WANTS TO COME IN.

But Does Norfolk County Want a Town With So Many Wants?

One would think that North Attleboro would want a change from a $24 tax rate. Boston papers report that there is a movement in the town to call a town meeting for the purpose of seeing what can be done to further the long-talked-of plan of annexing the town to Norfolk county. It is proposed to join the villages of Wrentham and Plainville and annex as one town.

It is said that by doing so the town would be benefitted in many ways. The citizens think that all probate court business of the town should be done at Dedham, and that it is nearer than Taunton for the people of North Attleboro. It is also argued that if the town should annex to Norfolk County there would be better roads, bridges and other town needs. The business men of this town are very much in favor of the proposed change.

But if the county has got to do all this how would it be benefitted? Norfolk county, however, is small and with the greater Boston movement, is likely to lose Brookline and possible Hyde Park and Quincy. Additions may be necessary, or else the division of the county among other counties.

Purse Coming to Quincy.

Joseph W. Dennen of this city entered Lady Blanche in the 3-minute class at the Cornish, Me., fair on Tuesday and she won a purse of $200. There were seven entries. In the first heat the Lady was second in 2:35. She won the second in 2:34¼, two being distanced, and was also first in the third and fourth heats in 2:35 and 2:34¼. It was a very satisfactory performance, and it is believed she can go much quicker.

Draws Well.

Here are some good cards and all trumps: "It takes a rich man to draw a check, a pretty girl to draw attention, a horse to draw a cart, a porous plaster to draw the skin, a toper to draw a cork, a free show to draw a crowd, and an advertisement in the QUINCY DAILY LEDGER to draw trade."

PETITIONS FOR TWO.

Schoolhouses Continue to be in Great Demand in Quincy.

THE HIGH SCHOOL DEDICATION.

The School Committee Meet and Transact Considerable Business.

A regular meeting of the School Committee was held Tuesday evening, those in attendance being Messrs. Crane, Burns, Gordon, Harlow, Rice and Secretary Lull.

New Schoolhouses.

A communication was received from the Clerk of Council, forwarding a petition of Vinton Fowler and others for a schoolhouse at Norfolk Downs, being the petition presented some weeks ago to the City Council.

Upon motion a committee of three was appointed to confer with the Wood, Harmon & Co., people, to ascertain if they would give the city a lot of land, viz:—Messrs. Gordon, Rice and Gurney.

Mr. Burns also presented a petition from Thomas Rogers and many others for a schoolhouse at "the rail," to be located somewhere between the West Quincy depot and the East Milton line.

The above petition was referred to the following committee to investigate the needs, etc.: Messrs. Burns, Porter and Gordon.

Financial Report.

Secretary Lull made the following report showing balances of appropriations:

	Appropriation.	Balance.
Salaries,	$57,235.00	$23,151.11

Evening Common,	1,700.00	867 40
Sewing,	550.00	243.78
Cooking,	100.00	100.00

Resignations.

Superintendent Lull reported the following resignations since the close of schools in June, and that the vacancies had all been filled:

Mr. W. B. Akers at the High.
Mr. J. F. Suckling at the Willard.
Miss Marion E. Dally and Miss Harriet F. Ward at the Quincy.
Miss Adella R. Goodrich and Miss Grace D. Parker at the Wollaston.
Miss Mary B. McIntyre at the Willard.

The New High.

Supt. Lull reported that the new High school building would be ready to turn over to the School Committee Sept. 8, and that the dedication would probably take place on that date if Governor Greenhalge can be here.

The following committee was appointed to cooperate with Mayor Hodges in the dedication: Messrs. Sheahan, Gordon and Crane.

Supt. Lull reported that President John Graham had promised a three-cent fare from any point of the Quincy & Boston street railway to and from the new High school.

It is proposed to enlarge the business course at the High school, and it is probable that to bookkeeping will be added banking, commercial law, stenography and type writing.

The time of opening the High school was referred to the sub-committee and Superintendent, but will probably be on Monday, Sept. 10.

Thanks Returned.

A communication of the directors of the Woodward Institute returned the thanks of that board for the loan of public school books to pupils entering the institute last spring.

Janitors Elected.

The annual election of janitors took place the following being chosen without any contest:

Coddington—E. S. Brown.
Lincoln—George O. Shirley.
John Hancock—James E. Maxim.
Washington—William Caldwell.
Willard—Francis Walsh.
Wollaston—F. W. Burnham.

Other elections were deferred a month in the absence of the sub-committee.

Newport is lacking in no element of interest. Its natural situation on the beautiful island at the mouth of Narragansett Bay is unexcelled, fascinating every visitor; it has long been the most fashionable summer resort in America; it has had a rare charm for intellectual people, having been at different times the home of Berkeley, of Channing, of Edwin Booth and Charlotte Cushman, of George Bancroft and Colonel Higginson; and it has had a great history. In the Revolution especially no place was the more constant theatre of important military operations. These are detailed in a most interesting article on "Newport in the Revolution," by Mr. C. R. Thurston, in the September number of the New England Magazine, with many illustrations of the scenes and actors of these stirring events, which will appeal to the general student of history as strongly as to the hundreds who frequent Newport in these summer days.

—The new police and telegraph system of Milton has gone into effect. It includes 20 boxes, whose locations have already been published in the LEDGER, also telephone connection, patrol wagon, and all the equipments.

Federhen to the Boston shooting association's tournament at Wellington this afternoon. A large number of Wollaston and Quincy gunners have signified their intention of being present.

There was a narrow escape from a big conflagration at Wollaston this morning. Shortly before five o'clock the night clerk's lamp in the window of Tucker's pharmacy exploded, throwing the burning oil over the adjoining wood work and setting it on fire. Engineer Holmes of the Wollaston laundry happened along before the blaze had gained much headway and extinguished it. One of the large plate glass windows was shattered. Loss, $50. No alarm was turned in. The building is owned by E. H. Sanborn.

A TEST CASE.

Western Bank Note Company Will Be Prosecuted by the Government.

CHICAGO, Aug. 29.—Pursuant to instructions from Attorney General Olney, District Attorney Dixon is preparing to prosecute the Western Bank Note company for making the plates for the issue of special warrants by the state of Mississippi. The prosecution will be under section 54 of the revised statutes, which provides that it will be considered a felony to make an engraving or print in the likeness of any government obligation. The penalty is a fine of not more than $5000 or imprisonment for 15 years.

The district attorney was of the opinion that an indictment against the officers of the company might be secured, but was not prepared to say that the process should not be merely a civil suit to recover the amount of the fine. Mr. Dixon is waiting for Captain Porter of the secret service to furnish him with copies of the warrant. The issue was for $200,000. The plates were seized in St. Louis while being shipped to Mississippi. Mr. Dixon believed the prosecution of the bank note company was a test case to determine the power of a state to issue such warrants.

English Denial of Unfair Play.

LONDON, Aug. 29. — Truth protests against the American sporting papers accusing Britannia of unfair play, and says: Britannia did no more than Vigilant probably did herself. The Yankees want races rendered purposeless and meaningless in order that Vigilant may win. It is one thing to talk of licking creation and another to beat Britannia or even Satanita.

A Grand Show.

NORTH CONWAY, N. H., Aug. 29.—The fifth annual coaching parade occurred today. Thousands of visitors are here, and more than 70 gaily decorated vehicles of all kinds and loaded with beautiful women and gallant men took part. Along the route, which was through the Intervale and Kearsarge villages, were erected immense arches and decorations galore.

Rumors Denied.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Aug. 29.—There are no new developments in the strike. Rumors to the effect that the City Manufacturing company's two mills would start up at old rates of wages are denied by the management. Union officials declare that any attempt to run mills at old rates of wages will lead to trouble.

Revolts Are Numerous.

TANGIER, Aug. 29.—Local revolts against the extortion of the governors are reported from various parts of Morocco, and the powerful Dukalla tribe stopped the governors coming from Fez and demanded the payment of tribute. A conflict ensued, and numbers were killed on both sides.

Populist Party Is Growing.

BANGOR, Me., Aug. 29.—Jesse Harper, once the law partner of Abraham Lincoln, spoke on Populism to 800 people here last night. His speech was received with frequent bursts of applause. His arguments were not of a novel sort, but showed that Populism is growing in Maine.

Worshipped In City Hall.

LEWISTON, Me., Aug. 29.—About 250 delegates to the state Christian Endeavor convention have arrived in this city. The visitors were received at the Pine Street Congregational church. A praise service was held in city hall, followed by addresses.

Hard on Troops.

VIENNA, Aug. 29.—Tropical heat prevails throughout the Austrian empire. The troops taking part in the maneuvers have suffered terribly from sunstroke. There were 100 casualties at Korneuburg.

Merchant Sent to Prison.

EDINBURGH, Aug. 29. — Ernest Sassberger, a jute merchant of Dundee, was sentenced here yesterday to eight years' penal servitude for forgery. Sassberger's peculations amounted to $960,000.

The ladies in this vicinity will appreciate the introduction of the celebrated Standard Patterns, of which we have put in a full line, and will certainly be a convenience to our numerous patrons.

After a thorough examination by ourselves, and receiving the endorsement of some of the best dry goods houses in the New England states, and particularly from several houses who formerly carried Butterickes—who now carry the Standard—we are convinced that the "Standard Patterns" are far superior to all others—in being more up to date, better graded, simpler directions for making—insuring perfect satisfaction, a great saving in time, much less fitting to do, and allowing just enough seams, thereby considerable saving in material—there being no waste as in others every pattern is modeled to the human form, and are so nicely proportioned that it is almost impossible to produce anything (if directions are followed, and which are extremely simple) but a beautiful fitting garment

Try one of the STANDARD PATTERNS on our recommendation and we think you will agree with us that they are better than any other pattern sold in this city.

The Standard Fashion Sheets and the beautiful Handy Catalogue are free to all.

The Ladies' Standard Magazine is issued monthly, costs but 50 cents per year and should be in every household; you will surely subscribe for it when you have examined a sample copy at our store; it is the best and cheapest Ladies' magazine in existence, single copies 5 cents.

The Standard Catalogue contains over 1000 illustrations of beautiful styles—up to date—price 20 cents.

THE QUARRY RAILROAD.

The Ballasting Complete and a Lunch Served—Formal Opening in Two Weeks.

The New York, New Haven & Hartford construction force, which has been engaged in ballasting the Quincy Quarry railroad for nearly five weeks past, completed its work Tuesday. In twenty-nine working days, about 1400 carloads of gravel have been transported from the pit at North Weymouth, involving the running of 70 trains from North Weymouth to West Quincy and return, and the making of nearly 300 trips up the mountain on a grade of 150 feet to the mile and around 16 degree curves.

Thanks to the excellence of the tracks and road-bed, and the care exercised by the engine and train crew, not a single accident has occurred to engine or train, nor has any one been injured in the slightest degree. With the exception of two days, engine 783 has done the entire work.

As testimonial of faithful service, Superintendent Anderson on Tuesday provided a lunch for those who have been engaged in the work. Caterer Wales set tables in the woods near Baker's quarry and a pleasant hour was devoted to the discussion of the excellent repast provided. The guests were Roadmaster E. H. Bryant and Construction Foreman Wm. Grady of Boston; Conductor Fred M. Buzzell, Engineer Cyrus A. Fenderson, Fireman D. F. Drew, Brakeman C. Cooper, N. J. Martin and John Keating of Braintree; A. S. Barnes, agent and David H. McGrath, assistant agent at West Quincy, and Charles Morrill, foreman of the Quincy Quarry railroad.

After completing the work, including the putting up of another car to load at Elcock's quarry at 4 40 P. M., Miss Jane Reed of Adams street, who with her father was enjoying a ride upon the locomotive, pulled open the throttle for the last trip down the mountain which was safely accomplished with a load of twenty-two cars, including the buggy.

The formal opening of the Quarry railroad is expected to take place during the second week of September.

RAW BEEF FOR WRINKLES.

A Girl Who Used It Lost Her Lover, but Didn't Give Back His Presents.

Joseph Slavinski, a tailor of Brownsville, Brooklyn, was to have been married to Rosa Marks, a neighbor, with whom he had kept company for nearly a year, in about a month. Rosa is known all over Brownsville for her good looks and had many admirers before she met Slavinski. One day last week Slavinski received an anonymous letter saying his affianced was in the habit of using raw beef to beautify her face, and that she used paint to blacken her eyelashes. Slavinski made an investigation and is alleged to have discovered that the girl had wrinkles in her face and for a long time had used raw beef to take them away.

Slavinski wrote to Rosa breaking off the engagement and requesting her to return a diamond ring and a silk umbrella which he had given her. She refused, and Slavinski had her in the Second district civil court in Broadway, Williamsburg, on a summons to explain why she refused to return the articles. When Justice Petterson was told that raw beef had caused the engagement to be broken, he said to the girl:

"If you have used raw beef on your face, it's had good effect, for it undoubtedly has drawn out some hidden beauty."

The justice added that as long as Slavinski had given the ring and the umbrella to Rosa they were her property.—New York Dispatch.

They Have It In Atlanta.

Atlanta is quick to catch on to all the latest curves. It was announced not long ago that the milkmen of London in order to alleviate all suspicion of adulterated milk drove their herd of milkers through the streets and extracted the lacteal fluid in front of the residences of their customers. An Atlanta milkman has started in the footsteps of the Londoners. Every morning soon after daybreak a milkman may be seen moving along Pulliam street with a herd of five fine milkers, stopping here and there in front of the residences long enough to milk one of the cows. The cows are well drilled and have learned the home of every customer. The sight is a unique one, and it serves to illustrate the statement that Atlanta is keeping pace.—Atlanta Constitution.

The Lost Heir Turns Up.

A London correspondent says the villagers of Maiden Bradley, Bath, are excited over the appearance there of a person who claims to be the heir of the twelfth duke of Somerset and demands the restitution of the title and estate. The claimant describes himself as Lord St. Maur, who was supposed to have been dead for 29 years. He was accidentally wounded by a bear while shooting in India and died soon after. The claimant admits the encounter with the bear, but says he escaped from his claws and got away with some scratches, which he will exhibit when the time comes. His absence is accounted for by the assertion that he was taken prisoner by the Russians and kept for a considerable period.

Says S. C. Weeks of Melrose, Mass.: "I had been troubled with chronic diarrhoea for over a year when I received a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which I used and it gave me great relief. I then procured a fifty-cent bottle and took about two-thirds of it, and was cured. I have taken some twice since when I had a looseness come on and it stopped it at once. I hope it will help others as it helped me. I feel very thankful to Mr. Stearns, the druggist, for telling me of this remedy and shall be glad to have this letter published."

Republican Delegates.

The Republican State committee has ordered that all caucuses of the party for the choice of delegates shall be held either on Tuesday or Wednesday Sept. 18 or 19, so that three weeks from tonight all Republican delegates, Representatives as well as the State, Congressional, County, Councillor and Senatorial will be chosen at these caucuses.

Each town and each ward of a city is entitled to send to each convention (except Representative conventions) one delegate at large, one delegate for the first seventy-five votes cast for the Republican candidate for Governor of Massachusetts in 1893, and one delegate for each succeeding one hundred and fifty votes so cast, or a fractional part as large as seventy-five. For Representative conventions the apportionment is one delegate for every fifty votes or fractional part as large as twenty-five; but each town and ward is entitled to at least one delegate.

All caucuses must be called and held in accordance with Chapter 501 of 1894, and, except in the City of Boston, with the provisions of the Election Act of 1893, and by a regulation of the State Committee, at least seven days prior to the day named for a caucus, the City Committee of each city shall issue a notice that such caucus will be held, stating, in addition to the day already named, the place and the hour of holding the same, which notice shall be published not less than twice in one or more local newspapers.

WOMAN'S TRIALS.

SOME LIGHT ON THE SUBJECT.

So Many Suffer Without Knowing Why. Much Can Be Avoided.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

So many feel the very life crushed out of them, wake up cheerful and happy, determined to do so much before the day ends, and yet:

Before the morning is very old, the fearful backache or bearing-down feeling attacks them, the brave spirit sinks back in affright; no matter how hard they struggle, the "clutch" is upon them, and they sink into a chair, crying, "Oh! why should I suffer so?

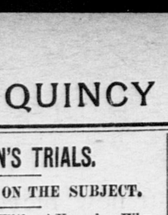

What can I do?"

The answer is ready, your cry has been heard, and a woman is able to restore you to health and happiness.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will stop your torture and restore your courage. All your pains come from a deranged uterus or womb.

It is the greatest of all rewards to receive such letters as the following from Miss Louise Müller, who lives at 44 Michigan Ave., in Evanston, Ill. She says:

"As I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and have thereby become entirely well,

I am recommending all my lady friends to use it. I am sure it will help them in all cases of womb trouble, leucorrhœa, irregular or painful "monthly periods." I am sure it is our best friend.

I am so thankful to Mrs. Pinkham for the good she has done me, that I wish every sick woman in America would write to her at Lynn, Mass., and get her advice."

LACK OF TOLERATION

Has Done Much Toward Keeping Up Strife In Nicaragua.

THE ARREST OF TWO AMERICANS

Must Be Explained to the Satisfaction of Uncle Sam.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—The state department is watching the developments of the situation in Nicaragua with jealous eyes and a firm determination that every American citizen who has incurred the ill-will of the Nicaraguan government shall receive exact justice. A cablegram was received yesterday from United States Consul Braida at Greytown stating that the prisoners taken by the Nicaraguan troops at Bluefields had arrived at Greytown. Included in the number were two American citizens, Wiltbank and Lampton, and Mr. Hatch, the British consular agent at Bluefields.

The state department has been seeking to establish communication with United States Minister Baker at Managua, but so far without success, and it is feared that he may be sick. It is the desire of the department to instruct Mr. Baker to look into the circumstances of the arrest of these Americans and report promptly to the department.

While all Americans in Bluefields were warned by our government to keep out of the squabble between Clarence and the Nicaraguans under the penalties of Nicaraguan law, still there is no disguising the fact that, so far as known here, the arrest of Wiltbank and Lampton were Made Under Ugly Conditions.

If the men have violated the local law after due warning, the state department cannot consistently object to their punishment. But if the arrest was illegally or improperly made, and Mr. Baker is expected to report upon this point, then the department will promptly intervene in behalf of the prisoners.

The whole incident was unfortunate, coming as it did at a time when the United States was putting forth its influence towards the recognition of Nicaraguan sovereignty over the Mosquito reservation, and it is felt here that the Nicaraguans would have done wisely in tempering their victory over the Mosquitoes with toleration for the foreign residents of the reservation. Should they lose the sympathy of the United States through persecution of our citizens and arouse the ire of Great Britain by unjust treatment of her consular representative, the situation would be so complicated that an early and peaceful solution of the Mosquito question could hardly be expected.

London to Have a Catholic Cathedral.

LONDON, Aug. 29.—A scheme which has been under discussion for 30 years has practically matured to build a Roman Catholic cathedral in London, on a site in Westminster purchased by the late Cardinal Manning for £55,000. The total cost of the edifice it is estimated will be £250,000. The whole of Catholic Christendom will be invited to subscribe.

Murder Through Jealousy.

HOBOKEN, N. J., Aug. 29.—Paul Gans, fourth engineer of the steamship New York, murdered Clara Ahens yesterday because of jealousy. The two had been living together for a year, but were not married. When discovered, Miss Ahens was dead, and Gans was kneeling holding her head to his breast, calling her endearing names.

Ready For Business.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—The new Japanese minister, Shinichiro Kurino, was presented to the president yesterday. This remarkable celerity is accounted for by the desire of the new minister to present his credentials and be fully empowered to deal with the state department before the president leaves Washington.

Landed at Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 29.—A shipwrecked crew arrived in Baltimore yesterday on the Norwegian steamship America, from Port Antonio, Jamaica. They were Captain Fergeson and five sailors, from the Norwegian brigantine Smaragd, which was burned at sea several days ago.

Will Be Known as the Yonkers.

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—Representatives of the clubs in the Eastern baseball league have ratified the admission of the Allentown club under the name of the Yonkers club, by assigning it dates at the New York Polo grounds and games on the regular Eastern league schedule.

The A. O. U. W. In Session.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 29.—The Ancient Order of United Workmen is holding its grand lodge meeting here. There are about 1400 members of the order in attendance. Mayor Caldwell delivered a welcome address, and Grand Master Workman Parker responded.

Why the Tatsuta Waits.

ADEN, Aug. 29.—The Japanese torpedo gunboat Tatsuta was detained here because her captain and crew were British subjects. Moreover, the crew refused to do duty, and thus the Tatsuta was unable to proceed in any case.

Death's Stamping Ground.

FITCHBURG, Mass., Aug. 29.—Typhoid fever from imperfect sewerage and the filthy condition of the river bed in the Cleghorn district is suspected as the cause of unusual mortality. An investigation is to be made.

Wrenn Is Champion.

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 29.—Robert D. Wrenn of Harvard has retained the tennis championship of America. The match, with the challenger, Goodbody of Ireland, was the most exciting in the history of the game.

Protection to Be Cast Aside.

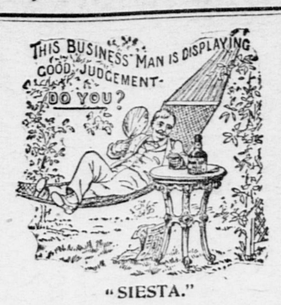

SYDNEY, Aug. 29.—Governor Duff of New South Wales, upon the assembling of parliament yesterday, said that the protective duties would be repealed and replaced by income and land taxes.

Not Guilty.

WORCESTER, Mass., Aug. 29.—The jury returned a verdict of not guilty in the case of Charles W. Stone of Athol, charged with burning the match factory of Edson Fitch.

Lone Star Republicans.

DALLAS, Aug. 29.—The Republican state convention is in session. Judge Makemson will undoubtedly be nominated for governor by acclamation.

NOTICE TO INVENTORS.

THERE Was never a time in the history of our country when the demand for inventions and improvements in the arts and sciences generally was so great as now. The conveniences of man-kind in the factory and work-shop, the household, on the farm, and in official life, require continual accessions to the appurtances and implements of each in order to save labor, time and expense. The political change in the administration of government does not affect the progress of the American inventor, who, being on the alert, and ready to perceive the existing deficiences, does not permit the affairs of government to deter him from quickly conceiving the remedy to overcome existing discrepancies. Too great care cannot be exercised in choosing a competent and skilful attorney to prepare and prosecute an application for patent. Valuable interests have been lost and destroyed in innumerable instances by the employment of incompetent counsel, and especially is this advice applicable to those who adopt the "No patent, no pay" system. Inventors who intrust their business to this class of attorneys do so at imminent risk, as the breadth and strength of the patent is never considered in view of a quick endeavor to get an allowance and obtain the fee then due. THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY, John Wedderburn, General Manager, 618 F street, N W., Washington, D. C., representing a large number of important daily and weekly papers, as well as general periodicals of the country, was instituted to protect its patrons from the unsafe methods heretofore employed in this line of business. The said Company is prepared to take charge of all patent business entrusted to it for reasonable fees, and prepares and prosecutes applications generally, including mechanical inventions, design patents, trade marks, labels, copyrights, interferences, infringements, validity reports, and gives especial attention to rejected cases. It is also prepared to enter into competition with any firm in securing foreign patents.

A MIXED UP ROW

In Which One Man Is Killed and Two Fatally Hurt.

CHICAGO, Aug. 29.—A desperate fight which necessitated the turning in of a riot alarm and the calling out of the patrol wagons filled with police occurred late last night. One man was instantly killed, two fatally hurt and one woman seriously injured.

At 4117 Ashland avenue Mrs. James Cook has a saloon on the first floor, and the Dunworth family, with Cassidy, who is a brother of Mrs. Dunworth, resids on the second floor. The Dunworths had a lodger named James Marshall, who was too delinquent in paying his rent to suit the Dunworths. On Sunday Cassidy attempted to collect the rent by force, and was badly beaten by Marshall.

Last night Cassidy and Marshall resumed their fight, and the latter, who had with him several friends, chased Cassidy into the street. The fight was warming up nicely when John Dacey, a friend of Cassidy, came along. He had a revolver and tried to shoot the entire Marshall crowd, but his weapon would not work. Mrs. Dunworth came to the rescue of Dacey and Cassidy with some paving stones.

Just at this time Ray and Donavan came along in a buggy. Just how they got mixed in the fight nobody knows. A paving stone, hurled by Mrs. Dunworth, struck Ray at the base of the brain and broke his neck. He also received a stab that would have proved fatal had the paving stone been less effective. By this time a dozen men were in the fight on each side, and fists, knives, clubs, revolvers and stones were all in active operation. The police finally arrested half the neighborhood and carted the wounded away to a hospital.

A PECULIAR CASE.

Thomas Mansfield Shot His Wife and Himself by Request.

LEWISTON, Me., Aug. 29.—Thomas Mansfield is a well-known business man of this city. He has been drinking for two or three weeks. His wife, who is an invalid and probably insane, yesterday asked him to kill her and then himself. He agreed to it, and getting a 22-caliber revolver shot his wife, who was in bed, under the right ear, and then placing the muzzle in his mouth shot himself. Had the revolver been of larger caliber both would have been instantly killed, but as it is both will live. Mrs. Mansfield begged of the doctors to end her life, saying she only desired to die. Mansfield is under arrest, and refuses to talk.

Murder Was Done.

WOONSOCKET, R. I., Aug. 29.—New evidence was obtained last night bearing on the death of John Hifron, alias John F. McCarthy, who was found on the New York and New England railroad last Thursday night, dying from a fractured skull. At first it was supposed that he had been hit by a train, but the theory of a murderous assault has been found to be the correct one. A coroner's inquest is in progress.

PATENTS

FOR INVENTIONS.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuable inventions because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With the view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys, and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, we have retained counsel expert in patent practice, and therefore are prepared to

Obtain Patents in the United States and all Foreign Countries, Conduct Interferences, Make Special Examinations, Prosecute Rejected Cases, Register Trade-Marks and Copyrights, Render Opinions as to Scope and Validity of Patents, Prosecute and Defend Infringement Suits, Etc., Etc.

If you have an invention on hand send a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be at once advised as to the best course to pursue. Models are seldom necessary. If others are infringing on your rights, or if you are charged with infringement by others, submit the matter to us for a reliable OPINION before acting on the matter.

Expelled Knights Invoke the Law's Aid to Secure Their "Rights."

AN INTERESTING FAMILY ROW

In Which the Chief Officials Figure Very Prominently.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 30.—John O'Keefe, A. H. P. Leuf and Patrick O'Donohue, members of local assembly No. 6401 of the Knights of Labor, began proceedings yesterday in the common pleas courts of this city against General Master Workman James R. Sovereign, Secretary Treasurer John W. Hayes, Henry B. Martin and Charles A. French, the general executive board of the Knights; Henry C. Traphagen and William O. Begley, to compel the board to reinstate them as members of the order.

GENERAL MASTER WORKMAN SOVEREIGN.

The suit grows out of the dissensions i which district assembly No. 1 has been in volved for months past. The bill says that at a meeting on Aug. 7 Traphagen, who was district master workman and chairman of the district assembly meetings, obstructed business by refusing to entertain regular motions, appeals, etc. Finding that they could do nothing while this action continued, the members of the district assembly, by unanimous vote, deposed Traphagen, who then tried to remove the charter, but was prevented.

On Aug. 15, it is set out, Traphagen issued a call for a meeting of district assembly No. 1 on Aug. 19. At this were present Sovereign, McGuire and several other members of the general executive board, but the complainants and other delegates of the district assembly as a legal meeting. Sovereign removed the presiding officer and attempted to preside himself and to induce the delegates to consent to the formation of a meeting. They, however, refused and there was no meeting.

In consequence of this the general executive board, on Aug 20, expelled the complainants. On that day Traphagen called another meeting of alleged irregular district assembly No. 1, and had himself elected representative of district assembly No. 1. At a meeting of the local assemblies composing the district, on Aug. 20, at which a majority was present, O'Keefe was elected representative.

On Aug. 18, it is then recited, O'Keefe, Leuf and O'Donohue each received a communication from the general executive board notifying them to appear at 8 o'clock that night to answer certain charges which had been preferred against them. As the letters were not delivered until late that night, however, it was impossible for them to appear.

On the 20th they received letters notifying them of their expulsion from the order on charges of "unknightly conduct." It is alleged that the suspension and expulsion are illegal and for the purpose of preventing O'Keefe from asserting his rights as representative, and of forcing on the district assembly, in his place, Traphagen, with whose election the general executive board is said to be in sympathy.

Germany Is Dissatisfied.

BERLIN, Aug. 30.—The new American tariff law gives umbrage in Germany, especially the provision which increases the duty on sugar from countries giving bounties. This change is felt more keenly here, as the amount of increase is the same for all bounty-giving countries, regardless of the amount of the bounties.

They Couldn't Agree.

ATLANTA, Aug. 30.—The state Republican convention met here yesterday. The colored wing had complete control, but it was divided into two factions. A fight was soon sprung over the nomination of a state ticket. After many speeches it was resolved not to put out a Republican ticket.

Another Ball Ground Fire.

CHICAGO, Aug. 30.—All but 50 feet of the grand stand of the Chicago Baseball club was burned yesterday afternoon. The stand had been practically reconstructed after the fire of several weeks ago. The fire is believed to have been incendiary. Loss, $19,000.

Foxy Russia.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 30.—It is said that Russia, profiting by the Corean difficulty, has put pressure on China to compel her to make concessions in the Pamiers. China, however, refuses to yield a square inch of territory.

Not So Great, After All.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—The navy department has received word that the English torpedo boat Hornet, the fastest torpedo boat afloat, broke down completely during the recent maneuvers and had to be towed into harbor.

LIMIT ALMOST REACHED.

Season Has Been Profitable to Legitimate Sealers and Poachers Alike.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—Letters were received yesterday at the treasury department from Assistant Secretary Hamlin and Captain Hooper of the "Rush." The letters, which are dated St. Paul's island, Aug. 6, state that the assistant secretary, who has been on a tour of inspection to the Pribylov islands, expects to reach Port Townsend on Sept. 5 and Washington about 10 days later.

Captain Cooper, in his letter, says that the North American Commercial company has already taken about 16,000 sealskins, and it is the expectation that 1000 additional will be taken before the season closes. This would indicate that authority has been given the company to take the maximum number (20,000) of skins, conditionally granted by the secretary before the season opened.

Captain Hooper also says that there are many poachers in the Behring sea, all armed with spears, and it is assumed that they have had a profitable season, as the weather has been favorable. Reports from the Yukon river show that a great mining boom is in progress in that region. The sum of $100,000 in gold nuggets is now at Ounalaska awaiting shipment to San Francisco. Miners in large numbers are going into the country from Sitka and Southern Alaska.

A PENNSYLVANIA MYSTERY.

The Only Person Who Can Unravel It Left For Parts Unknown.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 30. — The police of Pittsburg and Allegheny are searching for Ira Hook, who is wanted to unravel the mystery surrounding the death of Mrs. Jennie Blair, aged 19 years. Mrs. Blair lived near Hoboken, a suburb of Pittsburg.

On Monday evening she left her home to go to the postoffice, a mile away. Several hours later she was found lying unconscious in the road, while Hook was standing near by in a dazed condition. Hook explained that they had been driving. He dropped his whip and got out of the buggy to recover it. The horse then ran away and Mrs. Blair was thrown out.

The woman was taken to the hospital, where she died. The woman's pocketbook containing $16 and the letters she had started to mail were missing, and no clew can be found to the horse and buggy, either before or after the alleged runaway. Hook has disappeared.

The Four Hundred Participated.

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 30.—The annual subscription ball, the society event of the season, took place last night at the Casino, and was attended by the wealthiest people in the land. There was continuous music from 9 o'clock last evening until 3 o'clock this morning. The favors were imported ribbon ornaments. Mrs. Fernando Yznaga was the handsomest woman present. The Vanderbilts, Astors, Havemeyers and other members of the Four Hundred were present. It was the most successful affair of this kind ever held at the Casino.

Natick Bomb Traced.

NATICK, Mass., Aug. 30.—The local police and State Detective Bean are investigating the bomb explosion which nearly destroyed the boarding house of Hiram P. Ring. The police say they have found the place where the gaspipe was secured and the name of the man who procured it. The powder used is also accounted for. It looks as though an arrest will be made soon.

The Vanderbilt Row.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—The World says that the rupture in the domestic relations of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt has reached the point of a separation, with talk of a divorce. It is stated that Colonel William Jay and his wife are being depended upon by the Vanderbilt family to make an amicable settlement.

Will Try the Yankee Doodle.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—The steam yacht Vamoose again proved her superiority yesterday afternoon. The Vamoose shot up the Hudson river, leaving the Now Then as though the latter were lying at anchor. Efforts will now be made to get on a race between the Yankee Doodle of Philadelphia and Vamoose.

Prints Jump Upward.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Aug. 30.—Print cloths went to 2⅞ cents yesterday afternoon, a raise of 1-16 cent over Tuesday. Manufacturers contend that the uncertainty of curtailment forced small dealers to pay the price quoted, and they claim that it is not a healthy rise, owing to the existence of surplus stock.

Gil Curry's Feat.

RUTLAND, Vt., Aug. 30.—Five thousand people attended the Vermont Breeders' association meeting here and saw Gil Curry break every state record in the free-for-all race. He battered the mile kite record of Vermont by 1s., on the half-mile track, going the mile in 2:14.

FOR ANOTHER TERM.

West Virginia Democrats Will Send Wilson to Congress.

"DEMOCRATS KEPT THE FAITH."

New Tariff Is the Beginning of Progressive Reform.

MARTINSBURG, W. Va., Aug. 30.—The Democratic congressional convention for the Second district met here and renominated Hon. William L. Wilson, chairman of the committee on ways and means. In accepting the nomination Mr. Wilson said among other things:

"The congress was charged by the American people with a duty clear, unmistakable, transcendent, to wrest from the grasp of private and selfish hands the power of federal taxation; to lift from the backs of the American people that burden of tribute to privilege and monopoly which under 30 years of Republican legislation had grown constantly heavier, until it far exceeded their legitimate and necessary taxation for the support of government; to reclaim and make forever sure that heritage of American youth which is the true meaning and priceless boon of Democratic institutions—opportunity in a land of equal rights.

Cheered by Their Leader.

"This was the inspiring mission to which the Democratic party gave themselves earnestly and faithfully. In that work they were at all times cheered and encouraged by their great leader, who for eight years, in defeat and victory, has led in the movement for tariff reform.

"You know the varying history of our attempt at tariff reform. You have followed with rising hopes and hearty approval the action of the house of representatives in the framing and passage of a measure bearing the badges of Democratic principles and fraught with promised benefit to all the people. You have followed with waning hopes and angry disapproval the tedious and tortuous passage of that bill through the senate and seen that, despite a nominal Democratic majority in that body, the great trusts and monopolies were still able to write their taxes, as they had done under Republican rule, in some of its most important schedules. The burden upon you is the same whether they use a Democratic hand or a Republican hand as their amanuensis. But the wrong to you is infinitely greater when men who bear the commission of your own party thus prove faithless to its highest duties.

The President Disappointed.

"I need not recite to you the successive steps, the material and baneful alterations through which the house bill quietly passed into a law without the signature and approval of the president, who was elected upon the issue of tariff reform and who anticipated as the signal triumph and historic achievement of his administration the privilege of affixing his name to a genuine and thorough reform bill.

"You know by what influences this was brought about. The country knows and history will know where to put the responsibility for the partial failure to redeem our pledges to the people and our partial failure to dislodge these great privileged interests from our tariff.

The Sugar Trust.

"The American people have seen a single great trust empowered by our tariff laws to control the production and sale of a necessity of life using its law-made wealth and power to thwart the best efforts of the people to reduce their own taxation.

"When the Sugar trust thus challenges the American people to a contest of strength its days are numbered, its temporary triumph is its speedier and more complete overthrow, and with its overthrow will vanish its sister brood of monopolies that are strong through its support.

The Brighter Side.

"But there is another and brighter side to this picture. With all its manifold failures, the new bill carries in it substantial relief to the American people and must be accepted as a substantial beginning of thorough and progressive tariff reform. It means cheaper clothing, cheaper tools, cheaper pottery and many other necessaries for the people.

"It means freer and larger commerce with those nations that buy our farm products, and consequent larger and better markets for our farmers. It means a transfer of some of the burdens of government from what goes out for the daily purchase of the necessaries of life to that which comes in over and above the amount needed for such purchase.

"If we denounce some of its duties and rates, it is because what may be much lower than the duties and rates of the McKinley bill are yet enormities in a Democratic bill. But, as the president well said, we have gained a vantage ground, from which we can continue to shell the camp of monopoly.

"We may ourselves properly and bitterly condemn those who failed us in this fight. We are not, therefore, subject to condemnation by our opponents. If we have done less in the way of relieving the people's burdens than we had hoped and promised, they would have done nothing at all.

"The weapons with which monopoly has fought us they have forged and tempered and supplied. The entrenchments and fortresses behind which privilege has shielded itself from outside attack they have builded for it, stone by stone and stronghold by stronghold."

Why does the air of the pine woods have such a beneficial effect on consumptives? It is on account of its purity and of the antiseptic substances contained in the exhalations from the trees.

Guaiacol

represents these exhalations in a concentrated form. Although taken in through the stomach, in instead of being breathed in, as in the pine woods, it is taken up by the blood from the stomach and carried to the lungs, producing the most beneficial effects. Pleasant to take and a perfect remedy for consumption.

Editorial Comment.

IT REALLY seems as if there was more need of a school house at "The Rail" than at Norfolk Downs. The Willard is crowded and should take many who now attend the John Hancock and the Lincoln buildings. To relieve the pressure on all three the new building asked should be erected. An eight room building near the West Quincy depot would be in the centre of a thickly populated district and filled a'most as soon as built.

The New High.

The editor of the DAILY LEDGER accepted an invitation of Commissioner Eaton to inspect the new High school house on Wednesday. It is a grand building with many conveniences and arrangements which are new to Quincy. It is probably as good a school building as can be found in this State, and is thoroughly built. The LEDGER will give a full description on the occasion of the dedication next week.

The New Teachers.

The public schools with the exception of the High, will open next Tuesday. The vacancies caused by resignations have been filled as follows:

Coddington,—Miss Elmira C. Mayo.

Quincy,—Mr. I. O. Litchfield, Miss Mabel P. Whitman, and Miss Minnie C. Ritter.

Willard,—Mr. C. F. Merrick and Miss Mary L. Crowe.

Wollaston,—Miss Annie D. Marden and Miss Ida J. Cameron.

Mayo-Lowe Nuptials.

Mr. George A. Mayo has nearly completed a new block on Copeland street, West Quincy, with store on the street floor and a fine tenement above. His new home was the scene Wednesday evening of a pretty family wedding, when he was married to Mrs. Annie B. Lowe. Rev. Edward Norton of the Centre Congregational church officiated. It was a very pleasant occasion.

New Brockton Daily.

The Brockton Herald made its appearance on Monday. It is a four-page daily which devotes many columns to local news and prints Associated Press dispatches, and makes a neat appearance. It requires courage to start another daily in Brockton, where so many have failed, but Brockton is a live place, and live men will succeed.

Church Paper.

The Wollaston Unitarian church has issued this week the first number of "The Angelus," a monthly publication in the interests of the society. The joint editors are: Rev. J. E. Bagley, Frank A. Page, H. W. Lull, Sylvester Brown, Mrs. Agnes D. Bishop, Chandler W. Smith and Rev. Blanche Pentecost Bagley.

It is a neat four page paper from the PATRIOT press with departments for Sunday School, the Ladies' Aid, the Unity club and Young People's Society. The opening editorial is quoted below:

"Through the medium of the Angelus, the Unitarian church of Wollaston desires to extend the 'Right Hand of Fellowship' to every church of whatever name, that is willing to receive it, to all whom it can help, regardless of race, color, position or creed. We prefer to emphasize the principles which unite churches rather than the differences which separate them. As a true friend we would view every man's religion from his own standpoint, from the inside, as Sir Edwin Arnold did Buddhism in 'The Light of Asia,' in which he surprised the Buddhists themselves with the beauties of their own religion."

—We shouldn't be surprised at all to see the Pall Mall Gazette come out in open opposition to the new United States income tax. Its owner, William Waldorf Astor, will have to contribute $178,000 a year to the support of the government under the operation of the law.—Somerville Journal.

Note the new bargains offered by the Granite Clothing company.

At the Granite City Club's whist contest on Wednesday evening, the prizes were taken by Miss Lizzie E. Morse and Mr. Warren H. Rideout.

The continued cases of W. W. Burke, of Weymouth and Charles O. Miller of Braintree in the Quincy court on Saturday promises to be interesting.

Another famous yacht, the Jubilee, will be hauled up at high tide today at Quincy Point, at the yards of McIntyre & Kirk, where she will undergo many changes.

The Quincy & Boston street railway carried about 50,000 passengers last week, an increase over the same week last year of 4,000 on the Manet route, and 15,000 on all other routes.

There will be a maid of honor and four bridemaids at the Farrington-Hollis church wedding at Braintree this evening. The church is beautifully decorated with palms and flowers.

Al. Williams, the steward of the Duck's Nest, has inaugurated a pipe stem shooting contest. The tournament opened Wednesday evening and the scores out of a possible 50 were: Emery 24 and D. B. Lincoln 18.

Mayor Hodges is preparing a list of election officers soon to be appointed. Few changes are contemplated where efficient officers are willing to serve. Ward Four having been divided an extra list will be required in West Quincy.

The Republican conventions will be larger this year than the Democratic, because of the basis of representation, which is not usually the case. Quincy will send 31 delegates to the Republican State convention and only 22 to the Democratic.

Did you ever hear the likes! The Quincy & Boston Street Railway company is a hustler, or rather its president and superintendent are, for they advertise a ten cent fare to Nantasket Beach via the Steamer City of Quincy. See first page.

Plans are being prepared for an addition to the new Woodward Institute, which will be made in the rear as viewed from Greenleaf street. The estate of William G. Sheen has recently been purchased by the board, but merely for an investment. The whole square is now owned by the Woodward Fund.

The team which represented the Wollaston Trap club at the Boston Shooting Association's tournament at Wellington on Wednesday made a total score of 59 out of a possible 90. The individual scores out of a possible 30 were as follows: H. M. Federhen, Jr., 26, J. C. Morse 18, H. T. Whitman 15.

TODAY'S COURT.

Will Quincy Dealers Get Caught?

The Cleveland tariff law imposes a two cent revenue tax on every pack of playing cards sold, manufactured, removed, or in the stock of any dealer after August 1. As there are many variety dealers, druggists, stationers, cigar dealers, etc., who sell playing cards in Quincy and vicinity, and as the number of deputies to enforce the law is very limited, it is conjecturable how far it will be enforced, and if so who will be the first to be caught.

There has been no internal revenue tax on playing cards for years. As a war tax, playing cards, along with patent medicines, matches, cosmetics and bank checks, had to pay an internal revenue tax. Years ago a Republican Congress removed all these old war taxes. The present Congress has put back the tax on playing cards, and today it is illegal for any manufacturer or dealer to sell or to expose for sale a pack of playing cards which is not stamped with a two cent internal revenue stamp.

What's a Vacation?

NEW CAUCUS ACT.

Shall the City of Quincy Provide Polling Places and Ballots?

Unless the provisions of the new caucus act of 1894 are accepted caucuses will be held under the Acts of 1893. Should the Act of this year be accepted the city council shall, at the expense of the city provide polling places, and in case of a city, not less than one for each ward, and shall in the city of Boston, and in other cities and towns wherever the provisions of this act as applied to the method of holding caucuses in the city of Boston shall be adopted by a political party as hereinafter provided, prepare the same with booths registering ballot boxes, guard rails and the like, in the same manner in which they are arranged for state elections.

Under the new act names would be placed before a caucus by nomination papers, and a ballot prepared and supplied by the City Clerk.

Section 36 provides how the act may be accepted and reads:

In any city after the passage of this act the city committee of any political party shall, at the written request of fifty voters, members of said party, call a caucus or caucuses of said party for the purpose of voting upon the question whether the provisions of this act as applied to the methods of holding caucuses in the city of Boston shall be adopted by said political party in said city. The notice of said caucus or caucuses shall state the day, the place and the hour, not earlier than six o'clock in the evening and not later than half past seven o'clock in the evening, of holding said caucus or caucuses, and shall be issued at least seven days prior to the day named for said caucus or caucuses and shall be published not less than twice in one or more local newspapers, and shall be posted in at least five public places in each ward. The polls at said caucus or caucuses shall be kept open at least one hour. If said political party shall, by a majority of the votes cast at said caucus or caucuses, vote to adopt the provisions of this act as applied to the method of holding caucuses in the city of Boston, nomination papers, ballots and other apparatus required for caucuses so held shall be provided for said party at the expense of the city, and all caucuses of said political party in said city shall thereafter be conducted according to the provisions of this act as applied to the method of holding caucuses in the city of Boston so far as the same shall be applicable thereto.

Harbinger and Beatrice.

As yet there seems but little prospect of a match race between the Harbinger and the Beatrice. Capt. Daly takes the stand that his challenge covers the later one made by Mr. Cavanagh, except that it is for $250 instead of $500 a side. Holding this position, Capt. Daly will pay no attention to the Beatrice's offer to sail a series of races. It certainly does seem as though these boats could be brought together in a series of interesting matches. Capt. Daly cannot be blamed for sticking out for his rights as being the first to throw down the gauntlet. The Harbinger won the Commodore's cup series, which was practically a duel between these two rivals. If Mr. Cavanagh wants to race his boat against the Harbinger all disputed points can undoubtedly be settled by leaving the arrangement of the matches to some disinterested yachtsman, such as—for a suggestion—ex-Commodore J. Stearns Cushing of the Winthrop Yacht Club. In his management of the Commodore's cup races, Mr. Cushing showed himself to be extremely well fitted for such a position. Having won the series for the cup given for these boats, the Harbinger has much more to lose than she could gain by entering into another contest. It seems as though $250, a sum equal to one-fourth the value of either yacht, ought to meet any expenditures which would be made in fitting out the boats.—Herald.

Polo at Hingham.

Wednesday afternoon a good game of polo was played on the Hingham grounds in the presence of a large crowd, between the Dedhams and the Hinghams, in which the former were victorious by a score of 14 to 9. The Dedhams were handicapped five goals to start with. The teams were made up as follows: Dedhams, Messrs. Allan Forbes, E. M. Weld, C. H. W. Foster and S. D. Warren. Hinghams, Messrs. M. S. Crehore, R. W. Williams, C. M. Bryant and Hammond Braman. The game started at 4 o'clock with Mr. F. Blackwood Fay as referee and Mr. G. D. Braman as timekeeper.

Draws Well.

Here are some good cards and all trumps: "It takes a rich man to draw a check, a pretty girl to draw attention, a horse to draw a cart, a porous plaster to draw the skin, a toper to draw a cork, a free show to draw a crowd, and an advertisement in the QUINCY DAILY LEDGER to draw trade."

I then procured a fifty-cent bottle and took about two-thirds of it, and was cured. I have taken some twice since when I had a looseness come on and it stopped it at once. I hope it will help others as it helped me. I feel very thankful to Mr. Stearns, the druggist, for telling me of this remedy and shall be glad to have this letter published."

The ladies in this vicinity will appreciate the introduction of the celebrated Standard Patterns, of which we have put in a full line, and will certainly be a convenience to our numerous patrons.

After a thorough examination by ourselves, and receiving the endorsement of some of the best dry goods houses in the New England states, and particularly from several ladies who formerly carried Buttericks—who now carry the Standard—we are convinced that the "Standard Patterns" are far superior to all others—in being more up to date, better modeled, simpler directions for making—insuring perfect satisfaction, a great saving of time, much less fitting to do, and allowing just enough seams, thereby considerable saving in material—there being no waste as in others every pattern is modeled to the human form, and are so nicely proportioned that it is almost impossible to produce anything ill-fitting if directions are followed, and which are extremely simple) but a beautiful fitting garment.

Try one of the STANDARD PATTERNS on our recommendation and we think you will agree with us that they are better than any other pattern sold in this city.

The Standard Fashion Sheets and the beautiful Handy Catalogue are free to all.

The Ladies' Standard Magazine is issued monthly, costs but 50 cents per year, should be in every household; you will surely subscribe for it when you have examined sample copy at our store; it is the best and cheapest Ladies' magazine in existence, single copies 5 cents.

THE CITY COUNCIL.

A Special Meeting at Which Drawing of Jurors was the Only Business.

It took the City Council just six minutes to transact the business of the special meeting of Wednesday evening, which was simply the drawing of three traverse jurors.

But 17 members were present; the absentees being Councilmen Clark, Federhen, Lennon, Snow and Waterhouse.

The new law as to the drawing of jurors required the attendance of both Mayor Hodges and City Clerk Keith, and His Honor occupied the seat reserved for him on the right of President Bass. The Mayor delegated Councilman Holbrook to take the names from the box reading them as he did so. Each was then passed to the Mayor and thence to the City Clerk who again read them aloud. Clerk Spear then passed the list to the President who announced the drawing for a third time. The names drawn were: David R. Edwards, George Chalmers and George McFarlane, who are required to report at Dedham, Sept 10.

Adjourned at 7.51.

Democratic Delegates.

The Democratic State convention will be held in Boston, Monday, Oct. 8, and under the new caucus act all State, congressional and councillor caucuses have been called for Thursday, Sept. 20, or Friday, Sept. 21. All caucuses for the nomination of senators, representatives and county officers will be held either Tuesday, Oct. 9, or Wednesday, Oct. 10.

The basis of representation has been fixed at one delegate at large for each city and town and each ward of a city, and one additional delegate for each 100 votes, or majority fractional part thereof cast in the year 1892, for the Democratic candidates for electors of President, and the basis of representation in choosing delegates to councillor, county, senatorial and representative conventions will be the same.

This will give the wards of Quincy the following reprsentation at each convention.

City at large,	1 delegate
Ward One,	4 delegates
Ward Two,	3 "
Ward Three,	4 "
Ward Four,	5 "
Ward Five,	2 "
Ward Six,	3 "

Boston Connection.

President Graham of the Quincy & Boston street railway informs the LEDGER that work will be begun at Neponset in a few days extending the tracks of his company to those of the West End street railway. He says the Quincy company has been put off too long, and that now he intends to push matters.

This small break at Neponset deters many from going to Boston by street railway, although there has been a large increase in this direction of late, and it is to be hoped that President Graham means business.

IN RAT-TRAP AMBUSH

Dutch Troops Were Mowed Down by the Balinese Natives.

OVER FIVE HUNDRED MEN LOST.

Hollanders Are Excited Over the Severe Reverses.

THE HAGUE, Aug. 30.—Late advices received from Lombok say that the attacks upon the different columns of Dutch troops were the result of a preconcerted plan upon the part of the leading native chiefs of the Balinese natives.

Colonel Vanpabst's column, after seeing the promises of the chief executed, was returning to Tjakra Negara, when it was attacked while fording the river Babak by the Balinese, whose hostility was unexpected. The column only succeeded in regaining the road to Tjakra Negara after sharp fighting and heavy loss.

After a harassing retreat the Vanpabst column was approaching Tjakra Negara without seeing any further signs of the enemy, when suddenly, from the walls of that place, from every loophole and every point of vantage, a hailstorm of bullets was poured into the column of Dutch troops.

The latter were completely taken by surprise and began to falter. To make matters worse, the Balinese had no sooner opened fire upon the head of the column, than its rear was also exposed to a terrible rifle fire. Thus the advance and the retreat of the column were alike cut off and impossible.

The Dutch troops were completely caught in a rat-trap ambush, and had it not been that nightfall came to their assistance, there is little doubt that the entire detachment

Would Have Been Massacred.

It was under the cover of darkness a few bodies of exhausted soldiers, many of them badly wounded, succeeded in reaching Ampenan.

The Balinese capured a quantity of arms, ammunition and provisions in these engagements and also captured the guns and effects of General Van Han's force, they having been abandoned in order to save the wounded.

The news of the loss sustained by the Dutch forces sent to punish the Rajah of Lombok has caused great excitement throughout Holland, and it is believed that when the losses of the Vanpabst and Bylevelt columns are added to those sustained by the Vetter columns, the loss in killed, wounded and missing will be over 500 men.

It is admitted even in military circles that the almost simultaneous defeat of the three columns of troops is the most severe reverse which the Dutch army has sustained at the hands of savage troops in all the wars—even the Atchin campaigns—ever fought. The people are clamoring for the latest news from Lombok, and the government is urged to promptly dispatch the strongest re-enforcements possible to that island.

The governor general of the Dutch Indies, General Vander Wijck, has summoned a council of the naval and military commanders, who are determining upon the decisive measures to be taken in order to wipe out the defeats of the Dutch troops.

LONDON, Aug. 30.—The Times says: British yachtsmen are well content to let the question of supremacy for 1894 rest on the record, the Britannia beating the Vigilant 12 out of 17 contests. The events of the season have shown that British designers and builders are not inferior as regards big cutters, and that British sailmakers and sailors are superior to their American adversaries.

ADVERTISE IN THE LEDGER.

ACKOWLEDGED BY THE HIGHEST AUTHORITY.

The Massachusetts Board of Health
IN THEIR 24th REPORT (1893)

make the statement that Sarsaparillas containing Iodide of Potassium are unsafe to use, excepting under the supervision of an experienced physician, and that their continued use tend to impoverish instead of purifying the blood. Also that in many cases they act as a DIRECT POISON, and cause serious trouble, defeating the object for which they are taken.

ALL THE LEADING SARSAPARILLAS were analyzed and found to contain this poisonous chemical in various quantities, EXCEPTING ALLEN'S, which was found entirely free from Iodide of Potassium or other chemicals, and to be purely vegetable, thereby verifying our claim that it is the "HONEST KIND."

This is an unprejudiced statement made by the most scientific body of men in New England as A WARNING TO THE PUBLIC against the use of dangerous and injurious medicines, ALLEN'S is the HONEST KIND, the safe kind, and the kind that CONQUERS DISEASE.

Physicians and druggists unite in its recommendation.

PATENTS

NOTICE TO INVENTORS.

THERE Was never a time in the history of our country when the demand for inventions and improvements in the arts and sciences generally was so great as now. The conveniences of man-kind in the factory and work-shop, the household, on the farm, and in official life, require continual accessions to the appurtances and implements of each in order to save labor, time and expense. The political change in the administration of government does not affect the progress of the American inventor, who, being on the alert, and ready to perceive the existing deficiences, does not permit the affairs of government to deter him from quickly conceiving the remedy to overcome existing discrepancies. Too great care cannot be exercised in choosing a competent and skilful attorney to prepare and prosecute an application for patent. Valuable interests have been lost and destroyed in innumerable instances by the employment of incompetent counsel, and especially is this advice applicable to those who adopt the "No patent, no pay" system. Inventors who intrust their business to this class of attorneys do so at imminent risk, as the breadth and strength of the patent is never considered in view of a quick endeavor to get an allowance and obtain the fee then due. THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY, John Wedderburn, General Manager, 618 F street, N. W., Washington, D. C., representing a large number of important daily and weekly papers, as well as general periodicals of the country, was instituted to protect its patrons from the unsafe methods heretofore employed in this line of business. The said Company is prepared to take charge of all patent business entrusted to it for reasonable fees, and prepares and prosecutes applications generally, including mechanical inventions, design patents, trade marks, labels, copyrights, interferences, infringements, validity reports, and gives especial attention to rejected cases. It is also prepared to enter into competition with any firm in securing foreign patents.

AGAINST LYNCHING.

Boston Colored People Would Have Congress Look Into the Matter.

BOSTON, Aug. 30.—Faneuil hall, the historic "Cradle of Liberty," in which time and again has resounded in no uncertain tone the voice of freedom, was the scene of an assemblage of colored people, last night, who by resolutions and speeches uttered their protest against the lynching of colored people in the south. William Lloyd Garrison and Rev. Dr. Miner received a perfect ovation and three cheers before they could be heard.

The lynching of negroes by lawless mobs without a trial by judge and jury was denounced by all the speakers. They declared that the prejudice against the colored race was the sequel of the decense of slavery; that the colored man and woman were tolerated as menials, but when they showed a disposition to rise above the station that the white race in the south had set up for them they were treated inhumanly and with indignity.

It was claimed that the colored people had always been foremost in the ranks for the protection of the country, and that there never was a more loyal or braver body of men in the war of secession than they. The churches were condemned for not protesting against the barbarity with which the colored men were treated in the south, and encomiums were given to Miss Ida Wells for her crusade in London.

One of the speakers said that President Cleveland had not hesitated to send the United States troops to defend freight cars and their contents in the Chicago strike, yet never had any president ever ordered out the troops to defend helpless women and children who were attacked by mobs for deeds which they had never committed.

Resolutions were adopted asking congress to have appointed a commission to investigate the lynchings within the past 10 years, and to report its findings to congress.

When he was dressed the condemned man heard mass and received communion. He then informed the attendants that he was ready. He showed great coolness until he arrived at the foot of the scaffold, when his fortitude seemed to leave him. Bruneau protested his innocence. Eight thousand people witnessed the execution, amid brutal rejoicings.

PATENTS

FOR INVENTIONS.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuable inventions because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With the view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys, and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, we have retained counsel expert in patent practice, and therefore are prepared to

Obtain Patents in the United States and all Foreign Countries, Conduct Interferences, Make Special Examinations, Prosecute Rejected Cases, Register Trade-Marks and Copyrights, Render Opinions as to Scope and Validity of Patents, Prosecute and Defend Infringement Suits, Etc., Etc.

If you have an invention on hand send a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be advised as to the best course to pursue. Models are seldom necessary. If others are infringing on your rights, or if you are charged with infringement by others, submit the matter to us for a reliable OPINION before acting on the matter.

D. E. WADSWORTH & CO.

The ladies in this vicinity will appreciate the introduction of the celebrated Standard Patterns, of which we have put in a full line, and will certainly be a convenience to our numerous patrons.

After a thorough examination by ourselves, and receiving the endorsement of some of the best dry goods houses in the New England states, and particularly from several houses who formerly carried Butterick—who now carry the Standard—we are convinced that the "Standard Patterns" are far superior to all others—in being more up to date, better modeled, simpler directions for making—insuring perfect satisfaction, a great saving in time, much less fitting to do, and allowing just enough seams, thereby considerable saving in material—there being no waste as in others every pattern is modeled to the human form, and are so nicely proportioned that it is almost impossible to produce anything (if directions are followed, and which are extremely simple) but a beautiful fitting garment

Try one of the STANDARD PATTERNS on our recommendation and we think you will agree with us that they are better than any other pattern sold in this city.

The Standard Fashion Sheets and the beautiful Handy Catalogue are free to all.

The Ladies' Standard Magazine is issued monthly, costs but 50 cents per year and should be in every household; you will surely subscribe for it when you have examined a sample copy at our store; it is the best and cheapest Ladies' magazine in existence, single copies 5 cents.

The Standard Catalogue contains over 1000 illustrations of beautiful styles—up to date—price 20 cents.

A Complete Stock of Standard Patterns Constantly on Hand.

THE CENSUS FIGURES

Showing the Home Proprietorship Throughout Our Country.

THE FARMERS HEAD THE LIST.

The Greater Per Cent of City Homes Are Hired.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31. — The census office gave to the public yesterday the principal results of the investigation of farm and home proprietorship in all of the states and territories. This is the first investigation of the kind ever conducted in any country.

Of the 12,690,152 families in the whole country, almost 48 per cent own their farms and homes and the rest hire. Of the families owning farms and homes, almost 28 per cent have encumbrances and over 72 per cent have no encumbrance. The number of resident owners of land in the United States is 6,066,417, to which must be added any land owners who may be living in tenant families.

The farm families number 4,767,179, of which 66 per cent own their farms and the others hire. Of the owning families, over 28 per cent have encumbrances on their farms. In 1880 25.56 per cent of the farms were hired.

In the cities that contain over 100,000 population there are 1,948,834 home families, of which almost 23 per cent own and 77 per cent hire, while of the owning families 38 per cent own, subject to encumbrance. Among the cities having 100,000 population and over New York has the highest percentage of home tenancy, namely, 93.67; Boston is next, with 81.57 per cent; Brooklyn third, with 81.44 per cent; Jersey City fourth, with 81.20 per cent, and Cincinnati fifth, with 80.82 per cent. The percentage for Baltimore is 73.94; Buffalo, 60.03; Chicago, 71.27; Cleveland, 60.90; Denver, 70.89; Minneapolis, 68.86; New Orleans, 78.51; Philadelphia, 77.24; St. Louis, 79.53; St. Paul, 59.80; San Francisco, 70.46, and Washington, 74.80. The smallest percentage—56—represents Rochester.

Bringing the urban population into contrast with the non-urban population, almost 44 per cent of 4,224,560 home families living outside of cities and towns of 8000 people and over own their homes and 56 per cent hire. Of the owning families 77 per cent own without encumbrance.

Farm Figures.

The value of the 1,690,890 encumbered farms and homes is $5,687,298,069, and the encumbrances aggregate $2,132,949,563, or 37.50 per cent of the value. The 886,957 farms subject to encumbrance are worth $3,054,923,165, and the encumbrance is $1,085,995,960, or 35.55 per cent of the value. The 809,933 homes subject to encumbrance are valued at $2,632,374,904, and the encumbrance is $1,046,953,683, or 39.77 per cent of the value.

The cities of 8000 to 100,000 population have 214,613 encumbered homes, occupied by owners, worth $739,846,087, with an encumbrance amounting to $292,611,974, which is 39.55 per cent of the value.

In the cities of 100,000 population and over, the value of the 168,159 encumbered homes occupied by owners is $634,191,811, and these homes are encumbered for $393,029,833, or for 42.07 per cent of their value.

In the country, outside of cities and towns of 8000 people and over, the value of the 472,161 encumbered homes occupied by owners is $958,337,006, and the encumbrance is $361,311,790, or 37.70 per cent of the value.

Of the encumbrance on farms and homes over 22 per cent bears interest at less than 6 per cent, 34 per cent at the rate of 8 per cent, 43 per cent at rates greater than 6 per cent, and 11 per cent at rates greater than 8 per cent.

The average value of each owned and encumbered farm in the United States is $3444; of each encumbered home, $3250, and the average encumbrance on each of the farms is $1224; on each encumbered home, $1293.

City Homes.

In the cities having at least 100,000 population, $5555 represents the average value of each owned and encumbered home. New York has the highest value, $19,200; San Francisco second, with $7093; Brooklyn third, with $7349; Omaha fourth, with $7179; Washington fifth, with $7054. The annual interest charge on each owned and encumbered home in these cities is $134, the highest amount being $438, in New York, and the lowest amount $33, in Louisville.

Denver has the highest average rate of interest on the encumbrance on owned and encumbered homes, namely, 7.87 per cent; New Orleans is second with 7.86 per cent; New York has the lowest rate, 4.95 per cent, and Boston stands next with 5.14 per cent.

Over 74 per cent of the encumbrance on owned farms was incurred in buying real estate and making improvements, and over 83 per cent of the encumbrance was for the purpose of buying and improving real estate, investing in business, etc. Over 81 per cent of the encumbrance on homes was incurred to secure purchase money and to make improvements.

DALLAS, Aug. 31.—The following is the ticket nominated by the Republican convention: Governor, Q. K. Makenson; lieutenant governor, R. Renfro; treasurer, J. G. Lowe; attorney general, J. A. Hurley; land commissioner, Edward Anderson. The platform favors the extreme Republican idea of protection.

FIRE STILL RAGING.

The Loss In Northwestern Wisconsin Will Reach Three Million Dollars.

CHIPPEWA FALLS, Wis., Aug. 31.—Forest fires in this section of northwestern Wisconsin have been intermittent for months, and the aggregate loss is not less than $3,000,000 among the pine land owners and sawmill men, besides loss to individuals. Fires are now raging on the outskirts of Prentice, which was almost wiped out three weeks ago, and fire apparatus has been sent from this city. The village of Vesper, in Wood county, was completely demolished yesterday, and 20 families are reported homeless.

At Mason City, 100 miles distant, citizens are exhausted by continually fighting fire, and little is left in the village.

At Lafayette, forest fires devastated the homes of six farmers.

Fire is raging in Phillips, which was almost destroyed in the last fire.

Fire is at present burning at Silver Spring Park, four miles distant from this city, and the plant of the Chippewa Spring Water company, a large concern that ships to all parts of the country, is in danger.

The home of William St. Louis has already been burned at Nebogn.

At Mason City the Jump River Lumber company lost its plant and 1,000,000 feet of logs and 2,000,000 of sawed lumber.

Fires are raging with terrific fury throughout the forests of Burnet and Washburn counties, close to the railroad tracks, and passengers report the country is like a sea of fire.

The Wisconsin Central and the Omaha railways have been heavy losers by fires, their track being burned for miles, and a number of freight cars were lost by the latter road.

Kolb For Congress.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Aug. 31.—When the state executive committee of the Kolbites, Populists and Republicans made out a slate of congressional nominees to be named, they left the Seventh district without a candidate. It is learned that they are quietly arranging to nominate R. F. Kolb in that district. This indicates that Kolb's friends have abandoned all hope of making him governor or senator.

Thomas Shearman's Prediction.

LONDON, Aug. 31. — The Times publishes a column letter, signed by Thomas G. Shearman of New York, dealing with the fight for the new tariff law in the United States. Mr. Shearman predicts that the cause of free trade will gain a signal victory in 1898, and in 1900 the only question will be whether the tariff shall at all be allowed to remain.

Rivers are the lowest for over 10 years. Unless rain falls soon, some of the mills may be forced to stop entirely.

Fled Through Windows.

BANGOR, Me., Aug. 31.—Since the opening of the Eastern Maine state fair last Tuesday, gambling in every form has flourished in every nook and corner of the city. Last night the police raided the Windsor hotel and Penobscot Exchange and secured four gambling layouts. The operators escaped by plunging through the windows.

Foreigners Feel Unsafe.

SHANGHAI, Aug. 31.—Notwithstanding the imperial warnings against assaults upon foreigners, an uneasy feeling is growing at Tien-Tsin. The foreign residents are arming for mutual defense. In response to their representatives, France, Germany, Great Britain, Russia and the United States are each sending a warship to Tien-Tsin.

A Tariff Decision.

BOSTON, Aug. 31.—The secretary of the treasury has notified the collector at this port that all imported goods held in customs custody on Aug. 28, 1894, whether unclaimed on board vessel or in process of transportation, are to be entitled to the benefit of the new tariff act. This changes the previous ruling of the department.

A Judge's Leniency.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—Judge McAdam has appointed a receiver for the Camden stables on the application of Philomena Schultz and Millie K. Breen. The two women have seven horses entered for rich stakes. Judge McAdam ordered the receiver to sell the horses after they have filled their engagements.

Not a Bad Job.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—Miss Sanger, who was the stenographer at the White House during the Harrison administration, and who has assisted Mr. Cleveland's stenographer, has been transferred to the postoffice department. The change involves a reduction in salary from $1600 to $1400 a year.

RICH, BUT UNHAPPY.

Mr. and Mrs. Vanderbilt Were Unfitted For Each Other.

HIS PRESENTS TO "THE QUEEN."

The Wife Had a Strong Will of Her Own.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—William K. Vanderbilt's friends have refrained from saying much so far about his family troubles, but they did not hesitate to say that when the truth was known he would be amply vindicated. So far as can be learned from statements made to persons in the confidence of the Vanderbilt family, their sympathies are all with the husband.

William K. is the third son of William H. His grandfather, the "commodore," liked him very much. He wasn't very successful on Wall street when he used to take flyers there. William H. left him about $43,000,000, which has increased. He is said to have offered his wife $10,000,000 as a separation settlement.

New Yorkers recently returned from London and Paris describe the swath that rich man is cutting as a wide one and one that he is Taking No Pains to Conceal.

"As an evidence of his surprising recklessness," said a clubman yesterday, who came from Paris only a few days ago, "Willie K. has actually fitted out the entourage of this well-known woman, Nellie Neustretter, 'the queen,' the boon companion of fast young men, with the Vanderbilt livery, while his crest decorates the harnesses on her horses and the panels of her carriages.

"He met the 'queen' at the Grand Prix on June 17, just after he had won 40,000 francs. He was so favorably impressed with her that he, so it is reported, presented her with his winning so publicly that many of his friends saw what he was doing and afterward remonstrated with him."

Not All Roses.

In 1878 William K. Vanderbilt returned from an extended tour abroad, and in honor of the event Mrs. Elliott F. Shepard, his sister, gave a reception, which for many weeks was the talk of the Four Hundred.

It was at this reception that Willie K. met the 18-year-old girl with whom he fell desperately in love at first sight, and who a year later became his bride. She was Miss Smith of Mobile, and belonged to one of the oldest and most exclusive families of the south. Her father was a merchant, and she had two sisters, both of whom were remarkable for their beauty.

Though the Vanderbilts have magnificent houses in New York city, Islip, L. I., and Newport, R. I., the pair have spent most of their time since marriage abroad.

Says one society man at Newport: "Mr. and Mrs. Vanderbilt are totally unfitted for each other, and for several years have led an unhappy existence, disagreeing upon the most trivial matters."

The Breaking-Up Trip.

In the fall of 1893 the Vanderbilts undertook a trip in the Valiant through the Mediterranean, Red Sea and Indian ocean, with the intention of going to Japan, but the trip was abruptly brought to an end at Calcutta, and the yacht returned to Nice, and Mr. and Mrs. Vanderbilt separated.

An acquaintance says: "Mrs. Vanderbilt is a woman with a very strong will. That was demonstrated to those aboard the yacht during the cruise. She wanted to have her say as to the manner in which her husband and his friends should behave.

"She objected to their going ashore and staying all night, or even later than 10 in the evening. When the gentlemen wanted to play poker Mrs. Vanderbilt always insisted that one of them should stay out of the game to entertain her. They used to cut the cards for the sacrifice."

One prominent New Yorker says: "It is the general impression that Mrs. Vanderbilt will not seek a divorce, and I have heard that Cornelius Vanderbilt has a promise from William K. that he will not attempt a proceedings of that nature on his own behalf."

ANOTHER CASE.

Arthur Mackaye's Wife Said That She Had Ceased to Love Him.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—Arthur L. Mackaye, son of the late Steele Mackaye, had Paul Latzke, a newspaper man, arrested yesterday and held in $2000 bail in an action brought Latzke to recover $50,000 damages for the alienation of the affections of Flora Louise Mackaye, wife of the plaintiff.

This is the second wife of Mackaye, who is under 30 years of age. His first wife was Maud Miller, the only daughter of Joaquin Miller, the poet of the Sierras. Maud used to stay at the house of Steele Mackaye while she was in this city. One day young Mackaye and she ran off and were married. The young woman left Mackaye soon after the marriage on learning that he was a Protestant. The marriage occurred on Feb. 4, 1885.

On Jan. 8, 1886, she married Loudon McCormack, an actor, without a divorce from Mackaye. Mackaye subsequently got a divorce from her in this city because of her relations with McCormack. McCormack deserted the poet's daughter in 1889. She played in the "Land of the Midnight Sun" in this city last spring.

Mackaye married Flora Louise Cutler of Brooklyn in 1889. He had known Latzke a year before. The two men lived with their families in the same house in this city and at Staten Island, and were everywhere considered the best of friends. While Mrs. Mackaye was at Shirley, Mass., last June, she wrote letters telling her husband she no longer loved him.

He became suspicious, and going to Shirley last June upbraided her, and he declares she made a full confession of all her relations with Latzke. Mackaye has also sued his wife for an absolute divorce.

Advance of School Rates.

Where school children have been riding between Wollaston and Quincy, Atlantic and Quincy, and Quincy and Braintree for $1 per month, they will under the new rates on the N. Y. N. H. & H. R. R, which goes into effect Sept. 1, have to pay $6 for three months, the minimum rate for commutation and school term tickets. One dollar per month has been pretty cheap riding, but $2 per month will cause disatisfaction, and the move is unwise, particularly as the Quincy & Boston street railway has agreed to carry school children for a three cent fare. This is but six cents a day, or $1.50 per month if they attend every day.

McNary's Candidate.

The gossip of the day touching democratic politics had especial reference to the 10th congressional district, where it was claimed the regular party workers were solidifying their forces to completely shut out Congressman McEttrick from a regular democratic nomination. Mr. McNary, it was reiterated, would never tolerate any endorsement of Congressman McEttrick, although he himself (McNary) would not be a candidate. It was said during the day that the regular nomination would be given to one who would surely lead the party to victory, and this person would be, in all probability, Alderman Bordman Hall of Dorchester.—Globe.

A SOCIETY EVENT.

Miss Lucia E. Hollis of Braintree, Becomes Mrs. George E. Farrington.

One of the grandest weddings of Braintree was that of Thursday evening. Clouds threatened rain all day but did not mar the joyous occasion. The contracting parties were well known society young people, Miss Lucia Eugenia Hollis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Hollis, and Mr. George Edward Farrington of Chicago, Ill., formerly of Quincy.

The ceremony took place at 7.30, in the old First church of Braintree, the Rev. A. A. Ellsworth officiating. The edifice was beautifully decorated with palms and flowers.

The bride was charmingly gowned in a rich white satin, with duchesse lace and pearl trimmings. She carried lillies of the valley and the same flowers and a pearl star, the gift of the groom, fastened her veil.

The maid of honor was Miss Grace Wilde of Allston, whose gown was of white silk with chiffon and flowers.

There were four bridemaids, Miss Isabel H. Farrington of Moorehead, Minn., and Miss Annie L. Holbrook of Braintree, gowned in Nile green satin with chiffon and ribbons; Miss Sara Shaw of Braintree and Miss Grace Pennell of Chelsea, gowned in pink satin with chiffon and ribbons.

The groom was escorted by his brother, Mr. Wilber E. Farrington of Chicago, as best man, and the ushers were: Mr. E. Stanwood Hollis of Braintree, Mr. Frank B. Wilde of Allston, Mr. Frederick W. Hollis of Allston, Mr. A. Hollis White of Braintree, Mr. Alden A. Thorndike of Braintree, Mr. John Whicher of Quincy, Mr. Frederick B. Rice of Quincy and Mr. William Holbrook of Braintree.

The bride was given away by her father. Mr. R. E. Morrison, the organist, played the wedding march.

A grand reception followed the wedding ceremony from 8 to 10, at the beautiful residence of Mr. and Mrs. Hollis on Washington street, the house and grounds being brilliantly lighted by electricity. The guests were received in a spacious tent upon the lawn which was exquisitely decorated by Calder of Boston. Mr. and Mrs. Farrington were assisted in receiving by their parents and bridemaids. Refreshments were served in an adjoining tent.

The future residence of the young couple will be in Chicago, where Mr. Farrington is in business.

THE SLAVE'S STORY.

It is About a Rebellion that Ended in Flat Failure.

The wise old slave, Æsop, tells how the jaws and the arms refused to supply and to grind food for the stomach, which, they said, was a lazy thing living on its neighbors. Of course the rebellious members suffered and grew weak. As what we call science did not exist in Æsop's day, it isn't likely that even he understood the full force of this fable.

We understand today the supreme importance of treating the stomach well, for the consequences of indigestion extend from the brain to the toes. Because of bad digestion there are so many skinny, pale, bloodless men and women in the world. Nothing will fatten and strengthen them unless they can find a food that will pass from the stomach into the blood without digestion. Paskola is such a pre-digested food.

"It gives me great pleasure," says Dr. G. W. Babcock, of Chelsea, Mass., "to speak in the highest terms of your delightful preparation, Paskola. I have lately prescribed it for one of my lady patients, and I am greatly surprised at its wonderful power as a flesh producer The young lady has been out of health and losing flesh. She began taking Paskola as directed. Her weight was 103 pounds. She has taken four bottles and now weighs 109 pounds, and is looking much improved. She says she feels like a new creature. This change has been brought about by Paskola.

Another Physician's testimony:

OSWEGO, N. Y., May 31, 1894.

Gentlemen: The bottle of Paskola received a week ago today and I immediately commenced the use of it, in connection with Poland water. I am feeling very much better and have increased 1½ pounds. During the eight days' use of Paskola, no eructions of gas, in fact, seeming perfect digestion. If this condition continues I shall be a devotee of Paskola and will prescribe it when indicated to my patients. Sincerely yours,

E. M. MANWARREN, M. D.

Paskola may be obtained of any reputable retail druggist and a pamphlet fully descriptive will be mailed upon application to

I have lately prescribed it for one of my lady patients, and I am greatly surprised at its wonderful power as a flesh producer. The young lady has been out of health and losing flesh. She began taking Paskola as directed. Her weight was 103 pounds. She has taken four bottles and now weighs 109 pounds, and is looking much improved. She says she feels like a new creature. This change has been brought about by Paskola.

Another physician's testimony:

OSWEGO, N. Y., May 31, 1894.

Gentlemen: The bottle of Paskola received a week ago today and I immediately commenced the use of it, in connection with Poland water. I am feeling very much better and have increased 1½ pounds. During the eight days' use of Paskola, no eructions of gas, in fact, seeming perfect digestion. If this condition continues I shall be a devotee of Paskola and will prescribe it when indicated in my patients. Sincerely yours,

E. M. MANWARREN, M. D.

Paskola may be obtained of any reputable retail druggist and a pamphlet fully descriptive will be mailed upon application to

Come one, come all,
And buy before fall,
Which soon will be here,
So goods that were dear
Will have to go quick,
At one awful big lick,
Make way for Fall Styles,
Which will come many miles
From the great metropolis,
And also from gay Paris,
So call soon, a bargain to make,
And a nice hat you'll get if not too late.

A WOMAN'S LIFE.

SOME THINGS MEN DON'T CONSIDER

Thousands of Women Suffer Daily for Years without Complaining.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

Men cannot know the sensibilities hidden in the delicate organisms of women.

Thousands suffer without knowing why, and die the death daily for want of knowledge that relief is so close at hand.

Lydia E. Pinkham will forever stand highest in the love of suffering women.

Because she discovered the cause of woman's weakness and suffering, and found the means to remove it.

Diseases of the Uterus and ovarian troubles are most universal; you can see their ravages in pale faces; it is inicated by halting steps, dizziness, faintness, irritability, melancholy, extreme lassitude, nervousness, sleeplessness, and disturbances of the stomach. You will hear your friends speak of the dreadful "backache," the crushing sense of "bearing down."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for twenty years has saved women from all this. Hear this woman speak:—

"No man ever suffered a single pang like unto woman.

"Women, therefore, gladly turn to a woman for sympathy, counsel, and help in their peculiar troubles.

"Lydia E. Pinkham deserves the confidences showered upon her by thousands. Her Vegetable Compound has done more for women than any other remedy.

"The great cause of woman's misery is in her womb. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound goes direct to the source of trouble, drives out disease, and cures backache, fainting, despondency, bloating, ovarian troubles, and leucorrhœa.

"I would have been in my grave if I had not taken Mrs. Pinkham's medicines."

I then procured a fifty-cent bottle and took about two-thirds of it, and was cured. I have taken some twice since when I had a looseness come on and it stopped it at once. All that's Yellow is not Cottolene

There's hardly a housekeeper in the country but has heard of Cottolene the new vegetable shortening. It is a strictly natural product; composed only of clarified cotton seed oil, thickened for convenience in use, with refined beef suet—pure and sweet. So composed,

COTTOLENE

Was bound to win, and to drive out lard from the kitchens of the world. When housekeepers wish to get rid of the unpleasant features and results of lard, they should get Cottolene, taking care that they are not given cheap counterfeits with imitative names, spuriously compounded to sell in the place of Cottolene.

It's easy to avoid disappointment and insure satisfaction. Insist on having Cottolene.

HAWLEY MAKES A RECORD.

The Only Pitcher Who Has Won Two Games In a Boston Series.

BOSTON, Aug. 30.—Boston touched Hawley only in the fourth, when a single, double, triple and the homer of McCarthy gave them three runs, and sent the last three men to bat for strike-outs. Hawley makes a record as the only man to take two games in a Boston series. Miller's triple in the seventh, following three hits, won the game. Hodson pitched good ball and was well supported.

The Situation In Hawaii.

HONOLULU, Aug. 23.—The Mariposa this evening brought the news of Cleveland's recognition of the republic in a dispatch dated Washington, Aug 9. The news was received with rejoicing by the annexationists, and with a shade of doubt by the royalists. The Arawa is due tomorrow, and if it is found the dispatch is authentic, the government intends to celebrate. No attempts at a revolution have been made since the departure of the Philadelphia, although there are many rumors that the royalists contemplate a coup d'etat in the near future.

Fish Didn't Bite.

BUZZARD'S BAY, Mass., Aug. 31.—President Cleveland started out to conquer the fish in Buzzard's Bay shortly after his arrival yesterday. Directly after the midday lunch he was aboard the catboat Ruth. But few fish were captured; the boat had become becalmed down the bay. It is understood that the president intends to remain until October, subject to urgent duties which may require his presence at Washington.

Three Men Killed.

FERGUS FALLS, Minn., Aug. 31.—The engine of Knudson & Thorsen, who were threshing in Stonybrook, exploded yesterday. Hank Knudson was instantly killed. His father, Knute Knudson, was near by, and the top of his head was blown off. Tollof Andersen was 75 feet away when a piece of the boiler went through his thigh, killing him. Hans Thorsen, who was 30 feet away, was badly scalded, but may survive.

A Correction.

NARRAGANSETT PIER, Aug. 31. — The report that J. J. White of Brooklyn had been given up by his bondsmen is false. Application was made on Tuesday for a reduction of bail and the bonds were reduced. At the hearing Judge Douglass said that White had clearly shown proper intent in the case against Ellsworth B. Strong.

"Queered" Himself.

BATH, Me., Aug. 31.—Melvin Bessey, charged with wife murder, took the stand in his own defense yesterday, but under cross-examination weakened his case so that a conviction of murder in the first degree is expected. He wept freely, asserted his love for his wife and declared that he had never meant to do her any harm.

Zimmerman Feels Sore.

PARIS, Aug. 31.—The Nancy prize, 3000 metres, was won at the Buffalo velodrome by Harris. Banker was second. Zimmerman tried to beat Tyler's record for a mile with a flying start, but failed. Zimmerman said he believed that the timekeeper had been bribed to take the time improperly.

Wholesale Poisoning.

SOUTH ACTON, Mass., Aug. 31.—For a long time the family of Charles Wheeler has been seriously disturbed by the repeated poisoning of the cows, horses, dogs and cats on the place. To such an extent have the mysterious efforts been made that the town voted to offer a reward of $350.

Still Waiting.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—The Times publishes a letter from Hems & Sons, dealers in ecclesiastical art works at Exeter, vigorously protesting because successful exhibitors at the World's fair have not received their medals and awards.

For Cessation of War.

ANTWERP, Aug. 31.—The international peace congress adopted a resolution instructing the international bureau to approach various European governments with a view of putting a stop to the war between China and Japan.

The Czar's Outing.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 31.—The czar and czarina, with the czarewitch and their two youngest children, have started for the forest of Bjelovesh. Professor Zaccharin, the czar's medical attendant, accompanied the party.

The Spencer Divorce Case.

TRENTON, Aug. 31.—Mrs. J. J. Spencer, against whom her husband has filed a petition for a divorce on the ground of adultery, denies the charges. General Spencer and his wife have been living apart during the past two years.

Shameful Proceedings.

CAIRO, Aug. 31.—It is learned on high authority that notable personages are likely to be implicated in the scandal growing out of the traffic in slave girls.

CURES FOR INSOMNIA.

Lie in bed without a pillow. Apoplexy may be induced by this means and insomnia greatly alleviated by the cheerful novelty of an untried, dangerous, unbecoming and highly expensive disease.

Take a hearty lunch and brisk walk before retiring. This will probably give you indigestion and nightmare, so that your sleepless condition can justifiably be extended to and enjoyed by all other members of the household.

Undress in the dark. By the time you have fallen over all the furniture in the room you will understand why this custom is fashionable in Paris and Boston. Its devotees want to get wide awake so they can sit up all night and read Zola and Emerson.

Concentrate your mind on respiration and breathe with exaggeration. This also is calculated to arouse the house, and the pleasant remarks of those who surround your bed will diffuse a gratifying jocoseness through what small portion of the night may yet remain.

Sponge all over with tepid water several times before getting into bed. If this hygienic evolution is properly and carefully performed, it will be breakfast time when you are through and thus will be saved one entire night's wear and tear on the mattress and bedclothes.

If you are just falling into a doze and feel the folding bed closing, hear burglars getting in or smell the house on fire, don't move a muscle. One who has insomnia has business of her own to attend to, and the people who own the house ought to have sense enough to take care of it.—New York World.

TABLE TALK FROM AFAR.

The English people are famous diners.

Round tables are the most popular in France.

The Persians are great lovers of confectionery.

The modern dinner is a direct descendant of the feudal feast.

In Turkey the water pipe follows the repast. In Persia it comes first.

Silence and expedition are the chief characteristics of a Turkish dinner.

In China there is no equivalent of what is known to us as "the dinner party."

The Chinese show their courtesy by feeding their guests and visitors at any hour of the day.

Raw fish, garnished with red seaweed, is the crowning feature of an "away up" Japanese feast.

In England the number of invitations to dinner is a good gauge of the individual's popularity.

Forks are unknown in Turkey, but a good Mussulman washes his fingers before he begins to eat.

A French hostess is noted for her careful personal attention to all the details of her dinner, both before and during the event.—Good Housekeeping.

THE JEWELER'S ART.

Fancy pearls as a center setting for diamonds are advancing in popularity.

Mantel clocks of late production rest on an onyx base and are surmounted by a dome of like material.

Novel and new are satin finished aluminium watch dials, with the numerals surrounded by a floral design in enamel.

Two circular edged slabs of silver, within which are concealed a knife, file, nail cleaner and buttonhook, form a compact toilet article.

The chirping cricket has been selected as a design for a brooch. The piece is elaborately studded with rubies, diamonds and olivines.

A small silver cabinet, holding a spirit lamp, a pair of curling irons and comb and brush, has been rightly named "tourist's companion."

Heart shaped topaz colored carbuncles and those shading to a deep royal purple are much sought as mountings in lacepins and brooches.

A lariat, circular design, woven in alternate strands of platina and gold and set with emeralds and diamonds, is a peerless hair ornament.

A miniature divan made of silver and filigree work upholstered in blue plush is one of the most attractive boudoir dressing pincushions yet seen.

GEMS OF THOUGHT.

It is better to fail in trying to do good than not try.

What do we live for except to make life less difficult to one another?

Move yourself and you will move the world. It is the only way to do it.

The great high road of human welfare lies along the old highway of steadfast well doing.

The truly brave are soft of heart and eyes and feel for what their duty bids them do.

Thou must learn to bridle and break thy will in many things if thou wilt live a quiet life.

Confidence of success is almost success, and obstacles often fall of themselves before a determination to overcome them.

Often do we think when we ought to act, and act when it behooves us to reflect. Hence caution is frequently as fatal as rashness.

No one can ask honestly or hopefully to be delivered from temptation unless he has himself honestly and firmly determined to do the best he can to keep out of it. —Montreal Star.

CROWN AND SCEPTER.

Muley Hassan left nearly 2,000 loving wives to mourn his untimely taking off.

It is related as an instance of royal thrift that the queen of Denmark still mends her kingly husband's clothes.

The Princess of Wales has a tea service consisting of 60 pieces, and every piece has upon it a photograph taken by the princess in Scotland.

To Queen Natalie of Servia belongs the distinction of owning the finest head of hair among the royalties of Europe. She usually wears it hanging in two long plaits down her back.

The Comtesse de Paris, like her son-in-law, the king of Portugal, is passionately fond of bull fighting, and like him, too, frequently descends into the arena and tackles the bull herself. She has had more than one horse disemboweled under her.

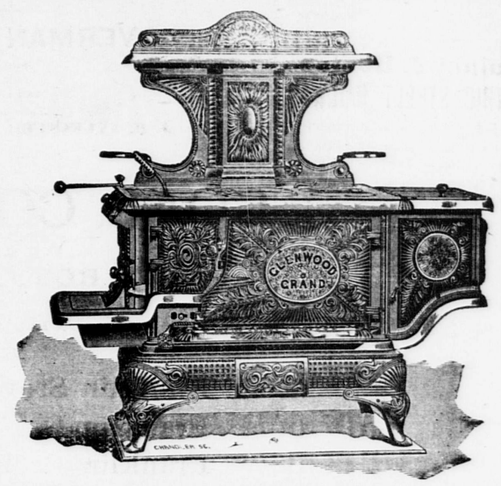

Of the 30 odd European sovereigns, Queen Victoria alone has a great-grandson in the direct line of succession. Of the others, only five have even grandsons in the direct line—namely, the sovereigns of Sweden and Norway, Denmark, Greece, Mecklenburg-Strelitz and Saxe-Meiningen.

PATENTS

NOTICE TO INVENTORS.

THERE Was never a time in the history of our country when the demand for inventions and improvements in the arts and sciences generally was so great as now. The conveniences of man-kind in the factory and work-shop, the household, on the farm, and in official life, require continual accessions to the appurtances and implements of each in order to save labor, time and expense. The political change in the administration of government does not affect the progress of the American inventor, who, being on the alert, and ready to perceive the existing deficiences, does not permit the affairs of government to deter him from quickly conceiving the remedy to overcome existing discrepancies. Too great care cannot be exercised in choosing a competent and skilful attorney to prepare and prosecute an application for patent. Valuable interests have been lost and destroyed in innumerable instances by the employment of incompetent counsel, and especially is this advice applicable to those who adopt the "No patent, no pay" system. Inventors who intrust their business to this class of attorneys do so at imminent risk, as the breadth and strength of the patent is never considered in view of a quick endeavor to get an allowance and obtain the fee then due. THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY, John Wedderburn, General Manager, 618 F street, N. W., Washington, D. C., representing a large number of important daily and weekly papers, as well as general periodicals of the country, was instituted to protect its patrons from the unsafe methods heretofore employed in this line of business. The said Company is prepared to take charge of all patent business entrusted to it for reasonable fees, and prepares and prosecutes applications generally, including mechanical inventions, design patents, trade marks, labels, copyrights, interferences, infringements, validity reports, and gives especial attention to rejected cases. It is also prepared to enter into competition with any firm in securing foreign patents.

FIGHTING AT SAMOA.

Warships Forcibly Interfere In the Row Among the Natives.

REBEL CHIEFS RECEIVED WARNING.

It Was Unheeded and a Bombardment Followed.

APIA, Aug. 15.—The ships of Great Britain and Germany have at last taken action with a view to ending the native disturbances which have heretofore appeared to be interminable. Two skirmishes had taken place between the warring tribes, resulting in the killing of eight or 10 natives and the wounding of many more, and besides, the natives had become short of food, not having planted or looked after their crops, and they had taken to stealing from foreigners throughout the island.

Their mode of living has produced a great deal of illness, much suffering and many deaths, so that in the interests of common humanity interference by the powers became absolutely necessary. Something had to be done to put a stop to the so-called warfare. It was with this end in view that the diplomatic and naval officials held several conferences. The ultimate result was a resolution to notify the rebels that they must disperse from their fortified stronghold at La Tuanua or suffer a shelling from the guns of the warships.

La Tuanua Shelled.

On Friday, Aug. 10, the British warship Curacoa and the German warship Buzzard left Apia for La Tuanua. Arrived there the rebel chiefs were called on board the gunboats and informed their stronghold would be bombarded at 9 o'clock the following morning. During Friday night, however, the rebels evacuated the place.

On Saturday morning the fortifications were shelled by the warships, and all but destroyed. The king's warriors had been sent overland to co-operate with the gunboats in the attack on the rebels. When the bombarding gunners had finished their work King Malietoa's warriors were signalled to advance and occupy the deserted position.

Before these warriors evacuated La Tuanua they set fire to all the huts in the vicinity, as well as their forts, the destruction of which the bombarders finished, and destroyed all the bread fruit trees which were growing near. The naval authorities again communicated with the rebel chiefs, and ordered them to disperse and surrender their rifles. Instead of obeying the mandate, however, the rebels moved off toward Satuafata, which is less than 15 miles from Apia, and it was decided to again advance upon them.

Rebels Determined to Fight.

On Sunday morning the rebels and the king's warriors, who numbered fully 600, came together at Lufilufi. The rebels made an attack and killed and wounded several of Malietoa's men. During all of Sunday there was desultory fighting, and the naval commanders resolved to again attack the rebels and deal with them summarily.

Early on Monday morning, Aug. 13, the Curacoa and Buzzard changed their positions and again opened fire on the rebels, killing and injuring a large number. Simultaneously the king's warriors attacked them on shore. In the fight the king lost six killed and several wounded. At this writing it is impossible to ascertain a reliable estimate of the rebel loss, but it is known to have been heavy.

The Curacoa commander was eager to catch the mail steamer Mariposa that he might report the result of his operations to the British government. The Buzzard remained at the scene of action to receive the rifles from the rebels and see that they carried out their promises.

Another Battle.

Great was the surprise of the commander of the Caracoa when at midnight last night the Buzzard signalled that Chief Tamahez, leader of the Aana rebels, had joined the Atau party with over 400 Aana men, and that these combined forces had attacked the king's warriors. Throughout the night the roar of the Buzzard's guns could be heard.

This morning the Curacoa got under way again and left for the scene of the trouble. Captain Gibson left determined to demand complete surrender of the rebels, and unless the rebels are submissive the slaughter will undoubtedly be terrible, as his gunners will fire to kill.

It is now certain that unless vigorous measures are takan, the position of the foreigners here will be critical. At the hour of the sailing of the Mariposa it is reported the rebels have made complete surrender, but the rumor lacks confirmation.

Valuable Horseflesh.

HARTFORD, Aug. 31.—At the Charter Oak races Nellie A captured three heats in the Nutmeg $20,000 purse, winning first money, $10,000, for her owner, T. C. Anglin of Lexington, Ky. He also got $1000 for being her breeder. Coincident got second money, $4000; Ruprecht third, $3000, and Precieuse fourth, $1000.

Delay Is Dangerous.

LAWRENCE, Mass., Aug. 31.—The overseers of the poor have pronounced the almshouse buildings veritable fire-traps and breeders of disease. The city council is condemned in immeasureable terms for its neglect in the matter. It is probable that steps will immediately be taken to erect new buildings.

NEW LONDON, Conn., Aug. 31.—Torpedo boat Ericsson, which is to undergo her trial trip off this harbor, arrived here last evening. Before making the speed trial she will be hauled out on the marine ways to be thoroughly cleaned and weighted.

Managers Squabbled.

NEW HAVEN, Aug. 31. — The New Haven baseball team was disbanded. The plan of playing on the co-operative plan was not successful, and the trouble was increased by a fight for the funds among the managers.

Big Bomb on the Track.

PORTLAND, Me., Aug. 31.—A deliberate attempt was made to wreck a Grand Trunk train yesterday near Fish Point in this city. An 11-inch shell was found on the track just before the Montreal express arrived.

CHATTANOOGA, Aug. 31.—This city has been officially selected as the place of meeting for the next biennial international congress of the Epworth league.

COMPULSORY ARBITRATION

Overshadowed by a Plan Which Works Easily and Yields Good Results.

BOSTON, Aug. 31.—Compulsory arbitration is a prolific theme for writers on sociology and kindred topics. The plan has many advocates and as many opponents, the main argument of the latter being that it proposes an invasion of personal liberty. It is generally conceded that if, without infringing upon constitutional rights, labor difficulties could be adjusted through the intervention of the law, it would eliminate much that is now deplored in the frequent strifes between labor and capital. Richard P. Barry of the state board of arbitration favors a plan which he describes as follows:

"The plan is in operation in nearly all the shoe factories, and has worked admirably. Its more extensive adoption would, in my opinion, greatly lessen the number of strikes. When an employe enters the service of a firm he is required to sign an agreement. This agreement, which is a perfectly fair one, provides that all differences shall be settled by arbitration. The employer and employe bind themselves in this manner to the end that they both may benefit thereby.

"When differences arise, a conference follows, and if the result of this talk on the question in dispute is unsatisfactory, the matter, as per agreement, is submitted to the state board of arbitration for adjustment. This plan has worked satisfactorily, and in none of the factories where it is in force has there ever been a serious rupture.

"The idea contained in the scheme is along the line of compulsory arbitration, and as it becomes more generally understood, is likely to meet with more extensive approval and adoption. As for compulsory arbitration, I think that it is feasible in a limited or restricted sense.

"For instance, I think that when the legislature grants a railroad or railway corporation a charter it should contain a clause that, in event of a strike, causing widespread public inconvenience or suffering, the company shall be compelled to submit the question to the state board of arbitration. This would place the responsibility on the corporation's employes, and would undoubtedly do much toward diminishing the evil effects of strikes. Certain it is that something must be done to lessen the number of disturbances between capital and labor."

Print Prices Still Rising.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Aug. 31.—The print cloth market holds firm at 2⅞ cents for 64x64s, and indications point to a further advance before many days. Between 75,000 and 100,000 pieces have been disposed of thus far this week. Manufacturers are disposed to hang on to goods until the labor troubles are over.

Convention Closed.

LEWISTON, Me., Aug. 31.—The convention of the Christian Endeavor society closed with an address on "History of the Cross" by Alice M. Kyle, a praise service and an address on "Motives for Christian Endeavor" by Rev. Smith Baker, D. D. The convention next year will be held in Houlton.

Pilot Was Misled.

LACONIA, N. H., Aug. 31.—The lake steamer Eagle last night went on to Middle Ledge and keeled over badly. Thirty passengers were badly scared, but they were safely gotten off by a passing craft. The accident may be charged to a strange light on the shore which deceived the pilot.

PATENTS

FOR INVENTIONS.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuable inventions because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With the view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys, and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, we have retained counsel expert in patent practice, and therefore are prepared to

Obtain Patents in the United States and all Foreign Countries, Conduct Interferences, Make Special Examinations, Prosecute Rejected Cases, Register Trade-Marks and Copyrights, Render Opinions as to Scope and Validity of Patents, Prosecute and Defend Infringement Suits, Etc., Etc.

If you have an invention on hand send a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be at once advised as to the best course to pursue. Models are seldom necessary. If others are infringing on your rights, or if you are charged with infringement by others, submit the matter to us for a reliable OPINION before acting on the matter.
